reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife." MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT's directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet -----
stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.

Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora -----
stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.
Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.
BARILLAS, Rudy C

related the same facts as BARILLAS re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at BARILLAS, attempting to cut him. BARILLAS stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.

A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, Anais CALDERON was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. CALDERON said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, Jay DARFHANE. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, DARFHANE stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. DARFHANE did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by Craig FUTTERMAN, a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. FUTTERMAN was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. FUTTERMAN stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and FUTTERMAN did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. FUTTERMAN said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked Rudy BARILLAS; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

Detective's Comments

This case was the subject of a Major Case Review on 30 October 2014. This request is submitted per the results of this review.

The offender, Lequan MCDONALD, assaulted the three victim Chicago Police Officers with a knife, and was shot and killed by victim Police Officer Jason VAN DYKE. MCDONALD's knife and Officer VAN DYKE's weapon were recovered and inventoried. It is requested that Officer VAN DYKE's weapon be examined and compared to the firearms evidence recovered from the scene, and from the offender, MCDONALD, both at Mount Sinai Hospital and at the Office of the Medical Examiner. It is requested that MCDONALD's knife be examined for latent fingerprints, and if any are found, that they be compared to the fingerprints of MCDONALD.

Twenty-Six (26) total arrests with various charges lodged prior to this incident—including Aggravated Battery to Peace Officer, Battery, Assault, Reckless Conduct, Possession of Controlled Substance and Possession Cannabis, with some offenses having occurred during instruction on school grounds, while in state detention/custody, and during courtroom proceedings. During twelve (12) of the arrest incidents McDonald attempted to defeat arrest by fleeing on foot and/or actively physically resisting.
The above to-date investigation determined that Jaquan McDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked and attempted to stab Rudy BARILLAS; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a CPD vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force – the discharging of his duty firearm – was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's Use of Force guidelines and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above the associated UCR Report RD-HX-486155 is considered Closed/Non-Criminal.

MR. NEUMER: As a preliminary matter, I am providing the following information. An independent certified court reporter is present today to provide a verbatim transcript of this interview.

To aid in the accuracy of the transcript, it is the custom and practice of court reporters to audio record the interview. The recording is the confidential work product property of the court reporter and will not be provided to any party including the OIG. If you request, the audio recording will be discontinued.

So, Detective March, are you okay with the court reporter audio recording this interview?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: Let the record reflect that today's date is July 25th, 2016. The time is 9:59 am. We are located at Amicus Court Reporters, 300 West Adams, Suite 800.

My name is Peter Neumer, the court reporter is Michelle Yohler, and I'd ask that the other individuals present identify themselves and spell their name for the record.

MS. WITZBURG: Assistant Inspector General,
Deborah Witzburg, D-e-b-o-r-a-h W-i-t-z-b-u-r-g.

MR. MCKAY: James P. McKay, Jr. Last name is spelled M-c-K-a-y. I'm an attorney, and I represent Detective David March.

THE WITNESS: Detective David March. Last name is spelled M-a-r-c-h.

MR. NEUMER: Detective March, I'm now going to hand you a form that's Advisements of Rights. This has been marked previously as Exhibit 1. This Advisement of Rights form has already been filled in with your name, my name, my colleague Deborah Witzburg's name.

I'm going to ask you to read along with me as I go through this form, and I'm going to ask you to acknowledge after each paragraph that you've read the paragraph.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 1, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

MR. MCKAY: Peter, before we begin, can I put something on the record?

MR. NEUMER: For sure.
MR. McKay: Peter, recently my client, Detective March, was notified of this appearance here this morning. The Notification of Interview describes Detective March as an accused. The appearance suggests that Detective David March's false statements concerning the McDonald shooting and a review and approval of reports containing false statements.

The allegations include, number one, that Detective March reviewed and approved an Original Case Incident Report prepared by Officer Dora Fontaine and that report falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was, quote, injured by offender.

Secondly, that Detective March is accused of assisting in the drafting of the report I just mentioned.
Three, that Detective March made a false statement to Investigator Earl Briggs of the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office when, with respect to the shooting, Officer Briggs' report indicates that McDonald lunged at Chicago police officers.

And the fourth allegation is that Detective March is incompetent in the performance of his duties in the ways enumerated by allegations one through three.

Mr. Neumer, I'm asking you do you believe these new allegations indicate a criminal prosecution is probable against Detective March?

MR. NEUMER: OIG is conducting an administrative investigation. OIG is not conducting a joint investigation and is not working with any other law enforcement agency with respect to this investigation.

MR. McKAY: Thank you. I would ask, however, that you advise Detective March of his Constitutional rights pursuant to Miranda versus Arizona.

It's unclear whether a criminal investigation is going to take place and, if so, who will be doing that. A special prosecutor has yet to be named regarding any of the police officers not named Jason Van Dyke in this particular case. So, with that said, I ask that you advise Detective March of his Constitutional rights pursuant to Miranda versus Arizona.

MR. NEUMER: The outcome of this administrative investigation relates to the subject's employment and, therefore, under the CBA and General Order, the administrative rights OIG will be providing Detective March are appropriate.

MR. MCKAY: Consistent with Detective March's last statement, indeed, Detective March was here for two days on April 26th and 27th of this year. His statement spanned what I estimate to be almost 12 hours.

Mr. Neumer, you were here, the court reporter Michelle Paoletti Yohler was here, Investigator Kris Brown was here, myself, and Detective March were here. At that time I had asked whether Mr. William Marback's letter to the Chicago
Police Department command staff dated on January 4, 2016, requesting a number of items be provided to the Office of Inspector General, and at that time no answer was given regarding these items that were requested, which include 25 separate things.

I ask you today, Mr. Neumer, are you going to be using any items the Office of Inspector General has received since Mr. Marback's letter of January 4th, 2016, and any subsequent letters issued by either Mr. Marback, you, or any other agent of the Inspector General and Detective March's statement here today?

MR. NEUMER: So the question is, are we going to be using any documents we received since what date was it?

MR. MCKAY: January 4, 2016.

MR. NEUMER: It's possible. For certain we will be putting in front of Detective March the two exhibits or documents that we provided as part of the Notice of Interview packet.

So that will be the Medical Examiner Investigation Case Report ME 2014-01071, and then the Original Case Incident Report with the event number 1429315878.

So those are the two documents that we will be certainly showing Detective March today.

MR. McKAY: We acknowledge receipt of those two documents, Peter, when you forwarded them to me late last week. Thank you.

My question now is, in addition to these two documents, do you intend to use or is it possible you could use any other documents at this statement today besides these two reports?

MR. NEUMER: It is possible.

MR. McKAY: What are they?

MR. NEUMER: When we come to appropriate points in the interview, if documents are necessary, we'll certainly give you and
Detective March time to review those documents.
But, again, we don't know what we will or won't
need to show.

MR. McKAY: Okay. Late last week when you advised me of this second interview of Detective
March and provided me the two reports we have just talked about, I had sent you a request for discovery, essentially where I was asking for you or your office to provide me with any statements of any witnesses that indicate that Detective March was asked to review and approve Officer Fontaine's report that you have provided.

Do you have any statements that you can provide me and Detective March here this morning from other witnesses about Officer Fontaine's report?

MR. NEUMER: So our office has provided
Detective March with all the documents required
by the CBA and applicable law.

MR. McKAY: Secondly, I asked you in writing and I ask you again today on the record, can you provide me and Detective March with any rule or General Order from the police department or any other agency that indicates that a detective is supposed to review and approve or disapprove of a report prepared by a district
police officer?

MR. NEUMER: Again, our office has provided
Detective March with all the documents required
by the CBA and applicable law.
MR. McKAY: Thank you. Can you provide me with any sworn testimony of Cook County Medical Examiner's Office Investigator Earl Briggs?

MR. NEUMER: Again, our office has provided Detective March with all the documents provided -- required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Can you tell me if Investigator Earl Briggs has given a statement to the Office of Inspector General?

MR. NEUMER: Again, OIG has provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Can you tell me whether Investigator Briggs has not given a statement to the Office of Inspector General?

MR. NEUMER: Again, we've provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Thank you. Mr. Neumer, can you tell me -- strike that. Can you provide to me and Detective March any statements, notes, internal memorandum, or any other documents generated by Investigator Earl Briggs of the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office besides the report that you gave to me and Detective March late last week?

MR. NEUMER: OIG has provided Detective March with all the documents required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Can you tell me -- because I can't read it, frankly -- who Earl Briggs' supervisor was, a signature of which is contained on Page 4 of this four-page report you gave to us late last week? Can you tell us who Mr. Briggs' supervisor is?

MR. NEUMER: Again, in terms of documents and information, we've provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: And this is one document you have provided.

MR. NEUMER: Mm-hm. Yes.

MR. McKAY: My question is, who is this person, a signature of which appears above the supervisor line on Page 4? Who is that? For my purpose, for my curiosity as well as Detective March's right to know who his accusers may be, who is this person? I can't read that signature. Can you?

    MR. NEUMER: Again, we've provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by --

    MR. McKAY: That doesn't answer my question, Peter. Who is the supervisor?

    MR. NEUMER: Right. I mean, the document speaks for itself. And, beyond that, we've provided all the -- Detective March all the documents and information required under the CBA.

    MR. McKAY: Are you relying on this document for your interview of Detective March today?

    MR. NEUMER: We will be providing this -- we already provided this document to Detective March, and we will be asking him questions regarding this document today.

    MR. McKAY: So you will be relying on this document?

    MR. NEUMER: I mean, relying on -- I know we will be asking questions about the Medical Examiner's Case Report today.
MR. McKAY: Well, my question is this then,

Peter: If you're going to be asking questions about this document, yet you refuse to identify the supervisor of Investigator Briggs, whose name appears in this document, I ask that you not ask Detective March anything about this document if you cannot identify signatures on this document above and beyond Mr. Briggs'.
That's fair, don't you agree?

MR. NEUMER: We're going to be asking Detective March questions about his knowledge of this document and what he knows. We're not going to be asking him to speculate about anything beyond the document, so our questions
are going to be eminently fair today.

MR. McKAY: Well, if it is clear to you,
Ms. Witzburg, or anybody in the Inspector General's Office that there are errors contained in Investigator Briggs' report, which you have tendered, will you or have you or will anybody
in your office report to Patrick Blanchard, the Inspector General of Cook County, that the people who generated this report need to be investigated for incompetence?
MR. NEUMER: If we uncover facts that determine a notification is appropriate, certainly we would take appropriate action.

MR. McKAY: All right. Fair enough. Can you provide me with the names of the complainants besides John Escalante and Sergeant Soria and their affidavits, assuming they're civilians and not sworn police officers, that provide a basis for these new allegations.

MR. NEUMER: The Notification of Allegations that OIG provided to Detective March fully complies with the CBA and speaks for itself.

MR. McKAY: Well, if you are basing these new allegations on Mr. John Escalante's letter of January 13th, 2016, and Sergeant Soria's memo of July 15th, 2015, clearly John Escalante's letter suggests that the investigation he's asking your office to conduct be consistent with the Collective Bargaining Agreement, General Orders, and I submit consistent with Illinois State Law.

Illinois State Law clearly mandates that if there is a complainant who is not a sworn officer alleging some misconduct on behalf of any police officer -- in this case, Detective March -- that complainant's allegations be supported by affidavit.

You have no affidavit to provide me and Detective March today; is that correct?

MR. NEUMER: Again, the Notification of Allegations speaks for itself and we believe fully complies with the CBA and applicable law.

MR. McKAY: Your allegations one through -- strike that -- one and two suggesting that David March has some type of duty to either review and approve Dora Fontaine's report or that he actually assisted her in preparing this report, I submit to you, John Escalante would know that that is absolutely not true.

So if you are alleging numbers one and two allegations based on John Escalante's letter, I would submit to you that is absolutely inconsistent with John Escalante's knowledge of Chicago Police Department procedure, report-writing, and who approves a district police officer's report.

Since I believe in good faith John Escalante would not allege these things, can you tell me who is?

MR. NEUMER: Again, OIG's position is that the Notice of Allegations complies fully with the CBA and it speaks for itself.

MR. MCKAY: I would submit to you then,
Mr. Neumer, in all due respect to you and
Ms. Witzburg, that without some affidavit of some civilian complainant alleging this stuff, I believe in good faith that it is none other than
Mr. Ferguson and your office that is alleging these things without a good faith basis.

With that said, we are objecting to Joseph Ferguson and his office investigating his own allegations, and I request again, as we did back in April, that Mr. Ferguson and his office
recuse themselves from his investigation
because, two reasons: One, it is wrong for him to investigate his own allegations. That's not fair.

Secondly, we ask that Mr. Ferguson and his office, with all due respect to the both of you, that he recuse himself from this investigation because he's prejudice against
Detective March because of his presence on the Police Accountability Task Force and the report that that task force submitted before they heard one sworn word from Detective March in April in that that report suggests certain findings of the Laquan McDonald shooting that are completely inconsistent with what Detective March told you and Kris Brown on April 26th and April 27th.

And Mr. Ferguson should recuse himself and his agents from any further investigation of this shooting because of that report he put his name on along with the chairperson of the police board, Lori Lightfoot.

So will you recuse yourselves and Mr. Ferguson from this investigation today?

MR. NEUMER: OIG is not going to recuse itself from this investigation, and OIG's position is that it can and is conducting a fair and impartial investigation.

MR. MCKAY: As you know, Mr. Neumer, two grievances have been filed in this particular case, one by Chicago FOP. In fact, that grievance had been filed before Detective March gave you sworn testimony on April 26th and April 27th. Since then, a second grievance has been filed, indeed, by Detective March. We're objecting to this investigation continuing with those grievances still pending. No arbitrator has ruled on those grievances, and the Inspector General has not agreed to continue this investigation until an arbitrator has ruled on them.

Will you, on behalf of Mr. Ferguson, stop this investigation and wait for the arbitrator to rule on these two grievances?

MR. NEUMER: OIG is not aware of any court order enjoining Detective March's interview and, therefore, having provided the appropriate Notice of Interview, OIG will proceed with the interview.

MR. McKay: Okay. Of the two reports that you have provided in discovery to Detective March and myself, you have indicated one is Investigator Earl Briggs' Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report.

I would like to ask you, Mr. Neumer, when did you or your office receive Investigator Briggs' report?
MR. NEUMER: Again, OIG has provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA, and, beyond that, we have a duty of confidentiality.

MR. McKAY: Well, the reason I ask the question is because Detective March was here for one full day and half of a second day. If you did have this report then, Mr. Neumer, why didn't you ask Detective March about Investigator Briggs' report then?

MR. NEUMER: I guess I'll just say we're here today and we have relevant questions to ask today pertaining to our investigation.

MR. McKAY: Well, I appreciate that, but, Peter, if they're relevant questions today -- and, further, if you had this report back then in April, weren't they relevant in April and, if so, why didn't you ask Detective March when you had him for almost two full days in April about this report?

MR. NEUMER: We can't -- our office can't provide details regarding timing. I understand your question and, again, we try and ask all relevant questions as soon as we can.
MR. McKAY: Well, I think timing is relevant. I think out of fundamental fairness of the accused -- and you have accused Detective March, let's make no mistake about that -- out of fundamental fairness, I think timing is relevant.

And if you had this information and he was here and cooperated and gave sworn testimony, why didn't you and Mr. Brown ask him about Investigator Briggs' report then?

MR. NEUMER: Again, we're going to ask questions today.

MR. McKAY: I do know, sir, that regarding Dora Fontaine's report, you did have it in April. Indeed, you marked it as your Exhibit Number 18. For some reason, you chose not to use it, but you did mark it as Exhibit 18.

And I would ask you, Mr. Neumer, why didn't you ask Detective March about Officer Dora Fontaine's report on April 26th or April 27th of this year?

MR. NEUMER: And I think, as I said in the transcript during that interview, we try and ask all relevant questions, we try and be thorough,
and we do our best.

MR. McKay: The Advisement of Rights form that you have just provided, is this the exact same form that you provided to Detective March on April 26th of this year?

MR. Neumer: It should be.

MR. McKay: Well, I am advising Detective March to refuse to answer your questions today on July 25th, 2016, without a direct order by one of his superior officers.

Short of a direct order, I believe Detective March is certainly within his rights, both the rights under the collective bargaining agreement, Illinois State Law, and his Constitution rights not to answer your questions.

Is there going to be a direct order from some superior officer directing Detective March to answer these questions?

MR. Neumer: Yes, I will contact Commander Klimas right now and have him provide Detective March a direct order.

MR. McKay: Can you spell Commander Klimas' name for the court reporter.
MR. NEUMER: Sure. It is Robert R-o-b-e-r-t, Klimas K-l-i-m-a-s.

MR. MCKAY: Thank you.

(PHONE RINGING)

COMMANDER KLIMAS: Bob Klimas.

MR. NEUMER: Bob, this is Peter Neumer. We are currently in a court-reported interview of Detective David March. His counsel Jim McKay is here. My colleague Deborah Witzburg is here.

And OIG having provided appropriate notice to Detective March of this interview is attempting to ask Detective March questions regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting. He is refusing to answer questions absent a command from his superior officer, so I'm asking you, Commander Klimas, to order Detective March to answer the OIG's questions.

COMMANDER KLIMAS: This is Commander Robert Klimas, K-l-i-m-a-s, with the Chicago Police Department Bureau of Internal Affairs.

Detective March, I'm giving you a direct order to answer all the questions posed to you today by Peter Neumeder or his designees from the Office of Inspector General, City of Chicago.

Do you understand?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

COMMANDER KLIMAS: Thank you very much.

MR. NEUMER: Thanks, Bob.

MR. MCKAY: Thank you.

I'd like to put one more thing on the record. Peter, last time you and I talked by telephone, actually it was late last week, Detective March originally had been notified to appear on this past Saturday night at 9:00 p.m.

You had advised me that the date and time for Detective March's second statement was because OIG is required to notify the officer when he is on duty. You were kind enough to continue the statement from Saturday night to this morning, pursuant to my request, actually, and I appreciate that. Thank you.

You also advised me that Detective March's statement, whenever it was going to be continued to, needed to be completed by the end of business hours tomorrow on July 26th. I asked you then why that is the case and I ask you again today why is it that Detective March's second sworn statement needs to be today or tomorrow at the latest?

   MR. NEUMER: I mean, OIG has a duty of confidentiality, so the details regarding our investigation I can't provide any further information.

   MR. McKAY: Well, your statement to me over the phone infers that time is of the essence. I think that Detective March has the right to know
   why, in the OIG's mind, time is of the essence.

   MR. NEUMER: I think time is of the essence for every investigation and probably in particular this investigation.

   MR. McKAY: If time was of the essence in April when you, at the very least had Officer
   Dora Fontaine's report, why didn't you ask Detective March about Officer Fontaine's report
   at that time?

   And I submit if you had Earl Briggs'
   report from the Medical Examiner's Office at that time, why didn't you ask Detective March about that as well if truly time is of the essence in this investigation?

   MR. NEUMER: We do try to ask all relevant questions and be as thorough as possible.

MR. McKay: With all due respect, Peter, and I understand you and Ms. Witzburg have a job to do, and I appreciate the job you are both doing along with Kristopher Brown, but frankly, with all due respect, none of your answers today to my questions were responsive to my questions, and I object to that in addition to all my other objections. Thank you.

MR. Neumer: So we were going through our preamble prior to the objections being placed on the record. So at this time I'd ask that the court reporter swear Detective March in.

(WHEREUPON, the witness was duly sworn.)

MR. Neumer: I'm going to go through the Advisement of Rights form with you, Detective March. Again, I'm going to ask you to read along with me as I go through this advisement, and I'll ask you after each paragraph to acknowledge you have read the paragraph I just read aloud to you.

"I, Detective David March, understand that I am being interviewed by Peter Neumer and Deborah Witzburg from the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General. I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the question. I further understand and I have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the rules and regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.
MR. NEUMER: "I understand and have been advised that my statements and responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's rules and regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud you to?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that I have the right to have a union representative or legal counsel of my choosing present at the interview
to consult with and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed."

Detective March, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that a refusal to answer any question or any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56 and may serve as the basis for my discharge."

Detective March, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me and I have been allowed to review this document."

Detective March, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: At this time I would ask that you sign the Advisement of Rights form, and my colleague and I will witness.

I'm now going to put several exhibits
on the record and present them to Detective
March to confirm his receipt of the exhibits.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. First I am going to be handing you
what is titled Notification of Interview to CPD
member. This is marked as Exhibit 2.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 2, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. This Notification of Interview is dated July 20th, 2016. Detective March, have you seen this Notification of Interview document
prior to today?

A.  Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this document on or about July 20th, 2016?

A.  Yes.

Q. And is that your signature at the bottom of the page of Exhibit 2?

A.  Yes.

Q. I am now going to --

MR. McKay: Can I retain these exhibits for my file?

MR. Neumer: No. No. We always keep them. You'll get these when you get the transcript.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I'm now handing you what is titled Notification of Allegations. This is marked as Exhibit 3.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 3, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, have you seen this Notification of Allegations prior to today?

A.  Yes.
Q. And did BIA provide you with this Exhibit 3, Notification of Allegations, on or about July 20, 2016?
A. Yes.

Q. And is that your signature at the bottom of Page 1 of the Notification of Allegations?
A. Yes.

Q. I am now going to hand you what has previously been marked as Exhibit 4 titled Receipt Form.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 4, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, have you seen this Receipt Form prior to today?
A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this Receipt Form on or about July 20th, 2016?
A. Yes.

Q. And is that your signature at the bottom of the Receipt Form?
A. Yes.
Q. And I am now going to be handing you what has previously been marked as Exhibit 5.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 5, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. This is a Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report ME2014-01071 dated October 21st, 2014. Have you seen this document, Detective March, prior to today?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this Case Report on or about July 20th, 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. And I'm now going to be handing you what has previously been marked Exhibit 6. This is an Original Case Incident Report with the RD number HX475653 and the event number 1429315878, case ID 9825613.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 6, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, have you seen this Exhibit 6 Original Case Incident Report prior to today?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this document on or about July 20th, 2016?

A. Yes.

MR. MCKAY: Peter is this report -- you're marking this as Exhibit 6?

MR. NEUMER: Yes.

MR. MCKAY: You are not going to keep it Exhibit 18, which is what it was marked by you on April 26th?

MR. NEUMER: Right, we are going to call it Exhibit 6. I think that will be easier for today's purposes to call it Exhibit 6 for the July 25th. But, again --

MR. MCKAY: But you'll agree it was your Exhibit 18 back in April?

MR. NEUMER: Right, I don't remember if it was -- if you represent 18, I certainly -- I don't dispute that.

MR. MCKAY: All right.
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, did you review any materials in preparation for today’s interview?

A. Yes.

Q. And what materials did you review?

A. The documents that I received from Internal Affairs on last Wednesday and then I also reviewed several reports from the investigative file.

Q. Do you remember which reports you reviewed?

A. I believe they were all reports that I authored that we talked about previously.

Q. Okay. In our April 26th and 27th interview?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you review any video in preparation for this interview?

A. No.

Q. Aside from your attorney, who did you speak to in preparation for this interview?

A. No one.

MR. NEUMER: And then before we get started with our questions, I just want to confirm, Jim, are you okay with OIG providing you with a copy of the transcript of today's interview within 48 hours of the OIG's receipt of that transcript?

MR. McKay: I have no objection to employing the same procedure of receiving the transcript as the previous transcript in April.

I understand -- if you get the transcript on a Friday, you can't get it to me that same day, but I ask that if the court reporter can provide me with the transcript on, say, a Tuesday or Wednesday, I'd like it the same day you guys get it.

I am relying on you suggesting that the statement should not be more than about an hour. I don't think it would take that long to copy that statement or make a copy of a disk if that's how Ms. Paoletti Yohler is going to provide the transcript to you.

MR. Neumer: And, just for the record, I think my representation was that OIG's portion of the questioning would take an hour. And we're now, I think, going to --

MR. McKay: That's fine. I have no objection consistent with the last statement in April.

MR. NEUMER: And, Jim, we'll work with you to get you it in a very, very reasonable time.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, could you please state your name, star number for the record.

MR. McKAY: Detective March has something to say.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Upon advice of counsel, I am refusing to answer any questions without the direct order of a superior officer.

I would like to preface this statement with the following: I believe I am entitled to be informed of my Constitutional right to remain silent. I have received no assurances from the Office of Inspector General that criminal charges are probable. Proceeding with this statement is in violation of the applicable Collective Bargaining Agreement, but I have been advised that I will lose my job if I refuse to provide a statement.

I am not giving this statement
voluntarily but only because I am required to do so by a direct order of Commander Robert Klimas. I know that if I refuse to participate in this interview or refuse to answer certain questions, I can be disciplined or even fired; therefore, this statement is being compelled.

I am asserting all of my rights under the Supreme Court case of Garrity versus New Jersey, and I am specifically objecting to any sharing or disclosure of this statement or its contents with any prosecutor's office, such as the Cook County State's Attorney's Office or the United States Attorney's Office.

I also object to the sharing or disclosure of this statement or its contents directly or indirectly with anybody else including but not limited to any other federal, state, or city agency, any special prosecutor and his agents, and the media.

I object that this second interview is taking place. I was here for two days on April 26th and April 27th and gave honest answers to all of your questions.
Further, I object that this interview is taking place before an arbitrator has decided the issues that were raised in a grievance filed by me and another grievance filed by Chicago FOP regarding this investigation. The Inspector General has refused to postpone this investigation.

Also on the advice of counsel, I am making the following additional objection: I am objecting to the fact that the City of Chicago Inspector General's Office has refused to identify all of my complainants if they exist.

Under city ordinance, Collective Bargaining Agreements, and my due process rights, I am entitled to notice of the nature of the allegations against me and the identity of all complainants prior to any interview.

The Inspector General's Office has only advised me that Interim Superintendent John J. Escalante and, to a lesser degree, Sergeant S. Soria are the only complainants against me. This can't possibly be true because Escalante's letter to the Inspector General dated January 13, 2016, does not specifically allege or even suspect me of any misconduct.

Further, the letter refers to Sergeant Soria's memo of July 15th, 2015, which only alleges inattention to duty because of possible tampering with in-car camera mics and improper use of equipment, none of which applies to me, a detective assigned to investigate this police shooting.

I am left to wonder who is the source of the allegations now pending against me. I shouldn't have to do this because I have a right to know and confront my accusers.

The Inspector General's Office is violating my rights of due process by not specifically informing me of the person or persons making these specific allegations. As such, I can only assume the true complainant is the City of Chicago's Inspector General.

I am entitled to an affidavit of any complainant who is not a sworn officer. I have not received one in this case.

I am not waiving the requirement of an affidavit, therefore, I am objecting to the City of Chicago Inspector General's Office making allegations against me and conducting an investigation into its own allegations.

Finally, I am objecting to the Inspector General's Office conducting any investigation of this shooting because the Inspector General of Chicago is prejudiced against me. This prejudice is evidenced by his participation on the Police Accountability Task

This report includes findings made without the benefit of hearing my sworn testimony, considering all of the evidence in this case, and considering all of the applicable
law in this case.

The Inspector General has prejudged
this case; as such, he and his agents cannot be fair, impartial, and independent investigators in this matter. This objection also applies to Lori E. Lightfoot, president of the Chicago
Police Board, who served as the chair of the Police Accountability Task Force.

Thank you.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, I want to first put in front of you, Medical Examiner Investigations

Case Report ME2014-01071.

I don't think we ever got your name and star number for the record, so if we could start there.

A. My name is Detective David March. My star number is 20563.

Q. And what is your current unit of assignment?

A. I'm assigned to the Bureau of Detectives, Area Central.

Q. Again, we want to ask you a few questions about the Medical Examiner

From your perspective, what is a Medical Examiner Case Report?

MR. McKay: Objection, that calls for speculation. You're asking him to guess about some other agency, not even in the City of Chicago, and their reports.

MR. Neumer: Let me reword the question.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Based on your experience as a detective, what is a Medical Examiner Case
MR. McKAY: Same objection.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I cannot specifically speak to exactly what this is. In 34 years at the Chicago Police Department, all of that time working within the County of Cook, I have never seen a report like this.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay.

A. I can only assume after reading this report that this document was created as a result of a quick telephone notification that I made to the Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County. It was not the subject of any kind of investigation or in-depth interview of me by anyone.

Q. Do you have any understanding as to what the purpose of a Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report?

A. Again, I can only assume from reading it that it is meant to document my notification of their office that the Chicago Police Department was involved in a Medical Examiner's
Report.

We have to notify them any time we are dealing with any kind of death that is potentially a Medical Examiner's case, whether it be a natural death, suicide, homicide, whatever.

Q. So have you had communications with Cook County investigators prior to October 20th, 2014, regarding homicides or death investigations?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you have any estimate as to how many times you've communicated with Cook County investigators or Cook County personnel regarding homicides or death investigations?

A. I have no idea, but it was a large number of contacts.

Q. Maybe over 50?

A. Well over 50.

Q. Well over 50. Okay. Have you ever seen a Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report prior to today?

A. I first saw this report last Wednesday when it was presented to me by our Internal Affairs Division. Prior to that day, I have never seen this type of report.

I have been involved in the prosecution of numerous homicide cases, murder cases in the criminal court system of Cook County, and I have seen the Medical Examiner's protocol documenting their results of their autopsy. I have seen toxicological reports presented by outside laboratories that do work for the Medical Examiner's Office. I have never in my life seen this type of report. I didn't even know they existed.

Q. Okay. When you were communicating with Cook County personnel on previous homicide or death investigations, were you providing -- what type of information were you providing to the Cook County personnel?

A. I'm assuming -- again, I don't know -- the only requirement on us as the Chicago Police Department is to notify them when we come across a potential Medical Examiner's case.

When I call, my purpose is just to let them know that there is a Medical Examiner's case. The information that they solicit from me, I don't know if there's a checklist that they go down and -- I have no idea how that comes to be.

Q. I got you. So, generally speaking, what type of information do you provide as part of that initial notification?

A. Again, these notifications are made very early on in the investigation. A lot of information that they ask for we may not have at the time, so obviously if we don't have information, we can't provide information.

So based on what we do know at the time of the notification, they will ask us things like the date and time that we discovered the body, the location, the identification -- the identity of the dead body if we know it.

And they ask us for a brief summary of the circumstances under which we became aware of the -- that there was a dead body.

Q. Sure. And I don't want you to speculate. Do you have any understanding of what the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office does with that information?
A. No.

Q. Do you have any understanding as to why the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office is obtaining that information from you, the detective?

MR. McKAY: Again, objection, calls for speculation.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. One reason would be, like I said, we are required to notify them of any potential Medical Examiner's cases. There are many times when we will notify them of the case and their investigator will tell us, "Okay, that's not a case that we're going to deal with, so the body doesn't have to end up here."

A case like that would be a natural death where the victim died of a medical condition that they were being treated for chronically and there was an attending physician.

If we present facts that indicate that that is the case, in those cases, the Medical Examiner will not take the case, so to speak, and they -- because in those cases, the attending physician will issue the death certificate, and the Medical Examiner's Office really has no need to be involved in the case. Any other cases where there's any -- and, again, these are their standards and it's their decision where they think there might be suspicious circumstances or potential for suspicious circumstances. If it looks like it's an overdose with no signs of violence, then obviously they're going to have to conduct a toxicology exam to confirm whether or not the cause of death was drugs.

So, again, the criteria is theirs, and all we do is we notify them of what we know at the time and they tell us whether or not they're going to take the case and if they want us to make sure the body ultimately comes to their facility or can be released to the family by a hospital or doctor or whatever.

Q. And do you have any understanding whether the ultimate postmortem examination report relies at all upon the Exhibit 5 report I've put in front of you?

MR. McKay: Again, that calls for speculation. I object. He cannot guess about another agency's use of this report or what, if any, other people in that agency relied on.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Again, I don't know.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Specifically now with respect to the Exhibit 5 report, on the evening of October 20th, 2014, did you have any communication with the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office regarding the McDonald shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. Can you walk us through that communication. Where were you when you had that communication with the ME's Office?

A. I was at the crime scene on Pulaski Road. We had assisting detectives that had responded to Mount Sinai Hospital where Laquan McDonald had been transported for treatment of his injuries.

I believe that the sequence in which this happened was that the detectives at the hospital were present or learned that Laquan
McDonald had been pronounced deceased by the attending physician there.

They -- again, I believe they then informed Sergeant Gallagher, who was the detective supervisor in charge of the scene, that Laquan McDonald was deceased, and then Sergeant Gallagher notified me of the same since the case had been assigned to me.

Upon learning that, as I commonly do on cases where I think I might have more information than the initial primary beat car assigned to the case, rather than have them asking me all this information so they can present it to the Medical Examiner's Office, I will call the Medical Examiner's Office because, again, at that point I feel I had the most information in one place, so to speak.

So I called the Medical Examiner's Office from the scene and spoke with Investigator Briggs to make this notification.

Q. The detectives who were at the hospital, do you recall their names?

A. I don't. I'd have to look at the reports, the file.
Q. And did you use -- we had a discussion I think during our last interview about use of phone. Was it your personal cell phone that you used to call the ME's Office?

A. It's the only phone I have. Like I told you before, the Department does not supply me with a phone. And in this day and age, there were no pay phones near the scene, so it was the only way to make a timely notification.

Q. On Page 1 of the Case Report, it lists under the Notification section date, October 20th, 2014; time, 11:51:59 p.m. Does that time accord with your belief as to when that call between you and Investigator Briggs occurred?

A. I have no personal knowledge at this date of exactly when that telephone call was made by me to the Office of the Medical Examiner, but that time does seem to be accurate to me.

Q. Okay. And so you call Investigator Briggs from the scene, and what did you tell him?

A. At first I told him that, probably -- again, this is not word for word. I don't recall exactly what information was discussed in what order, but I probably -- my first statement to him probably was that I was making a notification of a police officer-involved shooting and that there obviously was a dead
body.

Q. Is there just one number that CPD is to call or detectives are to call for the Medical Examiner's Office?

A. Their office has a number of numbers.
There is one number that -- I mean, officers will use whatever number -- I can't speak to what other number officers use, and I'm assuming that officers use whatever number they're used
to getting an answer at.

Q. Right.

A. I know at that late time, there's one number that is at least supposed to be answered 24 hours a day. Sometimes it doesn't happen,
but I call the -- I have that number programmed into my cell phone, and I called that number because, like I said, I have made these notifications on numerous occasions.
Q. Did you know or have any sort of working relationship with Investigator Briggs prior to your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. I know I have come across the name before. I can't specifically say that I've ever talked to him on the telephone before. It may have been that I read reports with his name on it.

I was aware that there was an investigator at the Office of the Medical Examiner by the name of Briggs. I -- again, I can't say whether or not I've ever spoken to him before October 20th, 2014, and I don't believe I have ever met him in person. If he was sitting across the table from me today, I'd have no idea if that was him.

Q. Is it fair to say that when you placed the call on the night of October 20th, 2014, that you weren't calling Briggs specifically?

A. No, absolutely not.

Q. It was more of a general hotline or something --

A. I have no idea --
Q. -- calling?

A. -- working there at the time. Again, I was fulfilling our requirements to notify the office, not any specific person.

Q. Okay. At the time you spoke with Investigator Briggs, do you recall whether you had seen video footage of the McDonald shooting?

A. I can't say for certain. I believe I probably have seen -- had seen by that time the infamous dash cam video, if you will. But I certainly had not seen all of the video that we recovered. And, again, I'm not certain, but I believe I did see that footage prior to my call to Briggs.

Q. And I believe that's the 813 Robert video you're referring to.

A. Correct.

Q. I'm going to ask you to look at Page 3 of the Case Report. And, in particular, the paragraph that begins, "Detective March related the following." That's the second full paragraph in the narrative section.

So I want you to take a moment or take as much time as you need to review that paragraph, and then my question to you after you've had a chance to read through that is whether that paragraph accurately reflects a statement you made to Briggs on October 20th, 2014?

A. That paragraph absolutely does not accurately reflect the facts that I related to Investigator Briggs.

Q. Okay. And let's go line by line. I want you to -- I'm going to ask you two questions regarding each sentence in that paragraph: One, whether you made that statement to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, and then, two, whether that statement is accurate, okay? So whether you said it to him or not, whether it's accurate.

So we'll --

A. I can maybe -- I don't know if this saves any time or not. I can tell you, having read that report, that none of those statements are verbatim statements by me to Investigator Briggs.

The first statement, for example, has a date and a time and a beat car. That information was transmitted but not in one sentence that said all of that. He would ask me what time the incident occurred; I would provide him with a time. He asked me when it occurred, what date, what address, like that.

This is not anywhere near the verbatim statements that I made to him over the telephone.

Q. Okay. And we're just going to break it down here --

A. And, again, I might want to stress, I did not speak in a paragraph like this. This was all he would ask me a question, I would provide him an answer.

Q. Okay. So that's how -- well, maybe we'll take a step back again to maybe --

A. We can certainly go to whether each individual fact listed there is accurate, but I can tell you categorically the entire paragraph is not my statement, and none of those sentences were said by me in that manner.

Q. Okay.

MR. McKay: Can I ask you a question? Can you tell me whether or not this telephone conversation you are about to ask Detective March about, was it recorded in any fashion by Investigator Briggs or anybody from the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office?

   MR. NEUMER: Yeah, what I would say in response to that is, there's a duty of confidentiality. And, again, the materials that OIG has provided today, OIG has provided all materials, all information required by the CBA.

   MR. McKay: Well, there's no duty of confidentiality if it's a recording of the accused's statement.

   The Collective Bargaining Agreement clearly mandates that you, IPRA, Internal Affairs, whatever agency is investigating a Chicago police officer has a duty to give the officer a recording such as a video or an audio before you ask him questions of it.

   If you got it, I demand that you give a copy of that statement to Detective March now before any question continues.

   MR. NEUMER: And what I would say in response is, OIG complies with all applicable laws.
MR. McKAY: And I'll take that to mean that you don't have any recorded statement of Detective March by Investigator Briggs or any agent of the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office.

MR. NEUMER: I'll let you draw whatever inferences you'd like, and I'll just say that we comply with all applicable laws, and we are conducting this interview today in accordance with all applicable laws.

MR. McKAY: Okay. Well, with that said, then since you placed this gentleman under oath, if you have a recording that suggests anything inconsistent with what Detective March has previously testified about in April and, more importantly, what he has also generated himself, the reports he created, if you have a recording, please give that to him now. He has a right to it.

And I'm going to ask that he not answer any of your questions unless you're going to tell him that criminal charges of perjury or any other crimes are probable. And if that's the case, you now have a right to Mirandize him.
pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement,
Illinois State Law, and the United States Constitution.

MR. NEUMER: Yeah, I mean, as we discussed previously this is an administrative investigation. This is not a criminal investigation. We're not partnered with any other bodies on this investigation, so Miranda simply doesn't apply here.

MR. McKay: All right. My objection is on the record.

Further, if there was a recording,
Peter, even if you don't know about it but if there was a recording by Mr. Briggs or anybody
from the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office without the consent of Detective March, I would submit that's a violation of the Illinois
Eavesdropping Statute, which is a Class III
felony.

If you've got it, or, further, if you don't have it but somewhere down the road you do get it, I'm moving to strike whatever Detective
March is saying consistent with the order by Commander Klimas, and, further, I'm going to be asking you to refer Mr. Briggs or anybody from the ME's Office to the Cook County State's Attorney's Office for an investigation on an eavesdropping violation.

Thank you.

MR. NEUMER: Okay.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, I think we were going to take a step back a little bit. You were giving us some information regarding how this conversation occurred, and I think obviously you placed the call to the ME's
Office; is that correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And then you made a notification -- or you notified, again in this case it was Investigator Briggs, that there was a death or a homicide?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall -- I mean, is there sort of like a boilerplate language, or do you just -- what do you tell the ME's Office when
you notify them?

A. I think I just told you that I don't know the exact words that I used, but I explained to him that I was calling him to notify him of a police officer-involved shooting incident where the person who had been shot by
the officer had been pronounced deceased.

Q. And then following that exchange, did Investigator Briggs proceed to ask you a series of questions?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And did you provide information in response to his questions?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you offer any information without it being prompted by a question from Investigator Briggs?

A. Not that I recall.

Q. So is it fair to say that he was conducting an interview of you?

A. I don't know that we would -- that I would characterize it as an interview because there was -- number one, at that point in time
in the investigation, I knew that I did not know all of the facts of the investigation. So --

Q. Let --
A. -- I was not in a position to give any totally completely informed statement on anything.

So, like I said, to the best of my knowledge, like I said, maybe he's got a checklist that he goes through and he's asking me to fill in the blanks of his checklist.

Q. Let me take away the characterization of interview. Is it fair to say he was asking you questions and you were providing him information in response to his questions?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. I want to go back to the second paragraph of the narrative. And I want to go line by line again and -- and, again, it will be two questions: Whether you related the information in the sentence to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, and then the second question will be whether it is accurate.

So the first sentence is, "Detective March related the following: On or about 2156 hours 19 October, 2014, Chicago Police 8th District beat car 815 Robert responded 41st and Kildare in reference to a "citizen holding a subject".

So let me first ask you, Detective March, did you relate the information that is in that first sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. Again, not in those exact words, but most of the information in that first sentence is accurate except for the date of occurrence where he documented that I said or I related that the incident occurred on 19 October 2014.

The telephone call notification that I made to him was made on 20 October 2014 from the scene of the incident, and there is no way that I said that night or any time during the following almost two years now that I've been talking about this incident, there is no way that I referred to this incident as occurring on the 19th of October.

Q. Is it fair to say that you, at some point during your conversation with Investigator Briggs, told him that an 8th District beat car, 815 Robert, responded to 41st and Kildare in reference to a citizen holding a subject?
A. I would have told him something along the lines of some Chicago police officers responded to a call of someone holding a subject for the police at 41st and Kildare.

Again, I'm trying to guess here because I don't recall exactly the words that were used. I assume he asked me probably what beat was involved and I told him 815 Robert, and I'm assuming that him knowing the -- some of the workings and especially the numbering system of the beats and the Chicago Police Department, I think he correctly assumed that 815 Robert was an 8th District beat car. I don't remember telling him it was an 8th District beat car. I think he just assumed that from the beat number.

Q. Next sentence, "Upon arrival, Beat 815 Robert was confronted by the subject who threatened the officers with a four-inch fold knife."

Do you recall relating the information in that second sentence to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, during your phone call with him?
A. As I just indicated, I would have told him that Beat 815 Robert responded to this assignment. The rest of that sentence is a complete misrepresentation of what I told him that night.

And, again, in dealing with this incident for almost two years now, I have never characterized what happened between Laquan McDonald and the officers assigned to 815 Robert as 815 Robert was confronted by the subject who threatened the officers with a four-inch fold knife.

First of all, as borne out in my -- all of the reports that I have written documenting this incident, at no time did any witness ever say that the officers on Beat 815 Robert were confronted by the subject. The subject being Laquan McDonald.

In fact, it was the other way around. The officers responded to the assignment and they subsequently confronted Laquan McDonald, who they found walking down the street.

I have never characterized what happened between those officers and Laquan
McDonald as him threatening them with a knife in the sense that I'm thinking somebody is brandishing a knife and threatening to cut you. I always characterized this incident as him attacking their vehicle with the knife, where he stabbed the right front tire and then stabbed the windshield. I have never characterized this as him threatening the officers with the knife.

That having been said, I believe that the act of attacking the marked police vehicle associated with two uniformed police officers was, in fact, a threat to the officers, but, again, just to be clear, that is now -- the words that are in this sentence are not the way I would have or have ever portrayed this incident.

The last misrepresentation is that it says that he threatened the officers with a four-inch fold knife. Again, having been at the scene, seeing the knife myself, knowing how I believe every single person -- all personnel employed by the Chicago Police Department in any reports written about this incident, I believe it has been very consistent that the knife has...
been referred to as a folding knife, seven inches in overall length with a three-inch blade. I have never and I have never heard anyone else describe the weapon as a four-inch fold knife.

Q. So do you think that second sentence is -- putting aside the question of whether you relayed the information contained in the second sentence to Investigator Briggs, do you think that second sentence is accurate?

A. No.

Q. And it's for the reasons you stated?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. How about the information in the first sentence, other than the 19th of October language, is the statement -- the first-sentence statement accurate?

A. Aside from the fact that he's got the wrong date, which you just described, and the fact that the words, "citizen holding a subject" are in quotation marks, I don't recall that I said those exact words, but the idea, if you will, of that being a summary of what had occurred is accurate.
Q. Okay. Third sentence, "The subject fled the scene on foot, where at 4112 South Pulaski the subject was stopped by officers assigned to Beat 845 Robert."

First question, did you relay the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. In this sentence, I believe that all of those details or facts described in that sentence are accurate and were relayed by me to Investigator Briggs.

And, again, I can't say that I used those exact words in one complete coherent sentence that says all of that in one sentence.

Q. Okay. Next sentence, "The officers announced their office as Chicago Police Officers and ordered the subject to drop the knife."

First question, did you relay that information to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. Again, not in those exact words, but, yes, that information was relayed to Investigator Briggs with the exception of the fact that he's got the words, "Chicago police officers" in quotation marks, and I have no -- again, from being out there that night, interviewing all the officers involved, having written a number of reports involving this investigation, and talking about it on numerous occasions, no one -- none of the officers ever told me that the words they said were "Chicago police officers" when they were announcing their office.

And I obviously did not characterize that then to Investigator Briggs. If I had not heard someone say those words, I would not tell him that someone said those words.

Q. Okay.
A. I did tell him that the officers announced their office, and I believe all the reports that I've written said that all of the officers are pretty consistent in saying something along the lines of, "Police, stop. Police, drop the knife." But never do they say, "Chicago police officers, stop. Chicago police officers, drop the knife."
So except for that one clarification, again, that sentence are not the exact words I spoke to him, but the facts detailed in that sentence are accurate.

Q. Next sentence, "The subject lunged at the officers with the knife."

First question, did you relay that information to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. No, I -- again, being a detective -- being a police officer for 34 years and especially being a violent crimes detective for the last 25 years, details of the elements of a criminal offense are the most important thing we deal with.

I mean, when we're determining whether or not we have probable cause to arrest someone, when we're presenting a case to the State's Attorney's Office for the approval of criminal charges, it's very important how the facts are characterized. If you leave facts out, if you use words that don't convey all of the details, you're not conveying an accurate message to whoever.
And especially like with dealing with the State's Attorney's Office, they're the ones -- they're not on scene, they don't talk to all of the people that we do, so it's up to us to accurately relay to them what the facts are because that's what they're going to make their decision as to whether or not they're going to charge and what charge is the most appropriate.

So obviously you don't want to use language that doesn't accurately describe something and you don't want to use language that describes things that didn't happen.

Again, having spoken to every officer that was involved in this incident, no one has ever told me that they saw Laquan McDonald or felt that he was lunging at anyone.

In viewing the video myself, I have never had the impression that I see Laquan McDonald ever lunge at anyone in that video. And, again, in speaking about this case for almost two years, I can say with certainty -- because, again, my awareness of the importance of the details -- I have never described what Laquan McDonald did during this incident as a lunge.

So the sentence, "The subject lunged at the officers with the knife" is just something that I never said and I did not tell Investigator Briggs.

Q. Okay. Understanding that -- putting aside whether or not you relayed that information -- or relayed -- said the word, "lunged" to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, do you believe it's an accurate statement to say that the subject lunged at the officers with the knife?

A. No, I believe that's a misrepresentation by Investigator Briggs.

Q. You do not think --

A. And I don't know what he based that on. It certainly wasn't the words I told him because I never told him that Laquan McDonald lunged at anyone.

Q. So you do not think it's accurate to state that McDonald lunged at the officers?

A. Correct.

Q. Do you have any recollection of how you characterized McDonald's actions to Briggs...
during your phone call?

A. I -- again, I don't know the exact words that I used. I know from what I saw and how I handled my investigations, I would have said something along the lines of McDonald attacked the officers or began to attack the officers.

Q. Okay --

A. And, again, there's many ways to attack. I wouldn't describe what he did as a lunge.

Q. Next sentence, "Fearing for their life and attempting to stop the threat, one officer, star number 9465, fired 16 rounds from his duty weapon, a Smith & Wesson 9mm handgun striking the subject numerous times."

First question, did you relate the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes, I did relay -- all of the facts detailed in that sentence were related by me to Investigator Briggs, not necessarily in those exact words and certainly not in one sentence like that.

Q. Okay. And is that sentence accurate?

A. As best I know from what happened at this date.

Q. Okay. Next sentence, "After striking the subject, an ambulance was requested by the officers."

First question, is that -- did you relate the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes, the facts detailed in that sentence are accurate. Again, not the words necessarily that I actually used and certainly not in a sentence like that I recall.

Q. Okay. But, generally speaking, the information that's contained in that sentence you relayed to Investigator Briggs during your phone call?

A. Yes.

Q. The next paragraph starts, "Upon arrival of Chicago Fire Department ambulance," I want you to review that paragraph, and after you've had a chance to look it over, I want to ask if you provided the information in that paragraph to Investigator Briggs during your phone call?

A. In the first sentence I would have told him that Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21 transported McDonald to Mount Sinai Hospital.

Pretty much the rest of that paragraph, aside from the time that he's expired, because I would have told him that McDonald was pronounced dead at 2242 hours, but the rest of that is information that I did not provide to Briggs.

The beginning of the second sentence where it says, "Once at Mount Sinai Hospital, emergency staff were unable to revive the subject," I have no idea what was done at Mount Sinai Hospital. I don't know if they rolled him into the ER and he was a flat-line, that they never found any signs of life; I don't know if they worked on him and performed any procedures in attempting to save his life and were unsuccessful.

So that statement that they were unable to revive him, I don't know where that comes from. I did not say anything in any faintest resemblance to that statement.

I would have told him, as I told you, that he was pronounced dead at 2242 hours, the name of the doctor, the beat car has it -- Briggs has it spelled one way here, the Original Case Report by Officer Fontaine has it spelled a different way.

The spelling that I got from the detectives at the hospital is different. In fact, it's completely different. If you look at my report, the doctor that is credited with pronouncing Laquan McDonald deceased is Pitzele, I believe it is spelled P-i-t-z-e-l-e, which, depending on what your perspective is, is kind of close to what Briggs has here, but it certainly is not the name that Briggs has here.

After the doctor's name, the rest of that paragraph is basically a description of the injuries sustained by Laquan McDonald, and there is no way that I -- I couldn't have possibly told him any of that information because at the time I made this notification, the only things I knew at that point were that Jason Van Dyke said
he had fired his weapon 16 times and I was aware that Laquan McDonald had been shot multiple times, which means more than once.

I had no idea how many times he was hit, if all 16 shots struck him, if they were lodged or through-and-through injuries, which would create more than one hole, I had no idea anywhere near this kind of description of his injuries. So obviously Briggs got that from some other source, not me.

Q. Is it possible that the two detectives who were at the hospital, would they have had that information?
A. It's certainly possible that those detectives had that information. It's possible anyone from the police department who was present at the hospital with information may have made an additional call to Briggs and provided that information. It's possible that Briggs, in performing his duties, called the hospital to obtain additional information that I didn't know.

But it's obvious -- it's completely totally obvious to me that the four pages of this report are not a summary of information he received entirely from me. It's obvious to me that he used additional sources and probably additional people to gather all the information he's summarizing in these four pages.

Q. And maybe that's a good segue maybe to kind of go through a little bit and determine what of the information in this Case Report came from you and what information didn't.

So if we could go to Page 1. There's a --

A. Let me ask you this: If you want to simplify things, I've gone through my copy of this report and kind of highlighted the information that I didn't provide him. So maybe that could save you some time, unless you feel obligated to ask every entry.

Q. Maybe we can quickly -- we'll quickly talk about what you did provide. So there's a the Decedent/Subject section on Page 1.

Did you provide Investigator Briggs with the information and the details contained in that Decedent/Subject section?
A. Well, with the exception of the ZIP code for his residence at 501 North Springfield, I would have told them that I received the information that the last known address that the Chicago Police Department had for Laquan McDonald was 501 North Springfield.

But obviously standing at the scene, I had no idea what the ZIP code is at 501 North Springfield. And at that point I didn't pull out my phone and go on the internet and look up that ZIP code for that address.

So obviously he at some -- from some source -- and I'm assuming he looked it up on the internet or from a ZIP code directory book, if they still make those, he looked up that address and entered it into his report.

So under that Decedent/Subject category, the only information that I did not provide to him is the ZIP code of the residence.

Q. Let's see, in the Notification section on Page 1, fair to say that you provided him your name, title, and star number?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you provide him the beat number
And did you provide him the police report number of HX475653?

A. Yes. The only information in that section that I don't believe I gave him because I don't remember it and I don't recall ever doing that is the telephone number for my office, which is what that telephone number is. Again, I assume he looked that up from another source.

Q. Okay. In the Discovered section, did you provide him the information in that Discovered section?

A. There is some information that I did not provide. But, first of all, I would like to point out, if you look at that section at the bottom of Page 1 and the first two lines of Page 2, which is a continuation of that section, I think it's obvious if you look through all of the entries or the categories in that section, this is in reference to a dead body. This is the discovery of a dead body.

He has for the first entry,
"Discovered by: Chicago Police beat number 845 Robert." They did not discover a dead body. They were dealing with a live offender from the entire time he was at the scene, and I'm told that when he went into the ambulance, he still had a pulse. So the Chicago Police Department did not encounter a dead body at that point.

So, again, I -- I don't know what he's trying to convey here, but the section should really be, you know -- if you want to be totally accurate, it would probably be that someone at the hospital with the location of Mount Sinai Hospital would be the one to give you information about the discovery of a dead body because that is where he was -- until he was pronounced dead, he was alive.

And I know, again from all the information I received at the scene, that he definitely was still alive at the scene. So it's a technicality, but we're dealing with lawyers here, and that's what they live on is technicalities.

I'm assuming again the address -- he's got, "Discovered by: Chicago Police beat number 845 Robert," that's Jason Van Dyke and Officer Joe Walsh's beat number.

He uses the address of the 8th District, which I did not provide him.
Again, I'm assuming he looked that up in some reference that he's got.

The telephone number is my office
telephone number, so I'm not sure why that's in there because I didn't discover the body, and I don't think any of the people from Area Central Bureau of Detective's Office discovered the body. The best I know, the people at the scene that encountered Laquan McDonald were all officers assigned to the 8th District.

"Title: Police officer,"
"Relationship: Police officer," I'm not sure what he's -- Beat 845 Robert are obviously police officers, but, "Relationship: Police officer." I'm not sure what that's indicating.

Last known alive, I guess that's accurate because the officers saw him alive on the 20th and he was pronounced deceased on the 20th, so that's accurate information. I'm not sure exactly how Briggs determined that.
Discover date and time, again, this is supposed to be in reference to a dead body, and he's got 10/20/2014, 9:56 p.m. That is the time when Jason Van Dyke and Joseph Walsh encountered and confronted Laquan McDonald. That is not the time -- and, again, he was still alive attacking them with a knife at that time. So I don't know how that figures into Briggs' thinking that that's the time for the discovery of a dead body.

And then condition of body, multiple gunshot wounds, again, he's taking the fact that Laquan McDonald was shot multiple times and putting that in there for the condition of the body.

And I did tell him that McDonald had been shot multiple times but...

Q. How about Place of Occurrence/Incident, did you provide the information on that section to Investigator Briggs?

A. Yes, that would have been information I communicated to him except for the ZIP code of the address of occurrence because, again, I didn't know the address at that point when I was calling from the scene.

Q. Okay.

A. So obviously he got that from some other source.

Q. And then Identification of Deceased?

A. This is a very confusing category for me personally. If you read my reports, they document the fact that Laquan McDonald was initially tentatively identified by his State of Illinois ID card that he had on his person, and subsequently that identification was confirmed by his fingerprints.

But at the time I made this notification to Briggs, we were working off that tentative identification. "Positive Identification: Coworker," I have no idea what that is supposed to be indicating because there was certainly no coworker of Laquan McDonald that I was aware of that had any contact with police.

Identification means fingerprints.

Again, at the time I was making this notification, I knew that as part of the standard procedure, at some point in time, Laquan McDonald's remains would be fingerprinted, but they had not been fingerprinted at this point.

And I confirmed that by looking at the crime scene processing reports from the forensic investigators. And he was, in fact, I believe, fingerprinted at the Medical Examiner's Office on the following day. I believe it was the 21st when the autopsy was done.

So, again, there's no way that I told him that he was identified by fingerprints at
the time I made this notification.

Q. And maybe -- so on the second page in the -- or third page of the report in the narrative section, last full paragraph, "Subject was positively identified by the Chicago Police ICLEAR system based on a prior Chicago Police
booking number, IR2106340.

I mean, does that -- how does that relate to the identification of the deceased?

A. To that particular -- specific fact,
I was told by -- again, I don't remember who told me, I wrote it on a General Progress Report, that someone had run, I'm assuming, the information off of the state ID card -- they had run a name-check on him in our database and come up with possible IR number, and I could have provided that to Briggs.

Q. Okay.

A. But, again, that had not -- the IR number is a distinct number assigned to every person that the Chicago Police Department arrests based on their fingerprints, and no fingerprint analysis or match or even fingerprinting process had been completed at the time.

That was someone ran a name-check based on the identifiers from the ID card and came up with that IR number. And I gave that to -- again, that was in my notes -- so I probably did give that number to Briggs as a possible IR number for --

Q. Would you have told Briggs the subject was positively identified by the Chicago Police ICLEAR system during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. No, absolutely not. There's two issues -- and, again, this goes back to my training and experience after my 34 years as a Chicago police officer.

When you come across a dead body, whether it be a natural or criminal incident, two of the very most important procedures that the police department has to accomplish is to identify the -- positively identify the subject and make a notification to the next of kin.

Identification is made either by having a family member, and not just a friend who knows him for the last five years, but we usually use a blood family relative to view the victim and say, yeah, that's my husband, that's my son, that's my daughter, you know, whatever. That had not happened because at the time of this notification, we had not made contact with Laquan McDonald's family.

And the other more common way is -- or second more common way, whatever you want to call it, would be through fingerprints, and I just discussed, that had not even started yet.

Q. Do you have any independent -- well, independent of this document -- independent recollection of what you did tell Investigator Briggs regarding McDonald's identification during your phone call?

A. I would have told him that, like I just told you, we had tentative information coming off the ID card, and I would have told him the same thing, someone ran him in our system and came up with a possible IR number.

Q. Going back to Page 2 of the Case Report, the Pronouncement section, did you provide the information in that section to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. "Place Deceased Pronounced," I would have told him he was pronounced at Mount Sinai Hospital. I did not specify ER because he could have died in surgery. I did not know where in the hospital he would have been pronounced, so I did not say ER. I would tell him hospital. "Method of Pronouncement: On View," I'm not quite sure what that means.

"Hospital: Mount Sinai Medical Center," I would have told him Mount Sinai, and obviously I gave him the date and time.
And, again, I gave him the doctor's name that I have but, again, going to the credibility of his attention to detail in his report and all the other inaccuracies that are in here, that is not the name of the doctor with the spelling that I gave him.

And I would have gave him -- some of the very most important information we give them is the time of pronouncement and the doctor or the person who pronounces. And I certainly did not -- I did give him the name that I had in my report, but I did not give him this name.

Q. And doctor --
A. Now, it could be that I, in my reports, through my sources, other detectives, they have the wrong spelling and this is the correct spelling. But if that's the case, then Briggs didn't get that from me. Again, he got it from another source.

So, again, the information in these four pages is not entirely exclusively from me. This is a summary of information he gathered from a number of sources.

Q. "Fire Department on Scene," would
you --

A. I would have told him that Ambulance 21 transported the body to the hospital.

Q. Okay. And then going back to the narrative section --

A. And just by way of, again, attention to detail, the bottom of Page 2 "List of Person Interviewed," he's got my name and title and everything. Again, I don't recall giving him the office number. I'm assuming he got that off a list he has. I certainly -- he did not ask me, and I did not provide him with the address of my office. Again, he got that from another source.

Q. In the narrative section, last full paragraph, second sentence, "At the time of this report, it is unknown why the citizen was "holding the subject" since the citizen left the scene and could not be interviewed."

Did you provide the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014?

A. I don't specifically recall relaying that information to him. It is possible that I did and that statement is accurate, but, again,
I don't recall making a statement exactly in that manner. But if he asked me, you know, did we interview the citizen who made the original call, I would have told him no because at that point, we hadn't.

Q. Did you inform Investigator Briggs that there was video of the shooting?

A. I don't recall if we discussed video or not.

Q. Okay. Do you recall whether he asked you if there was video of the shooting?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Generally speaking, do you recall providing Investigator Briggs with any information during your phone call on October 20th, 2014, that is not reflected in the Case Report?

A. It's possible, but I don't -- again, at this late date, I don't recall.

Q. No specific recollection?

A. No, nothing that I know for certain I told him that does not appear here.
MR. NEUMER: Time is 11:35 a.m. We're going to go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: Time is 11:43 a.m. We're back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Still talking about generally the Exhibit 5 Case Report. I wanted to ask you, Detective March, if at any time at the scene of the shooting on October 20th, 2014, at any time at the scene, did you tell a representative from FOP that McDonald lunged at Chicago Police Department officers?

MR. McKAY: Objection, that's outside your Notification of Allegations. Now he's supposed to defend some alleged statement to not Investigator Briggs and not Officer Dora Fontaine? Do you have an FOP report suggesting what, if anything, Detective March may have said?

That is outside your Notification of Allegations, and, as such, he should not be compelled to answer that.

MR. NEUMER: Can we read back the question.
WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter.)

MR. McKay: That's outside these allegations your office has alleged against Detective March.

Further, I submit, unless you have some report prepared by an FOP representative, you have no good faith basis to ask that question because there's nothing in Investigator Briggs' report about an FOP representative at the scene talking to Detective March.

Further, there's nothing in Officer Dora Fontaine's report, your Exhibit Number 6, that suggests there was an FOP representative talking to Detective March at the scene. As a result, I ask that you strike that question and move on to something else.

Further, you have all the reports prepared by Detective March in this particular case; indeed, you used several of them at his interview in April. At no time, in no place do any of the reports generated by Detective March indicate he ever interviewed an FOP representative.
The allegations today and the allegations your office made back earlier this year that were the subject of the April 26th and April 27th questioning, at no time do those allegations indicate any false statements to any FOP representative, Mr. Neumer. As such, we ask that that question be stricken and we move on to what other questions are relevant to these new allegations you have alleged.

MR. NEUMER: As you know, Detective March has been ordered to answer OIG's questions, so I would ask that the court reporter read back the question to Detective March.

(WHEREUPON, the previous question was read by the reporter as follows:

"Still talking about generally the Exhibit 5 Case Report. I wanted to ask you, Detective March, if at any time at the scene of the shooting on October 20th, 2014, at any time at the scene, did you tell a representative from POP that McDonald lunged at Chicago Police Department officers?.")

MR. McKAY: Again, I object. Are you suggesting, Mr. Neumer, that an FOP representative and his or her statement, whether written or oral, is an official report? Because only official reports in this matter are what John Escalante wanted your office to investigate. I would ask that you answer the question, Mr. Neumer.

MR. NEUMER: The question --

MR. McKay: He cannot be -- I'm sorry. I mean no disrespect.

Detective March cannot be expected to defend himself by way of ambush. Where does this FOP representative and some alleged corneration, where does that come from? None of the allegations your office has alleged.

What is your good faith basis as an officer of the court to even ask this question, Mr. Neumer?

MR. NEUMER: This question is relevant to our investigation --

MR. McKay: How so? How so? We ask you to show us the relevance.

MR. NEUMER: Jim, Detective March is under order to answer our questions. I'm going to ask the court reporter to read him the question.

THE WITNESS: She doesn't need to reread
the question again.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. As I said previously in regards to your Exhibit 5, I do not recall ever in the past almost two years ever characterizing or describing anything that Laquan McDonald did on the night of October 20th, 2014, as a lunge to anyone.

I might add on top of that, at the scene that night, I do not remember having any conversation with any representatives from FOP regarding the details of what happened in this incident.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I'm not sure if you're aware, FOP spokesperson Pat Camden described the -- described McDonald's actions to the press that night as a -- that McDonald lunged at the officers. If you know, do you know where FOP spokesperson Pat Camden got that information?

A. How would I possibly know? As I just told you, I don't remember having any conversation with any representative of FOP.

And I can tell you specifically Pat Camden -- and I know who he is -- I did not have any conversation with him at all that night.

And as far as where he got that, I mean, this is America and -- in spite of the conduct of the Inspector General's Office, this is America and people have a right of free speech. Pat Camden can say anything he wants.

I have no control over that, I have no idea what prompted him to say that, and I certainly, if he received information to that effect, I have no idea where it came from.

Q. Okay. And it didn't come from you --

MR. McKay: I would reiterate, Mr. Neumer, John Escalante's letter we have talked about at length clearly states whether any officers made false statements on official reports submitted
in connection with the shooting of Laquan
McDonald on October 20th, 2014.

To suggest Pat Camden's statement to the press is an official report is absurd.
Agreed or not?

And are we going to ask Detective
March about media reports, whether it's television or print media? That is ridiculous, especially in light of all the false information provided by the media in this case. You going to put them through this type of a sworn statement? I'd love to be asking them some questions under oath.

But, be that as it may, Detective March has answered your question. Whatever Pat Camden said to the media is not relevant to what John Escalante is asking your office to do.

Thank you.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So, Detective March --

A. I'd just like to interject. Just before this exchange, I believe your last comment was that you are not saying that I made a statement like that to Pat Camden? And I would -- you said we're not saying that you made that statement to Pat Camden, but I would say on the record that the clear implication of your last question to me is that I am the source of that statement.

Q. I'm asking you whether --
A. Right --

Q. -- whether you --

A. -- your implication -- because there's no allegation but you're on your little fishing expedition and you're accusing me by implication by that question that I am the source of that statement, and clearly I am not.

Q. Okay.

A. As you just admitted that you knew before you asked the question.

Q. I don't quite follow but okay. At this time I am going to ask my colleague if she has any cleanup questions with respect to the ME Case Report.

BY MS. WITZBURG:

Q. Just very briefly, Detective, on Page 1 there's a phone number under the Notification section and a phone number under the Discovered section. Those are both 312-747 exchange numbers. Are those both numbers for Area Central?

A. Oh, no. I'm sorry. I misspoke. The number under the Discovered looks like -- it's not -- just looking at it quickly, I thought it was my office number. It's not. It probably is a number for the 8th District, which is the address right above it.

Q. Okay. So the 8380, is that the Area Central?
A. That is my office number.

Q. Does that phone -- is that specific to you, that exchange --
A. No, that's --

Q. -- is that the Detective Division number?
A. That's the entire office on the second floor.

Q. Okay. And 8730 is not an Area Central number?
A. Correct. Not that I know of. I believe it's the 8th District. I don't know for certain.

Q. Okay. Thank you.

MS. WITZBURG: That's it.
MR. NEUMER: Okay.

BY THE WITNESS:
A. I would just like to, since we didn't go there, make a couple other observations. On Page 4 that we didn't deal with.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay.

A. Near the top there it says there's an entry of "Temperature of Environment: 52 degrees Fahrenheit". There is no way that I told Investigator Briggs that the temperature at the scene that night was 52 degrees.

Again, he obviously went to some internet source or something, some weather site and found -- you know, just looked up the temperature. Because I can see how that would be relevant to the Office of the Medical Examiner, but that certainly didn't come from me as you're suggesting everything else in this report is from me.

And then a short way under that entry, there's an entry for "Photographs Taken on Scene" and it says, "False."

Again, not being familiar with all of the workings of the Medical Examiner's Office, I have no idea what that is indicating. And if that is supposed to be Briggs indicating that I told him that photographs taken at the scene is false, that is a false representation because at the time of the notification that I made this notification, I don't believe photographs had been taken, but the crime lab, the Forensic Services personnel were on the scene in the process of processing the scene, which included
not just photographs but also video.

So that is an inaccurate entry. And,
again, it just goes to the credibility of using this report to say that I said anything exactly
in the words that he used.

Q. I'm now going to put -- I'm going to take Exhibit 5 back and put Exhibit 6, the Original Case Incident Report in front of you.

(WHEREUPON, the document was tendered to the witness.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. And who completes an Original Case
Incident Report?

A. Well, it can potentially be any member of -- any sworn member of the Chicago
Police Department.

I believe even with all the civilianization we've gone through, I believe
it's still sworn members only that are -- and maybe I'm wrong, but still to the best of my knowledge, it's only sworn officers that can actually initiate or create an Original Case Incident Report. So in the case of this incident, it would have been whichever officer was assigned to do that task -- to perform that task.

Q. Is it generally officers that complete the Case Incident Reports as opposed to detectives?

A. The vast majority of times, but there are times when a detective will create an original report.

Q. When would a detective create an Original Case Incident Report?

A. In an incident where he becomes aware of the crime and -- just his dealing with it.
So, you know, rather than calling to have a beat car assigned and tying them up --

Q. Sure.

A. -- and the detective, the detective will just, you know, save some resources and just create the original report themselves.
Q. Got you. And so what's the review chain for a Case Incident Report?

A. The member who prepares the report, it's all computerized now. We have a system that's called AIRA -- I believe it's A-I-R-A -- which is for creating original computerized incident reports. Officers can do that in the mobile PDTs -- I don't know if that's police data terminal -- that they have in the cars, or they can do it on any computer in the police facility. But, as I said, no longer do we write -- hand-write reports out by hand; it's all done on computer.

And so there's a number of screens that the officer will go through and enter the information that's requested. They enter -- I should specify that they enter the information that they have or are aware of at that time.

All of these are usually what is called as preliminary investigations. When the investigation is just starting, the civilian, if you will, is just initially reporting it to the police, so sometimes the officer making -- initiating the report doesn't have all of the facts or may be given wrong information by the people they're talking to.

But it's basically that officer goes through the different screens and enters the information that is requested to the best of
their knowledge.

Q. And after the officer or, in certain instances detective, completes the Case Incident
Report, who next reviews that report?

A. Once the officer has entered all the information and they're satisfied that they have everything the way they want it on the report,
on one of the screens, there's a "Submit"
button. When they click on that button, it is then considered submitted.

In fact, if you were to look at the system in more detail, a report that has not been submitted yet, somewhere near the top of the report, it will say, "Preliminary" because it has not been submitted. That report is basically nothing; it's just a report in progress.

Once it is submitted, then if you were to print the report up then, it would say somewhere near the top, "Submitted." And then a supervisor, normally it's a sergeant, would review the report and approve it.

Once the sergeant reviews the report and is in agreement with it or whatever and decides he's ready to approve it, there's a screen in his computer that he clicks on the "Approved" button. At that time, the report becomes approved, and, again, if you were to print a copy of the report after that, it would say, "Approved" somewhere near the top of the report.

assigned to a case generally look at the case incident report before it's finalized?

A. No, the vast majority of criminal incidents that are reported by, you know, patrol personnel, there is no detective on the scene.
It's a civilian reporting a crime to the officer. The officer enters his information, submits the report. His sergeant approves it or a sergeant will review and approve it.

And then subsequent to that, it will be assigned to a detective. And then that's like normally the first opportunity the detective has to even know the report exists,
much less read it and review it.

Q. So generally speaking, the Case --
the Original Case Incident Report is approved and finalized before a detective even gets assigned?

A. Correct.

Q. Who prepared this Exhibit 6 Original
Case Incident Report?

MR. McKay: Objection to speculation unless he knows.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I can only speak -- again, I wasn't present when this report was created and submitted in the computer system. I can only go by the computer entries on the last page of this report, but it -- I know that Dora Fontaine was at the scene, I know that she was one of the officers assigned to the car that was assigned to do the original report, and it says reporting
officer is Dora Fontaine.

So it was either Dora Fontaine or someone logged into the computer system as Dora Fontaine. That's the only thing I can say for certain.

Q. Okay.
A. It probably was Dora Fontaine.

Q. Did you direct Officer Fontaine to complete this Case Incident Report?
A. No, her sergeant did. One of the 8th District sergeants assigned their car or her car to, you know, be the quote/unquote paper car to create the Original Case Incident Report.

Q. Did you speak -- I know -- based on our interviews in April, I know you spoke to Officer Fontaine at the scene of the shooting regarding what she had witnessed. Putting those conversations aside, did you speak to Officer Fontaine at the scene of the shooting regarding her completion of this Original Case Incident Report?
A. I believe I just checked with her what classification she was going to use, what address, date and time of occurrence.

And then obviously, as we've already spoken about, I made the notification to the Medical Examiner's Office so I gave her Investigator Briggs' name and badge number to -- because technically the notification responsibility is the beat car, so I did that for them and gave her the information so it could be entered on the report.

Q. Okay. And so just to -- just for the record, what was the information you provided, the --

A. I told her I notified the Medical Examiner's Office and here's the name of the investigator and here's his number.

Q. Oh, okay. Okay. Is --

A. Which she apparently entered on the report because it is in there and I didn't enter it.

Q. Did you provide Officer Fontaine with any of the other information that is contained in this Exhibit 6 report?

A. No.

Q. Do you know where she would have gotten the information in this report that lists Officer Gaffney, Officer Van Dyke, and Officer Walsh as victims?

A. Either from talking to those individual officers or from someone else who had spoken to the officers.

Q. Okay. She did not get that information regarding the victims from you?

MR. McKay: Objection, asked and answered.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I believe I -- in our previous interview from April, I -- there was a question as to, you know, how this classification, whatever -- I think we had a conversation about who would be listed as a victim -- as victims on this report, and so obviously -- I don't know if Dora Fontaine was part of the conversation I was involved in.

Most of my conversations were with supervisors, and I don't recall if Dora Fontaine was there or not. But it was decided that we would list three victims, Officers Gaffney, Van Dyke, and Walsh.

Q. Right, but you don't have a specific recollection of telling Officer Fontaine, "You should list these three individuals as victims in your Original Case Incident Report"?

A. No, I don't recall that.
Q. Were you responsible for approving this Original Case Incident Report?

A. Absolutely not. As a detective, I have no authority to go into the computer system and approve anyone's report. Only a sergeant and above can do that.

Q. Let me back up, actually. In the Injuries section on Page 1, it says, "Injury info, PO Van Dyke, Number 12865, Jason - victim" and then underneath that it says, "Injured by offender."

Did you direct Officer Fontaine to include that, "Injured by offender" language in the report?

A. No.

Q. Do you have any knowledge as to why Officer Fontaine included that language in the report?

A. I can only speculate as to why that entry is in the report. The most likely reason that I can think of is that, again, as I explained, she was on the computer dealing with different computer screens.

And for this -- I know that for this,
"Injured by offender" entry, it's just a -- I believe they call it a radio button in computer terminology, but it's just a button you click on if that's the entry you want on the report.

My best guess would be that somehow she clicked on that button by accident because at no time did Jason Van Dyke tell me that he was injured, at no time did anyone else tell me that Jason Van Dyke or that anyone else was injured during this incident besides Laquan McDonald.

And I don't know if maybe Dora Fontaine thought he was or someone told her that he was, but I tend to believe that this was more of an accident because here's the thing: When an officer intentionally -- if they have a victim who is injured and they are intentionally clicking on that button to indicate that the victim was injured by the offender, there are then some subsequent drop-down menus that are normally -- a choice is made to also make an entry.

So in that case, let's say if this was -- Van Dyke was injured, you would have the entry, "injured by offender." It would then say, "nature of injury" and a drop-down menu --
some of the -- not all of the selections,
but -- this is not an inclusive list, but some of the -- and, again, these are all computer choices. These are not the words of an officer entering it.

Some of the entries and selections -- or possible selections in the drop-down menu are gunshot wound, stab wound, blunt force trauma,
abrasion, bruising, along those lines.

And then there's another drop-down menu for the weapon used or instrument used to inflict the injury. Is it a firearm, is it a knife, is it a blunt instrument, is it hands if someone is punching someone.

So, again, my feeling or my interpretation of this is, if that was an intentional entry by Dora Fontaine, I would expect there to see the entries from the subsequent drop-down menus here. And those are not here, so that makes me think more likely than not, this was -- you know, I'm sure -- I know I have, most people I know have at some point in time clicked on the wrong button on the computer and gotten a result that they didn't want, and I think that's what happened here.

I might also add that most of the entries from this Original Case Report, once it is approved, when I create a report subsequent to that, the report -- what I'm starting with is not a blank report. I'm starting with the information populated from this report. And then it's up to me to create -- to correct any errors and to update any information if I learn something that's different from what the beat officer had in their report.

And I can tell you from looking at my reports, nowhere in my reports does this injury
section appear at all.

Q. Okay.

A. And I don't specifically remember doing this, but when I created a report, I go through all the screens to make sure the information is accurate as far as what I know,
and if that box "injured by offender" had been checked, I obviously unchecked it because in my reports, this does not appear.
Q. I got you. Did you review this Exhibit 6 report before it was finalized?

A. No.

Q. Do you --

A. And there's no -- I might also add that there is no evidence anywhere that I had anything to do with the drafting or the reviewing or the approval of this report.

Q. Do you recall when you first saw this Exhibit 6 report?

A. Sometime the following morning after it was approved, I believe.

Q. Your name on Page 4 -- bottom of Page 4 in the Personnel section, your name and PC number are listed, along with the date of -- well, I should ask you, is that your PC number next your name at the bottom of Page 4?

A. Yes.

Q. And then a date and time is -- next to that PC number is October 21st, 2014, 15:01. What does that time signify?

A. Well, again, Mr. McKay alluded to this at the beginning of this proceeding when he said John Escalante would never have made the allegations that I am now facing regarding this report because if you just look at this report, it logically tells you what happened here.

The bottom line -- the last line of this page is that Dora Fontaine submitted the report on 21 October 2014 at 0432 hours, which is 4:32 a.m. That is the time the computer assigns. She didn't pick that time; that is the time the computer assigns when she clicks the "Submit" button.

The next time chronologically is the top -- the top line here, Sergeant Stephen Franko, it's got his approval time at 21 October 2014 at 0518 hours, that's 5:18 a.m. That is, again, not a time chosen by Sergeant Franko. When he clicks -- when he goes in there as a supervisor and clicks on the "Approval" button, that time is assigned by the computer.

And, again, First Deputy Superintendent John Escalante would know these things.

My name is on the middle line there, and it says -- my name is associated with a time of 21 October 2014 at 1501 hours, which is 3:01 p.m. on that same day. So it's almost -- it's getting close -- it's about ten hours after Sergeant Franko approved the report.

And, again, First Deputy Superintendent Escalante would know that Dora Fontaine's entry is in regards to when she submitted the report; Sergeant Franko's name is
in regards to the time he approved the report;
my name is the time at which a supervisor or a detective assigned to the Area Case Management Office went into the computer system and administrative -- knew that I was the assigned detective and went into the system and administratively assigned the job -- this incident to me on 21 October 2014 at 1501 hours.

Again, that's the time it was administratively assigned to me. It was actually assigned to me many hours earlier on the night of the 20th by Sergeant Gallagher verbally in person, but it didn't make it into the computer obviously until all these steps occurred.

And, again, First Deputy Superintendent John Escalante would know all this and, therefore, never would have made these allegations, two of which -- not just one, two of which I'm looking at regarding this one
report.

MR. NEUMER: At this time I'm going to turn it over to my colleague for follow-up questions.

MS. WITZBURG: Thanks.

BY MS. WITZBURG:

Q. Detective, you mentioned that there was a conversation on the scene having to do with who would be designated as a victim; is that right?

A. Correct.

Q. Tell us a little bit more about that collection. Who else --

MR. McKAY: Objection, this has been asked and answered in April. You were here, Peter,
Kris Brown was here, with all due respect to
Ms. Witzburg, she was not. That's why she doesn't know about that conversation. You do.

That's not the purpose of this second interview is to do a do-over of the first interview, so I'm objecting to these questions.

And I ask that Ms. Witzburg move on to questions that are related to yours pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement. She can ask follow-up questions of your questioning, not do a discovery deposition of something she may not have personal knowledge of because she was not present for the April interviews.

MR. NEUMER: I mean, I think the question is reasonable and I would just ask the court reporter to read it back to Mr. -- Detective March.

(WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter.)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Maybe you could repeat the -- ask me
what you want to know.

BY MS. WITZBURG:

Q. Who participated in that conversation?

A. I do not recall all of the parties.
I know obviously myself was part of it. I believe Sergeant Gallagher was part of it, and
ultimately I know Deputy Chief David McNaughton, who was the on-call incident commander, the highest-ranking department member on the scene
in charge of the entire scene, he ultimately weighed in on it.

Q. Okay. And do you know which person who had participated in that conversation gave the information to Officer Fontaine as to who to designate as victims in that report?

A. I don't recall how that information got communicated to her.

Q. Do you recall if it was you?

A. No, I don't recall.

Q. Okay. So it could have been but you're not sure?

MR. McKay: Objection, asked and answered. I also ask the record reflect that this questioning, in my mind, is violating Subsection C of Section 6.2 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement which clearly mandates that if there is a second interviewer, that second interviewer will ask follow-up questions for clarification purposes only. She cannot or he cannot conduct questioning of a witness during a second interview after it had already been gone into during the first interview several months ago.
BY MS. WITZBURG:

Q. Detective March, you told us you first saw this report, I believe you said, sometime the following day, sometime on October 21st; is that right?

A. Sometime that morning.

Q. Okay. Generally speaking, when you're assigned to an investigation, when you review the Original Case Incident Report, if you discover something that you consider to be an error in that report, what steps would you take?

A. As I just -- I think I just went into that. When I go in to create my subsequent reports, if there's any information that's inaccurate, I correct it.

If there's additional information that the officer didn't have at the time that I now have, I add that and update the -- I update everything to the most accurate information that I have available to me.

Q. Understood. To ensure the accuracy of your subsequent reports, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Would you take any steps as far as correcting the original report itself or noting anywhere that that report contained an error?

A. No, for integrity of the report, once the report is approved by a sergeant, it cannot be changed. That is the original report. Any subsequent reports that need to -- have updated information, you create that information in the updated reports.

Like I said, in this case, I don't specifically remember that, but it makes sense -- I mean, it would most likely be that this obviously does appear, this entry about Van Dyke being injured by offender obviously does appear in the approved version of her report.

So, again, I don't specifically recall this, but it should have carried over and populated my report when I created my report in the computer, and then when I went through all the screens to make sure the information was accurate and update new information that I had, I -- again, that information is not in my report, so, again, I don't specifically recall taking this action, but I probably unchecked that button so that my report was accurate as far as what the facts were as I knew them.

Q. Okay. And did you record anywhere your impression that the original report contained this inaccurate fact?

A. No, and there's no requirement that I do that.

Q. Thanks.

MR. McKay: I would object to that question because that's not alleged by the Office of Inspector General in the Notification of Allegations.

He is being asked about either reviewing and approving her report or assisting in the drafting. There is no allegation that he's under some duty to correct a report he did not prepare nor did he approve.

MR. NEUMER: The time is 12:17 p.m. We're going to go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: Time is 12:20 p.m. We're back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, we have no further questions for you today; however, understanding the nature of our investigation, if there's any other information you think is -- we should know, now is your opportunity to provide that information on the record.

MR. MCKAY: Well, can I ask you a question, Peter? You made -- your office, I should say, made four allegations, three of which are somewhat specific, the fourth one is just an overall allegation based on the first three.

Are you going to specifically ask Detective March whether he admits or denies your allegations?

MR. NEUMER: I mean, I think the -- I think his answers have specifically addressed each of the Notice of Allegations. If there's anything he would like to say regarding allegations one through four, the floor is yours.

MR. MCKAY: All right. If I may?

EXAMINATION

BY MR. MCKAY:

Q. Detective March, drawing your attention to the Office of Inspector General's Exhibit 3, number one, on October 21st, 2014, did you review and approve an Original Case Incident Report, which includes an event number of 1429315878 and an RD number of HX475653, even though it falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was "injured by offender"?

A. My response to the allegation is the allegation is entirely false. I have no authority to review and approve anyone's Original Case Incident Report, and in this case, I did not review and approve the Original Case Incident Report.

Q. Directing your attention to allegation number two of the Inspector General's Exhibit 3.

On or about October 20th, 2014, or October 21st, 2014, did you assist in the drafting of the OCIR which falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was "injured by offender"?

A. No, I did not assist in the drafting of that report, especially regarding the point at which it states that Officer Van Dyke was, "injured by offender."

Q. In fact, sir, in all of the reports that you did create, whether they were supplemental reports or GPRs of witness interviews, did you at any time indicate that Officer Jason Van Dyke was injured by Laquan
McDonald?

Q. Regarding allegation number three of Inspector General's Exhibit Number 3, did you,
on or about October 20th, 2014, make a false statement to Investigator Earl Briggs of the Cook County Office of the Medical Examiner when,
with respect to the McDonald shooting, where Briggs wrote down, "McDonald lunged at the Chicago police officers assigned to Beat 845R with a knife," what do you say about that allegation?

MR. NEUMER: Just for the record, Jim, can you note that you added some additional language to the allegation number three in your recital
of it.

MR. MCKAY: Well, I will only because you and your office stated Detective March stated to Briggs that McDonald lunged at Chicago police officers. It's Detective March's position he
BY MR. McKAY:

Q. So I would ask, Detective March, how do you respond to allegation number three of the Inspector General's Exhibit Number 3 as they have specifically alleged?

A. The allegation is entirely false. I never made a false statement to Investigator Briggs especially to the point where it's alleged here that I said that -- or that I stated that McDonald lunged at Chicago police officers assigned to Beat 845 Robert with a knife.

I might also add that has been well documented now in our review of that report, there is a vast array of information contained in that report that no way could have possibly come from me at the time that I made that notification from the scene.

So obviously that report is a summary of a lot of information that Investigator Briggs obtained from a number of different sources, and, as I already detailed in our discussion of that report, it is not a summary of information.

I also might add, again as to the credibility of his report being used for any allegations against me and his attention to detail to record facts, the most glaring of which he's got the incident occurring on the wrong date, which does not appear to me to be a typographical error where he just got one number wrong; he got both numbers wrong on the date, the first and the second number. So it doesn't appear to be just a simple typo to me.

Again, so it goes to the credibility of that report being used as a -- regarding his attention to detail and that being used as a factual basis for any allegations against me.

I also might add that there was absolutely no motive for me to misrepresent Laquan McDonald's action during the confrontation with Jason Van Dyke because right from the beginning, I told Investigator Briggs this was a police officer-involved shooting where the offender had been shot and killed. And I told him that the subject, Laquan McDonald, had been struck multiple times by gunshot wounds.

So there is no way using the word "lunged" as opposed to any other word would have made a difference to the Medical Examiner's Office. It was very clear that night at the scene before the Medical Examiner's Office ever got the body that their ultimate finding was going to be that the cause and manner of death would be multiple gunshot wounds, homicide.

The only question left was whether or not Jason Van Dyke's use of deadly force was justified or not, and the Medical Examiner's Office does not weigh in on that. All they do is make the determination that the cause of death is multiple gunshot wounds, because there's more than one gunshot wound -- and the manner of death is homicide.

And in the terms that the Medical Examiner's Office uses, all that indicates was that this person was killed by another person, not by a car crash or anything else. Whether or not it was a crime or a justifiable homicide or an accident, the Medical Examiner's Office doesn't make that determination. That is determined through all of the subsequent investigation that was -- is conducted.

So the portrayal of Laquan McDonald's actions in a preliminary notification to the Office of the Medical Examiner would have had no -- absolutely no bearing on their findings in this matter.

And so, therefore, I think, again, that's consistent with me, again, knowing about the importance of details of the elements of a crime and knowing in almost two years of talking about this case, in writing, in verbally, in front of different authorities, I never -- have never used the word, "lunge" or, "lunged" to characterize what Laquan McDonald did that night.

And I wouldn't have used it as quoting of any of my witnesses because none of the witnesses I spoke to ever used the word, "lunge." And, again, as I already said, when I viewed the video, what I viewed I never characterized as a lunge.

So, again, I believe what's in Investigator Briggs' report in addition to his inaccuracies are his words, using his words, he summarized all of the information he gathered that night.

Q. In your preparation of your official reports in this case, did you ever use the words or the phrase that Laquan McDonald lunged at Chicago police officers?

A. No.

Q. Finally, regarding allegation number four in Exhibit Number 3 of the Office of Inspector General, which alleges that you were incompetent in the performance of your duties in the ways enumerated in allegations one through three, how do you respond?

A. I find it very, very -- I find allegation number four maybe the most offensive allegation that I am facing regarding this investigation, and here's why: My mother and father did a wonderful job raising five children, okay? They taught me the importance of being a conscientious student in school and a conscientious employee in the workforce, the importance to showing to work on time, giving your best effort to anything that you do, okay?
I, over 34 years of employment with the Chicago Police Department -- and no one in the Inspector General's Office probably has any idea, but within the organization of the Chicago Police Department, I have a reputation for being very complete, very thorough, very professional, and very competent, okay?

And I'm not using these words just because I have a Donald Trump ego, okay? People have told me that. Supervisors have told me that. Prosecutors in the State's Attorney's Office of Cook County have told me.

I've dealt with law enforcement agencies at the federal level, state level, county level, city level, other municipalities, and never once -- and you can check my disciplinary record -- has anyone ever made any kind of indication that my work is anything but complete, thorough, professional, and competent.

And I find this allegation, as I said, the most reprehensible and offensive of anything that I encountered so far during the course of this investigation. And I would just cautions the Inspector General's Office, who likes to use these words very generously, to be careful in their terminology because the words they're using during the course of this investigation could very well come back and used to judge their competence and professionalism and thoroughness and completeness.

Q. In addition to that, Detective March, is there anything you wish to add to what you have already testified under oath to?

A. No.

MR. McKay: Thank you, Mr. Neumer.

MR. NEUMER: The time is 12:31, and this interview is concluded.

(WHEREUPON, the interview was concluded at 12:31 p.m.)

CITY OF CHICAGO
OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

ADVICE OF RIGHTS

I, David March, understand that I am being interviewed by Peter Neumeier and Deborah Witzburg from the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General.

DATE 7/25/16 TIME LOCATION 300 West Adams Street, Ste. 800, Chicago, IL

I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully.

I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand that if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the questions. I further understand and I have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I understand and have been advised that my statements or responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's Rules and Regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding.

I understand that I have the right to have a union representative, or legal counsel of my choosing, present at the interview to consult with, and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed.

I understand that a refusal to answer any question, or any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56, and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me, and I have been allowed to review this document.

Employee Signature:

Witness:

Understanding these rights, I wish to answer questions from investigators from the Office of Inspector General without having a union representative or legal counsel present. No promises or threats have been made to me and no pressure or coercion of any kind has been used against me.

NOTIFICATION OF ALLEGATIONS
CITY OF CHICAGO OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

NAME OF ACCUSED | RANK | STAR NO. | UNIT OF ASSIGNMENT
David March | Detective | 20563 | 610

City ordinance, and if applicable, collective bargaining agreements, provide that you are entitled to notice of the nature of the allegations against you and the identity of all complainants prior to any interview. Accordingly, you are advised as follows:

COMPLAINANT(S)

1. John J. Escalante, Interim Superintendent of Chicago Police Department, sent a letter to the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General (OIG) dated January 19, 2016, requesting that OIG conduct an administrative investigation of the following allegations arising out of the October 20, 2014 shooting death of Laquan McDonald (the McDonald Shooting): “whether any officer(s) made false statements on official reports submitted in connection with the shooting of Laquan McDonald on October 20, 2014, whether any officer(s) obstructed or interfered with the investigation of this incident, either individually or in collusion with others, and whether any officer(s) committed any violation of Chicago Police Department rules, policies, or orders in connection with their response and/or handling of this matter.”

Escalante attached to the letter a copy of Sergeant S. Boria’s (Star # 2275) Initiation Report, which raises similar allegations of misconduct with respect to Department members in connection with the McDonald Shooting, and identified that Report as a Basis for OIG’s administrative investigation.

ALLEGATION(S)

1. On October 21, 2014, you reviewed and approved an Original Case Incident Report, which includes an Event Number of 14298158078 and an R.D. Number of RX475653 (the OCIR), even though it falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was “Injured by offender.”

2. On or about October 20, 2014, or October 21, 2014, you assisted in the drafting of the OCIR, which falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was “Injured by offender.”

3. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a false statement to Investigator Earl Briggs of Cook County’s Office of the Medical Examiner when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you stated that McDonald lunged at Chicago Police Officers assigned to Beat 845R with a knife.

4. You were incompetent in the performance of your duties in the ways enumerated in allegations 1 through 3.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Narrative

On 20 October 2014 at 2351 hours Detective March # 20563 of the Chicago Police Department Area Central Detectives Beat # 5121 notified the Forensic Institute the subject Laquan McDonald had expired at Mt. Sinai Hospital after being shot by an on duty Chicago Police Officer.

Detective March related the following: on or about 2156 hours 19 October 2014 Chicago Police 8th District Beat Car 815R responded to 41st and Kildare in reference to a “Citizen Holding a Subject”. Upon arrival Beat # 815R was confronted by the subject who threatened the officers with a 4 inch fold knife. The subject fled the scene on foot where at 4112 S. Pulaski the subject was stopped by officers assigned to Beat # 845R. The officers announced their office as “Chicago Police Officers” and ordered the subject to drop the knife. The subject lunged at the officers with the knife. Fearing for their life and attempting to stop the threat one officer (star # 9465) fired sixteen rounds from his duty weapon a Smith & Wesson 9mm handgun striking the subject numerous times. After striking the subject an ambulance was requested by the officers.

Upon arrival of Chicago Fire Department Ambulance # 21 the subject was transported to Mt. Sinai Hospital. Once at Mt. Sinai Hospital emergency room staff were unable to revive the subject and the subject expired at 2242 hours being pronounced by Doctor Titeel. It appears that the subject sustained the following gunshot wounds, four to the chest, six to the right arm, five to the left arm, one to the right side torso, two to the back, one to the right hip, two to the left leg front, two to the left leg rear, 2 to the left thigh and three to the right thigh. At this time since the officer fired sixteen times which of the twenty-six gunshot wounds are entrance or exit wounds.

At the time of this incident both officers assigned to Beat # 845R and 815R were in full Chicago Police Department uniform.

The subject was ordered along with all police reports, medical records which included admission blood which was drawn to the Forensic Institute for further examination.

Subject was positively identified by the Chicago Police ICLEAR system based on a prior Chicago Police Booking Number IR2106340. At the time of this report it is unknown why the citizen was “Holding the Subject” since the citizen left the scene and could not be interviewed.

Subject’s next of kin has not been notified

MS. ANSARI: As a preliminary matter, I am providing the following information: An independent certified court reporter is present today to provide a verbatim transcript of this interview.

To aid in the accuracy of the transcript, it is the custom and practice of court reporters to audio record the interview. The recording is the confidential work product property of the court reporter and will not be provided to any party including the Office of Inspector General.

If you request, the audio recording will be discontinued. So, Sergeant Franko, are you okay with the court reporter audio recording this interview?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MS. ANSARI: Let the record reflect that today's date is August 2, 2016. The time is 9:11 a.m. We are located at Amicus Court Reporters, 300 West Adams, Suite 800.

My name is Sarah Ansari. The court reporter is Angela Ingham, and I would ask that the other individuals present identify themselves and spell their name for the record.
MR. VALDEZ: Investigator Raul Valdez, R-a-u-l, V-a-l-d-e-z, Inspector General’s Office.

MR. PLEINES: Thomas Pleines, P-l-e-i-n-e-s, counsel for Sergeant Franko.

THE WITNESS: Sergeant Stephen Franko, S-t-e-p-h-e-n, F-r-a-n-k-o.

MS. ANSARI: There are no other individuals present.

We are here today pursuant to an investigation being conducted under Chapter 2-56 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago. We are here for an interview of Sergeant Stephen Franko.

Sergeant Franko, would you please raise your right hand and the court reporter will swear you in.

STEPHEN FRANKO, called as a witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So we are going to read the advisement of rights again for our procedures.

Sergeant Franko, I'm now going to hand you a form that is marked "Advisement of Rights." This has already -- this will be filled in with my name and Investigator Valdez's name. I'm going to ask you to read along with me as I go through it, and then I will ask you after each paragraph to acknowledge the paragraph.

"I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully," do you understand?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand that if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the questions. I further understand and I have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the rules and regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge," do you understand?
A. Yes.

Q. "I understand and have been advised that my statements or responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's rules and regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department," do you understand?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge," do you understand?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding," do you understand?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that I have the right to have a union representative, or legal counsel of my choosing, present at the interview to consult with, and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed," do you understand?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that a refusal to answer any questions, or any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance Chapter 2-56, and may serve as the basis for my discharge," do you understand?

A. Yes.

Q. "I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights have been read aloud to me, and I have been allowed to review this document," do you understand?

A. Yes.

Q. I'll ask that you please sign the advisement of rights, Sergeant Franko, and I will witness this and Investigator Valdez will also witness the document; and for the record, I'm going to cross out the waiver below since you brought legal representation, and we will mark this as...
Counsel, do you have any statements you would like to made for the record before we begin?

MR. PLEINES: I just want to state for the record that Sergeant Franko and I are considering this to be a continuation of the statement that he previously gave in June. He understands that he's still under a direct order to answer your questions; and as the admonitions you just read made clear, the statement is only under duress because he's been given a direct order to answer your questions.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So before we begin, we're going to mark the documents you were served with as exhibits to get them on the record.

So I'm marking as Exhibit 2 a document entitled "Notification of Interview" dated July 23, 2016. Have you seen this document, Sergeant Franko?

A. Yes.

Q. Did BIA provide you with this document on July 23, 2016?

A. Yes.
Q. Is your signature at the bottom of this document?
A. Yes.

Q. Marking as Exhibit 3, "Notification of Allegations," dated July 23, 2016, have you seen this document?
A. Yes.

Q. Did BIA provide you this document on July 23, 2016?
A. Yes.

Q. Is that your signature on the bottom of the page?
A. Yes.

Q. Marking as Exhibit 4 a document entitled "Receipt Form" dated July 23, 2016, have you seen this document?
A. Yes.

Q. Did BIA provide you with this document on July 23rd?
A. Yes.

Q. Is that your signature at the bottom of the page?
A. No signature on this one. This is the case report.
Q. Oops, sorry. So Exhibit 4 is an original case report. It's not the receipt. You received this document, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So Exhibit 5 is the receipt form, and that's dated July 23, 2016. Have you seen this document?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this document on July 23rd?

A. Yes.

Q. Is that your signature at the bottom of the page?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. In addition to the materials we provided you, did you review any other materials in preparation for this interview?

A. No.

Q. Did you speak with anyone in preparation for this interview besides your attorney?

A. No.

MS. ANSARI: Counsel, may we provide the transcript of this interview within 72 hours of receipt?
MR. PLEINES: Yes, that would be fine.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. And do you have any other prepared remarks that you would like to make before we get into the substance of the interview?

A. I again want to preface this statement by saying that I am not giving this statement voluntarily but only under duress. I have received a direct order from Commander Klimas directing me to answer your questions. I have been informed both orally and in writing that if I disobey that order I will be fired from my job.

I also want to renew my objection to the delay in this matter. This shooting took place almost 20 months ago. This delay is prejudice to my ability to recall all of the details of my actions and movements so that I can properly defend myself.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Sergeant Franko, for the record, can you please state your star number and your current unit of assignment?

A. My name is Sergeant Stephen Franko, F-r-a-n-k-o, Star No. 1537, assigned to the First
Q. And on October 20, 2014, what was your star number, and what district were you assigned to?

A. My star number was 1381. I was assigned to the Eighth District.

Q. Okay. Sergeant Franko, can you please turn to Exhibit 4, the original case incident report. So as background, what is an original case incident report?

A. An original case report is the report that's prepared to document any incident that occurs on the street. It's prepared by the -- usually the first responding unit or the assigned unit, and they document the preliminary facts as gathered.

Q. Okay. Can you walk us through the process for completing one of these reports, kind of how does it get decided -- kind of starting with how does it get decided who even is doing it through the final signatures?

A. What usually occurs is OEMC assigns a car to a job. When you're given the assignment, you are the responsible paper car.
So from that point on when you arrive on scene, you gather as much information as you can, and then you prepare an original case report, which includes obtaining an RD number, which at that point that allows later on down the road a follow-up investigation because every original case report gets followed up by a detective division member.

Q. Okay. So is this the first document that kind of creates the RD number?

A. Yes. This is the thing that starts it all to allow everybody else to do a supplement to that -- supplementary report to that original RD number.

Q. So when you said, in terms of who completes it, it's the paper car, whoever is kind of responding to the incident?

A. Correct. It's the initial assigned car. There are instances where it can be given to another car. It just depends on the situation and what's going on at that incident.

Q. Okay. And what is the review chain for this kind of a report?

A. The original case report would in most cases be approved by the sergeant that is assigned to that car -- or that the car is assigned, too.

Q. So if a car under your supervision was filling one out, then it would be you who is signing it, correct?

A. Most likely, yes.

Q. And are you the -- or is it usually a sergeant who is the one?

MR. PLEINES: Is it usually a sergeant what?

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. When I asked who the ultimately approver is, that's usually a sergeant, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. And is there anyone above a sergeant who reviews the report?

A. It would be reviewed, but the ultimate approval comes from the front-line supervisor, which in this case is a sergeant.

Q. Okay, got it.

Does the detective assigned to a case generally also look at this report before it's finalized?

A. It would depend on --

MR. PLEINES: You were a detective, were you not?
THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. PLEINES: Answer on the basis of your own experience.

THE WITNESS: Most cases, no.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Okay. And then after it's finalized the detective -- would the detective eventually end up looking at it because it's in the file?

A. Yes.

Q. So for this specific report -- we'll get away from the general questions -- I'll give you time to take a look if you need to, but who prepared this report?

A. The reporting officer on this case was Officer Dora Fontaine.

Q. Now, why was she the reporting officer considering in this situation, the October 20th incident, she wasn't, I wouldn't consider, the kind of initial assigned car? Can you explain kind of how that happened?

A. Eventually after all the events unfolded, there needed to be a case report prepared, so somebody would have been assigned who was on scene. I do not remember or recall exactly how 841 Robert, which is the beat of Officer Fontaine -- I don't know how they were given the actual assignment.

The way the job came out, it wasn't a job given by OEMC. There was already a car that was assigned to the incident which unfolded into what it became.

So I don't know at that point who reassigned it to 841 Robert or assigned it to them to do the report. I don't recall, you know, exactly how that was done.

Q. Okay. So you did not direct Officer
Fontaine to complete this report?
A. To the best of my knowledge, I don't remember assigning her. It's been so long ago, and there was a lot going on. I don't remember the exact events that night.

Q. Okay. And you said you don't know who did assign her, or you're not sure?
A. I'm not sure.

Q. Did you speak with Officer Fontaine at all as she was preparing this report?
A. From looking at the -- at the time it was submitted, I probably spoke to her early on about some preliminary information; but as the night was going on, I had nothing to do with the investigation, so the next time I would have seen it was when I was ordered to approve the case report.

Q. Okay, got it.

Do you recall providing her any information to actually include in this report?

A. I don't specifically recall anything. The only thing I could have given her were some general information, address, maybe time, things like that.

I had nothing to do with the actual investigation, and I wouldn't have been able to provide her with anything regarding, you know, that part of it.

I don't even -- you know, in the area with the support services and the other units, I really had nothing to do with anybody, you know, recording that on scene.

(Whereupon, a discussion was had between Mr. Pleines and the witness.)

THE WITNESS: And additionally, any information that she would have gotten from me that night was also available to anybody else who was part of the investigation. It was general knowledge.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Okay. Do you know who she might have gotten a lot of the information that's in the report from?

A. I don't know specifically. In my time as a detective I do know that it's a collaboration of everybody who was on scene coming together and giving her information that was gathered; and it's her job to, as best she can, summarize the information in a preliminary format to move forward with further investigation.

Q. Okay. And so as a general matter with a police-involved shooting, would this be the kind of report where the reporting officer would get a lot of information from the detective, detective or detectives?

A. Yes, detectives and other officers on scene including other supervisors. It's just a collaboration of everything.

Q. And so do you recall was it kind of a situation where Officer Fontaine was walking around and just gathering as much information as she could? Do you recall that specifically and -- do you recall that specifically?

A. I remember when she was in the area when we were doing everything that she was, you know, involved with a lot of different people, specifically the detectives.

When the superior officers got to the scene and relieved me of basically my role in the matter, I was out of it and just there as a support role for anything they needed. So I didn't have anything to do with the investigation or the gathering of information or the reporting of any information.

Q. Okay. So on the last page, on Page 4, it lists Detective March as detective investigator and a date October 21, 2014, 1501?

MR. PLEINES: Spell the name, please.

MS. ANSARI: March, M-a-r-c-h.

MR. PLEINES: Okay. You don't mean Marsh?

MS. ANSARI: No, sorry, March.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Does this mean that Detective March was responsible for doing any kind of review or approval of this report?

A. There wouldn't have been a review -- or approval, I mean, because that would only be me.

I'm not sure what his name being here means.

I don't usually prepare any reports, and the last time I actually did a report was paper.

I'm not familiar with the era of reporting system

as far as entering information or checking boxes.

That could be that he was notified or could be that he had something else to do with it. I wouldn't have, you know, knowledge about whether he did or didn't.

Q. Okay. But you said that you were responsible for approving this report, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Did you review this report before you approved it?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall at what time you first saw it? I mean, I see here that the time of the -- it looks like the approval was October 21 -- the date is October 21, 2014, and the time is 5:18 a.m.

Would you have first seen the report around that time?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And did you review this report before it was finalized?

A. Yeah. It's time stamped in the system when it would be submitted and then approved; so, yeah, that would probably be around the time that I first laid my eyes on it.

Q. Okay. Did you review the whole report before you approved it?

A. I took a quick look at it. They wanted to get the RD generated, so I was told to approve it.

Q. Okay. If you turn back to Page 1.

A. Yes.

Q. This report characterizes Van Dyke as injured by offender under "Injuries" where the offender is McDonald. Did you review and approve that statement?

A. To be honest with you, I overlooked this. When it was brought to my attention, that was the first time that I saw that box in there.

Q. Okay.

A. Not being part of the investigation, if I would have seen it, I don't even know if I would have said anything because I don't know if he was or was not injured, and there was nothing at that point for me to question anything to whether or not
Q. You said you didn't know whether or not Van Dyke was injured that night?
A. I did not know. I had a very brief conversation with him when it first occurred; and after that, I really had nothing to do with the investigation. So, you know, if he had turned his ankle, anything else would have happened that would have caused injury to him I was not aware of that night.

Q. Okay. But you did talk to him that night at the scene, correct?
A. Yes, briefly.
Q. And he didn't indicate that he had been injured --
A. No.
Q. -- correct? Okay.
Did anyone else indicate to you that he might have been injured?
A. No.
Q. Did you direct Officer Fontaine to include "injured by offender" in the report?
A. No.
Q. Do you have any idea why she included that language in the report?

Q. So it looks like from this report -- but I'm not familiar with this system -- that this is something you can type in. Is that the case?

A. I would assume, but I can't say that with certainty if it was a box that says, "Injured by offender" or injured on -- I'm not sure. Like I said, I don't -- I've never prepared one of these in this format so -- and if I did see it, I don't recall if it's a box you can check or whether you have to specifically type that information into the box.

Q. Okay. So the time stamp on this of your approving time is 5:18 a.m. Had you seen the video of the shooting by 5:18 am?

A. Not in its entirety.

Q. When you say "not in its entirety," did you see the portion where McDonald was actually shot?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And did you see the portion of the video where McDonald was walking south on Pulaski?

A. At some point, yeah, partially when he was walking and then when the shooting occurred.

Q. Okay. And you said your conversation with Van Dyke at the scene was brief, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. Do you stand by the accuracy of that statement, that Van Dyke was injured by McDonald?

A. I can't stand by it because I wasn't part of the investigation.

Q. If -- so this is a general thing. If there's an original case incident report and as you're approving it you believe there's information in it that's incorrect, what are the steps to take to correct that information?

A. Generally if I think that there's information in there that needs to be corrected, I would reject the report, along with some comments;
and generally the officer, if they had any more questions, would ask me. But the comments I usually would provide in there would be enough for them to understand what they need to correct, but it's not unusual to actually have a conversation also.

Q. And if there's anything after the fact -- say you approve a report and you realize later that there's information in it that's incorrect. Is there a mechanism to correct the report after it's been approved?

A. There's no way to walk the actual report back after it's been approved. There's a short time frame where I think you can -- the approving sergeant can pull it back, but then it eventually goes into the system to be -- which is the CHRIS system then to be printed out.

Q. And you said you weren't made aware of this "injured by offender" language until we served you with the documentation --

A. Correct.

Q. -- on July 23rd?

A. That's the first time I noticed it, yes.

MS. ANSARI: Do you have any follow-up questions on this report?

MR. VALDEZ: No.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Okay. So we are going to move on to some follow-up questions from your past interview. Do you guys want to take a break or anything?

MR. PLEINES: Are you good?
THE WITNESS: I'm good, yeah.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Okay. So this may kind of jump around; so if you need more context, please let me know.

In your last interview you said that McDonald was still on the scene when you arrived, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Was he still breathing, or had he already passed away?

A. No, he was still breathing.

Q. He was still breathing?

A. Yes.

Q. And you ensured that an ambulance was called to the scene?

A. Correct.

Q. So I'm going to enter into evidence two exhibits that were provided to you at your last interview, and they're kind of examples.

We can add into evidence the Van Dyke tactical response report as Exhibit 6 and Van Dyke officer's battery report as Exhibit 7.

So if you'll turn to the Van Dyke officer's battery report, Exhibit 7.
A. Okay.

Q. Where it says, "Number of officers battered, 3," in your first interview you explained that in this kind of a situation where it says, "Number of officers battered" that you have to put something in because it doesn't say assaulted or battered but at a later time the officer is supposed to explain that he means assaulted? I'm putting words in your mouth, so I just want to get a better explanation of kind of what that...

MR. PLEINES: Can we go off the record for a moment?

MS. ANSARI: Sure.

(Discussion had off the record.)

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Back on the record, it's 9:39 a.m.

So, Sergeant Franko, as we were saying, in your last interview you explained that after the fact officers -- there might be a situation where you have to clarify something in the TRR form related to the number of officers battered and it should really be assaulted. Can you clarify how that works, if really it's an assault and not a battery what should be done to clarify that?
A. I don't have the actual knowledge of what happened in this instance.

Q. Yes, in general.

A. But in general, this report would be filled out in any case where there was a murder, aggravated battery, battery, aggravated assault, or assault while in the performance of a police officer's duties. That's the only time this additional report, the officer's battery report, would be filled out in conjunction with the tactical response report.

There is no place that I know of on here where they could say that they were assaulted versus battered. It says specifically battered.

And I know in other cases when there has been -- officers were assaulted, we would put the same number in there even though they weren't battered so that you could follow up on it at a later point to let them know that there were -- that the reason why we're doing this report -- if we put zero, then why are we doing this report?

So there probably should be an additional box on the form that said battered -- assaulted or battered, assaulted. But if we put zero, then there would be no reason to do an officer's battered report. So it's sort of a way to verify that we are doing this because we have officers who were battered/assaulted.

Q. And so when after the fact is it clarified; and is there an actual, like, written form or some kind of procedure?

A. I don't know. Everything on this report says battered, battered, if you look at it. So even though the instructions say we can use this when there's assault, it also -- I think it was just an omission when they did the report to not include that in.

But this is always used when there's just an assault also, so it gets confusing because now, if we do "Type of Assignment When Battery Occurred," well, there wasn't a battery, it was an assault. Does that mean we don't fill these out? But this is important information pertinent to the report.

So we go with the assumption that if the report is needed then we would go with, you know, assault or battery. It doesn't matter. If it needs this report, we fill the boxes in accordingly.
to the instructions.

Q. Okay.
A. And, again, that's just a general answer based on my experience.

Q. Yes, a general --
A. Not specific to this case.
Q. Yes, I am asking generally.

(Whereupon, a discussion was had between Mr. Pleines and the witness.)

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So I'm now going to show you a portion of the video that was recovered from the in-car video system of B813R. This is one of the videos that we provided to you in preparation for your first interview.

Raul is going to open the VLC media file titled "Video_TS.IFO" on his laptop. The file contains six minutes and five seconds of footage. The video has also a time stamp on it indicating the date and time the video was recorded. We're going to advance the video to the portion time stamped 9:57:22. The VLC media player time bar will be at...
MR. VALDEZ: We'll find out where it's going to be right now. You said 9:57:22 is where you want it? We'll start at 9:57 if that's okay.

MS. ANSARI: Yes, that's fine.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So the time stamp on the VLC media is at 412. So we're going to watch this all the way through once from here to after the shooting, and then we'll go back and ask you a couple of questions.

A. Sure.

Q. Okay. We can stop here, and we're stopping at 451.

So, Sergeant Franko, I would like to turn back to the tactical response report, Exhibit 6. So in the tactical response report under "Assailant Battery," "Attack With Weapon" is checked. I want to go back through the video and ask in your opinion where you think the attack with weapon happened, and just tell us to stop, and we'll kind of try and clear that up for the record.

MR. PLEINES: We're going to need to take a break.

MS. ANSARI: Take one now? Sure. It is 9:45.
(Short recess was taken.)

MS. ANSARI: We can go back on the record. It is 9:49 a.m. Angela, can you read back the last question?

(Record read as requested.)

MR. PLEINES: Are you ready?

MS. ANSARI: Yes.

THE WITNESS: I just want to preface before we get into this are you asking my opinion from what I thought that night or my opinion from what I think now after I've reviewed all the video and have seen the footage in its entirety?

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Both. So we can do that in two parts.

A. Okay.

MR. PLEINES: As much as that is possible.

THE WITNESS: Right.

MS. ANSARI: Right.

MR. VALDEZ: Let me know when you want me to pause.

MR. PLEINES: Can you slow it down?

MR. VALDEZ: Yes, I can.

MS. ANSARI: We can play it in half time.

MR. PLEINES: And if there's a spot in this slowed version, that's fine. If not, we'll go back to normal speed.

THE WITNESS: Okay. Maybe I can clear things up a little bit, too, with the two different opinions is the night of I had very limited information because I wasn't part of the investigation.

The video I did see was just from bits and dieces walking around in the office. I didn't see enough of it to have a strong opinion one way or another, and I relied on the investigators that night to make their determination.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

MR. PLEINES: Since that time?

THE WITNESS: Since that time when I've had a chance to review it, I do have an opinion on it.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Okay. So I'll go through each of my questions relating to the report --

A. Okay.

Q. -- and if the answer is the same regarding what your opinion was that night, just let me know, and then we'll go through what your opinion is.

So now we're playing it on half speed.
A. Right. Now at this time I do want to also clarify that he is an assailant at this point based on his activities with 815 Robert's vehicle, attack with the knife, and he's got the knife in his hand right now, in his right hand.

(Whereupon, a discussion was had between Mr. Pleines and the witness.)

THE WITNESS: Yeah, that's the term that we use in the use of force model is assailant.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Okay.

A. Now the part that I was -- I guess ask a question first and then I'll...

Q. In your opinion at the time where was the attack with weapon on the video?

A. The night of, I was provided with the same information everyone else was that Lequan McDonald was attacking, attempting to stab the officers with the knife.

So based on everything that was given to me and that was provided to me through the investigators, that was my impression was that he had a knife, he was attacking -- or approaching the officers in a threatening way, which would still be an attack, and Officer Van Dyke fired until, you know, the threat was no more.

Q. Okay. So from that night, your understanding was that Officers Walsh and Van Dyke were also attacked with a weapon, not just Officer Gaffney?

A. Correct. The attack would be coming at somebody with a knife. You're a victim of an aggravated assault.

Q. Okay. And so that opinion was formed from talking to people at the scene, not from the video?

A. I didn't see the video in its official capacity. So to make my decision based on bits and pieces that I did see wouldn't have been fair. It was about everything that was given to me and that I learned through being there that night that I believed it was an assailant with a knife coming at the officers and the officers fired -- or Officer Van Dyke fired his weapon.

Q. Okay. So now your opinion, what is your opinion where the attack with the weapon is, now having the benefit of seeing the video in its entirety?
MR. PLEINES: Describe it.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. And we can go back now --

A. This comes -- this brings our training into account. We were trained when I went through the academy that anytime there is an assailant who has a knife -- and it was proven in the training classes -- that you do not have time within 7 paces or 21 feet to pull your weapon out and eliminate the attack with your gun if you still had it holstered.

So when somebody with a knife is within 21 feet of you, you better have your weapon out and ready to go because he could kill you with that knife or your partner or anybody else within that distance.

So in perspective with the lane markers, the lines, the width of what -- you know, eight to ten feet, I don't know how wide officially it was there, he could be two paces, maybe less, away from being on top of Van Dyke or his partner.

Q. Okay. And that's --

A. You'll see. And then there's going to be a moment where he takes his left foot, and he kind of stutter steps towards Van Dyke and Walsh.

Q. Okay. Let me know where you kind of see that.

MR. VALDEZ: Just for the record, the VLC media player is at 4 minutes and 35 seconds, and we're going to replay the video.

THE WITNESS: No, it's after he takes the knife out and he puts it like right there. It's coming up. Now, right now it appears that he's walking away from the car; but if you play it, now as he's coming close to them, he's still -- at some point he's going to be less than ten feet away. Watch his left foot.

Okay. As he's walking there, the distance between Van Dyke and the officers, from what I could tell, is probably six feet or less, even though he's walking sideways.

No, it would have been before that. The way he's bouncing with his stride, he's got a knife in his hand, it would have only taken a brief moment for him. Yeah, keep going.

MS. ANSARI: Now we're at kind of 442, 443.

MR. VALDEZ: And I can go frame by frame.

THE WITNESS: Yeah, let's go frame by frame.
Now you can see the distance here. It's one lane line, one lane.

MR. PLEINES: One lane of traffic?

THE WITNESS: Right, one lane of traffic. He's got a knife in his right hand, and you have Van Dyke with his weapon, looks like it's extended out. It's hard to see with the light, but he's got his weapon in his hand. Now his foot is still left to the line.

MR. VALDEZ: So we're at 444 on the VLC media player and I'm just going to --

THE WITNESS: Yeah, could you just play it in real time?

MR. VALDEZ: Sure.

THE WITNESS: I didn't have the benefit of this slowed-down version when I was watching it, so my perspective wouldn't be the same.

The way he's walking where he's bouncing up and down, not our normal gait. It's the bouncing up and down as he's walking. At that point is he going to bounce left, is he going to bounce right?

He's extremely close. Yeah, he's got the weapon out. He's an assailant. He's close enough where if he takes two steps to the left he could be on Van Dyke before Van Dyke even has a chance to do anything about it.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Okay.

A. It's absolutely my opinion that he was an assailant and he was a threat to both officers, and the way he was acting erratically and bouncing that he easily could have went towards him, and at that point one or two officers could possibly have been stabbed.

Q. Okay. You mentioned something about -- it's called a 21-foot rule, correct?

A. Yes. That's how it was when I was trained, when I went through the academy.

Q. So you were trained in that in --

A. Yes. We actually had scenarios --

MR. PLEINES: Let her finish.

THE WITNESS: Sure.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So at the academy you were trained on the 21-foot rule, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And can you -- I know you repeated it before, but for the record more clearly explain what that rule is?

A. We were basically taught that if there was an armed offender within 21 feet of us and we did not have our weapon out that there was no way that you could pull that weapon out, aim it, and fire it in time to stop that offender from attacking us with the knife.

Q. Do you know if that's still taught in the academy?

A. I don't know what the exact -- I had informal conversations about this with some other officers, and it was even mentioned to me that it's been moved back to 25 feet. I don't know if that's true or not; but in our conversations about this after the fact, it's still being taught. I just don't know what the distance is; and, like I said,
it might have been moved back further.

Q. When did you have conversation -- you said you had conversations with other officers about that. When was that?

A. Just officers in general, like, in -- you know, nothing to do with the investigation or the officers, just people that we talk to, like, at work or when it would be on TV and we would see it, just those kinds of conversations.

Q. So not in relation to kind of what was being investigated?

A. No.

Q. And not that night?

A. No.

Q. So just kind of after when this all came out in the media discussing that?

A. Correct.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. Do you have any follow-up on that?

MR. VALDEZ: Yes.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. VALDEZ:

Q. Just in relation to the 21-foot rule, that evening do you recall any discussions of the 21-foot rule?

A. I didn't have anything to do with the investigation. I have no idea if it was brought up. Not anything that had to do with me.

Q. How about anything that you overheard possibly maybe at area central, anything along those lines?
A. Nothing official, no. It was just talk of he was real close to him and he had the knife.

Q. Right. And I understand nothing official, and that's kind of what I'm getting at. Like maybe in passing or something that you overheard?

A. No. It was just that he was very close to them and he had a knife.

Q. And was any of that conversation in relation to the 21-foot rule specifically or just distance in general?

A. I believe it was just distance in general, that -- you know, how close he was to the officer's proximity.

Q. Okay.

FURTHER EXAMINATION

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Was Van Dyke part of any of those conversations when people were talking about it that night?

A. No.

Q. Because he was kind of separated from everyone is my understanding?

A. Correct.

Q. So do you have any questions for us or anything to add based on what we've asked today or in your previous interview?

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PLEINES:

Q. I want to ask you a question to try to clarify.

The responsibilities of the paper car versus the sergeant when responding to an incident, if an assignment comes out over the police radio system of, let's say, a burglary, who is that job going to be given to?

A. It's going to be given to the car who was assigned the job in their sector.

Q. Right.

A. Or their beat depending on which car is available but they generally have beat integrity, so it's going to be somebody who is assigned to that area.

Q. And a sergeant may or may not also be sent on that call, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Do sergeants do preliminary investigations?

A. No.
Q. Whose responsibility is it to do a preliminary investigation?
A. The beat officer assigned to the job.
Q. And they're also the ones who you referred to as the paper car?
A. Correct.
Q. So they write out the original case report?
A. Yes.
Q. And your role as the sergeant in relationship to that case report is just to approve it?
A. Correct.
Q. And what does your approval mean or constitute?
A. My approval means that all the information that is on there -- making sure that the pertinent boxes are filled. The information that's provided, by not being on scene, I am taking the word of the officers that were there that it's true and accurate; and after I review the entire document, I will give it my approval.
Q. So in your mind and based upon your training and experience, when you approve a report, are you verifying its accuracy?

A. There's no way I can verify with 100 percent that it's accurate.

Q. That's all I wanted.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. This concludes our interview. It is 10:03 a.m.

OIG 15-0564 016661
OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS

I, Stephen Franko, understand that I am being interviewed by Sarah Ansari and Raul Vaider from the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General.

DATE 8/2/16  TIME 9:11am  LOCATION 300 West Adams Street, Ste. 600 Chicago, IL

I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully.

I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand that if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the questions. I further understand and have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I understand and have been advised that my statements or responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department’s Rules and Regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding.

I understand that I have the right to have a union representative, or legal counsel of my choosing, present at the interview to consult with, and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed.

I understand that a refusal to answer any question, or any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56, and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me, and I have been allowed to review this document.

City ordinance, and if applicable, collective bargaining agreements, provide that you are entitled to notice of the nature of the allegations against you and the identity of all complainants prior to any interview. Accordingly, you are advised as follows:

COMPLAINANT(S)

1. John J. Escalante, Interim Superintendent of Chicago Police Department, sent a letter to the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General (OIG) dated January 19, 2016, requesting that OIG conduct an administrative investigation of the following allegations arising out of the October 20, 2014 shooting death of Laquan McDonald (the McDonald Shooting): "whether any officer(s) made false statements on official reports submitted in connection with the shooting of Laquan McDonald on October 20, 2014; whether any officer(s) obstructed or interfered with the investigation of this incident, either individually or in collusion with others; and whether any officer(s) committed any violation of Chicago Police Department rules, policies, or orders in connection with their response and/or handling of this matter." Escalante attached to the letter a copy of Sergeant E. Sorita’s (Star # 2275) Initiation Report, which raises similar allegations of misconduct with respect to Department members in connection with the McDonald Shooting, and identified that Report as a basis for OIG’s administrative investigation.

1. On October 21, 2014, you reviewed and approved the Original Case Incident Report Officer Dore Fontaine completed concerning the McDonald shooting, which included an Event Number of 7429315078 and an N.D. Number of R475653 (the OCT Report), and which falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was "injured by offender."

2. On or about October 30, 2014 or October 21, 2014, you directed that Officer Fontaine complete a false OCT Report concerning the McDonald shooting.

3. On or about October 20, 2014 or October 21, 2014, you assisted Officer Fontaine in the drafting of a false OCT Report concerning the McDonald shooting.

4. You were incompetent in the performance of your duties in the ways enumerated in allegations 1 through 3.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I hereby acknowledge receipt in writing of the identity of the complainant(s) and notice of the nature of the allegation(s) against me.

No. 1 Advisement of Rights 10
(Witness duly sworn.)

MR. NEUMER: As a preliminary matter, I am providing the following information: An independent certified court reporter is present today to provide a verbatim transcript of this interview.

To aid in the accuracy of the transcript, it is the custom and practice of court reporters to audio record the interview.

The recording is the confidential work product, property of the court reporter and will not be provided to any party, including the OIG. If you request, the audio recording will be discontinued.

So Captain Walsh, I would ask you, are you okay with the court reporter audio recording this interview?

CAPTAIN WALSH: Yes, I am.

MR. NEUMER: Okay. Let the record reflect that today's date is November 3rd, 2016. The time is 2:09 p.m.

We are located at Amicus Court Reporters, 300 West Adams, Suite 800.

My name is Peter Neumer, N-e-u-m-e-r.
The court reporter is Teresa Volpentesta, and I would ask that the other individuals present identify themselves and spell their name for the record.

   MR. BROWN: Kristopher Brown, B-r-o-w-n, City of Chicago, Inspector General’s Office.

   MR. PLEINES: Thomas Pleines, P-l-e-i-n-e-s.

   CAPTAIN WALSH: Captain Dennis Walsh, W-a-l-s-h.

   MR. NEUMER: There are no other individuals present. We are here today pursuant to an investigation being conducted under Chapter 2-56 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago.

   We are here for an interview of Captain Dennis Walsh. Captain Walsh has already been sworn in.
CAPTAIN DENNIS WALSH, called as a witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Captain Walsh, I am now going to hand you a form that is marked Advisement of Rights.
This form has already been filled in, I believe,
with your name, my name, my colleague Kris Brown's name, and I am going to ask you to read along with me as I go through this advisement form, and after each paragraph I read, I am going to ask you to acknowledge that you read the paragraph I just read aloud to you.

So Tom, do you need to take a look at this before --

MR. PLEINES: No, we are good. I am looking on with him.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. The advisement states, I, Captain Dennis Walsh, understand that I am being interviewed by Peter Neumer and Kris Brown from the City of Chicago, Office of Inspector General.

I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation; that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully.

Captain Walsh, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully.

I understand that if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the question.

I further understand and I have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the rules and regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

Captain Walsh, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?
A. Yes, I do.

Q. I understand and have been advised that my statements or responses may constitute an official police report.

I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's rules and regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department.

Captain Walsh, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge.

Captain Walsh, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding.

Captain Walsh, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?
A. Yes, I do.
Q. I understand that I have the right to have a union representative or legal counsel of my choosing present at the interview to consult with, and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed.

Captain Walsh, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?
A. Yes, I do.
Q. I understand that a refusal to answer any question, or any false, inaccurate or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56 and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

Captain Walsh, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?
A. Yes, I do.
Q. I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me, and I have been allowed to review this document.

Captain Walsh, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. With that, I would ask you to sign, and Kris and I will witness.

A. (Witness complied.)

MR. NEUMER: And we will mark this advisement form as Exhibit 1.

(Whereupon Exhibit No. 1 was marked for identification.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So I understand, Captain Walsh, or is it fair to say that you will not be answering the questions that we ask of you today regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting absent an order from a superior officer?

A. I have been informed by my attorney that a Federal Grand Jury investigation of this incident is still pending.

I have also been informed that a state grand jury investigation is also pending.

While I have been advised I am not currently accused of any wrongdoing by the Office of the Inspector General or -- I am sorry.

The Office of the Inspector General cannot grant me immunity from prosecution by either the state or federal investigations.

Therefore, on the advice of counsel, I respectfully decline to answer your questions.

Q. Okay. We are now going to call Commander Robert Klimas.

(Whereupon, Commander Klimas was present telephonically.)

MR. NEUMER: Bob, this is Peter Neumer from the City of Chicago, Office of Inspector General.

I am here in a court-reported interview with my colleague Kris Brown with Captain Dennis Walsh of the Chicago Police Department and his attorney Tom Pleines.

Having provided Captain Walsh with proper notice of our interview here today, he is refusing to answer questions regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting absent a command from a superior officer.

So I am asking you, Commander Klimas, to order Captain Walsh to answer the Inspector General's questions.

COMMANDER KLIMAS: This is Commander Robert Klimas, K-l-i-m-a-s, with the Bureau of Internal Affairs, Chicago Police Department. Captain Dennis Walsh, I am giving you a direct order to answer all questions posed to you today by investigators with the City of Chicago, Office of Inspector General.

Do you understand this direct order?

CAPTAIN WALSH: I understand, sir.

COMMANDER KLIMAS: Thank you. Bye-bye.

MR. NEUMER: Bye.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay.

A. I want to preface this statement by saying that I am not giving this statement voluntarily but under duress.

I am giving this statement only because I have received a direct order to answer your questions, and further, I have been advised both orally and in writing, that if I disobey this order, I will be separated from the department.

Additionally, I want to object to the delay in this investigation. This incident occurred over two years ago. This delay is prejudicial to my ability to recall the details surrounding the incident so that I may give an accurate account of the event.

MR. NEUMER: Okay. And before we get into our questioning, Tom, just one preliminary matter.

With respect to the transcript of this interview, is it okay if the Inspector General provides you with that transcript within 72 hours of the Inspector General's receipt of that transcript?

MR. PLEINES: Yes, that's fine.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay. Captain Walsh, I just want to start with a little bit of background.

Could you state your name, title, and star number for the record?
A. Captain Dennis Walsh, W-a-l-s-h, Star 62. I am a captain of police and my current position is executive officer of the Area South Detective Division.

Q. And can you briefly walk us through the various positions you have held at CPD?

A. I was -- started out as a PPO, of course, when I was first hired, coming off of probation. I was a police officer, I was a sergeant, and a lieutenant and a captain.

Q. Do you recall when you became sergeant, lieutenant, and captain?

A. I may -- I became sergeant February 21st, 1997. I made lieutenant in October, I don't remember the exact dates. I think it was October 4th, 2004, made captain in March 16th of 2009.

Q. Okay. And what was your title as of October 20th, 2014?

A. I was a captain and I was the executive officer of the 8th District.

Q. Okay. And what was your chain of command as of October 20th, 2014?

A. My commander was James O'Donnell. We were in the Bureau of Patrol. Do you want me to go chain of command up?

Q. Yes?

A. The Deputy Chief of Area Central was Deputy Chief McNaughton. The Chief of Patrol, I don't know who it was at the time.

Q. Is it possible that it was Gulliford?

A. Yes, it was definitely a possibility it was Gulliford.

Q. How many people were you supervising as of October 20th, 2014?

A. Specifically on that day --

MR. PLEINES: Let me ask a clarifying question.

Are you asking for an actual number, or do you want to know what an executive officer does?

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I mean, maybe we will start with if you could just briefly describe for us the duties and responsibilities of a captain or the executive officer.

A. The executive officer is second in command to the district commander.
My responsibilities are in the areas of operations, administration, planning, identifying current crime trends, and help the commander in preparing strategies to combat crime and disorder that affect the community.

Q. What duties and responsibilities does an executive officer have with respect to a police-involved shooting?

A. In respect to a police-involved shooting with hits, there really is no specific responsibilities for a district executive officer.

Q. How about maybe we will call it more informally?

MR. PLEINES: Do you understand the question?

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Yeah, there is an understanding that there maybe is not a general order or special order documenting what the district executive officer is supposed to do in a -- with respect to a police-involved shooting, what was your practice with respect to police-involved shootings?
A. My practice involving police -- involving shootings with police would be that I would -- if I was on duty, I would respond to the scene, and I would basically be in charge of scene containment, traffic control, crowd control, and basically wait for the arrival of the street deputy or the OCIC, the On Call Incident Commander.

Q. And as of October 20th, 2014, what shift were you working?

A. I was -- well, I was basically working third watch. However, at that time I think on our A & A sheets, it was designated as the X watch or the 21st watch. They had made that change some time -- I think it was that year, I am not quite sure, but basically third watch hours.

Q. What is the X watch?

A. That was a watch designated just for executive officers.

Q. And does that X watch still exist?

A. Although I am not in patrol anymore, I do believe it does.

Q. Okay. So in terms of your practice to respond to a police-involved shooting with hits if you were on duty, is that -- is there any order that requires you to respond?

A. As far as I can remember, there is no order that requires me to respond to a police-involved shooting with hits.

Q. Okay. More generally, what duties and responsibilities does the Patrol Division itself have with respect to a police-involved shooting?

A. When there is a police-involved shooting, the Patrol Division is responsible for immediate notifications. A field supervisor will be designated as the officer in command until relieved by the investigative officer, the officer that has responsibility of the total
investigation.

Patrol Division has responsibility of setting up perimeters, both outer and perimeter, and the Patrol Division has the responsibility of outer perimeter protection upon the arrival of the Detective Division.

Q. And what does outer perimeter protection consist of?
A. Well, every scene is different, so I can't say that the perimeter is the same in each one.

Typically, it is a much larger, broader area. Crime scene tape will usually be used in yellow, cordoned off to keep the scene protected.

Q. So I want to direct your attention to the night of October 20th, 2014, and generally I want you to walk us through your actions on that night, but maybe you can start by telling us how you got notice of the shooting.

A. I do not remember how I got notified. I do know that I was working that night. I was on duty. I do believe I was out of the office at the time.

I believe I got called. All I can think is that I got called either by the watch commander or in this case watch operations lieutenant. We don't have watch commanders anymore, or by CPIC, but specifically, I do not recall.

Q. Who was the watch operations lieutenant as of October 20, 2014?
A. I believe it was Lieutenant Koch, but I am not positive.

Q. K-o-c-h?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. So it could have been a call from Koch, it could have been a call from CPIC?

A. That's correct.

Q. But no specific recollection of receiving that call?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. You believe you were out in the field when you may have received that call?

A. That's correct.

Q. Do you have any recollection of where you were?

A. I do not.

Q. Okay. Are there any other ways you would have gotten notification of the shooting or known to respond to the scene of the shooting?

A. I would have -- I could have gotten a notification through CPIC via e-mail.

Q. Okay. Did you have a work, like a Blackberry or a phone that you could have gotten an e-mail on?

   A. I did have a Blackberry, yes.

   Q. Okay. And you would have had that on you when you were out in the field, that Blackberry?

   A. Typically I do.

   Q. Okay. So did you eventually respond to the scene of the McDonald shooting?

   A. Yes, I did.

   Q. Okay. How did you arrive at the scene?

   A. In my squad car.

   Q. Okay. Was anyone with you?

   A. No.

   Q. Okay. We talked about this a little bit.

   When you are arriving at the scene of a police-involved shooting as a district executive officer, what are your responsibilities at the scene?

   A. Well, as far as I can recall from my orders, I have no specific responsibilities at the scene of a police shooting.

   Q. Okay. And how many police-involved shootings have you responded to as a -- during your tenure as a district executive officer?

A. As a district executive officer, I can't recall a specific number. I would have to estimate.

Considering there is shootings without hits and shootings with hits, and I was only an executive officer approximately three years, so approximately six.

Q. Six, somewhere around six?

A. Yeah.

Q. Okay. So what did the scene of the shooting look like when you first arrived?

A. When I first arrived, the outer perimeter was established. I don't remember the exact direction I took, but I believe I came up Pulaski from the south.

There was a squad car blocking off Pulaski I think at 47th Street, but specifically I don't remember.

I got past the outer perimeter and I approached the inner perimeter. I couldn't tell you exactly where that was, but it was close to the actual scene of the shooting.
There were several squad cars parked around there and there was several policemen protecting the inner crime scene.

Q. Okay. Do you recall where you parked your squad car?
A. I do not.

Q. Once you arrived and parked at the scene, what was the first thing you did upon exiting your squad car?
A. I approached the officers that were protecting the inner crime scene, and I don’t specifically remember what I asked them, but I think I asked them if we had enough officers on hand, and I asked where the officers that were involved were at.

Q. Okay. Do you recall the names of any of those officers you spoke to initially?
A. No, I do not.

Q. Okay. Did the officers you spoke to who were protecting the inner scene there, did they inform you who were the officers who had been involved in the shooting?
A. I do believe they did.

Q. Okay. And then what happened after they informed you of the identities of the people or the officers who had been involved in the shooting?

A. To the best of my recollection, they pointed out where McDonald was lying, and I asked them where the officer that involved was, and then I walked up to the scene where the knife was.

Q. Okay. And so when you arrived, was McDonald still at the scene?

A. He was not.

Q. Okay. And so once you went to where the knife was and the scene, what happened then?

A. I made sure that we had someone assigned to the actual scene where the evidence was to protect the evidence, and then I asked where Van Dyke was.

Q. Okay. Do you recall who you asked?

A. I do not.

Q. Were you told where Van Dyke was?

A. It is hard to remember, but I do believe that I was told that he was with Sergeant Franko at the time, although I don't remember exactly where they were.
They weren't standing right there. I think they were off in a squad car, you know, near the scene, but not right there.

Q. Did you go talk to Officer Van Dyke or Sergeant Franko?
A. I believe I did eventually, but I don't remember if I did right then.

Q. Do you recall what you did after you were informed of Officer Van Dyke's location?
A. I just remember pretty much walking around the crime scene right there making sure we had adequate personnel, and asking the guys do we need anything else and just double checking that we had the perimeters secured.

Q. Okay. After you had communicated with officers to ensure that you had sufficient personnel, what else did you do at the scene?
A. I really don't recall doing much else other than just remaining on the scene and making sure that we had the perimeter secure and we had enough personnel on the scene.

Q. Did you ever get a briefing on the shooting while you were at the scene?
A. I did.
Q. Okay. Who gave you that briefing?
A. Deputy Chief McNaughton.

Q. Was anyone else present when you got that briefing?
A. I don't recall.

Q. Do you recall around what time, like after -- well, actually I should have asked you that first.

Do you have any specific recollection of what time you arrived to the scene of the shooting?
A. I do not.

Q. Okay. Would you have any way to pinpoint that time?
A. No, I wouldn't.

Q. Do you recall about how long after you got on the scene Deputy McNaughton gave you a briefing?
A. I don't know how long it was.

Q. Okay. What did that briefing consist of?
A. Deputy Chief McNaughton told me that he had spoken to Van Dyke, and Van Dyke told him that Van Dyke and his partner were responding to a call of a man with a knife. When they were coming down Pulaski, they saw the guy, which is McDonald, coming down Pulaski, and they were afraid that he was going to cross Pulaski and go into the Dunkin' Donuts, and he said that fearing that, they placed their squad car in a position so that he couldn't cross Pulaski.

Van Dyke exited his squad car, and after telling McDonald to drop the knife, McDonald started to turn towards him, and Van Dyke then started shooting.

Q. And so that's what McNaughton relayed to you at the scene of the shooting?
A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. Did you get any other briefings while you were at the scene from other CPD personnel who were at the scene?
A. Not that I can recall.

Q. So that was -- your briefing from McNaughton was -- is it fair to say that the primary way that you got a sense of what occurred during the shooting?
A. That's correct.

Q. Did you brief anyone while you were at the scene?

A. Not that I can recall.

Q. Do you recall speaking with any Cook County officers at the scene?

A. I do not.

Q. Did you have any involvement -- so you talked about securing the perimeter, ensuring there was sufficient personnel to secure the perimeter; is that correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. Did you have any involvement in the investigation of the shooting?

A. I did not.

Q. Okay. Did you assist in any way in the supervision of the investigation of the shooting?

A. I did not.

Q. So did you give assignments to any of the CPD personnel at the scene?

A. I don't believe I did. I know that once I got there, we made some adjustments, but I don't believe I gave any specific assignments. That was pretty much done before I got there.

Q. Tell us about those adjustments.
A. Well, as I said before, the outer perimeter was quite large, and I do recall that the squad car that was down south, I think it was as far south as 47th Street, and there was some cars that were coming in off of some side streets off of Pulaski, and I do believe that I made adjustment to get some cars to stop the citizens' cars from coming onto Pulaski from the side streets.

Q. So Pulaski was blocked off as far down as 47th initially?

A. Well, I don't remember specifically, but I do remember it was quite a-ways from the inner perimeter. I think it was that far.

Q. And again, you know, we do understand that time has passed since this incident, and so I am just trying to get your best recollection. Did you interview any witnesses when you were at the scene?

A. I did not.

Q. When you were at the scene, did you speak to any of the officers who were present when Van Dyke shot McDonald?

A. I do believe that I may have spoken to them briefly asking, you know, if they needed anything, you know, if -- I said hi to them, because those guys I usually don't see, but I don't recall any specific conversations with any of them.

Q. Do you recall asking McDonald how he was doing -- or sorry -- asking Officer Van Dyke how he was doing?

A. I don't recall. I -- typically at police shootings, I will ask the officer if he is okay. I will typically ask him, make sure they still have their gun, because that's the procedure now, which had changed, so I would ask that.

I typically would explain the process, but specifically talking to Van Dyke, I don't remember.

Q. Okay. Do you have any specific recollections talking to Officer Walsh?

A. I remember seeing Officer Walsh there. I think I asked him if he was okay, but I think that's about the extent of my conversation with him.

Q. Were you familiar with Officers
Van Dyke and Walsh prior to October 20th, 2014?
   A. I was only familiar with Officer Walsh. I was not familiar with Officer Van Dyke.

Q. Okay. And how were you familiar with Officer Walsh?
   A. I was the first watch watch commander before the implementation of the district executive officer position, and Joe Walsh was on the watch.

Q. And when were you -- what was that title again?
   A. Watch commander.

Q. So around what time were you watch commander?
   A. I was watch commander when I made captain in March, 2009, and I was watch commander until the implementation of the executive officer in January of 2012.

Q. So is it fair to say that from January 2012 to the present time, you have been the district executive officer?
   A. No, I was district executive officer from January 2012 to January 2015, and that's when I got transferred to the Detective Division.

Q. And so you had been familiar with Officer Walsh when you were watch commander; is that correct?
A. That's correct.

Q. Do you recall talking to Officers Gaffney and McElligott?
A. I do remember seeing them at the scene. I believe I talked to them briefly. I don't recall the specific conversation. What I do remember is I believe their car had the flat tire, and I helped them change the flat.

Q. Okay. And where was that car located when you helped them change the flat?
A. That was parked in the southbound lanes of Pulaski north of the actual shooting.

Q. Okay.
A. Next to the curb.

Q. Okay. And do you recall any of the specifics of your conversation with Officer Gaffney and McElligott?
A. I do not.
Q. Okay. At any time while you were at the scene of the shooting, did you see video of the shooting of McDonald?

A. I did not. There was -- we did not see the video from the in-car camera. I was told by I think McNaughton that they couldn't take it off the computer, but there was a video from Dunkin' Donuts that McNaughton and I believe detectives viewed that I could see from the background, although I was kind of far away, I couldn't really see it very well.

Q. Let's start with the Dunkin' Donuts video.

So some of the detectives, was it, were watching the video, Dunkin' Donuts?

A. I believe so.

Q. And where were they when they were watching the Dunkin' Donuts video?

A. It was at the scene, but I don't remember exactly where it was. It was outside.

Q. Was it on someone's laptop?

A. I believe it was on someone's laptop.

Q. And were you able to see any of the Dunkin' Donuts video footage?
A. From a distance I was.

Q. Okay. Could you see anything specifically?

A. I could see squad cars. I could see Van Dyke's back. I think also Walsh's back, and you can see McDonald walking kind of sideways and then you can see -- although you can't see -- we couldn't see Van Dyke's weapon. We could just see that he was shooting.

Q. Okay.

A. And you could see McDonald go down.

Q. And so you saw that at the scene?

A. That's correct.

Q. What were your reactions when you saw the Dunkin' Donuts video?

A. Well, I was kind of far away. I really couldn't see it that close, so I really couldn't describe my reactions.

Q. So no immediate reaction to that footage?

A. No.

Q. And you mentioned that -- I don't want to put words in your mouth. I just want to try and accurately describe what I think you said, that McNaughton had told you at the scene that there was some difficulty in retrieving some of the dash cam footage?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. And that they -- CPD hadn't been able to download that dash cam footage?

A. Well, I don't know about downloading it, but nobody on the scene could view the footage.

Q. Okay. So did you at any time at the scene of the shooting see any dash cam video of the shooting?

A. No.

Q. Okay. At any time while you were at the scene of the shooting, did you do a walk-through or a ride-through of the general area?

A. No, I did not.

Q. So you mentioned you had -- that McNaughton gave you a briefing of what Van Dyke had relayed to him about his account of the shooting.

Did you have any conversations with any of the other supervisors while you were at the scene, Sergeant Gallagher?

A. No, I don't even know Sergeant Gallagher.

Q. Okay. Do you recall having any conversations with Sergeant Franko at the scene of the shooting?

A. I recall him being there, and I do believe I spoke to him, but I don't remember exactly where or when, and I don't remember exactly what we spoke about.

Q. Okay. How about Lieutenant Wojcik? Do you recall having any conversations with Lieutenant Wojcik at the scene?

A. No, I just recall saying hi to him.

Q. How about Commander O'Donnell? Was he at the scene?

A. Yes, he was.

Q. Did you have any conversations with Commander O'Donnell at the scene?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. Okay. Tell us about those conversations.

A. Specifically, I couldn't remember. I was with him quite a bit at the scene, and we would talk about many things, including just the operation of the district.

Q. Okay.

A. Specifically, I couldn't recall the conversations.

Q. When you say, "the operation of the district," what do you mean by that?

A. Well, I am second in command. I help him run the district, and he typically works second watch and I work third watch, so there are times that I don't see him that much, so when I do see him, we will talk about things that's going on in the district.

Q. I see. So sort of not catching up socially, but sort of catching operationally?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Do you recall having any conversations with Commander O'Donnell about the -- specific to the shooting?

A. I don't recall specifically what we talked about.

Q. Did you have any conversations that you can recall with the various supervisory individuals as to whether or not you thought the shooting was justified?

A. No, I don't recall.

Q. I want to talk to you about Tactical Response Reports and Officer Battery Reports. Is it fair to call them TRR's and OBR's?

A. Yes, it is.

Q. What is a TRR?

A. It is a Tactical Response Report, and it is a report that we do to document certain type of arrest situations or confrontations or uses of force.

Q. And what's the process for completing the TRR?

A. A supervisor is notified, a sergeant. The officer will go in the computer and fill it out.

The sergeant will then review it, and once it is reviewed, it will go to typically the watch operations lieutenant for approval.

Q. Okay. Did you as a district executive officer have any involvement in the process of completing TRR's?

A. No. As a district executive officer, it is not my responsibility to review or approve tactical response reports in this situation.

Q. You mean with respect to police-involved shootings?

A. The only time that I would do a tactical response report is if there was no -- in a non-police shooting incident if there is no lieutenant on duty, then a captain does it, but in a police shooting with hits, it would not be my responsibility.

Q. Okay. Officer Battery Report, OBR's,
what is an OBR?

A. It is a report to document when an officer is the victim of a battery or an assault and is injured by a subject.

Q. And is it fair to say that an officer is to complete an OBR when they have been the victim of an assault or battery?

A. Yes.

Q. And what is the process for let's say as of -- well, let me ask, what is the process for completing an OBR?

A. It is similar to the process of the TRR. It is in the same computer screen, and if you check the box that an officer is battered or threatened, it automatically directs you to the OBR, and there is a bunch of boxes there to be checked and filled out, and in the same process, the supervisor, the sergeant, will review it and then it will be approved by the appropriate supervisor.

Q. Okay. And for a police-involved shooting, would that be that final supervisor would be the OCIC?

A. Yes, it would be.

Q. Okay. Has the process for completing OBR's and TRR's changed significantly since October 20, 2014?

A. You know, I understand it has been changed, but in my position, we don't deal with it anymore, so specifically, I couldn't tell you the changes, and "significantly" is a word that means things to different people.

Q. True. So prior to your new position, and what -- was that January of 2015?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And you are in the detective -- what was the exact?
A. I am an executive officer of the Area South Detective Division.

Q. Prior to going over to the Detective Division, have there been any changes to the OBR and TRR completion process that you were aware of?

A. I don't recall when they made the changes.

Q. Okay. Did you have any discussions at the scene of the shooting as to whether certain officers should fill out TRR's and OBR's?

A. I don't believe I did.

Q. Okay. Did you ever subsequently review the OBR's that were completed by the officers at the scene of the shooting?

A. I did not.

Q. Okay. Once some of this case became, you know, some of these reports were put online by the Tribune or anything, did you ever have a chance to review the -- either the OBR's or the TRR's that were filled out at the scene?

A. I read what was in the paper, but I don't believe, I don't recall going in the department system and looking at any of those reports.

Q. So you don't think you have ever reviewed the OBR's or TRR's that were filled out that night?

A. No, I don't believe I did.

Q. Okay. Did you talk to any FOP representatives at the scene of the shooting?

A. I don't recall talking to any of them. If I did, it was just to say hi.

Q. Do you recall which FOP representatives were at the scene?

A. I do not.

Q. Did you become aware of the statement that FOP representative Pat Camden made to the press regarding the shooting at any time?

A. If I was made aware of it, it was just reading about it in the paper or seeing it on the news after, but I don't recall specifically when, if I did.

Q. Do you have any recollection as to your response to Pat Camden's characterization of the shooting?

A. No, I don't recall.
Q. At any time while you were at the scene of the shooting, did you have communications with the Mayor's Office?

A. No, I did not.

Q. And do you recall about what time you left the scene of the shooting?

A. I believe it was around 1:00 o'clock in the morning.

Q. Okay. Is there anything that allows you to say it was 1:00 o'clock?

A. Because those were my duty hours, and I didn't work overtime that night. I did not go to the area, so right around 1:00 o'clock -- right around the time that they were going to start going to the area, that's when I got off duty.

Q. So understanding the shooting took place just a few minutes before 10:00 o'clock, McDonald was not at the scene when you arrived, do you think it is fair to say you were at the scene of the shooting for two or two-and-a-half hours?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And again, so you were working on securing the perimeter; is that correct, while you were there?
   A. That's correct.
   Q. Any other activities you were engaged in at the scene that we haven't discussed?
   A. Not that I can recall.
   Q. Okay. After you left the scene of the shooting, where did you go?
   A. I went back to -- I don't remember specifically.
   I either went back to the office just to close my office and then go home, or I may have gone straight home. I don't recall.
   Q. And was your office at Area Central?
   Was it at 35th and Michigan? Where was your --
   A. It was in the 8th District on 63rd Street.
   Q. Okay. Do you recall whether you left the scene with anyone or by yourself?
   A. I left by myself.
MR. NEUMER: At this time, Tom, I was going to see if my colleague has any follow-up questions regarding scene of the shooting.
MR. BROWN: I do have a few questions.
Q. I was wondering, could you explain the difference in duties from when you became captain in 2009 versus when you became the executive officer in January of 2012?

A. I became captain in 2009, I was a watch commander, and I had a watch that I was in charge of, which consisted of typically two lieutenants, several sergeants and the PO's.

We worked specific hours. I was the midnight watch commander, and I was in charge of basically running that watch during that time frame.

As a district executive officer, I was more involved with the district operations. I was second in command to the district commander.

Q. Not so much supervision of those lieutenants and sergeants that you mentioned from before?

A. That's correct. I went from specifically my watch and guys on my watch to helping the commander oversee the entire district.
Q.   Gotcha.  Okay.  So is there more than one captain per district?

A.   No, there is one captain per district, as a district executive officer.

As a watch commander, when I made captain, there were three.  At one point, there were two, as watch commanders.

Q.   I see.  So would the executive officer, that's like a promotion from watch commander?

A.   No.  It is just a different job.

Q.   Just a different job.  I gotcha.

While you were on the scene of the shooting of McDonald, do you recall hearing any corneration between Van Dyke and Walsh?

A.   I do not.

Q.   Okay.  Do you recall any -- overhearing any conversation between Van Dyke and anyone else?

A.   No.

Q.   Okay.  You mentioned in January 2015
you moved to the Area South Detective Division.

Was that move a promotion, demotion, or a lateral move?
A. It was a lateral move.

Q. Okay. Do you know why you were moved?

A. The superintendent wanted to give more operational units an executive officer, and he was going to start with the Detective Division, and I got called from one of the Deputy Chief's Office in the Detective Division and asked if I was interested in going into Detective Division.

I had worked Detective Division twice before, and I was asked if I was interested.

Q. And you expressed interest?

A. That I did.

MR. BROWN: That covers my questions.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay. Just a couple cleanup things. With respect to the OBR's and TRR's, do you have any understanding as to who made the final decision at the scene of the shooting as to which officers should complete OBR's and TRR's?

A. Well, typically, it would be the OCIC. I don't specifically recall being there when he made that decision, but that would just be my understanding that he would make that decision.

Q. So typically the OCIC would be the done determining?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. Do you know if any of what I will call the supervisors at scene — McNaughton, Wojcik, Franko, I know you don't really know who Gallagher is or recognize -- or wouldn't recognize him, do you know whether McNaughton, Wojcik, or Franko saw dash cam video while they were at the scene?

A. I was told they did not. I did not see them see any --

Q. So while you were at the scene, you did not see any individuals watching dash cam video?

A. That's correct.

Q. When did you --

MR. PLEINES: Excuse me. Are you doing all right?

THE WITNESS: Yeah, I am doing fine.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. When did you see dash cam video of the shooting for the first time?

A. I saw the dash cam video for the first time approximately a year ago.

The superintendent sent out a notification he wanted all captains and above to come down to headquarters.

We all met at the multipurpose room, and that's when they showed the video, and it was either the day of the release to the public or it was the day before. I don't remember exactly.

Q. Okay. And do you have any understanding as to what the purpose of that meeting was?

A. I really don't know.

Q. Did -- and it was the superintendent who called a meeting?

A. It was either the superintendent or the first deputy. I don't recall specifically who did.

Q. And the first deputy was -- at that time was Escalante?

A. That's correct.

Q. And were both Superintendent McCarthy and First Deputy Escalante present at the meeting when the video was shown?

Q. Do you recall them making any comments as to the video?

A. No.

Q. Was there any discussion amongst the meeting attendees after the video was shown?

A. I wasn't involved in any discussion. I don't know about the rest. There was a lot of people there. I don't know what they were discussing.

Q. Okay. Was there any other presentation outside of the showing of the video?

A. I don't believe there was.

Q. Do you have any idea why you were called in -- why everyone was called in to watch the video?

A. The only explanation I can recall was that they wanted us to see it before it got out to the media.

Q. Okay. What was your reaction upon seeing the video?
A. I really don't recall my reaction.

Q. Let's see. So you did not go to Area Central at the -- after being at the scene of the shooting?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Okay. Did you have any -- are you aware that there was an October 21, 2014 press release sent out by CPD regarding this shooting?

A. I don't recall it.

Q. Did you have any role in the creation of that press release?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Did you draft any of its language?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Did you review the press release prior to its dissemination?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Okay. Did you as a district executive officer on other occasions ever have involvement with press releases or things like that?

A. Not that I can recall.

Q. Okay. Did you attend a shooting briefing on October 22, 2014 regarding the McDonald shooting?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Have you ever attended a post-shooting briefing?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. Okay. Have you attended a post-shooting briefing during your tenure as a district executive officer?

A. I believe I did, but I don't recall specifically which one I went to.

Q. Okay. I guess so for me I am trying to determine was there any reason you didn't go to this shooting briefing?

A. Typically the district commander attends. The times I have gone, I was going as the acting commander or because the commander would be unavailable at times, so I would be attending on his behalf.

Q. Do you recall whether Commander O'Donnell attended a shooting briefing on October 22nd, 2014?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Do you recall having any conversations with Commander O'Donnell about his attendance at the shooting briefing?
   A. I do not recall.

Q. Do you recall whether Commander O'Donnell ever briefed you as to what occurred in a shooting briefing regarding the McDonald shooting?
   A. No, I do not recall talking to him about it.

Q. Did anyone else ever brief you, any other attendees of a post-shooting briefing regarding the McDonald shooting, did they ever brief you as to what occurred in the meeting?
   A. I don't recall talking to anybody that was involved in that meeting.

Q. Did you attend -- so after October 20, 2014, did you attend any meetings regarding the McDonald shooting?
   Let's see. You have already talked about going to see the video; right?
   A. That's correct.

Q. Other than going down -- and who all was asked to come in to see the video?
   A. Everybody the rank of captain and above.
Q. Other than that, watching the video with all the captains and other supervisors, did you attend any other meetings relating to the McDonald shooting?

A. I don't recall going to any other meetings regarding that shooting.

Q. Okay. Do you recall having any conversations with Chief of Patrol Gulliford regarding the shooting?

A. I do not recall a conversation with him.

Q. Did you have any involvement in CPD's investigation of the McDonald shooting?

A. No, I did not.

Q. At any time during CPD's investigation of the McDonald shooting, were you receiving updates regarding that investigation?

A. Other than talking to people at the scene and talking to McNaughton, I was not involved in any updates.

Q. I will clarify it just a little bit. Post we will say October 21, 2014, since you were at the scene until 1:00 a.m.

Post October 21, 2014, did you receive any updates regarding CPD's investigation of the McDonald shooting?

A. No, I did not.

Q. How about more generally? Did the Patrol Division have any involvement in CPD's McDonald investigation post October 20, 2014?

MR. PLEINES: To your knowledge.

THE WITNESS: Yeah, to my knowledge, I don't know.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. You are not aware of any involvement?

A. No.

Q. Do you recall at any time during the McDonald investigation sending texts or e-mails regarding the case using your personal phone or computer?

A. To the best of my knowledge, I do not recall using anything personal or even sending any type of e-mails regarding that shooting.

Q. Okay. On your personal devices?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. Did you play any role in the creation of the Case Supps for the McDonald
investigation?
A. When you say, "Case Supps," I am not quite sure what you mean by that.

MR. PLEINES: The Case Supplementary Reports.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So Detective March created or submitted for approval two Case Supplementary Reports on March 15, 2015. Were you aware of Detective March submitting, even as of the present day, as of right now, are you aware that Detective March submitted two Case Supplementary Reports regarding CPD's investigation?

A. I am only aware of those through what the paper said. I wasn't aware of it through work.

Q. Okay. Did you play any role in the creation of the Case Supplementary Reports involving the McDonald investigation?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Do you have any knowledge of the circumstances that prompted the completion of those reports in that -- no, strike that.

Do you have any knowledge about the process through which those reports were created?
   A. Only through my experience in the Detective Division I have knowledge of how things work, but specifically in this particular instance, I have no specific knowledge of it.
   Q. Were you aware of communication between the attorneys for the McDonald estate and the city regarding a possible settlement?
   A. No.
   Q. Did you see any correspondence between attorneys for the McDonald estate and the city?
   A. No.
   Q. Did you have any communications with the Mayor's Office regarding the settlement of the McDonald matter?
   A. No.
   Q. So the Case Supplementary Reports I was referring to were approved on March 16, 2015.
   Post March 2015, did you have any involvement or play any role in the McDonald case?
MR. NEUMER: At this time, I am going to ask my colleague if he has any cleanup questions regarding the topics we just covered.

MR. BROWN: I have a few.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. I understand that you didn't recall your reactions to seeing the video a year ago at that captains meeting.

Can you tell us what your reaction is today to the video?

A. Well, my reaction is is that from watching from that angle and comparing it to what McNaughton told me at the scene, you know, according to McNaughton, Van Dyke shot and just kept on shooting, and from that video, you could see that he shot, stopped, and then continued to shoot, and my reaction was that was a little different than was the initial description that I got.

Q. Elaborate a little bit more on that. How so different?

A. McNaughton told me that Van Dyke had told him that he shot when McDonald started to turn towards him, and he just -- he didn't go down right away, so he just continued to shoot until he was out of bullets and McDonald went down.

On the video, you could see that he shoots several times, there is a pause, and then he continues to shoot.

Q. Did that discrepancy trouble you at all, or what did you think of that?

A. It made me think that there is an issue. If there is -- of course, I don't know what the -- I wasn't involved in the whole investigation. I just know what McNaughton told me.

I just said there was a discrepancy.

Whenever there is a discrepancy, there can be an issue, yes.

Q. Did anything come from this issue,
the discrepancy you noted?

MR. PLEINES: If you know.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Like did you report it on after that, or did you take any additional steps after that like noticing, oh, there is a discrepancy here?
A. No.

Q. Did you have a duty to do anything like that?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Did anything else about the video stick out to you?

A. No.

Q. Did you make any determinations on the justification of the shoot or anything like that?

A. No, I did not.

Q. In this particular shooting, there were issues with some of the squad cars and the video that was retrieved and the audio or lack of audio that was retrieved. I wanted to ask you in your capacity as I guess watch commander and then eventually as an executive officer, did you observe any issues with video retrieval in the 8th District generally in your time span there?

A. I am aware of some instances where the guys didn't have the camera turned on when they should have.

Q. Okay.
A. I am also aware of many times the camera is not working properly, and we have -- the officers are required to get a ticket number to report that.

Q. Were those issues prior to the McDonald shooting or post?

A. Both.

Q. Okay. I guess in your position, was there any follow-up that was done with Commander O'Donnell about like video and what happened on the scene that night? Did you have to do any --

MR. PLEINES: You mean by him?

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. By yourself, yeah. Did you have to reach out and get additional training, or was there any follow-up done?

A. No, no. And the in-car camera system is not one of my responsibilities as an executive officer.

Q. Sure. I definitely get that, but I was thinking just you are I guess just one step away from the commander, that that might have been a topic of conversation, like why do we have an issue with video, I guess, occasionally not working properly in the district.

MR. PLEINES: That's not a question.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. It might not have been a question, but do you recall ever having any conversations with Commander O'Donnell about video retrieval of the -- from squad cars in the district?

A. We didn't have conversations about video retrieval, because retrieval was not really our responsibility. I have had conversations with many commanders, and I can't specifically say which commanders and what was literally said, but since the implementation of the in-car camera system there has always been issues - whether the officer is not turning them on or the camera is not working properly. So it is an ongoing process.

Q. How widespread was the issue of officers not turning on the cameras?

A. I don't know when it was initially instituted. I think it was before I made captain, so personally, I don't have any involvement with it, but we -- it was, in my opinion, not widespread in our district, but occasionally it was an issue.

Q. Okay. When that issue would arise, what would be the response?

A. I specifically couldn't say, because at that point, I wasn't the supervisor that did the initial investigation with the in-car cameras. That would be the sergeants on the street.

Q. Okay. Do you know how the sergeants would handle a situation where it was determined that from their investigation that an officer failed to turn on their camera?

A. Well, in some instances, it was a CR number, and in some instances I think it was a SPAR. A SPAR is a form of discipline. A SPAR is an acronym. It stands for Summary, Punishment, Action Report.

Q. So from your recollection, was it more common that there was just I guess mechanical issues with the video system as opposed to officers, I guess, neglecting to turn on the system?

A. In my experience, it has been more of a technical issue, and the officers are required to get a ticket number. That's when they call the technical people and they get a number. It is basically a number to get it fixed.

Q. Okay. Now, similar question, but in regards to the audio that would be retrieved from vehicles in the 8th District.

Were you aware of any issues generally in your time span from 2009 to 2015 when you went to the Detective Division of issues with the audio being retrieved from 8th District vehicles?

A. Again, I am not really familiar with the retrieval, because that wouldn't be our responsibility, but I do know also there was issues with the microphones that sometimes there were technical difficulties, and sometimes guys wouldn't sign them out or they weren't even available because they were broken, and sometimes they just weren't working properly.

Q. Were you aware of officers just I guess willingly just making the decision to not turn on their microphones?

A. Specifically, I am not familiar with any officers making that decision.

Q. As a follow-up to the superintendent's shooting briefing, were either you or Commander O'Donnell assigned any tasks related to video or audio research from the 8th District?

A. I was not assigned any task. I can't speak for Commander O'Donnell's tasks.

Q. You don't recall Commander O'Donnell having any conversation with you like, Hey, I was at the meeting and the superintendent had an issue with lack of video, lack of audio, and he gave me some research to do?

A. I do not recall Commander O'Donnell saying anything to that effect.

MR. BROWN: Those are my questions.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. With respect to in-car video systems, and specifically the night of October 20, 2014, when did you learn that none of the squad cars at the scene captured audio?

A. I am not so sure that I ever heard anything about audio.

I know that while I was on the scene
I heard that the videos weren't working. I don't recall who specifically told me or when they told me, but I don't recall any talk about audio.

Q. Do you recall, you know, in the news learning that none of the squad cars at the scene captured audio?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Would it surprise you to know that none of the five squad cars at the scene captured audio?

A. I can't say that I would be surprised. Because our systems aren't the best and they often don't work right.

Q. As of October 20, 2014, had you ever heard about there being a practice of CPD officers deliberately disabling the audio of their in-car video systems?

A. I don't know of any specific cases where that happened, but I had heard talk of guys, you know, somehow making them not work.

Q. And is that what -- when you were referring earlier to opening a CR or SPAR or something like that?
A. If I was specifically aware of officers doing that, then yes, it would be a CR investigation.

Q. Whose responsibility generally in the Patrol Division side is it to ensure that the audio and video of the in-car video systems is working?

A. That would be the field sergeants.

Q. Okay. Does someone in your position have any responsibility for ensuring that specific beat cars, their audio and video are functioning?

A. As far as I recall in the orders, there is no mention of any specific responsibilities of a district executive officer regarding in-car cameras.

Q. We are changing gears a little bit. Were you ever summoned to appear before a grand jury regarding the McDonald shooting?

A. No, I was not.

Q. Okay. Were you ever interviewed by the FBI about the McDonald shooting?

A. No, I was not.
Q. I think we are very near to the end here. I am just going to take a minute to consult with my colleague. The time is 3:17 p.m. and we are going to go off the record.

(Short break in proceedings.)

MR. NEUMER: The time is 3:20 p.m. and we are back on the record. Tom, you mentioned you might have a few clarifying questions. If you want to go ahead.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. PLEINES:

Q. Captain Walsh, there has been various references during the questioning of you to the "video."

Are you aware of the in-car camera video of the shooting of the gentlemen in question?

A. I am aware of the in-car camera video, yes.

Q. Are you aware of any other video showing the shooting?

A. I am aware of the video from the
Q. Did you see on the night of the shooting when you were present at the scene, did you see anyone reviewing the Dunkin' Donuts video?

A. The Dunkin' Donuts video I saw Deputy Chief McNaughton and a detective viewing that.

Q. How did they obtain it, do you know?

A. I don't know.

Q. How did they view it?

A. On a laptop.

Q. Where was this being done?

A. It was done at the scene outside, but I don't recall specifically where outside.

Q. Okay. What about the in-car camera video? Did you see anyone reviewing that that night?

A. No.

Q. What is your understanding of anyone's ability to view that video that night?

A. My understanding is is that it could not be pulled up on the computer in the car; that they weren't able to do it so they called in the tech people, and Sergeant Lance Becvar responded to the scene.

He couldn't pull it up, so he pulled the entire system out of the car and took it back to his office.

Q. Took it back to his office or took it to the Area?

A. Well, I really don't know. My understanding is he took it somewhere. I guess I just assume he took it to his office at some point, but I don't know specifically when or where he took it.

MR. PLEINES: Thank you. That's all I have.

FURTHER EXAMINATION

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. With respect -- you mentioned Sergeant Lance Becvar, B-e-c-v-a-r, having difficulties retrieving the video from the squad cars and then taking the system and -- back to his office? Is that fair to say?

A. Specifically, I don't know where he took it. He just took it out of there and he had to take it somewhere to be able to extract the video.
Q. How did you learn that information?
A. I don't remember specifically if I learned it from McNaughton or someone else at the scene.

I believe it was McNaughton, but I don't know for sure.

Q. Did you have any conversations with Sergeant Lance Becvar at the scene of the shooting?
A. I do know Lance personally, but I believe I only said hi to him. I don't think I had any specific conversations with him.

Q. Do you think you got any information regarding his ability or inability to pull video from the squad cars from Sergeant Becvar himself?
A. I don't recall talking to him about that.

MR. NEUMER: Tom, do you have any other?
MR. PLEINES: (Indicating.)

MR. NEUMER: Okay. I think that is all the questions we have for you. I would like to generally state, you know, understanding what we are investigating here, we try and be thorough.
We try and ask all appropriate questions, but if there are any questions we didn't ask or if there are any questions we should have asked, now is sort of the time where you can provide us any information that you think we should know regarding this investigation.

THE WITNESS: I don't believe I have any other information.

MR. NEUMER: Okay. The time is 3:24, and this interview is concluded. We will go off the record.

ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS

I, Dennis Walsh, understand that I am being interviewed by Kristopher Brown and Peter Neumer from the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General.

DATE 11/3/16 TIME 2:09 p.m. LOCATION 300 West Adams St. Ste. 800, Chicago, IL

I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully.

I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand that if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the questions. I further understand and I have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I understand and have been advised that my statements or responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department’s Rules and Regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding.

I understand that I have the right to have a union representative, or legal counsel of my choosing, present at the interview to consult with, and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed.

I understand that a refusal to answer any question, or any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56, and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me, and I have been allowed to review this document.

Subject: Homicides and Sworn Weapon Discharge Incidents

Amends: S.O.P. Chapter 18

Related Directives: Rescinds

I. Purpose

This directive:

A. Mandates the initiation of a Homicide Investigative File when a case is classified as First Degree Murder, Second Degree Murder, Involuntary Manslaughter, Reckless Homicide or Justifiable Homicide.

B. Mandates the initiation of a Sworn Weapon Discharge Investigative File when a sworn member is involved in a weapon discharge incident where a person is injured or shot as a result of the discharge.

C. Mandates that a supervisor with primary responsibilities to oversee an investigation is immediately assigned by a Detective Division Unit Commanding Officer.

D. Provides a schedule of reviews to be conducted by supervisors assigned to investigations governed by this order, specifically by the supervisor with primary responsibility to oversee the investigation.

E. Provides a physical description of the components of a Homicide Investigative File or Sworn Weapon Discharge Investigative File and how they will be assembled.

II. Responsibilities

A. Detectives investigating Homicides or Weapon Discharge Incidents Involving Sworn Members will:

1. Thoroughly document relevant information discovered during the course of the investigation.

2. Record relevant information initially transcribed on General Progress Reports or other investigative documents to formatted Department reports (e.g. Supplementary Report, General Offense Case Report, etc.

3. Submit all documents in the Homicide Investigative File or the Sworn Weapon Discharge Investigative File to the on-duty unit supervisor at the completion of their tour of duty.
B. Detective Division Sergeants will:

1. Ensure that Homicide Investigative Files and Sworn Weapon Discharge Investigative Files will be assembled in the spiral binder, as described in Addendum 2, as soon as all initial investigative work, as determined by the supervising sergeant, has been accomplished.

   Note: See Addendum 3 for Homicide Investigative File formats when prepared by the Major Accident Investigative Unit

2. Conduct reviews of the Homicide Investigative File according to the following schedule:

   a. Seven days after the incident
   b. One month after the incident
   c. Three months after the incident
   d. Every six months, as considered necessary.

   Note: All supervisory reviews will be documented on the Supervisory Investigative File Review Form

3. Ensure all documents associated with an investigation are reviewed and secured in the appropriate location within the Homicide Investigative File or the Sworn Weapon Discharge Investigative File and logged on the Investigative File Inventory.

C. Detective Division Unit Commanding Officers will:

1. Ensure that Homicide Investigative Files and Sworn Weapon Discharge Investigative Files are properly maintained and stored.

2. Immediately assign a supervisor with primary responsibility to oversee the investigation.

3. Conduct reviews of the Homicide Investigative File according to the following schedule:

   a. Within the 1st month of the investigation
   b. Three months after the incident
   c. Every six months, as considered necessary

   Note: All supervisory reviews will be documented on the Supervisory Investigative File Review Form

4. Ensure assigned supervisors conduct reviews according to the schedule delineated in this order and document such on the Supervisory Investigative File Review Form.
D. Detective Division Exempt Members will conduct periodic, unscheduled inspections of Homicide Investigative Files and Sworn Weapon Discharge Investigative Files to ensure strict compliance with the provisions of this policy.

Item IV. POLICE SHOOTINGS, and item V. ROUND TABLE are revised as follows:

IV  POLICE SHOOTINGS

A. Detectives investigating police shootings will:

1. canvass the area in every case to identify, locate and gather witnesses. All canvasses will be documented - including negative results.

2. arrange for transportation of all witnesses who have pertinent knowledge of the shooting to the appropriate district station or area headquarters, ensuring that they are kept separated until interviewed.

3. ensure that all physical evidence is collected, inventoried, and sent to the CPD Services Unit and/or the I.S.P. Crime Lab for analysis as appropriate.

4. immediately interview a hospitalized or injured offender.

5. confer with the assistant state's attorney assigned to the investigation to determine necessity of taking formal statements.

6. take formal written statements from eyewitnesses, when appropriate.

7. take either written or oral statements from other witnesses as circumstances of the investigation dictate.

8. review Case and Supplementary reports, crime lab and evidence technician reports, Weapons Discharge Reports/Tactical Response Reports, Injured On Duty Reports and all other reports related to the incident prior to preparing their Supplementary report detailing the incident.

9. obtain copies of O.E.C. transmissions and P.C.A.D. printouts when applicable.

B. Detective Division Shooting Coordinators are on-duty sergeants designated by the Detective Division Area Commander when a police shooting occurs. They will:

1. proceed to the scene and direct follow-up investigations when a police officer has seriously injured or killed a person or whenever a police officer is seriously injured or killed. Ensure assignment of detectives to the hospital(s) where injured officer(s)/person(s) are receiving treatment.

2. ensure that the services of Forensic Investigators from the Mobile Crime Lab Unit are utilized and that firearms or weapons belonging to any offender or police officer are recovered according to current Department directives.
Detective Division
Special Order 01-01a

3. supervise Detective Division personnel conducting the follow up investigation and gathering of information necessary for proper notifications to the Division and Department command staff. Detective Division shooting coordinators will utilize the Detective Division Command Information Worksheet.

4. ensure that digital photographs of the scene, weapons, injuries, etc., are taken after processing is completed by the Forensic Services Unit and made available at the round table in cases where a person is shot by a Department member or a member is injured by gunfire.

5. immediately notify Division command personnel through the chain of command.

6. Ensure that notifications have been made to Operations Command, the Office of Professional Standards and the State’s Attorney’s Felony Review Unit. Also ensure proper notifications are made to the Office of the Medical Examiner, when appropriate. The shooting coordinator will be the contact member on the police shooting for all outside units, and will personally liaise with the Office of Professional Standards on all matters regarding the police shooting.

7. confer with the on-duty Assistant Deputy Superintendent, Bureau of Operational Services (or the Deputy Chief of Patrol, as appropriate), and the District Watch Commander and request approval to relocate the follow-up investigation to the appropriate Area headquarter’s facility.

8. Designate a detective to gather information and record the information on the Command Information Worksheet.

9. coordinate the “Round Table” function, whenever a Department member has discharged his or her firearm and an individual has been killed or injured, or if one is deemed necessary by the on-duty Assistant Deputy Superintendent, Bureau of Operational Services.

10. ensure that a copy of the Command Information Worksheet and a digital photo of the chalkboard crime scene diagram be included in the case file.

11. ensure that requests for I.S.P. evidence processing forms are submitted without delay.

12. be responsible for the review and approval of all Detective Division reports generated as a result of the investigation.

V. ROUND TABLE

A. The Round Table will consist of the ADS, the district watch commander, the area commander (or his designee), the police shooting coordinator and assigned detective(s), an OPS supervisor and investigator(s), an Assistant State’s Attorney from the Felony Review Unit and other personnel deemed necessary by the ADS.

B. The scene will be drawn on a chalk/grease board in the room where the Round Table will take place and a digital photo of the chalkboard crime scene diagram will be included in the case file.
Detective Division
Special Order 01-01a

C. Digital photographs of the scene, weapon(s), injuries, etc., will be made available to the members of the Round Table and made part of the investigative file.

D. Copies of the Detective Division Command Information Worksheet will be made available to members of the Round Table.

E. The Round Table will be conducted by a sergeant/detective designated by the Area Commander.

F. The sergeant/detective conducting the Round Table will give a summary of the incident before any witnesses or police officers are called.

G. Persons appearing before the Round Table will be interviewed prior to their appearance.

H. The sergeant/detective conducting the Round Table will briefly summarize all accounts, (witness or Department member), immediately before those persons appear at the Round Table.

I. Each member of the panel will introduce himself/herself before a police officer gives their account.

J. If an offender, witness or police officer is hospitalized, their account of the incident will be presented to the panel by the detective that interviewed that person.

SUBJECT: Request for Information

Attached are copies of Bureau of Detectives Special Orders in effect on and after 20 OCT 2014. On 31 DEC 14, BDSO 14-01 through 14-25 had been issued and various DDSOs from prior years were still in effect.

On 01 JAN 15, all existing orders were rescinded; BDSOs 14-01 through 14-25 were reissued with 2015 dates and 15-26 through 15-43 were issued.

Also attached are existing BDSOs and revisions to the 2015 orders to date.

BDSO 15-17 was effectively voided by State law on 01 JAN 2016. However, the Department has not issued a new directive and we are operating under an agreement that has been agreed to in principle.

Eugene Roy
Chief Bureau of Detectives
I. PURPOSE

This order outlines the Bureau of Detectives policy and the Uniform Crime Reporting requirements for justifiable homicides.

II. JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDES

A. Uniform Crime Reporting defines a justifiable homicide as either;

1. the killing of a felon by a peace officer in the line of duty, or
2. the killing of a felon by a private citizen during the commission of a felony.

B. Cases in which self-defense is the sole reason for the killing do not meet the UCR definition of a justifiable homicide. Detectives will ordinarily classify these cases as homicide/second degree murder.

*Note: If the State's Attorney's Felony Review Unit does not approve first or second degree murder charges against the person responsible for the death, the detective will exceptionally clear the case.

*Note: Classifying a self-defense killing as a homicide/second degree murder does not infer criminal liability upon the person who caused the death. It is merely a UCR classification utilized to record the willful killing of the victim.

III. REPORTING PROCEDURES FOR JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDES

A. When an incident is determined to be a justifiable homicide, the assigned detective will obtain a second RD number. The first case will bear the classification of the crime the felon was committing. The second RD number will be for the justifiable homicide. Detectives will not identify a person lawfully entitled to use deadly force as an "Offender."

B. The facts detailing the entire investigation will be reported in the justifiable homicide report.
Note: The narrative section of the original felony report will state, “The facts of this case are reported under RD# _______. For complete details, refer to that investigation.”

C. A request in the form of a "To / From report will be prepared and directed to the "Director, Records Division, Attention: Record Inquiry Unit," requesting that the other felony report be held in permanent retention.

D. Detectives will not obtain a second RD number in an exceptionally cleared second degree homicide when self-defense is the sole reason for the killing by a private citizen.

E. Detectives will state in their reports that no charges were placed at this time. They will not state that the use of deadly force was justified.

F. The State's Attorney's reason(s) for not filing charges will be documented in the Supplementary Report.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD’s knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——-
related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

[redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, .

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, of the 9-1-1 caller, was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [REDACTED], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [REDACTED] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [REDACTED] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [REDACTED], attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[REDACTED] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [REDACTED] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [REDACTED] with a knife, when [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[REDACTED] related the same facts as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [REDACTED], attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE’s use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department’s use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

The full format for this investigation is contained in the previous Progress - Scene Report.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE’s pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to “Drop the knife!” Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, “I have this.” VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD’s right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE’s weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE’s partner.

WALSH, Joseph J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver’s door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin’
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014-01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Officer Jason VAN DYKE’s handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——-

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

[redacted] stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

[redacted] stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. [redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD’s mother, .

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, of the 9-1-1 caller, was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted] attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

STATEMENT OF P.O. THOMAS GAFFNEY

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0406 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0406 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters at 51st and Wentworth. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Also present is FOP attorney Dan Herbert. (noise) Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Representative Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) FOP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S. G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what’s your star number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.GAFFNEY:

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: 8TH District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what’s your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July '96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY: _____________.

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I'm sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin' Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY
LOG #1072125 U#14-36

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you’d start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin’ to get radios somethin’ like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin’ from the south goin’ north correct?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh there was a and a uh standing by a gate um to the truck

yard. Um the gate was partially opened and uh the had a chain in 'er hand and then we stopped and spoke to them.

KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?
P.O.GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin' to get um tryin' to get into trucks. Uh
he had uh somethin' in his hand, he had uh a wire from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin' about a iPhone, I don't know if he was sayin'
that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then
we, we asked 'em you know what he looked like,
what he was wearin'? He said he's a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that and and tell you which way the, the offender went?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that'd, that's 41st Street?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?
P.O.GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street
and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you know somebody walkin’. So we approached ‘em, drove up to ‘em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dread locks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he’s shining on ‘em. You know tell ‘em to come ‘ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin’ at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached ‘em a lil bit more and that’s when he, he had seen you know tell ‘em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard ‘em say you know he’s got a knife. So that’s when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn’t really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that’s when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we’re all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin’ I, I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he’s on what street?
P.O.GAFFNEY: He’s on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he’s, he’s headed which way?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he's headed toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --
P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You're kinda behind 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?
P.O.GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn’t.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he’s got a knife that’s when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin’ the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin’ out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep ‘em goin’ east toward Pulaski?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin’.
KILLEN: So he never stops?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin’. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin’ eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches ‘em and then you hear McElligott say he’s got a knife?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that’s when I you know that’s when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that’s when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin’, that’s what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy’s got a knn, we’re at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin’ Keeler. Uh he’s got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don’t carry a taser?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn’t carry —

P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn’t have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars and other cars said they were comin’. So we just, we just kept stayin’ you know keepin’ our distance at the time you know I kept drivin’
along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin’ with ‘em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin’, my partner still kept givin’ ‘em
verbal commands and droppin’ the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin’ turning around lookin’ back at us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin’ east. When we’re, we’re approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I
knew the next block there was the Burger King,
there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get ’em to go down Karlov cause there’s more, you know there’s just factories so there’s no people down that way. So and then uh -

KILLEN: So the purpose of doin’ that is keep ’em away from --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow ’em down until other cars got ’ere and make ’em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep ’em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people.
(someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh, his arm down. When he did that that’s when I heard like psssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where’s McElligott at this time?
P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin’ with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That's when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.

HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin' behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin' it down in a striking motion.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.

KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.

KILLEN: What happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin', I didn't see nothin' break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin' eastbound on 40th Street. And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet that's when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that's when he started to run. Oh yeah I, I, I (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don't remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you’re still basically sittin’ over at 40th and Karlov right? You see ‘nother car come up Pulaski?

PO.GAFFNEY: Yeah that’s, yeah he, ‘nother car came off Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --

PO.GAFFNEY: That, that’s when he seen that and that’s when he started runnin’.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --

PO.GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?

PO.GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he’s still goin’ towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)

PO.GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin’ and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that the other car that came off went into the Burger
King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin'
towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car
followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O. GAFFNEY: At the time I didn't but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout Pulaski and --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car
where then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot.
Before, before going over the curb and into the street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the (noise) flat?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn't wanna, I didn't know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there's like lil the,
the, cement tongue if you will, that, that's the parkin' lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert continue.
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin' 'em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that's Pulaski you're talkin' about?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there's a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don't take the curb at all. You just --
P.O.GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin' lot to, to get out where there's a, there's the light on 41st Street.
(noise)

KILLEN: And that's where your car's stopped?
P.O.GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that's where my, that's where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That's when, when I saw your car was south, facin' south --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that's right, that's where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that's when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn't see what exactly was goin' on.

KILLEN: So you're basically goin' around Burger King.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah that's when the shots I believe that's when the shots started firin'.

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin'?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn't know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin'?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That's because --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well there's a, yeah well there's a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
they were building some stuff there. So yeah
there was that was all blockin' me.

KILLEN: There's (noise) no line a sight.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
there's no more shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don't (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you're goin' south could you see the offender still?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and started to go you know 'round to, to where everything was goin' on.

KILLEN: Where was he?
P.O. GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the time when I, when I got over there.

KILLEN: Okay. And it's after that then you find out who's shooting what happened?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah.
KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn’t see the shooting, you, you (noise) you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge the weapon?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin’ the offender.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch ‘em. We didn’t know how long ago it was. Or where he would’ve went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab ‘em and figured they woulda still been there when we got back.

KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had, as best you can describe it to me?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob’ly ‘bout four to six inch blade.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you’d like to add?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
The full format for this investigation is contained in the previous Progress - Scene Report.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ------

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD’s hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD’s right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD’s path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin’
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Officer Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——-

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

[redacted] stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

[redacted] stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. [redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as [redacted] stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted] elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

[Redacted] stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." [Redacted] said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

[Redacted] last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [Redacted] said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

[Redacted] had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, [Redacted].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, [Redacted] of the 9-1-1 caller, [Redacted] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [REDACTED], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [REDACTED] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was “growling” and making strange noises. [REDACTED] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [REDACTED] attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[REDACTED] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [REDACTED] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [REDACTED] with a knife, when [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[REDACTED] related the same facts as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [REDACTED], attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [REDACTED] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [REDACTED] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [REDACTED]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video. [REDACTED] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [REDACTED] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [REDACTED], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [REDACTED] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [REDACTED] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [REDACTED] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [REDACTED] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [REDACTED]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

SUBJECT: Request for Information

Attached are copies of Bureau of Detectives Special Orders in effect on and after 20 OCT 2014. On 31 DEC 14, BDSO 14-01 through 14-25 had been issued and various DDSOs from prior years were still in effect.

On 01 JAN 15, all existing orders were rescinded; BDSOs 14-01 through 14-25 were reissued with 2015 dates and 15-26 through 15-43 were issued.

Also attached are existing BDSOs and revisions to the 2015 orders to date.

BDSO 15-17 was effectively voided by State law on 01 JAN 2016. However, the Department has not issued a new directive and we are operating under an agreement that has been agreed to in principle.

MR. NEUMER: As a preliminary matter, I am providing the following information. An independent certified court reporter is present today to provide a verbatim transcript of this interview.

To aid in the accuracy of the transcript, it is the custom and practice of court reporters to audio record the interview. The recording is the confidential work product property of the court reporter and will not be provided to any party including the OIG. If you request, the audio recording will be discontinued.

So, Detective March, are you okay with the court reporter audio recording this interview?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: Let the record reflect that today's date is July 25th, 2016. The time is 9:59 am. We are located at Amicus Court Reporters, 300 West Adams, Suite 800.

My name is Peter Neumer, the court reporter is Michelle Yohler, and I'd ask that the other individuals present identify

Amicus Reporters info@amicusreporters.com 300 West Adams Suite 800 Chicago, Illinois 60606 888.641.3550 themselves and spell their name for the record.

MS. WITZBURG: Assistant Inspector General, Deborah Witzburg, D-e-b-o-r-a-h W-i-t-z-b-u-r-g.

MR. McKAY: James P. McKay, Jr. Last name is spelled M-c-K-a-y. I'm an attorney, and I represent Detective David March.

THE WITNESS: Detective David March. Last name is spelled M-a-r-c-h.

MR. NEUMER: Detective March, I'm now going to hand you a form that's Advisements of Rights. This has been marked previously as Exhibit 1. This Advisement of Rights form has already been filled in with your name, my name, my colleague Deborah Witzburg's name.

I'm going to ask you to read along with me as I go through this form, and I'm going to ask you to acknowledge after each paragraph that you've read the paragraph.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 1, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

MR. McKAY: Peter, before we begin, can I put something on the record?

MR. NEUMER: For sure.
MR. McKAY: Peter, recently my client, Detective March, was notified of this appearance here this morning. The Notification of Interview describes Detective March as an accused. The appearance suggests that Detective David March's false statements concerning the McDonald shooting and a review and approval of reports containing false statements.

The allegations include, number one, that Detective March reviewed and approved an Original Case Incident Report prepared by Officer Dora Fontaine and that report falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was, quote, injured by offender.

Secondly, that Detective March is accused of assisting in the drafting of the report I just mentioned.
Three, that Detective March made a false statement to Investigator Earl Briggs of the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office when, with respect to the shooting, Officer Briggs' report indicates that McDonald lunged at Chicago police officers.

And the fourth allegation is that Detective March is incompetent in the performance of his duties in the ways enumerated by allegations one through three.

Mr. Neumer, I'm asking you do you believe these new allegations indicate a criminal prosecution is probable against Detective March?

MR. NEUMER: OIG is conducting an administrative investigation. OIG is not conducting a joint investigation and is not working with any other law enforcement agency with respect to this investigation.

MR. MCKAY: Thank you. I would ask, however, that you advise Detective March of his Constitutional rights pursuant to Miranda versus Arizona.

It's unclear whether a criminal
investigation is going to take place and, if so, who will be doing that. A special prosecutor has yet to be named regarding any of the police officers not named Jason Van Dyke in this particular case. So, with that said, I ask that you advise Detective March of his Constitutional rights pursuant to Miranda versus Arizona.

MR. NEUMER: The outcome of this administrative investigation relates to the subject's employment and, therefore, under the CBA and General Order, the administrative rights OIG will be providing Detective March are appropriate.

MR. MCKAY: Consistent with Detective March's last statement, indeed, Detective March was here for two days on April 26th and 27th of this year. His statement spanned what I estimate to be almost 12 hours.

Mr. Neumer, you were here, the court reporter Michelle Paoletti Yohler was here, Investigator Kris Brown was here, myself, and Detective March were here.

At that time I had asked whether Mr. William Marback's letter to the Chicago
Police Department command staff dated on January 4, 2016, requesting a number of items be provided to the Office of Inspector General, and at that time no answer was given regarding these items that were requested, which include 25 separate things.

I ask you today, Mr. Neumer, are you going to be using any items the Office of Inspector General has received since Mr. Marback's letter of January 4th, 2016, and any subsequent letters issued by either Mr. Marback, you, or any other agent of the Inspector General and Detective March's statement here today?

MR. NEUMER: So the question is, are we going to be using any documents we received since what date was it?

MR. NEUMER: It's possible. For certain we will be putting in front of Detective March the two exhibits or documents that we provided as part of the Notice of Interview packet.

So that will be the Medical Examiner Investigation Case Report ME 2014-01071, and then the Original Case Incident Report with the event number 1429315878.

So those are the two documents that we will be certainly showing Detective March
today.

MR. McKAY: We acknowledge receipt of those two documents, Peter, when you forwarded them to me late last week. Thank you.

My question now is, in addition to these two documents, do you intend to use or is it possible you could use any other documents at
this statement today besides these two reports?

MR. NEUMER: It is possible.

MR. McKAY: What are they?

MR. NEUMER: When we come to appropriate points in the interview, if documents are necessary, we'll certainly give you and
Detective March time to review those documents.
But, again, we don't know what we will or won't
need to show.

MR. McKAY: Okay. Late last week when you
advised me of this second interview of Detective
March and provided me the two reports we have just talked about, I had sent you a request for discovery, essentially where I was asking for
you or your office to provide me with any statements of any witnesses that indicate that Detective March was asked to review and approve Officer Fontaine's report that you have provided.

Do you have any statements that you can provide me and Detective March here this morning from other witnesses about
Officer Fontaine's report?

MR. NEUMER: So our office has provided
Detective March with all the documents required
by the CBA and applicable law.

MR. McKAY: Secondly, I asked you in writing and I ask you again today on the record,
can you provide me and Detective March with any rule or General Order from the police department
or any other agency that indicates that a detective is supposed to review and approve or disapprove of a report prepared by a district
police officer?

MR. NEUMER: Again, our office has provided
Detective March with all the documents required
by the CBA and applicable law.
MR. McKAY: Thank you. Can you provide me with any sworn testimony of Cook County Medical Examiner's Office Investigator Earl Briggs?

MR. NEUMER: Again, our office has provided Detective March with all the documents provided -- required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Can you tell me if Investigator Earl Briggs has given a statement to the Office of Inspector General?

MR. NEUMER: Again, OIG has provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Can you tell me whether Investigator Briggs has not given a statement to the Office of Inspector General?

MR. NEUMER: Again, we've provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Thank you. Mr. Neumer, can you tell me -- strike that.

Can you provide to me and Detective March any statements, notes, internal memorandum, or any other documents generated by Investigator Earl Briggs of the Cook County
Medical Examiner's Office besides the report that you gave to me and Detective March late last week?

MR. NEUMER: OIG has provided Detective March with all the documents required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Can you tell me -- because I can't read it, frankly -- who Earl Briggs' supervisor was, a signature of which is contained on Page 4 of this four-page report you gave to us late last week? Can you tell us who Mr. Briggs' supervisor is?

MR. NEUMER: Again, in terms of documents and information, we've provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: And this is one document you have provided.

MR. NEUMER: Mm-hm. Yes.

MR. McKAY: My question is, who is this person, a signature of which appears above the supervisor line on Page 4? Who is that? For my purpose, for my curiosity as well as Detective March's right to know who his accusers may be,
who is this person? I can't read that signature. Can you?

MR. NEUMER: Again, we've provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by --

MR. McKAY: That doesn't answer my question, Peter. Who is the supervisor?

MR. NEUMER: Right. I mean, the document speaks for itself. And, beyond that, we've provided all the -- Detective March all the documents and information required under the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Are you relying on this document for your interview of Detective March
today?

MR. NEUMER: We will be providing this -- we already provided this document to Detective
March, and we will be asking him questions
regarding this document today.

MR. McKAY: So you will be relying on this document?

MR. NEUMER: I mean, relying on -- I know
we will be asking questions about the Medical Examiner's Case Report today.
MR. McKAY: Well, my question is this then,

Peter: If you're going to be asking questions
about this document, yet you refuse to identify the supervisor of Investigator Briggs, whose name appears in this document, I ask that you
not ask Detective March anything about this document if you cannot identify signatures on this document above and beyond Mr. Briggs'.

That's fair, don't you agree?

MR. NEUMER: We're going to be asking Detective March questions about his knowledge of this document and what he knows. We're not going to be asking him to speculate about anything beyond the document, so our questions
are going to be eminently fair today.

MR. McKAY: Well, if it is clear to you,
Ms. Witzburg, or anybody in the Inspector General's Office that there are errors contained in Investigator Briggs' report, which you have tendered, will you or have you or will anybody
in your office report to Patrick Blanchard, the Inspector General of Cook County, that the people who generated this report need to be investigated for incompetence?
MR. NEUMER: If we uncover facts that determine a notification is appropriate, certainly we would take appropriate action.

MR. McKAY: All right. Fair enough. Can you provide me with the names of the complainants besides John Escalante and Sergeant Soria and their affidavits, assuming they're civilians and not sworn police officers, that provide a basis for these new allegations.

MR. NEUMER: The Notification of Allegations that OIG provided to Detective March fully complies with the CBA and speaks for itself.

MR. McKAY: Well, if you are basing these new allegations on Mr. John Escalante's letter of January 13th, 2016, and Sergeant Soria's memo of July 15th, 2015, clearly John Escalante's letter suggests that the investigation he's asking your office to conduct be consistent with the Collective Bargaining Agreement, General Orders, and I submit consistent with Illinois State Law.

Illinois State Law clearly mandates that if there is a complainant who is not a sworn officer alleging some misconduct on behalf of any police officer -- in this case, Detective
March -- that complainant's allegations be supported by affidavit.

You have no affidavit to provide me
and Detective March today; is that correct?

MR. NEUMER: Again, the Notification of Allegations speaks for itself and we believe fully complies with the CBA and applicable law.

MR. McKAY: Your allegations one through -- strike that -- one and two suggesting that David March has some type of duty to either review and approve Dora Fontaine's report or that he actually assisted her in preparing this report, I submit to you, John Escalante would know that that is absolutely not true.

So if you are alleging numbers one
and two allegations based on John Escalante’s letter, I would submit to you that is absolutely inconsistent with John Escalante’s knowledge of Chicago Police Department procedure, report-writing, and who approves a district
police officer's report.

Since I believe in good faith John Escalante would not allege these things, can you
tell me who is?

MR. NEUMER: Again, OIG's position is that the Notice of Allegations complies fully with
the CBA and it speaks for itself.

MR. MCKAY: I would submit to you then,
Mr. Neumer, in all due respect to you and
Ms. Witzburg, that without some affidavit of some civilian complainant alleging this stuff, I believe in good faith that it is none other than
Mr. Ferguson and your office that is alleging
these things without a good faith basis.

With that said, we are objecting to Joseph Ferguson and his office investigating his own allegations, and I request again, as we did back in April, that Mr. Ferguson and his office
recuse themselves from his investigation
because, two reasons: One, it is wrong for him to investigate his own allegations. That's not fair.

Secondly, we ask that Mr. Ferguson
and his office, with all due respect to the both
of you, that he recuse himself from this investigation because he's prejudice against
Detective March because of his presence on the Police Accountability Task Force and the report that that task force submitted before they heard one sworn word from Detective March in April in that that report suggests certain findings of the Laquan McDonald shooting that are completely inconsistent with what Detective March told you and Kris Brown on April 26th and April 27th.

And Mr. Ferguson should recuse himself and his agents from any further investigation of this shooting because of that report he put his name on along with the chairperson of the police board, Lori Lightfoot.

So will you recuse yourselves and Mr. Ferguson from this investigation today?

MR. NEUMER: OIG is not going to recuse itself from this investigation, and OIG's position is that it can and is conducting a fair and impartial investigation.

MR. MCKAY: As you know, Mr. Neumer, two grievances have been filed in this particular case, one by Chicago FOP. In fact, that grievance had been filed before Detective March gave you sworn testimony on April 26th and April 27th. Since then, a second grievance has been filed, indeed, by Detective March.

We're objecting to this investigation continuing with those grievances still pending.
No arbitrator has ruled on those grievances, and the Inspector General has not agreed to continue this investigation until an arbitrator has ruled on them.

Will you, on behalf of Mr. Ferguson, stop this investigation and wait for the arbitrator to rule on these two grievances?

MR. NEUMER: OIG is not aware of any court order enjoining Detective March's interview and,
therefore, having provided the appropriate Notice of Interview, OIG will proceed with the interview.

MR. McKAY: Okay. Of the two reports that you have provided in discovery to Detective March and myself, you have indicated one is Investigator Earl Briggs' Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report.

I would like to ask you, Mr. Neumer, when did you or your office receive Investigator Briggs' report?
MR. NEUMER: Again, OIG has provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA, and, beyond that, we have a duty of confidentiality.

MR. McKAY: Well, the reason I ask the question is because Detective March was here for one full day and half of a second day. If you did have this report then, Mr. Neumer, why didn't you ask Detective March about Investigator Briggs' report then?

MR. NEUMER: I guess I'll just say we're here today and we have relevant questions to ask today pertaining to our investigation.

MR. McKAY: Well, I appreciate that, but, Peter, if they're relevant questions today -- and, further, if you had this report back then in April, weren't they relevant in April and, if so, why didn't you ask Detective March when you had him for almost two full days in April about this report?

MR. NEUMER: We can't -- our office can't provide details regarding timing. I understand your question and, again, we try and ask all relevant questions as soon as we can.
MR. McKay: Well, I think timing is relevant. I think out of fundamental fairness of the accused -- and you have accused Detective March, let's make no mistake about that -- out of fundamental fairness, I think timing is relevant.

And if you had this information and he was here and cooperated and gave sworn testimony, why didn't you and Mr. Brown ask him about Investigator Briggs' report then?

MR. Neumer: Again, we're going to ask questions today.

MR. McKay: I do know, sir, that regarding Dora Fontaine's report, you did have it in April. Indeed, you marked it as your Exhibit Number 18. For some reason, you chose not to use it, but you did mark it as Exhibit 18.

And I would ask you, Mr. Neumer, why didn't you ask Detective March about Officer Dora Fontaine's report on April 26th or April 27th of this year?

MR. Neumer: And I think, as I said in the transcript during that interview, we try and ask all relevant questions, we try and be thorough,
and we do our best.

MR. McKAY: The Advisement of Rights form that you have just provided, is this the exact same form that you provided to Detective March on April 26th of this year?

MR. NEUMER: It should be.

MR. McKAY: Well, I am advising Detective March to refuse to answer your questions today on July 25th, 2016, without a direct order by one of his superior officers.

Short of a direct order, I believe Detective March is certainly within his rights, both the rights under the collective bargaining agreement, Illinois State Law, and his Constitution rights not to answer your questions.

Is there going to be a direct order from some superior officer directing Detective March to answer these questions?

MR. NEUMER: Yes, I will contact Commander Klimas right now and have him provide Detective March a direct order.

MR. McKAY: Can you spell Commander Klimas' name for the court reporter.
MR. NEUMER: Sure. It is Robert R-o-b-e-r-t, Klimas K-l-i-m-a-s.

MR. MCKAY: Thank you.

(PHONE RINGING)

COMMANDER KLIMAS: Bob Klimas.

MR. NEUMER: Bob, this is Peter Neumer. We are currently in a court-reported interview of Detective David March. His counsel Jim McKay is here. My colleague Deborah Witzburg is here. And OIG having provided appropriate notice to Detective March of this interview is attempting to ask Detective March questions regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting. He is refusing to answer questions absent a command from his superior officer, so I'm asking you, Commander Klimas, to order Detective March to answer the OIG's questions.

COMMANDER KLIMAS: This is Commander Robert Klimas, K-l-i-m-a-s, with the Chicago Police Department Bureau of Internal Affairs.

Detective March, I'm giving you a direct order to answer all the questions posed to you today by Peter Neumer or his designees from the Office of Inspector General, City of Chicago.

Do you understand?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

COMMANDER KLIMAS: Thank you very much.

MR. NEUMER: Thanks, Bob.

MR. MCKAY: Thank you.

I'd like to put one more thing on the record. Peter, last time you and I talked by telephone, actually it was late last week, Detective March originally had been notified to appear on this past Saturday night at 9:00 p.m.

You had advised me that the date and time for Detective March's second statement was because OIG is required to notify the officer when he is on duty. You were kind enough to continue the statement from Saturday night to this morning, pursuant to my request, actually, and I appreciate that. Thank you.

You also advised me that Detective March's statement, whenever it was going to be continued to, needed to be completed by the end of business hours tomorrow on July 26th. I asked you then why that is the case and I ask you again today why is it that Detective March's second sworn statement needs to be today or
tomorrow at the latest?

MR. NEUMER: I mean, OIG has a duty of confidentiality, so the details regarding our investigation I can't provide any further information.

MR. McKAY: Well, your statement to me over the phone infers that time is of the essence. I think that Detective March has the right to know
why, in the OIG's mind, time is of the essence.

MR. NEUMER: I think time is of the essence
for every investigation and probably in particular this investigation.

MR. McKAY: If time was of the essence in April when you, at the very least had Officer
Dora Fontaine's report, why didn't you ask Detective March about Officer Fontaine's report
at that time?

And I submit if you had Earl Briggs'
report from the Medical Examiner’s Office at
that time, why didn't you ask Detective March about that as well if truly time is of the essence in this investigation?

MR. NEUMER: We do try to ask all relevant questions and be as thorough as possible.

    MR. McKay: With all due respect, Peter, and I understand you and Ms. Witzburg have a job to do, and I appreciate the job you are both doing along with Kristopher Brown, but frankly, with all due respect, none of your answers today to my questions were responsive to my questions, and I object to that in addition to all my other objections. Thank you.

    MR. Neumer: So we were going through our preamble prior to the objections being placed on the record. So at this time I'd ask that the court reporter swear Detective March in.

    (WHEREUPON, the witness was duly sworn.)

    MR. Neumer: I'm going to go through the Advisement of Rights form with you, Detective March. Again, I'm going to ask you to read along with me as I go through this advisement, and I'll ask you after each paragraph to acknowledge you have read the paragraph I just read aloud to you.

    "I, Detective David March, understand that I am being interviewed by Peter Neumer and Deborah Witzburg from the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General. I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully."

Detective March, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the question. I further understand and I have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the rules and regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge."

Detective March, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.
MR. NEUMER: "I understand and have been advised that my statements and responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's rules and regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud you to?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that I have the right to have a union representative or legal counsel of my choosing present at the interview
to consult with and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed."

Detective March, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that a refusal to answer any question or any false, inaccurate,
or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56 and may serve as the basis for my discharge."

Detective March, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me and I have been allowed to review this document."

Detective March, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: At this time I would ask that you sign the Advisement of Rights form, and my colleague and I will witness.

I'm now going to put several exhibits
on the record and present them to Detective
March to confirm his receipt of the exhibits.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. First I am going to be handing you
what is titled Notification of Interview to CPD
member. This is marked as Exhibit 2.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked
March Deposition Exhibit No. 2, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. This Notification of Interview is dated July 20th, 2016. Detective March, have you seen this Notification of Interview document
prior to today?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this document on or about July 20th, 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. And is that your signature at the bottom of the page of Exhibit 2?

A. Yes.

Q. I am now going to --

MR. McKay: Can I retain these exhibits for my file?

MR. Neumer: No. No. We always keep them. You'll get these when you get the transcript.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I'm now handing you what is titled Notification of Allegations. This is marked as Exhibit 3.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 3, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, have you seen this Notification of Allegations prior to today?

A. Yes.
Q. And did BIA provide you with this Exhibit 3, Notification of Allegations, on or about July 20, 2016?
A. Yes.

Q. And is that your signature at the bottom of Page 1 of the Notification of Allegations?
A. Yes.

Q. I am now going to hand you what has previously been marked as Exhibit 4 titled Receipt Form.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 4, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, have you seen this Receipt Form prior to today?
A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this Receipt Form on or about July 20th, 2016?
A. Yes.

Q. And is that your signature at the bottom of the Receipt Form?
A. Yes.
Q. And I am now going to be handing you what has previously been marked as Exhibit 5.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 5, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. This is a Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report ME2014-01071 dated October 21st, 2014.

Have you seen this document, Detective March, prior to today?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this Case Report on or about July 20th, 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. And I'm now going to be handing you what has previously been marked Exhibit 6. This is an Original Case Incident Report with the RD number HX475653 and the event number 1429315878, case ID 9825613.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 6, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, have you seen this Exhibit 6 Original Case Incident Report prior to today?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this document on or about July 20th, 2016?

A. Yes.

MR. McKAY: Peter is this report -- you're marking this as Exhibit 6?

MR. NEUMER: Yes.

MR. McKAY: You are not going to keep it Exhibit 18, which is what it was marked by you on April 26th?

MR. NEUMER: Right, we are going to call it Exhibit 6. I think that will be easier for today's purposes to call it Exhibit 6 for the July 25th. But, again --

MR. McKAY: But you'll agree it was your Exhibit 18 back in April?

MR. NEUMER: Right, I don't remember if it was -- if you represent 18, I certainly -- I don't dispute that.

MR. McKAY: All right.
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, did you review any materials in preparation for today's interview?
A. Yes.

Q. And what materials did you review?
A. The documents that I received from Internal Affairs on last Wednesday and then I also reviewed several reports from the investigative file.

Q. Do you remember which reports you reviewed?
A. I believe they were all reports that I authored that we talked about previously.

Q. Okay. In our April 26th and 27th interview?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you review any video in preparation for this interview?
A. No.

Q. Aside from your attorney, who did you speak to in preparation for this interview?
A. No one.

MR. NEUMER: And then before we get started with our questions, I just want to confirm, Jim,
are you okay with OIG providing you with a copy of the transcript of today's interview within 48 hours of the OIG's receipt of that transcript?

MR. McKay: I have no objection to employing the same procedure of receiving the transcript as the previous transcript in April.

I understand -- if you get the transcript on a Friday, you can't get it to me
that same day, but I ask that if the court reporter can provide me with the transcript on,
say, a Tuesday or Wednesday, I'd like it the
same day you guys get it.

I am relying on you suggesting that the statement should not be more than about an hour. I don't think it would take that long to copy that statement or make a copy of a disk if that's how Ms. Paoletti Yohler is going to provide the transcript to you.

MR. Neumer: And, just for the record, I think my representation was that OIG's portion of the questioning would take an hour. And we're now, I think, going to --

MR. McKay: That's fine. I have no
objection consistent with the last statement in April.

MR. NEUMER: And, Jim, we'll work with you to get you it in a very, very reasonable time.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, could you please state your name, star number for the record.

MR. McKAY: Detective March has something to say.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Upon advice of counsel, I am refusing to answer any questions without the direct order of a superior officer.

I would like to preface this statement with the following: I believe I am entitled to be informed of my Constitutional right to remain silent. I have received no assurances from the Office of Inspector General that criminal charges are probable. Proceeding with this statement is in violation of the applicable Collective Bargaining Agreement, but I have been advised that I will lose my job if I refuse to provide a statement.

I am not giving this statement
voluntarily but only because I am required to do so by a direct order of Commander Robert Klimas.

I know that if I refuse to participate in this interview or refuse to answer certain questions, I can be disciplined or even fired; therefore, this statement is being compelled.

I am asserting all of my rights under the Supreme Court case of Garrity versus New Jersey, and I am specifically objecting to any sharing or disclosure of this statement or its contents with any prosecutor's office, such as the Cook County State's Attorney's Office or the United States Attorney's Office.

I also object to the sharing or disclosure of this statement or its contents directly or indirectly with anybody else including but not limited to any other federal, state, or city agency, any special prosecutor and his agents, and the media.

I object that this second interview is taking place. I was here for two days on April 26th and April 27th and gave honest answers to all of your questions.
Further, I object that this interview is taking place before an arbitrator has decided the issues that were raised in a grievance filed by me and another grievance filed by Chicago FOP regarding this investigation. The Inspector General has refused to postpone this investigation.

Also on the advice of counsel, I am making the following additional objection: I am objecting to the fact that the City of Chicago Inspector General's Office has refused to identify all of my complainants if they exist.

Under city ordinance, Collective Bargaining Agreements, and my due process rights, I am entitled to notice of the nature of the allegations against me and the identity of all complainants prior to any interview.

The Inspector General's Office has only advised me that Interim Superintendent John J. Escalante and, to a lesser degree, Sergeant S. Soria are the only complainants against me. This can't possibly be true because Escalante's letter to the Inspector General dated January 13, 2016, does not specifically allege or even suspect me of any misconduct.

Further, the letter refers to Sergeant Soria's memo of July 15th, 2015, which only alleges inattention to duty because of possible tampering with in-car camera mics and improper use of equipment, none of which applies to me, a detective assigned to investigate this police shooting.

I am left to wonder who is the source of the allegations now pending against me. I shouldn't have to do this because I have a right to know and confront my accusers.

The Inspector General's Office is violating my rights of due process by not specifically informing me of the person or persons making these specific allegations. As such, I can only assume the true complainant is the City of Chicago's Inspector General.

I am entitled to an affidavit of any complainant who is not a sworn officer. I have not received one in this case.

I am not waiving the requirement of an affidavit, therefore, I am objecting to the City of Chicago Inspector General's Office.
making allegations against me and conducting an investigation into its own allegations.

Finally, I am objecting to the Inspector General's Office conducting any investigation of this shooting because the Inspector General of Chicago is prejudiced against me. This prejudice is evidenced by his participation on the Police Accountability Task

This report includes findings made without the benefit of hearing my sworn testimony, considering all of the evidence in this case, and considering all of the applicable
law in this case.

The Inspector General has prejudged
this case; as such, he and his agents cannot be fair, impartial, and independent investigators
in this matter. This objection also applies to Lori E. Lightfoot, president of the Chicago
Police Board, who served as the chair of the Police Accountability Task Force.

Thank you.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, I want to first put in front of you, Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report ME2014-01071.

I don't think we ever got your name and star number for the record, so if we could start there.

A. My name is Detective David March. My star number is 20563.

Q. And what is your current unit of assignment?

A. I'm assigned to the Bureau of Detectives, Area Central.

Q. Again, we want to ask you a few questions about the Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report ME2014-01071.

From your perspective, what is a Medical Examiner Case Report?

MR. McKay: Objection, that calls for speculation. You're asking him to guess about some other agency, not even in the City of Chicago, and their reports.

MR. Neumer: Let me reword the question.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Based on your experience as a detective, what is a Medical Examiner Case
MR. McKAY: Same objection.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I cannot specifically speak to exactly what this is. In 34 years at the Chicago Police Department, all of that time working within the County of Cook, I have never seen a report like this.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay.

A. I can only assume after reading this report that this document was created as a result of a quick telephone notification that I made to the Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County. It was not the subject of any kind of investigation or in-depth interview of me by anyone.

Q. Do you have any understanding as to what the purpose of a Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report?

A. Again, I can only assume from reading it that it is meant to document my notification of their office that the Chicago Police Department was involved in a Medical Examiner's
We have to notify them any time we are dealing with any kind of death that is potentially a Medical Examiner's case, whether it be a natural death, suicide, homicide, whatever.

Q. So have you had communications with Cook County investigators prior to October 20th, 2014, regarding homicides or death investigations?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you have any estimate as to how many times you've communicated with Cook County investigators or Cook County personnel regarding homicides or death investigations?

A. I have no idea, but it was a large number of contacts.

Q. Maybe over 50?

A. Well over 50.

Q. Well over 50. Okay. Have you ever seen a Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report prior to today?

A. I first saw this report last Wednesday when it was presented to me by our Internal Affairs Division. Prior to that day, I have never seen this type of report.

I have been involved in the prosecution of numerous homicide cases, murder cases in the criminal court system of Cook County, and I have seen the Medical Examiner's protocol documenting their results of their autopsy. I have seen toxicological reports presented by outside laboratories that do work for the Medical Examiner's Office. I have never in my life seen this type of report. I didn't even know they existed.

Q. Okay. When you were communicating with Cook County personnel on previous homicide or death investigations, were you providing -- what type of information were you providing to the Cook County personnel?

A. I'm assuming -- again, I don't know -- the only requirement on us as the Chicago Police Department is to notify them when we come across a potential Medical Examiner's case.

When I call, my purpose is just to let them know that there is a Medical Examiner's case. The information that they solicit from me, I don't know if there's a checklist that they go down and -- I have no idea how that comes to be.

Q. I got you. So, generally speaking, what type of information do you provide as part of that initial notification?

A. Again, these notifications are made very early on in the investigation. A lot of information that they ask for we may not have at the time, so obviously if we don't have information, we can't provide information.

So based on what we do know at the time of the notification, they will ask us things like the date and time that we discovered the body, the location, the identification -- the identity of the dead body if we know it.

And they ask us for a brief summary of the circumstances under which we became aware of the -- that there was a dead body.

Q. Sure. And I don't want you to speculate. Do you have any understanding of what the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office does with that information?
A. No.

Q. Do you have any understanding as to why the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office is obtaining that information from you, the detective?

MR. MCKAY: Again, objection, calls for speculation.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. One reason would be, like I said, we are required to notify them of any potential Medical Examiner's cases. There are many times when we will notify them of the case and their investigator will tell us, "Okay, that's not a case that we're going to deal with, so the body doesn't have to end up here."

A case like that would be a natural death where the victim died of a medical condition that they were being treated for chronically and there was an attending physician.

If we present facts that indicate that that is the case, in those cases, the Medical Examiner will not take the case, so to speak, and they -- because in those cases, the

   Any other cases where there's any -- and, again, these are their standards and it's their decision where they think there might be suspicious circumstances or potential for suspicious circumstances. If it looks like it's an overdose with no signs of violence, then obviously they're going to have to conduct a toxicology exam to confirm whether or not the cause of death was drugs.

   So, again, the criteria is theirs, and all we do is we notify them of what we know at the time and they tell us whether or not they're going to take the case and if they want us to make sure the body ultimately comes to their facility or can be released to the family by a hospital or doctor or whatever.

Q. And do you have any understanding whether the ultimate postmortem examination report relies at all upon the Exhibit 5 report I've put in front of you?

MR. McKay: Again, that calls for speculation. I object. He cannot guess about another agency's use of this report or what, if any, other people in that agency relied on.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Again, I don't know.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Specifically now with respect to the Exhibit 5 report, on the evening of October 20th, 2014, did you have any communication with the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office regarding the McDonald shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. Can you walk us through that communication. Where were you when you had that communication with the ME's Office?

A. I was at the crime scene on Pulaski Road. We had assisting detectives that had responded to Mount Sinai Hospital where Laquan McDonald had been transported for treatment of his injuries.

I believe that the sequence in which this happened was that the detectives at the hospital were present or learned that Laquan
McDonald had been pronounced deceased by the attending physician there.

They -- again, I believe they then informed Sergeant Gallagher, who was the detective supervisor in charge of the scene, that Laquan McDonald was deceased, and then Sergeant Gallagher notified me of the same since the case had been assigned to me.

Upon learning that, as I commonly do on cases where I think I might have more information than the initial primary beat car assigned to the case, rather than have them asking me all this information so they can present it to the Medical Examiner's Office, I will call the Medical Examiner's Office because, again, at that point I feel I had the most information in one place, so to speak.

So I called the Medical Examiner's Office from the scene and spoke with Investigator Briggs to make this notification.

Q. The detectives who were at the hospital, do you recall their names?

A. I don't. I'd have to look at the reports, the file.
Q. And did you use -- we had a discussion I think during our last interview about use of phone. Was it your personal cell phone that you used to call the ME's Office?

A. It's the only phone I have. Like I told you before, the Department does not supply me with a phone. And in this day and age, there were no pay phones near the scene, so it was the only way to make a timely notification.

Q. On Page 1 of the Case Report, it lists under the Notification section date, October 20th, 2014; time, 11:51:59 p.m. Does that time accord with your belief as to when that call between you and Investigator Briggs occurred?

A. I have no personal knowledge at this date of exactly when that telephone call was made by me to the Office of the Medical Examiner, but that time does seem to be accurate to me.

Q. Okay. And so you call Investigator Briggs from the scene, and what did you tell him?

A. At first I told him that, probably -- again, this is not word for word. I don't recall exactly what information was discussed in what order, but I probably -- my first statement
to him probably was that I was making a notification of a police officer-involved
shooting and that there obviously was a dead
body.

Q. Is there just one number that CPD is to call or detectives are to call for the Medical Examiner's Office?

A. Their office has a number of numbers.
There is one number that -- I mean, officers
will use whatever number -- I can't speak to
what other number officers use, and I'm assuming that officers use whatever number they're used
to getting an answer at.

Q. Right.

A. I know at that late time, there's one number that is at least supposed to be answered
24 hours a day. Sometimes it doesn't happen,
but I call the -- I have that number programmed
into my cell phone, and I called that number because, like I said, I have made these notifications on numerous occasions.
Q. Did you know or have any sort of working relationship with Investigator Briggs prior to your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. I know I have come across the name before. I can't specifically say that I've ever talked to him on the telephone before. It may have been that I read reports with his name on it.

I was aware that there was an investigator at the Office of the Medical Examiner by the name of Briggs. I -- again, I can't say whether or not I've ever spoken to him before October 20th, 2014, and I don't believe I have ever met him in person. If he was sitting across the table from me today, I'd have no idea if that was him.

Q. Is it fair to say that when you placed the call on the night of October 20th, 2014, that you weren't calling Briggs specifically?

A. No, absolutely not.

Q. It was more of a general hotline or something --

A. I have no idea --
Q. -- calling?
A. -- working there at the time. Again, I was fulfilling our requirements to notify the office, not any specific person.

Q. Okay. At the time you spoke with Investigator Briggs, do you recall whether you had seen video footage of the McDonald shooting?
A. I can't say for certain. I believe I probably have seen -- had seen by that time the infamous dash cam video, if you will. But I certainly had not seen all of the video that we recovered. And, again, I'm not certain, but I believe I did see that footage prior to my call to Briggs.

Q. And I believe that's the 813 Robert video you're referring to.
A. Correct.

Q. I'm going to ask you to look at Page 3 of the Case Report. And, in particular, the paragraph that begins, "Detective March related the following." That's the second full paragraph in the narrative section.

So I want you to take a moment or take as much time as you need to review that paragraph, and then my question to you after you've had a chance to read through that is whether that paragraph accurately reflects a statement you made to Briggs on October 20th, 2014?

A. That paragraph absolutely does not accurately reflect the facts that I related to Investigator Briggs.

Q. Okay. And let's go line by line. I want you to -- I'm going to ask you two questions regarding each sentence in that paragraph: One, whether you made that statement
to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, and then, two, whether that statement is accurate, okay? So whether you said it to him or not, whether it's accurate.

So we'll --

A. I can maybe -- I don't know if this saves any time or not. I can tell you, having read that report, that none of those statements
are verbatim statements by me to Investigator Briggs.

The first statement, for example, has a date and a time and a beat car. That information was transmitted but not in one sentence that said all of that. He would ask me what time the incident occurred; I would provide him with a time. He asked me when it occurred, what date, what address, like that.

This is not anywhere near the verbatim statements that I made to him over the telephone.

Q. Okay. And we're just going to break it down here --

A. And, again, I might want to stress, I did not speak in a paragraph like this. This was all he would ask me a question, I would provide him an answer.

Q. Okay. So that's how -- well, maybe we'll take a step back again to maybe --

A. We can certainly go to whether each individual fact listed there is accurate, but I can tell you categorically the entire paragraph is not my statement, and none of those sentences were said by me in that manner.

Q. Okay.

MR. McKay: Can I ask you a question? Can you tell me whether or not this telephone conversation you are about to ask Detective March about, was it recorded in any fashion by Investigator Briggs or anybody from the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office?

MR. NEUMER: Yeah, what I would say in response to that is, there's a duty of confidentiality. And, again, the materials that OIG has provided today, OIG has provided all materials, all information required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Well, there's no duty of confidentiality if it's a recording of the accused's statement.

The Collective Bargaining Agreement clearly mandates that you, IPRA, Internal Affairs, whatever agency is investigating a Chicago police officer has a duty to give the officer a recording such as a video or an audio before you ask him questions of it.

If you got it, I demand that you give a copy of that statement to Detective March now before any question continues.

MR. NEUMER: And what I would say in response is, OIG complies with all applicable laws.
MR. McKAY: And I'll take that to mean that you don't have any recorded statement of Detective March by Investigator Briggs or any agent of the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office.

MR. NEUMER: I'll let you draw whatever inferences you'd like, and I'll just say that we comply with all applicable laws, and we are conducting this interview today in accordance with all applicable laws.

MR. McKAY: Okay. Well, with that said, then since you placed this gentleman under oath, if you have a recording that suggests anything inconsistent with what Detective March has previously testified about in April and, more importantly, what he has also generated himself, the reports he created, if you have a recording, please give that to him now. He has a right to it.

And I'm going to ask that he not answer any of your questions unless you're going to tell him that criminal charges of perjury or any other crimes are probable. And if that's the case, you now have a right to Mirandize him.
pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement,
Illinois State Law, and the United States
Constitution.

MR. NEUMER: Yeah, I mean, as we discussed
previously this is an administrative investigation. This is not a criminal investigation. We're not partnered with any other bodies on this investigation, so Miranda
simply doesn't apply here.

MR. McKay: All right. My objection is on the record.

Further, if there was a recording,
Peter, even if you don't know about it but if there was a recording by Mr. Briggs or anybody
from the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office
without the consent of Detective March, I would submit that's a violation of the Illinois
Eavesdropping Statute, which is a Class III
felony.

If you've got it, or, further, if you don't have it but somewhere down the road you do get it, I'm moving to strike whatever Detective
March is saying consistent with the order by Commander Klimas, and, further, I'm going to be asking you to refer Mr. Briggs or anybody from the ME's Office to the Cook County State's Attorney's Office for an investigation on an eavesdropping violation.

Thank you.

MR. NEUMER: Okay.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, I think we were going to take a step back a little bit. You were giving us some information regarding how
this conversation occurred, and I think obviously you placed the call to the ME's
Office; is that correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And then you made a notification -- or you notified, again in this case it was Investigator Briggs, that there was a death or a homicide?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall -- I mean, is there
sort of like a boilerplate language, or do you just -- what do you tell the ME's Office when
you notify them?

A. I think I just told you that I don't know the exact words that I used, but I explained to him that I was calling him to notify him of a police officer-involved shooting incident where the person who had been shot by the officer had been pronounced deceased.

Q. And then following that exchange, did Investigator Briggs proceed to ask you a series of questions?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And did you provide information in response to his questions?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you offer any information without it being prompted by a question from Investigator Briggs?

A. Not that I recall.

Q. So is it fair to say that he was conducting an interview of you?

A. I don't know that we would -- that I would characterize it as an interview because there was -- number one, at that point in time in the investigation, I knew that I did not know all of the facts of the investigation. So --

Q. Let --
A. -- I was not in a position to give any totally completely informed statement on anything.

So, like I said, to the best of my knowledge, like I said, maybe he's got a checklist that he goes through and he's asking me to fill in the blanks of his checklist.

Q. Let me take away the characterization of interview. Is it fair to say he was asking you questions and you were providing him information in response to his questions?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. I want to go back to the second paragraph of the narrative. And I want to go line by line again and -- and, again, it will be two questions: Whether you related the information in the sentence to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, and then the second question will be whether it is accurate.

So the first sentence is, "Detective March related the following: On or about 2156 hours 19 October, 2014, Chicago Police 8th District beat car 815 Robert responded to 41st and Kildare in reference to a "citizen holding a subject".

So let me first ask you, Detective March, did you relate the information that is in that first sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. Again, not in those exact words, but most of the information in that first sentence is accurate except for the date of occurrence where he documented that I said or I related that the incident occurred on 19 October 2014.

The telephone call notification that I made to him was made on 20 October 2014 from the scene of the incident, and there is no way that I said that night or any time during the following almost two years now that I've been talking about this incident, there is no way that I referred to this incident as occurring on the 19th of October.

Q. Is it fair to say that you, at some point during your conversation with Investigator Briggs, told him that an 8th District beat car, 815 Robert, responded to 41st and Kildare in reference to a citizen holding a subject?
A. I would have told him something along the lines of some Chicago police officers responded to a call of someone holding a subject for the police at 41st and Kildare.

Again, I'm trying to guess here because I don't recall exactly the words that were used. I assume he asked me probably what beat was involved and I told him 815 Robert, and I'm assuming that him knowing the -- some of the workings and especially the numbering system of the beats and the Chicago Police Department, I think he correctly assumed that 815 Robert was an 8th District beat car. I don't remember telling him it was an 8th District beat car. I think he just assumed that from the beat number.

Q. Next sentence, "Upon arrival, Beat 815 Robert was confronted by the subject who threatened the officers with a four-inch fold knife."

Do you recall relating the information in that second sentence to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, during your phone call with him?
A. As I just indicated, I would have told him that Beat 815 Robert responded to this assignment. The rest of that sentence is a complete misrepresentation of what I told him that night.

And, again, in dealing with this incident for almost two years now, I have never characterized what happened between Laquan McDonald and the officers assigned to 815 Robert as 815 Robert was confronted by the subject who threatened the officers with a four-inch fold knife.

First of all, as borne out in my -- all of the reports that I have written documenting this incident, at no time did any witness ever say that the officers on Beat 815 Robert were confronted by the subject. The subject being Laquan McDonald.

In fact, it was the other way around. The officers responded to the assignment and they subsequently confronted Laquan McDonald, who they found walking down the street.

I have never characterized what happened between those officers and Laquan McDonald as him threatening them with a knife in the sense that I'm thinking somebody is brandishing a knife and threatening to cut you.
I always characterized this incident as him attacking their vehicle with the knife, where he stabbed the right front tire and then stabbed the windshield. I have never characterized this as him threatening the officers with the knife.

That having been said, I believe that the act of attacking the marked police vehicle associated with two uniformed police officers was, in fact, a threat to the officers, but, again, just to be clear, that is now -- the words that are in this sentence are not the way
I would have or have ever portrayed this incident.

The last misrepresentation is that it says that he threatened the officers with a four-inch fold knife. Again, having been at the scene, seeing the knife myself, knowing how I believe every single person -- all personnel employed by the Chicago Police Department in any reports written about this incident, I believe it has been very consistent that the knife has been referred to as a folding knife, seven inches in overall length with a three-inch blade. I have never and I have never heard anyone else describe the weapon as a four-inch fold knife.

Q. So do you think that second sentence is -- putting aside the question of whether you relayed the information contained in the second sentence to Investigator Briggs, do you think that second sentence is accurate?

A. No.

Q. And it's for the reasons you stated?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. How about the information in the first sentence, other than the 19th of October language, is the statement -- the first-sentence statement accurate?

A. Aside from the fact that he's got the wrong date, which you just described, and the fact that the words, "citizen holding a subject" are in quotation marks, I don't recall that I said those exact words, but the idea, if you will, of that being a summary of what had occurred is accurate.
Q. Okay. Third sentence, "The subject fled the scene on foot, where at 4112 South Pulaski the subject was stopped by officers assigned to Beat 845 Robert."

First question, did you relay the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. In this sentence, I believe that all of those details or facts described in that sentence are accurate and were relayed by me to Investigator Briggs.

And, again, I can't say that I used those exact words in one complete coherent sentence that says all of that in one sentence.

Q. Okay. Next sentence, "The officers announced their office as Chicago Police Officers and ordered the subject to drop the knife."

First question, did you relay that information to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. Again, not in those exact words, but, yes, that information was relayed to Investigator Briggs with the exception of the fact that he's got the words, "Chicago police officers" in quotation marks, and I have no -- again, from being out there that night, interviewing all the officers involved, having written a number of reports involving this investigation, and talking about it on numerous occasions, no one -- none of the officers ever told me that the words they said were "Chicago police officers" when they were announcing their office.

And I obviously did not characterize that then to Investigator Briggs. If I had not heard someone say those words, I would not tell him that someone said those words.

Q. Okay.

A. I did tell him that the officers announced their office, and I believe all the reports that I've written said that all of the officers are pretty consistent in saying something along the lines of, "Police, stop. Police, drop the knife." But never do they say, "Chicago police officers, stop. Chicago police officers, drop the knife."
So except for that one clarification, again, that sentence are not the exact words I spoke to him, but the facts detailed in that sentence are accurate.

Q. Next sentence, "The subject lunged at the officers with the knife."

First question, did you relay that information to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. No, I -- again, being a detective -- being a police officer for 34 years and especially being a violent crimes detective for the last 25 years, details of the elements of a criminal offense are the most important thing we deal with.

I mean, when we're determining whether or not we have probable cause to arrest someone, when we're presenting a case to the State's Attorney's Office for the approval of criminal charges, it's very important how the facts are characterized. If you leave facts out, if you use words that don't convey all of the details, you're not conveying an accurate message to whoever.
And especially like with dealing with the State's Attorney's Office, they're they ones -- they're not on scene, they don't talk to all of the people that we do, so it's up to us to accurately relay to them what the facts are because that's what they're going to make their decision as to whether or not they're going to charge and what charge is the most appropriate.

So obviously you don't want to use language that doesn't accurately describe something and you don't want to use language that describes things that didn't happen.

Again, having spoken to every officer that was involved in this incident, no one has ever told me that they saw Laquan McDonald or felt that he was lunging at anyone.

In viewing the video myself, I have never had the impression that I see Laquan McDonald ever lunge at anyone in that video. And, again, in speaking about this case for almost two years, I can say with certainty -- because, again, my awareness of the importance of the details -- I have never described what Laquan McDonald did during this incident as a lunge.

   So the sentence, "The subject lunged at the officers with the knife" is just something that I never said and I did not tell Investigator Briggs.

   Q.  Okay.  Understanding that -- putting aside whether or not you relayed that information -- or relayed -- said the word,
"lunged" to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, do you believe it's an accurate statement to say that the subject lunged at the officers with the knife?

   A.  No, I believe that's a misrepresentation by Investigator Briggs.

   Q.  You do not think --

   A.  And I don't know what he based that on.  It certainly wasn't the words I told him because I never told him that Laquan McDonald lunged at anyone.

   Q.  So you do not think it's accurate to state that McDonald lunged at the officers?

   A.  Correct.

   Q.  Do you have any recollection of how you characterized McDonald's actions to Briggs
during your phone call?

A. I -- again, I don't know the exact words that I used. I know from what I saw and how I handled my investigations, I would have said something along the lines of McDonald attacked the officers or began to attack the officers.

Q. Okay --

A. And, again, there's many ways to attack. I wouldn't describe what he did as a lunge.

Q. Next sentence, "Fearing for their life and attempting to stop the threat, one officer, star number 9465, fired 16 rounds from his duty weapon, a Smith & Wesson 9mm handgun striking the subject numerous times."

First question, did you relate the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes, I did relay -- all of the facts detailed in that sentence were related by me to Investigator Briggs, not necessarily in those exact words and certainly not in one sentence like that.

Q. Okay. And is that sentence accurate?
A. As best I know from what happened at this date.

Q. Okay. Next sentence, "After striking the subject, an ambulance was requested by the officers."

First question, is that -- did you relate the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes, the facts detailed in that sentence are accurate. Again, not the words necessarily that I actually used and certainly not in a sentence like that that I recall.

Q. Okay. But, generally speaking, the information that's contained in that sentence you relayed to Investigator Briggs during your phone call?

A. Yes.

Q. The next paragraph starts, "Upon arrival of Chicago Fire Department ambulance," I want you to review that paragraph, and after you've had a chance to look it over, I want to ask if you provided the information in that paragraph to Investigator Briggs during your phone call?

A. In the first sentence I would have told him that Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21 transported McDonald to Mount Sinai Hospital.

Pretty much the rest of that paragraph, aside from the time that he's expired, because I would have told him that McDonald was pronounced dead at 2242 hours, but the rest of that is information that I did not provide to Briggs.

The beginning of the second sentence where it says, "Once at Mount Sinai Hospital, emergency staff were unable to revive the subject," I have no idea what was done at Mount Sinai Hospital. I don't know if they rolled him into the ER and he was a flat-line, that they never found any signs of life; I don't know if they worked on him and performed any procedures in attempting to save his life and were unsuccessful.

So that statement that they were unable to revive him, I don't know where that comes from. I did not say anything in any faintest resemblance to that statement.

I would have told him, as I told you, that he was pronounced dead at 2242 hours, the name of the doctor, the beat car has it -- Briggs has it spelled one way here, the Original Case Report by Officer Fontaine has it spelled a different way.

The spelling that I got from the detectives at the hospital is different. In fact, it's completely different. If you look at my report, the doctor that is credited with pronouncing Laquan McDonald deceased is Pitzele, I believe it is spelled P-i-t-z-e-l-e, which,
depending on what your perspective is, is kind of close to what Briggs has here, but it certainly is not the name that Briggs has here.

After the doctor's name, the rest of that paragraph is basically a description of the injuries sustained by Laquan McDonald, and there is no way that I -- I couldn't have possibly told him any of that information because at the time I made this notification, the only things I knew at that point were that Jason Van Dyke said
he had fired his weapon 16 times and I was aware that Laquan McDonald had been shot multiple times, which means more than once.

I had no idea how many times he was hit, if all 16 shots struck him, if they were lodged or through-and-through injuries, which would create more than one hole, I had no idea anywhere near this kind of description of his injuries. So obviously Briggs got that from some other source, not me.

Q. Is it possible that the two detectives who were at the hospital, would they
have had that information?
A. It's certainly possible that those detectives had that information. It's possible anyone from the police department who was present at the hospital with information may have made an additional call to Briggs and provided that information. It's possible that Briggs, in performing his duties, called the hospital to obtain additional information that I didn't know.

But it's obvious -- it's completely totally obvious to me that the four pages of this report are not a summary of information he received entirely from me. It's obvious to me that he used additional sources and probably additional people to gather all the information he's summarizing in these four pages.

Q. And maybe that's a good segue maybe to kind of go through a little bit and determine what of the information in this Case Report came from you and what information didn't.

So if we could go to Page 1. There's a --

A. Let me ask you this: If you want to simplify things, I've gone through my copy of this report and kind of highlighted the information that I didn't provide him. So maybe that could save you some time, unless you feel obligated to ask every entry.

Q. Maybe we can quickly -- we'll quickly talk about what you did provide. So there's a the Decedent/Subject section on Page 1.

Did you provide Investigator Briggs with the information and the details contained in that Decedent/Subject section?
A. Well, with the exception of the ZIP code for his residence at [REDACTED], I would have told them that I received the information that the last known address that the Chicago Police Department had for Laquan McDonald was [REDACTED].

But obviously standing at the scene, I had no idea what the ZIP code is at [REDACTED]. And at that point I didn't pull out my phone and go on the internet and look up that ZIP code for that address.

So obviously he at some -- from some source -- and I'm assuming he looked it up on the internet or from a ZIP code directory book, if they still make those, he looked up that address and entered it into his report.

So under that Decedent/Subject category, the only information that I did not provide to him is the ZIP code of the residence.

Q. Let's see, in the Notification section on Page 1, fair to say that you provided him your name, title, and star number?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you provide him the beat number of 5121?

A. Yes.

Q. And did you provide him the police report number of HX475653?

A. Yes. The only information in that section that I don't believe I gave him because I don't remember it and I don't recall ever doing that is the telephone number for my office, which is what that telephone number is. Again, I assume he looked that up from another source.

Q. Okay. In the Discovered section, did you provide him the information in that Discovered section?

A. There is some information that I did not provide. But, first of all, I would like to point out, if you look at that section at the bottom of Page 1 and the first two lines of Page 2, which is a continuation of that section, I think it's obvious if you look through all of the entries or the categories in that section, this is in reference to a dead body. This is the discovery of a dead body. He has for the first entry, "Discovered by: Chicago Police beat number 845 Robert." They did not discover a dead body.
They were dealing with a live offender from the entire time he was at the scene, and I'm told that when he went into the ambulance, he still had a pulse. So the Chicago Police Department did not encounter a dead body at that point.

So, again, I -- I don't know what he's trying to convey here, but the section should really be, you know -- if you want to be totally accurate, it would probably be that someone at the hospital with the location of Mount Sinai Hospital would be the one to give you information about the discovery of a dead body because that is where he was -- until he was pronounced dead, he was alive.

And I know, again from all the information I received at the scene, that he definitely was still alive at the scene. So it's a technicality, but we're dealing with lawyers here, and that's what they live on is technicalities.

I'm assuming again the address -- he's got, "Discovered by: Chicago Police beat number 845 Robert," that's Jason Van Dyke and Officer Joe Walsh's beat number.

He uses the address of the 8th District, which I did not provide him.
Again, I'm assuming he looked that up in some reference that he's got.

The telephone number is my office
telephone number, so I'm not sure why that's in
there because I didn't discover the body, and I don't think any of the people from Area Central Bureau of Detective's Office discovered the body. The best I know, the people at the scene that encountered Laquan McDonald were all officers assigned to the 8th District.

"Title: Police officer,"
"Relationship: Police officer," I'm not sure
what he's -- Beat 845 Robert are obviously police officers, but, "Relationship: Police officer." I'm not sure what that's indicating.

Last known alive, I guess that's accurate because the officers saw him alive on
the 20th and he was pronounced deceased on the 20th, so that's accurate information. I'm not sure exactly how Briggs determined that.
Discover date and time, again, this is supposed to be in reference to a dead body, and he's got 10/20/2014, 9:56 p.m. That is the time when Jason Van Dyke and Joseph Walsh encountered and confronted Laquan McDonald.

That is not the time -- and, again, he was still alive attacking them with a knife at that time. So I don't know how that figures into Briggs' thinking that that's the time for the discovery of a dead body.

And then condition of body, multiple gunshot wounds, again, he's taking the fact that Laquan McDonald was shot multiple times and putting that in there for the condition of the body.

And I did tell him that McDonald had been shot multiple times but...

Q. How about Place of Occurrence/Incident, did you provide the information on that section to Investigator Briggs?

A. Yes, that would have been information I communicated to him except for the ZIP code of the address of occurrence because, again, I didn't know the address at that point when I was calling from the scene.

Q. Okay.

A. So obviously he got that from some other source.

Q. And then Identification of Deceased?

A. This is a very confusing category for me personally. If you read my reports, they document the fact that Laquan McDonald was initially tentatively identified by his State of Illinois ID card that he had on his person, and subsequently that identification was confirmed by his fingerprints.

But at the time I made this notification to Briggs, we were working off that tentative identification. "Positive Identification: Coworker," I have no idea what that is supposed to be indicating because there was certainly no coworker of Laquan McDonald that I was aware of that had any contact with police.

Identification means fingerprints.

Again, at the time I was making this notification, I knew that as part of the standard procedure, at some point in time, Laquan McDonald's remains would be fingerprinted, but they had not been fingerprinted at this point.

And I confirmed that by looking at
the crime scene processing reports from the forensic investigators. And he was, in fact, I believe, fingerprinted at the Medical Examiner's Office on the following day. I believe it was the 21st when the autopsy was done.

So, again, there's no way that I told him that he was identified by fingerprints at
the time I made this notification.

Q. And maybe -- so on the second page in the -- or third page of the report in the narrative section, last full paragraph, "Subject
was positively identified by the Chicago Police ICLEAR system based on a prior Chicago Police
booking number, IR2106340.

I mean, does that -- how does that relate to the identification of the deceased?

A. To that particular -- specific fact,
I was told by -- again, I don't remember who told me, I wrote it on a General Progress
Report, that someone had run, I'm assuming, the information off of the state ID card -- they had run a name-check on him in our database and come up with possible IR number, and I could have provided that to Briggs.

Q. Okay.

A. But, again, that had not -- the IR number is a distinct number assigned to every person that the Chicago Police Department arrests based on their fingerprints, and no fingerprint analysis or match or even fingerprinting process had been completed at the time.

That was someone ran a name-check based on the identifiers from the ID card and came up with that IR number. And I gave that to -- again, that was in my notes -- so I probably did give that number to Briggs as a possible IR number for --

Q. Would you have told Briggs the subject was positively identified by the Chicago Police ICLEAR system during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. No, absolutely not. There's two issues -- and, again, this goes back to my training and experience after my 34 years as a Chicago police officer.

When you come across a dead body, whether it be a natural or criminal incident, two of the very most important procedures that the police department has to accomplish is to identify the -- positively identify the subject and make a notification to the next of kin.

Identification is made either by having a family member, and not just a friend who knows him for the last five years, but we usually use a blood family relative to view the victim and say, yeah, that's my husband, that's my son, that's my daughter, you know, whatever.

That had not happened because at the time of this notification, we had not made contact with Laquan McDonald's family.

And the other more common way is -- or second more common way, whatever you want to call it, would be through fingerprints, and I just discussed, that had not even started yet.

Q. Do you have any independent -- well, independent of this document -- independent recollec|tion of what you did tell Investigator

Briggs regarding McDonald's identification
during your phone call?
A. I would have told him that, like I just told you, we had tentative information coming off the ID card, and I would have told him the same thing, someone ran him in our system and came up with a possible IR number.

Q. Going back to Page 2 of the Case Report, the Pronouncement section, did you provide the information in that section to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on
October 20th, 2014?
A. "Place Deceased Pronounced," I would have told him he was pronounced at Mount Sinai Hospital. I did not specify ER because he could have died in surgery. I did not know where in the hospital he would have been pronounced, so I did not say ER. I would tell him hospital.

"Method of Pronouncement: On View,"
I'm not quite sure what that means.

"Hospital: Mount Sinai Medical Center," I would have told him Mount Sinai, and obviously I gave him the date and time.
And, again, I gave him the doctor's name that I have but, again, going to the credibility of his attention to detail in his report and all the other inaccuracies that are in here, that is not the name of the doctor with the spelling that I gave him. And I would have gave him -- some of the very most important information we give them is the time of pronouncement and the doctor or the person who pronounces. And I certainly did not -- I did give him the name that I had in my report, but I did not give him this name.

Q. And doctor --
A. Now, it could be that I, in my reports, through my sources, other detectives, they have the wrong spelling and this is the correct spelling. But if that's the case, then Briggs didn't get that from me. Again, he got it from another source.

So, again, the information in these four pages is not entirely exclusively from me. This is a summary of information he gathered from a number of sources.

Q. "Fire Department on Scene," would
you --

A. I would have told him that Ambulance 21 transported the body to the hospital.

Q. Okay. And then going back to the narrative section --

A. And just by way of, again, attention to detail, the bottom of Page 2 "List of Person Interviewed," he's got my name and title and everything. Again, I don't recall giving him the office number. I'm assuming he got that off a list he has. I certainly -- he did not ask me, and I did not provide him with the address of my office. Again, he got that from another source.

Q. In the narrative section, last full paragraph, second sentence, "At the time of this report, it is unknown why the citizen was "holding the subject" since the citizen left the scene and could not be interviewed."

Did you provide the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014?

A. I don't specifically recall relaying that information to him. It is possible that I did and that statement is accurate, but, again, I don't recall making a statement exactly in that manner. But if he asked me, you know, did we interview the citizen who made the original call, I would have told him no because at that point, we hadn't.

Q. Did you inform Investigator Briggs that there was video of the shooting?

A. I don't recall if we discussed video or not.

Q. Okay. Do you recall whether he asked you if there was video of the shooting?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Generally speaking, do you recall providing Investigator Briggs with any information during your phone call on October 20th, 2014, that is not reflected in the Case Report?

A. It's possible, but I don't -- again, at this late date, I don't recall.

Q. No specific recollection?

A. No, nothing that I know for certain I told him that does not appear here.
MR. NEUMER: Time is 11:35 a.m. We're going to go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: Time is 11:43 a.m. We're back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Still talking about generally the Exhibit 5 Case Report. I wanted to ask you, Detective March, if at any time at the scene of the shooting on October 20th, 2014, at any time at the scene, did you tell a representative from FOP that McDonald lunged at Chicago Police Department officers?

MR. McKAY: Objection, that's outside your Notification of Allegations. Now he's supposed to defend some alleged statement to not Investigator Briggs and not Officer Dora Fontaine? Do you have an FOP report suggesting what, if anything, Detective March may have said?

That is outside your Notification of Allegations, and, as such, he should not be compelled to answer that.

MR. NEUMER: Can we read back the question.
(WHEREUPON, the record was
read by the reporter.)

MR. McKay: That's outside these allegations your office has alleged against Detective March.

Further, I submit, unless you have some report prepared by an FOP representative, you have no good faith basis to ask that question because there's nothing in Investigator Briggs' report about an FOP representative at the scene talking to Detective March.

Further, there's nothing in Officer
Dora Fontaine's report, your Exhibit Number 6, that suggests there was an FOP representative talking to Detective March at the scene.

As a result, I ask that you strike that question and move on to something else.

Further, you have all the reports prepared by Detective March in this particular case; indeed, you used several of them at his interview in April. At no time, in no place do any of the reports generated by Detective March indicate he ever interviewed an FOP representative.
The allegations today and the allegations your office made back earlier this year that were the subject of the April 26th and April 27th questioning, at no time do those allegations indicate any false statements to any FOP representative, Mr. Neumer. As such, we ask that that question be stricken and we move on to what other questions are relevant to these new allegations you have alleged.

MR. NEUMER: As you know, Detective March has been ordered to answer OIG's questions, so I would ask that the court reporter read back the question to Detective March.

(WHEREUPON, the previous question was read by the reporter as follows:

"Still talking about generally the [Exhibit 5] Case Report. I wanted to ask you, Detective March, if at any time at the scene of the shooting on October 20th, 2014, at any time at the scene, did you tell a representative from FOP that McDonald lunged at Chicago Police Department officers?".)

MR. McKAY: Again, I object. Are you
suggesting, Mr. Neumer, that an FOP representative and his or her statement, whether written or oral, is an official report? Because only official reports in this matter are what John Escalante wanted your office to investigate. I would ask that you answer the question, Mr. Neumer.

MR. NEUMER: The question --

MR. McKay: He cannot be -- I'm sorry. I mean no disrespect.

Detective March cannot be expected to defend himself by way of ambush. Where does this FOP representative and some alleged conversation, where does that come from? None of the allegations your office has alleged.

What is your good faith basis as an officer of the court to even ask this question, Mr. Neumer?

MR. NEUMER: This question is relevant to our investigation --

MR. McKay: How so? How so? We ask you to show us the relevance.

MR. NEUMER: Jim, Detective March is under order to answer our questions. I'm going to ask the court reporter to read him the question.

THE WITNESS: She doesn't need to reread the question again.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. As I said previously in regards to your Exhibit 5, I do not recall ever in the past almost two years ever characterizing or describing anything that Laquan McDonald did on the night of October 20th, 2014, as a lunge to anyone.

I might add on top of that, at the scene that night, I do not remember having any conversation with any representatives from FOP regarding the details of what happened in this incident.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I'm not sure if you're aware, FOP spokesperson Pat Camden described the -- described McDonald's actions to the press that night as a -- that McDonald lunged at the officers. If you know, do you know where FOP spokesperson Pat Camden got that information?

A. How would I possibly know? As I just told you, I don't remember having any conversation with any representative of FOP.
And I can tell you specifically Pat Camden --
and I know who he is -- I did not have any conversation with him at all that night.

And as far as where he got that, I mean, this is America and -- in spite of the conduct of the Inspector General's Office, this is America and people have a right of free speech. Pat Camden can say anything he wants.
I have no control over that, I have no idea what prompted him to say that, and I certainly, if he received information to that effect, I have no idea where it came from.

Q. Okay. And it didn't come from you --

MR. McKAY: I would reiterate, Mr. Neumer,
John Escalante's letter we have talked about at length clearly states whether any officers made
false statements on official reports submitted
in connection with the shooting of Laquan
McDonald on October 20th, 2014.

To suggest Pat Camden's statement to
the press is an official report is absurd.
Agreed or not?

And are we going to ask Detective
March about media reports, whether it's television or print media? That is ridiculous, especially in light of all the false information provided by the media in this case. You going to put them through this type of a sworn statement? I'd love to be asking them some questions under oath.

But, be that as it may, Detective
March has answered your question. Whatever Pat
Camden said to the media is not relevant to what
John Escalante is asking your office to do.

Thank you.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So, Detective March --
A. I'd just like to interject. Just before this exchange, I believe your last comment was that you are not saying that I made a statement like that to Pat Camden? And I would -- you said we're not saying that you made that statement to Pat Camden, but I would say on the record that the clear implication of your last question to me is that I am the source of
that statement.

Q. I'm asking you whether --
A. Right --

Q. -- whether you --

A. -- your implication -- because there's no allegation but you're on your little fishing expedition and you're accusing me by implication by that question that I am the source of that statement, and clearly I am not.

Q. Okay.

A. As you just admitted that you knew before you asked the question.

Q. I don't quite follow but okay.

At this time I am going to ask my colleague if she has any cleanup questions with respect to the ME Case Report.

BY MS. WITZBURG:

Q. Just very briefly, Detective, on Page 1 there's a phone number under the Notification section and a phone number under the Discovered section. Those are both 312-747 exchange numbers. Are those both numbers for Area Central?

A. Oh, no. I'm sorry. I misspoke. The number under the Discovered looks like -- it's not -- just looking at it quickly, I thought it was my office number. It's not. It probably is a number for the 8th District, which is the address right above it.

Q. Okay. So the 8380, is that the Area Central?

A. That is my office number.

Q. Does that phone -- is that specific to you, that exchange --

A. No, that's --

Q. -- is that the Detective Division number?

A. That's the entire office on the second floor.

Q. Okay. And 8730 is not an Area Central number?

A. Correct. Not that I know of. I believe it's the 8th District. I don't know for certain.

Q. Okay. Thank you.

MS. WITZBURG: That's it.

MR. NEUMER: Okay.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I would just like to, since we didn't go there, make a couple other observations. On Page 4 that we didn't deal with.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay.

A. Near the top there it says there's an entry of "Temperature of Environment: 52 degrees Fahrenheit". There is no way that I told Investigator Briggs that the temperature at the scene that night was 52 degrees.

Again, he obviously went to some internet source or something, some weather site and found -- you know, just looked up the temperature. Because I can see how that would be relevant to the Office of the Medical Examiner, but that certainly didn't come from me as you're suggesting everything else in this report is from me.

And then a short way under that entry, there's an entry for "Photographs Taken on Scene" and it says, "False."

Again, not being familiar with all of the workings of the Medical Examiner's Office, I have no idea what that is indicating. And if that is supposed to be Briggs indicating that I told him that photographs taken at the scene is false, that is a false representation because at the time of the notification that I made this notification, I don't believe photographs had been taken, but the crime lab, the Forensic Services personnel were on the scene in the process of processing the scene, which included not just photographs but also video.

So that is an inaccurate entry. And, again, it just goes to the credibility of using this report to say that I said anything exactly in the words that he used.

Q. I'm now going to put -- I'm going to take Exhibit 5 back and put Exhibit 6, the Original Case Incident Report in front of you.

(WHEREUPON, the document was tendered to the witness.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. And who completes an Original Case Incident Report?

A. Well, it can potentially be any member of -- any sworn member of the Chicago Police Department.

I believe even with all the civilianization we've gone through, I believe
it's still sworn members only that are -- and
maybe I'm wrong, but still to the best of my knowledge, it's only sworn officers that can actually initiate or create an Original Case Incident Report. So in the case of this incident, it would have been whichever officer was assigned to do that task -- to perform that task.

Q. Is it generally officers that complete the Case Incident Reports as opposed to detectives?

A. The vast majority of times, but there are times when a detective will create an original report.

Q. When would a detective create an Original Case Incident Report?

A. In an incident where he becomes aware
of the crime and -- just his dealing with it.
So, you know, rather than calling to have a beat car assigned and tying them up --

Q. Sure.

A. -- and the detective, the detective
will just, you know, save some resources and
just create the original report themselves.
Q.   Got you. And so what's the review chain for a Case Incident Report?

A.   The member who prepares the report, it's all computerized now. We have a system that's called AIRA -- I believe it's A-I-R-A -- which is for creating original computerized incident reports. Officers can do that in the mobile PDTs -- I don't know if that's police data terminal -- that they have in the cars, or they can do it on any computer in the police facility. But, as I said, no longer do we write -- hand-write reports out by hand; it's all done on computer.

And so there's a number of screens that the officer will go through and enter the information that's requested. They enter -- I should specify that they enter the information that they have or are aware of at that time.

All of these are usually what is called as preliminary investigations. When the investigation is just starting, the civilian, if you will, is just initially reporting it to the police, so sometimes the officer making -- initiating the report doesn't have all of the facts or may be given wrong information by the people they're talking to.

But it's basically that officer goes through the different screens and enters the information that is requested to the best of
their knowledge.

Q. And after the officer or, in certain instances detective, completes the Case Incident
Report, who next reviews that report?

A. Once the officer has entered all the information and they're satisfied that they have everything the way they want it on the report,
on one of the screens, there's a "Submit"
button. When they click on that button, it is then considered submitted.

In fact, if you were to look at the
system in more detail, a report that has not been submitted yet, somewhere near the top of
the report, it will say, "Preliminary" because it has not been submitted. That report is basically nothing; it's just a report in progress.

Once it is submitted, then if you were to print the report up then, it would say somewhere near the top, "Submitted." And then a supervisor, normally it's a sergeant, would review the report and approve it.

Once the sergeant reviews the report and is in agreement with it or whatever and decides he's ready to approve it, there's a screen in his computer that he clicks on the "Approved" button. At that time, the report becomes approved, and, again, if you were to print a copy of the report after that, it would say, "Approved" somewhere near the top of the report.

Q. Yep. Yep. Okay. Does the detective assigned to a case generally look at the case incident report before it's finalized?

A. No, the vast majority of criminal incidents that are reported by, you know, patrol personnel, there is no detective on the scene. It's a civilian reporting a crime to the officer. The officer enters his information, submits the report. His sergeant approves it or a sergeant will review and approve it.

And then subsequent to that, it will be assigned to a detective. And then that's like normally the first opportunity the detective has to even know the report exists,
much less read it and review it.

Q. So generally speaking, the Case --
the Original Case Incident Report is approved and finalized before a detective even gets assigned?

A. Correct.

Q. Who prepared this Exhibit 6 Original Case Incident Report?

MR. McKay: Objection to speculation unless
he knows.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I can only speak -- again, I wasn't present when this report was created and submitted in the computer system. I can only go
by the computer entries on the last page of this report, but it -- I know that Dora Fontaine was at the scene, I know that she was one of the officers assigned to the car that was assigned to do the original report, and it says reporting
officer is Dora Fontaine.

So it was either Dora Fontaine or someone logged into the computer system as Dora
Fontaine. That's the only thing I can say for certain.

Q. Okay.

A. It probably was Dora Fontaine.

Q. Did you direct Officer Fontaine to complete this Case Incident Report?

A. No, her sergeant did. One of the 8th District sergeants assigned their car or her car to, you know, be the quote/unquote paper car to create the Original Case Incident Report.

Q. Did you speak -- I know -- based on our interviews in April, I know you spoke to Officer Fontaine at the scene of the shooting regarding what she had witnessed. Putting those conversations aside, did you speak to Officer Fontaine at the scene of the shooting regarding her completion of this Original Case Incident Report?

A. I believe I just checked with her what classification she was going to use, what address, date and time of occurrence.

And then obviously, as we've already spoken about, I made the notification to the Medical Examiner's Office so I gave her Investigator Briggs' name and badge number to -- because technically the notification responsibility is the beat car, so I did that for them and gave her the information so it could be entered on the report.

Q. Okay. And so just to -- just for the record, what was the information you provided, the --
A. I told her I notified the Medical Examiner's Office and here's the name of the investigator and here's his number.

Q. Oh, okay. Okay. Is --
A. Which she apparently entered on the report because it is in there and I didn't enter it.

Q. Did you provide Officer Fontaine with any of the other information that is contained in this Exhibit 6 report?
A. No.

Q. Do you know where she would have gotten the information in this report that lists Officer Gaffney, Officer Van Dyke, and Officer Walsh as victims?
A. Either from talking to those individual officers or from someone else who had spoken to the officers.

Q. Okay. She did not get that information regarding the victims from you?

MR. McKay: Objection, asked and answered.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I believe I -- in our previous interview from April, I -- there was a question as to, you know, how this classification, whatever -- I think we had a conversation about who would be listed as a victim -- as victims on this report, and so obviously -- I don't know if Dora Fontaine was part of the conversation I was involved in.

Most of my conversations were with supervisors, and I don't recall if Dora Fontaine was there or not. But it was decided that we would list three victims, Officers Gaffney, Van Dyke, and Walsh.

Q. Right, but you don't have a specific recollection of telling Officer Fontaine, "You should list these three individuals as victims in your Original Case Incident Report"?

A. No, I don't recall that.
Q. Were you responsible for approving this Original Case Incident Report?

A. Absolutely not. As a detective, I have no authority to go into the computer system and approve anyone's report. Only a sergeant and above can do that.

Q. Let me back up, actually. In the Injuries section on Page 1, it says, "Injury info, PO Van Dyke, Number 12865, Jason - victim" and then underneath that it says, "Injured by offender."

Did you direct Officer Fontaine to include that, "Injured by offender" language in the report?

A. No.

Q. Do you have any knowledge as to why Officer Fontaine included that language in the report?

A. I can only speculate as to why that entry is in the report. The most likely reason that I can think of is that, again, as I explained, she was on the computer dealing with different computer screens.

And for this -- I know that for this,
"Injured by offender" entry, it's just a -- I believe they call it a radio button in computer terminology, but it's just a button you click on if that's the entry you want on the report.

My best guess would be that somehow she clicked on that button by accident because at no time did Jason Van Dyke tell me that he was injured, at no time did anyone else tell me that Jason Van Dyke or that anyone else was injured during this incident besides Laquan McDonald.

And I don't know if maybe Dora Fontaine thought he was or someone told her that he was, but I tend to believe that this was more of an accident because here's the thing: When an officer intentionally -- if they have a victim who is injured and they are intentionally clicking on that button to indicate that the victim was injured by the offender, there are then some subsequent drop-down menus that are normally -- a choice is made to also make an entry.

So in that case, let's say if this was -- Van Dyke was injured, you would have the entry, "injured by offender." It would then say, "nature of injury" and a drop-down menu --
some of the -- not all of the selections,
but -- this is not an inclusive list, but
some of the -- and, again, these are all computer choices. These are not the words of an officer entering it.

Some of the entries and selections -- or possible selections in the drop-down menu are
gunshot wound, stab wound, blunt force trauma,
abrasion, bruising, along those lines.

And then there's another drop-down
menu for the weapon used or instrument used to inflict the injury. Is it a firearm, is it a knife, is it a blunt instrument, is it hands if someone is punching someone.

So, again, my feeling or my interpretation of this is, if that was an intentional entry by Dora Fontaine, I would expect there to see the entries from the subsequent drop-down menus here. And those are not here, so that makes me think more likely than not, this was -- you know, I'm sure -- I know I have, most people I know have at some point in time clicked on the wrong button on the computer and gotten a result that they didn't want, and I think that's what happened here.

I might also add that most of the
entries from this Original Case Report, once it
is approved, when I create a report subsequent
to that, the report -- what I'm starting with is not a blank report. I'm starting with the information populated from this report. And
then it's up to me to create -- to correct any errors and to update any information if I learn something that's different from what the beat
officer had in their report.

And I can tell you from looking at my reports, nowhere in my reports does this injury
section appear at all.

Q. Okay.

A. And I don't specifically remember
doing this, but when I created a report, I go through all the screens to make sure the
information is accurate as far as what I know,
and if that box "injured by offender" had been checked, I obviously unchecked it because in my reports, this does not appear.
Q. I got you. Did you review this Exhibit 6 report before it was finalized?

A. No.

Q. Do you --

A. And there's no -- I might also add that there is no evidence anywhere that I had anything to do with the drafting or the reviewing or the approval of this report.

Q. Do you recall when you first saw this Exhibit 6 report?

A. Sometime the following morning after it was approved, I believe.

Q. Your name on Page 4 -- bottom of Page 4 in the Personnel section, your name and PC number are listed, along with the date of -- well, I should ask you, is that your PC number next your name at the bottom of Page 4?

A. Yes.

Q. And then a date and time is -- next to that PC number is October 21st, 2014, 15:01. What does that time signify?

A. Well, again, Mr. McKay alluded to this at the beginning of this proceeding when he said John Escalante would never have made the allegations that I am now facing regarding this report because if you just look at this report, it logically tells you what happened here.

The bottom line -- the last line of this page is that Dora Fontaine submitted the report on 21 October 2014 at 0432 hours, which is 4:32 a.m. That is the time the computer assigns. She didn't pick that time; that is the time the computer assigns when she clicks the "Submit" button.

The next time chronologically is the top -- the top line here, Sergeant Stephen Franko, it's got his approval time at 21 October 2014 at 0518 hours, that's 5:18 a.m. That is, again, not a time chosen by Sergeant Franko. When he clicks -- when he goes in there as a supervisor and clicks on the "Approval" button, that time is assigned by the computer.

And, again, First Deputy Superintendent John Escalante would know these things.

My name is on the middle line there, and it says -- my name is associated with a time of 21 October 2014 at 1501 hours, which is 3:01 p.m. on that same day. So it's almost -- it's getting close -- it's about ten hours after Sergeant Franko approved the report.

And, again, First Deputy Superintendent Escalante would know that Dora Fontaine's entry is in regards to when she submitted the report; Sergeant Franko's name is
in regards to the time he approved the report;
my name is the time at which a supervisor or a detective assigned to the Area Case Management Office went into the computer system and administrative -- knew that I was the assigned detective and went into the system and administratively assigned the job -- this incident to me on 21 October 2014 at 1501 hours.

Again, that's the time it was administratively assigned to me. It was actually assigned to me many hours earlier on the night of the 20th by Sergeant Gallagher
verbally in person, but it didn't make it into the computer obviously until all these steps
occurred.

And, again, First Deputy Superintendent John Escalante would know all this and, therefore, never would have made these allegations, two of which -- not just one, two of which I'm looking at regarding this one
report.

MR. NEUMER: At this time I'm going to turn
it over to my colleague for follow-up questions.

MS. WITZBURG: Thanks.

BY MS. WITZBURG:

Q. Detective, you mentioned that there was a conversation on the scene having to do with who would be designated as a victim; is
that right?
A. Correct.

Q. Tell us a little bit more about that conversation. Who else --

MR. McKAY: Objection, this has been asked
and answered in April. You were here, Peter,
Kris Brown was here, with all due respect to
Ms. Witzburg, she was not. That's why she doesn't know about that conversation. You do.

That's not the purpose of this second interview is to do a do-over of the first interview, so I'm objecting to these questions.

And I ask that Ms. Witzburg move on to questions that are related to yours pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement. She can ask follow-up questions of your questioning, not do a discovery deposition of something she may not have personal knowledge of because she was not present for the April interviews.

MR. NEUMER: I mean, I think the question
is reasonable and I would just ask the court
reporter to read it back to Mr. -- Detective
March.

(WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter.)

BY THE WITNESS:
A. Maybe you could repeat the -- ask me
what you want to know.

BY MS. WITZBURG:
Q. Who participated in that
conversation?
A. I do not recall all of the parties.
I know obviously myself was part of it. I believe Sergeant Gallagher was part of it, and
ultimately I know Deputy Chief David McNaughton, who was the on-call incident commander, the
highest-ranking department member on the scene
in charge of the entire scene, he ultimately weighed in on it.

Q. Okay. And do you know which person who had participated in that conversation gave the information to Officer Fontaine as to who to designate as victims in that report?

A. I don't recall how that information got communicated to her.

Q. Do you recall if it was you?

A. No, I don't recall.

Q. Okay. So it could have been but you're not sure?

MR. MCKAY: Objection, asked and answered.

I also ask the record reflect that this questioning, in my mind, is violating Subsection C of Section 6.2 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement which clearly mandates that if there is a second interviewer, that second interviewer will ask follow-up questions for clarification purposes only. She cannot or he cannot conduct questioning of a witness during a second interview after it had already been gone into during the first interview several months ago.
BY MS. WITZBURG:

Q. Detective March, you told us you first saw this report, I believe you said, sometime the following day, sometime on October 21st; is that right?

A. Sometime that morning.

Q. Okay. Generally speaking, when you're assigned to an investigation, when you review the Original Case Incident Report, if you discover something that you consider to be an error in that report, what steps would you take?

A. As I just -- I think I just went into that. When I go in to create my subsequent reports, if there's any information that's inaccurate, I correct it.

If there's additional information that the officer didn't have at the time that I now have, I add that and update the -- I update everything to the most accurate information that I have available to me.

Q. Understood. To ensure the accuracy of your subsequent reports, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Would you take any steps as far as correcting the original report itself or noting anywhere that that report contained an error?

A. No, for integrity of the report, once the report is approved by a sergeant, it cannot be changed. That is the original report. Any subsequent reports that need to -- have updated information, you create that information in the updated reports.

Like I said, in this case, I don't specifically remember that, but it makes sense -- I mean, it would most likely be that this obviously does appear, this entry about Van Dyke being injured by offender obviously does appear in the approved version of her report.

So, again, I don't specifically recall this, but it should have carried over and populated my report when I created my report in the computer, and then when I went through all the screens to make sure the information was accurate and update new information that I had, I -- again, that information is not in my report, so, again, I don't specifically recall taking this action, but I probably unchecked
that button so that my report was accurate as far as what the facts were as I knew them.

Q. Okay. And did you record anywhere your impression that the original report contained this inaccurate fact?

A. No, and there's no requirement that I do that.

Q. Thanks.

MR. McKay: I would object to that question because that's not alleged by the Office of Inspector General in the Notification of Allegations.

He is being asked about either reviewing and approving her report or assisting in the drafting. There is no allegation that he's under some duty to correct a report he did not prepare nor did he approve.

MR. Neumer: The time is 12:17 p.m. We're going to go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: Time is 12:20 p.m. We're back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, we have no further questions for you today; however, understanding the nature of our investigation, if there's any other information you think is -- we should know, now is your opportunity to provide that information on the record.

    MR. McKAY: Well, can I ask you a question, Peter? You made -- your office, I should say, made four allegations, three of which are somewhat specific, the fourth one is just an overall allegation based on the first three.

Are you going to specifically ask Detective March whether he admits or denies your allegations?

    MR. NEUMER: I mean, I think the -- I think his answers have specifically addressed each of the Notice of Allegations. If there's anything he would like to say regarding allegations one through four, the floor is yours.

    MR. McKay: All right. If I may?

EXAMINATION

BY MR. McKay:

Q. Detective March, drawing your attention to the Office of Inspector General's Exhibit 3, number one, on October 21st, 2014,
1 did you review and approve an Original Case
2 Incident Report, which includes an event number 3 of 1429315878 and an RD number of HX475653, even 4 though it falsely stated that Officer Jason
5 Van Dyke was "injured by offender"?
6 A. My response to the allegation is the 7 allegation is entirely false. I have no
8 authority to review and approve anyone's 9 Original Case Incident Report, and in this case, 10 I did not review and approve the Original Case
11 Incident Report.
12 Q. Directing your attention to 13 allegation number two of the Inspector General's 14 Exhibit 3.
15 On or about October 20th, 2014, or 16 October 21st, 2014, did you assist in the 17 drafting of the OCIR which falsely stated that 18 Officer Jason Van Dyke was "injured by 19 offender"?
20 A. No, I did not assist in the drafting 21 of that report, especially regarding the point 22 at which it states that Officer Van Dyke was,
23 "injured by offender."
24 Q. In fact, sir, in all of the reports that you did create, whether they were supplemental reports or GPRs of witness interviews, did you at any time indicate that Officer Jason Van Dyke was injured by Laquan
McDonald?
A. No, never.
Q. Regarding allegation number three of
Inspector General's Exhibit Number 3, did you,
on or about October 20th, 2014, make a false
statement to Investigator Earl Briggs of the Cook County Office of the Medical Examiner when,
with respect to the McDonald shooting, where Briggs wrote down, "McDonald lunged at the Chicago police officers assigned to Beat 845R
with a knife," what do you say about that allegation?
MR. NEUMER: Just for the record, Jim, can you note that you added some additional language
to the allegation number three in your recital
of it.
MR. McKAY: Well, I will only because you and your office stated Detective March stated to Briggs that McDonald lunged at Chicago police officers. It's Detective March's position he
BY MR. McKAY:

Q. So I would ask, Detective March, how do you respond to allegation number three of the Inspector General's Exhibit Number 3 as they have specifically alleged?

A. The allegation is entirely false. I never made a false statement to Investigator Briggs especially to the point where it's alleged here that I said that -- or that I stated that McDonald lunged at Chicago police officers assigned to Beat 845 Robert with a knife.

I might also add that has been well documented now in our review of that report, there is a vast array of information contained in that report that no way could have possibly come from me at the time that I made that notification from the scene.

So obviously that report is a summary of a lot of information that Investigator Briggs obtained from a number of different sources, and, as I already detailed in our discussion of that report, it is not a summary of information.
he obtained exclusively from me.

I also might add, again as to the credibility of his report being used for any allegations against me and his attention to detail to record facts, the most glaring of which he’s got the incident occurring on the wrong date, which does not appear to me to be a typographical error where he just got one number wrong; he got both numbers wrong on the date, the first and the second number. So it doesn't appear to be just a simple typo to me.

Again, so it goes to the credibility of that report being used as a -- regarding his attention to detail and that being used as a factual basis for any allegations against me.

I also might add that there was absolutely no motive for me to misrepresent Laquan McDonald's action during the confrontation with Jason Van Dyke because right from the beginning, I told Investigator Briggs this was a police officer-involved shooting where the offender had been shot and killed. And I told him that the subject, Laquan McDonald, had been struck multiple times by gunshot wounds.

So there is no way using the word "lunged" as opposed to any other word would have made a difference to the Medical Examiner's Office. It was very clear that night at the scene before the Medical Examiner's Office ever got the body that their ultimate finding was going to be that the cause and manner of death would be multiple gunshot wounds, homicide.

The only question left was whether or not Jason Van Dyke's use of deadly force was justified or not, and the Medical Examiner's Office does not weigh in on that. All they do is make the determination that the cause of death is multiple gunshot wounds, because there's more than one gunshot wound -- and the manner of death is homicide.

And in the terms that the Medical Examiner's Office uses, all that indicates was that this person was killed by another person, not by a car crash or anything else. Whether or not it was a crime or a justifiable homicide or an accident, the Medical Examiner's Office doesn't make that determination. That is determined through all of the subsequent investigation that was -- is conducted.

So the portrayal of Laquan McDonald's actions in a preliminary notification to the Office of the Medical Examiner would have had no -- absolutely no bearing on their findings in this matter.

And so, therefore, I think, again,
that's consistent with me, again, knowing about the importance of details of the elements of a crime and knowing in almost two years of talking about this case, in writing, in verbally, in front of different authorities, I never -- have never used the word, "lunge" or, "lunged" to characterize what Laquan McDonald did that night.

And I wouldn't have used it as quoting of any of my witnesses because none of the witnesses I spoke to ever used the word,
"lunge." And, again, as I already said, when I viewed the video, what I viewed I never characterized as a lunge.

So, again, I believe what's in Investigator Briggs' report in addition to his inaccuracies are his words, using his words, he summarized all of the information he gathered that night.

Q. In your preparation of your official reports in this case, did you ever use the words or the phrase that Laquan McDonald lunged at Chicago police officers?

A. No.

Q. Finally, regarding allegation number four in Exhibit Number 3 of the Office of Inspector General, which alleges that you were incompetent in the performance of your duties in the ways enumerated in allegations one through three, how do you respond?

A. I find it very, very -- I find allegation number four maybe the most offensive allegation that I am facing regarding this investigation, and here's why: My mother and father did a wonderful job raising five children, okay? They taught me the importance of being a conscientious student in school and a conscientious employee in the workforce, the importance to showing to work on time, giving your best effort to anything that you do, okay?
I, over 34 years of employment with the Chicago Police Department -- and no one in the Inspector General's Office probably has any idea, but within the organization of the Chicago Police Department, I have a reputation for being very complete, very thorough, very professional, and very competent, okay?

And I'm not using these words just because I have a Donald Trump ego, okay? People have told me that. Supervisors have told me that. Prosecutors in the State's Attorney's Office of Cook County have told me.

I've dealt with law enforcement agencies at the federal level, state level, county level, city level, other municipalities, and never once -- and you can check my disciplinary record -- has anyone ever made any kind of indication that my work is anything but complete, thorough, professional, and competent.

And I find this allegation, as I said, the most reprehensible and offensive of anything that I encountered so far during the course of this investigation. And I would just caution the Inspector General's Office, who likes to use these words very generously, to be careful in their terminology because the words they're using during the course of this investigation could very well come back and used to judge their competence and professionalism and thoroughness and completeness.

Q. In addition to that, Detective March, is there anything you wish to add to what you have already testified under oath to?

A. No.

MR. McKay: Thank you, Mr. Neumer.

MR. NEUMER: The time is 12:31, and this interview is concluded.

(WHEREUPON, the interview was concluded at 12:31 p.m.)

CITY OF CHICAGO
OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS

I, David March, understand that I am being interviewed by Peter Neumer and Deborah Witzburg from the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General.

DATE 7/25/16 TIME LOCATION 300 West Adams Street, Ste. 800, Chicago, IL

I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully.

I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand that if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the questions. I further understand and I have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I understand and have been advised that my statements or responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's Rules and Regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding.

I understand that I have the right to have a union representative, or legal counsel of my choosing, present at the interview to consult with, and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed.

I understand that a refusal to answer any question, or any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56, and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me, and I have been allowed to review this document.

City ordinance, and if applicable, collective bargaining agreements, provide that you are entitled to notice of the nature of the allegations against you and the identity of all complainants prior to any interview. Accordingly, you are advised as follows:

COMPLAINANT(S)

1. John J. Escalante, Interim Superintendent of Chicago Police Department, sent a letter to the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General (OIG) dated January 19, 2016, requesting that OIG conduct an administrative investigation of the following allegations arising out of the October 20, 2014 shooting death of Laquan McDonald (the McDonald Shooting): “whether any officer(s) made false statements on official reports submitted in connection with the shooting of Laquan McDonald on October 20, 2014; whether any officer(s) obstructed or interfered with the investigation of this incident, either individually or in collusion with others; or whether any officer(s) committed any violation of Chicago Police Department rules, policies, or orders in connection with their response and/or handling of this matter.”

Escalante attached to the letter a copy of Sergeant S. Boria’s (Star # 2275) Initiation Report, which raised similar allegations of misconduct with respect to Department members in connection with the McDonald Shooting, and identified that Report as a basis for OIG’s administrative investigation.

ALLEGATION(S)

1. On October 21, 2014, you reviewed and approved an Original Case Incident Report, which includes an Event Number of 1429315878 and an R.D. Number of 8X475653 (the OCIR), even though it falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was “Injured by offender.”

2. On or about October 20, 2014 or October 21, 2014, you assisted in the drafting of the OCIR, which falsely stated that Officers Jason Van Dyke was “Injured by offender.”

3. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a false statement to Investigator Earl Briggs of Cook County’s Office of the Medical Examiner when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you stated that McDonald lunged at Chicago Police Officers assigned to Beat 845R with a knife;

4. You were incompetent in the performance of your duties in the ways enumerated in allegations 1 through 3.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I hereby acknowledge receipt in writing of the identity of the complainant(s) and notice of the nature of the allegation(s) against me.

Narrative

On 20 October 2014 at 2351 hours Detective March # 20563 of the Chicago Police Department Area Central Detectives Beat # 5121 notified the Forensic Institute the subject Laquan McDonald had expired at Mt. Sinai Hospital after being shot by an on duty Chicago Police Officer.

Detective March related the following: on or about 2156 hours 19 October 2014 Chicago Police 8th District Beat Car 815R responded to 41st and Kildare in reference to a “Citizen Holding a Subject”. Upon arrival Beat # 815R was confronted by the subject who threatened the officers with a 4 inch fold knife. The subject fled the scene on foot where at 4112 S. Pulaski the subject was stopped by officers assigned to Beat # 845R. The officers announced their office as “Chicago Police Officers” and ordered the subject to drop the knife. The subject lunged at the officers with the knife. Fearing for their life and attempting to stop the threat one officer (star # 9465) fired sixteen rounds from his duty weapon a Smith & Wesson 9mm handgun striking the subject numerous times. After striking the subject an ambulance was requested by the officers.

Upon arrival of Chicago Fire Department Ambulance # 21 the subject was transported to Mt. Sinai Hospital. Once at Mt. Sinai Hospital emergency room staff were unable to revive the subject and the subject expired at 2242 hours being pronounced by Doctor Titeel. It appears that the subject sustained the following gunshot wounds, four to the chest, six to the right arm, five to the left arm, one to the rightside torso, two to the back, one to the right hip, two to the left leg front, two to the left leg rear, 2 to the left thigh and three to the right thigh. At this time since the officer fired sixteen times which of the twenty-six gunshot wounds are entrance or exit wounds.

At the time of this incident both officers assigned to Beat # 845R and 815R were in full Chicago Police Department uniform.

The subject was ordered along with all police reports, medical records which included admission blood which was drawn to the Forensic Institute for further examination.

Subject was positively identified by the Chicago Police ICLEAR system based on a prior Chicago Police Booking Number IR2106340. At the time of this report it is unknown why the citizen was “Holding the Subject” since the citizen left the scene and could not be interviewed.

Subject’s next of kin has not been notified.

OIG 15-0564 015036
MR. BROWN: As a preliminary matter I am providing the following information: An independent certified court reporter is present today to provide a verbatim transcript of this interview. To aid in the accuracy of the transcript, it is the custom and practice of court reporters to audio record the interview. The recording is the confidential work product of the court reporter and will not be provided to any party including the OIG. If you request, the audio recording will be discontinued.

Well Mr. Pasqua, what do you -- what's your decision on that?

THE WITNESS: I am fine with it.

MR. BROWN: Fine. It's really just an aid to them.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

MR. BROWN: There are other times when people are like, you know, I don't want anything recorded, or anything like that.

Let's see, I will get the official time.

Let the record reflect the time is 11:11. The date is June 23rd, 2016. We are 06/23/2016

located at Amicus Court Reporters, 300 West Adams Street, Suite 800. My name is Kristopher Brown. The court reporter is Howard Reisman.

I would ask the other individuals who are present to identify themselves and spell their last name for the record.

THE WITNESS: Investigator Jeff Pasqua. The last name is P-A-S-Q-U-A, the Cook County Sheriff's Police, Star No. 767.

MR. BROWN: There are no other individuals present. We are here today pursuant to an investigation being conducted under Chapter 2-56 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago.

We are here for the interview of Cook County Sheriff Officer Jeffrey Pasqua. Officer Pasqua, would you please raise your right hand and the court reporter will swear you in.

(Witness sworn.)
JEFFREY PASQUA, called as a witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Now, is it inaccurate to say Officer, or should I say Investigator Pasqua?

A. I earned it. Yes, you can call me Investigator or Jeff, whichever you feel more comfortable with.

Q. Okay. Yes, whatever, whatever's good with you. I mean, I just assumed it was Officer, but it was at the time, so. Got you.

You will get into all that and you can explain the changes.

You already gave us a little bit of the information, but can you give us your full name, your star number and your current unit assignments.

A. My full name is Jeffrey Pasqua. I'm an investigator with the Cook County Sheriff's Police, our Street Crimes Suppression Unit, my Star Number is 767.

Q. Now, what was your unit assignment on October 20th, 2014

A. I was a member of the Bridgeview Patrol Unit out of Cook County Sheriff's Police.

Q. And were you on a particular watch as of October 20, 2014?

A. Yes. I was on our -- I was on our first watch, which at that time starts from 9:00 p.m. and goes till 7:00 a.m.

Q. What was your chain of command on October 20th, 2014?

A. I reported to Sergeant Michael Dwyer.

Q. And at some point you transitioned from officer to investigator. Can you tell us when that occurred?

A. That was the beginning of this year, of 2016, yes.

Q. Jeff, did you review any documentation in preparation for this interview?

A. No, I have not.

Q. Okay. All right. Jeff, we want you to walk us through the events that occurred on the night of October 20, 2014. We'll try to ask questions as you go along, but kind of give us the story and we'll start there.
A. Okay. Would you rather me start when -- regarding the incident, when I got involved, or how I got involved, or do you want me to start when I started my shift, that I was having a sandwich? I mean, how to you want to do this?

MS. ANSARI: Only when you got involved.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. What you got from dispatch or something, or maybe just saw it and you could tell us.

A. Yes, I will go into it.

I was down on a traffic stop on 51st and Cicero when one of my partners, Officer Adam Murphy, he was following three Chicago police officers at my traffic stop when I was finishing up. I had just about to step into my vehicle, he stopped, he told me there was a police-involved shooting. I then jumped in my vehicle and I activated my emergency lights, and I also went to -- went to the call, so I pursued -- I basically followed Adam Murphy.
Q. Got you. Do you know how Murphy knew that there was a shooting?
A. I think he spoke to one of the CPD officers, but I can't be certain. I'm speculating on that.

Q. Do you guys share like a frequency between Cook County and the CPD?
A. No, we don't.

Q. No. Okay. But it's common just -- I mean, officers out there, you just -- you communicate with each other?
A. Yes, that's correct.

Q. Okay.

MS. ANSARI: You don't have a partner in your vehicle?

THE WITNESS: No. Cook County Sheriff's police officers as patrol units, we are just a single person car.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. So you're handling your traffic stop, and that's when you got the word from Officer Murphy, and then you go in support?
A. Yes.
Q. Did Officer Murphy mention which officer told him about the shooting or did he give any details like that?

A. No, there wasn't. I mean, it was kind of a fast-paced situation. I'm finishing up my traffic stop, I'm walking back to the vehicle, and as I'm getting in my vehicle it's a quick, quick change of events, the officer-involved shooting, so as a police officer you -- you know, when you hear that, any shooting, you want to make sure -- you go towards the danger. We don't walk away from the danger, so.

Q. He notified you on your radio?

A. No, he physically pulled up right next to me because they were all going. There were three CPD units that flew right by me with running their code lights and sirens, and then Officer Murphy stopped, told me the situation, and then I also jumped in --

Q. Got you.

A. -- and went to the situation.

Q. Okay. Do you have an estimated time?

This is somewhere after nine o'clock before ten o'clock?
A. I think it would be a fair assessment because I remember it being the beginning of our shift, but it's been almost two years at this point so I couldn't be exact.

Q. All right. Tell us what happened next.

A. We went to -- we went to the location where shots were fired. Upon arriving there, there was, I want to say, approximately five to six Chicago units that were already down. When I pulled up I observed the scene, so I tried to position my car to block any traffic coming from southbound going northbound, so I would say I was probably maybe about half a block down from the scene.

Upon exiting my vehicle to walk to the scene, one of the Chicago tactical officers, who happens to be my old college roommate, exited his vehicle. He called out to me, and obviously we know each other, so he said, "Jeff," I said, "Dan," and we walked up to the scene together, and as we were walking, we could see an individual who was shot, Laquan McDonald, kind of gasping for his last breath of air.

I spoke to my friend, Tactical Officer
Dan Goetz, and I asked him like -- I say -- you know, he knows I was just new on there. I asked him, "Is he dead?" And he says, "I don't think so," and then Laquan gasped for like final two breaths and he made like a gurgling sound, and his color, it was very gray, discolored. It looked like a lot of loss of blood, and it appeared to me that he had taken his final breath.

Q. Okay.

THE COURT REPORTER: Goetz, is it G-O-E-T-Z.

THE WITNESS: G-O-E-T-Z.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. His first name is Daniel?

A. Daniel, yes.

Q. So, you arrive on the scene and you position yourself to block traffic?

A. Yes.

Q. Were you close to the intersection of 41st and Pulaski or do you recall whereabouts you were parked?

A. I was -- I was south of the scene.

Q. South. Okay.

A. So wherever -- wherever that -- wherever he was laying there, I was south of that.

Q.  Okay.

A.  So when I pulled up, I kind of did a little bit of a u-turn and went back the other way, parked my vehicle, exited my vehicle, and then I started coming, coming towards the scene, so I was walking northbound on Pulaski.

Q.  Got you.

MS. ANSARI:  You didn't see any part of the shooting.

THE WITNESS:  No.

MS. ANSARI:  McDonald was already down when you got there.

THE WITNESS:  Yeah, I didn't see anything like that, so upon walking up to the scene, I saw some shell casings. I saw a knife. That was my observations. I really couldn't tell what had just happened, so I didn't speculate or anything like that. I just kind of observed what I could and try and piece together whatever I could, but I didn't have any information. I don't have a radio band, so I don't really know who was involved in what shooting, so.
BY MR. BROWN:

Q. On your way driving to the scene, were you able to hear any of the shots?

A. No.

Q. As far as you know, all that had already occurred?

A. Yeah. Like I said, when Adam Murphy tells me an officer was involved in a shooting, it -- I would have to guess that it had already occurred and we were being more reactive than going to something that was actually in the process of it happening, so.

Q. Got you.

A. And with lights, sirens going, you are not going to be able to hear it.

Q. And you would estimate that you were maybe a block further south of the scene, or would it be more than that?

A. I'd say about a half a block, maybe a block, you know. Just trying to -- you know, when you are -- it's not your -- see, you know, it's not your department and it's not your area, you try and find out how you can help without interfering, so I was just trying to do what I thought was best, which is kind of block traffic off with my vehicle, so I parked it perpendicular obviously with -- or vertical compared to down.
As I said, I blocked the two lanes with my vehicle, so.

Q. I want to kind of just ask generally.
How does that work, like that synergy I guess between Cook County Sheriff's Office and CPD like?
Do you just help each other whenever a situation occurs? Is there anything like a directive that mandates you do anything? Like how does that play out?

A. We do like -- we'll -- the way we normally do things is like if we are assisting another agency, we'll use a code for it. We'll call it like a 4-John, which would just be assist other agency, you know. No service was rendered or service rendered, whatever.

Depending on the situation, if it requires a paper job, we would call a 4-Sam. The S would be for a Sam job, so the letters determine what exactly -- what type of action we actually took.

Q. So a paper job would mean you have to author some kind of report?

A. Correct.

Q. A 4-John is just more just I guess other types of support without paperwork, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And what is this -- the October 20th situation, that was a 4-John?

A. Yeah, we coded it off as a 4-John.

Q. Got you.

A. I believe. I know we didn't do a paper job, but I think we coded off as 4-John. It was an assist to another agency because after -- you know, after a few moments, about being there for ten minutes or so, you know, I told Officer Murphy I think we should probably go because there were so many police officers that arrived on scene, that it did not appear that our help was going to be needed, and I don't remember the supervisor that I spoke with.

I asked him, you know, "I have tape. Do you need me to do anything? Do you need me to help you out with anything?" And he said, "No, we are all good here," so that's when I decided that me and Officer Murphy should probably leave the scene at that point.

Q. Got you. You don't recall who told you that we are all good here?

A. No. I don't remember. Like I said, the only reason I remember the one officer, the tactical officer, is because it's my college roommate, so other than that, you know, obviously with all the news and everything like that, I remember, you know, looking at Van Horn. He looked very distraught when he --

Q. You mean Van Dyke?

A. Van Dyke, yes. Sorry. Van Dyke, he looked very distraught. He was sitting in a squad car. He looked very like out of breath, very distressed. Colors like you mean -- he is a fair-skinned gentleman, but he looked really, really pale at the time even more, so it's just -- you know, I think like a sense of shock was kind of coming over him as well. So someone got him a bottle of water, you know, to try and just calm him down a little bit, so.

Q. Did you talk to him at all, being Van Dyke?
A. I just -- I just said words of encouragement, I said, you know, "Don't worry, everything will be okay." I mean, he really didn't really acknowledge me. I meet a lot of people, you know, just trying to make him feel better at least a little bit because it's a -- you know, it's a tragic situation that just occurred.

Q. Someone had told you that this was the officer that was involved in the shooting?

A. No one told me, no, but I mean, you can -- you can kind of -- like I mean, when you're looking around and you see officers are trying to do things, and then you see one guy that's just kind of, you know, in complete shock and everything like that, you kind of figure it out, but I didn't really figure out that until I was like who shot -- like where's -- where's the gun who shot? I thought it was a drive by to be honest with you.

I really didn't understand what the whole totality of the situation was at the time, so -- and then they said no, that was -- I don't remember. Like "he is over there," you know. Wow.
So at the time, I was a new officer.

It's the first time I've ever seen anyone shot, so for me it was somewhat of a traumatic experience as well seeing someone shot like that, so.

Q. You mentioned you were a new officer. When did you start on with Cook County?

A. 2013 of July. I transferred from the jail to the Cook County Sheriff's Police.

Q. And how long did you work in the jail?

A. Three years.

Q. Okay.

EXAMINATION

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So what you are saying is you don't recall any -- besides Jason Van Dyke, because on the news, there was no one at the time or now that you can identify by name, though, correct?

A. Just --

Q. Besides your college roommate?

A. Yes, besides my college roommate and Adam Murphy.

Q. Okay.

A. Any of the other police officers that were on scene I don't -- I'm not aware of, so...
Q. Okay. Which is understandable. We are just curious, so.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. So you get to the scene, you position your car to block traffic, you get out and you see Officer Goetz and then you start walking towards McDonald?

A. Yes.

Q. And you said you kind of observed what you believe to be his last -- his last moments?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. I know you mentioned him gurgling. Did you hear him say any words, anything that you could make out?

A. No. I mean, I'll never forget like those last gasps that he took. I never seen anything like it before, so, you know, the sounds were just pretty, pretty traumatic, so.

Q. Wow. Were you close to him, like did you get close enough to, I don't know, touch him on the shoulder or anything like that?

A. No, I wasn't that close. My partner -- well, Adam Murphy had actually -- he had put some -- the rubber gloves on. It was like going -- he was going to attempt -- he actually got down on his knees and said, "Don't -- you know, don't worry, buddy, you know, help's on the way," but I didn't -- I would say I was maybe about ten feet away, so -- from him approximately.

I'm sorry.

MS. ANSARI: Did any other officers approach McDonald like -- you know, your colleague Adam Murphy went up and said, you know, tried to comfort him, and did any -- did you see any other CPD officers trying to do some -- or approach him?

THE WITNESS: There were two other officers I believe that were right next to Murphy, but -- but they didn't put on any rubber gloves or anything like that. I would be -- I would be guessing if I said one of them said anything like that, that the fire department is on the way or anything like that. I don't recall, so.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. And you mentioned the codes like the 4-John.

A. Yes.

Q. Did you have to notify or radio dispatch to tell them like, yeah, I'm going to stop here, I'm going to offer assistance to CPD on the matter or --

A. Yeah. They actually -- they knew we were going to that scene and then we advised them, you know, the situation.

Murphy said there's a whole bunch of CPD units going towards an officer-involved shooting, we are en route, and then you can hear me on the radio transcript as well. You can -- you'll hear me chime in and say, you know, I'm en route as well, so I think -- I think my call sign that night was I think 5150 maybe, and I'm not sure if Adam's was 5141.

I know the transcripts, they were -- like when this first came out and everything like that, the transcripts were all over the internet and everything, so you were able to -- able to hear our transcripts.

Q. I've got a good idea, but I just want you to explain call sign just so I make sure it's -- I'm clear about that?

A. Okay. So we were out of Bridgeview.

That's the 5th District. All right. So that's where the five comes in. The one is because we are the first watch, so we are 51, and the beat was 41, that would be like our central Stickney area. That's where Adam Murphy was working, I believe that night.

Now, I was 5150, which was I was a cover car, so which means I just kind of stay within the central Stickney area. I kind of -- in case Adam goes down on a call or something of that nature and there's another call that comes in, I would go ahead and take that call, so, but, otherwise, I would be kind of like a floating car where, you know, I kind of move throughout the county within the 5th District, so.

Q. You are there to assist whenever it is needed in that district?

A. Yes, that's correct, yes.

Q. Got you. Okay. So you informed dispatch like we are going to head over to provide assistance of this matter. When you get done with the scene, do you have to tell dispatch like okay, now I'm done with that and now I'm going to return back to the district?

A. Yes, yes, that's -- we advise them on the radio that we are -- our 10 code is 10-8 back in -- back in service, so we are leaving that scene and we are going back to our district, so.

Q. Okay. If you had to estimate, how long were you on the scene there?

A. I would say approximately 10 to 15 minutes, but I can't be 100 percent sure. It wasn't an extensive time because, like I said, when there are so many officers that arrive on scene, you know, you kind of get a gist that you're -- that they have their scene handled and everything, so that's kind of what I observed and, like I said, I spoke to one of the supervisors and he said, "No, we are good here."

So, you know, it was just kind of one of those things where I told Adam, "I think it's time for us to leave," because, you know, the sergeant, he advised us that he doesn't need our help, so we are not going to do anything but probably get in the way of whatever their investigation is.
MS. ANSARI: There was a uniformed sergeant that told you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. Were any detectives on scene at that point before you left?

THE WITNESS: I don't recall. There was -- like I said, it was a sea of -- sea of Chicago officers that just arrived, so.

   MS. ANSARI: Okay.

BY MR. BROWN:

   Q. And you mentioned your college roommate, Officer Goetz. Did you speak with him at all regarding what happened there?

   A. At the time?

   Q. Yes?

   A. Just -- he told me that -- I'm trying to think -- on his radio band said that there was an individual that was attacking their police vehicle or something like that. It was just kind of like -- just like short talk real quick because obviously he's been -- he's got a job to do, so I said, "All right, look, be safe," you know, "I'll see you later."

   Q. Okay.
A. Then that's when I left the scene, so.

Q. Got you. You didn't have any other conversation with Officer Goetz other than that?

A. No. I mean, just -- you know, when we see -- obviously we hang out, you know. We just said -- you know, when we talk we just say, "That was messed up," you know, like seeing that. He said, "Unfortunately, he is a tactical officer in the 8th District." He's like, "I have seen this stuff before," so at the time I hadn't seen it, so it was my first time, he's like, "Yeah, it's rough," so.

Q. I can imagine.

A. So it's just not something that we really wanted to talk about, so.

MS. ANSARI: When you say, really was messed up, like kind of it was messed up that someone got shot or -- I guess, what do you mean? Can you explain?

THE WITNESS: Watching a person die by gunshot wounds. It's pretty -- like I said, it's traumatic, so regardless of the situation, whatever it may be, just -- you know, it's unfortunate that, you know, those... things happen.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. Yes.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Other than speaking with Officer Goetz and the sergeant who kind of told you that they were -- that things were good there, do you recall speaking with any other CPD officers on the scene?

A. No.

Q. No. Okay. At your time at the scene, do you recall any conversations the other officers might have had?

A. No.

Q. Okay. I know you mentioned you had a brief interaction with Van Dyke. Do you recall any other brief interactions with anybody else, any other officers on the scene?

A. No.

Q. And you were in your marked Sheriff's office vehicle?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. I know you mentioned Murphy was in his own separate vehicle.

A. Yes.

Q. Would it be accurate to say he is -- it probably wouldn't be accurate to say. He's like a partner even though he is in his -- you know, you are the same district, but he is in his different vehicle? What would you really call him, like just another support vehicle, or what would be a good term?
    A. He's -- he is a beat car, so the way we describe it is, so the next beat over is typically his partner, but me being a cover car, I'm kind of everyone's partner.

    Q. Got you?
    A. So, you know, there's no real specific, you know, how it works. I mean, I would be in the district or I would be in his beat, so yeah, I would be there to support him for whatever, whatever -- whatever calls he may receive or anytime he goes out on any initiated calls or anything.

    Q. You mentioned, at a certain point you spoke with Officer Murphy and said, like it's good to go here and they've got it under control. Do you recall any other further conversation with Officer Murphy while you were at the scene?
    A. Well, we went back to 47th. There was a McDonald's on 47th and Cicero, and we kind of -- just kind of debriefed each other on, you know, the situation, the scenario.

He was my FTO. He's the one that trained me.

Q. Okay.
A. So, you know, we were trying -- we try and learn from every situation, so we discussed it and we really didn't understand like what the situation that transpired, so we tried speculating so, well, you know, with the little information that we did have, like I don't know how they are going to handle that situation because we really didn't know what the situation at the time, what it was.

So I mean, all we -- the little bit of information that we got was that there was an individual with a knife, so that was -- that attacked the vehicle, and somewhere in there -- that was like the limited information we had.

So we were trying to speculate what we would do in that situation, you know, if we were being attacked by someone with a knife, what would we do. I said that I think it's a good shoot all day, I'm like, if you are being attacked, but obviously we don't -- we don't get to see any video footage, you know, and we can Monday morning quarterback things as much as we want, but until you are in that situation, you can only just talk about what you would have, should have, could have done.

Q. You mentioned video footage. Did you see any video footage while you were on the scene for those 10 to 15 minutes?

A. No.

Q. Okay.

MS. ANSARI: Did you see anyone else watching video footage?

THE WITNESS: No.

MS. ANSARI: There was no indication that there was a video at the time while you were there?

THE WITNESS: The first time I've seen the video was when it came out to the public.
That was the first time because when I had my federal grand jury, I spoke with the FBI, he had led on saying, "You know, there's some videos," and I haven't seen any video. He said, "You'll see it soon enough, you know, it will be out there," so.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. So you are debriefing it at the McDonald's on 47th. Did Officer Murphy say anything about, like McDonald said this to me, or I heard McDonald mention this in his last moments, or anything like that?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Did Officer Murphy mention any conversation he had with anybody on the scene or with any of the other CPD officers?

A. None that I recall.

MS. ANSARI: Was there any conversation among you and Murphy or on the scene with Goetz about whether the shooting was justified?

THE WITNESS: No.

MS. ANSARI: No. Okay. Because you said earlier that you and Officer Murphy, when you guys were discussing just -- you didn't know all the facts, so there wasn't really a conclusion to make about what had happened.
THE WITNESS: Like I said, we can speculate and we can Monday morning quarterback, but we weren't on the scene, so.

MS. ANSARI: Got it.

THE WITNESS: How can you -- how can you come to a conclusion of something when you are not a part of it?

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. That's just part of that we just want to ask, if you heard anything while you were there, like anybody say like oh, this is -- this was a good shoot, or I think this was justified, or, you know, anything like that?

A. I mean, if they said it, I don't recall it, you know, but, you know, it's over two years old.

Q. Other than Officer Goetz and Van Dyke, did you recognize anybody else on the scene?

A. I didn't recognize Van Dyke because I didn't know who he was until after the fact, so, but other than that, no. Just Murphy, myself and Officer Goetz.

Q. Got you. So you get done, you debrief with Officer Murphy at the McDonald's. What do you do after that?

A. Do our job.

Q. Resume patrol?

A. To our beats, yeah.

Q. Okay.

A. To our jobs. We go back to working our beats.

Q. So you resume patrol. Did you have to author any reports about your observations from that night?

A. No.

Q. No. Other than doing the notification to dispatch, did you have to do anything else?

A. No.

Q. Okay.

MS. ANSARI: On the scene -- I mean I -- did you hear anything on the scene that -- of people like expressing concern about the shooting, like it might have been a mistake or anything like that.

THE WITNESS: No.

MS. ANSARI: No. Okay.
BY MR. BROWN:          IN RE JEFFREY PASQUA

Q. When you are doing a support to like a CPD, you know, like a 4-John, is it the typical situation that you are not going to have to do any paper on that, or is it atypical that you have to do paper?

A. No. Up until this situation, our police department, we've never really done any paper jobs on an assist.

Q. Got you.

A. But this situation, that led to us changing our policy now to where we actually -- if we assist another agency and it's something of this magnitude, then we will -- we will do a paper job on it.

Q. Would that be like a to-from memo or --
A. No, it will be -- it will be one of our incident reports, so it will be just similar to any other case that we may work. It will be on an OI, as we call it, an Offense Incident Report.

Q. You said Offense Incident Report?

A. Yeah.

Q. Got you.

MS. ANSARI: Why do they feel like the change needed to be made after this incident?

THE WITNESS: Well, I think that -- I don't think that the Sheriff -- I'm not sure or not whether he had full information that we were on the scene, so I think maybe our administration was aware of it, but I don't know if the chain of command, how far it goes.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

THE WITNESS: So when it's something of this magnitude, obviously they would like to know, you know, exactly what -- how we participated in this event. Therefore, this way, you know, the media is not the one informing our department or whatever, whatever it may be.

MS. ANSARI: Got it.

THE WITNESS: So I mean, I understand the change.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. When you got back to the -- or I guess finished your tour for that night, did you have to, I guess, notify your sergeant as to what happened that night?
A. I don't -- I don't recall. I mean, I don't -- I know we didn't speak to him about it, so I really don't recall, you know, because he is actually my sergeant now, too, and I don't -- I don't remember talking to him about it, so I think maybe, as you said, CPD was involved in a shooting, I think that's pretty much the gist of it, but fortunately, the day that we live in, it seems like there's a shooting, multiple shootings every day, so the severity of it has kind of lost its -- I guess its lackluster where people are just like, oh my God. Now they are -- like I understand, so I think it was one of those situations, you know.

Q. All right. And it sounds like your involvement wasn't significant, like you didn't have to do a whole lot there, so it probably didn't rise to the level where you had to brief your sergeant, hey, I did A, B, C on the scene. It was more like I provided support on the scene?

A. Exactly, yeah, so, you know, if we had more involvement, I could understand during -- doing a paper job on it, doing the paperwork or anything like that, but I didn't -- I didn't really know how I was going to articulate it where it had any significance saying like I came there, you know, attempted to provide support to Chicago.
I was told that I wasn't needed, I left, so the details of this, of what we are speaking of right now, these are the details that obviously matter.

Q. Sure. And you kind of -- you touched on maybe superiors of way above us didn't exactly know what happened.

We became aware of an article in December, 2015. I'm sure you are also aware of that article.

Can you kind of tell us what happened after that article, or if anything did happen, after that article in your --

A. I don't know. Which article?

Q. Okay. It was a --

A. Was my name in it?

Q. It was a --

A. Most of the articles said Adam Murphy and another police officer, so I guess I was the fortunate one not to have my name drawn throughout the media.

MS. ANSARI: This one had your name.
MR. BROWN: Yes, this one. We'll make this an exhibit. Show Jeff this.

December 10th, 2015, CBS Chicago article printed off online titled, "Sheriff's Officers Try to Comfort Laquan McDonald as Teen Lay Dying, Officials."

(Pasqua Exhibit No. 1 was marked for identification.)

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Take a minute and take a look at that.

MS. ANSARI: It's accompanied with a video store. I think your deputy chief was interviewed.

THE WITNESS: Oh, okay. Was this Chief Wright, Dana Wright?

MS. ANSARI: Yes, yes.

THE WITNESS: Okay. Yeah, I think I remember reading this.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. And my only question after reading the article is, there was a statement that Dart issued kind of summarizing your activity and Officer Murphy's activity. I'm just wondering, did you have any involvement in that statement, the press release that was issued by Sheriff Dart?

    A. No. The Sheriff doesn't talk to his officers. He talks to his administration.

    Q. That's why I was just curious. I thought they might have, you know, up the chain, maybe a sergeant or maybe somebody above that might have been like hey, officers, tell me -- give me a quick rundown of what happened that night so I can, you know, brief people above me.

    A. Right. And, like I said, normally how our previous policy was, we weren't -- we weren't required to really do a paper, paper job on it or anything of that nature.

    We did meet with Dana Wright, Chief Wright. We met with her prior to her speaking with the media on that, though, so me and Adam were brought to her office and basically what's transpiring here is exactly what transpired with her as well, so that she had an understanding of what our involvement was in that incident.

    Q. Okay. So you relayed all the details to Chief Wright and then the assumption is that that narrative was used to craft the press statement that then went out?
A. Yes, that's correct.

Q. I know you've already said you didn't have to author anything like any memos after this point?

A. No.

Q. It was just a verbal --

A. No, I don't recall. I am not sure if I had to, no, because I turned in my subpoena and everything for the FBI and everything like that, so I don't recall writing any to-from memo or memorandums, or anything of that nature.

Q. You mentioned the subpoena from the FBI. That occurred prior to the press statement coming out?

A. Yes, that's correct. I went to the federal grand jury in August of 2015.

Q. Do you recall where you gave your statement or if you gave a statement?

A. I mean, I have testified in federal grand jury.

Q. Okay.

A. So that was at the -- was it the Leighton Building or not?

MS. ANSARI: Like Dearborn, federal?
BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Okay. Can you kind of detail us how that event worked, you know, what you were asked?

A. I'm not really allowed to discuss that.

Q. Okay. Is there -- I'll try to do it a different way. Were you asked questions about the events of what occurred on October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes.

Q. Was the information you disclosed to the grand jury significantly different than what you have told us today?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Were you shown any documents or videos at the grand jury?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Do you recall about how long you gave testimony at the grand jury?

A. I think it was approximately 30, 40 minutes maybe.

Q. Okay. All right.

MS. ANSARI: Before you went into the -- when was the first time you were contacted by the FBI or State's Attorney?
THE WITNESS: I believe -- I want to say it was July.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

THE WITNESS: So.

MS. ANSARI: And did you meet with them in anticipation -- before your grand jury statement.

THE WITNESS: No, they came to my home.

MS. ANSARI: Oh, they came to your home? Okay.

THE WITNESS: To serve me my subpoena, which I happily invited him in and I was down on duty injury at the time, so I wasn't working, so it was nice to actually see someone in law enforcement.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. So you guys had a conversation. Did you talk about what you saw that night?

THE WITNESS: He had some questions, asking me if I observed a -- observed a vehicle that was in -- I believe it was in the Dunkin' Donuts.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

THE WITNESS: I told him no.
recall any vehicle, whatever information, so

I guess they were looking into some -- something on that, maybe for potential witnesses of the events or anything of that nature.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

THE WITNESS: I couldn't assist in that matter.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. So he served you the subpoena, you said July, right? July.

About July?

THE WITNESS: Yeah, it was in July.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

THE WITNESS: I am not 100 percent sure, though.

MS. ANSARI: And there were no other conversations in between that and the one

you --

THE WITNESS: No.

MS. ANSARI: -- with any federal authorities until you went to the grand jury.

THE WITNESS: No.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

///
BY MR. BROWN:

Q. You mentioned the FBI agent asked about witnesses. I just want to ask, on your time at the scene on October 20th, 2014, did you speak to any witnesses or any -- thought to be a witness of the incident?

A. No. I mean we -- you know, I observed the kind of -- what the situation was, tried to assist in any way that I could, and from that point on, I just, you know, spoke to Dan and I spoke to Adam, and that was it. That was it.

Q. Got you.

MS. ANSARI: Did you see civilian witnesses around?

THE WITNESS: No.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. Do you know how the news, the media, got a hold of your guys' names?

THE WITNESS: I don't.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. Just --

THE WITNESS: That's actually a good question. I don't know. I know how they -- how the FBI found us was from a video surveillance. They saw Murphy's vehicle and then they contacted someone in our department, and then all of a sudden the FBI was calling me on my phone.

    MS. ANSARI: Okay. Yes, I think your -- the Cook County video -- your car is on -- or his car is on one of the videos.

    MR. BROWN: It wouldn't be a Chicago --
    THE WITNESS: I think it was -- I think it was the Dunkin Donuts camera. I think that's where they -- I think they told me they spotted Murphy's car.
    MS. ANSARI: Okay.

    BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Yes, you can see the vehicle in that video, and then one of the Beat 845 cars for CPD, you can see two -- I believe it's yourself and Officer Murphy. You can see both you guys coming into view, kind of laying the video, but it's really blurry. It's hard to tell, you know, who's who, but it --

A. If I'm allowed to say, it's either us or the state.

    MS. ANSARI: Yes, you can tell --
    ///
BY MR. BROWN:

Q. It was like that. CPD's are blue, you guys are brown, so I was like banking this, banking that is probably them.

Well, knowing we are investigating, do you feel that there's anything that we didn't ask you, something that, you know, you would like to add, we just didn't elicit from you?

A. I -- like I say, I wish I could provide more information. I wish I had more of a role in this, so then I could help a little bit better with whatever investigation you guys are looking into, but unfortunately, I was a -- you know, I was a very small piece of this puzzle here, so I really didn't have much influence on what was going to.

MS. ANSARI: This is very helpful and we appreciate, you know, every -- we've got to gather all the information and everything. It's helpful.

MR. BROWN: All right. Well, that's all we have. We'll say the time is now 11:50 and this interview is concluded.

(Witness excused.)

Sheriff’s Officer Tried To Comfort Laquan McDonald As Teen Lay Dying: Officials

December 10, 2015 6:51 PM

 Filed Under: Dorothy Tucker, Laquan McDonald, Steve Miller, VIDEO
(CBS) – Top officials in the Cook County Sheriff’s office say they learned just this week that two of their officers were on the scene last year when a Chicago Police officer shot and killed 17-year-old Laquan McDonald.

Sheriff Tom Dart’s Chief of Policy, Cara Smith, says Officer Adam Murphy arrived 20 to 30 seconds after Laquan McDonald had been shot, in October 2014, and another sheriff’s officer arrived seconds after that.

“The Chicago police (were) clear that they had the situation under control. Our officer, Adam Murphy, did kneel down next to Laquan and urged him to hang in there, that there was an ambulance coming, and believed he died with our officer by his side,” Smith tells WBBM’s Steve Miller.
"And then our officers cleared the scene and resumed their normal patrol."

Smith says neither officer made a report but says it was not required. The officers did notify dispatch, she says.

Sheriff's Police Came Upon McDonald Shooting

Smith says neither she nor Sheriff Dart was aware deputies had been at the scene until Wednesday evening, when the Chicago Tribune asked.

The FBI contacted the sheriff's officers this past summer. Smith says the officers are cooperating with the investigation.

McDonald is the African American teen whose videotaped death at the hands of a white Chicago police officer has sparked outrage. Dash-cam video released last month has resulted in murder charges against the officer, who fired 16 rounds into the teen.

The video does not support Chicago officers' claims that McDonald, who was carrying a knife, acted aggressively before he was fatally shot.

Dart issued a statement Thursday that, similar to Smith's remarks, tried to sort out the sheriff's department's limited involvement in the case.

The complete statement:

On the evening of October 20th, 2014, two Cook County Sheriff's Police Officers on routine patrol arrived on the scene shortly after the shooting of Laquan McDonald. The officers, Adam Murphy and Jeff Pasqua, offered to assist the Chicago Police Department with traffic control or in securing the scene and were told their assistance was not needed. While at the scene, Officer Murphy was advised an ambulance was en route to provide medical assistance to Mr. McDonald. Officer Murphy subsequently waited 20 minutes after an ambulance was notified to dispatch. In July, 2015, Officer Murphy have cooperated

MR. BROWN: Let the record reflect today's date is June 24, 2016. The time is 11:09 a.m. We are located at Amicus Court Reporters, 300 West Adams, suite 800, Chicago, Illinois.

My name is Kristopher Brown. The court reporter is Nick DiGiovanni, and I'd ask the other individuals who are present to identify themselves and spell their last name for the record.

MS. ANSARI: Sarah Ansari, A-n-s-a-r-i, the Office of the Inspector General?

THE WITNESS: Investigator Murphy, M-u-r-p-h-y, Cook County Sheriff's Police.

MR. BROWN: There are no other individuals present.

We are here today pursuant to an investigation being conducted under Chapter 2-56 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago. We're here for the interview of Cook County Sheriff Investigator Adam Murphy.

Investigator Murphy, would you please raise your right hand, and the court reporter will then swear you in.

(Witness sworn.)
MR. BROWN: Q Investigator Murphy, is it okay to call you Adam?

THE WITNESS: Yeah, absolutely.

MR. BROWN: Thank you, Adam.

We'll start off with background type questions, and then we'll get in to the actual night.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

MR. BROWN: All right.

ADAM M. MURPHY, called as a witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was examined upon oral interrogatories, and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

by Mr. Brown:

Q Adam, can you give us your full name, your star number and your current unit of assignment?

A Adam Murphy, A-d-a-m, M-u-r-p-h-y; star 566; Cook County Sheriff's Police Department assigned to the central intelligence division.

Q How long have you maintained that INTERVIEW OF ADAM M. MURPHY

06/24/2016

1 assignment?

2 A That’s only been for three months.

3 Q What did you do prior to this assignment?

4 A Prior to that I was with the street crime suppression unit.

5 Q How long were you doing that assignment?

6 A Two years.

7 Q Okay. Two years.

8 When you were with the street crime suppression unit were you still an investigator or were you an officer then?

9 A Investigator.

10 Q What did you do prior to the street crime suppression unit?

11 A I was on patrol.

12 Q Were you an officer then?

13 A Yes, officer.

14 Q Got you.

15 How long were you an officer?

16 A At that time, five years.

17 Q Five years?

18 A Yes.
So about 2009?

2008 is when I started, yeah.

Got you.

When did you start with Cook County?

In 2006. I started as a correctional officer at 26 and Cal.

Then you went from officer and then to investigator?

Yes, correct.

All right. What was your unit of assignment on October 20, 2014?

I was a patrol officer.

What watch were you on that day?

The third watch they call it -- or actually -- I'm sorry.

They call it the first watch -- the overnight midnight shift.

Did that shift start at 9:00 p.m.?

Yes.

Do you recall what your chain of command was back on October 20, 2014?

Yes.

Just who was your immediate supervisor?
That night it was Sergeant Dwyer.

Sergeant Dwyer?

Yes.

Adam, did you review any documentation in preparation for your interview today?

I did not.

Now we're going to talk about the events of October 20, 2014, and we'd like you to detail us on what happened that night starting off with when you first became aware of an incident occurring, how were you informed of it, and then your steps to get to the scene; and Sarah and I will follow up with questions as you kind of go through the details.

Okay. I'm not really sure what time it was. I believe at the intersection of Cicero Avenue and Archer I saw several Chicago police units running code or going with their lights and sirens. I decided I'd follow them to see where they were going.

I think we wound up -- we went down to 147th I believe -- not 147th. Just 47th. I believe we went eastbound and we zig-zagged a couple streets and came out in the Pershing area.
Once we arrived there were several cars parked. I pulled behind on the right-hand shoulder of northbound Pershing I think it was -- Pershing goes the other way.

MS. ANSARI: Pulaski?

THE WITNESS: A Northbound Pulaski. I pulled behind another squad car. I got out of the car, and I just walked up to the scene to see what happened.

MR. BROWN: Q Okay. Do you recall any of the landmarks that were there that night that you might have parked near?

A No.

I know that when we talked to the FBI we were parked in front -- or just south of the Dunkin Donuts.

Q South of the Dunkin Donuts is where you parked?

A Yeah, right in that vicinity there.

Q You see the officers with their lights and sirens. You decide to follow them?

A Correct.

Q Is that just like an inter-governmental courtesy? Like if you see lights and sirens, you offer assistance and they would do the same?

A Yes.

Q Is there any like policy or any -- anything dictated that says like you need to do this or you need to do that?

A I don't believe there's an actual policy that says you must do it. I think it's a courtesy that officers -- if they need assistance, you usually go and lend a hand.

Q Had you heard anything on the radio frequencies prior to seeing the officers traveling?

A No.

I only monitored our own band. I don't monitor any other bands. We don't have any capability like that.

Q Okay. I didn't know if there were shared bands.

A No. Sometimes I wish.

Q You see the officers. You follow to provide assistance. You get to Pulaski. Park roughly near the Dunkin Donuts. What do you do after that?

A At that time I get out of the car. I go up. I see several Chicago officers. Some were standing around. Others were walking up to them. And then I see a subject laying on the pavement.

Q  Was the subject who you have come to learn was Laquan McDonald?

A  Yes.

Q  So you see -- you see the CPD officers. You see McDonald. Do you speak to any of the CPD officers there?

A  Yeah. I asked what happened, is everybody okay; and that was it.

Q  Do you recall any specific conversations with any of them?

A  No. That was the thing. Everybody was just kind of talking to themselves.

You're an outside agency. So they don't really want to talk to you. You just go there and say, you know, you guys need help, you know, is everything okay; and they say oh, yeah, can you do this or this. Usually they're kind of like, no, we're good.

Q  In this instance that was the case?

You were asking if they needed assistance and they were saying they were good?

A  Not at that time. At that time everybody was just standing there. Nobody really answered me if they needed help or not.

Q Is that typical?
A Sometimes it is. With Chicago it is.

When they have several things going on they don't like to talk to other people.

Q I hear you. I hear you.

You speak to a couple officers just to kind of ask them how they're doing. It sounds like they didn't really give responses to you?

A Correct.

Q Then you proceed to go to, I guess,
look at Mr. McDonald?

A Correct.

Q What do you do when you get to Mr.
McDonald?

A When I go up there I see that there's blood all over the pavement. He was kind of gurgling when he was sitting there. I remember his mouth was going open and closed like he was trying to gasp for air.

And I looked for everybody else, and they were kind of standing there. I just started taking my gloves -- my rubber gloves out to check for a pulse and to see if I could render aid.

Q  Did you do that? You did take out your gloves and check for the pulse?

A  This is where I don't remember too closely. I know I got down next to him. I remember seeing him kind of go lifeless.

I don't remember if I actually reached out and grabbed on to him, but I know I was right next to him. I heard somebody say that the ambulance was in route. So I was letting Laquan McDonald know to hang in there, that the ambulance is coming, you know, they'll be here soon.

Q  At any point when you were talking to Mr. McDonald did he respond back to you?

A  No. He was just like -- again, he was just opening and closing his mouth trying to gasp for air.

Q  Were there any other CPD officers, I guess, assisting you in trying to provide aid or comfort to Mr. McDonald?

A  No.

Q  Did you see anyone else with a -- like you mentioned you put gloves on.
A Correct.

Q Did anybody else have any gloves on?

A Not that I can recall. Not that I remember.

Q Before you walked up to McDonald was there any other CPD officers monitoring him or looking at him?

A No. They were just standing around. They were just standing there. Nobody was going up to him. That's why I felt that I needed to go up to him.

Q Right. How long were you next to Mr. McDonald, if you could estimate?

A Not that long. Maybe less than a minute before he expired.

Q Got you. Okay.

So after he expires I'm guessing you get up?

A I did.

Q Did you then go and speak to anyone else?

A I did.

At that time Jeff Pasqua -- who you guys interviewed yesterday. He was on scene. I talked with him, and he was talking to another officer that was there.

I don't remember who exactly I found out from that it was an actual shooting, but then the guy who -- I guess Jason Van Dyke is his name now. I saw him pacing back and forth in front of his car, his police car.

I know from previous training that during a shooting situation your heart rate spikes. Your blood pressure spikes. There's a potential that you can pass out. There's a potential of harm to yourself.

I simply went over to him. I saw him pacing back and forth. I just told him to sit down in the car. I heard several officers telling him call your union rep, call your union rep.

I told him whatever you got to do you can do, but sit down and do it because it's not good for you to keep walking around. So I made him sit down in the passenger seat of whatever squad was sitting right there.

Q When you saw the officers speaking to Van Dyke telling him to call his union rep do you recall any specific officers that did that?

A No. I just heard it.

If I remember correctly, I think I was the only one next to Jason Van Dyke at the time. I heard the voices. I remember there was a couple different voices saying call your union rep, call your union rep.

Q They were generally just calling out?

A Yeah, call your union rep, hey, man, call your union rep.

Q Was it clear to you at that time that Mr. Van Dyke was involved in the shooting?

A Yes.

Q Had anyone told you that or did you instinctively feel this is what happened here?

A Yeah. I don't remember if somebody said it was a shooting or what happened or how it happened, but I remember seeing him and somehow it pointed to him. I don't know if I made that inference or if somebody actually told me. I just knew it was him because he was walking back and forth in front of his squad car.

Q Other than hearing other people speak out to Van Dyke to call his union rep did you hear any other comments that were directed towards Mr. Van Dyke?

A No. I don't remember.

Q Do you recall ever seeing anyone come up to him and speaking to him?

A Yeah. There was another officer that came up and spoke with him. I think he went and spoke with a sergeant when they came on scene. But that's all I remember.

Q Were you able to hear any of that conversation?

A No, nothing.

Q Got you.

Okay. You yourself told Mr. Van Dyke, because of your training, it might be best for you to go sit in your vehicle?

A Right. Sit down, relax.

I think I told him to drink some water, and I told him to sit there until the sergeant showed up; and I turned around and left once he was sitting down and everything -- once the sergeant came I remember he tried to stand up. He stood up to go talk to him. That's when I left the scene.
Was Van Dyke responsive to you at all?
A little bit.
He did sit down. I told him to relax, you're all right, sit down. I tried to comfort him and got him to sit down because your blood pressure spikes in shooting situations like that, like I said.
When he went to sit down was he by himself?
Yes.
No one else was in his cruiser?
You know what, I don't think so. I think he was by himself.
I made him sit in the passenger's seat of whatever squad was there. I don't know if it was an SUV or what.
Did Van Dyke ever respond to you with any sentences or anything?
Not that I remember.
It did appear he understood what you were saying as he walked towards his vehicle?
Yes.
Did he ever say thank you or anything to that effect?
A No. I think he was just in shock at that time.

Q Okay. If you could estimate how long this process was where you were talking to him and then he comes back to his car. How long did that take?

A That was another minute, maybe two minutes. It wasn't that much.

Q Okay. And just -- I'm pretty sure I know the answer, but I just want to make sure.

By the time you get to the scene everything had already occurred, correct?

A Correct.

I didn't even find out that he shot that many times until, you know, Jeff had sent me the article in January of this last year. I had no clue. I just thought it was a regular shooting. I had no clue.

Q Did you hear any shots while you were inbound to the scene?

A No.

Q So it's all done before you got there?

A It was done before I got there.
You said there was a number of officers on the scene before you got there?

A Correct, yeah.

They had started -- the officers that I was following once we got there they had started -- everybody started like blocking off the streets and everything like that, and everybody just started filing in from both sides. I remember them coming from the north and the south. There was just cars that kept coming.

Q After you spoke to Van Dyke to inform him it might be a good idea to come and sit in his squad car what did you do after that?

A After that, like I said, I told him to sit down, maybe drink some water or something; and once a sergeant got there I left. I went back and I started talking to Jeff. And Jeff had a friend, I guess, that he knew on the department. So I talked to him, met him, and then after that we left.

Q What was that conversation like with Jeff?

A He was just, hey, this is my buddy from college. I don't even remember what his name is.

I go, hey, nice to meet you,
blah, blah, blah. He was Jeff's training officer.

So he said this guy is the one that trained me, blah, blah, blah; and we talked about some nonsense, and that was it.

Q Was there any conversation related to the shooting of Mr. McDonald?

A No, no. Nothing.

Q Okay. And when I say that I mean between either yourself and officer Pasqua or yourself and the other CPD officer that was speaking with Officer Pasqua.

A Just, man, this is messed up, this is, you know, gruesome kind of thing.

It wasn't anything about what had happened. The guy that showed up showed up way after we did. So I know he wasn't there for it. I wasn't there and neither was Jeff. Jeff came up behind me.

Q You arrived on the scene first, then Jeff?

A I think Jeff said, when he saw me going, he just jumped in and followed me.

Q On your way to the scene you pass Jeff. He was doing something?
A: Yeah, I think he was down at Cicero and 47th when he saw me. I think he jumped in and followed me.

Q: You didn't radio him and say come to the scene, I heard a shooting or something like that?

A: No.

Q: Do you recall who made the comment about this was a gruesome and such and such? Was it Jeff or was it the CPD officer?

A: No. I think it was Jeff. Yeah, I think it was Jeff.

We had talked about it all night because after it happened we were talking about it throughout the night and even in to the morning time. We were talking about how, wow, that was kind of messed up.

Because we were both there when he expired. So it was kind of a weird thing to go to. And Jeff being almost brand new at the time, it was something you don't see every day.

MS. ANSARI: You mean messed up just because someone passed away?

THE WITNESS: Right.
MS. ANSARI: Not the actual action of how he got shot because at that point you didn't know?

THE WITNESS: At that point I had no clue. I didn't know there was 15 shots or 16 shots. I didn't know anything about the case.

I knew there was a shooting. Van Dyke was pacing back and forth. I assumed he was the shooter at that time. I talked to him and that was it.

MS. ANSARI: Did you have any conversations about -- about you being the only person to actually approach McDonald?

He was still alive when you got there and no one else was offering any kind of comfort to him except for you. Did you talk to anyone about that? What is your opinion on that?

THE WITNESS: I know from previous trainings and previous conversations with people that lawsuits come in to play when you fail to act, your failure to render aid. I remember there was like a -- there was a case that I remember -- I think it was in Florida. It was an officer that -- there was a drowning victim, a person drowning. The officer stood by because that officer I guess couldn't swim.
So they didn't go in to the ocean to save this kid.

And I remember he got a lawsuit, and then that's what came up, the failure to render aid no matter what. It was a suspect they were chasing that jumped in to the ocean.

I remember that case, and from then on anything that happens the cops are to render aid. So if I saw nobody was there, I'd go over to the scene so that I didn't get in trouble for not rendering aid.

MS. ANSARI: Is that a Cook County -- is that actually like a policy in Cook County for the Cook County Sheriff that you must render aid?

THE WITNESS: I'm not sure if it's actually -- if it's an actual policy of the Cook County Sheriff's Office. I just know that that's a personal policy, seek to render aid first and help somebody before anything else.

MS. ANSARI: Do you know -- are you familiar with if there's any CPD policies or other police -- do you know if there's like policies not to render aid because they don't want you to do something medically incorrect?

THE WITNESS: That I don't know. I don't know if anybody -- I'm not sure if any other departments or anything have that same thing.

    I just know, like I said, if I can offer assistance, even if it's just to offer a little comfort or whatever, I'll offer whatever I can do.

    MS. ANSARI: And what's your opinion on how it went down at the scene?

    THE WITNESS: Like you were saying before, you don't know if that's their policy or not. I didn't think anything of it. It could be their policy not to render any aid. I don't know what their policy is on their end.

        I saw nobody doing it. So I figure I would get down and see if I could offer some kind of assistance.

    MS. ANSARI: Okay.

    MR. BROWN: Q So I think you were telling us that you spoke with Jeff while you were still on the scene?

    THE WITNESS: A Um-hum.

        Q His friend who was there, the CPD officer --

    A Um-hum.
Q -- Do you recall any of that conversation or if there was a conversation there?

A Like I said, I don’t remember the exact words. I just know that it was just simple, hey, how you doing, this is my friend from college -- or whatever, however he knows the guy -- and then I met him and he goes, you know, he lives by me or something like that.

So it wasn’t anything about the case. It was just small talk about I just meeting him.

Q Got you.

Did you know or recognize any of the officers that were on scene?

A No, I did not.

Q And when you pulled up you were in a marked sheriff’s office vehicle, right?

A Unmarked.

Q Oh, it was an unmarked vehicle?

A Yeah, plain white Ford interceptor.

Q Got you.

Okay. While you were on the scene do you recall if you spoke with any
A: No; I did not talk to anybody else.

Q: Okay.

MS. ANSARI: Did you see detectives on the scene? Were they starting to arrive while you were there?

THE WITNESS: There was a load of officers and everybody coming on scene. That's when I decided to back off.

I know that the fire personnel had come. I didn't want to get boxed in. Because they started putting the tape around the scene. So once they did that I didn't want my car to get stuck in and not being able to leave; and that's when I told Jeff we probably should get out of here, and we left.

MR. BROWN: Q That was a quick conversation between you, Jeff and his friend that happened?

THE WITNESS: A Yes.

Q: Can you estimate how long you were on the scene?

A: I think it was 11 minutes. I think -- once everything came out, the dash cam video and then the time that I went 10/8 on the radio, I think it was like 11 total.
Q. Just for the rest of us, can you explain what the 10/8 refers to?

A. Going clear from the scene, being back in service.

Q. Had you made a radio notification that you were approaching the scene to offer assistance?

A. Yes.

Q. What does that — what does that include?

A. I just notified our dispatch that I was out with several CPD units.

Q. Got you. Okay.

And once you're done with the scene, if it's a 10/8 does that require you to file any paperwork or to author any reports related to your observation?

A. So I went 10/8, and then you're supposed to give a disposition code.

At that time CPD had the scene. I just went to make sure if they needed help. They said no.

And I attempted to render aid. I think I said he expired. At that time we left.

There was nothing to do.
So I gave a code of -- they call it four John, which is no assistance needed. It's assist -- the four part is assist other agency and then the John is no further police necessary.

Q So you didn't have to author any reports when there's a four John while you were on the scene. Did you see any of the video of the shooting?

A No. In fact, I didn't even know they had squad car video. I thought they were still without squad car video. I had no clue they even had it.

Q Got you.

I know you mentioned that you heard some officers just yell out to Van Dyke, call your union rep, call your union rep.

A Um-hum.

Q Do you recall hearing any officers making comments like, oh, this is a good shooting, this is a bad shooting or any kind of concern about the shooting?

A You know what, I don't remember. Like I said, I was just focused on Van Dyke and making sure he didn't pass out walking around.
Q Right.
A So...
Q You might not even know who his partner was, but did you see his partner around him at that time?
A No. Like I said, he was by himself pacing back and forth; and I don't think there was anybody else in the car. So...
Q He was just pacing behind the squad car?
A Yeah, in front, on the passenger's side.
Q Passenger's side?
A Yeah. Because I remember the car was parked facing southbound on Pulaski there; and then the door was opened, and he was pacing back and forth there. That's when I just told him to sit down in the passenger's seat.
Q Do you recall if he was saying anything or muttering anything to himself?
A No. That's the thing. He was breathing heavy and walking back and forth, and he looked like he was in distress too.
Q So after you and Jeff speak and make a decision like it's probably a good idea for us to leave, what do you do after that?

A    We leave. We go 10/8 from the scene. We clear the scene and we went back to our beat, which is Cicero and 47th.

Q    Okay.

MS. ANSARI: When you were on the scene did you hear anyone call an ambulance?

THE WITNESS: Somebody had said that an ambulance was in route.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

THE WITNESS: I heard that part, yeah.

MS. ANSARI: While you were there did an ambulance come?

THE WITNESS: No. Actually, I think that's why we decided to leave in the first place. Once we started to see the ambulance and the fire truck show up I think that's when we decided that it was time for us to skedaddle.

MS. ANSARI: Did you and Jeff debrief after you left the scene?

THE WITNESS: I think we met for dinner later on in the night. We kind of talked about how it was a messed up scene to have somebody pass away in front of us, but other than that there was no official debriefing.

MR. BROWN: Q Nothing like this is a training opportunity, hey, this is what we do if we had a situation possibly similar to that?

THE WITNESS: A No, not that I recall. I think we might have said something along those lines. I don't remember. It's been almost two years now.

Q Exactly. It's hard trying to recall at this point.

So you did your debrief during dinner. Then you resumed your normal patrol?

A Correct.

Q You didn't have to type any reports or anything of that nature. Did you have to inform your sergeant as to what occurred?

A I think we did. We informed him what happened that next morning.

Q And did he have any particular response for you?

A Not that I remember. I don't remember exactly what his comments were.

Q His response definitely wasn't you need to type a memo about whatever you did?

A No. We would have done it right then and there.

Q Got you. Got you.

So after that next day what's your next involvement related to the McDonald shooting?

A The next involvement was a phone call in about June or July. I think it was the end of June. There was a phone call from an FBI agent.

Q They called you while you were at work?

A You know what, my sergeant had advised me that he had received a call from the FBI looking to talk to me, that he had given them my cell phone number and I should expect a call from them.

Q What did they want to talk to you about?

A The same thing as this here. They wanted to know if I could come in and be interviewed and talk to them about what happened.

And then I think we did a phone interview actually, and at that time he asked me to come in for a grand jury.

Q So you did a phone interview. Do you recall the name of the agent that did -- conducted the interview?

A Jeff -- it's Jeff something. I don't remember what his last name is.

Q That's okay.

A First name is Jeff. Because I know he called Jeff too. I remember it was Jeff something.

MS. ANSARI: That is fine.

MR. BROWN: Q Generally he was asking you the same questions that we're asking you, what happened that night and what did you observe?

THE WITNESS: A Yes.

Q So you had a telephone interview with the agent Jeff and then he asked you to come in for grand jury testimony?

A Correct.

Q Did you ever have a subsequent interview with Jeff, like an in-person interview?

A I don't think so, no.

The next time I met with him he met me out in front of the court house to give me a subpoena to come down to the grand jury.

Q Okay. And that was likely in July 2015 as well?
A Yeah, that was the beginning of July.
Q Okay. So when did you actually give testimony -- the first question would be did you give testimony before the grand jury?
A Yes.
Q Do you recall when that occurred?
A I don't remember the date.
Q Okay.
A I'm sure it's in my e-mail. If you want me to look, I can find out.
Q Approximately, if you know.
A I think it was July 2nd.
    It was right after Jeff's. What was Jeff's? The 2nd or the 3rd? I think mine was right after.
MS. ANSARI: I think he said August.
THE WITNESS: Maybe it was August.
MS. ANSARI: It was the summertime. An approximation is fine.
THE WITNESS: Yeah, I don't -- I can look back in all my stuff. I'll find it for you guys. Did we get notified in July?
That would have been '15, right, August of 2015?
MS. ANSARI: Um-hum.
MR. BROWN: Yes.

THE WITNESS: I'd have to look it up on the system at home.

MS. ANSARI: Adam, you know, that's okay. The approximate dates are fine. The summer 2015 is fine.

THE WITNESS: All right. Cool.

MR. BROWN: Q Did you give testimony before the grand jury?

THE WITNESS: A Yes.

Q Do you recall where you gave that testimony?

A The Dirksen building, the federal Dirksen building.

Q Okay. Did you do any kind of preparation before you gave testimony?

A No. They had me come in and said, all right, you're up and then walked me in.

Q Did you read a prepared statement?

A No.

Q You just answered questions as they were posed to you?

A Correct.

Q Okay. Were you shown any documents while you were giving testimony?

A  No, I don’t think so.

Q  Okay. Were you shown any video of the shooting or related to the shooting?

A  Not at that time, no. Because everything came out in the news. That's why I didn't even know they had cameras until it came out in the news that they had all these cameras out.

Q  Generally they were just asking your observations of what occurred that night?

A  Correct.

Q  Without getting specific as to how you answered each question is it safe to say that the answers you gave to the grand jury are the same answers you’ve given to us here today?

A  Yes.

Q  Okay. And one thing I forgot to ask you. While you were still on the scene did you speak to any civilians?

A  No, no. There was no civilians there.

Q  You don’t recall seeing any civilians kind of --

A  No.

Q  -- Milling about?
A No.

Q Got you.

A A sea of CPD.

Q So you give your grand jury testimony. Do you have any, I guess, further contact related to the McDonald shooting after that point?

A At that point nothing until it all came out in the news.

Q Okay. Do you know what prompted that news article, like how anyone learned of your involvement?

A Allegedly when -- I mean, I don't know exactly how. But allegedly the video shows our squad cars, I guess, on there when we're first pulling up. It shows my squad car there.

So -- but it's unmarked. They had Sheriff's Police on it. Other than that, I have no clue.

I know the FBI found out. I think because they saw video surveillance from whatever. I think the Dunkin Donuts that was right there. They had video surveillance. I think that's when they saw there was a Sheriff's Police car, and then they further inquired as to what was going on.
Q  Do you recall seeing yourself and Jeff on one of the beat car's videos?

A  I think the -- in the car that's right in front of Laquan, when we come up there you can actually see me taking out my gloves and putting them on. I think in the one video you can. That's the one that's big circled with me in there and saying what is Cook County doing in there.

MS. ANSARI: Is that in the news article, you actually bending down and putting on the gloves?

I saw the video.

THE WITNESS: Yeah. At the -- I know they saved all the -- they had the four videos from each one of the cruisers, and then they all stopped right after I get there or right after I'm about to put on the gloves. Then it stops. It doesn't show anything else.

That's why I saved all the articles, to see if I could see if there's anything else to see me. And they give times and everything.

MR. BROWN: Q Okay. Right. So the article comes out. Does that lead to any reports or is there any kind of contact with you?

THE WITNESS: A That leads to -- yeah -- me being contacted by the department, asking, you know, why didn't you do a report this night, what happened, what was going on and them asking the same questions that you are.

Q Were your -- was your chain of command aware that you had been contacted by the FBI?

A Sergeant Dwyer, the same sergeant was the one that told me that the FBI was going to call; and then once I got the subpoena I gave him a copy of the subpoena so that he knows that I'm going at this date and time to testify in the grand jury. So he knew I was and that Jeff was going as well.

Q And he was aware that you eventually gave testimony for the grand jury?

A Right.

Q And so you had like a conversation afterwards?

A Yeah. After I was done I called him because I think I was on duty that night. So, all right, I said I'm done here, where are we meeting, and I drove to wherever we were meeting at.

Q Were you surprised that your superiors would come to you after the article comes out and ask you what happened?
A I get it. They were kind of -- you know, they were surprised by the whole thing. Once the news starts asking questions and they have no answers, then they look kind of foolish. I get it. But at the date and time I didn’t do anything. I didn’t actually render aid. I think I went to go try, and he expired. So the only thing that the report would show was that I arrived on scene, I attempted to render aid, I went 10/8, and that was it. So that’s everything this I basically said. I’m here, okay, now we’re 10/8. It would be the same report. I didn’t think anything further should have been written. There wasn’t anything else that I witnessed or anything else that would have been detrimental to the case.

Q Do you recall having any involvement in the Cook County Sheriff’s, I guess, press statement that was issued?

A They had brought me and Jeff the day that it -- the day that we released -- I guess the Cook County Sheriff's office released a press statement. They had brought us there, and our first deputy chief, Dana Wright, had questioned us along with some other people that were there. Other bosses, deputy chiefs, they had questioned us and they were telling the news article what to say -- or our media relations people or something like that.

Q You definitely didn't draft the press release, did you?
A No, absolutely no. That's way out of my league.

Q From the best of your understanding,
can you summarize what information you gave to Chief Wright and the other deputies?
A They asked questions about what happened that night. We told them, and they did whatever they wanted on the news article.

Q Even after the fact, after that press release were you ever asked to author a memo or any kind of report?
A No, I don't think so.

Q Okay. Do you recall any changes to policy occurring after the article came out?
A Not that I'm aware of.

I know that there was talk that any time you're going to assist another agency that every -- we've been doing -- what do you call it -- um -- doing something inside of Chicago where we go to the different Chicago districts. They call it a Chicago initiative.

They brings us up in certain districts, and we basically saturate that area for the time being. So I know at that point that after all this came out we were told by our supervisor that, you know, any time you come in to contact with Chicago on anything make a full written report about it. I think I made two after that.

Q So it sounds like a policy was put in place?

A I don't know. I don't know if an actual policy came out or not. The sergeant had just said just do a report every time you come in contact with Chicago.

Q Okay.

A Okay.

Q Is that still the practice today or did it kind of fall off?

A I have no clue. I haven't been out there in a while.

Q As an investigator I'm guessing you're not in the field as much as when you were an officer?

A  Correct.

Q  Got you.

MS. ANSARI: Was there anything that the FBI or State's Attorney and the grand jury -- was there anything they asked that we haven't elicited today or anything else you talked about besides what you told us? Are we missing anything?

THE WITNESS: No, not that I can recall.
This is already a year after I testified there almost.

MS. ANSARI: Right.

THE WITNESS: Not that I recall. These are pretty much the same questions that they asked.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

THE WITNESS: I remember in the grand jury -- for the federal grand jury there was some guy -- I'm guessing it was his lawyer, Laquan McDonald's lawyer. Because he was asking a bunch of questions while we were there, but they were the same questions that you guys are asking.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

MR. BROWN: He was asking questions of you?
THE WITNESS: Yeah. There was somebody there. Like I said, I assume -- the questions he was asking were why didn't -- the same thing you guys asked -- why didn't the other officers render any aid or why didn't they help out. I don't know. I don't know what their policy is.

MS. ANSARI: Actually I was thinking, when you were down by him -- could you tell he had been shot 16 times when you were down by his side?

THE WITNESS: No.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

THE WITNESS: So I've been on a couple of scenes where people are dying or there's blood. There's -- the blood pool was thick. And usually when there's a certain mucous that's inside it, that's when you can tell it's a serious wound, it's a bad wound.

When I kneeled down and I saw that pool of blood I knew there was a serious something that happened. I couldn't tell there was any gun shots.

MS. ANSARI: Understood.

MR. BROWN: You saw the mucous?

THE WITNESS: The mucous mixed in with the blood. That's when you know it's serious. That only comes out with a dying thing, at least to my experience.

MR. BROWN: Okay. Well I think that's it. Knowing what we're looking for in this investigation, if you don't have anything else to add that we didn't ask you, that will be it.

THE WITNESS: Thank you very much. I appreciate it.

MR. BROWN: The time is now 11:51, and that will conclude this interview.

Thank you, Adam.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

MS. ANSARI: Thank you, Adam. We appreciate it.

Narrative

On 20 October 2014 at 2351 hours Detective March # 20563 of the Chicago Police Department Area Central Detectives Beat # 5121 notified the Forensic Institute the subject Laquan McDonald had expired at Mt. Sinai Hospital after being shot by an on duty Chicago Police Officer.

Detective March related the following; on or about 2156 hours 19 October 2014 Chicago Police 8th District Beat Car 815R responded to 41st and Kildare in reference to a “Citizen Holding a Subject”. Upon arrival Beat # 815R was confronted by the subject who threatened the officers with a 4 inch fold knife. The subject fled the scene on foot where at 4112 S. Pulaski the subject was stopped by officers assigned to Beat # 845R. The officers announced their office as “Chicago Police Officers” and ordered the subject to drop the knife. The subject lunged at the officers with the knife. Fearing for their life and attempting to stop the threat one officer (star # 9465) fired sixteen rounds from his duty weapon a Smith & Wesson 9mm handgun striking the subject numerous times. After striking the subject an ambulance was requested by the officers.

Upon arrival of Chicago Fire Department Ambulance # 21 the subject was transported to Mt. Sinai Hospital. Once at Mt. Sinai Hospital emergency room staff were unable to revive the subject and the subject expired at 2242 hours being pronounced by Doctor Titeel. It appears that the subject sustained the following gunshot wounds, four to the chest, six to the right arm, five to the left arm, one to the rightside torso, two to the back, one to the right hip, two to the left leg front, two to the left leg rear, 2 to the left thigh and three to the right thigh. At this time since the officer fired sixteen times which of the twenty-six gunshot wounds are entrance or exit wounds.

At the time of this incident both officers assigned to Beat # 845R and 815R were in full Chicago Police Department uniform.

The subject was ordered along with all police reports, medical records which included admission blood which was drawn to the Forensic Institute for further examination.

Subject was positively identified by the Chicago Police ICLEAR system based on a prior Chicago Police Booking Number IR2106340. At the time of this report it is unknown why the citizen was “Holding the Subject” since the citizen left the scene and could not be interviewed.

Subject’s next of kin has not been notified

REPORT OF POSTMORTEM EXAMINATION

NAME MCDONALD, LAQUAN CASE NO. ME2014-01071
AGE 17y RACE BLACK SEX MALE DATE OF DEATH OCTOBER 20, 2014
DATE EXAMINED OCTOBER 21, 2014 (8:25am) EXAMINED BY Denika Means, DO

Investigator Daniel Kobel with the City of Chicago Independent Police Review Authority is present for the autopsy.

EXTERNAL EXAMINATION

The body is identified by toe tag. Photographs and radiographs are taken.

When first viewed, the body is clad in a green hospital gown. A tan rubber band encircles the right wrist. Accompanying the body is a black, hooded, zip-up sweatshirt (cut), a black with white lettering sweatshirt, blue jeans, black boxers (cut), two black shoes and two black socks. No jewelry is present. All of the clothing is relinquished to a representative of the Chicago Police Department.

The body is that of a well-developed, well-nourished, black male whose appearance is compatible with the stated age of 17 years. As received, the body weighs 180 pounds and is 72 inches long. There is good preservation in the absence of embalming. The body is warm, rigor mortis is easily broken, and lividity is not apparent.

The black scalp hair is in dreadlocks up to 5 inches long. An average amount of body hair is in a normal male distribution. The irides are brown, the corneae are clear, and there are no petechiae of the bulbar or palpebral surfaces of the conjunctivae. The ears, nose and lips are unremarkable. The teeth are natural and in good condition with absence of the upper left central incisor. The neck and chest are symmetrical, and the abdomen is flat. The external genitalia, anus and perineum are unremarkable. The extremities are well developed and symmetrical. The back is straight.
IDENTIFYING MARKS AND SCARS

EVIDENCE OF THERAPY

An endotracheal tube is in the mouth. Intravascular lines are in the left groin and left antecubital fossa. An intraosseous line is in the left shin. A loosely sutured incision runs from the right midaxillary line to the left lateral back just inferior to the nipple line.

EVIDENCE OF INJURY

I. Multiple Gunshot Wounds:

There are 16 gunshot wounds, numbered 1 through 16 arbitrarily without regard to sequence or severity.

1. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE LEFT SCALP:

There is a gunshot graze wound of the left parietal scalp centered 1-1/2 inches from the top of the head and 1/2 inch anterior to the superior attachment of the pinna of the left ear. The gaping wound is 1-3/4 inches long and up to 1/4 inch deep, extending to the fascia overlying the skull. The wound has no marginal abrasion, soot, or stippling.

Associated with this wound, there is mild left temporoparietal subcapsular hemorrhage. Thin subarachnoid hemorrhage overlies the left temporal and parietal lobes of the brain.

Directionality cannot be determined.

2. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE NECK:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the left base of the neck located 11 inches from the top of the head and 2 inches left of anterior midline. The circular wound is 3/16 inch in diameter and has a circumferential dry red-brown marginal abrasion that measures up to 1/4 inch at 12 o'clock, 1/8 inch at...
3 o'clock, 1/4 inch at 6 o'clock, and 3/16 inch at 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the left side of the neck, the bullet subsequently perforates the strap muscles of the left side of the neck, the trachea and the scalene muscles of the right side of the neck.

A moderately deformed, copper-jacketed, medium caliber bullet is recovered from the right supraspinatus muscle, at approximately 12 inches from the top of the head and approximately 5 inches right of anterior midline. The bullet is photographed, sealed within an appropriately labeled envelope and submitted to a representative of the Chicago Police Department.

Associated with this wound is hemorrhage and pulpifaction of the wound track.

3. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE LEFT CHEST:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the left upper chest located 12-1/4 inches from the top of the head and 5 inches left of anterior midline. The ovoid wound measures 1/2 x 1/2 inch and has a circumferential, dry, red-brown marginal abrasion that measures 1/16 inch at 12 o'clock, 1/8 inch at 3 o'clock, 1/16 inch at 6 o'clock and 1/8 inch at 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the left upper chest, the bullet subsequently perforates the left pectoralis muscles, the muscles of the left lateral back, the muscles of the posterior left upper arm and the subcutaneous tissue and skin of the left upper arm.

A gunshot wound of exit of the posterior left upper arm is located 4-3/4 inches from the top of the left shoulder and 3/4 inch lateral to the posterior midline of the left arm. The ovoid wound measures 5/16 x 3/16 inch and has a circumferential brown marginal abrasion that is less than 1/16 inch wide. There is no soot or stippling.
Associated with this wound is hemorrhage and pulpification of the wound track.

4. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE RIGHT CHEST:

There is a gunshot wound of the right side of the chest located 15-1/8 inches from the top of the head and 1-1/4 inches right of anterior midline. The circular wound is 3/16 inch in diameter and has a circumferential, dry, brown marginal abrasion that measures 1/16 inch at 12 o'clock, 3/16 inch at 3 o'clock, 1/16 inch at 6 o'clock and 1/16 inch at 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the right side of the chest, the bullet subsequently perforates the right pectoralis muscles, the anterior portion of the right fourth rib and right fourth intercostal muscle, the right upper pulmonic lobe (x2), the right middle pulmonic lobe and the lateral portion of the right sixth intercostal muscle.

A markedly deformed, copper-jacketed bullet is recovered from the right latissimus dorsi muscle at a point approximately 18 inches from the top of the head and approximately 2 inches posterior to the right midaxillary line.

Associated with this wound is an anterior fracture of the right fourth rib and an approximately 40mL right hemothorax. There is hemorrhage and pulpification of the wound track.

The direction is front to back, left to right and slightly downward.

5. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE LEFT ELBOW:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the lateral left elbow located 12-3/4 inches from the top of the left shoulder and 1-1/4 inches lateral to the posterior midline of the left arm. The circular wound measures 5/16 of an inch and has a 1/16 inch dark circumferential marginal abrasion. There is no soot or stippling.

A gunshot wound of exit of the medial left upper arm is located 11-1/4 inches from the top of the left shoulder and along the medial midline of the left arm. The irregularly-shaped wound is 1/2 x 1/2 inch. A 1/8 inch brown marginal abrasion extends from 1 o'clock to 3 o'clock and a 1/16 inch brown marginal abrasion extends from 11 o'clock to 12 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

Associated with this wound is a 3/16 inch dark brown, abraded skin bridge that separates the entrance gunshot wound #5 (superior) from the entrance gunshot wound #10 (inferior). There is a fracture of the distal left humerus as well as hemorrhage and pulpifaction of the wound track.

6. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE RIGHT UPPER ARM:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the posterior right upper arm located 6-1/2 inches from the top of the right shoulder and along the posterior midline of the right arm. The circular wound is 3/16 inch in diameter and has a 1/16 inch dry, dark marginal abrasion extending from 1 o'clock to 11 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the posterior right upper arm, the bullet subsequently perforates the musculature of the right upper arm, the right humerus and the musculature, subcutaneous tissue and skin of the medial right upper arm.

There is a shored gunshot wound of exit of the medial right upper arm located 10-3/4 inches from the top of the right shoulder and along the medial midline of the right arm. The irregularly-shaped wound measures 7/16 x 5/16 inch and has a dry, dark circumferential marginal abrasion that measures 1/16 inch at 12 o'clock and 3 o'clock, 1/4 inch at 6 o'clock and 1/16 inch at 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.
Associated with this wound is an abraded 3/4 inch moist pink skin bridge that separates the entrance gunshot wound #6 (inferior) from the entrance gunshot wound #11 (superior). There is also a fracture of the right humerus and hemorrhage and pulpifaction of the wound track.

7. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE LEFT FOREARM:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the dorsal left forearm located 19 inches from the top of the left shoulder and 1/2 inch medial to the posterior midline of the left arm. The ovoid wound measures 1/4 x 3/16 inch and has a circumferential dry dark marginal abrasion that measures 1/8 inch at 12 o'clock and 1/16 inch at 3, 6, and 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the left forearm, the bullet subsequently perforates the left radius and ulna and the musculature, subcutaneous tissue and skin of the medial left forearm.

A gunshot wound of exit of the medial left forearm is located 20-1/2 inches from the top of the left shoulder and 1/2 inch anterior to the medial midline of the left arm. The ovoid wound measures 5/16 x 1/4 inch and has an ellipse-shaped marginal abrasion that measures 1/4 inch at 12 o'clock, 3/16 inch at 3 o'clock and 6 o'clock and 1/8 inch at 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

Associated with this wound are fractures of the left radius and ulna. There is hemorrhage and pulpifaction of the wound tracks.

The direction is back to front, slightly right to left and slightly downward.

8. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE LATERAL RIGHT UPPER LEG:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the lateral right upper leg located 35-9/16 inches from the top of the head and 1-3/4 inches right of the anterior midline of the right leg.
The circular wound measures 1/4 inch in diameter and has a less than 1/16 inch marginal abrasion extending from 5 o'clock to 6 o'clock. The margin is extensively lacerated and has a circumferential 1/16 inch purple contusion. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the lateral right upper leg, the bullet subsequently perforates the musculature of the right upper leg, the pelvic floor musculature and the musculature of the medial left upper leg.

A moderately deformed, copper-jacketed, medium caliber bullet is recovered from the medial left upper leg at a point approximately 39 inches from the top of the head and approximately 2 inches right of anterior midline of the left leg. The bullet is photographed, sealed within an appropriately labeled envelope and submitted to a representative of the Chicago Police Department.

Associated with this wound is hemorrhage and pulpifaction of the wound track.

9. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE LEFT UPPER BACK:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the left upper back located 11 inches from the top of the head and 4-1/2 inches left of posterior midline. The irregularly-shaped wound measures 9/16 x 5/16 inch and has an irregular, circumferential brown marginal abrasion that measures 1/4 inch at 12 o'clock, 1/16 inch at 3 o'clock, 1/8 inch at 6 o'clock and 3/16 inch at 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the left upper back, the bullet subsequently perforates the musculature of the left upper back and the subcutaneous tissue and skin of the left lateral back.

There is a gunshot wound of exit of the left lateral back located 17-1/4 inches from the top of the head and 3-1/2 inches posterior to the left midaxillary line. The irregularly-shaped wound measures 3/8 x 3/16 inch. There is no marginal abrasion, soot or stippling.
Associated with this wound is hemorrhage and pulpifaction of the wound track.

The direction is right to left and downward with no significant forward or backwards deviation.

10. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE LEFT ELBOW:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the lateral left elbow which is located 13-1/16 inch from the top of the left shoulder and 1 inch lateral to the posterior midline of the left arm. The circular wound measures 3/16 inch in diameter and has a circumferential marginal abrasion that measures 1/8 inch at 12 o'clock and 3 o'clock and 1/16 inch at 6 o'clock and 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

There is a gunshot wound of exit of the medial left elbow located 14-1/2 inches from the top of the left shoulder and 3/4 inch medial to the posterior midline of the left arm. The irregularly-shaped wound measures 3/16 x 1/8 inch. It has a circumferential marginal abrasion that measures 1/4 inch at 12 o'clock, 3/16 inch at 3 o'clock, less than 1/16 inch at 6 o'clock and 3/16 inch at 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

Associated with this wound (as mentioned above) is a 3/16 inch dark brown, abraded skin bridge that separates the entrance gunshot wound #5 (superior) from the entrance gunshot wound #10 (inferior). There are fractures of the left humerus and ulna as well as hemorrhage and pulpifaction of the wound track.

The direction is left to right and downward with no significant forward or backward deviation.
11. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE POSTERIOR RIGHT UPPER ARM:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the posterior right upper arm located 5-3/4 inches from the top of the right shoulder and along the posterior midline of the right arm. The circular wound is 1/8 inch in diameter and has a 1/16 inch dry brown marginal abrasion extending from 7 o'clock to 2 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the posterior right upper arm, the bullet subsequently perforates the musculature of the posterior right upper arm and the musculature, subcutaneous tissue and skin of the right upper back.

There is a gunshot wound of exit of the right upper back located 15-1/2 inches from the top of the head and 2 inches posterior to the right midaxillary line. The irregularly-shaped wound measures 3/8 x 1/8 inch and has no marginal abrasion, soot or stippling.

Associated with this wound (as mentioned above) is a charred 3/4 inch moist pink skin bridge that separates the entrance gunshot wound #6 (inferior) from the entrance gunshot wound #11 (superior). There is hemorrhage and pulpification of the wound track.

12. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE RIGHT ARM:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the dorsal right forearm (superior) located 15-1/2 inches from the top of the right shoulder and 3/4 inch lateral to the posterior midline of the right arm. The ovoid-shaped wound measures 5/16 x 1/4 inch and has a dry, dark brown, circumferential marginal abrasion that measures 1/8 inch at 12 o'clock, 3/16 inch at 3 o'clock, 1/8 inch at 6 o'clock and 1/16 inch at 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the posterior right forearm, the bullet subsequently penetrates the musculature of the right upper arm.
A moderately deformed, copper-jacketed, medium caliber bullet is recovered from the anterior musculature of the right upper arm approximately 10 inches from the top of the right shoulder and approximately midline of the right upper arm. The bullet is photographed, sealed within an appropriately labeled envelope and submitted to a representative of the Chicago Police Department.

Associated with this wound is hemorrhage and pulpifaction of the wound track.

The direction is back to front and upward with no significant lateral deviation.

13. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE RIGHT FOREARM:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the dorsal right forearm (inferior) located 19-1/2 inches from the top of the right shoulder and along the posterior midline of the right arm. The ovoid-shaped wound measures 1/2 x 1/8 inch and has an irregular, dry, circumferential marginal abrasion that measures 1/8 inch at 12 o'clock, 1/16 inch at 3 o'clock, 1 inch at 6 o'clock, and 1/8 inch at 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the dorsum of the right forearm, the bullet penetrates the musculature of the right forearm.

A markedly deformed, large fragment of copper-jacketed bullet is recovered from the right forearm at approximately 17 inches from the top of the right shoulder and approximately posterior midline of the right arm. The projectile is photographed, sealed within an appropriately labeled envelope and submitted to a representative of the Chicago Police Department.

Associated with this wound are fractures of the right radius and ulna. There is hemorrhage and pulpifaction of the wound track.

The direction is upward and slightly back to front with no significant lateral deviation.

14. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE RIGHT HAND:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the dorsum of the right hand located 24 inches from the top of the right shoulder and 1/2 inch posterior to the lateral midline of the right arm. The slit-like wound measures 3/16 inch and has a moist red marginal abrasion from 3 o'clock to 11 o'clock that measures 5/16 of an inch at 3 o'clock, 1/4 inch at 6 o'clock, and 5/16 of an inch at 9 o'clock. There is a thin, circumferential rim of charred skin. Numerous irregular, dry, dark brown abrasions and apparent pseudo-stippling extend along the 5 o'clock to 11 o'clock margin up to 1 inch at 5 o'clock, 1-3/4 inch at 6 o'clock, 1-1/2 inch at 9 o'clock, and 1/2 at 11 o'clock. No definitive gunpowder residue is identified.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the dorsum of the right hand, the bullet penetrates the musculature of the right hand.

Two fragments of markedly deformed, copper-jacketed projectile are recovered from the dorsum of the right hand at a point approximately 23-1/2 inches from the top of the right shoulder and 1/4 inch posterior to the lateral midline of the right arm. The projectile fragments are photographed, sealed within an appropriately labeled envelope and submitted to a representative of the Chicago Police Department.

Associated with this wound is hemorrhage and pulpification of the wound track.

15. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE RIGHT LOWER BACK:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the right lower back located 28 inches from the top of the head and 1-7/8 inches right of posterior midline. The 3/16 x 1/8 inch ovoid wound has a circumferential, moist, pink marginal abrasion that measures 1/16 inch at 12 o'clock, 1/8 inch at 3 o'clock, 1/16 inch at 6 o'clock and 1/16 inch at 9 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the right lower back, the bullet subsequently perforates the sacrum, the abdominal cavity and the musculature of the left side of the abdomen.
A moderately deformed, copper-jacketed, medium caliber bullet is recovered from the soft tissue of the left abdominal wall approximately 25 inches from the top of the head and approximately 2 inches left of anterior midline. The bullet is photographed, sealed within an appropriately labeled envelope and submitted to a representative of the Chicago Police Department.

Associated with this wound is a fracture of the sacrum as well as hemorrhage and pulpifaction of the wound track.

16. GUNSHOT WOUND OF THE RIGHT UPPER LEG:

There is a gunshot wound of entrance of the medial right upper leg located 42-1/2 inches from the top of the head and 1/2 inch posterior to the medial midline of the right leg. The ovoid wound measures 1/4 x 3/16 inch and has a dry red-brown marginal abrasion that extends from 7 o'clock to 3 o'clock. The abrasion measures 1/16 inch from 7 o'clock to 9 o'clock and less than 1/16 inch from 9 o'clock to 3 o'clock. There is no soot or stippling.

After perforating the skin and subcutaneous tissue of the medial right upper leg, the bullet subsequently perforates the musculature of the right upper leg and the subcutaneous tissue and skin of the posterior right upper leg.

There is a gunshot wound of exit of the posterior right upper leg located 41-3/8 inches from the top of the head and along the posterior midline of the right leg. The irregularly-shaped wound measures 3/8 x 1/4 inch and has a 3/8 x 1/4 inch brown abrasion that extends along the 12 o'clock to 2 o'clock margin. There is no soot or stippling.

Associated with this wound is hemorrhage and pulpifaction of the wound track.

The direction is left to right and front to back with no significant vertical deviation.
II. OTHER INJURIES:

There are clusters of dry red-brown abrasions on the right shoulder, right side of the chest and dorsum of the right wrist and hand. Scattered larger red-brown abrasions are on the abdomen.

III. OTHER ITEMS RECOVERED:

Tiny, white metal fragments of apparent projectile are recovered from between the maxillary teeth, the right upper arm and the decedent's clothing. These fragments are photographed, sealed within appropriately labeled envelopes and submitted to a representative of the Chicago Police Department.

These injuries, having been once described, will not be repeated.

EVIDENCE SUBMITTED

The following items are collected, sealed within appropriately labeled containers and submitted to a representative of the Chicago Police Department:

- Clothing
- Blood standard
- Projectiles

INTERNAL EXAMINATION

Body Cavities: See Evidence of Injury. The thoracic and abdominal organs are in their normal anatomic positions. There are no adhesions.

Head: See Evidence of Injury. The skull is unremarkable. The dura and dural sinuses are unremarkable. The leptomeninges are thin and delicate. The cerebral hemispheres are symmetrical with an unremarkable gyral pattern. The cranial nerves and blood vessels are unremarkable. Sections through the cerebral hemispheres, brainstem and cerebellum are unremarkable. There are no hemorrhages of the deep white matter or the basal ganglia. The cerebral ventricles contain no blood. The brain weighs 1325 grams. The spinal cord as viewed from the cranial cavity is unremarkable.
Neck: See Evidence of Injury. The hyoid bone is intact.

Cardiovascular System: The intimal surface of the abdominal aorta is free of significant atherosclerosis. The aorta and its major branches and the great veins are normally distributed. The pulmonary arteries contain no thromboemboli. The pericardium, epicardium and endocardium are smooth, glistening and unremarkable. The foramen ovale is closed. The coronary arterial system is normally formed and free of significant atherosclerosis. The atrial and ventricular septa are intact. The cardiac valves are unremarkable. The myocardium is dark red-brown and firm and there are no focal abnormalities. The heart weighs 360 grams.

Respiratory System: See Evidence of Injury. The oropharynx is unobstructed. The laryngeal mucosa is pink, smooth, and without petechiae. The pleural surfaces are smooth and glistening. The major bronchi are unremarkable. Sectioning of the lungs discloses a dark red, moderately congested parenchyma.

Hepatobiliary System: The liver is covered by a smooth glistening capsule. The parenchyma is dark red-brown and moderately congested. The liver weighs 1062 grams. The gallbladder contains approximately 10 mL of dark green-brown bile with no calculi.

Gastrointestinal System: The esophageal mucosa is gray, smooth, and unremarkable. The stomach contains approximately 20 mL of blood. There are no tablets or capsules. The gastric mucosa has normal rugal folds and is unremarkable. The small and large intestines are externally unremarkable. The appendix is present.

Genitourinary System: The left kidney is absent. The capsule of the right capsule strips with ease to reveal a smooth and slightly lobulated surface. The cortex is of normal thickness with well-demarcated corticomedullary junctions. The calyx, pelvis and ureter is unremarkable. The urinary bladder contains approximately 200 mL of clear yellow urine. The mucosa is gray, smooth, and unremarkable. The prostate gland is unremarkable externally.

Endocrine System: The thyroid and adrenal glands are unremarkable externally and upon sectioning.
Lymphoreticular System: The spleen is covered by a smooth, blue-gray intact capsule. The parenchyma is dark red and firm. The cervical, hilar, and peritoneal lymph nodes are unremarkable.

Musculoskeletal System: See Evidence of Injury. The clavicles, sternum and pelvis have no fractures.

FINDINGS

I. Gunshot wound of the left scalp (graze wound):
   A. Location: Left parietal scalp.
   B. Injuries: Mild subscalpular hemorrhage and thin subarachnoid hemorrhage.
   C. Direction: Indeterminate.
   D. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on skin).

II. Gunshot wound of the neck:
   A. Entrance: Left base of the neck.
   B. Path: Perforations of neck musculature and trachea.
   C. Recovery: Medium caliber bullet recovered from the right supraspinatus muscle.
   D. Direction: Left to right, slightly front to back and slightly downward.
   E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on skin).

III. Gunshot wound of the left chest:
   A. Entrance: Left upper chest.
   B. Path: Perforations of the musculature of the left chest, left lateral back and left upper arm.
   C. Exit: Posterior left upper arm.
   D. Direction: Front to back, right to left and downward.
   E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on skin).
IV. Gunshot wound of the right chest:

A. Entrance: Right side of the chest.
B. Path: Perforations of the musculature of the right chest, the right fourth rib and right fourth intercostal muscle, the right lung and the right sixth intercostal muscle.
C. Recovery: Markedly deformed bullet fragment recovered from the right latissimus dorsi muscle.
D. Direction: Front to back, left to right and slightly downward.
E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).

V. Gunshot wound of the left elbow:

A. Entrance: Lateral left elbow.
B. Path: Perforations of the musculature of the left upper arm and the left humerus.
C. Exit: Medial left upper arm.
D. Direction: Left to right, back to front and slightly upward.
E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).

VI. Gunshot wound of the right upper arm:

A. Entrance: Posterior right upper arm.
B. Path: Perforations of the musculature of the right upper arm and the right humerus.
C. Exit: Medial right upper arm.
D. Direction: Back to front, downward and slightly left to right.
E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).
VII. Gunshot wound of the left forearm:
   A. Entrance: Dorsal left forearm.
   B. Path: Perforations of the musculature of the left forearm, the left radius and the left ulna.
   C. Exit: Medial left forearm.
   D. Direction: Back to front, slightly right to left and slightly downward.
   E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).

VIII. Gunshot wound of the lateral right upper leg:
   A. Entrance: Lateral right upper leg.
   B. Path: Perforations of the musculature of the right upper leg, the pelvic floor and the medial left upper leg.
   C. Recovery: Medium caliber bullet recovered from the medial left upper leg.
   D. Directions: Right to left, downward and slightly front to back.
   E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).

IX. Gunshot wound of the left upper back:
   A. Entrance: Left upper back.
   B. Path: Perforations of the musculature of the left back.
   C. Exit: Left lateral back.
   D. Direction: Right to left and downward with no significant deviation forwards or backwards.
   E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).

X. Gunshot wound of the left elbow:
   A. Entrance: Lateral left elbow.
   B. Path: Perforations of the musculature of the left elbow, the left humerus and the left ulna.
   C. Exit: Medial left elbow.
   D. Direction: Left to right and downward with no significant forward or backward deviation.
   E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).
XI. Gunshot wound of the right upper arm:

A. Entrance: Posterior right upper arm.
B. Path: Perforations of the musculature of the right upper arm and right upper back.
C. Exit: Right upper back.
D. Direction: Right to left, downward and slightly front to back.
E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).

XII. Gunshot wound of the right arm:

A. Entrance: Dorsal right forearm.
B. Path: Perforation of the musculature of the right upper arm.
C. Recovery: Medium caliber bullet recovered from the musculature of the anterior right upper arm.
D. Direction: Back to front and upward with no significant lateral deviation.
E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).

XIII. Gunshot wound of the right forearm:

A. Entrance: Dorsal right forearm.
B. Path: Perforations of the musculature of the right forearm.
C. Recovery: Large fragment of projectile recovered from the right forearm.
D. Direction: Upward and slightly back to front with no significant lateral deviation.
E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).
XIV. Gunshot wound of the right hand:

   A. Entrance: Dorsum of the right hand.
   B. Path: Perforations of the musculature of the right hand.
   C. Recovery: Fragments of projectile recovered from the dorsum of the right hand.
   D. Direction: Slightly left to right and slightly upward with no significant deviation forward or backwards.
   E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin on the hand).

XV. Gunshot wound of the lower back:

   A. Entrance: Right lower back.
   B. Path: Perforations of the sacrum and left abdominal wall musculature.
   C. Recovery: Medium caliber bullet recovered from the soft tissue of the left abdominal wall.
   D. Direction: Back to front, right to left and upward.
   E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).

XVI. Gunshot wound of the right upper leg:

   A. Entrance: Medial right upper leg.
   B. Path: Perforation of the musculature of the right upper leg.
   C. Exit: Posterior right upper leg.
   D. Direction: Left to right and front to back without significant vertical deviation.
   E. Range of fire: Indeterminate (no soot or stippling on the skin).

XVII. Abrasions of the right shoulder, chest, abdomen hand and wrist.

XVIII. Small, probable projectile fragments recovered from the mouth, skin of the right upper arm and the clothing.

XIX. Post-mortem toxicology negative for benzoylecgonine, ethanol and opiates.

XX. Police-involved shooting.
OPINION

Based on the case history and autopsy findings, it is my opinion that LAQUAN MCDONALD, a 17-year-old black male, died as the result of multiple gunshot wounds.

Officer Safety Alert # 2012-05A-297
07 Dec 2012
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D —
related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

Preliminary Statement on Police Involved Shooting – 4100 Block of S. Pulaski

On Monday, October 20, 2014, at approximately 9:45 pm, officers assigned to the 008th District (Chicago Lawn) were investigating a 911 call of a male subject who was breaking into vehicles in the vicinity of the 4100 block of S. Karlov. Responding uniformed officers approached a subject who produced a knife and proceeded to puncture the front passenger tire and damage the front windshield of their marked Chicago Police vehicle. The offender fled on foot with officers in pursuit. Near the intersection of 4100 S. Pulaski, uniformed officers confronted the armed offender who refused to comply with orders to drop the knife and continued to approach the officers. As a result of this action, the officer discharged his weapon striking the officer. The offender was transported to an area hospital where he succumbed to his injuries. No officers were injured during the incident.

This matter remains under investigation and all further media inquiries can be directed to the Independent Police Review Authority at 312-446-3298.

Chicago police shot and killed a 17-year-old boy on the Southwest Side after the teen refused to put down a knife, authorities said.

Police received a call of someone trying to break into cars near 40th and Karlov in Archer Heights around 9:45 p.m. Monday, according to Pat Camden, a spokesman for the Fraternal Order of Police.

A squad car arrived on the scene, and officers spotted the teen -- later identified as Laquan McDonald -- standing next to a car with a knife in his hand, Camden said. The teen began walking toward Pulaski Road and ignored the officers' requests to drop the knife, Camden said.

"He's got a 100-yard stare. He's staring blankly," Camden said of the teen. "[He] walked up to a car and stabbed the tire of the car and kept walking."
Officers remained in their car and followed McDonald as he walked south on Pulaski Road. More officers arrived and police tried to box the teen in with two squad cars, Camden said. McDonald punctured one of the squad car’s front passenger-side tires and damaged the front windshield, police and Camden said.

Officers got out of their car and began approaching McDonald, again telling him to drop the knife, Camden said. The boy allegedly lunged at police, and one of the officers opened fire.

McDonald was shot in the chest and taken to Mount Sinai Hospital, where he was pronounced dead at 10:42 p.m. He lived in the 500 block of North Springfield Avenue, about 5 miles from where he was shot.

Camden said a knife was recovered from the scene. A statement from Police News Affairs said no officers were injured.

Camden said none of the officers who responded had a Taser to use on the teen and were trying to detain him long enough for one to arrive. He said officers were forced to defend themselves.

"When police tell you to drop a weapon, all you have to do is drop it," Camden said.

As with all Chicago police-involved shootings, the Independent Police Review Authority was investigating.

In other shootings, at least three people were injured since Monday afternoon, police said.

About 4:10 a.m., a 25-year-old man walked into Northwestern Memorial Hospital with a gunshot wound to the leg, police said.

The man was shot in the 100 block of East Ohio Street in River North, police said. He drove himself to Northwestern Memorial, where he was treated.

About 7:25 p.m., a 20-year-old man was shot in the 6700 block of South Hermitage Avenue in West Englewood.

The man was outside when he heard gunfire, ran and then felt pain, said Police News Affairs Officer Thomas Sweeney. The man was taken to St. Bernard Hospital, where he was listed in good condition, Sweeney said.

Hours earlier, a 20-year-old man was shot in his leg in Old Town, police said.

The man was shot about 4 p.m. in the 1600 block of North Vine Street, police said. He was taken to Northwestern Memorial, where he was listed in good condition. Police did not immediately provide details about the shooting.

This is a progress report for the case of a violent crime involving a suspect identified as J. Walsh. The report details the events of the investigation as follows:

- On the evening of June 1st, 2014, a witness reported seeing a suspect, identified as J. Walsh, in a black vehicle on the northbound lane of 12th Street.
- Walsh was seen attempting to exit the vehicle and was followed by another vehicle.
- The suspect drove the vehicle further south, and Walsh stopped the vehicle.
- Walsh exited the vehicle and drew a handgun around the rear of the suspect's vehicle.
- Walsh approached the suspect, who was facing north as Walsh approached.
- Walsh said, "Drop the knife!" multiple times.
- Walsh backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance.
- The suspect ignored directions and continued to advance at 12-15 feet, swinging a knife at police.

The report concludes with the recommendation to assess the situation as aggressive and mandating further action.

This case was the subject of a Major Case Review on 30 October 2014. This request is submitted per the results of this review.

The offender, Lequan MCDONALD, assaulted the three victim Chicago Police Officers with a knife, and was shot and killed by victim Police Officer Jason VAN DYKE. MCDONALD's knife and Officer VAN DYKE's weapon were recovered and inventoried. It is requested that Officer VAN DYKE's weapon be examined and compared to the firearms evidence recovered from the scene, and from the offender, MCDONALD, both at Mount Sinai Hospital and at the Office of the Medical Examiner. It is requested that MCDONALD's knife be examined for latent fingerprints, and if any are found, that they be compared to the fingerprints of MCDONALD.

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed /
Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
The full format for this investigation is contained in the previous Progress - Scene Report.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D-----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand.
hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife." MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD’s knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, [REDACTED], who was working at the drive-thru window. [REDACTED] observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. [REDACTED] last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. [REDACTED] then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at [REDACTED] of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. [REDACTED] heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was [REDACTED] of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was [REDACTED] of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse [REDACTED], recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Officer Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY, and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ———

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with . He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on cellular telephone. stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as [redacted] stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

[redacted] stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." [redacted] said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

[redacted] last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [redacted] said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

[redacted] had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, [redacted].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, [redacted] of the 9-1-1 caller, [redacted] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted] attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoryed.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE’s use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department’s use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

Beat 815R responded to an OEMC call of a holding an offender who was breaking into trailers at 4100 S. Kildare. Beat 815R arrived on scene and spoke to the complainant who pointed to the offender who had fled on foot. Beat 815R pursued the offender in their marked vehicle to 4000 S. Karlov, at which time the offender who was acting irrational and was armed with a knife, punctured their front passenger tire, and then struck the windshield with his knife. Beat 815R requested a taser and additional units to respond and assist with the apprehension of the offender. Beat 845R responded to 4112 S. Pulaski and observed the offender still armed with a knife walking in traffic. Beat 845R exited their vehicle and ordered the offender to drop his knife. The offender refused all verbal commands and continued to approach the officers while still armed with his knife. Beat 845R fearing for his life discharged his weapon. The offender sustained numerous gun shot wounds and was transported to Mt. Sinai Hospital where he was subsequently pronounced at 2242 Hours.

OFFICER SAFETY ALERT # 2012-05A-297

07 DEC 2012
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Officer Jason VAN DYKE’s handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D —-

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a “revolver knife” which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
A Midwest intelligence organization is sharing the above captioned photograph for officer safety and awareness.

Officers should take note of the "Revolver Knife" and remain cognizant of its threat to personal safety.

If an officer recovers any such weapon, they are asked to notify CPIC.
On April 29, 2016, the reporting investigator (RI) spoke on the telephone with Chicago Police Department (CPD) Deputy Chief Keith Calloway. Calloway was reached at [redacted]. The following summarizes the conversation with Calloway:

Calloway oversees CPD training. Calloway is familiar with the 21-foot rule as a law enforcement principle. CPD has never officially trained its officers on the 21-foot rule. Calloway is sure that a number of CPD police officers have heard of the rule, as have Federal Bureau of Investigation special agents and police officers from other police departments throughout the country. CPD has no documentation on the 21-foot rule as it has never been a part of CPDs training process.

Calloway characterized the 21-foot rule as junk science because the theory behind it has never been scientifically proven. CPD provides approximately 1,000 hours of training to new police officers during their six months as the training academy. The 21-foot rule is not taught to CPD police officers during that six month period.

The RI asked if Calloway would be able to provide a copy of the training curriculum used at the training academy. Calloway stated that he oversees CPD training at a high level and does not know if CPD has reduced its training curriculum to an electronic file or if it has just one training curriculum manual or multiple manuals. Calloway recommended that the RI speak with either Larry Snelling or Michael Ward about the training curriculum as they are a rank below Calloway and would have more knowledge of the training curriculum documents. Both men are CPD Sergeants.

MR. NEUMER: As a preliminary matter, I am providing the following information. An independent certified court reporter is present today to provide a verbatim transcript of this interview.

To aid in the accuracy of the transcript, it is the custom and practice of court reporters to audio record the interview. The recording is the confidential work product property of the court reporter and will not be provided to any party including the OIG. If you request, the audio recording will be discontinued.

So, Officer Fontaine, are you okay with the court reporter?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: Let the record reflect today's date is March 16, 2016. The time is 12:18 p.m. We are located at Amicus Court Reporters, 300 West Adams, Suite 800.

My name Peter Neumer, N-e-u-m-e-r, the court reporter is Michelle Yohler, and I'd ask that the other individuals present identify themselves and spell their name for the record.
MR. BROWN: Kristohper Brown, B-r-o-w-n,
City of Chicago Inspector General's Office.

MS. RUSSELL: Jennifer Russell,
R-u-s-s-e-l-l, attorney for Officer Fontaine.

THE WITNESS: Officer Dora Fontaine, Star
Number 4484, City of Chicago, CPD.

MR. NEUMER: There are no other individuals present. We are here today pursuant to an investigation being conducted under Chapter 2-56

We're here for an interview of Dora Fontaine.

Officer Fontaine, would you please raise your right hand, and if the court reporter could swear Ms. Fontaine in.

(WHEREUPON, the witness was duly sworn.)

MR. NEUMER: Officer Fontaine, I am now going to hand you a form that is marked Advisement of Rights. This has already been filled in with your name, my name, Investigator Brown's name.

And I'm going to ask that you read along with me as I go through, and then I would just ask you -- after each paragraph, I'll ask you to acknowledge that you have read the paragraph that I have just read. So here's a copy that's already been filled in.

(WHEREUPON, the document was tendered to the witness.)

MR. NEUMER: So the Advisement of Rights states, "I, Dora Fontaine, understand that I am being interviewed by Peter Neumer and Kris Brown from the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General. I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully."

Officer Fontaine, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: I have read it.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me
truthfully. I understand if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the questions. I further understand and I have been advised that
if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes
a violation of the rules and regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the
basis for my discharge."

Officer Fontaine, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: I have.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand and have been advised that my statements and responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's rules and regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand making such false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department."

Officer Fontaine, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I have.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge."
Officer Fontaine, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I have.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding."

Officer Fontaine, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I have.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that I have the right to have a union representative or legal counsel of my choosing present at the interview to consult with and I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly detailed."

Officer Fontaine, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I have.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that a refusal to answer any question or any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56 and may serve as the basis for my discharge."

Officer Fontaine, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I have.

MR. NEUMER: "I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me and I have been allowed to review this document."

Officer Fontaine, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I have.

MR. NEUMER: I would now ask you to sign the Advisement of Rights.

MS. RUSSELL: Prior to Officer Fontaine signing these rights, can you please provide me the Inspector General's position on whether they believe that criminal charges are probable in this matter.

MR. NEUMER: So in response to your statement, I would tell you that the Office of Inspector General is conducting an administrative investigation, not a criminal investigation. OIG is not conducting a joint investigation and is not working with any other law enforcement agency with respect to this investigation.

MS. RUSSELL: So is it the Inspector General's position that criminal charges are not probable against Officer Fontaine?

MR. NEUMER: It is the OIG's position that this is -- that the OIG is not conducting a criminal investigation.

MS. RUSSELL: So my question was, do you believe criminal charges are probable or not probable? What is the Inspector General's position on that?

MR. NEUMER: We don't have a criminal investigation here.

MS. RUSSELL: So is it correct to say that you believe that criminal charges are not probable?

MR. NEUMER: What we can say is, based on the investigation that the Office of Inspector General is conducting, this investigation pursuant to which Officer Fontaine is being interviewed, it is not a criminal investigation.

We are the -- the rights we just read
Officer Fontaine are compelled administrative rights, and, as Officer's been advised, the statements you make during this interview cannot be used against you in a criminal proceeding.

MS. RUSSELL: So as you are aware, the union has filed an injunction on behalf of Officer Fontaine and similarly-situated officers regarding their rights per the contract, regardless of whether the Inspector General deems their investigation administrative or otherwise, that the officer has the right to receive her constitutional advisements to remain silent if criminal charges are probable, not whether the Office of Inspector General is conducting an administrative or has deemed it any other type of investigation.

Can we take a minute?

MR. NEUMER: Sure. We'll go off the record. The time is 12:25 p.m.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: We're back on the record. The time is 12:27 p.m.

Officer Fontaine, I understand you have a statement you would like to make?
THE WITNESS: I would like to preface the statement with the following: I believe I am entitled to be informed of my Constitutional rights to remain silent. I have received no assurance from the Office of Inspector General that criminal charges are not probable. Proceeding with this statement is in violation of the applicable Collective Bargaining Agreement, but I have been advised that I will lose my job if I refuse to provide a statement.

MR. NEUMER: The Office of Inspector General would note that the outcome of this administrative investigation relates to the subject's employment, and, therefore, under the CBA and General Order the administrative rights OIG has provided Officer Fontaine are appropriate.

In addition, the arguments being put forward would eviscerate Garrity, and we are going to proceed as we believe we are legally entitled to.

MS. RUSSELL: At this point, as counsel on behalf of Officer Fontaine, we are seeking an order from a senior officer before she proceeds.

MR. NEUMER: Officer Fontaine, is it fair to say that you will not answer questions from the Office of Inspector General regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting?

THE WITNESS: Absent an order of a senior officer.

MR. NEUMER: You will not answer questions regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting?

THE WITNESS: Correct.

MR. NEUMER: At this time I am going to place a phone call to Commander Robert Klimas.

Counsel, is it fair to say that you agreed that we could have Commander Klimas order Officer Fontaine to answer questions via telephone?

MS. RUSSELL: Correct.

MR. NEUMER: The time is 12:30 and we're going to go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record.)

MR. NEUMER: The time is 12:31 p.m. We'll going back on the record. Counsel has agreed to have us place the call to Commander Klimas via Mr. Neumer's Blackberry.

MS. RUSSELL: That's correct.

(PHONE RINGING.)

COMMANDER KLIMAS: Bob Klimas.

MR. NEUMER: Bob, I have you on speakerphone. This is Peter Neumer from the Chicago Inspector General's Office. Can you hear me?

COMMANDER KLIMAS: Yes, I can.

MR. NEUMER: Officer Fontaine, can you hear Commander Klimas?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I can.

MR. NEUMER: Commander Klimas, we are currently in a court-reported interview of Officer Dora Fontaine. Her counsel, Jennifer Russell, is here, Investigator Kris Brown, and Assistant Inspector General Peter Neumer are all here.

The Office of Inspector General, having provided appropriate notice to Officer Fontaine of this interview, is attempting to ask Officer Fontaine questions regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting. She has refused to answer questions regarding the shooting absent a command from her superior officer, so I am asking you, Commander Klimas, to order Officer Fontaine to answer the Inspector General's questions.

COMMANDER KLIMAS: This is Commander Robert Klimas, K-l-i-m-a-s, with the Chicago Police Department, Bureau of Internal Affairs.

Officer Dora Fontaine, I'm giving you a direct order to answer all the questions posed to you today by Peter Neumer or his designees from the Office of Inspector General, City of Chicago.

THE WITNESS: Thank you. Yes, sir.

COMMANDER KLIMAS: Very good. Thank you.

MR. NEUMER: Thank you.

So with respect to -- I think where we were was the advisement form. We had made it through the end and we had asked that you sign the advisement form.

MS. RUSSELL: Tendering it back to you.

MR. NEUMER: And we are going to mark this Advisement of Rights form as [Exhibit 1].
(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 1, for identification, as of 03/16/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. And now I am going to mark several exhibits now. Officer Fontaine, these are exhibits that should have been provided to you, and I think were provided to you by IAD on February 22, 2016.

So first is what we’re going to mark as Exhibit 2, a document entitled Notification of Interview for CPD Member dated February 22, 2016.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 2, for identification, as of 03/16/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Officer Fontaine, have you seen this Notice of Interview previously?

A. Yes.

Q. And did IAD provide you with this Notice of Interview on or about February 22, 2016?

A. Yes.
Q. I am now going to mark as Exhibit 3 a document titled Notification of Allegations also dated February 22, 2016.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 3, for identification, as of 03/16/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Same question, have you seen the Notification of Allegations document previously?

A. Yes.

Q. And did IAD provide you with this Notification of Allegations on or about February 22, 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. I am now going to mark as Exhibit 4 a document entitled Receipt Form dated February 22, 2016.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 4, for identification, as of 03/16/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Have you seen this receipt form previously, Officer Fontaine?

A. Yes.
Q. And did you sign this Receipt Form on February 22, 2016?
A. Yes.

Q. And actually I should ask you the same question with respect to Exhibits 2 and 3, which I'll just put back in front of you. Did you sign Exhibits 2, the Notice of Appearance, and Exhibit 3, the Notification of Allegations on February 22, 2016?
A. Yes.

MS. RUSSELL: For the record, regarding Exhibit Number 4, while it indicates that audio files were provided to Officer Fontaine from Beat Number 813 Robert and 845 Robert, no audio files were found on the disk she was provided.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I'm now going to mark as Exhibit 5 what is an excerpt of a CPD Case Supplementary Report dated March 16, 2015, with the RD Number HX475653 containing Officer Fontaine's statement to Detective March?

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 5, for identification, as of 03/16/2016.)
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Officer Fontaine, have you seen the Exhibit 5 document, the Case Supplementary Report excerpt?

MR. NEUMER: We'll go off the record. The time is 12:38.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record.)

MR. NEUMER: The time is 12:40 p.m. We're back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So I will ask you the question again. With respect to Exhibit 5, excerpt of a CPD Case Supplementary Report with the RD Number HX475653, Officer Fontaine, have you seen this document before?

A. Yes.

Q. And did IAD provide you with this document on or about February 22, 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. I am now going to provide you with a document that has been previously marked Exhibit 6. This is a General Progress Report dated October 20th, 2014, with the RD Number HX475653 containing Detective March's notes of his interview with Officer Fontaine.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 6, for identification, as of 03/16/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Officer Fontaine, have you seen the General Progress Report marked as Exhibit 6?

A. Yes.

Q. I should say, have you seen it prior to today?

A. Yes.

Q. Did IAD provide you with the General Progress Report marked as Exhibit 6 on or about February 22, 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. In order to prepare for today's interview, did you review the materials that IAD provided you, the Exhibits 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 we showed you?

MS. RUSSELL: She has a preliminary statement she wants to make. Is now the appropriate time or when we get into the interview proper?
MR. NEUMER: I think if you want to make that preliminary statement now, that's fine.
I'm just going to ask about sort of these materials. So I'll leave it up to you.

MS. RUSSELL: Let's just wait until after the exhibits.

MR. NEUMER: And then if you feel we're going too far into the substance, stop me and we'll go forward.

MS. RUSSELL: Okay.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. In order to prepare for today's interview, Officer Fontaine, did you review the materials that IAD provided you from OIG including the Notification of Interview, the Notification of Allegations, the Receipt Form, the excerpt of a CPD Case Supplementary Report, and a General Progress Report?

A. Yes.

Q. And the materials that IAD provided you also included video from an in-car video systems of Beat 813R vehicle and the Beat 845R vehicle; is that correct?

A. Yes.
Q. And that DVD also contained video from a Dunkin' Donuts security camera as well; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you review those videos I mentioned, the Beat 813R video, the Beat 845R vehicle video, and the Dunkin' Donuts security camera video prior to today's interview?

A. Yes.

Q. Since receiving our Notice of Interview, did you review any materials other than the materials provided to you by IAD on our behalf?

A. No.

Q. Aside from your attorney, who did you speak to in preparation for this interview?

MS. RUSSELL: I'm going to have her read them now.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. This statement is not being made voluntarily but under duress and is only being made at this time because I know that I will lose my job if I refuse direct order being given to me by Commander Klimas. I am invoking each and every right granted to me under Garrity versus New Jersey.

Also on the advice of counsel I am making the following additional objections: I am objecting to the fact that the City of Chicago Inspector General's Office is making allegations against me and conducting an investigation into its own allegations.

I am objecting that this interview is taking place before an arbitrator has decided the issues that were raised in regards to the investigation. The Fraternal Order of Police has filed a grievance and injunction regarding this investigation, and the Inspector General refuses to postpone this interrogation.

I am also objecting that I have requested my prior sworn testimony, namely the testimony I provided to the grand jury. The Inspector General refuses to provide me with a copy of my grand jury testimony and/or any other statement I have made to the federal investigators in violation of my rights under the contract.

The Inspector General indicated that it is not -- that it does not have possession of my grand jury testimony. To the extent I am questioned about any grand jury testimony, I assert that the testimony is truthful and was based upon my recollection at the time. I stand by all of my answers.

MR. NEUMER: OIG again notes that we are conducting an administrative investigation, not a criminal investigation. We're not conducting a joint investigation or working with any law enforcement agency with respect to this
investigation.

OIG does not have the subject's grand jury statement in its possession, and under the CBA, the OIG does not have an obligation to provide the subject a statement that's not in its possession.

In addition, we would note that the OIG is legally entitled to proceed and there are no legal arguments under Garrity that would prevent OIG from moving forward here.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I believe the question that was pending prior to Officer Fontaine's statement was, aside from your attorney, who did you speak to in preparation for this interview?

   A. No one.

   Q. At this time, I want to ask you some background questions.

   MR. NEUMER: Counsel, the way we would propose working is, I'm asking Officer Fontaine questions regarding different subject areas. At the end of a subject area, I would give my counsel -- my colleague here an opportunity to ask cleanup questions, any follow-up questions that I failed to ask. Is that --

   MS. RUSSELL: That's acceptable. You'll be the primary investigator?

   MR. NEUMER: I'm going to be the primary questioner, and then, again, at the end of each section, I'll see if Investigator Brown has any follow-up cleanup. I think in that way we can move forward in the most expeditious manner.

   MS. RUSSELL: That's fine.

   BY MR. NEUMER:

   Q. Officer Fontaine, what is your name and star number?

   A. Dora Fontaine, 4484.
Q. And what's your current unit of assignment?

A. Unit 8, District 8.

Q. What was your unit of assignment on October 20th, 2014?

A. I'm sorry, is it a beat -- the beat car? Or the unit is 8, District 8.

Q. So District 8 was your unit of assignment on October 20th, 2014?

A. The unit of assignment, that's where I was at.

Q. And what watch were you on as of October 20th, 2014?

A. First watch.

Q. What was your chain of command as of October 20th, 2014?

A. I don't understand.

Q. Who was your sergeant --

A. Oh, my sergeant was Sergeant Franko.

Q. Lieutenant?

A. Lieutenant was Lieutenant Cook.

Q. Commander?

A. Commander O'Donnell.

Q. And do you know those individuals' first names?
A. James O'Connor was the commander; Jerry Cook, lieutenant; Stephen -- Steve Franko, sergeant.

Q. Officer Fontaine, what's your personal cell phone number?
A. . I'm sorry, I gave you too many. It's ********.

Q. Was that the same cell phone number you had as of October 20th, 2014?
A. Yes.

Q. I want to talk to you a little bit about your appearance before the grand jury. You were summoned to give testimony before a federal grand jury regarding the McDonald shooting; is that correct?
A. Yes.

Q. And did you give testimony before a federal grand jury?
A. Yes.

Q. When did you give testimony before the federal grand jury?
A. I don't recall.

Q. Do you recall a month?
A. No, I don't recall.

Q. Was it in 2015?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Was it -- you don't recall whether it was 2016?

A. No.

Q. Was it -- well, did you assert your rights under the Fifth Amendment and refuse to testify?

A. At the grand jury?

Q. Yes.

A. No.

Q. Were you given immunity to testify before the grand jury?

A. No.

Q. How long were you testifying before the federal grand jury?

A. I don't recall.

Q. More than an hour?

A. I don't recall the time.

Q. It wasn't more than a day, was it?

You weren't brought back for another?

A. No, it wasn't.

Q. So it was less than a day?
A. Yes.

Q. But you don't recall whether it was as brief as five minutes or --

A. No, I don't know the time frame on that.

Q. Did you provide a written statement to the grand jury?

A. No.

Q. What subjects were you asked about before the grand jury?

A. I don't recall.

Q. So have you testified before a federal grand jury as the -- ever before? Is this the only time you've ever testified before a federal grand jury?

A. On behalf of myself?

Q. Yes.

A. Yes.

Q. And that testimony, would you consider it to be relatively important in that I assume that if you had -- if you lied to the grand jury, that would potentially subject you to criminal liability?

A. Yes.
Q. So the accuracy of your testimony was extremely important; isn't that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. You wanted to answer the questions you were asked correctly, right?
A. Yes.
Q. So you have no recollection as to what you were asked?
A. No.
Q. Were you asked about the Laquan McDonald shooting?
A. Yes.
Q. And what were you asked about the Laquan McDonald shooting?
MS. RUSSELL: Do you mind if we take a quick break?
MR. NEUMER: Sure. We'll go off the record. 12:52 p.m.
(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)
MR. NEUMER: The time is 12:55 p.m. We'll go back on the record.
BY MR. NEUMER:
Q. I just want to sort of go back.
Officer Fontaine, you did give testimony before a federal grand jury, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And, again, I would imagine that was a stressful occasion?

A. Yes.

Q. And an important event for you?

A. Yes.

Q. Any recollection of, as you were going through, was it like summer of 2015, was it fall of 2015? I would think that date would stick out in your head perhaps.

A. It doesn't. I don't know why, but it doesn't.

Q. Okay. I believe you said you were asked questions about the Laquan McDonald shooting; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And can you give us a sense of what type of questions you were asked about the Laquan McDonald shooting?

A. I -- I -- the problem is that there was so many different things going on at the time, different scenarios going on, the questioning, the kind of question. So I was asked about what I saw.

Q. Okay.
A. What I witnessed. If I would do anything different. Why he did what he did.

Q. Okay.
A. And in that reference, that's why, with the time, it seemed to me like more than three hours or longer, but I could be wrong. But for me personally, it felt like a long time.

Q. So you were asked questions about why Officer Van Dyke did what he did?
A. Or the amount of shots was it correct, I guess.

Q. Were his --
A. Was it proper.

Q. -- actions appropriate?
A. Yes.

Q. And what did you say when they asked you whether his actions were appropriate?
A. I can't answer for anyone else but myself. I don't know what occurred before I arrived on scene. I don't know what he saw. I don't know what he witnessed, so I can't answer that question.
Q. Is that what you told the grand jury?
A. Yes.

Q. And when they asked you if -- I think you said you were asked whether you would do anything different; is that what --
A. Mm-hm.

Q. And how did you respond when asked that question?
A. Unless you're in that -- unless you're in a situation, you don't know how you're going to respond, so it all depends on what's occurring at the time.

Q. You were asked to describe what you saw in terms of witnessing the shooting of Laquan McDonald; is that correct?
A. Yes.

Q. And what did you say when you were asked to describe the shooting?
A. At this time, watching the video and everything else that's coming about it, it's -- honestly, I -- it's all mixed up because of the fact that once they showed me the video, certain parts were different than what I stated.

So, again, I tried to tell the truth as much as I could, but, again, my point of view and my -- what I saw, you know, might look different in a video and that's what's occurring, so I -- that's -- I...

Q. Okay. So you were saying that -- you told the grand jury that -- did you give them sort of a different version of events than the version of events you related to

Detective March?

A. Did I tell them different events from what I told Detective March?

Q. Uh-huh, the grand jury.

A. The grand jury, I told them what I saw at that point in time, what was -- what I remember of the situation. That's what I explained to them at that point in time.

At that time, I had -- I remember telling March what I saw. And, again, after reviewing everything, it -- it kind of differs.

Q. And in what way does it differ?

A. It differs because, by looking at his notes, there's -- where he puts that I said he raised his arm as if attacking Van Dyke, I never stated that or I don't recall stating that to
Q. Prior to your grand jury testimony, who did you speak to about -- in preparation for your grand jury testimony?

THE WITNESS: William Fahy?

BY THE WITNESS:

A. My lawyer.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. And what was your lawyer's name?

A. William Fahy.

Q. Is that F-a-h-e-y?

MS. RUSSELL: No, I think there is no "E."

THE WITNESS: Just the "Y."

MS. RUSSELL: F-a-h-y.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Did you speak to anyone else in preparation for your grand jury testimony other than your attorney?

A. No.

Q. Did you have any communications with Officer Van Dyke before your grand jury testimony?

A. No.

Q. No phone calls?
A. Nope.

Q. No texts?

A. Nope.

Q. No e-mails?

A. Nope.

Q. Do you know Officer Van Dyke's personal cell phone number?

A. Nope.

Q. Do you have it in your phone?

A. Nope.

Q. Did you have communications with any of the other officers present at the McDonald shooting prior to your grand jury testimony?

A. I work with them.

Q. Did you have communications with the other officers present at the scene of the McDonald shooting regarding the McDonald shooting prior to your grand jury testimony?

A. Like in detail what's going on or --

Q. Did you discuss the Laquan McDonald shooting with any of the other officers who were present at the scene of the shooting prior to your grand jury testimony?

A. About what occurred or just -- we did discuss like, Oh, I'm going to the grand jury.
They asked me, Are you going to the grand jury
this date? Yes.
But about that night, no. Just about, you know, Oh, I got notified for this.
Did you get notified for this?
Q. I would think that, you know, it would be normal to sort of discuss what you saw that night. Were you specifically trying not to talk about the Laquan McDonald shooting with the other officers who were present at the scene of
the shooting?
MS. RUSSELL: It's okay. Go ahead.
BY THE WITNESS:
A. No, I didn't want to talk about it.
BY MR. NEUMER:
Q. You didn't want to talk about it?
A. No.
Q. So it was your own decision that I'm not going to discuss the Laquan McDonald shooting with any of the other officers present who were at the scene that night?
A. Yeah.
Q. At the -- when you were at the grand jury, were you presented with any of the reports we've just introduced as exhibits, your statement to Detective March, the GPR?

A. I don't recall.

Q. No recollection of being provided with any exhibits?

A. No, I don't recall.

Q. Is it possible -- you just don't recall one way or the other?

A. No, I don't.

Q. Prior to your testimony before the grand jury, did you make any attempt to ensure that the statement you were going to make accorded with the other officers' statements who were present at the scene of the shooting?

A. I'm sorry?

Q. Prior to your grand jury testimony, did you make any attempt to sync up your story with the other officers who were present at the scene of the McDonald shooting?

A. No.

Q. Were you interviewed by the FBI regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting?

A. Yes.
Q. Do you recall when you were interviewed by the FBI?
A. No.
Q. Were you interviewed multiple times by the FBI?
A. No, just --
Q. Just one time?
A. -- once, mm-hm.
Q. Who was interviewing you?
A. I don't remember.
Q. Do you remember how many people were interviewing you?
A. I want to say it was two FBI agents and I think it was a State's Attorney and my lawyer and myself --
Q. Do you recall --
A. -- I think.
Q. Do you recall where that interview took place?
A. I don't recall.
Q. And what was the nature of that interview? What did they ask you; what did you say?
A. The same thing, about what occurred that day, what happened, what was I working, who was I working with, what I saw.

Q. And did you describe the shooting incident to the FBI?

A. Yes.

Q. Did the statement you gave to the FBI regarding the shooting differ at all from your grand jury testimony?

A. No.

Q. Did the statement you gave to the FBI regarding the shooting differ at all from the statements you made to Detective March?

A. I'm sorry, what was it?

Q. Did the testimony -- well, did the statement you made to the FBI regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting, did that differ at all from the statements you made to Detective March regarding the shooting?

A. Not the statement I gave, no.

Q. So the statement you gave to the FBI was the same as the statement you gave to Detective March regarding the shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. I want to talk to you now about October 20th, 2014. You were present on October 20th, 2014, when Laquan McDonald was shot, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And do you know following the shooting which officers were responsible for controlling the perimeter of the shooting scene?

A. They sent us and anybody -- I don't know anybody else.

Q. Who's the "they"?

A. I'm sorry, the sergeant.

Q. The sergeant sent you to the scene of -- prior to the shooting, correct?

A. No. No. No.

Q. Okay. Walk me through it. Walk me through it.

A. Sorry.

Q. It's okay.

A. Prior -- there was a call coming out. That's how we responded.

Q. So you get a call; you respond to the scene prior to the shooting?

A. We respond and it's a -- basically it's occurring.
Q. There's an event that's occurring?
A. Yes.

Q. Yes. So you proceed to 41st and Pulaski?
A. Yes.

Q. And tell us then where does the sergeant call come in?
A. When we get there, everything is chaos. The sergeant -- I don't recall if he went over the air and told us to go do traffic or he went like -- or told us to do traffic on scene.

Q. Okay.
A. But we went towards going south.

Q. On Pulaski?
A. On Pulaski. To block off the traffic coming north.

Q. Okay. So which sergeant gave you that?
A. Sergeant Franko.

Q. So Sergeant Franko gives you and -- Officer Viramontes, is it?
A. Yes.

Q. To sort of do traffic control?
A. Yes.

Q. And then you proceeded to block off a portion of Pulaski?

A. Yes.

Q. So at any time while you were blocking off Pulaski, did you ever direct any civilian witnesses to the shooting to leave the scene?

A. No -- well, we were sent to block traffic. Then Sergeant Franko goes over the air and says give 41 Robert the paper.

Q. What does that mean?

A. Which means that we're in charge of having to do the paperwork for the shooting.

Q. Okay.

A. So we arrive, we're barely getting off, we turn around, and we go back to the scene.

MS. RUSSELL: Let me just -- can you read back the question. So listen to the question he asked you.

(WHEREUPON, THE RECORD WAS BY THE REPORTER AS FOLLOWS:)
"QUESTION: So at any time while you were blocking off Pulaski, did you ever direct any civilian witnesses to the shooting to leave the scene?"

BY THE WITNESS:
A. No.

BY MR. NEUMER:
Q. I just want to make sure we're all clear here. So the shooting occurs -- and correct me if I misstate anything.

The shooting occurs, you get, I'll call it an order, from Sergeant Franko over the radio to do traffic control?
A. I'm not sure if it was over the air or not. It was -- everything was going crazy. I -- we looked at him and then, you know, we -- I looked at him and stuff, and then he kind of went like that (indicating), so it's block off traffic.

Q. So it was -- Sergeant Franko was on the scene?
A. Yes.
Q. And are we talking like minutes after the shooting?

A. I don't know.

Q. So Sergeant Franko has arrived on the scene, correct?

A. Mm-hm.

Q. He orders you -- or he gestures you sort of with his hand to do traffic control?

A. Yeah.

Q. You interpreted it to say --

A. Yes.

Q. -- Officer Viramontes and I are on traffic control?

Okay. So then you block off part of the street on Pulaski?

A. Yes.

Q. And then you mentioned you got an order to do some paper. Is that -- meaning like do the write-up for --

A. Yes.

Q. -- or what is that paper? What is the paperwork that you were instructed to do?

A. It's a report, and you just have to log in everybody who's on scene as best as you can and put a narrative stating to "See Detective Supplementary," that's it.

Q. And did you complete that report?
A. Yes.

Q. Where did you complete that report?
A. On the street.

Q. On the street. So you filled it out by hand?

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

BY THE WITNESS:
A. Oh, on the PDT. On ERA.

BY MR. NEUMER:
Q. Tell me what a PDT is.
A. It's like a computer, like this (indicating).

Q. So where was that PDT located?
A. It was in the car.

Q. In your vehicle?
A. Yes.

Q. And your vehicle was -- so you were 841 Robert, right?
A. Yes.
Q. So you were doing traffic control and blocking off Pulaski, right? And then did anything else happen before you got this order to do the paperwork?

A. No.

Q. And did you ever leave the scene prior to doing the paperwork?

A. Yes.

Q. Tell us about that.

A. Another sergeant was on scene. They order us to go with the body, McDonald's body, to the hospital. So we were on our way to follow the ambulance. We got called back to the scene.

Q. And who called you back?

A. Sergeant Spreyne.

Q. How do you spell that name?

A. S-p-r-e-y-e -- wait, n-e.

Q. And did that call come over the radio?

A. Yes.

Q. How far did you make it away from the scene?
A. Where were we? We were on the overpass.

Q. On the overpass...

A. Pulaski. So I want to say -- yeah.

Q. About how far away is that?

A. Oh, how far away? Like four or five blocks.

Q. So four or five blocks and then you get called back by Officer Spreyne?

A. Yes. Sergeant Spreyne.

Q. Sergeant Spreyne calls you back and says -- requests that you fill out a report regarding the shooting?

A. Yes, it -- wait, I'm trying to think. Franko gave us the order to do the papers. Spreyne sent us with the body and then he ordered us -- Spreyne ordered us back, yeah. A lot of confusion.

Q. Sure. What's the name of this report that you prepared?

A. It's a case report.

Q. Case report. Okay. So you prepared this case report on the PDT in your vehicle 841 Robert?
Q.  Was Officer Viramontes in the vehicle with you while you prepared this case report?
A.  Yes.

Q.  Did you talk to anyone as you prepared this case report?
A.  We asked for names and stars.

Q.  Who did you ask for names and stars?
A.  Any officer we saw on scene.

Q.  So was it you and Officer Viramontes?
A.  Mm-hm.

Q.  Is it fair to say you kind of collectively filled out this report?
A.  Yes, but there was so many people on scene, we had to call and get a copy of the job --

Q.  What's --
A.  -- which means, in the district, you can pull up our job, put in our number, 841 Robert, and it will notate everybody who's on scene, all the beat cars.

Q.  So what's a job again? When you use the word, "job"?
A.  That's the call. I'm sorry. The Q. So you can type it in and it will -- on your PDT?
A. Not our PDT. In the system. In the district. At the station.
Q. Oh, at the station?
A. Yeah.
Q. Okay. So I'm slightly confused. But you didn't go to the station?
A. No.
Q. You were at the vehicle?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you call someone at the station?
A. Yes.
Q. And you said, Hey, I'm on this job --
A. Can you please do that. Because we were trying to get everybody, but there was so many people, we were -- I didn't want to miss anybody.
Q. Sure. So did you first, though, start to go around the scene in person to talk to everyone who was at the scene to get their star number?
A. Viramontes kind of walked around, and I kind of grabbed whoever I saw closer to me here by the car so...

Q. So do you recall who you -- well -- yeah, do you recall who you talked to at the scene as far as completing this case report?

A. No, there was --

Q. Do you recall any -- did you talk to Officer Van Dyke?

A. No. No.

Q. You know you didn't talk to Officer Van Dyke as part of --

A. No.

Q. -- this case report? Okay. Do you recall anyone who you did talk to?

A. Who did -- I'm trying to think of who I talked to. I mean, from the other --

MS. RUSSELL: If you don't remember, you don't remember.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Yeah, I don't remember because since I knew some of them, I knew them and I knew their beats, so I just, you know, logged them
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q.   Sure.
A.   But there was other people who weren't there from our unit that I kind of grabbed real quick, but I don't -- I didn't -- I didn't know who it was.

Q.   I'm going to -- well, I'll keep going on this line of questioning.
     How long did it take you to complete this case report?
A.   I'm not sure. I'm not sure.
Q.   Give me your best estimate.
A.   Maybe an hour.
Q.   Hour?
A.   Maybe. Because we were waiting for stuff to come to us from the district.
Q.   What stuff?
A.   The printout.
Q.   What's the printout?
A.   Of the job of all the beat cars.
Q.   Oh, they sent that to you?
A.   Yes, somebody actually brought it over to me.
Q. Physical copy of it?
A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So you get a physical copy of the printout of the job and you're talking to various individuals on the scene?
A. No, at that point I started doing the --

Q. But you had --
A. -- the case report.

Q. You had talked to various individuals on the scene just to get their --
A. Yes.

Q. -- star number?
A. And beat number.

Q. And beat number. Okay.
Anyhing else that you did to prepare that case report?
A. That's it.

Q. Any other information-gathering?
A. No, that was it.

Q. And so your best estimate is the completion of that case report took about an hour?
A. Yeah. Maybe less, but yeah.
Q. Again, I'm -- just best estimate. Could be more, could be less?

A. Yeah, I'm not quite sure the time.

Q. Were you on scene the entire time you were completing that case report?

A. Yes.

Q. And what do you do once you complete a case report?

A. Once we complete it, we let the sergeant know it's completed.

Q. And would that be Sergeant Franko?

A. Yes.

Q. And how do you let Sergeant Franko know your case report is completed?

A. We usually -- we either do it over the air or on the PDT.

Q. Do you remember what you did on this occasion?

A. I don't remember on this case.

Q. Did you ever -- once -- is it fair to say you submit a case report?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you hit a button --

A. Mm-hm.
Q. "Submit" or something like that?
A. Mm-hm.

MS. RUSSELL: Answer out loud like "yes" or "no."

BY THE WITNESS:
A. Yes. I'm sorry.

BY MR. NEUMER:
Q. Did you ever hear anything further after you completed that case report? Did anyone ask you about what you had put in that report?
A. No.

Q. So once you hit "send" or "submit," send it on to Franko, that was the last you heard of that case report?
A. Yes.

Q. So other than the completion of the case report, who else did you speak to at the scene of the shooting?
A. The detective.

Q. Which detective?
A. March.

Q. So you spoke to Detective March. Did you speak to anyone -- again, not as part of the completion of the case report, but other than Detective March, did you speak to anyone else at the scene of the shooting?

MS. RUSSELL: Other than the officers she already testified to?

MR. NEUMER: Correct.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Not that I recall.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Did you speak to a Mr. McNaughton?

A. No.

Q. So you did speak to Detective March at the scene of the shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. At approximately what time did you speak to Detective March?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Where were you and where was he when this conversation took place?

A. In my vehicle.

Q. You were in your vehicle, okay.

A. Yes.

Q. Were you completing your case report --
A. Yes.

Q. -- when he came by?

Okay. So during the time you were completing your case report, Detective March stopped by your vehicle?

A. Mm-hm. Yes.

Q. And what did he say to you when he came up to your vehicle?

A. He asked for the RD number and -- I'm really not sure exactly what he asked, but I know it was the RD number, and I think some of the beat cars he wanted to know was on scene.

Q. Was anyone else present when this conversation took place?

A. My partner.

Q. Officer Viramontes was in the car as well?

A. Yes.

Q. Did Detective March ask Officer Viramontes any questions when he came up to the car?

A. I don't know.

Q. Did Detective March ask you any questions about the shooting itself when he came up to your vehicle?

A. Yes.

Q. What did he ask you?

A. Basically like where were we and if we saw anything.

Q. And what did you tell him?

A. I told him that I had seen something.

Q. Did you get into the details of the shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Was Detective March taking notes during this conversation?

A. I don't recall. He had a pad and pencil, but I don't recall him writing anything down.

Q. How long did you speak to Detective March when he was outside your vehicle?

A. It wasn't long.

Q. Less than 15 minutes?

A. Yes.

Q. Was it like less than five minutes?

A. I don't know.

Q. And did Detective March ask questions about the shooting of Officer Viramontes?

A. No.

Q. It was just --

A. I'm sorry, did he ask Viramontes questions?

Q. Sure. Yes.

A. Yes.

Q. Did he -- was he asking you guys kind of like collectively, or was he directing the questions to you or Officer Viramontes?

A. He came to me and then I think he went to him because I was in the middle of doing the report. So after he talked to me, I got back in the car, I'm assuming he went and asked Viramontes.

Q. But you don't know?

A. No.

Q. So did you get outside the vehicle to talk to Detective March?

A. Yes.

Q. So he comes over, you're in the vehicle completing the case report?

A. Yes.

Q. And then you step outside the vehicle to have a conversation with him regarding the shooting?
    A. Yes, he asked me to step out.
Q. So prior to your conversation with Detective March, had you talked to Officer Viramontes about what you witnessed in terms of the McDonald shooting?
    A. No. It happened so fast and we were going here, here, and there, so no.
    Q. There were no conversations between the two of you as to, wow, that was crazy or anything?
    A. No.
    Q. No conversations --
    MS. RUSSELL: She answered.
    BY THE WITNESS:
        A. No.
    BY MR. NEUMER:
    Q. Was that a deliberate decision on your part not to talk to Officer Viramontes?
    A. No, there was so much going on, you don't have time to try to sit there and discuss what occurred because you're trying to do what they're ordering you to do and you're trying to handle your job.

Q. Prior to conversation with Detective March, did you talk to -- did you have any conversations with Officer Mondragon?

A. No.

Q. Is that name familiar to you?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. But you didn’t have any conversations at all about any topics with Officer Mondragon prior to your conversation with Detective March?

A. No.

Q. Did you have any conversations with Officer Sebastian?

A. No.

Q. I'm sorry, my fault, I should have completed my question. Did you have any conversations with Officer Sebastian at the scene of the shooting prior to your conversation with Detective March?

A. No.

Q. Did you have any conversations with Officer Gaffney prior to your conversation with Detective March?
Q. Did you have any conversations with Officer McElligott prior to your conversation with Detective March?
A. No.

Q. How about any conversation with Officer Walsh prior to your conversations with Detective March?
A. No.

Q. At any time while you were at the scene of the shooting, did anyone separate you from the other officers who were at the scene of the shooting?
A. No.

Q. So nothing would have prevented you from talking to, say, Officer Mondragon or Officer Gaffney?
A. No. If I wanted -- no, because -- they were on that side; we were on this side.

Q. Which side were they?
A. They were on the north side; I was on the south side.

Q. North side of Pulaski?
A. They were on the north side of Pulaski.

Q. Closer to -- they were on the north side by like 41st?
A. Honestly, they -- all I know is that they were on the north side. I don't know where.

Q. They were further north than you?
A. Yes.

Q. With respect to Detective March, you talked to him outside the vehicle. I think you estimated it was less than a 15-minute conversation. He asked you questions about the shooting. Is that correct?
A. Yes.

Q. And did you talk to Detective March again that evening regarding the shooting?
A. Yes.

Q. Tell us about that conversation.
A. It was when we went to the area.

Q. And that's at 51st and Wentworth --
A. Yes.

Q. -- is that correct.

A. Area Central?
A. Yes.
Q. How did you get from the scene of the shooting to Area Central?
A. We drove over there.

Q. Who drove?
A. Viramontes.

Q. And you drove the 841 --
A. Robert.

Q. Okay. So is that -- did you drive over to Area Central after you completed the case report?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you do anything between completing the case report and driving over to Area Central?
A. Not that I recall, no.

Q. So pretty much as soon as you complete the case report, you drive from the scene of the shooting to Area Central?
A. Yes.

Q. Were you asked to go to Area Central?
A. Yes.

Q. Who asked you?
A. I don't remember. I don't remember.

I don't remember if it was a detective or the
Q. Are you talking about Detective March or Sergeant Franko?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Is it likely that one of those two --
A. Yes.
Q. -- were the people that, would you say, ordered you to go to Area Central?
A. Well, we have to go after a shooting, so yes.
Q. So they said you have to go to Area Central?
A. Well, yes.
Q. Either Sergeant Franko or Detective March?
A. Yes.
MS. RUSSELL: Can we take one minute, Peter?
MR. NEUMER: We'll go off the record. It is 1:30 p.m.
(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record.)
MR. NEUMER: The time is 1:32 p.m. We're
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. And, Officer Fontaine, I think you were going to provide a little bit of a clarifying narrative as to where you were following the scene of the shooting and what activities you were doing sort of in sequential order. So please proceed.

A. Okay. After the shooting, we moved southbound to do traffic. We went to go do traffic. We were ordered to come back to where the shooting occurred to do the case report.

Once we were there doing the case report, we were ordered to follow the body to the hospital.

Q. And that's Sergeant Spreyne?

A. Sergeant Spreyne. So we start -- we leave the scene again, start following the body.

We were ordered to come back --

Q. By Sergeant Spreyne.

A. -- to do the report, and we come back on scene. We start doing the report, and then Detective March comes up to us and starts asking us questions about -- he asks us about the information -- some information about the report that we have, and then he starts asking us about the shooting. So now we're back on scene.

Then after that, we're done with the report and everything, we go to the area, 51st and Wentworth --

Q. And that's you and Officer Viramontes?

A. Me and Officer Viramontes.

Q. So once you arrived at Area Central, just walk us through where do you go? What happens?

A. Once we get there, there's an FOP representative and IPRA's there. And they tell us they have drinks and stuff, and they say you can use the bathroom. They show us where the restroom is, water, drinks, whatever. And then they have us waiting until the FOP speaks to us.

Q. Who's waiting?

A. All the officers.

Q. Okay.

A. There's all the officers on scene, the sergeants, and they're in -- it's kind of a small place, so it's kind of cubicles and stuff.
So it's --

Q. So lay the scene. You get there. You're waiting in a room to be interviewed; is that correct?

A. That's -- yes, we're there to be interviewed by --

Q. So you're waiting at Area Central and there are other officers --

A. Yes.

Q. -- who were at the scene of the shooting in this room with you?

A. It's like an office.

Q. In an office. Okay.

A. And there's rooms.

Q. Describe this office to -- it's got cubicles?

A. When you walk in, there's tables where I guess the detectives sit and answer phones. And then over here you have rooms, and in the rooms -- it's like an office room, and it has cubicles.

Q. Okay.

A. So there's officers in there, there's officers out there, there's officers in the restroom.

Q. And where are you sitting in this, I'll call it, room?

A. I'm outside. We're outside and then they had pizza so if anybody was hungry.

Q. So you're outside the main room?

A. Yes, at first we're outside --

Q. And is it like a side room, or where are you waiting when you're outside this main room?

A. There -- how should I put it? It's like you have a big room and then it's where all the detectives work. That's their area of work. In the offices, I'm assuming it's for like sergeants and lieutenants. So then there's one room where they have cubicles and they said we're going to wait for FO-- I think FOP was there and wanted to talk to us.

Q. Okay.

A. And then they called us in. We went in there, and then they said, okay, they told officers in order -- IPRA was going to question officers and in what order they were going to question them and who was going to be questioned.

And then once we said okay, we went back out into this main room, and they have computers and stuff, and we sat there and just waited until they told us what to do next.

Q. So you and the other officers who were at the scene of the shooting were waiting in the big room in front of some of the computer stations?

A. Yes.

Q. And what other officers were there when -- waiting with you?

A. It was Viramontes -- it was Viramontes, Mondragon, Sebastian. There was two other officers from afternoon.

Q. Bacerra?

A. I don't -- what's the name?

Q. Officer Bacerra?

A. Bacerra.

Q. And Velez?

A. Bacerra and Velez.

Q. Okay.

Q. Was Officer Van Dyke present?
A. No.

Q. Was Officer Walsh present?
A. I don't remember.

Q. When you were waiting at those computer stations at Area Central with the other officers, did you have any conversation with those other officers about the shooting?
A. No. They just -- they -- it was more like they were talking about having to testify to IPRA. They asked me if I had to, and I'm like, No, they haven't told us that we have to. And that was it.
   Like just, So you goes ain't going to IPRA? I'm like, So far no. Me and Rick thought we were going to be -- me and Viramontes thought we were going to be the last one.
   So everybody was kind of like, you know -- oh, then the detective came and he showed us the video -- he showed me the video.

Q. So while you were waiting at Area Central -- was it Detective March?
A. Yes.

Q. Detective March showed you the video of the Laquan McDonald shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Was this prior -- now, I know you talked to him at the scene of the shooting. Was this prior to when you spoke to him again about the shooting?

A. He showed me the video and he -- you know, he showed me a few things from the video. And I was like, Oh, yeah, this and that. But that was it.

Q. Okay. Was he asking -- at Area Central, was he asking you questions about the shooting prior to showing you the video?

A. Yes.

Q. What kind of questions was he asking?

MS. RUSSELL: Is this in the Area or at the car?

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Sorry, in the area. So everything right now is at Area Central?

A. At the Area. Yeah, he was showing me the video and he says, When he was walking -- he says, "It looks as if he's turning here." And I was like, "Oh, it does."
Q. Did he point out anything else about the video?
A. No.
Q. It was primarily that he was -- okay. That he was -- that Laquan McDonald was turning at some point in the video?
A. Yes.
Q. And what did he -- like, flush that out a little bit more for us. What was he saying? Like how did that come up?
A. He just showed me the video and he was walking -- because I had told him he was walking southbound swaying the knife.

And then that's when -- when we were at the Area, then he showed me the video and he's like, "Oh, is this where he's walking?"
"Yes." He goes, "You see he kind of turns around?" And I'm like, "Oh, yeah, he" -- looking at the video, I said it does look like he kind of turns.

Q. Did Detective March make any other observations about the video that you recall?
A. No.
Q. I want to -- we'll get back to that conversation. I want to -- you mentioned FOP representatives. I want to first ask you, did you talk to any FOP representatives at the scene of the shooting?

A. No.

Q. Did you talk to any FOP representatives at Area Central?

A. Yes.

Q. And what did you -- what were the nature of those conversations?

A. He talked to us as a group.

Q. Who is the "he"?

A. I can't think of his name.

Q. Is it Marlon Harvey? Chris Kato?

A. I can't think of his name.

Q. Not Mr. Harvey or not Mr. Kato?

MS. RUSSELL: If you don't know, say you don't know.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I don't know.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So you talked to a male FOP representative at Area Central?

A. He talked to all of us as a group.
Q. He talked to the officers -- the officers who were present at the scene of the shooting, not including Van Dyke or Walsh?

A. Yeah, I don't recall Walsh. I'm not sure if he was there or not. I can't remember.

Q. And you don't believe that Van Dyke was present and among the --

A. No, he wasn't.

Q. -- the group?

A. No, I don't think he was either.

Q. So an FOP representative is talking to the officers who -- most of the officers who were at the scene of the shooting. What does he say?

A. He kind of -- he just -- what did he say? He tells us about our rights and like what's going to happen at the area with us and what we have to do, and that's it.

Q. And so after the FOP representative kind of walks you through what the process will be, then you continue to wait --

A. Yes.

Q. Again in front of computer stations in the big room --
A. Yes.

Q. -- at Area Central?

Is that on the first floor, second floor?

A. I want to say it's the second floor because it's on top, so I want to say it's two floors there.

Q. Had you been involved in an officer-involved shooting before?

A. Never.

Q. Never. So this was the first.

Did you, while you were waiting, talk with any of the other officers about what you had just seen?

A. No.

Q. I mean, I can imagine it's pretty traumatic, pretty stressful situation. There was no --

A. No. I just -- I don't know. I think I was like in shock, I -- I don't know.

Q. Do you think it would have been inappropriate to talk to the other officers at the scene about what you had just witnessed?

A. I -- yes.
Q. So is it fair to say that after you were waiting -- after the FOP representative spoke to you, you were waiting at the computer station -- just tell us what happened next.

A. People started going in, doing --

Q. Different rooms?

A. -- doing their statements.

Q. Okay. You never talked to IPRA?

A. No.

Q. Correct?

A. No, we never spoke to IPRA.

Q. So folks are going to make their statements to IPRA. Then what happens next?

A. They weren't sure if we were going to go or not, so they wanted us to wait.

Q. Who wasn't sure?

A. Who was it? I'm not sure. I can't remember who was the one advising us to go. No, I don't remember who.

Q. Do you recall who you were waiting next to? Like who was to your right and left?

A. I know Rick was one of them -- Viramontes was one of them. I want to say Bacerra, I'm not sure.

Q. So you're watching people go into the room to get -- give a statement to IPRA, correct?

A. We were sitting down -- I was sitting down.

Q. Mm-hm. Sure.

A. And, you know, everybody was just like kind of doing their own thing on the phones and stuff like that.

Q. Yep. Was anyone texting you about the shooting at all?

A. No.

Q. Anyone call you while you were waiting to be interviewed --

A. No.

Q. -- at Area Central about the shooting?

A. No.

Q. So what happened next while you're waiting? You're seeing them go in to get interviewed; what happens next?

A. They just tell us to wait. We're waiting. I think McElligott and Gaffney come up to us -- I'm trying to think.

MS. RUSSELL: If you don't remember, say you don't remember.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I don't remember.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Do you recall having any conversations with Officer McElligott or Officer Gaffney while you were waiting at Area Central?

A. One of the computers were down, and we were trying to get on it.

Q. For what reason were you trying to get on the computer?

A. I think somebody wanted to play a game or something.

Q. So did you have a conversation with Officer McElligott or Officer Gaffney about the computer that was down?

A. I -- yes, I think I did.

Q. And did you eventually get that computer up and running?

A. I don't remember.
Q. Eventually does Detective March come and get you to talk to you?
A. To show the video at one point. That's it.
Q. So tell us about the interaction. Is he in a room and comes out and says, Officer Fontaine? Or how does he get your attention?
A. Yes, he's in a room. He comes out and says, Can you come here with me? And we go into the room and he shows me the video, and that's it. I come back out.
Q. Is the room small, big? What type of room is it?
A. It's a small room. It's an office.
Q. It's somebody -- is it his office or --
A. I don't know if it's his office or someone's office, but it's an office.
Q. It's someone's office. There's a desk?
A. Yes.
Q. A computer monitor?
A. Yes.
Q. And what does he say -- what does he say to you?

A. He just points out that, "Is that where he turned?" And he goes, "See? It's like he's turning." And I was like, "Yeah, he does look like he's turning."

Q. Did he ask you questions about the shooting prior to -- while you're in this office, so you're in an office. Is he behind a desk, Detective March?

A. No, because he's -- the computer's like right here, and we're both on this side of the desk.

Q. Both behind the desk; is that fair to say?

A. In front of the desk.

Q. In front of the desk?

A. Yeah, I think it's in front or on the side of the desk.

Q. You're on the same side of the desk?

A. Yes.

Q. And you're both looking at a computer monitor?

A. Mm-hm.
Q. Before you're looking at that computer monitor, did he ask you to walk him through the details of the shooting?

A. No.

Q. So he calls you into the office?

A. Mm-hm.

Q. Correct?

MS. RUSSELL: Yes?

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Yes. I'm so sorry.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. He calls you into the office and immediately directs your attention to the computer monitor?

A. Yes.

Q. And then he plays a portion of a video --

A. Yes.

Q. -- for you?

And that portion of the video contains the shooting of Laquan McDonald?

A. Yes.

Q. And what happens after he plays that portion of the video?
A. I go back and sit down and wait.

Q. Okay. But does he ask you questions while the video is playing about the video?

A. No.

Q. He plays the video. Does he ask you any questions before you go back to sit down?

A. No.

Q. Is that -- after he plays the video, is that when he makes a comment about Laquan McDonald turning?

A. Mm-hm.

Q. Is that correct?

A. Yes. Yes.

Q. And you agree with Detective March?

Or what do you say when he says, Oh, it looks like he's turning here?

A. I said, Yes, it does.

Q. Did he ask you any questions at that point?

A. No.
Q. And he said, Okay, you can go sit down?

A. Yes, that's it.

Q. That's it?

A. That was it.

Q. No other questions?

A. No.

Q. You go back into the other room then?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you continue to wait there?

A. Yes.

Q. What happens next?

A. We just wait. And then they don't call us. They say they're going to call us another day, and then they release us.

Q. Who releases you?

A. Sergeant Franko.

Q. Sergeant Franko releases you. Do you have a recollection as to when he released you?

A. No. It -- it was after 6:00 because we did fill out a -- it's a time due slip whenever you do overtime. So I remember filling one of those out, so it had to be after 6:00.

Q. So it was after 6:00 a.m. --
A. Yes.

Q. -- you were released from Area Central?

A. Mm-hm. Yes.

Q. You were released from Area Central, and then where do you go?

A. I go back to the district, change, and go home.

Q. Did you take the 841 Robert vehicle with Officer Viramontes to go to the district?

A. Yes.

Q. So the two of you drove together to the district?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you talk about the shooting at all during that conversation -- or, sorry, during that trip?

A. No. No. We just went home. We talked about that -- what we were -- I talked about what I had to do in the morning because I had to take the kids to school and stuff, and that was it. I just said I got to get home and get some sleep.

Q. Were you making a conscious decision not to talk about the shooting with Officer Viramontes during that trip?
   A. Yes.

MR. NEUMER: The time is 1:53 p.m. Why don't we go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: The time is 2:00 p.m. We're back on the record.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Officer Fontaine, you mentioned to us about a case report you filled out?
   A. Yes.

Q. In that case report, it contains officer names and star numbers; is that correct?
   A. Yes.

Q. Did that case report contain any substance as to what happened related to the McDonald shooting?
   A. No.

Q. Do you want to explain anything further related to the case report?
   A. It just has the -- my role when filling out the case report is you put the date, the time, the beat numbers, and just "see detective sup."

Q. And you said you submitted the report that night?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall if it was edited after that point?
A. No.

MS. RUSSELL: No it wasn't edited or no you don't recall?

BY THE WITNESS:
A. No, I don't -- it -- it was not edited at that time.

BY MR. BROWN:
Q. Had it been edited, would you have been made aware of any changes to the report?
A. I should have been because it was under my PC number.

Q. So if we were to see that this document, this case report, it would have your PC number at the bottom?
A. Yes.

Q. Would it have anybody else's PC number?
A. Viramontes.
Q. And would that signify that he's in agreement with everything in the report?

A. Yes.

Q. So if changes were made to the report, he should have been made aware of those changes as well?

A. Yes.

Q. Going back to a little earlier. I briefly want to touch on the meeting with the FBI. You noted that the State's Attorney's Office was also there?

A. Yes.

Q. I just wanted to clarify, do you recall if it was the Cook County State's Attorney's Office was there, or was it the U.S. Attorney's Office?

A. I'm not sure.

THE WITNESS: Was it the State's -- I'm not sure.

MS. RUSSELL: Off the record.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record.)

MR. BROWN: The time is now 2:02 p.m. and we'll go back on the record.
BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Officer Fontaine, we were talking a little bit about the meeting with the FBI, and I'm just trying to clarify as to if it was the Cook County State's Attorney's Office that was also at the meeting, or was it the U.S. Attorney's Office?

A. It was the Cook County State's Attorney.

Q. Okay. Do you recall by chance who was there representing the Cook County State's Attorney's Office?

A. I don't recall.

Q. At that meeting, was the FBI the lead on the questions?

A. Yes.

Q. Did they tell you that your statement would be memorialized in any way?

A. I don't understand.

Q. I'm sorry, did they inform you that they were going to be making report of your statement?

A. No, not that they were going to make a report.
Q. Did you see -- you mentioned there were two FBI agents there at the meeting?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall them taking any notes?

A. Yes, they did.

Q. Do you recall whoever was there from the Cook County State's Attorney's Office taking any notes?

A. Yes, he was.

Q. So that was a gentleman?

A. That was a gentleman, yes.

Q. Anybody else besides the gentleman there representing the Cook County State's Attorney's Office?

A. No, not that I recall.

Q. And I think -- I'm pretty sure you already mentioned this, but it was just the one meeting with the FBI?

A. Yes.

Q. Any other meetings with the Cook County State's Attorney's Office?

A. Not that I recall, no.

Q. Did you ever have a meeting with the United States Attorney's Office?
A. No.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Yes, I did meet with the FBI before the grand jury one time -- I'm sorry, the U.S.
Attorney.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. What was the nature of that meeting?

MS. RUSSELL: We'll take a quick break.

MR. BROWN: The time is 2:04 p.m. and we'll take a quick break.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. BROWN: The time is now 2:05 p.m.
We'll go back on the record.

MS. RUSSELL: Can she clarify that last answer?

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Officer Fontaine, please clarify.

A. I don't recall meeting with the U.S.
Attorney.

Q. So before the grand jury you don't recall meeting with the U.S. Attorney's Office?
A. No.

Q. And you didn’t speak to the Cook County State’s Attorney’s Office after that meeting with the FBI?

A. No.

Q. I believe you mentioned in that meeting with the FBI you stated that you told them the same statement as what you told March -- I'm sorry, Detective March?

A. Yes.

Q. I wanted to ask, did you give them any sort of clarifying information such as, In light of the video, this is going to clarify my statement? Or did you say anything to clarify what you told the FBI?

A. To the FBI?

Q. Yes. I'm sorry. That was a bad question.

A. That's okay.

Q. I remember you noted earlier that you said after viewing the video, that kind of clarified what was written in the report, the Supplementary Report about, "as if attacking" in relation to?
A. I didn't know he had put "as if attacking."

Q. And we're going to get into that --
A. Oh, I'm sorry, you just stated --

Q. You had mentioned something about it was clarified after you saw the video; is that accurate?
A. I'm still confused.

Q. Okay. Maybe I'll wait until we flush this out a little bit later in the interview, but I just wanted to see if there was any clarifying statements you made to the FBI in regards to you made the same statement to March as what you told them?

A. Okay.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

BY THE WITNESS:
A. When I talked to the FBI, I didn't know what March had written. I had no idea what he had written. That's why when I gave my statement to the FBI, I gave them my statement. I didn't know what he had put down.
Q. I'm sorry. Okay. So at the point when you spoke to the FBI, you had not seen the final Case Supplementary Report that would have been authored by Detective March?

A. No.

Q. All right. When did you see the -- first see that statement by Detective March -- or I guess the write-up of your statement?

A. In the newspaper.

Q. In the newspaper. Okay. All right. And was that sometime in 2015?

A. Yes -- I don't recall.

Q. I definitely understand. I'm not going to keep hitting you about --

A. Yeah, I don't recall.

Q. You're just certain that you saw the statement after you spoke with the FBI?

A. Yes.

Q. When you spoke with the FBI, was that part of any sort of proffer negotiation?

A. I don't understand what you're saying.

Q. Was the subject of a proffer ever brought up to you in regards to your conversations with the FBI?

A. I still don't understand.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I think maybe I can -- so sometimes when individuals speak with the FBI, they'll sign what's called a proffer agreement. Do you recall signing any agreement right before you spoke to the FBI?

A. I did sign documents.

Q. Do you recall what those documents said at all? Were they explained to you?

A. They were explained to me, but --

Q. Do you have any recollection as to what...

A. No.

Q. That's fine.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Were you given a copy of the documents?

A. No.

Q. Was the negotiation about the documents, was that between your attorney and someone else?
A. Yes. My attorney was there. He read them with me and everything and I signed them.

Q. I just wanted to ask about Officer Viramontes?

A. Yes.

Q. He was your partner that night of the McDonald shooting, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. I wanted to ask, how long had he been your partner prior to that?

A. I think we've been going on five years.

Q. Five years. Okay. Like a steady every day he's been your partner for five years?

A. For the most part because when we're short, they separate us.

Q. Absent some other changes, he's your normal partner?

A. Yes.

Q. In the normal course of your work as you observe incidents or have to make arrests, would it be normal for you to speak with Officer Viramontes as to whatever has occurred?
A. Yes.

Q. And would those conversations occur before any type of report that would need to be authored by you or Officer Viramontes?

A. Can I explain --

Q. Sure, definitely explain.

A. -- when we partner up -- when you partner up, you're the driver and then there's the driver and the passenger.

Q. Okay.

A. When you arrive on-call, most of the time the person doing the paper is the one that kind of takes the lead and asks the questions and everything to decide more or less what kind of paper it is. Unless they have a question, then we kind of talk about it. So in that sense, yes.

Q. So to aid in, I guess, authoring whatever reports either you or Officer Viramontes would need to author, you guys would have conversations to make sure you're on the same page?

A. Yes.

Q. I just want to compare that with the McDonald incident. You already stated that, because of the circumstances with that one, you didn't feel like you wanted to talk with anyone, including Officer Viramontes, about the incident?

A. Yes.

Q. Got you. Okay.

When you were at Area Central, you mentioned that at one point, the officers were all together in the big room. I know you mentioned that you didn't have conversations with any of the officers about the McDonald incident, but I wanted to ask you, do you know if -- or did you recall if any of the other officers were having conversations as to what occurred that night?

A. No. Like I said -- no, not that anybody was specifically having them, but everybody was just kind of trying to talk about something else.

Q. So was it like a feeling of a big event has happened and let's try to get our minds off of it by talking about other things?

A. Kind of. I think that -- especially people who have never been involved, you don't know how to -- what you should say, what you shouldn't say, how you handle it, so you kind of handle it your own way.

Q.  Sure. No one instructed you guys not to talk about it?
A.  No.

Q.  It's something that came organically; it's just no one talked about the incident?
A.  Not like detail in my presence, no.

Q.  You mentioned that at some point March brings you in to show you the video?
A.  Yes.

Q.  I wanted to ask, you mentioned it was on a monitor. Do you recall if it was a laptop such as this, or was it like a computer monitor attached to like a hard -- like a big hard drive or something?
A.  I don't recall.

Q.  Do you recall Detective March taking any notes?
A.  At that time, no.

Q.  At that time.

MR. BROWN: That's all the follow-up I
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I want to talk to you, Officer Fontaine, about your relationships with the various officers who were at the scene of the shooting.

A. Mm-hm.

Q. I think you mentioned, with respect to Officer Viramontes, you and he had been partners for about five years prior to the shooting --

A. Yes.

Q. -- is that correct?

A. Once he came to my son's birthday party.

Q. So one occasion outside of work?

A. That I can think of, yeah.

Q. So generally you guys did not socialize outside of work?

A. No.

Q. Would you describe yourself as a friend of Officer Viramontes?
A. Yes.

Q. With respect to Officer Van Dyke, what was your relationship with Officer Van Dyke prior to October 20th, 2014?

A. I really don't know him. I broke my ankle, and I was off for almost a whole year --

Q. Okay.

A. -- and when I returned, I saw new faces, and he was one of them. But I never really -- I didn't know him.

Q. Do you recall when you broke your ankle?

A. '13 I want to say.

Q. 2013?

A. 2013 I want to say.

Q. Have you ever partnered up with Officer Van Dyke?

A. No.

Q. Have you ever socialized with Officer Van Dyke outside of work?

A. No.

Q. Were you ever interviewed regarding a complaint someone made regarding Officer Van Dyke?
A. No.

Q. What was your relationship with Officer Gaffney prior to October 20th, 2014?
A. Gaffney, I've worked with him. I've known him.

Q. So how would you -- what was your work experience with Officer Gaffney?
A. Just coworker.

Q. How often would you have interactions like during a week with Officer Gaffney as part of your job?
A. As part of my job?
Q. Mm-hm.
A. Few times a week because if we ride on their jobs.
Q. And so that is their -- a job again is --
A. I'm sorry, a call.
Q. A call. Okay.
A. A call.
Q. So you would see him a few times a week responding to calls?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay.
A. At roll call.

Q. Okay.

A. Check-off. You just talk, you know.

Q. And how long had you guys been in the same, fair to say, unit?

A. Unit?

Q. Yeah.

A. I think we've been there the same amount of time, which is almost 15 years.

Q. Oh, okay.

A. I want to say we were -- yeah.

Q. So you've known Officer Gaffney for about 15 years?

A. Yes.

Q. And did you ever socialize with Officer Gaffney outside of work?

A. No.

Q. What was your relationship with Officer McElligott prior to October 20th, 2014?

A. Same thing, working, talking while at work and roll call, check-off.

Q. Same thing, see him a couple times a week on calls?

A. On calls or check-off, mm-hm.
Q. And how long had the two -- had you and Officer McElligott worked together?
   A. With him I want to say the last three years I think we started talking more because I don't -- I don't remember when he came to the district.

Q. Okay.
   A. And I didn't really associate with him.

Q. Ever socialize with Officer McElligott outside of work?
   A. No.

Q. What was your relationship with Officer Bacerra prior to October 20th, 2014?
   A. None.

Q. No relationship?
   A. No.

Q. Never worked with him?
   A. No -- that I can remember, no.

Q. No real interactions at work with Officer Bacerra?
   A. Not really. He's on third watch.

Q. Okay. So you're on different watches?
Different watches.

Never socialized with Officer Bacerra outside of the work?

A. No.

What's your relationship with Officer Mondragon prior to October 20th, 2014?

A. Friends, coworkers. Same thing, roll call, check-off. We do a little bit more -- we talk a little bit more, I guess, girl to girl, more woman-to-woman things.

Sure. Sure. So would you ever socialize with Officer Mondragon outside of work?

A. I don't recall ever associating with her outside of work.

So work friends?

A. Yes.

Okay.

Just recently now she had a daughter, so I've been giving her some of my daughter's stuff, so we kind of -- a little bit more --

Okay.

-- outside of work.

Is that in the last year or so?
A. Yes, two years.

Q. Was that -- did she have her daughter prior to October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes. Yes, I think so. Yes.

Q. What was your relationship with Officer Sebastian prior to October 20th, 2014?

A. Same thing, we talked at work and everything. And, prior to that, I don't think we socialized out of work.

Q. Do you socialize outside of work with Officer Sebastian now?

A. We have because she bought a house in Michigan and we have a house in Michigan, so we're -- we talk about that and --

Q. I got you. Do any -- well, I'll get through the end. How long have you worked with Officer Sebastian in the same unit?

A. About 15 years.

Q. Officer Velez, what was your relationship with her prior to October 20th, 2014?

A. Just -- she's third watch, so kind of seeing her, hi, bye, how you doing, that's it.

Q. And you never socialize with Officer Velez outside of work?

A. No.

Q. What was your relationship with Officer Walsh prior to October 20th, 2014?

A. Just work-related.

Q. Never socialized outside of work?

A. (No audible response.)

Q. Would you say --

BY THE WITNESS:

A. No.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Would you see Officer Walsh multiple times a week on calls and things of that nature?

A. Not as many, but I saw him in a few.

Q. And how long had you guys been in the same unit, you and Officer Walsh?

A. I'm not sure when he arrived to eight.

Q. Do any of the officers I mentioned, Officer Viramontes, Officer Van Dyke, Gaffney, McElligott, Bacerra, Mondragon, Sebastian, Velez, Walsh, live in your neighborhood in the city?

Q. Okay.

A. Sebastian used to and she moved out.

Q. Okay.

A. Mondragon lives close now. She just moved in. And I think McElligott lives close, too. And I think that's it that I can recall.

Q. And what neighborhood do you reside in?

A. I live in Beverly. They live in Mount Greenwood.

Q. Got you.

MR. NEUMER: Kris, do you have any follow-up regarding Officer Fontaine's relationship with the other officers at the scene of the shooting?

MR. BROWN: I have no follow-up.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. At this time we're going to put Exhibit 6 -- previously marked as Exhibit 6 and 7 -- I think I misspoke. What's been previously marked as Exhibit 5 and 6, the CSR and the GPR.

(WHEREUPON, Exhibit No. 5 and Exhibit No. 6 were tendered to the witness.)
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So, again, that's Exhibits 5 and 6. The --

MS. RUSSELL: The notes are 6, okay.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Notes are 6, the GPR dated October 20th, 2014. And the CSR -- the excerpt of the CSR containing Officer Fontaine's statement to Detective March.

So first, generally, I want to ask you what is a Case Supplementary Report?

MS. RUSSELL: In general.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. In general, it's something that's added on to an original case.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay.

A. Because there's an original case first and then any supplementary is something added on to that.

Q. What's the purpose of a Case Supplementary Report?

A. My understanding is just extra facts.

Q. And who creates a Case Supplementary
Any officer that's like any officer that has to work on a specific return to the original case report that they have extra information about it or anything has changed, they would be able to do a supplementary.

Q. Do officers create -- can I call them CSRs? Is that a term that --

A. I'm not familiar with that.

Q. Okay. We'll stick with Case Supplementary Report.

Do officers create Case Supplementary Reports, or is it detectives?

A. This here -- the form in front of me is a detective.

Q. So Exhibit 5 was created by a detective. Have you ever created a Case Supplementary Report in your time with CPD?

A. Yes.

Q. So you are familiar with Case Supplementary Reports?

A. When a regular patrol officer does it, it's called Supplementary Report, just a regular Supplementary Report. It's a different format than this.

Q. Okay. Okay. So have you ever filled out a Case Supplementary Report?
A. No.

Q. So is it fair to say that generally detectives fill out Case Supplementary Reports?
A. I'm assuming, yes.

Q. But you -- do you not know one way or another?
A. I don't.

Q. It's not part of your general duties and responsibilities to fill out a Case Supplementary Report?
A. No.

Q. I'm now going to ask you about Exhibit 6, the General Progress Report dated October 20th, 2014. Are you familiar with the term GPR? Can I use that term?
A. I've never heard of that term.

Q. Never heard of that term?
A. No.

Q. Well, I'll ask you, what's your understanding as to what a GP- -- or what a General Progress Report is?

A. I have no knowledge.

Q. Do you know what the purpose of a General Progress Report is?

A. I don't. This is the first time I've seen one.

Q. Okay. Do you know who creates a General Progress Report?

A. I'm assuming the detective with this in front of me.

Q. Okay. But you have no --

A. I have no idea who would -- who would do this.

Q. And you've never filled out a General Progress Report as part of your duties as a Chicago Police Department employee?

A. No, not this form.

Q. I want to direct your attention to Exhibit 5, the Case Supplementary Report, and the statement that is attributed to you in that exhibit. I think it's on the third page.

I would ask now that you read what is I think two paragraphs about a third or two-fifths of the page. Take your time. Read that statement and let me know when you've had a chance to thoroughly read the statement.

A. You said the second one?

MS. RUSSELL: Stating with, "stated she was a Chicago Police Officer"?

MR. NEUMER: Right. Exactly. So at the top of the third page of Exhibit 5.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Just to yourself. Just so you have a chance to see what is stated and then we'll ask you a few questions about that statement.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Okay.

Q. Does Exhibit 5, Case Supplementary Report, accurately you -- accurately reflect what you said to Detective March on the night of October 20th, 2014?

A. No.

Q. What statements in the Case
Supplementary Report are inaccurate?

MS. RUSSELL: Can we take a quick break?

MR. NEUMER: The time is 2:30 p.m. We'll go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)
MR. NEUMER: The time is 2:36 p.m. We're back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. And, correct me if I'm wrong, I believe I asked you if the Exhibit 5, Case Supplementary Report, accurately reflected what you said to Detective March on the night of October 20th, 2014. I believe you said no; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And then I believe I asked you which statements specifically in the Case Supplementary Report are inaccurate. So if you could walk us through what statements --

MS. RUSSELL: Can I clarify?

MR. NEUMER: Sure.

MS. RUSSELL: What statements don't reflect what she told him?

MR. NEUMER: Yes.

MS. RUSSELL: I think that's a different question.

MR. NEUMER: Sure. Sure.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So let's go with that. You've had a chance to review the Exhibit 5 statement attributed to you. So can you walk us through which -- sentence by sentence or whatever sentences you did not make -- or statements you did not make to Detective March.

A. The sentences walking towards Van Dyke as if attacking Van Dyke.

Q. Okay.

A. I'm sorry, that's the tenth.

Q. Yep, I got you. That's fine.

So the sentence in full reads, "McDonald ignored the verbal direction, instead raised his right arm toward Officer Van Dyke as if attacking Van Dyke"?

A. Yes.

Q. And you're saying you did not make that statement to Detective March on the night of October 20th, 2014; is that correct?

A. Yes. I don't recall telling him that.

Q. So when you say you don't recall making that statement to Detective March, is it possible that you made the statement that McDonald raised his right arm toward Officer Van Dyke as if attacking Van Dyke?

A. No.

Q. No, it's not possible?

A. No.

Q. Is it accurate to say that, in your opinion, McDonald raised his right arm toward Van Dyke as if attacking Van Dyke?

A. I'm sorry?

Q. I'm saying that -- I think you've --

MS. RUSSELL: Did you see that? Did you see --

BY THE WITNESS:

A. No.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. You did not see McDonald raise his right arm toward Officer Van Dyke as if attacking Van Dyke?

A. No.

Q. Did you see McDonald -- when you were at the scene on October 20th, 2014, did you see McDonald raise his right arm toward Officer Van Dyke?

A. No.

Q. You did not see him raise his right arm. Did you see him -- did you see McDonald on the night of October 20th, 2014, make any attacking movements toward Officer Van Dyke?
A. Yes.
Q. Tell us about those attacking movements.
A. Well, he was walking southbound, swaying the knife.
Q. Okay.
A. And from --
MS. RUSSELL: Let the record reflect that the witness is swaying a knife -- no, strike that. She's not swaying a knife. She's making swaying motions with her right hand.
BY THE WITNESS:
A. So he's walking southbound swaying the knife, and from my point of view, it looked like he was coming in an angle.
BY MR. NEUMER:
Q. So tell us about -- an angle in what way?
A. Like he was coming towards them but not --
Q. So let's try this direction-wise.
When you first see Laquan McDonald, what direction is he moving in?

A. He -- okay, after you -- after I looked at the video, I didn't even realize I was still in the car when a lot of this occurred, what I saw. I was still in the vehicle.

Q. Okay.

A. He was walking southbound swaying the knife walking -- he was walking southbound swaying the knife and Van Dyke and Walsh were -- how should I put it? They were outside their vehicle.

Q. Okay.

A. And from where I was looking at it on an angle, it looked like he was walking almost towards them.

Q. It looked to you like officer -- or that McDonald was walking towards the officers?

A. Yeah.

Q. Okay.

A. Like in their line.

Q. Again, what -- so what direction was he walking?

A. Southbound.
Q. Southbound. Okay.

And then you mentioned he was at an angle. What did you mean by that?

A. From the point of view I had, it looked as if he was on an angle.

Q. An angle to what? Are you saying he was no longer walking southbound?

A. He was still walking southbound, but it looked like he was kind of swaying over.

Okay, there's --

Q. Did he change direction or...

A. No, he was -- he was going -- he was coming southbound -- how should I explain?

He was still coming southbound swaying the knife, and when I -- when I saw him -- how should I put it?

THE WITNESS: Can we take a break?

MS. RUSSELL: Sure.

MR. NEUMER: The time is 2:43 p.m. We'll go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: The time is 2:44 p.m. We're back on record.

What question was pending?
MS. RUSSELL: She was trying to explain what she meant by him walking at an angle.

MR. NEUMER: Okay.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. When I arrived on scene, I didn't realize until I saw the video I was still in the vehicle. So by the angle I'm in, he's walking southbound but because he's straight and I'm in the angle and Van Dyke and Joe are out of their car, it almost seemed to me as if he was walking towards them.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Having watched the video, do you think it is accurate to say that McDonald was walking towards Officers Walsh and Van Dyke?

A. After watching the video?

Q. (Nodding).

MS. RUSSELL: Can I butt in? So I know what the question is, but I guess it depends like where you are in the sequence.

So at one level he is walking towards them, he's in the middle of the road, he's walking towards them as opposed to away from them.
Is that what you're asking generally?
like, is he walking towards them; is he away from the middle of the road? I could be walking towards you guys coming this way (indicating) or
I could be walking towards you going this way (indicating). I'm not sure if that helps or hurts.

MR. NEUMER: Sure.

MS. RUSSELL: But maybe you can explain what you meant by it appeared he's walking towards you or what you saw in the video.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I mean, what I saw in the video, he was still walking southbound swaying the knife.
And when I looked at the video, it did seem as if he turned, but --

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Did he turn toward Officer Walsh and Van Dyke, or did he turn away from Officer Walsh and Van Dyke?

A. If you slow it down slow enough, it looks as if he's turning towards them.
(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. But I'm not sure. But that's -- but I'm not sure if that's because he was shot at that point, that that's what made him (indicating), yes.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So with respect to the statement in Exhibit 5, is there -- are there any of these other sentences that you never said to Detective March, other than the "as if attacking Van Dyke" portion?

A. The one about, "McDonald was walking sideways with his body facing east towards Jason Van Dyke and Officer Walsh," that I'm not sure.

Q. You don't know whether you made that statement --

A. No.

Q. -- to Detective March?

A. No, that one I'm not sure.

Q. Are there any other statements that you either know for certain or you are not sure whether you made to Detective March on the night of October 20th, 2014, in the statement in Exhibit 5?
A. That's it.
Q. So you -- tell me, with respect to,
"as if attacking Van Dyke," do you know whether or not you made that statement to Detective March?
A. I did not make it.
Q. You did not make it. And then with respect to "McDonald was walking sideways with his body facing east towards Officers Jason Van Dyke and Joseph Walsh" --
A. No.
Q. -- you don't know whether you made
that statement?
A. No.
Q. Every other statement in -- every other sentence in this statement you think you did make to Detective March on the night of October 20th, 2014?
A. Yes.
Q. And, now, different question. Is -- so we've been talking about whether or not you made these statements to Detective March. We touched on it a little bit, but I want to ask it directly.

Look at the statement in Exhibit 5.

Are there any of these sentences that you consider to be inaccurate; it's not actually what happened?

A. For the rest of them?

Q. For -- I'm talking about the entire -- so we were focusing primarily just recently on whether you made the statements in this exhibit to Detective March.

Now I'm going to ask you a different question. I'm going to ask whether the statements in -- that are attributed to you are accurate. Do they reflect what actually happened?

A. No.

Q. Do you understand the question that I'm -- and so, as you look back at this -- as you look over the statement attributed to you in Exhibit 5, I want you to identify for me which, if any, of the statements that are attributed to you are not accurate, that's not how things occurred on the night of October 20th, 2014.

A. The one where he -- where he raised his arm towards Officer Van Dyke as if attacking him.

Q. So that statement is not accurate?

A. Not that I know of.

Q. Not -- that's not what you witnessed on the night of October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes.

Q. Right. So you did not witness McDonald raising his right arm toward Officer Van Dyke as if attacking Van Dyke?

A. Yes.

Q. That's correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. So same question now. Are there any other statements or sentences in the statement that are not accurate according to what you witnessed on the night of October 20th, 2014?

A. No.

Q. So every other statement -- every other sentence in your statement is accurate according to what you witnessed on the night of October 20th, 2014?
A. Yes. Except that one sentence that I wasn't sure.

Q. Right.

A. Okay.

Q. Except for the "McDonald was walking sideways with his body facing east" --

A. Yes.

Q. -- you're not sure whether that statement is accurate?

A. I'm not sure if I said it at that point in time.

Q. Let's talk about the accuracy of that statement. Do you think it's accurate that McDonald was walking sideways with his body facing east towards Officer Van Dyke and Joseph Walsh?

A. Well, now that I look at the video, again, it does look accurate.

Q. Your statement -- or the statement, "McDonald was walking sideways with his body facing east towards Officers Jason Van Dyke and Joseph Walsh," having reviewed the video of the shooting, you feel that statement is accurate?

A. Because of that turn? In the video there's like a slight turn --

Q. Immediately prior to McDonald -- well, at what --

MS. RUSSELL: Let me.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was

had off the record between Counsel and

Witness.)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. For that sentence, to be more specific, it's not that he was walking sideways eastbound through the street; he was walking swaying, so he's kind of -- you know, what I mean?

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Sure.

A. Swaying. So kind of --

MR. NEUMER: For the record --

BY THE WITNESS:

A. -- kind of in and out.

MR. NEUMER: -- Officer Fontaine is moving her shoulders back and forth in a swinging motion.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Let's see, I want to ask you whether you recall making any statements to Detective March that are not reflected on the night of -- make any statements on the night of October 20th, 2014, regarding the shooting that are not reflected in the Exhibit 5 report --
A. No, I don't remember.
Q. So you don't recall telling Detective March anything on October 20th, 2014, that is not in here?
Or, put differently, do you recall any details you told Detective March that you don't see included in Detective March's report?
A. The swaying of the knife.
Q. So Detective March didn't -- you told him that the -- that Laquan McDonald was swinging the knife, and you don't see that reflected in Detective March's write-up of your statement?
A. Correct. Yes.
Q. Any other details that you told --
A. Not that I remember.
Q. I'll just -- any other details you recall telling Detective March that you don't see in his write-up?
A. Not that I remember.

Q. Okay. So at this point, I'm going to go through some of the notice -- some of the allegations that are included in the Notice of Allegations. Some of this will be moderately duplicative but...

It is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you made a false statement during an interview with Detective March when you stated that McDonald was walking southbound with his body facing east toward Officers Van Dyke and Walsh.

Do you stand by your previous statement?

A. The -- I'm sorry.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I stand by my testimony that I've given you today.

By Mr. Neumer:

Q. It is, but I'd like to really hone in on, in particular, your statement -- the statement in the report --

MS. RUSSELL: That's not her statement.
MR. NEUMER: Well, that's true.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. The statement that is attributed to you in Detective March's report and whether you stand by that previous statement or if there's anything you'd like to add regarding the allegations.

So let me read the allegation again --

MS. RUSSELL: Really quick, before you do, other than what she's already told you was not correct? Do you see what I'm saying? The allegation is you provided a false narrative to Detective March. I mean, she's told you --

MR. NEUMER: And I --

MS. RUSSELL: So I guess I'm confused by
"Do you stand by your previous statement."

MR. NEUMER: Sure -- oh, sorry. I got you.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So when I say, "previous statement,"
I'm not referring to anything you've told us today. What I'm referring to is the statement that is attributed to you in Detective March's report, the Exhibit 5 report. And so I'll read the allegation again and give you an opportunity to respond.

So it is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you made a false statement during an interview with Detective March when you stated that McDonald was walking southbound with his body facing east toward Officers Van Dyke and Walsh.

Do you stand by your previous statement as included in Exhibit 5, or is there anything you'd like to add regarding this allegation?

A. As I stated earlier, I don't remember telling him that.

Q. Okay. It is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you made a material omission
during an interview with CPD Detective March when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you failed to state that Officers Van Dyke and Walsh moved towards McDonald prior to the shooting.

Why didn't you tell Detective March that McDonald changed the direction in which he was walking prior to being shot by Officer Van Dyke -- let me read that again.
Strike that.

MS. RUSSELL: I think you're on four.

MR. NEUMER: Strike that.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. It is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you made a material omission
during an interview with CPD Detective March when you failed to state that Officer Walsh and Van Dyke moved towards McDonald prior to the shooting.

Why didn't you tell Detective March that Officer Walsh and Officer Van Dyke moved towards McDonald prior to the shooting?

A. Detective March never asked me that question and --

Q. Okay.

A. And I never saw that.

Q. You never saw Officers Walsh and Van Dyke move towards McDonald prior to the shooting?

A. No, their vehicle was blocking them.
MS. RUSSELL: From her view.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. From my view --

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. From your view --

A. -- they were blocked.

Q. Officer Walsh and Officer Van Dyke were blocked from your view by their vehicle?

A. Yes.

Q. It is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you made a material omission during an interview with CPD Detective March when you failed to state that Laquan McDonald changed direction prior to being shot by Officer Van Dyke.

Why didn't you tell Detective March that McDonald changed the direction in which he was walking prior to being shot by Officer Van Dyke?

A. I didn't see that. I didn't see him changing direction.

Q. Okay. It is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you made a false statement during an interview with CPD Detective March when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you stated that McDonald raised his right arm toward Officer Van Dyke as if attacking Van Dyke.

Do you stand by that statement, or is there anything you would like to add regarding this allegation?

A. I never made that statement.

Q. You never made that statement to Detective March.

A. To Detective March.

Q. Right. Do you have any idea why Detective March included that statement in his report?

A. I have no idea.

Q. Did Detective March at any time ever ask you to change your story about -- when he was interviewing you?

A. No.

Q. Did he ever direct you what to say regarding the McDonald shooting?

A. No.

Q. How about with respect to when he showed the video and he made a comment; did you feel as if he was instructing you how to respond?
A. I -- different people were looking at the video, so I just assumed he wanted us to see the video.

MS. RUSSELL: Listen to his question.

Can you read it back.

(WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter.)

BY THE WITNESS:
A. No.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Do you know what he was trying to communicate to you by showing the video and making a comment on the shooting?
A. No.

Q. Did you feel pressured by Detective March to agree with his comment -- the comment that he made regarding the video?
A. No.

Q. It is alleged on or about October 20th, 2014, that you made a false statement to CPD Detective March when, with respect to McDonald shooting, you stated that the gunshots Officer Van Dyke fired at McDonald were rapid fire and without pause.

Do you stand by your previous statement to Detective March, or is there anything you would like to add regarding this allegation?

A. No, that's -- I stick to that. I -- that's -- at that point in time, that's what I heard.

Q. It is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you provided a false narrative to Detective David March of the CPD concerning the McDonald shooting through a series of false statements or material omissions --

MS. RUSSELL: I'm sorry to interrupt you, but what allegation are you on? My next one is in-car video.

MR. NEUMER: Right. So this is one. We're back to allegation one.

MS. RUSSELL: I see. Okay. Got it.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So it is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you provided a false narrative to Detective March concerning the McDonald shooting through a series of false statements and material omissions.

Do you stand by your previous statements to Detective March, or is there anything you would like to add regarding this allegation?

A. Just what I stated earlier.

Q. Earlier in this interview?

A. In this interview.

MR. NEUMER: Kris, do you have follow-up on this section?

MR. BROWN: Yeah, I've got a couple of follow-ups.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. You mentioned earlier that Detective March showed you a video in an office --

A. Yes.

Q. -- is that accurate?

Just a little bit ago I thought you might have said something about he showed us the video. I just wanted to get you to clarify, did he just show you the video by yourself in the office, or did he show the whole group in the big room?

A. It was me, him, and I want to -- I -- as I'm thinking about it, I think there was somebody else in there that was running the video.

Q. Okay.

A. So I -- I'm sorry.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. No, I'm sorry, I'm getting you confused. There was no other officers, just me.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. And the other person that was in the room, that was a technical person to operate the video?

A. I don't know. I don't know.

Q. Sure. You didn't know what the purpose of -- for that other person, you don't know why they were there?

A. No, I don't.

Q. Just to recap, when you were in the side office looking at the video, it was just yourself, Detective March, and this other person?

A. Yes.

Q. Did the other person say anything to you?

A. No.

Q. Did the other person take any notes as far as you know?

A. No.

Q. In the video that was shown to you by Detective March, was that the same video as what was tendered to you by IAD, I guess via us?

A. I can't answer that because -- it's not that I can't; I don't know. I don't know.

Q. Was it the same video that --

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

MS. RUSSELL: Let me interject. I think the video that she saw was the actions as depicted on the video that was provided to her. Whether it was the same video, she can't be certain.

Is that an accurate statement?
THE WITNESS: Yes.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. And that's totally understandable. I'm not definitely trying to get you to say it's lie the exact same video --

A. Oh, okay.

Q. -- who knows what he showed that night. I just wanted to get you to say if it was the same footage, like the shooting --

A. Yes.

Q. -- was the same thing that you saw. Okay.

Do you recall how much of the video he showed you?

A. Just the walking southbound and him -- like I said, that little turn.

Q. So just -- you were just shown McDonald walking southbound from the Burger King --

A. I don't even think it was all the way from the Burger King.

Q. Okay.

A. I think it was just him walking and that turn -- that little turn.
Q. You did get to see the actual shooting, though, on the video, right?

A. From the video?

Q. Yes.

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

A. And all over the news.

Q. Right.

A. Yes.

MS. RUSSELL: Did Detective March show you the shooting portion?

THE WITNESS: No.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. So the video he showed you, he just showed you McDonald walking, I guess, towards Officer Walsh and Van Dyke, but the video was cut off before the shooting occurred?

A. Yes. It was just the turn and that was it. It wasn't continued all the way.

MR. NEUMER: Can we go off the record for one moment?

MR. BROWN: The time is now 3:10 p.m.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record.)
MR. NEUMER: The time is 3:12. We'll go back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Officer Fontaine, I'm now going to show you a portion of the video that was recovered from the in-car video system of Beat 813 Robert vehicle. This is one of the videos that OIG provided to you on February 22, 2016, on DVD.

My colleague, Kris Brown, is going to open the VLC media file titled VIDEO_TS.IFO on his laptop. File contains six minutes and five seconds of footage. The video has a time stamp on it indicating the date and time the video was recorded.

And we're going to advance the video to the portion time-stamped 9:57 p.m. and 22 seconds. And there's also a corresponding VLC media player time-bar time, which goes from zero to six minutes, five seconds.

And we are at 4:37 on the media player time bar. And, again, we should be at 9:57 and, I think, 22 seconds p.m. in terms of the embedded time stamp.
MR. BROWN: Then we want to go to a little bit before that to capture more of the walking?

MR. NEUMER: Well, I don't think Officer -- what I'm going to first do is play it from here and ask Officer Fontaine to stop the video when she sees her car pull up on the scene.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. We can do this a few times, so don't feel any pressure, but why don't we roll the video, and I want you to stop us when you see your vehicle, the vehicle that -- you're a passenger in, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Pull up on the scene. So we're going to start the video.

(VIDEO BEING PLAYED)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. That's us.

MR. NEUMER: So Officer Fontaine has -- we stopped the video at embedded time stamp October 20th, 2014, 9:57 p.m. and 33 seconds.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Is that correct, Officer Fontaine?

A. Yes.
Q. And you directed us to stop the video because you now see your -- the vehicle you were a passenger in that night, 841 Robert, pull up behind Officers Van Dyke and Walsh; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. So what I'm going to do now is, we're going to start the video again, and I want you to point out the turn that you've been -- you referred to a couple times. Is that fair?

A. Yes.

Q. So we're going to start the video. And, again, you can see this a couple times. I want you to direct us to stop the video when you see the turn that you were talking about earlier. So go ahead and start the video.

(VIDEO BEING PLAYED)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Before that --

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. We'll go back a few seconds and we'll start again.

(VIDEO BEING PLAYED)
BY THE WITNESS:

A. Stop. You see right here where it looks like he's walking and then...

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. We have stopped it at 4 minutes and 54 seconds on the VLC media player time bar. There's no time stamp on the -- the time stamp embedded is not visible at the moment on the video footage.

And so, Officer Fontaine, why did you direct us to stop it right here?

A. Because this is where it looks like he went from straight to an angle, a little angle or --

Q. A little angle --

A. -- a twist.

Q. He's making a turn you're saying?

A. Yes.

Q. And is this the turn that Detective March pointed out to you when you were at Area Central and he showed you the video?

A. This wasn't the video. The video he showed me you saw his angle this way (indicating).

Q. You saw whose angle which way?
A. Van -- McDonald, you actually saw him walking, not from the back, but from the side.

Q. From the side?
A. It might be the Dunkin' Donut one?

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Was it a perspective from further away?

BY THE WITNESS:
A. Yes. It was --

MS. RUSSELL: Let's see the other one, if you don't mind, and then you say if that was the right one.

MR. NEUMER: Let's pull up the Dunkin' Donuts video.

MS. RUSSELL: Or the other car?

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Is that it? It will take some time for me to get the moment. The vehicles come from this way, and you only get to see a small view from Van Dyke and Walsh like right there.
A. Then it must have been the other one.

MR. NEUMER: For the record, at the moment we are showing Officer Fontaine the Dunkin' Donuts video surveillance that was provided to Officer Fontaine on DVD on February 22, 2016.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Officer Fontaine, is it fair to say that the Dunkin' Donuts surveillance video footage that we are presently showing you is not what Detective March showed you on the night of October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes.

Q. We're now going to close this out and let's go back to the dash cam footage from --

MR. BROWN: 813.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. -- Vehicle 813 Robert. So I'm going to ask you, Officer Fontaine, once we load the file and get it to the appropriate portion, we'll show it to you again, and I'm going to ask you whether it's possible that the 813 Robert dash cam footage is what Detective March showed you on October 20th, 2014. But don't answer just yet. Let's watch the video again and see.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. And for note, this one is in full-time, so maybe that -- maybe that might assist you in seeing how it's playing out.

(VIDEO BEING PLAYED)

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. If you want, I can put it slower, frame by frame.

MR. NEUMER: So, for the record, the footage we just showed to Officer Fontaine of the shooting of Laquan McDonald was played at full speed. Previously we showed it to Officer Fontaine at a slowed-down speed.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So, Officer, we'll stop the video. And I want to ask you if you think it's possible that the footage you are watching right now or the footage we showed you is the same footage that Detective March showed you on the night of October 20th, 2014? Do you think that's possible?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you think it's likely that this is the footage Detective March showed you?

A. Yes.

Q. So let's watch again. And I want to -- again, I want -- we've already identified when your vehicle comes onto the scene. I want you to now to identify for us the turn that Detective March pointed out to you at Area Central on October 20th, 2014.

BY MR. BROWN:

    Q. I'm going to ask, would it be easier for you to watch it full speed or would you like it --

    A. It has to be slow motion because I can't tell you exactly when --

    Q. Sure. No problem.

    (VIDEO BEING PLAYED)

BY THE WITNESS:

    A. Oh, I'm sorry. I forgot to --

BY MR. BROWN:

    Q. That's okay.

    MR. NEUMER: We'll go back a few seconds.

    (VIDEO BEING PLAYED)

BY THE WITNESS:

    A. That -- is that what you want me to say where he turned?

BY MR. NEUMER:

    Q. What I want you to identify is what Detective March pointed out to you. I believe previously you testified Detective March pointed out to you some sort of turn and asked whether you saw the turn when he was showing you the video at Area Central on October 20th, 2014.

So what we want you to identify right now is the turn that Detective March was referring to when he showed you the video. Does that make sense?

A. Yes.

Q. So let's watch it one more time and, again, I want you to focus specifically on the turn that Detective March was referring to.

MS. RUSSELL: If you remember exactly which one he showed you.

(VIDEO BEING PLAYED)

MR. NEUMER: So, for the record, we just showed Officer Fontaine a portion of the 813R vehicle dash cam from about 9:57 -- with the embedded time stamp 9:57 and 28 seconds to 9:57 41 seconds.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Did you see the turn that Detective March was -- mentioned on the night of October 20th, 2014, when he showed you the video?

A. You know, I'm not sure.

Q. Okay. Can you tell us -- and I'm going to go back.

A. Can I have a minute?

Q. Sure. Take a minute.

MR. NEUMER: The time is 3:24. We'll go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record.)

MR. NEUMER: The time is 3:25. We're back on the record.

We're now going to show Officer Fontaine the dash cam video from, I think, 845 Robert. Is that correct?

MR. BROWN: That's correct.

(VIDEO BEING PLAYED)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. No, that's not it.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. That's not the one Detective March showed you?

A. No.

MS. RUSSELL: Are either of these the one he showed you?

THE WITNESS: Like I said, I don't...

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Did the video Detective March showed you appear to be as blurry as --

A. No.

Q. -- this video right here?

A. No.

MR. NEUMER: And, again, for the record, Officer Fontaine is viewing the footage from the 845R vehicle dash cam.

(VIDEO BEING PLAYED)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Officer Fontaine, do you think -- would it help you to watch the 813 Robert dash cam footage additional times to try and identify the turn that Detective March mentioned on the night of October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes.

Q. It would?

MR. BROWN: Okay. So now we'll go back to the 813R video. Would you like to watch it in full speed or the slower speed?

THE WITNESS: No, full speed.
MR. NEUMER: We'll cut to the 9:57 and 28 seconds in the embedded time stamp for the 813 Robert dash cam footage now, and we will show the relevant portion to Officer Fontaine at full speed in an effort to help Officer Fontaine identify the turn that Detective March pointed out to her on the night of October 20th, 2014.

(VIDEO BEING PLAYED)

MS. RUSSELL: The question is do you remember --

THE WITNESS: If that's the one --

MS. RUSSELL: -- Detective March?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MS. RUSSELL: Are you sure?

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So now what I'm going to ask you to do again is have my colleague stop the video -- I want you to have Kris stop the video -- so what we want to do is establish a good record.

If you think you can identify the turn that Detective March pointed out to you -- and if you can't -- I'm not trying to put words in your mouth. You either can or if you don't think you can, that's okay, too, but we're going to run it one more time and I want you to instruct my colleague to stop the video if you think you identified the turn that Detective March pointed out to you on the night of October 20th, 2014, when he showed you this video.

MS. RUSSELL: So you've identified, you seeing the video, where you have seen the turn, but the question is Detective March that night --

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MS. RUSSELL: Okay? So if you can remember, you can; if you can't, you can't.

MR. NEUMER: So we'll watch it -- maybe go back like three seconds or something.

MR. BROWN: Rewind it one more time?

THE WITNESS: No, I'm not sure.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Do you think that watching it again would help you become more sure -- or would help -- is it fair to say that you've watched the video maybe five to seven times and you're not sure when Detective March -- the exact moment he was -- he referred you to when he showed you the video?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

MR. NEUMER: I think -- did you have any follow-up?

MR. BROWN: I think I have another couple quick ones.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. I just wanted to ask, prior to the night of the McDonald shooting had you ever been questioned by a detective before?

A. By a detective?

Q. Yes, in this manner that March was questioning you.

A. Not at -- no, not in this situation.

Q. My next question was going to be, are there other situations where you were questioned?

A. On a call. Like if I was on a call and detectives came on scene, yes.

Q. But not in a situation where you were taken back to an area station and questioned about an incident like your observation of an incident?
A. I'm trying to think. I don't recall.

Q. Even in those instances where you weren't taken back to an area, maybe a detective just spoke to you about something else?

A. I have had detectives talk to me about stuff in certain cases.

Q. In relation to your observations as to whatever occurred?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. In any of those instances, do you recall the detective showing you a video prior to getting your statement?

A. No.

Q. I think from what we were understanding from the -- when you're at the area and when March asked you to come into that office with yourself and then that other person was in there, it didn't sound like there was much conversation that occurred at that meeting, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Was it -- it safe to say that the stuff -- the statements that are attributed to you in the detective Supplementary Report, those all came from when March spoke to you near your squad car?

Q. I just wanted to make sure that -- since he didn't speak to you much at the area, that when he did talk to you about the stuff that's in the report.

A. I can't speak for him, so I don't know, but I'm assuming, yes.

Q. No, I'm kind of asking did you -- the statements that are attributed to you in this report, did you make those statements near your squad car?

A. That one, yes.

Q. Okay.

MR. BROWN: That's all.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. The statements that are attributed to you in Exhibit 5 you made to Detective March outside of your squad car at the scene of the Laquan McDonald shooting?

A. Yes.

MS. RUSSELL: Other than the ones she's previously testified to that she did not make.

MR. BROWN: Yes.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Yes.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Yes. Okay. All right.

You mentioned that you weren't certain about the statement in Exhibit 5 about the walking sideways with his body facing east.

Can you -- I wanted to get -- if possible, can you elaborate on why you think you might not have made that statement?

A. Because of the fact that I -- I've stated that he was walking southbound swaying the knife. Otherwise, I would understand that I'd be like he was walking actually all the way facing east.

THE WITNESS: Do you know -- how can I say this?

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I mean, I just saw him walking southbound swaying the knife.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. And that's perfectly fine. I was hoping to get to that language that's in the report that's attributed to you. Is that -- was that language something you typically wouldn't say, like you -- would you say like a person's walking in a direction facing another direction? Is that a statement that you would normally make in a report? Do you get usually that specific with a person's direction as they're walking?

A. Not that detailed. I mean, depending on the situation. But for something like this, it's -- what I witnessed was southbound. Do you know --

Q. I think I understand. So you're saying it's -- depending on the situation, you might have put in your statement that a person was walking in a certain direction, but, in this particular instance, in relation to Exhibit 5, you think McDonald was walking southbound and --

A. Because --

Q. -- that's why you're not sure about that statement being totally accurate?
A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

MR. BROWN: That's all.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Really quickly, with respect to Detective March, did he provide you -- so he showed you the video, right, at Area Central? That's correct, the dash cam -- or he showed you footage of the Laquan McDonald shooting, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Did he give you --

MS. RUSSELL: Hold on a second.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Did he show you footage of the scene of the Laquan McDonald shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. And he showed you footage of Laquan McDonald walking?

A. Yes.

Q. Is it fair to say you don't know whether he showed you the actual shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. Is it possible he showed you the shooting?

A. It's possible.

Q. Other than his showing to you of the footage of the scene of the Laquan McDonald shooting, did he provide you with any other information regarding the shooting of Laquan McDonald as you were giving him statements regarding your version of events?

A. I'm sorry, was he...

Q. Did he provide you any other information? He showed you the video. Did he provide you any other details regarding the shooting as you were discussing the -- your witnessing of the shooting?

MS. RUSSELL: I think -- I don't think her testimony was that they were discussing the -- what she witnessed in the room, the video. She did in the car.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. At any point in the night of October 20th, 2014, when you were talking to Detective March, did he provide you details regarding the shooting of Laquan McDonald?

A. No.

Q. Other than showing you the video at Area Central?

A. No.

Q. Nothing else?

A. No.

Q. Did he ever direct you to make certain statements regarding what you witnessed?

A. No.

Q. Did he ever tell you what you said you saw was not accurate?

A. No.

Q. I think now we are going to move on to dash cam. And we want to talk to you about the 841 Robert in-car video system. That 841 Robert is also Vehicle 8948.

Do you have a recollection of the vehicle number you were driving -- you were a passenger in on the night of October 20th, 2014?

A. I don't remember. We change vehicles every day.

Q. If we showed you a report showing that vehicle 841 Robert was Vehicle Number 8948, would you have any reason to doubt the accuracy of that report?

A. No.

Q. And we'll show you that -- we'll get to that.

So generally what's the purpose of an in-car video system?

A. To make -- I'm sorry. Just to make sure everything's logged in that it's keeping -- that if we arrived on scene -- arrive on a scene of a call or a traffic stop, that we're following, you know, our rules. And if anything goes awry with the subjects being stopped or even can go wrong, it's kind of to protect both parties.

Q. And so that in-car video system, it captures video and audio; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And can you walk us through the ways you interact with the in-car video system as part of your daily duties.

A. You -- well, when you start your tour, you have to log in. The mics do not work if the camera doesn't work. So if the camera doesn't work, your mics do not work. The mics have to be synced to the camera.

Q. And you sync those mics prior to the start of your tour of duty?

A. To the start of the tour, yeah. Yes.
When you turn on your camera at the beginning of your tour, you sync the mics, and then they should all -- everything should be working.

Q. And then throughout the rest of your shift, another -- what other ways do you use the in-car video system for your vehicle?

A. Again, to video any kind of calls, stops, interactions with specific people.

Q. And now I want to talk -- as of October 20th, 2014, what rules and regulations governed your use of the in-car video system?

A. I'm sorry?

Q. Do you know what rules and regulations applied with respect to your or any officer's use of the in-car video system?

A. The use of it? That we have to use it?

Q. (Nodding.)
A. Yes, it's a procedure that we have to use it.

Q. I'm going to show you what we will mark as Exhibit 7. This is Special Order S03-05 issued February 23, 2012.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 7, for identification, as of 03/16/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. And this is a Chicago Police Department Special Order pertaining to in-car video systems. I would direct your attention to Section 6 on Page 3 titled Operational Procedures.

So have you seen Exhibit 7, this Special Order before, Officer Fontaine?

A. 6 or 7?

Q. Sorry, it's Exhibit 7. Section 6 of Exhibit 7. But I'm asking you more broadly, have you seen this exhibit, this Special Order prior to today?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And where did you come into contact with this Special Order?
A. They have them in the stations.

Q. Did you ever receive training on these procedures?

A. Yes.

Q. Tell us about this training or those trainings.

A. The training was done through eLearning, which is programmed into the computer, where you bring it up and they give you -- they show you how to turn it on, how to turn it off, how it works.

Q. And how long did that training take?

A. I'm not quite sure, but maybe an hour, 45 minutes, hour.

Q. Did you receive any other trainings other than that eLearning training?

A. Not that I recall.

Q. Did you ever go to the academy for a training on in-car video systems?

A. I don't remember.

Q. With respect to that Section 6 on Page -- actually, I think it's Page -- no, it is Page 3, do you see the portion of Section 6(A)(1) where it says, "At the beginning of a "tour of duty" -- I'll insert department members are to -- "visually inspect the in-car video system equipment for damage; obtain the remote transmitter/audio recorder and ensure that it is securely fastened to member's person;
follow the startup procedures for the in-car video system as trained and ensure the system is working properly."

Do you see that section?

A. Yes.

Q. Were you familiar with that section?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Were you familiar with that section as of October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you know that you were to follow those procedures outlined in Section 6(A)(1) of Exhibit 7?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Let's see, do you see the note in that same section --

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Do you see the note in that same section that states, "Members will immediately notify supervisor if at any time the in-car video system is inoperable, damaged, the equipped vehicle becomes inoperable, or the remote transmitter/audio recorder is missing"?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you ever -- was there ever an occasion where you had to notify your supervisor regarding a damaged in-car video system?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay --

A. Can -- go ahead.

Q. Tell us, how does that process work when you have to notify a supervisor about a damaged in-car video system?

A. The procedure we had at that point was, because we're so short on cars, we -- they assign us a car, and we have to take the car that's assigned to us.

If the equipment's not working, the sergeant by -- sometimes they get stuck in the station, but by -- when they come out, they'll PDT us and they'll ask us, How's the camera? How's the mics?

Q. Who will come out?
A. The sergeant. We have to send them a message over the computer stating the cameras are working or they're not working or -- when they're not working, there's a ticket number. The ticket number's like a work request that it has to be worked on for the vehicles.

So as long as there's a ticket number, they want us to take the car out. And then we, in turn, will notify the sergeant when he comes out on the street saying, you know what, we have a ticket number, our camera's not working.

Q. So would you notify your -- and I'm talking -- let's direct this all to October 20th, 2014, --
A. Yes.

Q. -- the procedures that are in place as of that time. Would you notify your sergeant every day like, Camera's working or in-car video system is working, or only when it wasn't working would you talk to your sergeant about it?

A. Every day. It's working every day or it's not working or a ticket number.

Q. So -- okay. So let's say it's not working -- again, going back to that. And I think you touched on this, but like if you try and power on the system or find out it's not working in whatever way, what do you do?

A. Well, if it's not working, like I said, and has a ticket number, we still have to go out.

Q. Okay. And how do you know if it has a ticket number, the vehicle has a ticket number?

A. Because there's an actual -- it says ticket number, and they have it on the camera or they have it somewhere around in the camera.

Q. What if there's no ticket number on the camera?

A. Then we have to notify the sergeant that it's not working and then -- you know, I don't know if he calls -- I don't know what he does, but apparently they're the only ones who can get a ticket number.

Q. So you call your sergeant, you tell them the in-car video system's not working, and is that it?

A. That's it.

Q. And sergeant does whatever he does.

You don't know what he does.

A. Exactly.

Q. Are you familiar with the term "help desk ticket"?

A. Yes.

Q. Is that the -- does that differ from the ticket you were talking about?

A. I'm assuming -- I don't know if that's the same ticket the sergeant gets, I don't know.

Q. But there's like a sticker on -- like say someone had called your supervisor -- say you call your supervisor and report something, in-car video system's not operating, right?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you then supposed to get some sort of sticker or something and put that on the camera?
A. Not a sticker. They just give us a ticket number and we write it down on any piece of paper we have, and then we have to make sure it's somewhere stuck or shoved --

Q. Visible.

A. Visible. On the camera. So whatever --

Q. You can write it on whatever scrap of paper and tape it up there?

A. Mm-hm. Yes.

Q. So, let's see, you were the passenger in the 813 Robert vehicle on October 20th, 2014?

A. No.

Q. 841?

A. Yes.

Q. Right. I apologize. Let's try this again.

You were the passenger in the 841 Robert vehicle on October 20th, 2014, right?

A. Yes.

Q. And 841 Robert, that -- well, let me just back up a little bit.

Were you in the same -- generally, are you in the same vehicle every day as part of your officer duties?

A. They try to keep you in the same vehicle.

Q. Do you have any recollection, with respect to the vehicle you were in on October 20th, 2014, whether you had been in that vehicle for the days prior?

A. I'm not sure.

Q. But generally you'd be in the same vehicle for a matter of days or weeks? Or tell me how that works.

A. Yes, if everything goes well, yes, then we can have the car almost, you know, months at a time.

Q. Okay. And so the 813 Robert vehicle -- 841 Robert vehicle had an in-car video system, right? For the vehicle you were driving on October 20th, 2014.

A. Yes.

Q. And as of October 20th, 2014, how long had you been either the -- working and driving and being the passenger in CPD vehicles that had in-car video systems?

A. It had been a while since we were in
Q. Well, say more about what you mean.

Prior to October 20th, 2014, you had not been driving vehicles or being a passenger in a vehicle with an in-car video system?

A. There was a lot of -- for the most part, 841 Robert, it's a rapid car, so they get the last --

Q. Rapid?

A. Rapid.

Q. What does that mean?

A. This means that in-progress calls for the whole -- like we have 10 sector, 30 sector, 20 sector.

Q. Okay.

A. So we're not assigned to a beat, so we just kind of float around. And because we're not assigned a beat, we're the last ones to get whatever's left. They want the beat cars out there first, so, basically, whatever's left, they give it to us.

Q. Okay.

A. So a lot of times it's the pool cars that they give the rapid cars, which the pool
Q. And so those pool cars don't have in-car video systems?
A. Exactly.
Q. So how long had you been driving or assigned a CPD vehicle that had an in-car video system?
A. I don't recall.
Q. Was it a matter of years, do you think, prior to October 20th, 2014?
A. I don't think it was years, but -- I -- I don't recall because we float around sometimes.
Q. With respect to the vehicle you were driving on October 20th, 2014, do you recall having issues with that vehicle's in-car video system on previous tours?
A. Yes.
Q. Tell us about those issues.
A. The -- well, there had been a ticket number on it for a very -- for a while, and -- see, because they changed it. But a lot of -- that vehicle, the camera wasn't working and it had a ticket number.

Q. The vehicle you were driving on October 20th, 2014?
A. Passenger, yes.

Q. The in-car video system wasn't working?
A. No.

Q. And you're saying it had a ticket number on it?
A. Yes. I --

Q. I want you to be very clear here. Are you saying that there was a ticket number stickered to the -- somewhere around the camera on the 841 Robert vehicle on the night of October 20th, 2014?
A. Yes.

Q. That's your recollection, that there was a -- some sort of sticker with a ticket number?
A. There was a piece of paper with the ticket number, yes.

Q. So on -- do you recall whether you had driven the 813 -- 841 Robert vehicle on the previous day?
A. I don't recall.

Q. Do you recall what -- so do you recall that 841 Robert vehicle having a sticker on its camera like that previous day, the previous week?

A. Having a ticket number on it, yes.

Q. In the previous week?

A. Yes.

Q. I'm sorry, prior to October 20th, 2014.

A. Yeah, I -- I'm not sure.

MS. RUSSELL: Can we take a quick break?

MR. NEUMER: It's 3:56 p.m. We'll go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: The time is 4:03 p.m. We're back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Officer Fontaine, do you have something you'd like to say clarifying your statement regarding a ticket on the camera of the 841 Robert vehicle on the night of October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes, I'm not sure if there was a ticket number because we do jump from car to car, so I -- I don't recall.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I want to direct your attention again to the night of October 20th, 2014. Do you recall what sort of procedures you followed at the beginning of your tour with respect to the preparation of the in-car video system for the 841 Robert vehicle?

A. At -- because it was so early in the beginning of the tour, we were still waiting for our sergeant to come out so we can send him a message.

Q. So do you have an independent recollection of attempting to start up the in-car video system for the 841 Robert vehicle on October 20th, 2014?

A. No, we didn't try it because of the --

Q. Sorry, let me -- I'm asking whether you have a specific recollection of October 20th, 2014, and the startup procedures you either attempted or were going to attempt on the night -- on that night. Does that make sense?

    A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

    A. Again, because I'm not sure if it had a ticket number or not, I don't -- I don't -- again, depending on if there's no ticket, we try it. But if there's a ticket, we don't. So because I don't know, I can't -- I'm not sure.

Q. You're not sure what kind of protocols you followed with respect --

    A. Exactly.

Q. -- in-car video system for the 841 Robert vehicle on October 20th, 2014?

    A. Yes.

Q. Do you have any recollection whether you visually inspected the in-car video system for the 841 Robert vehicle for any equipment damage?

    A. Yes.

Q. You did?

    A. Yes because we -- at the beginning of the tour, we have to walk around the car and make sure if there's any damage outside of it, and then we check inside to make sure there's nothing left from anyone. And so we did do that.

Q. You and Officer Viramontes?
A. Yes.

Q. And you recall doing that on October 20th, 2014, before the start of your tour?
A. When we get on -- get to the vehicle, that's the first thing we do.

Q. And where is the vehicle located?
A. In the parking lot.

Q. And where is the parking lot located?
A. The district is 3420 West 63rd
Street.

Q. Okay. So you recall getting to the parking lot at 3420 West 63rd Street and you and Officer Viramontes doing a visual inspection of the outer --
A. The outside and inside.

Q. So you do an interior and exterior visual inspection of the in-car video system on October 20th, 2014?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you log in to the in-car video system for the 841 Robert vehicle on October 20th, 2014?

A. To the video part of it?

Q. Well, just the in-car video system you have to log into it, right?

A. We have to log into it. No.

Q. Did you log into the in-car video system for the 841 Robert vehicle on October 20th, 2014?

A. No.

Q. Why not?

A. Again, it wasn't working.

Q. So log-in was not possible?

A. We didn't try it because -- if it had a ticket, we didn't try it. And I remember not trying it.

Q. But you don't --

A. -- I don't remember if there was a ticket or not.

MS. RUSSELL: Can we have a minute, please?

MR. NEUMER: Sure. 4:07 p.m. We'll go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: 4:07 p.m. We're back on the
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Do you want to make a statement or --
I can't remember what the last question was.

A. About turning on the in-car camera?

Q. Yes.

A. Because I do believe there was a ticket number, that's why I didn't try to log in.

Q. You believe there was like some sort of taped-up number on the in-car video system somewhere on the camera?

A. Yes.

Q. So would there have been any reason for you to sync the microphone to the in-car video system for the 841 Robert vehicle on October 20th, 2014?

A. No.

Q. Because it wasn't working?

A. Exactly.

Q. Okay.

A. Yes.

Q. And there would be no point in verifying that the microphones were synced and operational because the in-car video system for the 841 Robert vehicle was not working on October 20th, 2014?
A. Yes, you can't sync them if it's not on.
Q. Right. And it's fair to say that there would have been no audio or video recovered from the 841 Robert vehicle's in-car video system the night of October 20th, 2014?
A. Yes.
Q. Because the in-car video system wasn't working?
A. Yes.
Q. And did you at any time on October 20th, 2014, or prior to October 20th, 2014, intentionally tamper with the in-car video system for the 841 Robert vehicle causing it to be nonfunctional?
A. No.
Q. Do you know if Officer Viramontes at any time on October 20th, 2014, or prior to October 20th, 2014, intentionally tampered with the in-car video system for the 841 Robert vehicle on -- causing it to be nonfunctional?
A. No.

MR. NEUMER: At this time we are going to hand you what has been previously marked as Exhibits 8, 9, and 10.

(WHEREUPON, Exhibit No. 8, No. 9 and No. 10 were tendered to the witness.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. This all has to do with the 841 Robert vehicle, and its in-car video system.

So Exhibit 8 is a Supplementary Report created by Sergeant Lance Becvar regarding his findings as to the in-car video systems for five CPD vehicles that were at the scene of the Laquan McDonald shooting including the 841 Robert vehicle.

Exhibit 9 is an in-car camera Video Retrieval Worksheet dated October 20th, 2014, that has notes regarding the five vehicles that were at the scene of the Laquan McDonald shooting including the 841 Robert vehicle.

And then Exhibit 10 is an e-mail dated Friday, July 17, 2015, from Sergeant Lance Becvar to Jonathan Lewin regarding his findings as to the in-car video systems for Vehicle...
9-- well, it says 8949, it's actually referring to 8948, which is the 841 Robert vehicle.

So take a moment. Please look these over, these three exhibits, and let me know when you've had a chance to look these over. You don't -- just let me know when you've had a chance to look these over.

MS. RUSSELL: So how do we know that the -- this 8949, how do we know it's actually not 8949 and it's hers?

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Right, so if you look at Exhibits 8 and 9, they refer --

MS. RUSSELL: They flow?

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. -- 841 Robert vehicle as 8948, both 8 and 9 do. So I think it is fair to say we've also confirmed with Sergeant Lance Becvar that that was a typo, that 8949 is actually 8948, but it is true that it refers to Vehicle 8949.

So I'm proceeding under the assumption that the Vehicle 8949 referenced in the Exhibit 10 e-mail from Lance Becvar to Jonathan Lewin in actuality refers to the 841 Robert vehicle, 8948.

And with respect to -- I'll direct your attention to exhibit -- why don't we go to Exhibit 8. You'll see that near the bottom of Exhibit 8, which is the Supplementary Report -- you've got it.

With respect to Beat 841 Robert vehicle, 8948, he notes, "Not engaged. Officer reported application error." So my question is, do you recall having a conversation with Sergeant Becvar on the night of October 20th, 2014, regarding the 841 Robert or Vehicle 8948
in-car video system?

A. No.

Q. Do you know who Sergeant Lance Becvar is?

A. No.

Q. Ever heard that name?

A. No.

Q. Do you recall ever having conversations with anyone regarding the in-car video system of the 841 Robert vehicle on the night of October 20th, 2014?
A. No, I don't recall.

Q. So, again, Officer -- sorry, Sergeant Becvar notes in his Supplementary Report that the in-car video system for 841 Robert vehicle was not engaged and that the officer reported application error. What is the proper protocol for an officer to follow if the in-car video system for their vehicle is not functioning properly?

A. Notify the sergeant.

Q. And did you notify your sergeant on October 20th, 2014, regarding Vehicle 8948 or the 841 Robert vehicle's in-car video system?

A. No, because it was so early in the night.

Q. Okay. Say more. What does that mean that it was early in the night?

A. It was so early in the night because, like I said, until the sergeant comes out, we can't send them a message on the PDT.

Q. And when does he come out?

A. Depending on what he has to do.

Q. So when would it be appropriate to send him a message regarding an inoperable in-car video system?
A. Usually between -- we usually try between 10:30 and...
Q. 10:30 and after?
A. 10:30, yes, and after.
Q. Did you intend on the night of October 20th, 2014, to contact your sergeant about a malfunctioning in-car video system?
A. Yes.
Q. You did intend to do that?
A. Yes, we were going to let him know that it wasn't working.
Q. At any point in the evening of October 20th, 2014, or the morning of October 21st, 2014, did you notify -- is it Sergeant Franko?
A. Sergeant Franko.
Q. At any time on the night of October 20th, 2014, or the morning of October 21st 2014, did you notify Sergeant Franko about a nonfunctioning in-car video system in the 841 Robert vehicle, Number 8948 and its in-car video system?
A. Not that I recall.
Q. Do you recall whether at any time after October 20th or October 21st you notified Sergeant Franko about a nonfunctioning in-car video system in the 841 Robert vehicle?

A. At -- after the 20th?

Q. Yep, after the 20th, after the 21st, did you ever notify Sergeant Franko about a nonfunctioning --

A. Yes.

Q. -- in-car video system in the 841 Robert vehicle?

A. Yes.

Q. When did you do that?

A. I -- I'm not sure, but they -- I can't remember if I was audio or not, but it -- it happened again where we had a ticket number on our vehicle.

Q. Do you recall whether that was the same vehicle you were driving -- sorry, you were the passenger in on October 20th, 2014?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Do you recall ever notifying Sergeant Franko about an issue with a nonfunctioning in-car video system for the 841 Robert vehicle?
after October 20th, 2014?

A. Again --

MS. RUSSELL: Do you remember or not?

BY THE WITNESS:

A. No.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Do you recall filing a help desk ticket with respect to the Vehicle Number 8948 with respect to its nonoperational in-car video system?

A. No.

Q. Any reason --

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I don't -- I didn't because we don't do that. Only a sergeant can do that.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Only the sergeant can do the --

A. Only a sergeant --

Q. Help desk ticket?

A. Yes. Not a regular officer. We can't do that.
Q. Can you -- do you have any sense as to why there was no audio recovered from any of the five vehicles, the CPD vehicles that were at the scene of the Laquan McDonald shooting?

A. No.

Q. Were you -- did you know before today that there was no audio recovered from any of those five vehicles at the scene of the Laquan McDonald shooting?

A. Oh, yes.

Q. You did? Were you surprised to hear that none of those five vehicles captured any audio?

A. Yes.

Q. Why were you surprised?

A. I always assumed if the camera's working, the video -- the audio's working. That was my assumption.

Q. Have you ever heard of a practice amongst Chicago police officers to disable the audio component of their vehicles in-car video systems?

A. Have I ever heard of people doing that?
MS. RUSSELL: I think the question was, have you heard of a practice.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. No.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Have you ever heard of occasions where Chicago police officers have disabled intentionally their in-car video systems?

A. No.

Q. Never?

A. No. Not that somebody actually did it, no.

Q. Going to the Notice of Allegations, it is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you failed to ensure the in-car video system for CPD Vehicle 8948 was working properly at the beginning of your tour of duty.

What is your response to that allegation?

A. My response is I -- it happened so early in the night I didn't have a chance to follow our protocol that we're used to because if it was 3:00 in the morning, you would have noticed it would have been done.
Q. But at any time after 10:30 on the night of October 20th, 2014, did you notify your sergeant of an issue with the 8948 vehicle's in-car video system?

A. No because everybody was running around doing other stuff, and I -- I didn't.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

MS. RUSSELL: Can we go off the record?

MR. NEUMER: Sure. The time is 4:20 p.m. and we'll go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record.)

MR. NEUMER: 4:21 p.m. We're back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Clarifying statement, Officer Fontaine?

A. I didn't notify him because we were already in the area -- we were at the Area.

Q. You were at Area Central at 10:30?

A. No, when -- first of all, everything was going on and then, like I said, I didn't notify him because when we went to the Area, again, everybody was kind of doing so much different things I didn't have a chance to do it.

Q. Is it fair to say you forgot to notify your sergeant about the inoperable in-car video system for vehicle 841 Robert?
A. Yes.

Q. It is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you failed to immediately notify a supervisor that the in-car video system for CPD Vehicle 8948 was inoperable or damaged. What is your response to that allegation?
A. I didn't notify him right away and also because I assumed there was a -- I thought there was a ticket, so I thought it was already reported.

Q. It is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you failed to record audio and video events with CPD Vehicle 8948's in-car video system during your tour of duty. What is your response to that allegation?
A. I thought it was broken, so that's why it -- there was no video or audio.
Q. Is there any -- are there any documents or -- that you're aware of that would sort of corroborate your statement that there may have been a sticker or a ticket on the camera for the 813 Robert vehicle on October 20th, 2014?

A. No.

Q. Would there be any record that you're aware of that would show that someone had placed a sticker or ticket, taped it up to the camera of the 841 Robert vehicle's -- to that vehicle's camera?

A. The only record would be with whoever the sergeant requests the number through, but that's -- that's the only thing besides having -- or me taking a picture of it, which from now on I will.

Q. If there are no help desk tickets open for that 841 Robert vehicle, I mean, would that -- strike that.

I don't believe there are any help desk tickets open for the 841 Robert vehicle, so how do you explain the lack of a help desk ticket with respect to the 841 Robert vehicle with your statement that you thought there was a sticker placed on the camera for the vehicle on the night of October 20th, 2014?
   A. I don't know.
   Q. Is it possible that there was no sticker placed on the camera for the 841 Robert vehicle on the night of October 20th, 2014, and you just forgot to notify your sergeant regarding the nonoperational in-car video system?
   A. No.
   Q. Not possible?
   A. No, because I -- that's one thing that if it -- if there's not a ticket number or something, I do it. This is something that I do.
   Q. Yeah, I just -- it's -- you know, I think you've been very forthcoming, and I just -- I think there's perhaps a little bit of a disconnect here.
   And I want to give you the opportunity -- this is your, kind of, opportunity to explain to us what might have happened that night. So I -- do you have anything else to add regarding the...

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record between Counsel and Witness.)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I mean, looking back, you know, I thought there was a ticket number. Apparently there wasn't. I -- that's -- I don't remember.

MR. NEUMER: Kris, follow-up?

MR. BROWN: Just a couple follow-ups on the dash camera stuff.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Those duties you mentioned earlier as far as checking the camera system and the mic system, do those duties hold for the passenger and the driver of a vehicle?

A. Yes.

Q. And if -- and correct me if I'm wrong -- I think you said that if the camera system is operational, you would send a PDT notification to your sergeant and you would also send a notification if the system was not operational, right?

A. Either case, yes.
Q. So in the case where just like for --

I'm not going to say specifically for October 20th, 2014, but if the system isn't working, yourself and your partner would both send a message in the PDT system saying it's not working?

A. No, because we're together, so we'll send the sergeant a message saying we're using this vehicle, camera not working, under ticket number; mic's not working, under ticket number, blah, blah, blah. So we would both send one.

Q. Who would normally send the PDT message?

A. It varies. Whoever -- whoever -- it just varies.

Q. It's not -- there's no rhyme or reason --

A. No.

Q. -- it's not necessarily the driver or the passenger, it's just whoever?

A. Yeah. It's just who signs on first.

Like if, say, I'm doing still my check and he's already done with his and he's in there and he just does it, then he'll do it. If it's the other way around, I'll do it.

So there's -- I mean, for us, there's no rhyme or reason. We just -- either one of us does it.

Q. Okay. Even if there's a note on the car about it not working, you would still put a PDT message in, correct, either yourself or your partner?

A. Yes.

Q. And, in theory, the days preceding whoever used that vehicle -- I'm talking about the 841R vehicle -- they, whoever used the vehicle, would also have put in a PDT message relating to the video system working or not working, correct?

A. I can't answer for everybody. I don't know what they do.

Q. Sure. I'm not trying to -- because I don't know for certain if you drove the car the day before or, you know, if Viramontes was in the car the day before. I'm asking just more so is it just general policy in your district that pretty much whoever is in the car, they're going to send a PDT message to the sergeant if the video system is either working or not working?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know if the sergeant ever followed up if he doesn't receive a message about the system not working?

A. He'll send messages. If somebody doesn't send him a message, he'll send a message about your vehicle and stuff.

Q. Do you recall receiving such a message on October 20th or I guess maybe even the next day, October 21st, 2014?

A. No.

Q. Do you recall getting any message maybe in the later days about that one particular day, October 20th, 2014?

A. No.

Q. Other than the PDT message, is there any other notification that you would make to the sergeant or anyone else if there was an issue with the video or, I guess, the audio in the vehicle?

A. No, just the sergeant.

Q. But I mean other than the PDT message, would there be anything else? Would you do an e-mail or a phone call or anything else?

A. No.

Q. Just PDT message?

A. Yeah, or if we see him on a call face to face. I mean, otherwise, it's just a PDT.

Q. So even if you see him face to face, do you not have to do the PDT for that day?

A. Well, we do. We send a message.

Q. And you send it -- is that because it's policy, or why do you send it even though you've seen him that -- the sergeant that day?

A. To make sure it's notated that we -- so we have proof that we -- that we're covering ourselves.

Q. That makes sense. As far as you know, is that policy or --

A. I don't know.

Q. -- the policy?

A. I don't know.

Q. Earlier you mentioned that you -- that particular day of October 20th, 2014, you didn't send a PDT out because the McDonald incident happened fairly early and you would normally send a message out around 10:30.

I wanted to ask why is it that you have to wait until 10:30 to send a message?
Can't you just send it whenever you notice that the video system is not working?

A. No, the sergeant has to be logged on to his PDT for it to accept messages. So even if we send a message, it says it won't accept it because it's not logged on.

Q. I see. I didn't know. I thought it was like an e-mail.

A. Oh, no.

Q. So the sergeant also has to have his system on to receive a message?

A. Yes.

Q. I guess in order to get it from you.

A. Yes. So even if we say -- that's how we know he's still in the station because if we try and it doesn't go through, it means he's still not out.

Q. Does the system work where, let's say, you send a message and the sergeant doesn't have the system on, that he will receive your message when he turns his system on?
A. I'm not sure.

Q. I guess is it safe to say that you always want to make sure the sergeant has his PDT system on before you send him a message?

A. Well, yes, because I -- to my knowledge, he wouldn't receive my message.

Q. But your system would tell you if you tried to send the message and he didn't get it --

A. Yes.

Q. -- correct?

A. Yes, so you just keep trying.

Q. Okay. And, for whatever reason, the sergeant usually doesn't have his PDT message system on until 10:30?

A. No, whenever he comes out. Again, sometimes -- depending on what he has to do after roll call, he might be out right with us, he might not. So depending on when he comes out, I -- you know.

Q. Okay.

MR. BROWN: Those are all the questions I have.

MR. NEUMER: I'm going to go off the record for one moment. The time is 4:33 p.m.

(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record.)

MR. NEUMER: The time is 4:35 p.m. We're back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. You know, we have no substantive follow-up on any of the previous topics, but we will give you the opportunity -- understanding what we're looking for here today, we try to be thorough, we try to ask you all relevant questions, but we want to give you the opportunity, is there anything else you would like to add today?

Or, put differently, are there any questions that we should have asked you that we didn't?

MS. RUSSELL: Sorry guys.

MR. NEUMER: The time is 4:35 p.m. We'll
go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: The time is 4:37 p.m. We're back on the record.
BY THE WITNESS:

A. I just wanted to say one thing. I've answered everything as best as I could, as honestly as I could, but it's stressful because you're on TV, grand jury -- I'm sorry -- your name's all over the place...

MS. RUSSELL: Let's take another quick break.

MR. NEUMER: Time is 4:37. We'll go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: The time is 4:39 p.m. and we'll go back on the record.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I just wanted to say I've been in front of the grand jury, the FBI, in the newspapers. Everywhere I turn, my name is there.

From the beginning I've been trying to be honest and remember as best as I can, but with everything being thrown in your face, you start seeing things different. And you don't want to answer wrong or you don't want to say what you think you saw now because you saw something else.

So, for this, the best of my knowledge, I've answered as best and truthful as I know. That's all I wanted to say.

MR. NEUMER: The time is 4:40 p.m. and we'll go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, the interview was concluded at 4:40 p.m.)
CERTIFICATE OF REPORTER

I, MICHELLE M. YOHLER, a Certified Shorthand Reporter within and for the County of Cook, State of Illinois, do hereby certify:

That previous to the commencement of the examination of the witness, the witness was duly sworn to testify the whole truth concerning the matters herein;

ADVICEMENT OF RIGHTS

I, Dorene Fantine, understand that I am being interviewed by Peter Neumer and Kevin Brown from the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General.

DATE: 3/16/16  TIME: LOCATION: 300 S. Adams St. & 800 Chicago Ave.

I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully.

I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand that if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the questions. I further understand and have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I understand and have been advised that my statements or responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's Rules and Regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding.

I understand that I have the right to have a union representative, or legal counsel of my choosing, present at the interview to consult with, and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed.

I understand that a refusal to answer any question, or any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56, and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me, and I have been allowed to review this document.

City ordinance, and if applicable, collective bargaining agreements, provide that you are entitled to notice of the nature of the allegations against you and the identity of all complainants prior to any interview. Accordingly, you are advised as follows:

COMPLAINANT(S)

1. John J. Escalante, Interim Superintendent of Chicago Police Department (CPD), sent a letter to the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General (OIG) dated January 13, 2016, requesting that OIG conduct an administrative investigation of the following allegations arising out of the October 20, 2014 shooting death of Laquan McDonald (the McDonald Shooting): "whether any officer(s) made false statement on official reports submitted in connection with the shooting of Laquan McDonald on October 20, 2014; whether any officer(s) obstructed or interfered with the investigation of this incident, either individually or in collusion with others; and whether any officer(s) committed any violation of Chicago Police Department rules, policies, or orders in connection with their response and/or handling of this matter." Escalante attached to the letter a copy of Sergeant S. Soria's (Star # 2275) Initiation Report, which raises similar allegations of misconduct with respect to Department members in connection with the McDonald Shooting, and identified that Report as a basis for OIG's administrative investigation.

ALLEGATION(S)

1. On or about October 20, 2014, you provided a false narrative to Detective David March of the Chicago Police Department (CPD) concerning the McDonald Shooting, through a series of false statements and material omissions.

2. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a false statement during an interview with CPD Detective David March of the Chicago Police Department when, with respect to the McDonald Shooting, you stated that McDonald was walking southbound, with his body facing east, toward Officers Van Dyke and Walsh.

3. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a material omission during an interview with CPD Detective March when, with respect to the McDonald Shooting, you failed to state that Officers Van Dyke and Walsh moved towards McDonald prior to the shooting.

4. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a material omission during an interview with CPD Detective March when, with respect to the McDonald Shooting, you failed to state that McDonald changed the direction in which he was walking prior to being shot by Officer Van Dyke.

5. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a false statement during an interview with CPD Detective March when, with respect to the McDonald Shooting, you stated that McDonald raised his right arm toward Officer Van Dyke, as if attacking Van Dyke.

6. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a false statement during an interview with CPD Detective March when, with respect to the McDonald Shooting, you...
stated that the gunshots Officer Van Dyke fired at McDonald were rapid fire and without pause.

7. On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to ensure the in-car video system for CPD vehicle 8948 was working properly at the beginning of your tour of duty.

8. On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to immediately notify a supervisor that the in-car video system for CPD vehicle 8948 was inoperable or damaged.

9. On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to audibly record events with CPD vehicle 8948’s in-car video system during your tour of duty.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I hereby acknowledge receipt in writing of the identity of the complainant(s) and notice of the nature of the allegation(s) against me.

FONTAINE, Dora ----
stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.
This form is designed for recording handwritten notes and memoranda which are made during the conduct of investigations, including: interview memoranda (handwritten or typewritten), witness and suspect interview notes, on-scene canvas notes, and any handwritten personal notes made by detectives during the field investigation of violent crimes which are used to prepare official Department case reports.

IN-CAR VIDEO SYSTEMS

ISSUE DATE: 23 February 2012  EFFECTIVE DATE: 23 February 2012
RESYNDS: Version dated 20 April 2011, S10-10 INDEX CATEGORY: Field Operations

I. PURPOSE
This directive:
A. implements the use of Department in-car video systems.
B. establishes the policies and procedures for the use, maintenance, and repair of in-car video systems.
C. establishes the roles and responsibilities of Department members affected by the introduction of in-car video systems for the video and audio recording of incidents.
D. establishes the requirements for viewing, retaining, and duplicating digitally recorded incidents.
E. continues the use of the Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/ Duplication Request (CPD-65.224).
F. identifies the Records Division as the Department repository and viewing location of digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems.

II. POLICY
The Department is committed to protecting the safety and welfare of its members and the public. The in-car video systems can provide members with an invaluable instrument to enhance criminal prosecution by providing powerful evidence of criminal activity, limit civil liabilities, and objectively document officer conduct during individual interactions. Members assigned to a vehicle equipped with an in-car video system will use it pursuant to this directive.

III. GENERAL INFORMATION
A. There is no expectation of privacy for Department members related to incidents recorded by in-car video systems. Supervisors, members of Bureau of Internal Affairs, and the Independent Police Review Authority (IPRA) investigators may request to review the digitally recorded data from a vehicle equipped with an in-car video system. Any digitally recorded data created by the in-car video system may be used without a Department member’s permission for any official Departmental purpose.
B. The in-car video system will automatically engage audio and video recording when the vehicle’s emergency roof lights are activated. However, Department members may manually activate the in-car video system without the activation of the emergency equipment. At the conclusion of the incident, Department members must manually disengage all recording processes, regardless of what method activated the in-car video system.
C. The Records Division will be the custodians of the digitally recorded data and will be responsible for the retention, duplication, and viewing of the in-car video systems. The Director, Records Division, will establish retention, viewing, and duplication procedures that provide for inventory control, the security of the digitally recorded data, and authorized duplications.
D. All digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems will be retained by the Records Division for a minimum of 90 days. Digitally recorded data that is marked and held as having evidentiary or training value will be retained as prescribed by law and established Department policy.
E. In general, minor infractions and minor deviations from Department policy observed through the review of digitally recorded data will not be subject to the disciplinary process and will be treated as a training opportunity.
IV. RECORDING GUIDELINES

A. Department members will use only Department-issued video and audio recording equipment.

B. Department members will conform to all laws and Department policies concerning the use of the in-car video system for the video and audio recording of incidents.

1. Department members are lawfully permitted to video record individuals without their consent if they are on the public way or in public view.

2. Department members who are in uniform and have identified their office are lawfully permitted to simultaneously audibly and visually record individuals without their consent whenever:
   a. the member is conducting an enforcement stop, or
   b. the patrol vehicle emergency lights are activated or would otherwise be activated if not for the need to conceal the presence of law enforcement.

NOTE: Any reports completed for an audibly recorded incident, including Traffic Stop Statistical Study - Driver Information Cards (CPD-21.103), Traffic Stop Statistical Study Stickers (CPD-15.516), and Personal Service Citations, must include the initial violation or investigatory need that led to the stop.

NOTE: Department members may audibly record an enforcement stop regardless of the subsequent enforcement action taken.

3. Department members may audibly and visually record an individual with the consent of the individual.

C. Uniformed Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will activate the system to simultaneously audibly and visually record the entire incident for all enforcement stops.

D. Uniformed Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will activate the system to visually record the entire incident for all:
   1. arrests and transports.
   2. nonpursuit emergency vehicle operations.
   3. any situation that the member, through training and experience, believes to serve a proper police purpose.

E. During the recording of an incident, Department members will not disengage the in-car video system until the entire incident has been recorded.

NOTE: Department members will be required to justify any disengagement of the in-car video system prior to the entire incident being recorded.

F. If recorded, felony and misdemeanor arrests, motor vehicle pursuits, traffic crashes resulting in property damage, personal injury, or a fatality, DUI incidents, and failure to yield to an emergency vehicle will be automatically stored by the in-car video system indefinitely when the correct event is selected from the postevent pop-up menu. All other incidents will be automatically stored for ninety days.

G. If digitally recorded data will be needed in judicial proceedings beyond ninety days, members will place an extended hold on that digitally recorded data as described in Item VIII of this directive, including but not limited to the following circumstances:
   1. Traffic stops other than DUI,
2. Enforcement stops,
3. Other traffic crash investigations, and
4. Stops for citizen assistance.

H. When a complaint against a Department member is received that involves a digitally recorded incident, the investigating member will request an extended hold on the data.

I. Assigned supervisors will request an extended hold on all digitally recorded motor vehicle pursuits and traffic crashes involving Department vehicles.

V. DEPLOYMENT OF THE IN-CAR VIDEO SYSTEMS

A. Commanding officers of units with vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will:
   1. ensure that vehicles equipped with in-car video systems are evenly distributed for use by all watches.

   NOTE: Commanding officers will ensure the units assigned to traffic duties in district law enforcement use vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.

   2. whenever feasible, ensure vehicles equipped with the in-car video systems are deployed every tour of duty and service is requested for inoperable vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.

B. The station supervisors will:
   1. deploy every vehicle equipped with a functional in-car video system during the tour of duty.
   2. ensure digitally recorded data is downloaded from the in-car video systems.
   3. whenever operationally feasible, review video of any arrest recorded by the in-car video system as part of the approval of probable cause.

VI. OPERATIONAL PROCEDURES

A. Department members assigned to a Department vehicle equipped with an in-car video system will:
   1. at the beginning of a tour of duty:
      a. visually inspect the in-car video system equipment for damage.
      b. obtain the remote transmitter/audio recorder and ensure it is securely attached to the member’s person.
      c. follow the start-up procedures for the in-car video system as trained and ensure the system is working properly.

         NOTE: Members will immediately notify a supervisor if, at any time, the in-car video system is inoperable, damaged, the equipped vehicle becomes inoperable, or the remote transmitter/audio recorder is missing.

   2. during the tour of duty:
      a. audibly and visually record events in accordance with this directive.
      b. annotate all reports, including Contact Information Cards (CPD-21.101), prepared for an event which has been recorded by listing “Video Recorded Incident” at the end of the narrative portion.
c. after an incident has been recorded, use the post-event pop-up menu to select the most serious recorded occurrence as the event type and enter other event information.

NOTE: If the member did not use the postevent pop-up menu to mark the incident as being held for evidence, the member will request an extended hold on digitally recorded data in accordance with Item VIII of this directive.

d. if the in-car video system indicates that the memory required to record incidents is becoming low or if the member observes that less than 30 minutes of recording time is available, download the digitally recorded data.

3. at the conclusion of a tour of duty:
   a. verify the in-car video system is working properly.
   b. initiate the downloading of the digitally recorded data.

NOTE: Members will immediately notify a supervisor if unable to complete the downloading of digitally recorded data due to technical problems.

c. shut down the in-car video system and logoff the system.
   d. return the remote transmitter/audio recorder to the designated area for charging.

B. The sergeant assigned to supervise Department members using Department vehicles equipped with an in-car video system will:

1. monitor subordinates to ensure the in-car video system is used and that digitally recorded data is properly downloaded.

2. ensure that the Help Desk is contacted and a ticket number is obtained whenever any member is unable to use the in-car video system or download digitally recorded data due to technical problems.

3. initiate an investigation when notified of a missing or lost remote transmitter/audio recorder.

4. document on the Supervisor’s Management Log (CPD-11.455):
   a. whether each vehicle has an in-car video system and if it is functioning.
   b. all responses related to malfunctions of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.
   c. digitally recorded data downloaded to land-based terminals, noting any units unable to complete the download and the Help Desk ticket number obtained.
   d. any request submitted for an extended hold of digitally recorded data.
   e. any instances of additional training, corrective measures, or disciplinary actions.

5. document on the Traffic Pursuit Report (CPD-22.958) or traffic crash report that the incident has been digitally recorded.

6. obtain a complaint register number and order an evidence technician to process the equipment if any damage or malfunction is suspected to have been caused by deliberate (tampering) means.

C. Station supervisors will:

1. designate a sergeant responsible for monitoring the downloading of digitally recorded data for the watch.
2. record the total number of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems deployed during the watch and the total number of these vehicle that do not have a functioning in-car video system, if any, on the Watch Incident Log (CPD-21.916).

3. ensure the status of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems is recorded on the Personal Equipment Log (CPD-21.919) by recording the word "VIDEO" in the "Camera/Tripod No." column.

4. if an in-car video system malfunctions or the system or vehicle becomes inoperable during the tour, record the vehicle and beat numbers and the words "VIDEO DOWN" on the Watch Incident Log.

D. When digitally recorded data is determined to have evidentiary or training value, or a complaint against a Department member is received that involves a digitally recorded incident, the supervisor reviewing the recorded data will request an extended hold on the data.

VII. DOWNLOADING DIGITALLY RECORDED DATA FROM THE IN-CAR VIDEO SYSTEM

A. When downloading digitally recorded data from the mobile unit of an in-car video system to a land-based terminal, Department members will:

1. download the data in accordance with the manufacturer's guidelines and training,

2. ensure the download of data was complete and return the vehicle back into service.

B. With the approval of the station supervisor in the district of occurrence, special requests for the immediate viewing of digitally recorded data from the Bureau of Detectives, Bureau of Internal Affairs, or IPRA will be processed for major incidents where an in-car camera system may be reasonably expected to have captured a component of the incident.

1. Major incidents include, but are not limited to:

   a. police-involved shootings,

   b. serious injury or death to a Department member,

   c. serious injury or death to a member of the public.

2. Special requests for viewing digitally recorded data will be made to the station supervisor in the district of occurrence, who will:

   a. evaluate the request;

   b. determine if the need for retrieval outweighs the operational impact of the vehicle being taken out of service, and

   c. notify Crime Prevention and Information Center (CPIC) of the decision.

3. Special requests will be in the form of one of the following types:

   a. Special wireless upload, or

   b. Emergency on-site retrieval.

C. Special Wireless Uploads

1. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will take the vehicle out of service and secure it at the unit of assignment or other appropriate location.

2. The supervisor will:

   a. verify that the vehicle operator or partner is signed on to the in-car camera system;

   b. instruct the member to manually flag the entire tour of duty's available video for upload;
c. instruct the member to initiate a manual upload of this video with the vehicle in range of the facility’s wireless hotspot; and

NOTE: If video cannot be uploaded via wireless hotspot, a cradle upload will be used.

d. ensure that the vehicle remains out of service until the upload is complete.

3. Once complete, the station supervisor will allow personnel from the Bureau of Detectives, Bureau of Internal Affairs, or IPRA, as appropriate, to review the uploaded files.

NOTE: For officer-involved shootings when an On-Call Incident Commander (OCIC) will respond, an emergency on-site retrieval will be immediately requested through CPIC.

4. The station supervisor may identify an alternate vehicle for the member to use while the identified vehicle completes its video upload, as appropriate.

5. If an attempt to wirelessly upload is unsuccessful, members may contact the City of Chicago Help Desk at 4-DATA for assistance.

6. If a wireless upload fails, an emergency on-site retrieval will be conducted.

D. Emergency On-Site Retrieval

1. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will notify CPIC of an approved emergency on-site retrieval.

NOTE: An emergency on-site retrieval will only be conducted when an OCIC is responding or a wireless upload fails and contacting the City of Chicago Help Desk at 4-DATA has not resolved the problem.

2. CPIC will notify the Public Sector Information Technology (PSIT) Group personnel of a manual video retrieval from the “fail-safe” internal drive request.

3. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will take the identified vehicle out of service during the retrieval process.

4. If the identified vehicle is still in use when the designated supervisor arrives at the unit facility or other appropriate location, the supervisor will report to the vehicle and instruct any member logged onto the system to log off the system.

5. The vehicle will remain out of service until PSIT responds and conducts the video retrieval.

NOTE: On-site review of video will be limited to the series of events and time frame giving rise to the alleged incident.

E. Viewing and Obtaining Copies of In-Car Video Recordings

1. Once retrieval has been completed for the requested time frame, the video may be viewed by personnel from the requesting party at the location of retrieval.

2. Requests for copies of in-car video recordings will be made by completing the form entitled “Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request” (CPD-65.224) and forwarding it to the Records Division.

F. The Managing Deputy Director, PS/IT, will:

1. establish procedures to ensure the security of the digitally recorded data from downloading to storage by the Records Division.
2. develop a system to monitor the memory capacity of the land-based terminals and provide for the security of the downloaded data.

G. If members are unable to download digitally recorded data from the mobile unit of the in-car video system to the land-based terminals due to system inoperability:

1. the station supervisor will notify the Help Desk and follow any further instructions given by the responding member of PSIT.

2. A designated member of PSIT will respond to the requesting unit and:
   a. ensure the security of the digitally recorded data.
   b. perform a manual download of the digitally recorded data.
   c. record the manual download on the Help Desk ticket.

VIII. REQUESTING A HOLD FOR DIGITALLYRecorded DATA

A. Department members will place an extended hold on digitally recorded data they recorded using the postevent pop-up menu on the in-car video system.

B. Within the first 48 hours from downloading digitally recorded data from the vehicle, Department members who do not use the postevent pop-up menu and request an extended hold on digitally recorded data will request that a supervisor place the extended hold by using the land-based terminal at the district/unit station.

C. After the first 48 hours from downloading digitally recorded data from the vehicle, Department members who do not use the postevent pop-up menu and request an extended hold on digitally recorded data will:
   1. complete the Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold /Duplication Request form.
   2. indicate on the form the necessary actions by the Records Division.
   3. explain in the narrative portion of the form the reason for the request.
   4. submit the form to the station supervisor/designated unit supervisor for approval.
   5. submit the completed and approved form to the Records Division for processing and retention in accordance with existing records-retention requirements.

D. Department members who wish to remove an extended hold on digitally recorded data will follow the procedures outlined in Item VIII-C of this directive indicating the circumstances requiring the removal of the extended hold.

E. The Director, Records Division, will:
   1. develop a cataloging system for storage and retrieval of recordings and procedures for ensuring archives are maintained consistent with Department directives (including the Forms Retention Schedule), applicable state and federal laws, and compliance with all court orders.
   2. be responsible for retaining digitally recorded data for which an extended hold was requested as prescribed by law and established Department policy.

IX. VIEWING, RETAINING, AND DUPLICATING DIGITALLY Recorded DATA

A. All digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems are the property of the Chicago Police Department. Dissemination of any digitally recorded data outside the Department is strictly prohibited without specific authorization by the Superintendent or an appointed designee.

1. Any non-Departmental requests for duplication of digitally recorded data must be approved by the Superintendent or an appointed designee.
2. All approved requests will be forwarded in an expeditious manner to the Director, Records Division, along with:
   a. a completed and approved Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form, and
   b. written instructions, including dissemination information, for compliance with the request.

B. Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems and their supervisors are encouraged to use the review/playback functions of the system for the purposes of:

   1. developing familiarity with the functions, capabilities, and limitations of the in-car video systems to create consistent recording techniques which capture relevant actions.
   2. searching for and identifying recorded events having evidentiary or training value.
   3. reviewing approach and officer safety issues.
   4. ensuring consistency with written reports.

C. Reviewing Digitally Recorded Data

Investigating members may view digitally recorded data in the performance of official police business. When it is necessary to view digitally recorded data stored by the Records Division, the following procedures will apply:

1. The requesting Department member will:
   a. prepare a Digitally Recorded Data Viewing / Hold / Duplication Request form, including approval of the requestor's station supervisor/designated unit supervisor.
   b. schedule an appointment to view the recorded incident with a Records Division supervisor (or an appointed designee) to ensure the availability of a technician and playback equipment.
   c. present the properly completed and approved form to a Records Division supervisor at the scheduled time.

2. A Records Division supervisor will:
   a. process all approved recorded incident review requests.
   b. assign a technician to assist the requestor in viewing the recorded incident, as required.

D. Obtaining a Video Recording

1. A duplicate copy of selected information may be made to retain that information:
   a. when it is not required that the master video be retained for an indefinite period (e.g., investigation of a routine administrative incident when the punishment is of a summary or minor nature).
   b. when the requesting member determines that a duplicate video of a master video will be sufficient.

2. A duplicate video recording may be obtained by:
   a. completing a Digitally Recorded Data Viewing / Hold / Duplication Request form and submitting the completed form to the station supervisor/designated unit supervisor for approval.
   b. notifying the Records Division that a duplicate video recording is required and submit the approved Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold Duplication Request form to the Director, Records Division.
c. indicating to the Records Division which information from the digitally recorded data is to be included on the duplicate video recording.

3. When the duplicate video recording has served the purpose for which it was made, the requesting member will ensure that it is immediately returned to the Records Division.

NOTE: A member requesting a duplicate video recording will not make additional copies of it or permit unauthorized persons to duplicate or view it under any circumstances.

E. Special Situations

When the Records Division receives a request for an extended hold of digitally recorded data that indicates it pertains to:

1. a motor vehicle pursuit or traffic crash involving a Department vehicle, the Director, Records Division, will ensure a duplicate video is forwarded to the Traffic Review Board.

2. an incident having training value, the Director, Records Division, will ensure a duplicate video is forwarded to the Deputy Chief, Education and Training Division.

Hello Dep Lewin,

Per your request the findings related to the Aggravated Assault / Police involved Shooting on 20 Oct 2014. Listed under RFD # HY 475653:

Findings from that night:

Veh 8779 Video Recovered Titled [redacted] 1020141020151525 0 No MICs because they were in the Glove Compartment with the batteries inserted upside down - Disabling them

Veh 8489 System not engaged because a very long video (like hours long) was made previous to this event/incident and the system was processing that video and unable to start another video

Veh 8765 System not engaged, officer related no power. There was no open HDT called in on vehicle. MICs not sync'd to system even though they were in the charging cradles Veh 6412 Video Recovered Titled [redacted] 1020141020151525 view out of focus. Focusing problem found to be related to a loose cable connection for the camera. No MICs in vehicle and the charging cradles disconnected from power.

Veh 8949 System not engaged, officer reported that there was an application error - Mobile Recorder Start-Up corrupted. No Help Desk Ticket Open for this vehicle.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife!” multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to “Drop the knife!” multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to “hang in there,” and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ------

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer McElligott exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan McDonald. Gaffney stayed in the vehicle in case McDonald fled. McElligott called to McDonald and told him to stop but McDonald continued walking eastbound, ignoring McElligott. McDonald's hands were in his pockets as he walked. McElligott told McDonald to take his hands out of his pockets. McDonald took his hands out of his pockets and McElligott told Gaffney that McDonald had a knife. Gaffney then saw a silver colored knife in McDonald's right hand. Gaffney also saw that McElligott had his handgun drawn at this point. McElligott repeatedly ordered McDonald to "Drop the knife," but McDonald ignored these directions. As McDonald reached Keeler Avenue, Gaffney notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

McDonald continued walking eastbound, Officer McElligott following on foot and Officer Gaffney following in the police vehicle. As McDonald approached Karlov Avenue, Gaffney turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. Gaffney said he wanted to stop McDonald before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where McDonald was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When Gaffney stopped his vehicle in front of McDonald, blocking his path, McDonald stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. Gaffney immediately informed the radio dispatcher that McDonald had "popped" the tire. McElligott attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and Gaffney drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block McDonald's path. McDonald then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. McDonald then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As McDonald approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. McDonald began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued McDonald in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer Gaffney lost sight of McDonald when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer Gaffney did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, Gaffney heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski McDonald was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer Gaffney wore the same uniform configuration as Officer Van Dyke with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

McElligott, Joseph P -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. McElligott related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas Gaffney.

Officer McElligott added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan McDonald took his hands out of his pockets and McElligott saw McDonald holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin’
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora-----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo-----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, [redacted], who was working at the drive-thru window. [redacted] observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. [redacted] last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. [redacted] then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at [redacted] of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. [redacted] heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was [redacted] of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was [redacted] of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse [redacted], recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Officer Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ------
related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. [redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." [redacted] said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [redacted] said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, [redacted].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, of the 9-1-1 caller, [redacted] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was “growling” and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted] attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recorded on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked[redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE’s use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department’s use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed /
Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin’
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD’s knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

[redacted] stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

[redacted] stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. [redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as [redacted] stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

[Redacted] stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." [Redacted] said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

[Redacted] last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [Redacted] said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

[Redacted] had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, [Redacted].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, [Redacted] of the 9-1-1 caller, [Redacted] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted] attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE’s use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department’s use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

MR. NEUMER: As a preliminary matter, I am providing the following information. An independent certified court reporter is present today to provide a verbatim transcript of this interview.

To aid in the accuracy of the transcript, it is the custom and practice of court reporters to audio record the interview. The recording is the confidential work product property of the court reporter and will not be provided to any party including the OIG. If you request, the audio recording will be discontinued.

So, Detective March, are you okay with the court reporter audio recording this interview?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: Let the record reflect that today's date is July 25th, 2016. The time is 9:59 am. We are located at Amicus Court Reporters, 300 West Adams, Suite 800.

My name is Peter Neumer, the court reporter is Michelle Yohler, and I'd ask that the other individuals present identify themselves and spell their name for the record.

MS. WITZBURG: Assistant Inspector General,
Deborah Witzburg, D-e-b-o-r-a-h W-i-t-z-b-u-r-g.

MR. MCKAY: James P. McKay, Jr. Last name is spelled M-c-K-a-y. I'm an attorney, and I represent Detective David March.

THE WITNESS: Detective David March. Last name is spelled M-a-r-c-h.

MR. NEUMER: Detective March, I'm now going to hand you a form that's Advisements of Rights.
This has been marked previously as Exhibit 1.
This Advisement of Rights form has already been filled in with your name, my name, my colleague Deborah Witzburg's name.

I'm going to ask you to read along with me as I go through this form, and I'm going to ask you to acknowledge after each paragraph that you've read the paragraph.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked
March Deposition Exhibit No. 1, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

MR. MCKAY: Peter, before we begin, can I put something on the record?

MR. NEUMER: For sure.
MR. McKay: Peter, recently my client, Detective March, was notified of this appearance here this morning. The Notification of Interview describes Detective March as an accused. The appearance suggests that Detective David March's false statements concerning the McDonald shooting and a review and approval of reports containing false statements.

The Notification of Allegations list four allegations premised on John Escalante's letter to the Inspector General dated January 13, 2016. John Escalante's letter references a memo drafted by Sergeant Soria,
S-o-r-i-a. That memo was dated on or about July 17, 2015.

The allegations include, number one,
that Detective March reviewed and approved an Original Case Incident Report prepared by Officer Dora Fontaine and that report falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was, quote, injured by offender.

Secondly, that Detective March is accused of assisting in the drafting of the report I just mentioned.
Three, that Detective March made a false statement to Investigator Earl Briggs of the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office when, with respect to the shooting, Officer Briggs' report indicates that McDonald lunged at Chicago police officers.

And the fourth allegation is that Detective March is incompetent in the performance of his duties in the ways enumerated by allegations one through three.

Mr. Neumer, I'm asking you do you believe these new allegations indicate a criminal prosecution is probable against Detective March?

MR. NEUMER: OIG is conducting an administrative investigation. OIG is not conducting a joint investigation and is not working with any other law enforcement agency with respect to this investigation.

MR. McKAY: Thank you. I would ask, however, that you advise Detective March of his Constitutional rights pursuant to Miranda versus Arizona. It's unclear whether a criminal investigation is going to take place and, if so, who will be doing that. A special prosecutor has yet to be named regarding any of the police officers not named Jason Van Dyke in this particular case. So, with that said, I ask that you advise Detective March of his Constitutional rights pursuant to Miranda versus Arizona.

MR. NEUMER: The outcome of this administrative investigation relates to the subject's employment and, therefore, under the CBA and General Order, the administrative rights OIG will be providing Detective March are appropriate.

MR. McKAY: Consistent with Detective March's last statement, indeed, Detective March was here for two days on April 26th and 27th of this year. His statement spanned what I estimate to be almost 12 hours.

Mr. Neumer, you were here, the court reporter Michelle Paoletti Yohler was here, Investigator Kris Brown was here, myself, and Detective March were here.

At that time I had asked whether Mr. William Marback's letter to the Chicago
Police Department command staff dated on January 4, 2016, requesting a number of items be provided to the Office of Inspector General, and at that time no answer was given regarding these items that were requested, which include 25 separate things.

I ask you today, Mr. Neumer, are you going to be using any items the Office of Inspector General has received since Mr. Marback's letter of January 4th, 2016, and any subsequent letters issued by either Mr. Marback, you, or any other agent of the Inspector General and Detective March's statement here today?

MR. NEUMER: So the question is, are we going to be using any documents we received since what date was it?

MR. NEUMER: It's possible. For certain we will be putting in front of Detective March the two exhibits or documents that we provided as part of the Notice of Interview packet.

So that will be the Medical Examiner Investigation Case Report ME 2014-01071, and then the Original Case Incident Report with the event number 1429315878.

So those are the two documents that we will be certainly showing Detective March today.

MR. McKAY: We acknowledge receipt of those two documents, Peter, when you forwarded them to me late last week. Thank you.

My question now is, in addition to these two documents, do you intend to use or is it possible you could use any other documents at this statement today besides these two reports?

MR. NEUMER: It is possible.

MR. McKAY: What are they?

MR. NEUMER: When we come to appropriate points in the interview, if documents are necessary, we'll certainly give you and Detective March time to review those documents. But, again, we don't know what we will or won't need to show.

MR. McKAY: Okay. Late last week when you advised me of this second interview of Detective March and provided me the two reports we have just talked about, I had sent you a request for discovery, essentially where I was asking for
you or your office to provide me with any statements of any witnesses that indicate that Detective March was asked to review and approve Officer Fontaine's report that you have provided.

Do you have any statements that you can provide me and Detective March here this morning from other witnesses about
Officer Fontaine's report?

MR. NEUMER: So our office has provided
Detective March with all the documents required
by the CBA and applicable law.

MR. McKAY: Secondly, I asked you in writing and I ask you again today on the record,
can you provide me and Detective March with any rule or General Order from the police department
or any other agency that indicates that a detective is supposed to review and approve or disapprove of a report prepared by a district
police officer?

MR. NEUMER: Again, our office has provided
Detective March with all the documents required
by the CBA and applicable law.
MR. McKAY: Thank you. Can you provide me with any sworn testimony of Cook County Medical Examiner's Office Investigator Earl Briggs?

MR. NEUMER: Again, our office has provided Detective March with all the documents provided -- required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Can you tell me if Investigator Earl Briggs has given a statement to the Office of Inspector General?

MR. NEUMER: Again, OIG has provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Can you tell me whether Investigator Briggs has not given a statement to the Office of Inspector General?

MR. NEUMER: Again, we've provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Thank you. Mr. Neumer, can you tell me -- strike that.

Can you provide to me and Detective March any statements, notes, internal memorandum, or any other documents generated by Investigator Earl Briggs of the Cook County
Medical Examiner's Office besides the report that you gave to me and Detective March late last week?

MR. NEUMER: OIG has provided Detective March with all the documents required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Can you tell me -- because I can't read it, frankly -- who Earl Briggs' supervisor was, a signature of which is contained on Page 4 of this four-page report you gave to us late last week? Can you tell us who Mr. Briggs' supervisor is?

MR. NEUMER: Again, in terms of documents and information, we've provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA.

MR. McKAY: And this is one document you have provided.

MR. NEUMER: Mm-hm. Yes.

MR. McKAY: My question is, who is this person, a signature of which appears above the supervisor line on Page 4? Who is that? For my purpose, for my curiosity as well as Detective March's right to know who his accusers may be,
who is this person? I can't read that signature. Can you?

MR. NEUMER: Again, we've provided Detective March with all the documents and
information required by --

MR. McKAY: That doesn't answer my question, Peter. Who is the supervisor?

MR. NEUMER: Right. I mean, the document speaks for itself. And, beyond that, we've provided all the -- Detective March all the documents and information required under the CBA.

MR. McKAY: Are you relying on this document for your interview of Detective March
today?

MR. NEUMER: We will be providing this --
we already provided this document to Detective
March, and we will be asking him questions
regarding this document today.

MR. McKAY: So you will be relying on this document?

MR. NEUMER: I mean, relying on -- I know
we will be asking questions about the Medical Examiner's Case Report today.
MR. McKay: Well, my question is this then,

Peter: If you're going to be asking questions about this document, yet you refuse to identify the supervisor of Investigator Briggs, whose name appears in this document, I ask that you not ask Detective March anything about this document if you cannot identify signatures on this document above and beyond Mr. Briggs'. That's fair, don't you agree?

MR. NEUMER: We're going to be asking Detective March questions about his knowledge of this document and what he knows. We're not going to be asking him to speculate about anything beyond the document, so our questions are going to be eminently fair today.

MR. McKay: Well, if it is clear to you, Ms. Witzburg, or anybody in the Inspector General's Office that there are errors contained in Investigator Briggs' report, which you have tendered, will you or have you or will anybody in your office report to Patrick Blanchard, the Inspector General of Cook County, that the people who generated this report need to be investigated for incompetence?
MR. NEUMER: If we uncover facts that determine a notification is appropriate, certainly we would take appropriate action.

MR. McKAY: All right. Fair enough. Can you provide me with the names of the complainants besides John Escalante and Sergeant Soria and their affidavits, assuming they're civilians and not sworn police officers, that provide a basis for these new allegations.

MR. NEUMER: The Notification of Allegations that OIG provided to Detective March fully complies with the CBA and speaks for itself.

MR. McKAY: Well, if you are basing these new allegations on Mr. John Escalante's letter of January 13th, 2016, and Sergeant Soria's memo of July 15th, 2015, clearly John Escalante's letter suggests that the investigation he's asking your office to conduct be consistent with the Collective Bargaining Agreement, General Orders, and I submit consistent with Illinois State Law.

Illinois State Law clearly mandates that if there is a complainant who is not a sworn officer alleging some misconduct on behalf of any police officer -- in this case, Detective
March -- that complainant's allegations be supported by affidavit.

You have no affidavit to provide me
and Detective March today; is that correct?
MR. NEUMER: Again, the Notification of Allegations speaks for itself and we believe
fully complies with the CBA and applicable law.
MR. McKAY: Your allegations one
through -- strike that -- one and two suggesting that David March has some type of duty to either review and approve Dora Fontaine's report or
that he actually assisted her in preparing this report, I submit to you, John Escalante would know that that is absolutely not true.

So if you are alleging numbers one
and two allegations based on John Escalante’s letter, I would submit to you that is absolutely inconsistent with John Escalante's knowledge of Chicago Police Department procedure,
report-writing, and who approves a district
police officer's report.

Since I believe in good faith John Escalante would not allege these things, can you
tell me who is?

MR. NEUMER: Again, OIG's position is that the Notice of Allegations complies fully with
the CBA and it speaks for itself.

MR. McKAY: I would submit to you then,
Mr. Neumer, in all due respect to you and
Ms. Witzburg, that without some affidavit of some civilian complainant alleging this stuff, I believe in good faith that it is none other than
Mr. Ferguson and your office that is alleging
these things without a good faith basis.

With that said, we are objecting to Joseph Ferguson and his office investigating his own allegations, and I request again, as we did back in April, that Mr. Ferguson and his office
recuse themselves from his investigation
because, two reasons: One, it is wrong for him to investigate his own allegations. That's not fair.

Secondly, we ask that Mr. Ferguson
and his office, with all due respect to the both
of you, that he recuse himself from this investigation because he's prejudice against
Detective March because of his presence on the Police Accountability Task Force and the report that that task force submitted before they heard one sworn word from Detective March in April in that that report suggests certain findings of the Laquan McDonald shooting that are completely inconsistent with what Detective March told you and Kris Brown on April 26th and April 27th.

And Mr. Ferguson should recuse himself and his agents from any further investigation of this shooting because of that report he put his name on along with the chairperson of the police board, Lori Lightfoot.

So will you recuse yourselves and Mr. Ferguson from this investigation today?

MR. NEUMER: OIG is not going to recuse itself from this investigation, and OIG's position is that it can and is conducting a fair and impartial investigation.

MR. MCKAY: As you know, Mr. Neumer, two grievances have been filed in this particular case, one by Chicago FOP. In fact, that grievance had been filed before Detective March gave you sworn testimony on April 26th and April 27th. Since then, a second grievance has been filed, indeed, by Detective March.

We're objecting to this investigation continuing with those grievances still pending.

No arbitrator has ruled on those grievances, and the Inspector General has not agreed to continue this investigation until an arbitrator has ruled on them.

Will you, on behalf of Mr. Ferguson, stop this investigation and wait for the arbitrator to rule on these two grievances?

MR. NEUMER: OIG is not aware of any court order enjoining Detective March's interview and, therefore, having provided the appropriate Notice of Interview, OIG will proceed with the interview.

MR. McKAY: Okay. Of the two reports that you have provided in discovery to Detective March and myself, you have indicated one is Investigator Earl Briggs' Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report.

I would like to ask you, Mr. Neumer, when did you or your office receive Investigator Briggs' report?
MR. NEUMER: Again, OIG has provided Detective March with all the documents and information required by the CBA, and, beyond that, we have a duty of confidentiality.

MR. McKAY: Well, the reason I ask the question is because Detective March was here for one full day and half of a second day. If you did have this report then, Mr. Neumer, why didn't you ask Detective March about Investigator Briggs' report then?

MR. NEUMER: I guess I'll just say we're here today and we have relevant questions to ask today pertaining to our investigation.

MR. McKAY: Well, I appreciate that, but,
Peter, if they're relevant questions today -- and, further, if you had this report back then in April, weren't they relevant in April and, if so, why didn't you ask Detective March when you had him for almost two full days in April about this report?

MR. NEUMER: We can't -- our office can't provide details regarding timing. I understand your question and, again, we try and ask all relevant questions as soon as we can.
MR. McKAY: Well, I think timing is relevant. I think out of fundamental fairness of the accused -- and you have accused Detective March, let's make no mistake about that -- out of fundamental fairness, I think timing is relevant.

And if you had this information and he was here and cooperated and gave sworn testimony, why didn't you and Mr. Brown ask him about Investigator Briggs' report then?

MR. NEUMER: Again, we're going to ask questions today.

MR. McKAY: I do know, sir, that regarding Dora Fontaine's report, you did have it in April. Indeed, you marked it as your Exhibit Number 18. For some reason, you chose not to use it, but you did mark it as Exhibit 18.

And I would ask you, Mr. Neumer, why didn't you ask Detective March about Officer Dora Fontaine's report on April 26th or April 27th of this year?

MR. NEUMER: And I think, as I said in the transcript during that interview, we try and ask all relevant questions, we try and be thorough,
and we do our best.

MR. McKay: The Advisement of Rights form that you have just provided, is this the exact same form that you provided to Detective March on April 26th of this year?

MR. Neumer: It should be.

MR. McKay: Well, I am advising Detective March to refuse to answer your questions today on July 25th, 2016, without a direct order by one of his superior officers.

Short of a direct order, I believe Detective March is certainly within his rights, both the rights under the collective bargaining agreement, Illinois State Law, and his Constitution rights not to answer your questions.

Is there going to be a direct order from some superior officer directing Detective March to answer these questions?

MR. Neumer: Yes, I will contact Commander Klimas right now and have him provide Detective March a direct order.

MR. McKay: Can you spell Commander Klimas' name for the court reporter.
MR. NEUMER: Sure. It is Robert R-o-b-e-r-t, Klimas K-l-i-m-a-s.

MR. MCKAY: Thank you.

(PHONE RINGING)

COMMANDER KLIMAS: Bob Klimas.

MR. NEUMER: Bob, this is Peter Neumer. We are currently in a court-reported interview of Detective David March. His counsel Jim McKay is here. My colleague Deborah Witzburg is here.

And OIG having provided appropriate notice to Detective March of this interview is attempting to ask Detective March questions regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting. He is refusing to answer questions absent a command from his superior officer, so I'm asking you, Commander Klimas, to order Detective March to answer the OIG's questions.

COMMANDER KLIMAS: This is Commander Robert Klimas, K-l-i-m-a-s, with the Chicago Police Department Bureau of Internal Affairs.

Detective March, I'm giving you a direct order to answer all the questions posed to you today by Peter Neumer or his designees from the Office of Inspector General, City of Chicago.

Do you understand?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

COMMANDER KLIMAS: Thank you very much.

MR. NEUMER: Thanks, Bob.

MR. MCKAY: Thank you.

I'd like to put one more thing on the record. Peter, last time you and I talked by telephone, actually it was late last week, Detective March originally had been notified to appear on this past Saturday night at 9:00 p.m.

You had advised me that the date and time for Detective March's second statement was because OIG is required to notify the officer when he is on duty. You were kind enough to continue the statement from Saturday night to this morning, pursuant to my request, actually, and I appreciate that. Thank you.

You also advised me that Detective March's statement, whenever it was going to be continued to, needed to be completed by the end of business hours tomorrow on July 26th. I asked you then why that is the case and I ask you again today why is it that Detective March's second sworn statement needs to be today or
tomorrow at the latest?

MR. NEUMER: I mean, OIG has a duty of confidence, so the details regarding our investigation I can't provide any further information.

MR. McKay: Well, your statement to me over the phone infers that time is of the essence. I think that Detective March has the right to know
why, in the OIG's mind, time is of the essence.

MR. NEUMER: I think time is of the essence
for every investigation and probably in particular this investigation.

MR. McKay: If time was of the essence in April when you, at the very least had Officer
Dora Fontaine's report, why didn't you ask Detective March about Officer Fontaine's report
at that time?

And I submit if you had Earl Briggs' report from the Medical Examiner's Office at that time, why didn't you ask Detective March about that as well if truly time is of the essence in this investigation?

MR. NEUMER: We do try to ask all relevant questions and be as thorough as possible.

MR. McKAY: With all due respect, Peter, and I understand you and Ms. Witzburg have a job to do, and I appreciate the job you are both doing along with Kristopher Brown, but frankly, with all due respect, none of your answers today to my questions were responsive to my questions, and I object to that in addition to all my other objections. Thank you.

MR. NEUMER: So we were going through our preamble prior to the objections being placed on the record. So at this time I'd ask that the court reporter swear Detective March in.

(WHEREUPON, the witness was duly sworn.)

MR. NEUMER: I'm going to go through the Advisement of Rights form with you, Detective March. Again, I'm going to ask you to read along with me as I go through this advisement, and I'll ask you after each paragraph to acknowledge you have read the paragraph I just read aloud to you.

"I, Detective David March, understand that I am being interviewed by Peter Neumer and Deborah Witzburg from the City of Chicago Office
of Inspector General. I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the question. I further understand and I have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the rules and regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.
MR. NEUMER: "I understand and have been advised that my statements and responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's rules and regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding."

Detective March, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud you to?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that I have the right to have a union representative or legal counsel of my choosing present at the interview
to consult with and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed."

Detective March, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I understand that a refusal
to answer any question or any false, inaccurate,
or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56 and may serve as the basis for my discharge."

Detective March, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: "I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me and I have been allowed to review this document."

Detective March, do you see the
paragraph I just read aloud to you?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. NEUMER: At this time I would ask that you sign the Advisement of Rights form, and my colleague and I will witness.

I'm now going to put several exhibits
on the record and present them to Detective
March to confirm his receipt of the exhibits.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. First I am going to be handing you
what is titled Notification of Interview to CPD
member. This is marked as Exhibit 2.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked
March Deposition Exhibit No. 2, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. This Notification of Interview is dated July 20th, 2016. Detective March, have you seen this Notification of Interview document
prior to today?
   A. Yes.
   Q. And did BIA provide you with this document on or about July 20th, 2016?
   A. Yes.
   Q. And is that your signature at the bottom of the page of Exhibit 2?
   A. Yes.
   Q. I am now going to --
   MR. McKay: Can I retain these exhibits for my file?
   MR. Neumer: No. No. We always keep them. You'll get these when you get the transcript.

BY MR. NEUMER:
   Q. I'm now handing you what is titled Notification of Allegations. This is marked as Exhibit 3.
   (WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 3, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)
   BY MR. NEUMER:
   Q. Detective March, have you seen this Notification of Allegations prior to today?
   A. Yes.
Q. And did BIA provide you with this Exhibit 3, Notification of Allegations, on or about July 20, 2016?
A. Yes.

Q. And is that your signature at the bottom of Page 1 of the Notification of Allegations?
A. Yes.

Q. I am now going to hand you what has previously been marked as Exhibit 4 titled Receipt Form.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 4, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, have you seen this Receipt Form prior to today?
A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this Receipt Form on or about July 20th, 2016?
A. Yes.

Q. And is that your signature at the bottom of the Receipt Form?
A. Yes.
Q. And I am now going to be handing you what has previously been marked as Exhibit 5.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 5, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. This is a Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report ME2014-01071 dated October 21st, 2014.

Have you seen this document, Detective March, prior to today?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this Case Report on or about July 20th, 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. And I'm now going to be handing you what has previously been marked Exhibit 6. This is an Original Case Incident Report with the RD number HX475653 and the event number 1429315878, case ID 9825613.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked March Deposition Exhibit No. 6, for identification, as of 07/25/2016.)
BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, have you seen this Exhibit 6 Original Case Incident Report prior to today?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this document on or about July 20th, 2016?

A. Yes.

MR. McKAY: Peter is this report -- you're marking this as Exhibit 6?

MR. NEUMER: Yes.

MR. McKAY: You are not going to keep it Exhibit 18, which is what it was marked by you on April 26th?

MR. NEUMER: Right, we are going to call it Exhibit 6. I think that will be easier for today's purposes to call it Exhibit 6 for the July 25th. But, again --

MR. McKAY: But you'll agree it was your Exhibit 18 back in April?

MR. NEUMER: Right, I don't remember if it was -- if you represent 18, I certainly -- I don't dispute that.

MR. McKAY: All right.
Q. Detective March, did you review any materials in preparation for today's interview?
A. Yes.

Q. And what materials did you review?
A. The documents that I received from Internal Affairs on last Wednesday and then I also reviewed several reports from the investigative file.

Q. Do you remember which reports you reviewed?
A. I believe they were all reports that I authored that we talked about previously.

Q. Okay. In our April 26th and 27th interview?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you review any video in preparation for this interview?
A. No.

Q. Aside from your attorney, who did you speak to in preparation for this interview?
A. No one.

MR. NEUMER: And then before we get started with our questions, I just want to confirm, Jim,
are you okay with OIG providing you with a copy of the transcript of today's interview within 48 hours of the OIG's receipt of that transcript?

MR. McKay: I have no objection to employing the same procedure of receiving the transcript as the previous transcript in April.
I understand -- if you get the
transcript on a Friday, you can't get it to me
that same day, but I ask that if the court
reporter can provide me with the transcript on,
say, a Tuesday or Wednesday, I'd like it the
same day you guys get it.
I am relying on you suggesting that
the statement should not be more than about an hour. I don't think it would take that long to copy that statement or make a copy of a disk if that's how Ms. Paoletti Yohler is going to provide the transcript to you.

MR. Neumer: And, just for the record, I think my representation was that OIG's portion of the questioning would take an hour. And
we're now, I think, going to --

MR. McKay: That's fine. I have no
objection consistent with the last statement in April.

MR. NEUMER: And, Jim, we'll work with you to get you it in a very, very reasonable time.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, could you please state your name, star number for the record.

MR. MCKAY: Detective March has something to say.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Upon advice of counsel, I am refusing to answer any questions without the direct order of a superior officer.

I would like to preface this statement with the following: I believe I am entitled to be informed of my Constitutional right to remain silent. I have received no assurances from the Office of Inspector General that criminal charges are probable. Proceeding with this statement is in violation of the applicable Collective Bargaining Agreement, but I have been advised that I will lose my job if I refuse to provide a statement.

I am not giving this statement voluntarily but only because I am required to do so by a direct order of Commander Robert Klimas.

I know that if I refuse to participate in this interview or refuse to answer certain questions, I can be disciplined or even fired; therefore, this statement is being compelled.

I am asserting all of my rights under the Supreme Court case of Garrity versus New Jersey, and I am specifically objecting to any sharing or disclosure of this statement or its contents with any prosecutor's office, such as the Cook County State's Attorney's Office or the United States Attorney's Office.

I also object to the sharing or disclosure of this statement or its contents directly or indirectly with anybody else including but not limited to any other federal, state, or city agency, any special prosecutor and his agents, and the media.

I object that this second interview is taking place. I was here for two days on April 26th and April 27th and gave honest answers to all of your questions.
Further, I object that this interview is taking place before an arbitrator has decided the issues that were raised in a grievance filed by me and another grievance filed by Chicago FOP regarding this investigation. The Inspector General has refused to postpone this investigation.

Also on the advice of counsel, I am making the following additional objection: I am objecting to the fact that the City of Chicago Inspector General's Office has refused to identify all of my complainants if they exist.

Under city ordinance, Collective Bargaining Agreements, and my due process rights, I am entitled to notice of the nature of the allegations against me and the identity of all complainants prior to any interview.

The Inspector General's Office has only advised me that Interim Superintendent John J. Escalante and, to a lesser degree, Sergeant S. Soria are the only complainants against me. This can't possibly be true because Escalante's letter to the Inspector General dated January 13, 2016, does not specifically allege or even suspect me of any misconduct.

Further, the letter refers to Sergeant Soria's memo of July 15th, 2015, which only alleges inattention to duty because of possible tampering with in-car camera mics and improper use of equipment, none of which applies to me, a detective assigned to investigate this police shooting.

I am left to wonder who is the source of the allegations now pending against me. I shouldn't have to do this because I have a right to know and confront my accusers.

The Inspector General's Office is violating my rights of due process by not specifically informing me of the person or persons making these specific allegations. As such, I can only assume the true complainant is the City of Chicago's Inspector General.

I am entitled to an affidavit of any complainant who is not a sworn officer. I have not received one in this case.

I am not waiving the requirement of an affidavit, therefore, I am objecting to the City of Chicago Inspector General's Office.
making allegations against me and conducting an investigation into its own allegations.

Finally, I am objecting to the Inspector General's Office conducting any investigation of this shooting because the Inspector General of Chicago is prejudiced against me. This prejudice is evidenced by his participation on the Police Accountability Task

This report includes findings made without the benefit of hearing my sworn testimony, considering all of the evidence in this case, and considering all of the applicable
law in this case.

The Inspector General has prejudged
this case; as such, he and his agents cannot be fair, impartial, and independent investigators
in this matter. This objection also applies to Lori E. Lightfoot, president of the Chicago
Police Board, who served as the chair of the Police Accountability Task Force.

Thank you.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, I want to first put in front of you, Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report ME2014-01071.

I don't think we ever got your name and star number for the record, so if we could start there.

A. My name is Detective David March. My star number is 20563.

Q. And what is your current unit of assignment?

A. I'm assigned to the Bureau of Detectives, Area Central.

Q. Again, we want to ask you a few questions about the Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report ME2014-01071.

From your perspective, what is a Medical Examiner Case Report?

MR. McKay: Objection, that calls for speculation. You're asking him to guess about some other agency, not even in the City of Chicago, and their reports.

MR. Neumer: Let me reword the question.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Based on your experience as a detective, what is a Medical Examiner Case
MR. McKAY: Same objection.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I cannot specifically speak to exactly what this is. In 34 years at the Chicago Police Department, all of that time working within the County of Cook, I have never seen a report like this.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay.

A. I can only assume after reading this report that this document was created as a result of a quick telephone notification that I made to the Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County. It was not the subject of any kind of investigation or in-depth interview of me by anyone.

Q. Do you have any understanding as to what the purpose of a Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report?

A. Again, I can only assume from reading it that it is meant to document my notification of their office that the Chicago Police Department was involved in a Medical Examiner's
We have to notify them any time we are dealing with any kind of death that is potentially a Medical Examiner's case, whether it be a natural death, suicide, homicide, whatever.

Q. So have you had communications with Cook County investigators prior to October 20th, 2014, regarding homicides or death investigations?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you have any estimate as to how many times you've communicated with Cook County investigators or Cook County personnel regarding homicides or death investigations?

A. I have no idea, but it was a large number of contacts.

Q. Maybe over 50?

A. Well over 50.

Q. Well over 50. Okay. Have you ever seen a Medical Examiner Investigations Case Report prior to today?

A. I first saw this report last Wednesday when it was presented to me by our Internal Affairs Division. Prior to that day, I have never seen this type of report.

    I have been involved in the prosecution of numerous homicide cases, murder cases in the criminal court system of Cook County, and I have seen the Medical Examiner's protocol documenting their results of their autopsy. I have seen toxicological reports presented by outside laboratories that do work for the Medical Examiner's Office. I have never in my life seen this type of report. I didn't even know they existed.

Q. Okay. When you were communicating with Cook County personnel on previous homicide or death investigations, were you providing -- what type of information were you providing to the Cook County personnel?

A. I'm assuming -- again, I don't know -- the only requirement on us as the Chicago Police Department is to notify them when we come across a potential Medical Examiner's case.

    When I call, my purpose is just to let them know that there is a Medical Examiner's
The information that they solicit from me, I don't know if there's a checklist that they go down and -- I have no idea how that comes to be.

Q. I got you. So, generally speaking, what type of information do you provide as part of that initial notification?

A. Again, these notifications are made very early on in the investigation. A lot of information that they ask for we may not have at the time, so obviously if we don't have information, we can't provide information.

So based on what we do know at the time of the notification, they will ask us things like the date and time that we discovered the body, the location, the identification -- the identity of the dead body if we know it.

And they ask us for a brief summary of the circumstances under which we became aware of the -- that there was a dead body.

Q. Sure. And I don't want you to speculate. Do you have any understanding of what the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office does with that information?
A. No.

Q. Do you have any understanding as to why the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office is obtaining that information from you, the detective?

MR. McKAY: Again, objection, calls for speculation.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. One reason would be, like I said, we are required to notify them of any potential Medical Examiner's cases. There are many times when we will notify them of the case and their investigator will tell us, "Okay, that's not a case that we're going to deal with, so the body doesn't have to end up here."

A case like that would be a natural death where the victim died of a medical condition that they were being treated for chronically and there was an attending physician.

If we present facts that indicate that that is the case, in those cases, the Medical Examiner will not take the case, so to speak, and they -- because in those cases, the attending physician will issue the death certificate, and the Medical Examiner's Office really has no need to be involved in the case. Any other cases where there's any -- and, again, these are their standards and it's their decision where they think there might be suspicious circumstances or potential for suspicious circumstances. If it looks like it's an overdose with no signs of violence, then obviously they're going to have to conduct a toxicology exam to confirm whether or not the cause of death was drugs.

So, again, the criteria is theirs, and all we do is we notify them of what we know at the time and they tell us whether or not they're going to take the case and if they want us to make sure the body ultimately comes to their facility or can be released to the family by a hospital or doctor or whatever.

Q. And do you have any understanding whether the ultimate postmortem examination report relies at all upon the Exhibit 5 report I've put in front of you?

MR. McKay: Again, that calls for speculation. I object. He cannot guess about another agency's use of this report or what, if any, other people in that agency relied on.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. Again, I don't know.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Specifically now with respect to the Exhibit 5 report, on the evening of October 20th, 2014, did you have any communication with the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office regarding the McDonald
shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. Can you walk us through that communication. Where were you when you had that communication with the ME's Office?

A. I was at the crime scene on Pulaski Road. We had assisting detectives that had responded to Mount Sinai Hospital where Laquan McDonald had been transported for treatment of his injuries.

I believe that the sequence in which this happened was that the detectives at the hospital were present or learned that Laquan
McDonald had been pronounced deceased by the attending physician there.

They -- again, I believe they then informed Sergeant Gallagher, who was the detective supervisor in charge of the scene, that Laquan McDonald was deceased, and then Sergeant Gallagher notified me of the same since the case had been assigned to me.

Upon learning that, as I commonly do on cases where I think I might have more information than the initial primary beat car assigned to the case, rather than have them asking me all this information so they can present it to the Medical Examiner's Office, I will call the Medical Examiner's Office because, again, at that point I feel I had the most information in one place, so to speak.

So I called the Medical Examiner's Office from the scene and spoke with Investigator Briggs to make this notification.

Q. The detectives who were at the hospital, do you recall their names?
A. I don't. I'd have to look at the reports, the file.
Q. And did you use -- we had a discussion I think during our last interview about use of phone. Was it your personal cell phone that you used to call the ME's Office?

A. It's the only phone I have. Like I told you before, the Department does not supply me with a phone. And in this day and age, there were no pay phones near the scene, so it was the only way to make a timely notification.

Q. On Page 1 of the Case Report, it lists under the Notification section date,

October 20th, 2014; time, 11:51:59 p.m. Does that time accord with your belief as to when that call between you and Investigator Briggs occurred?

A. I have no personal knowledge at this date of exactly when that telephone call was made by me to the Office of the Medical Examiner, but that time does seem to be accurate to me.

Q. Okay. And so you call Investigator

Briggs from the scene, and what did you tell him?

A. At first I told him that, probably -- again, this is not word for word. I don't recall exactly what information was discussed in what order, but I probably -- my first statement
to him probably was that I was making a notification of a police officer-involved
shooting and that there obviously was a dead
body.

Q. Is there just one number that CPD is to call or detectives are to call for the Medical Examiner's Office?

A. Their office has a number of numbers.
There is one number that -- I mean, officers
will use whatever number -- I can't speak to
what other number officers use, and I'm assuming that officers use whatever number they're used
to getting an answer at.

Q. Right.

A. I know at that late time, there's one number that is at least supposed to be answered
24 hours a day. Sometimes it doesn't happen,
but I call the -- I have that number programmed
into my cell phone, and I called that number because, like I said, I have made these notifications on numerous occasions.
Q. Did you know or have any sort of working relationship with Investigator Briggs prior to your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. I know I have come across the name before. I can't specifically say that I've ever talked to him on the telephone before. It may have been that I read reports with his name on it.

I was aware that there was an investigator at the Office of the Medical Examiner by the name of Briggs. I -- again, I can't say whether or not I've ever spoken to him before October 20th, 2014, and I don't believe I have ever met him in person. If he was sitting across the table from me today, I'd have no idea if that was him.

Q. Is it fair to say that when you placed the call on the night of October 20th, 2014, that you weren't calling Briggs specifically?

A. No, absolutely not.

Q. It was more of a general hotline or something --

A. I have no idea --
Q. -- calling?

A. -- working there at the time. Again, I was fulfilling our requirements to notify the office, not any specific person.

Q. Okay. At the time you spoke with Investigator Briggs, do you recall whether you had seen video footage of the McDonald shooting?

A. I can't say for certain. I believe I probably have seen -- had seen by that time the infamous dash cam video, if you will. But I certainly had not seen all of the video that we recovered. And, again, I'm not certain, but I believe I did see that footage prior to my call to Briggs.

Q. And I believe that's the 813 Robert video you're referring to.

A. Correct.

Q. I'm going to ask you to look at Page 3 of the Case Report. And, in particular, the paragraph that begins, "Detective March related the following." That's the second full paragraph in the narrative section.

So I want you to take a moment or take as much time as you need to review that paragraph, and then my question to you after you've had a chance to read through that is whether that paragraph accurately reflects a statement you made to Briggs on October 20th, 2014?

A. That paragraph absolutely does not accurately reflect the facts that I related to Investigator Briggs.

Q. Okay. And let's go line by line. I want you to -- I'm going to ask you two questions regarding each sentence in that paragraph: One, whether you made that statement to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, and then, two, whether that statement is accurate, okay? So whether you said it to him or not, whether it's accurate. So we'll --

A. I can maybe -- I don't know if this saves any time or not. I can tell you, having read that report, that none of those statements are verbatim statements by me to Investigator Briggs.

The first statement, for example, has a date and a time and a beat car. That information was transmitted but not in one sentence that said all of that. He would ask me what time the incident occurred; I would provide him with a time. He asked me when it occurred, what date, what address, like that.

This is not anywhere near the verbatim statements that I made to him over the telephone.

Q. Okay. And we're just going to break it down here --

A. And, again, I might want to stress, I did not speak in a paragraph like this. This was all he would ask me a question, I would provide him an answer.

Q. Okay. So that's how -- well, maybe we'll take a step back again to maybe --

A. We can certainly go to whether each individual fact listed there is accurate, but I can tell you categorically the entire paragraph is not my statement, and none of those sentences were said by me in that manner.

Q. Okay.

MR. McKay: Can I ask you a question? Can you tell me whether or not this telephone conversation you are about to ask Detective March about, was it recorded in any fashion by Investigator Briggs or anybody from the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office?

MR. NEUMER: Yeah, what I would say in response to that is, there's a duty of confidentiality. And, again, the materials that OIG has provided today, OIG has provided all materials, all information required by the CBA.

MR. McKay: Well, there's no duty of confidentiality if it's a recording of the accused's statement.

The Collective Bargaining Agreement clearly mandates that you, IPRA, Internal Affairs, whatever agency is investigating a Chicago police officer has a duty to give the officer a recording such as a video or an audio before you ask him questions of it.

If you got it, I demand that you give a copy of that statement to Detective March now before any question continues.

MR. NEUMER: And what I would say in response is, OIG complies with all applicable laws.
MR. McKAY: And I'll take that to mean that you don't have any recorded statement of Detective March by Investigator Briggs or any agent of the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office.

MR. NEUMER: I'll let you draw whatever inferences you'd like, and I'll just say that we comply with all applicable laws, and we are conducting this interview today in accordance with all applicable laws.

MR. McKAY: Okay. Well, with that said, then since you placed this gentleman under oath, if you have a recording that suggests anything inconsistent with what Detective March has previously testified about in April and, more importantly, what he has also generated himself, the reports he created, if you have a recording, please give that to him now. He has a right to it.

And I'm going to ask that he not answer any of your questions unless you're going to tell him that criminal charges of perjury or any other crimes are probable. And if that's the case, you now have a right to Mirandize him.
pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement,
Illinois State Law, and the United States
Constitution.

MR. NEUMER: Yeah, I mean, as we discussed
previously this is an administrative investigation. This is not a criminal investigation. We're not partnered with any other bodies on this investigation, so Miranda
simply doesn't apply here.

MR. McKAY: All right. My objection is on the record.

Further, if there was a recording,
Peter, even if you don't know about it but if there was a recording by Mr. Briggs or anybody
from the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office
without the consent of Detective March, I would submit that's a violation of the Illinois
Eavesdropping Statute, which is a Class III
felony.

If you've got it, or, further, if you don't have it but somewhere down the road you do get it, I'm moving to strike whatever Detective
March is saying consistent with the order by Commander Klimas, and, further, I'm going to be asking you to refer Mr. Briggs or anybody from the ME's Office to the Cook County State's Attorney's Office for an investigation on an eavesdropping violation.

Thank you.

MR. NEUMER: Okay.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Detective March, I think we were going to take a step back a little bit. You were giving us some information regarding how
this conversation occurred, and I think obviously you placed the call to the ME's
Office; is that correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And then you made a notification -- or you notified, again in this case it was Investigator Briggs, that there was a death or a homicide?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall -- I mean, is there
sort of like a boilerplate language, or do you just -- what do you tell the ME's Office when
you notify them?

A. I think I just told you that I don't know the exact words that I used, but I explained to him that I was calling him to notify him of a police officer-involved shooting incident where the person who had been shot by
the officer had been pronounced deceased.

Q. And then following that exchange, did Investigator Briggs proceed to ask you a series of questions?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And did you provide information in response to his questions?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you offer any information without it being prompted by a question from Investigator Briggs?

A. Not that I recall.

Q. So is it fair to say that he was conducting an interview of you?

A. I don't know that we would -- that I would characterize it as an interview because there was -- number one, at that point in time
in the investigation, I knew that I did not know all of the facts of the investigation. So --

Q. Let --
A. -- I was not in a position to give any totally completely informed statement on anything.

So, like I said, to the best of my knowledge, like I said, maybe he's got a checklist that he goes through and he's asking me to fill in the blanks of his checklist.

Q. Let me take away the characterization of interview. Is it fair to say he was asking you questions and you were providing him information in response to his questions?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. I want to go back to the second paragraph of the narrative. And I want to go line by line again and -- and, again, it will be two questions: Whether you related the information in the sentence to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, and then the second question will be whether it is accurate.

So the first sentence is, "Detective March related the following: On or about 2156 hours 19 October, 2014, Chicago Police 8th District beat car 815 Robert responded to 41st and Kildare in reference to a "citizen holding a subject".

So let me first ask you, Detective March, did you relate the information that is in that first sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. Again, not in those exact words, but most of the information in that first sentence is accurate except for the date of occurrence where he documented that I said or I related that the incident occurred on 19 October 2014.

The telephone call notification that I made to him was made on 20 October 2014 from the scene of the incident, and there is no way that I said that night or any time during the following almost two years now that I've been talking about this incident, there is no way that I referred to this incident as occurring on the 19th of October.

Q. Is it fair to say that you, at some point during your conversation with Investigator Briggs, told him that an 8th District beat car, 815 Robert, responded to 41st and Kildare in reference to a citizen holding a subject?
A. I would have told him something along the lines of some Chicago police officers responded to a call of someone holding a subject for the police at 41st and Kildare.

    Again, I'm trying to guess here because I don't recall exactly the words that were used. I assume he asked me probably what beat was involved and I told him 815 Robert, and I'm assuming that him knowing the -- some of the workings and especially the numbering system of the beats and the Chicago Police Department, I think he correctly assumed that 815 Robert was an 8th District beat car. I don't remember telling him it was an 8th District beat car. I think he just assumed that from the beat number.

Q. Next sentence, "Upon arrival, Beat 815 Robert was confronted by the subject who threatened the officers with a four-inch fold knife."

Do you recall relating the information in that second sentence to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, during your phone call with him?
A. As I just indicated, I would have told him that Beat 815 Robert responded to this assignment. The rest of that sentence is a complete misrepresentation of what I told him that night.

And, again, in dealing with this incident for almost two years now, I have never characterized what happened between Laquan McDonald and the officers assigned to 815 Robert as 815 Robert was confronted by the subject who threatened the officers with a four-inch fold knife.

First of all, as borne out in my -- all of the reports that I have written documenting this incident, at no time did any witness ever say that the officers on Beat 815 Robert were confronted by the subject. The subject being Laquan McDonald.

In fact, it was the other way around. The officers responded to the assignment and they subsequently confronted Laquan McDonald, who they found walking down the street.

I have never characterized what happened between those officers and Laquan
McDonald as him threatening them with a knife in the sense that I'm thinking somebody is brandishing a knife and threatening to cut you. I always characterized this incident as him attacking their vehicle with the knife, where he stabbed the right front tire and then stabbed the windshield. I have never characterized this as him threatening the officers with the knife.

That having been said, I believe that the act of attacking the marked police vehicle associated with two uniformed police officers was, in fact, a threat to the officers, but, again, just to be clear, that is now -- the words that are in this sentence are not the way I would have or have ever portrayed this incident.

The last misrepresentation is that it says that he threatened the officers with a four-inch fold knife. Again, having been at the scene, seeing the knife myself, knowing how I believe every single person -- all personnel employed by the Chicago Police Department in any reports written about this incident, I believe it has been very consistent that the knife has been referred to as a folding knife, seven inches in overall length with a three-inch blade. I have never and I have never heard anyone else describe the weapon as a four-inch fold knife.

Q. So do you think that second sentence is -- putting aside the question of whether you relayed the information contained in the second sentence to Investigator Briggs, do you think that second sentence is accurate?

A. No.

Q. And it's for the reasons you stated?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. How about the information in the first sentence, other than the 19th of October language, is the statement -- the first-sentence statement accurate?

A. Aside from the fact that he's got the wrong date, which you just described, and the fact that the words, "citizen holding a subject" are in quotation marks, I don't recall that I said those exact words, but the idea, if you will, of that being a summary of what had occurred is accurate.
Q. Okay. Third sentence, "The subject fled the scene on foot, where at 4112 South Pulaski the subject was stopped by officers assigned to Beat 845 Robert."

First question, did you relay the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. In this sentence, I believe that all of those details or facts described in that sentence are accurate and were relayed by me to Investigator Briggs.

And, again, I can't say that I used those exact words in one complete coherent sentence that says all of that in one sentence.

Q. Okay. Next sentence, "The officers announced their office as Chicago Police Officers and ordered the subject to drop the knife."

First question, did you relay that information to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. Again, not in those exact words, but, yes, that information was relayed to Investigator Briggs with the exception of the fact that he's got the words, "Chicago police officers" in quotation marks, and I have no -- again, from being out there that night, interviewing all the officers involved, having written a number of reports involving this investigation, and talking about it on numerous occasions, no one -- none of the officers ever told me that the words they said were "Chicago police officers" when they were announcing their office.

And I obviously did not characterize that then to Investigator Briggs. If I had not heard someone say those words, I would not tell him that someone said those words.

Q. Okay.

A. I did tell him that the officers announced their office, and I believe all the reports that I've written said that all of the officers are pretty consistent in saying something along the lines of, "Police, stop. Police, drop the knife." But never do they say, "Chicago police officers, stop. Chicago police officers, drop the knife."
So except for that one clarification, again, that sentence are not the exact words I spoke to him, but the facts detailed in that sentence are accurate.

Q. Next sentence, "The subject lunged at the officers with the knife."

First question, did you relay that information to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. No, I -- again, being a detective -- being a police officer for 34 years and especially being a violent crimes detective for the last 25 years, details of the elements of a criminal offense are the most important thing we deal with.

I mean, when we're determining whether or not we have probable cause to arrest someone, when we're presenting a case to the State's Attorney's Office for the approval of criminal charges, it's very important how the facts are characterized. If you leave facts out, if you use words that don't convey all of the details, you're not conveying an accurate message to whoever.
And especially like with dealing with the State's Attorney's Office, they're they ones -- they're not on scene, they don't talk to all of the people that we do, so it's up to us to accurately relay to them what the facts are because that's what they're going to make their decision as to whether or not they're going to charge and what charge is the most appropriate.

So obviously you don't want to use language that doesn't accurately describe something and you don't want to use language that describes things that didn't happen.

Again, having spoken to every officer that was involved in this incident, no one has ever told me that they saw Laquan McDonald or felt that he was lunging at anyone.

In viewing the video myself, I have never had the impression that I see Laquan McDonald ever lunge at anyone in that video. And, again, in speaking about this case for almost two years, I can say with certainty -- because, again, my awareness of the importance of the details -- I have never described what Laquan McDonald did during this incident as a lunge.

So the sentence, "The subject lunged at the officers with the knife" is just something that I never said and I did not tell Investigator Briggs.

Q. Okay. Understanding that -- putting aside whether or not you relayed that information -- or relayed -- said the word, "lunged" to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014, do you believe it's an accurate statement to say that the subject lunged at the officers with the knife?

A. No, I believe that's a misrepresentation by Investigator Briggs.

Q. You do not think --

A. And I don't know what he based that on. It certainly wasn't the words I told him because I never told him that Laquan McDonald lunged at anyone.

Q. So you do not think it's accurate to state that McDonald lunged at the officers?

A. Correct.

Q. Do you have any recollection of how you characterized McDonald's actions to Briggs
during your phone call?

   A.    I -- again, I don't know the exact words that I used. I know from what I saw and how I handled my investigations, I would have said something along the lines of McDonald attacked the officers or began to attack the officers.

   Q.    Okay --
   A.    And, again, there's many ways to attack. I wouldn't describe what he did as a lunge.

   Q.    Next sentence, "Fearing for their life and attempting to stop the threat, one officer, star number 9465, fired 16 rounds from his duty weapon, a Smith & Wesson 9mm handgun striking the subject numerous times."

First question, did you relate the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on
October 20th, 2014?

   A.    Yes, I did relay -- all of the facts detailed in that sentence were related by me to Investigator Briggs, not necessarily in those exact words and certainly not in one sentence
Q. Okay. And is that sentence accurate?

A. As best I know from what happened at this date.

Q. Okay. Next sentence, "After striking the subject, an ambulance was requested by the officers."

First question, is that -- did you relate the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. Yes, the facts detailed in that sentence are accurate. Again, not the words necessarily that I actually used and certainly not in a sentence like that that I recall.

Q. Okay. But, generally speaking, the information that's contained in that sentence you relayed to Investigator Briggs during your phone call?

A. Yes.

Q. The next paragraph starts, "Upon arrival of Chicago Fire Department ambulance," I want you to review that paragraph, and after you've had a chance to look it over, I want to ask if you provided the information in that paragraph to Investigator Briggs during your phone call?

A. In the first sentence I would have told him that Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21 transported McDonald to Mount Sinai Hospital.

Pretty much the rest of that paragraph, aside from the time that he's expired, because I would have told him that McDonald was pronounced dead at 2242 hours, but the rest of that is information that I did not provide to Briggs.

The beginning of the second sentence where it says, "Once at Mount Sinai Hospital, emergency staff were unable to revive the subject," I have no idea what was done at Mount Sinai Hospital. I don't know if they rolled him into the ER and he was a flat-line, that they never found any signs of life; I don't know if they worked on him and performed any procedures in attempting to save his life and were unsuccessful.

So that statement that they were unable to revive him, I don't know where that comes from. I did not say anything in any faintest resemblance to that statement.

I would have told him, as I told you, that he was pronounced dead at 2242 hours, the name of the doctor, the beat car has it -- Briggs has it spelled one way here, the Original Case Report by Officer Fontaine has it spelled a different way.

The spelling that I got from the detectives at the hospital is different. In fact, it's completely different. If you look at my report, the doctor that is credited with pronouncing Laquan McDonald deceased is Pitzele, I believe it is spelled P-i-t-z-e-l-e, which, depending on what your perspective is, is kind of close to what Briggs has here, but it certainly is not the name that Briggs has here.

After the doctor's name, the rest of that paragraph is basically a description of the injuries sustained by Laquan McDonald, and there is no way that I -- I couldn't have possibly told him any of that information because at the time I made this notification, the only things I knew at that point were that Jason Van Dyke said he had fired his weapon 16 times and I was aware that Laquan McDonald had been shot multiple times, which means more than once.

I had no idea how many times he was hit, if all 16 shots struck him, if they were lodged or through-and-through injuries, which would create more than one hole, I had no idea anywhere near this kind of description of his injuries. So obviously Briggs got that from some other source, not me.

Q. Is it possible that the two detectives who were at the hospital, would they have had that information?

A. It's certainly possible that those detectives had that information. It's possible anyone from the police department who was present at the hospital with information may have made an additional call to Briggs and provided that information. It's possible that Briggs, in performing his duties, called the hospital to obtain additional information that I didn't know.

But it's obvious -- it's completely totally obvious to me that the four pages of this report are not a summary of information he received entirely from me. It's obvious to me that he used additional sources and probably additional people to gather all the information he's summarizing in these four pages.

Q. And maybe that's a good segue maybe to kind of go through a little bit and determine what of the information in this Case Report came from you and what information didn't.

So if we could go to Page 1. There's a --

A. Let me ask you this: If you want to simplify things, I've gone through my copy of this report and kind of highlighted the information that I didn't provide him. So maybe that could save you some time, unless you feel obligated to ask every entry.

Q. Maybe we can quickly -- we'll quickly talk about what you did provide. So there's a the Decedent/Subject section on Page 1.

Did you provide Investigator Briggs with the information and the details contained in that Decedent/Subject section?
A. Well, with the exception of the ZIP code for his residence at [redacted], I would have told them that I received the information that the last known address that the Chicago Police Department had for Laquan McDonald was [redacted].

But obviously standing at the scene, I had no idea what the ZIP code is at [redacted]. And at that point I didn't pull out my phone and go on the internet and look up that ZIP code for that address.

So obviously he at some -- from some source -- and I'm assuming he looked it up on the internet or from a ZIP code directory book, if they still make those, he looked up that address and entered it into his report.

So under that Decedent/Subject category, the only information that I did not provide to him is the ZIP code of the residence.

Q. Let's see, in the Notification section on Page 1, fair to say that you provided him your name, title, and star number?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you provide him the beat number of 5121?

A. Yes.

Q. And did you provide him the police report number of HX475653?

A. Yes. The only information in that section that I don't believe I gave him because I don't remember it and I don't recall ever doing that is the telephone number for my office, which is what that telephone number is. Again, I assume he looked that up from another source.

Q. Okay. In the Discovered section, did you provide him the information in that Discovered section?

A. There is some information that I did not provide. But, first of all, I would like to point out, if you look at that section at the bottom of Page 1 and the first two lines of Page 2, which is a continuation of that section, I think it's obvious if you look through all of the entries or the categories in that section, this is in reference to a dead body. This is the discovery of a dead body.

He has for the first entry,
"Discovered by: Chicago Police beat number 845 Robert." They did not discover a dead body. They were dealing with a live offender from the entire time he was at the scene, and I'm told that when he went into the ambulance, he still had a pulse. So the Chicago Police Department did not encounter a dead body at that point.

So, again, I -- I don't know what he's trying to convey here, but the section should really be, you know -- if you want to be totally accurate, it would probably be that someone at the hospital with the location of Mount Sinai Hospital would be the one to give you information about the discovery of a dead body because that is where he was -- until he was pronounced dead, he was alive.

And I know, again from all the information I received at the scene, that he definitely was still alive at the scene. So it's a technicality, but we're dealing with lawyers here, and that's what they live on is technicalities.

I'm assuming again the address -- he's got, "Discovered by: Chicago Police beat number 845 Robert," that's Jason Van Dyke and Officer Joe Walsh's beat number.

He uses the address of the 8th District, which I did not provide him.
Again, I'm assuming he looked that up in some reference that he's got.

The telephone number is my office
telephone number, so I'm not sure why that's in
there because I didn't discover the body, and I don't think any of the people from Area Central Bureau of Detective's Office discovered the body. The best I know, the people at the scene that encountered Laquan McDonald were all officers assigned to the 8th District.

"Title: Police officer,"
"Relationship: Police officer," I'm not sure
what he's -- Beat 845 Robert are obviously police officers, but, "Relationship: Police officer." I'm not sure what that's indicating.

Last known alive, I guess that's accurate because the officers saw him alive on
the 20th and he was pronounced deceased on the 20th, so that's accurate information. I'm not sure exactly how Briggs determined that.
Discover date and time, again, this is supposed to be in reference to a dead body, and he's got 10/20/2014, 9:56 p.m. That is the time when Jason Van Dyke and Joseph Walsh encountered and confronted Laquan McDonald.

That is not the time -- and, again, he was still alive attacking them with a knife at that time. So I don't know how that figures into Briggs' thinking that that's the time for the discovery of a dead body.

And then condition of body, multiple gunshot wounds, again, he's taking the fact that Laquan McDonald was shot multiple times and putting that in there for the condition of the body.

And I did tell him that McDonald had been shot multiple times but...

Q. How about Place of Occurrence/Incident, did you provide the information on that section to Investigator Briggs?

A. Yes, that would have been information I communicated to him except for the ZIP code of the address of occurrence because, again, I didn't know the address at that point when I was calling from the scene.

Q. Okay.

A. So obviously he got that from some other source.

Q. And then Identification of Deceased?

A. This is a very confusing category for me personally. If you read my reports, they document the fact that Laquan McDonald was initially tentatively identified by his State of Illinois ID card that he had on his person, and subsequently that identification was confirmed by his fingerprints.

But at the time I made this notification to Briggs, we were working off that tentative identification. "Positive Identification: Coworker," I have no idea what that is supposed to be indicating because there was certainly no coworker of Laquan McDonald that I was aware of that had any contact with police.

Identification means fingerprints.

Again, at the time I was making this notification, I knew that as part of the standard procedure, at some point in time,

Laquan McDonald's remains would be fingerprinted, but they had not been fingerprinted at this point.

And I confirmed that by looking at
the crime scene processing reports from the forensic investigators. And he was, in fact, I believe, fingerprinted at the Medical Examiner's Office on the following day. I believe it was the 21st when the autopsy was done.

So, again, there's no way that I told him that he was identified by fingerprints at
the time I made this notification.

Q. And maybe -- so on the second page in the -- or third page of the report in the narrative section, last full paragraph, "Subject
was positively identified by the Chicago Police ICLEAR system based on a prior Chicago Police
booking number, IR2106340.

I mean, does that -- how does that relate to the identification of the deceased?

A. To that particular -- specific fact,
I was told by -- again, I don't remember who told me, I wrote it on a General Progress
Report, that someone had run, I'm assuming, the information off of the state ID card -- they had run a name-check on him in our database and come up with possible IR number, and I could have provided that to Briggs.

Q. Okay.

A. But, again, that had not -- the IR number is a distinct number assigned to every person that the Chicago Police Department arrests based on their fingerprints, and no fingerprint analysis or match or even fingerprinting process had been completed at the time.

That was someone ran a name-check based on the identifiers from the ID card and came up with that IR number. And I gave that to -- again, that was in my notes -- so I probably did give that number to Briggs as a possible IR number for --

Q. Would you have told Briggs the subject was positively identified by the Chicago Police ICLEAR system during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. No, absolutely not. There's two issues -- and, again, this goes back to my training and experience after my 34 years as a Chicago police officer.

When you come across a dead body, whether it be a natural or criminal incident, two of the very most important procedures that the police department has to accomplish is to identify the -- positively identify the subject and make a notification to the next of kin.

Identification is made either by having a family member, and not just a friend who knows him for the last five years, but we usually use a blood family relative to view the victim and say, yeah, that's my husband, that's my son, that's my daughter, you know, whatever. That had not happened because at the time of this notification, we had not made contact with Laquan McDonald's family.

And the other more common way is -- or second more common way, whatever you want to call it, would be through fingerprints, and I just discussed, that had not even started yet.

Q. Do you have any independent -- well, independent of this document -- independent recollecion of what you did tell Investigator Briggs regarding McDonald's identification during your phone call?

A. I would have told him that, like I just told you, we had tentative information coming off the ID card, and I would have told him the same thing, someone ran him in our system and came up with a possible IR number.

Q. Going back to Page 2 of the Case Report, the Pronouncement section, did you provide the information in that section to Investigator Briggs during your phone call on October 20th, 2014?

A. "Place Deceased Pronounced," I would have told him he was pronounced at Mount Sinai Hospital. I did not specify ER because he could have died in surgery. I did not know where in the hospital he would have been pronounced, so I did not say ER. I would tell him hospital.

"Method of Pronouncement: On View,"
I'm not quite sure what that means.

"Hospital: Mount Sinai Medical Center," I would have told him Mount Sinai, and obviously I gave him the date and time.
And, again, I gave him the doctor's name that I have but, again, going to the credibility of his attention to detail in his report and all the other inaccuracies that are in here, that is not the name of the doctor with the spelling that I gave him.

And I would have gave him -- some of the very most important information we give them is the time of pronouncement and the doctor or the person who pronounces. And I certainly did not -- I did give him the name that I had in my report, but I did not give him this name.

Q. And doctor --

A. Now, it could be that I, in my reports, through my sources, other detectives, they have the wrong spelling and this is the correct spelling. But if that's the case, then Briggs didn't get that from me. Again, he got it from another source.

So, again, the information in these four pages is not entirely exclusively from me. This is a summary of information he gathered from a number of sources.

Q. "Fire Department on Scene," would
you --

A. I would have told him that Ambulance 21 transported the body to the hospital.

Q. Okay. And then going back to the narrative section --

A. And just by way of, again, attention to detail, the bottom of Page 2 "List of Person Interviewed," he's got my name and title and everything. Again, I don't recall giving him the office number. I'm assuming he got that off a list he has. I certainly -- he did not ask me, and I did not provide him with the address of my office. Again, he got that from another source.

Q. In the narrative section, last full paragraph, second sentence, "At the time of this report, it is unknown why the citizen was "holding the subject" since the citizen left the scene and could not be interviewed."

Did you provide the information contained in that sentence to Investigator Briggs on the night of October 20th, 2014?

A. I don't specifically recall relaying that information to him. It is possible that I did and that statement is accurate, but, again, I don't recall making a statement exactly in that manner. But if he asked me, you know, did we interview the citizen who made the original call, I would have told him no because at that point, we hadn't.

Q. Did you inform Investigator Briggs that there was video of the shooting?

A. I don't recall if we discussed video or not.

Q. Okay. Do you recall whether he asked you if there was video of the shooting?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Generally speaking, do you recall providing Investigator Briggs with any information during your phone call on October 20th, 2014, that is not reflected in the Case Report?

A. It's possible, but I don't -- again, at this late date, I don't recall.

Q. No specific recollection?

A. No, nothing that I know for certain I told him that does not appear here.
MR. NEUMER: Time is 11:35 a.m. We're going to go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. NEUMER: Time is 11:43 a.m. We're back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Still talking about generally the Exhibit 5 Case Report. I wanted to ask you, Detective March, if at any time at the scene of the shooting on October 20th, 2014, at any time at the scene, did you tell a representative from FOP that McDonald lunged at Chicago Police Department officers?

MR. MCKAY: Objection, that's outside your Notification of Allegations. Now he's supposed to defend some alleged statement to not Investigator Briggs and not Officer Dora Fontaine? Do you have an FOP report suggesting what, if anything, Detective March may have said?

That is outside your Notification of Allegations, and, as such, he should not be compelled to answer that.

MR. NEUMER: Can we read back the question.
WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter.)

MR. McKay: That's outside these allegations your office has alleged against Detective March.

Further, I submit, unless you have some report prepared by an FOP representative, you have no good faith basis to ask that question because there's nothing in Investigator Briggs' report about an FOP representative at the scene talking to Detective March.

Further, there's nothing in Officer Dora Fontaine's report, your Exhibit Number 6, that suggests there was an FOP representative talking to Detective March at the scene.

As a result, I ask that you strike that question and move on to something else.

Further, you have all the reports prepared by Detective March in this particular case; indeed, you used several of them at his interview in April. At no time, in no place do any of the reports generated by Detective March indicate he ever interviewed an FOP representative.
The allegations today and the allegations your office made back earlier this year that were the subject of the April 26th and April 27th questioning, at no time do those allegations indicate any false statements to any FOP representative, Mr. Neumer. As such, we ask that that question be stricken and we move on to what other questions are relevant to these new allegations you have alleged.

MR. NEUMER: As you know, Detective March has been ordered to answer OIG's questions, so I would ask that the court reporter read back the question to Detective March.

(WHEREUPON, the previous question was read by the reporter as follows:

"Still talking about generally the Exhibit 5 Case Report. I wanted to ask you, Detective March, if at any time at the scene of the shooting on October 20th, 2014, at any time at the scene, did you tell a representative from FOP that McDonald lunged at Chicago Police Department officers?")

MR. McKAY: Again, I object. Are you
suggesting, Mr. Neumer, that an FOP representative and his or her statement, whether written or oral, is an official report? Because only official reports in this matter are what John Escalante wanted your office to investigate. I would ask that you answer the question, Mr. Neumer.

MR. NEUMER: The question --

MR. McKAY: He cannot be -- I'm sorry. I mean no disrespect.

Detective March cannot be expected to defend himself by way of ambush. Where does this FOP representative and some alleged conversation, where does that come from? None of the allegations your office has alleged.

What is your good faith basis as an officer of the court to even ask this question, Mr. Neumer?

MR. NEUMER: This question is relevant to our investigation --

MR. McKAY: How so? How so? We ask you to show us the relevance.

MR. NEUMER: Jim, Detective March is under order to answer our questions. I'm going to ask the court reporter to read him the question.

THE WITNESS: She doesn't need to reread
the question again.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. As I said previously in regards to your [Exhibit 5], I do not recall ever in the past almost two years ever characterizing or describing anything that Laquan McDonald did on the night of October 20th, 2014, as a lunge to anyone.

I might add on top of that, at the scene that night, I do not remember having any conversation with any representatives from FOP regarding the details of what happened in this incident.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I'm not sure if you're aware, FOP
spokesperson Pat Camden described the -- described McDonald's actions to the press that night as a -- that McDonald lunged at the officers. If you know, do you know where FOP
spokesperson Pat Camden got that information?

A. How would I possibly know? As I just told you, I don't remember having any conversation with any representative of FOP.

And I can tell you specifically Pat Camden --
and I know who he is -- I did not have any conversation with him at all that night.

And as far as where he got that, I mean, this is America and -- in spite of the conduct of the Inspector General's Office, this is America and people have a right of free speech. Pat Camden can say anything he wants.

I have no control over that, I have no idea what prompted him to say that, and I certainly, if he received information to that effect, I have no idea where it came from.

Q. Okay. And it didn't come from you --

MR. McKAY: I would reiterate, Mr. Neumer,
John Escalante's letter we have talked about at length clearly states whether any officers made
false statements on official reports submitted
in connection with the shooting of Laquan
McDonald on October 20th, 2014.

To suggest Pat Camden's statement to
the press is an official report is absurd.
Agreed or not?

And are we going to ask Detective
March about media reports, whether it's television or print media? That is ridiculous, especially in light of all the false information provided by the media in this case. You going to put them through this type of a sworn statement? I'd love to be asking them some questions under oath.

But, be that as it may, Detective
March has answered your question. Whatever Pat
Camden said to the media is not relevant to what
John Escalante is asking your office to do.

Thank you.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So, Detective March --
A. I'd just like to interject. Just before this exchange, I believe your last comment was that you are not saying that I made a statement like that to Pat Camden? And I would -- you said we're not saying that you made
that statement to Pat Camden, but I would say on the record that the clear implication of your last question to me is that I am the source of
that statement.

Q. I'm asking you whether --
A. Right --

Q. -- whether you --

A. -- your implication -- because there's no allegation but you're on your little fishing expedition and you're accusing me by implication by that question that I am the source of that statement, and clearly I am not.

Q. Okay.

A. As you just admitted that you knew before you asked the question.

Q. I don't quite follow but okay.

At this time I am going to ask my colleague if she has any cleanup questions with respect to the ME Case Report.

BY MS. WITZBURG:

Q. Just very briefly, Detective, on Page 1 there's a phone number under the Notification section and a phone number under the Discovered section. Those are both 312-747 exchange numbers. Are those both numbers for Area Central?

A. Oh, no. I'm sorry. I misspoke. The number under the Discovered looks like -- it's not -- just looking at it quickly, I thought it was my office number. It's not. It probably is a number for the 8th District, which is the address right above it.

Q. Okay. So the 8380, is that the Area
Central?

A. That is my office number.

Q. Does that phone -- is that specific to you, that exchange --

A. No, that's --

Q. -- is that the Detective Division number?

A. That's the entire office on the second floor.

Q. Okay. And 8730 is not an Area
Central number?

A. Correct. Not that I know of. I believe it's the 8th District. I don't know for certain.

Q. Okay. Thank you.

MS. WITZBURG: That's it.

MR. NEUMER: Okay.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I would just like to, since we didn't go there, make a couple other observations. On Page 4 that we didn't deal with.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay.

A. Near the top there it says there's an entry of "Temperature of Environment: 52 degrees Fahrenheit". There is no way that I told Investigator Briggs that the temperature at the scene that night was 52 degrees.

Again, he obviously went to some internet source or something, some weather site and found -- you know, just looked up the temperature. Because I can see how that would be relevant to the Office of the Medical Examiner, but that certainly didn't come from me as you're suggesting everything else in this report is from me.

And then a short way under that entry, there's an entry for "Photographs Taken on Scene" and it says, "False."

Again, not being familiar with all of the workings of the Medical Examiner's Office, I have no idea what that is indicating. And if that is supposed to be Briggs indicating that I told him that photographs taken at the scene is false, that is a false representation because at
the time of the notification that I made this notification, I don't believe photographs had been taken, but the crime lab, the Forensic Services personnel were on the scene in the process of processing the scene, which included
not just photographs but also video.

So that is an inaccurate entry. And,
again, it just goes to the credibility of using this report to say that I said anything exactly
in the words that he used.

Q. I'm now going to put -- I'm going to take Exhibit 5 back and put Exhibit 6, the Original Case Incident Report in front of you.

(WHEREUPON, the document was tendered to the witness.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. And who completes an Original Case
Incident Report?

A. Well, it can potentially be any member of -- any sworn member of the Chicago
Police Department.

I believe even with all the civilianization we've gone through, I believe
it's still sworn members only that are -- and
maybe I'm wrong, but still to the best of my knowledge, it's only sworn officers that can actually initiate or create an Original Case Incident Report. So in the case of this incident, it would have been whichever officer was assigned to do that task -- to perform that task.

Q. Is it generally officers that complete the Case Incident Reports as opposed to detectives?

A. The vast majority of times, but there are times when a detective will create an original report.

Q. When would a detective create an Original Case Incident Report?

A. In an incident where he becomes aware of the crime and -- just his dealing with it.
So, you know, rather than calling to have a beat car assigned and tying them up --

Q. Sure.

A. -- and the detective, the detective
will just, you know, save some resources and
just create the original report themselves.
Q. Got you. And so what's the review chain for a Case Incident Report?

A. The member who prepares the report, it's all computerized now. We have a system that's called AIRA -- I believe it's A-I-R-A -- which is for creating original computerized incident reports. Officers can do that in the mobile PDTs -- I don't know if that's police data terminal -- that they have in the cars, or they can do it on any computer in the police facility. But, as I said, no longer do we write -- hand-write reports out by hand; it's all done on computer.

And so there's a number of screens that the officer will go through and enter the information that's requested. They enter -- I should specify that they enter the information that they have or are aware of at that time.

All of these are usually what is called as preliminary investigations. When the investigation is just starting, the civilian, if you will, is just initially reporting it to the police, so sometimes the officer making -- initiating the report doesn't have all of the facts or may be given wrong information by the people they're talking to.

But it's basically that officer goes through the different screens and enters the information that is requested to the best of their knowledge.

Q. And after the officer or, in certain instances detective, completes the Case Incident Report, who next reviews that report?

A. Once the officer has entered all the information and they're satisfied that they have everything the way they want it on the report, on one of the screens, there's a "Submit" button. When they click on that button, it is then considered submitted.

In fact, if you were to look at the system in more detail, a report that has not been submitted yet, somewhere near the top of the report, it will say, "Preliminary" because it has not been submitted. That report is basically nothing; it's just a report in progress.

Once it is submitted, then if you were to print the report up then, it would say somewhere near the top, "Submitted." And then a supervisor, normally it's a sergeant, would review the report and approve it.

Once the sergeant reviews the report and is in agreement with it or whatever and decides he's ready to approve it, there's a screen in his computer that he clicks on the "Approved" button. At that time, the report becomes approved, and, again, if you were to print a copy of the report after that, it would say, "Approved" somewhere near the top of the report.

Q. Yep. Yep. Okay. Does the detective assigned to a case generally look at the case incident report before it's finalized?

A. No, the vast majority of criminal incidents that are reported by, you know, patrol personnel, there is no detective on the scene. It's a civilian reporting a crime to the officer. The officer enters his information, submits the report. His sergeant approves it or a sergeant will review and approve it.

And then subsequent to that, it will be assigned to a detective. And then that's like normally the first opportunity the detective has to even know the report exists,
much less read it and review it.

Q. So generally speaking, the Case --
the Original Case Incident Report is approved and finalized before a detective even gets assigned?

A. Correct.

Q. Who prepared this Exhibit 6 Original
Case Incident Report?

MR. McKay: Objection to speculation unless
he knows.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I can only speak -- again, I wasn't present when this report was created and submitted in the computer system. I can only go
by the computer entries on the last page of this report, but it -- I know that Dora Fontaine was at the scene, I know that she was one of the officers assigned to the car that was assigned to do the original report, and it says reporting
officer is Dora Fontaine.

So it was either Dora Fontaine or someone logged into the computer system as Dora
Fontaine. That's the only thing I can say for certain.

Q. Okay.

A. It probably was Dora Fontaine.

Q. Did you direct Officer Fontaine to complete this Case Incident Report?

A. No, her sergeant did. One of the 8th District sergeants assigned their car or her car to, you know, be the quote/unquote paper car to create the Original Case Incident Report.

Q. Did you speak -- I know -- based on our interviews in April, I know you spoke to Officer Fontaine at the scene of the shooting regarding what she had witnessed. Putting those conversations aside, did you speak to Officer Fontaine at the scene of the shooting regarding her completion of this Original Case Incident Report?

A. I believe I just checked with her what classification she was going to use, what address, date and time of occurrence.

And then obviously, as we've already spoken about, I made the notification to the Medical Examiner's Office so I gave her Investigator Briggs' name and badge number to -- because technically the notification responsibility is the beat car, so I did that for them and gave her the information so it could be entered on the report.

Q. Okay. And so just to -- just for the record, what was the information you provided, the --

A. I told her I notified the Medical Examiner's Office and here's the name of the investigator and here's his number.

Q. Oh, okay. Okay. Is --

A. Which she apparently entered on the report because it is in there and I didn't enter it.

Q. Did you provide Officer Fontaine with any of the other information that is contained in this Exhibit 6 report?

A. No.

Q. Do you know where she would have gotten the information in this report that lists Officer Gaffney, Officer Van Dyke, and Officer Walsh as victims?

A. Either from talking to those individual officers or from someone else who had spoken to the officers.

Q. Okay. She did not get that information regarding the victims from you?

MR. McKay: Objection, asked and answered.

BY THE WITNESS:

A. I believe I -- in our previous interview from April, I -- there was a question as to, you know, how this classification, whatever -- I think we had a conversation about who would be listed as a victim -- as victims on this report, and so obviously -- I don't know if Dora Fontaine was part of the conversation I was involved in.

    Most of my conversations were with supervisors, and I don't recall if Dora Fontaine was there or not. But it was decided that we would list three victims, Officers Gaffney, Van Dyke, and Walsh.

Q. Right, but you don't have a specific recollection of telling Officer Fontaine, "You should list these three individuals as victims in your Original Case Incident Report"?

A. No, I don't recall that.
Q. Were you responsible for approving this Original Case Incident Report?
A. Absolutely not. As a detective, I have no authority to go into the computer system and approve anyone's report. Only a sergeant and above can do that.

Q. Let me back up, actually. In the Injuries section on Page 1, it says, "Injury info, PO Van Dyke, Number 12865, Jason – victim" and then underneath that it says, "Injured by offender."

Did you direct Officer Fontaine to include that, "Injured by offender" language in the report?
A. No.

Q. Do you have any knowledge as to why Officer Fontaine included that language in the report?
A. I can only speculate as to why that entry is in the report. The most likely reason that I can think of is that, again, as I explained, she was on the computer dealing with different computer screens.

And for this -- I know that for this,
"Injured by offender" entry, it's just a -- I believe they call it a radio button in computer terminology, but it's just a button you click on if that's the entry you want on the report.

My best guess would be that somehow she clicked on that button by accident because at no time did Jason Van Dyke tell me that he was injured, at no time did anyone else tell me that Jason Van Dyke or that anyone else was injured during this incident besides Laquan McDonald.

And I don't know if maybe Dora Fontaine thought he was or someone told her that he was, but I tend to believe that this was more of an accident because here's the thing: When an officer intentionally -- if they have a victim who is injured and they are intentionally clicking on that button to indicate that the victim was injured by the offender, there are then some subsequent drop-down menus that are normally -- a choice is made to also make an entry.

So in that case, let's say if this was -- Van Dyke was injured, you would have the entry, "injured by offender." It would then say, "nature of injury" and a drop-down menu --
some of the -- not all of the selections,
but -- this is not an inclusive list, but
some of the -- and, again, these are all computer choices. These are not the words of an officer entering it.

Some of the entries and selections -- or possible selections in the drop-down menu are
gunshot wound, stab wound, blunt force trauma,
abrasion, bruising, along those lines.

And then there's another drop-down
menu for the weapon used or instrument used to inflict the injury. Is it a firearm, is it a knife, is it a blunt instrument, is it hands if someone is punching someone.

So, again, my feeling or my interpretation of this is, if that was an intentional entry by Dora Fontaine, I would expect there to see the entries from the subsequent drop-down menus here. And those are not here, so that makes me think more likely than not, this was -- you know, I'm sure -- I know I have, most people I know have at some point in time clicked on the wrong button on the computer and gotten a result that they didn't want, and I think that's what happened here.

I might also add that most of the
entries from this Original Case Report, once it
is approved, when I create a report subsequent
to that, the report -- what I'm starting with is not a blank report. I'm starting with the information populated from this report. And
then it's up to me to create -- to correct any errors and to update any information if I learn something that's different from what the beat
officer had in their report.

And I can tell you from looking at my reports, nowhere in my reports does this injury
section appear at all.

Q. Okay.
A. And I don't specifically remember
doing this, but when I created a report, I go through all the screens to make sure the
information is accurate as far as what I know,
and if that box "injured by offender" had been checked, I obviously unchecked it because in my reports, this does not appear.
Q. I got you. Did you review this Exhibit 6 report before it was finalized?
A. No.
Q. Do you --
A. And there's no -- I might also add that there is no evidence anywhere that I had anything to do with the drafting or the reviewing or the approval of this report.
Q. Do you recall when you first saw this Exhibit 6 report?
A. Sometime the following morning after it was approved, I believe.
Q. Your name on Page 4 -- bottom of Page 4 in the Personnel section, your name and PC number are listed, along with the date of -- well, I should ask you, is that your PC number next your name at the bottom of Page 4?
A. Yes.
Q. And then a date and time is -- next to that PC number is October 21st, 2014, 15:01. What does that time signify?
A. Well, again, Mr. McKay alluded to this at the beginning of this proceeding when he said John Escalante would never have made the allegations that I am now facing regarding this report because if you just look at this report, it logically tells you what happened here.

The bottom line -- the last line of this page is that Dora Fontaine submitted the report on 21 October 2014 at 0432 hours, which is 4:32 a.m. That is the time the computer assigns. She didn't pick that time; that is the time the computer assigns when she clicks the "Submit" button.

The next time chronologically is the top -- the top line here, Sergeant Stephen Franko, it's got his approval time at 21 October 2014 at 0518 hours, that's 5:18 a.m. That is, again, not a time chosen by Sergeant Franko. When he clicks -- when he goes in there as a supervisor and clicks on the "Approval" button, that time is assigned by the computer.

And, again, First Deputy Superintendent John Escalante would know these things.

My name is on the middle line there, and it says -- my name is associated with a time of 21 October 2014 at 1501 hours, which is 3:01 p.m. on that same day. So it's almost -- it's getting close -- it's about ten hours after Sergeant Franko approved the report.

And, again, First Deputy Superintendent Escalante would know that Dora Fontaine's entry is in regards to when she submitted the report; Sergeant Franko's name is in regards to the time he approved the report; my name is the time at which a supervisor or a detective assigned to the Area Case Management Office went into the computer system and administrative -- knew that I was the assigned detective and went into the system and administratively assigned the job -- this incident to me on 21 October 2014 at 1501 hours.

Again, that's the time it was administratively assigned to me. It was actually assigned to me many hours earlier on the night of the 20th by Sergeant Gallagher verbally in person, but it didn't make it into the computer obviously until all these steps occurred.

And, again, First Deputy Superintendent John Escalante would know all
this and, therefore, never would have made these allegations, two of which -- not just one, two of which I'm looking at regarding this one
report.

MR. NEUMER: At this time I'm going to turn
it over to my colleague for follow-up questions.

MS. WITZBURG: Thanks.

BY MS. WITZBURG:

Q. Detective, you mentioned that there was a conversation on the scene having to do with who would be designated as a victim; is
that right?

A. Correct.

Q. Tell us a little bit more about that corversation. Who else --

MR. McKAY: Objection, this has been asked
and answered in April. You were here, Peter,
Kris Brown was here, with all due respect to
Ms. Witzburg, she was not. That's why she doesn't know about that conversation. You do.

That's not the purpose of this second interview is to do a do-over of the first interview, so I'm objecting to these questions.

And I ask that Ms. Witzburg move on to questions that are related to yours pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement. She can ask follow-up questions of your questioning, not do a discovery deposition of something she may not have personal knowledge of because she was not present for the April interviews.

MR. NEUMER: I mean, I think the question is reasonable and I would just ask the court reporter to read it back to Mr. -- Detective March.

(WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter.)

BY THE WITNESS:
A. Maybe you could repeat the -- ask me what you want to know.

BY MS. WITZBURG:
Q. Who participated in that conversation?

A. I do not recall all of the parties. I know obviously myself was part of it. I believe Sergeant Gallagher was part of it, and ultimately I know Deputy Chief David McNaughton, who was the on-call incident commander, the highest-ranking department member on the scene in charge of the entire scene, he ultimately weighed in on it.

Q. Okay. And do you know which person who had participated in that conversation gave the information to Officer Fontaine as to who to designate as victims in that report?

A. I don't recall how that information got communicated to her.

Q. Do you recall if it was you?

A. No, I don't recall.

Q. Okay. So it could have been but you're not sure?

MR. MCKAY: Objection, asked and answered.

I also ask the record reflect that this questioning, in my mind, is violating Subsection C of Section 6.2 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement which clearly mandates that if there is a second interviewer, that second interviewer will ask follow-up questions for clarification purposes only. She cannot or he cannot conduct questioning of a witness during a second interview after it had already been gone into during the first interview several months ago.
BY MS. WITZBURG:

Q. Detective March, you told us you first saw this report, I believe you said, sometime the following day, sometime on October 21st; is that right?

A. Sometime that morning.

Q. Okay. Generally speaking, when you're assigned to an investigation, when you review the Original Case Incident Report, if you discover something that you consider to be an error in that report, what steps would you take?

A. As I just -- I think I just went into that. When I go in to create my subsequent reports, if there's any information that's inaccurate, I correct it.

If there's additional information that the officer didn't have at the time that I now have, I add that and update the -- I update everything to the most accurate information that I have available to me.

Q. Understood. To ensure the accuracy of your subsequent reports, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Would you take any steps as far as correcting the original report itself or noting anywhere that that report contained an error?

    A. No, for integrity of the report, once the report is approved by a sergeant, it cannot be changed. That is the original report. Any subsequent reports that need to -- have updated information, you create that information in the updated reports.

    Like I said, in this case, I don't specifically remember that, but it makes sense -- I mean, it would most likely be that this obviously does appear, this entry about Van Dyke being injured by offender obviously does appear in the approved version of her report.

    So, again, I don't specifically recall this, but it should have carried over and populated my report when I created my report in the computer, and then when I went through all the screens to make sure the information was accurate and update new information that I had, I -- again, that information is not in my report, so, again, I don't specifically recall taking this action, but I probably unchecked that button so that my report was accurate as far as what the facts were as I knew them.

Q. Okay. And did you record anywhere your impression that the original report contained this inaccurate fact?

A. No, and there's no requirement that I do that.

Q. Thanks.

MR. McKay: I would object to that question because that's not alleged by the Office of Inspector General in the Notification of Allegations.

He is being asked about either reviewing and approving her report or assisting in the drafting. There is no allegation that he's under some duty to correct a report he did not prepare nor did he approve.

MR. Neumer: The time is 12:17 p.m. We're going to go off the record.

(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

MR. Neumer: Time is 12:20 p.m. We're back on the record.

By Mr. Neumer:

Q. Detective March, we have no further questions for you today; however, understanding
the nature of our investigation, if there's any other information you think is -- we should know, now is your opportunity to provide that information on the record.

MR. MCKAY: Well, can I ask you a question,
Peter? You made -- your office, I should say, made four allegations, three of which are somewhat specific, the fourth one is just an overall allegation based on the first three.
Are you going to specifically ask Detective March whether he admits or denies your allegations?

MR. NEUMER: I mean, I think the -- I think his answers have specifically addressed each of the Notice of Allegations. If there's anything he would like to say regarding allegations one through four, the floor is yours.

MR. MCKAY: All right. If I may?

EXAMINATION

BY MR. MCKAY:

Q. Detective March, drawing your attention to the Office of Inspector General's Exhibit 3, number one, on October 21st, 2014,
did you review and approve an Original Case Incident Report, which includes an event number of 1429315878 and an RD number of HX475653, even though it falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was "injured by offender"?

A. My response to the allegation is the allegation is entirely false. I have no authority to review and approve anyone's Original Case Incident Report, and in this case, I did not review and approve the Original Case Incident Report.

Q. Directing your attention to allegation number two of the Inspector General's Exhibit 3.

On or about October 20th, 2014, or October 21st, 2014, did you assist in the drafting of the OCIR which falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was "injured by offender"?

A. No, I did not assist in the drafting of that report, especially regarding the point at which it states that Officer Van Dyke was, "injured by offender."

Q. In fact, sir, in all of the reports that you did create, whether they were supplemental reports or GPRs of witness interviews, did you at any time indicate that Officer Jason Van Dyke was injured by Laquan
McDonald?
   A. No, never.
   Q. Regarding allegation number three of
Inspector General's Exhibit Number 3, did you,
on or about October 20th, 2014, make a false
statement to Investigator Earl Briggs of the Cook County Office of the Medical Examiner when,
with respect to the McDonald shooting, where Briggs wrote down, "McDonald lunged at the Chicago police officers assigned to Beat 845R
with a knife," what do you say about that
allegation?
   MR. NEUMER: Just for the record, Jim, can you note that you added some additional language
to the allegation number three in your recital
of it.
   MR. MCKAY: Well, I will only because you
and your office stated Detective March stated to Briggs that McDonald lunged at Chicago police officers. It's Detective March's position he 1 didn't state that at all to anybody.
2
3 BY MR. McKay:
4
5 Q. So I would ask, Detective March, how 6 do you respond to allegation number three of the 7 Inspector General's Exhibit Number 3 as they 8 have specifically alleged?
9 A. The allegation is entirely false. I
10 never made a false statement to Investigator 11 Briggs especially to the point where it's 12 alleged here that I said that -- or that I 13 stated that McDonald lunged at Chicago police 14 officers assigned to Beat 845 Robert with a 15 knife.
16
17 I might also add that has been well
18 documented now in our review of that report,
19 there is a vast array of information contained 20 in that report that no way could have possibly 21 come from me at the time that I made that 22 notification from the scene.
23
24 So obviously that report is a summary
25 of a lot of information that Investigator Briggs 26 obtained from a number of different sources, 27 and, as I already detailed in our discussion of 28 that report, it is not a summary of information
he obtained exclusively from me.

I also might add, again as to the credibility of his report being used for any allegations against me and his attention to detail to record facts, the most glaring of which he's got the incident occurring on the wrong date, which does not appear to me to be a typographical error where he just got one number wrong; he got both numbers wrong on the date, the first and the second number. So it doesn't appear to be just a simple typo to me.

Again, so it goes to the credibility of that report being used as a -- regarding his attention to detail and that being used as a factual basis for any allegations against me.

I also might add that there was absolutely no motive for me to misrepresent Laquan McDonald's action during the confrontation with Jason Van Dyke because right from the beginning, I told Investigator Briggs this was a police officer-involved shooting where the offender had been shot and killed. And I told him that the subject, Laquan McDonald, had been struck multiple times by
...gunshot wounds.

So there is no way using the word "lunged" as opposed to any other word would have made a difference to the Medical Examiner's Office. It was very clear that night at the scene before the Medical Examiner's Office ever got the body that their ultimate finding was going to be that the cause and manner of death would be multiple gunshot wounds, homicide.

The only question left was whether or not Jason Van Dyke's use of deadly force was justified or not, and the Medical Examiner's Office does not weigh in on that. All they do is make the determination that the cause of death is multiple gunshot wounds, because there's more than one gunshot wound -- and the manner of death is homicide.

And in the terms that the Medical Examiner's Office uses, all that indicates was that this person was killed by another person, not by a car crash or anything else. Whether or not it was a crime or a justifiable homicide or an accident, the Medical Examiner's Office doesn't make that determination. That is...
determined through all of the subsequent
investigation that was -- is conducted.

So the portrayal of Laquan McDonald's actions in a preliminary notification to the Office of the Medical Examiner would have had no -- absolutely no bearing on their findings in
this matter.

And so, therefore, I think, again,
that's consistent with me, again, knowing about
the importance of details of the elements of a crime and knowing in almost two years of talking about this case, in writing, in verbally, in front of different authorities, I never -- have never used the word, "lunge" or, "lunged" to characterize what Laquan McDonald did that night.

And I wouldn't have used it as quoting of any of my witnesses because none of
the witnesses I spoke to ever used the word,
"lunge." And, again, as I already said, when I viewed the video, what I viewed I never categorized as a lunge.

So, again, I believe what's in Investigator Briggs' report in addition to his inaccuracies are his words, using his words, he summarized all of the information he gathered that night.

Q. In your preparation of your official reports in this case, did you ever use the words or the phrase that Laquan McDonald lunged at Chicago police officers?

A. No.

Q. Finally, regarding allegation number four in Exhibit Number 3 of the Office of Inspector General, which alleges that you were incompetent in the performance of your duties in the ways enumerated in allegations one through three, how do you respond?

A. I find it very, very -- I find allegation number four maybe the most offensive allegation that I am facing regarding this investigation, and here’s why: My mother and father did a wonderful job raising five children, okay? They taught me the importance of being a conscientious student in school and a conscientious employee in the workforce, the importance to showing to work on time, giving your best effort to anything that you do, okay?
I, over 34 years of employment with the Chicago Police Department -- and no one in the Inspector General's Office probably has any idea, but within the organization of the Chicago Police Department, I have a reputation for being very complete, very thorough, very professional, and very competent, okay?

And I'm not using these words just because I have a Donald Trump ego, okay? People have told me that. Supervisors have told me that. Prosecutors in the State's Attorney's Office of Cook County have told me.

I've dealt with law enforcement agencies at the federal level, state level, county level, city level, other municipalities, and never once -- and you can check my disciplinary record -- has anyone ever made any kind of indication that my work is anything but complete, thorough, professional, and competent.

And I find this allegation, as I said, the most reprehensible and offensive of anything that I encountered so far during the course of this investigation. And I would just caution the Inspector General's Office, who likes to use these words very generously, to be careful in their terminology because the words they're using during the course of this investigation could very well come back and used to judge their competence and professionalism and thoroughness and completeness.

Q. In addition to that, Detective March, is there anything you wish to add to what you have already testified under oath to?

A. No.

MR. McKay: Thank you, Mr. Neumer.

MR. NEUMER: The time is 12:31, and this interview is concluded.

(WHEREUPON, the interview was concluded at 12:31 p.m.)
CERTIFICATE OF REPORTER

I, MICHELLE M. YOHLER, a Certified

2016 MARCH DETECTIVE DAVID IN RE DETECTIVE DAVID MARCH
CITY OF CHICAGO
OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS

I, David March, understand that I am being interviewed by Peter Neumer and Deborah Witzburg from the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General.

DATE 7/25/16 TIME __________ LOCATION 300 West Adams Street, Ste. 800, Chicago, IL

I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully.

I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand that if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the questions. I further understand and have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I understand and have been advised that my statements or responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's Rules and Regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding.

I understand that I have the right to have a union representative, or legal counsel of my choosing, present at the interview to consult with, and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed.

I understand that a refusal to answer any question, or any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56, and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me, and I have been allowed to review this document.

City ordinance, and if applicable, collective bargaining agreements, provide that you are entitled to notice of the nature of the allegations against you and the identity of all complainants prior to any interview. Accordingly, you are advised as follows:

COMPLAINANT(S)

1. John J. Escalante, Interim Superintendent of Chicago Police Department, sent a letter to the City of Chicago, Office of Inspector General (OIG), dated January 19, 2016, requesting that OIG conduct an administrative investigation of the following allegations arising out of the October 20, 2014, shooting death of Laquan McDonald (the McDonald Shooting): "Whether any officer(s) made false statements on official reports submitted in connection with the shooting of Laquan McDonald on October 20, 2014, whether any officer(s) obstructed or interfered with the investigation of this incident, whether individually or in collusion with others; and whether any officer(s) committed any violation of Chicago Police Department rules, policies, or orders in connection with their response and/or handling of this matter." Escalante attached to the letter a copy of Sergeant E. Boris's (Star # 2275) Initiation Report, which raised similar allegations of misconduct with respect to Department members in connection with the McDonald Shooting, and identified that Report as a Basis for OIG's administrative investigation.

ALLEGATION(S)

1. On October 21, 2014, you reviewed and approved an Original Case Incident Report, which includes an Event Number of 1429315878 and an R.D. Number of 8X475653 (the OICR), even though it falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was "Injured by offender."

2. On or about October 20, 2014 or October 21, 2014, you assisted in the drafting of the OICR, which falsely stated that Officer Jason Van Dyke was "Injured by offender."

3. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a false statement to Investigator Earl Briggs of Cook County's Office of the Medical Examiner's office, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you stated that McDonald lunged at Chicago Police Officers assigned to Beat 845R with a knife.

4. You were incompetent in the performance of your duties in the ways enumerated in allegations 1 through 3.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I hereby acknowledge receipt in writing of the identity of the complainant(s) and notice of the nature of the allegation(s) against me.

Narrative

On 20 October 2014 at 2351 hours Detective March #20563 of the Chicago Police Department Area Central Detectives Beat #5121 notified the Forensic Institute the subject Laquan McDonald had expired at Mt. Sinai Hospital after being shot by an on duty Chicago Police Officer.

Detective March related the following: on or about 2156 hours 19 October 2014 Chicago Police 8th District Beat Car 815R responded to 41st and Kildare in reference to a “Citizen Holding a Subject”. Upon arrival Beat #815R was confronted by the subject who threatened the officers with a 4 inch fold knife. The subject fled the scene on foot where at 4112 S. Pulaski the subject was stopped by officers assigned to Beat #845R. The officers announced their office as “Chicago Police Officers” and ordered the subject to drop the knife. The subject lunged at the officers with the knife. Fearing for their life and attempting to stop the threat one officer (star #9465) fired sixteen rounds from his duty weapon a Smith & Wesson 9mm handgun striking the subject numerous times. After striking the subject an ambulance was requested by the officers.

Upon arrival of Chicago Fire Department Ambulance #21 the subject was transported to Mt. Sinai Hospital. Once at Mt. Sinai Hospital emergency room staff were unable to revive the subject and the subject expired at 2242 hours being pronounced by Doctor Titeel. It appears that the subject sustained the following gunshot wounds, four to the chest, six to the right arm, five to the left arm, one to the right side torso, two to the back, one to the right hip, two to the left leg front, two to the left leg rear, 2 to the left thigh and three to the right thigh. At this time since the officer fired sixteen times which of the twenty-six gunshot wounds are entrance or exit wounds.

At the time of this incident both officers assigned to Beat #845R and 815R were in full Chicago Police Department uniform.

The subject was ordered along with all police reports, medical records which included admission blood which was drawn to the Forensic Institute for further examination.

Subject was positively identified by the Chicago Police ICLEAR system based on a prior Chicago Police Booking Number IR2106340. At the time of this report it is unknown why the citizen was “Holding the Subject” since the citizen left the scene and could not be interviewed.

Subject’s next of kin has not been notified

I. PURPOSE
This directive identifies incidents which will require the completion of a Tactical Response Report (CPD-11.377). Department members will refer to the Special Order titled "Incidents Requiring the Completion of a Tactical Response Report" for reporting and reviewing responsibilities.

II. POLICY
A. The Tactical Response Report will be used to document the following incidents:
   1. all incidents which involve a subject fitting the definition of an assailant whose actions are directed against a Department member or directed against another person and the member intervenes.
   2. all incidents which involve a subject fitting the definition of an active resister except for incidents in which:
      a. the subject's only action of resisting is fleeing; and
      b. the member's actions did not extend beyond verbal commands and/or control holds utilized in conjunction with handcuffing and searching techniques which do not result in injury or allegation of injury.
   3. incidents involving a subject fitting the definition of a passive resister or a cooperative subject when the subject is injured or alleges injury resulting from the member's use of a force option.
   4. all incidents involving the discharge of OC spray or other chemical weapon, a Taser, impact munitions, or a firearm.
   5. all incidents where a subject obstructs a police officer when the obstructing is a physical act between the subject and the officer.

B. Incidents which do not require documentation on a TRR include:
   1. the use of a firm grip hold which does not result in an injury or allegation of injury;
   2. that force necessary to overcome passive resistance due to physical disability or intoxication which does not result in injury or allegation of injury;
   3. control holds utilized in conjunction with handcuffing and searching techniques which do not result in injury or allegation of injury and which by themselves are not described in Item II-A of this directive;
   4. the use of force in an approved training exercise.

C. If the most serious use of force requires an investigation by an On-Call Incident Commander (OCIC), then the findings of all Tactical Response Reports resulting from the use of force by any member in that instance will be the responsibility of that OCIC.
III. PROCEDURES FOR USE OF THE TACTICAL RESPONSE REPORT

A. Each sworn member or detention aide in the performance of his or her duties who is involved in a reportable use of force incident, as described in Item I-A of this directive, will:

1. immediately notify the member's or detention aide's immediate supervisor that he or she has been involved in a use of force incident.
2. complete a Tactical Response Report, detailing information as requested on the report. Specific instructions for the completion of the form can be found in the Tactical Response Report Form Preparation Instructions.

NOTE: In reportable use of force incidents, each sworn member or detention aide who uses force will complete a TRR; therefore, there may be several such reports completed for a single arrest.

3. make notifications to the Office of Emergency Management and Communications and the desk sergeant in the district of occurrence and record the name of the person receiving the notification in the appropriate case report for all incidents involving the discharge of OC spray, a Taser, impact munitions, or a firearm.
4. ensure that his or her completed TRR is submitted, along with other required reports as indicated in the Department directive entitled "Processing Persons Under Department Control," to the watch commander in the district of occurrence.

B. A supervisor who has been notified of an incident as described in Item II-A of this directive will:

1. respond to the scene when the injury to a subject or member is of the severity to require immediate medical attention.
2. ensure that all witnesses are identified, interviewed, and that information is recorded in the appropriate report.
3. request the assignment of an evidence technician to take photographs of subjects who have been involved in a use of force incident and are injured, allege injury, or when otherwise deemed appropriate by the supervisor.
4. ensure that other evidence is handled and processed according to existing Department procedures.
5. review the member's TRR for legibility and completeness and indicate approval of such by signing the appropriate box.
6. complete the TRR for a member who cannot complete the report due to injury.

NOTE: The TRR will not substitute for an Officer's Battery Report. Whenever a member is the victim of a murder or any type of a battery or an assault, whether such charges are placed against an offender or not, the supervisor will complete an Officer's Battery Report.
7. ensure that a report is completed for the incident, consistent with the guidelines established in the Incident Reporting Guide (IRG) (CPD-63.451).

NOTE: Tactical Response Reports resulting from incidents which would not normally require case reports (e.g., warrant arrests) will require the completion of a case report. Members will refer to the IRG section entitled "Special Case Reporting Index for Use of Force Incidents" for specific reporting instructions.

00-148 LMT(PMD)
WEAPON DISCHARGE INCIDENTS INVOLVING SWORN MEMBERS

I. PURPOSE
This directive outlines Department investigative and reporting procedures in weapon discharge incidents.

II. SCOPE
Under normal circumstances, the provisions of this directive will not apply to:

A. the discharge of a firearm during:
   1. Department-sponsored firearms training or practice;
   2. firearms practice at a recognized range facility.
   3. Department authorized ballistic examination or testing.
   4. a licensed hunting activity.

B. the discharge of a Taser in a Department authorized training program.
C. chemical agent use in a Department authorized training program.

III. FIREARMS DISCHARGE INCIDENT NOTIFICATIONS
In addition to other notifications outlined in this directive, for ANY firearms discharge incidents, including unintentional discharges and those involving the destruction of an animal:

A. the watch commander in the district of occurrence will ensure Operations Command is notified.
B. Operations Command will notify the Internal Affairs Division (IAD) call-out supervisor of any firearms discharge incident notification.

IV. MANDATORY ALCOHOL AND DRUG TESTING

A. Any sworn Department member, involved in a firearms discharge incident, whether on or off duty, is required to submit to the mandatory alcohol and drug testing, in compliance with this directive and any applicable collective bargaining agreement.

   NOTE: This requirement does not apply to the circumstances delineated in Item II-A of this directive.

B. The IAD call-out supervisor will:
   1. contact the On-Call Incident Commander (OCIC) or watch commander, as appropriate, and respond to the designated location to conduct the alcohol and drug testing.
   2. complete and submit a "Notice of Alcohol and Drug Testing Following a Firearms Discharge Incident" (CPD-44.25).

C. The IAD call-out supervisor will ensure:
   1. the involved member submits to the alcohol breath test and will conduct the test according to Department policy.
2. the alcohol breath test result is provided to the OCIC or watch commander, as appropriate.

3. the involved member submits to the drug test and ensure the urine specimen is:
   a. collected in a manner that will preserve the dignity of the involved member and ensure the integrity of the sample.
   b. collected in the presence of a supervisor of the same sex as the involved member.
   c. retained by the IAD call-out supervisor who will assume the responsibility for ensuring that the urine specimen is properly secured in accordance with established division-level standard operation procedures, pending processing by a medical laboratory.

4. the alcohol and drug testing occurs as soon as practicable after the firearms discharge incident given the overall demands of the investigation.

   NOTE: The member with overall command responsibility, (e.g., OCIC or watch commander), will ensure testing is initiated no later than six hours following the firearms discharge incident.

5. that copies of any associated reports, including the testing and results documentation, are forwarded to the Chief Administrator, Independent Police Review Authority (IPRA) once the testing is completed.

D. If the involved member refuses to provide a breath test or urine specimen pursuant to this process, it is a violation of the Department Rules and Regulations, (e.g., disobedience of an order or directive whether written or oral), and will result in administrative charges against the member, which may include discipline up to and including separation.

E. No discipline shall occur solely on the results of the alcohol test when the member's actions are consistent with the Department's Use of Force guidelines and the member discharged their weapon off-duty.

Terry G. Hillard
Superintendent of Police
I. PURPOSE

The following addenda describe procedures to be followed for all incidents involving the discharge of OC spray or other chemical weapon, a Taser, impact munitions, or a firearm. Department members will refer to the General Order titled "Use of Force Guidelines" for the policy and guidelines governing Use of Force incidents.

ADDENDA:

1. S03-02-01 - Firearm Discharge in Incidents other than the Destruction of Animals
2. S03-02-02 - Other Weapon Discharge Incidents
3. S03-02-03 - Incidents Requiring the Completion of a Tactical Response Report
4. S03-02-04 - CLEAR Automated Tactical Response Report
I. PURPOSE
This directive:
A. outlines Department investigative and reporting procedures in firearm discharge incidents other than incidents involving the destruction of an animal.
B. introduces the concept of the Round Table Panel Session.

II. ROUND TABLE PANEL SESSION
A. The Round Table Panel Session is a preliminary fact-finding session used to provide a forum for the interview of witnesses and review of available facts relevant to a police-related firearm discharge incident.
B. The Round Table Panel Session will include the following personnel:
   1. the On-Call Incident Commander;
   2. the area commander of the affected Detective Division area;
   3. the watch commander of the district of occurrence;
   4. the Detective Division police shooting coordinator for the affected area;
   5. other assigned Detective Division personnel;
   6. an Assistant State's Attorney;
   7. Independent Police Review Authority, and;
   8. law enforcement representatives as deemed necessary by the On-Call Incident Commander for the completion of the investigation.
C. The Round Table Panel Session will convene in instances in which:
   1. a Department member has discharged his or her firearm and an individual has been killed or injured or;
   2. the On-Call Incident Commander, deems that a Round Table Panel Session will aid and facilitate an investigation.
D. Conduct of the Round Table Panel Session
   1. The area commander of the affected Detective Division area will be the member responsible for convening the Round Table Panel Session with the approval of the On-Call Incident Commander.
   2. The Round Table Panel Session will be convened only after the assigned Detective Division personnel have established factual outlines of events in order to present available evidence and testimony in an understandable sequence.
   3. The commander of the affected Detective Division area will designate one individual as interviewer. All questions directed to individuals appearing before the Round Table Panel Session will be asked by and through this designated individual.
4. The interviewer will introduce the members of the Round Table Panel Session to the Department member being interviewed and identify the person in charge of the investigation.

E. Member’s Right to Counsel and Representation.

1. Union members have the right to be represented by counsel or a representative of their union as authorized by their collective bargaining agreement.

2. Non-union members have the right to be represented by counsel or a person of their choosing who is not an on-duty member.

3. The counselor/representative may advise the member but may not interfere with the interview.

F. Allegations of Misconduct Against a Member

In any instance in which an allegation of misconduct has been made against a member or when an allegation has been made in which criminal prosecution is probable, the member will be:

1. informed in writing of the nature of the allegations before any interview begins.

2. given statutory administrative proceeding rights or, if the allegation indicates that criminal prosecution is probable against the member, constitutional rights concerning self-incrimination prior to the commencement of the interview.

3. interviewed in a manner following the "Conduct of Investigation" procedures outlined in the Department directive entitled "Complaint and Disciplinary Procedures."

4. provided with a copy of any written statement made by the member without any unnecessary delay.

5. allowed reasonable periods of time for personal necessities, meals, telephone calls, and rest.

III. MEMBER’S RESPONSIBILITIES IN FIREARM DISCHARGE INCIDENTS

A. Members who discharge a firearm in the destruction of an animal will follow the procedures described in the Department directive entitled "Other Weapon Discharge Incidents."

B. In any other instance where a member has discharged a firearm or has had gunfire directed at his or her person, the member, if physically capable, will:

1. notify the Office of Emergency Management and Communications (OEMC) immediately and provide all relevant information.

2. attend to all required emergency and security duties arising from the incident.

3. provide Department members conducting the investigation with information required to effect arrests and fulfill immediate law enforcement necessities.

4. inform the desk sergeant of the district of occurrence.

5. remain on the scene, if not injured, and report to the watch commander from the district of occurrence upon his or her arrival.

6. ensure that his or her firearm remains holstered and secured until it is submitted to Forensic Services Section personnel.

NOTE: If the involved member is injured and needs to be relieved of his or her firearm prior to receiving medical treatment, the securing member will take possession of the firearm and duty belt and will ensure that the firearm remains holstered and secured.

7. if disarmed during the firearm discharge incident, preserve the firearm as evidence, as it will be processed in compliance with the Department directive entitled "Crime Scene Processing."
8. complete a Tactical Response Report (TRR) (CPD-11.377) and other reports at the location designated by the district watch commander responsible for the investigation.

NOTE: When a member who has discharged a firearm is unable to complete the TRR for any reason, it will become the responsibility of a supervisor designated by the watch commander to prepare this report.

9. attend the Round Table Panel Session as directed by supervisory personnel.

10. contact the Professional Counseling Service via telephone within twenty-four hours of the incident to schedule a mandatory debriefing.

NOTE: Members who are hospitalized as a result of their involvement in a firearm discharge incident will be contacted by a counselor from the Traumatic Incident Stress Management Program.

C. In any instance where a member has discharged a firearm outside the City of Chicago, the member will:

1. notify the local police agency and this Department's Operations Command.
2. ensure the submission of all reports connected with the incident, including a TRR and a To-From-Subject report, without unnecessary delay.

D. Any member, whether on or off duty, having knowledge of circumstances surrounding a firearm discharge incident or who has been fired upon will:

1. remain on the scene until released by those Department members conducting the investigation.
2. provide those Department members conducting the investigation with required information, assistance, and when requested, oral and written statements.
3. report to the watch commander in the district of occurrence.

E. Member's Statements and Interviews.

1. A member who is involved in a firearm discharge incident will provide an oral report to the person responsible for conducting the investigation without delay and outside the presence of any other individuals.
2. When a member who has discharged a firearm is notified that he or she must give a written statement or an oral statement in the presence of an observer, the interview may be postponed by the officer for a period of time not to exceed two hours.

IV. OFFICE OF EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AND COMMUNICATIONS (OEMC) RESPONSIBILITIES

In all cases in which a member has discharged a firearm or has had gunfire directed at his or her person, the OEMC will:

A. dispatch sufficient patrol units to the scene.
B. determine if a medical emergency exists and if appropriate:
   1. notify the Chicago Fire Department to dispatch emergency medical service units to the scene.
   2. inform the emergency room of the receiving hospital.
C. assign a sergeant and a field lieutenant from the district of occurrence to the scene. In the event that a member has been injured, OEMC will assign a supervisor to respond to the medical facility treating the injured member.
D. immediately notify the following in the listed order of priority:
   1. the watch commander in the district of occurrence;
   2. Operations Command;
   3. the appropriate area Detective Division Violent Crimes Unit;
   4. the Independent Police Review Authority (IPRA);
   5. the involved member's unit of assignment;
   6. any other units or agencies as they are requested.

E. not broadcast the name of a Department member who has been involved in a firearm discharge incident over the police radio.

V. ASSIGNED SERGEANT'S RESPONSIBILITIES

In all cases in which a member has discharged a firearm or has had gunfire directed at his or her person, the assigned sergeant will:

A. proceed immediately to the scene.
B. ensure that medical attention is provided and that adequate manpower and equipment are available.
C. establish an inner and outer perimeter at the scene of the incident.
   1. The inner perimeter(s) is the area or areas at the scene of the incident where physical evidence is likely to be recovered.
   2. The outer perimeter(s) is the area surrounding and encompassing the inner perimeter(s) where assigned personnel can be briefed and deployed.
D. ensure that:
   1. no sworn member of any rank handles, inspects, unloads, or otherwise tampers with the involved member's firearm prior to the arrival of Forensic Services Section personnel.
   2. unless the member was disarmed, the firearm remains holstered and secured pending the arrival Forensic Services Section personnel.
   3. in instances when the Department member was disarmed during the firearm discharge incident, the firearm is preserved as evidence and processed in compliance with the Department directive entitled "Crime Scene Protection and Processing;"
   4. all fired projectiles have been accounted for without contaminating or interfering with the collection and maintenance of evidence.
   5. witnesses and other persons (Department member or non-Department member) who may have relevant information are available for on scene interviews.
   6. an officer other than the involved member has been assigned to conduct the preliminary investigation, prepare the original case report, and relay additional information to investigating units.
E. confirm that the desk sergeant in the district of occurrence and the member's unit of assignment have been notified.
F. prepare an Officer's Battery Report (CPD-11.451), when necessary, in accordance with the Department directive entitled "Officer's Battery Reporting Procedures."
G. complete the supervisor's section of the Tactical Response Report.

NOTE: If the involved member is of the rank of sergeant or higher, the field lieutenant will complete the supervisor's section of the TRR. In the absence of a field lieutenant, the watch commander will complete this task.

H. remain on duty until dismissed by the watch commander.
VI. FIELD LIEUTENANT'S RESPONSIBILITIES

In all cases in which a member has discharged a firearm or has had gunfire directed at his or her person, the field lieutenant from the district of occurrence will:

A. proceed immediately to the location of the incident and assume command of the scene until the arrival of the watch commander.

B. ensure that:
   1. the tasks outlined in Items IV-B through IV-D have been or are being performed.
   2. a secondary notification regarding the incident is made to Operations Command.

C. confirm that the desk sergeant in the district of occurrence and the member's unit of assignment have been notified.

D. verify the submission of written reports from involved members in conformance with the provisions of this directive.

E. remain on duty until dismissed by the watch commander.

VII. WATCH COMMANDER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

In all cases in which a member has discharged a firearm or has had gunfire directed at his or her person, the watch commander in the district of occurrence will:

A. proceed to the location of the incident and assume command of the scene.

B. ensure that the tasks outlined in Items IV-B through IV-D have been or are being performed.

C. confirm that the following notifications have been made:
   2. the appropriate Area Detective Division Violent Crimes Unit.
   3. the Independent Police Review Authority (IPRA).
   4. the involved member's unit of assignment.
   5. any other notifications as appropriate.

D. inform the following persons when a Department member has been injured or killed by gunfire:
   1. the district commander of the district of occurrence;
   2. the area deputy chief.

E. inform the following persons when an individual has been injured or killed by a firearm discharged by a Department member:
   1. the district commander of the district of occurrence;
   2. the area deputy chief;
   3. the State's Attorney's Office, in accordance with the Department directive entitled "Felony Review by Cook County State's Attorney."

F. obtain a Universal (U) Number from the Independent Police Review Authority in all cases in which:
   1. a Department member has injured or killed a person by use of a firearm.
   2. a Department member has suffered a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

G. contact the On-Call Incident Commander, for authorization if circumstances necessitate the relocation of the investigation from the site of the occurrence.

H. ensure that Forensic Services Section personnel conduct the firearm inspection on-scene in his or her presence. If the watch commander determines that safety concerns or weather conditions preclude the on-scene inspection, the involved member will remain in the continual presence of a higher-ranking Department member until the inspection is conducted by Forensic Services Section personnel in the affected Area Detective Division.

I. notify the Professional Counseling Service via telephone, providing them with the name, star number, and unit of assignment of the involved member and the date the member was instructed to contact the Professional Counseling Service for a mandatory appointment.

J. assign transportation for the involved member.

K. verify the submission of written reports from involved members in conformance with the provisions of this directive.

L. review all written reports generated by Bureau of Patrol personnel submitted during the preliminary investigation.

M. prior to the end of his or her tour of duty, complete the review process for the submitted Tactical Response Reports by doing the following:

1. For accidental weapon discharge incidents, as defined in the Department directive entitled "Use of Force Guidelines," in which no person was killed or injured, the watch commander will:
   a. review all TRRs for legibility and completeness and complete the "Watch Commander/ADS Review" section of the TRR.
   b. obtain a CR number, ensure that CR initiation report is prepared, attach the original of the TRR(s) to the original CR initiation report and forward to IPRA.
   c. ensure that packets containing all related documents as indicated in the "Attachments" box of the TRR are distributed as listed in the "Distribution" box.

2. For all other weapon discharge incidents described in this addendum or when the involved member is the same rank or higher than the watch commander, the watch commander will:
   a. review all TRRs for legibility and completeness but will not complete the "Watch Commander/ADS Review" section of the TRR. All TRRs relating to the incident involving the weapon discharge, including any TRRs documenting a non-shooting member's use of lesser force options, will be submitted to the On-Call Incident Commander for his or her determination of conformity with Department directives.
   b. complete the shooting packet by compiling photocopies of all reports relevant to the incident. The Police Shooting Checklist will serve as a cover sheet for the photocopies and will be distributed as noted on the Checklist.
   c. receive the completed TRR(s) back from the On-Call Incident Commander and ensure that the TRR(s) are attached to the original of the case report documenting the firearm discharge and forwarded through normal channels to the Records Division.

VIII. ON-CALL INCIDENT COMMANDER RESPONSIBILITIES

In all cases in which a member has had gunfire directed at his or her person or has discharged a firearm, the on-duty the On-Call Incident Commander, will:

A. proceed to the scene, assume command of the scene, and ensure that a complete and thorough investigation is conducted of the incident.

B. ensure that all tasks delineated for lesser-ranking personnel have been or are being performed.

C. designate the watch commander responsible for directing the preliminary investigation whenever the incident has occurred in more than one district.
D. personally conduct an investigation into the circumstances surrounding the incident and make a preliminary determination as to whether the conduct of the member conformed to Department guidelines.

NOTE: The occurrence of less serious transgressions may be addressed by the procedures described in the Department directive entitled "Summary Punishment."

E. inform the involved member that he or she is required to:
   1. call the Professional Counseling Service within twenty-four hours of the incident.
   2. participate in the Traumatic Incident Stress Management Program.

F. prepare the "Watch Commander/ADS Review" section of the TRR as follows:
   1. For accidental weapon discharge incidents, as defined in the Department directive entitled "Use of Force Guidelines," in which no person was killed or injured, the On-Call Incident Commander will not be responsible for the completion of the "Watch Commander/ADS Review" section of the TRR but may advise the watch commander on the conduct of the investigation.
   2. For all other weapon discharge incidents described in this addendum or when the involved member is of the same rank or higher than the watch commander, the On-Call Incident Commander will review all TRR(s) for legibility and completeness and complete the "Watch Commander/ADS Review" section of the TRR. The On-Call Incident Commander will receive the original of the TRR(s) from the watch commander conducting the preliminary investigation.

G. return the completed TRR(s) to the watch commander conducting the preliminary investigation.

H. prior to the termination of the tour of duty, submit a report to the Assistant Superintendent, Operations outlining the pertinent facts of the investigation and forward a copy of that report to the Independent Police Review Authority.

IX. DETECTIVE DIVISION COMMAND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. In all cases in which a member has been injured or killed by gunfire or has injured or killed a person by use of a firearm, the Detective Division area commander will designate a Detective Division supervisor to serve as the police shooting coordinator for that incident.

B. The police shooting coordinator will:
   1. personally respond to the scene of the investigation.
   2. ensure the preservation of evidence and identification of witnesses.
   3. assume responsibility for the follow-up investigation under the direction of the Detective Division area commander.

X. INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY RESPONSIBILITIES

A. In all cases where a Department member has injured or killed a person by use of a firearm, IPRA will conduct a fair and impartial investigation into the circumstances surrounding the incident and make a determination as to whether the conduct of the member conformed to Department guidelines.

B. IPRA will investigate instances in which a Department member has been involved in a firearm discharge incident outside the Chicago Police Department's jurisdiction and the incident involves allegations of misconduct against the member.

C. In conducting these investigations, IPRA personnel will follow the procedures outlined in this directive.
XI. POST-FIREARM DISCHARGE PROCEDURES

A. Firearm Processing

1. No member of any rank will handle, inspect, unload, or otherwise tamper with the involved member’s firearm prior to the arrival of Forensic Services Section personnel. Unless the member was disarmed, the firearm will remain holstered and secured pending the arrival of the watch commander and Forensic Services Section personnel.

2. Forensic Services Section personnel will:
   a. conduct the firearm inspection on scene in the presence of the watch commander.
   b. identify the firearm discharged by the Department member by its make, model, serial number, and other identifiers.
   c. examine the firearm discharged by the Department member to determine the type of cartridges used.
   d. examine the surrounding area to identify the number and location of cartridge casings.
   e. inventory all firearms discharged by the Department member in accordance with established inventory procedures in cases in which:
      (1) an individual has been injured or killed.
      (2) identifiable property damage occurs.
      (3) potential property damage may have occurred. In potential property damage cases, the On-Call Incident Commander, or the Assistant Superintendent, Operations may authorize the responsible member to retain his or her firearm for subsequent personal transport to the Forensic Services Section within ninety-six hours of the incident. The authorization will be noted in the "Comments" field of the eTrack inventory application or in the "Description of Property" section of the Property Inventory formset, as appropriate.

3. If the Department member was disarmed during the firearm discharge incident, the firearm will be preserved as evidence and processed in compliance with the Department directive entitled "Crime Scene Protection and Processing."

B. Firearms Training Overview

1. All Department members who have discharged a firearm as described in this addendum will attend a firearms training overview scheduled by the Education and Training Division. Held monthly, the eight-hour training overview will be tailored to the situation and may include, but is not limited to, the topics of the use of deadly force, alternative force response options, tactics for aggressive patrol, and ethics.

2. Attendance at this training overview is mandatory and is not dependent upon the determination by any investigative body responsible for a review of the firearm discharge incident. No connotation as to the appropriateness of the member’s actions will attach to a member attending the training overview.

3. The training overview will be considered a tour of duty. Participants will wear the field uniform of the day.

4. Notification Procedure
   a. The Assistant Deputy Superintendent, Education and Training Division will notify command staff members of the existence of members under their commands who are required to attend a scheduled firearms training overview.
   b. Upon receipt of the list of members who are required to attend a scheduled firearms training overview, unit commanders will determine which of the listed members are scheduled for a regular work day on the designated training date. Members will attend the training overview only when it is on their regularly-scheduled work day.

(1) Unit commanders will supply these members with the name and telephone number of the contact person at the Education and Training Division.

(2) Unit commanders will inform these members that they are required to attend the scheduled training.

(3) Members who have been scheduled to attend a firearms training overview but are unable to due to unknown circumstances at the time of the scheduling (i.e., medical roll, court date) will notify their unit commanders and the designated contact person at the Education and Training Division as soon as these circumstances are known.

(4) Unit commanders will inform the Education and Training Division of members who are on the medical roll or scheduled for a regular day off on the date of the training. Those members will be rescheduled for the next session of the training overview.

I. PURPOSE

This directive identifies incidents which will require the completion of a Tactical Response Report (CPD-11.377). Department members will refer to the Special Order titled "Incidents Requiring the Completion of a Tactical Response Report" for reporting and reviewing responsibilities.

II. POLICY

A. The Tactical Response Report will be used to document the following incidents:

1. all incidents which involve a subject fitting the definition of an assailant whose actions are directed against a Department member or directed against another person and the member intervenes.

2. all incidents which involve a subject fitting the definition of an active resister except for incidents in which:
   a. the subject's only action of resisting is fleeing; and
   b. the member's actions did not extend beyond verbal commands and/or control holds utilized in conjunction with handcuffing and searching techniques which do not result in injury or allegation of injury.

3. incidents involving a subject fitting the definition of a passive resister or a cooperative subject when the subject is injured or alleges injury resulting from the member's use of a force option.

4. all incidents involving the discharge of OC spray or other chemical weapon, a Taser, impact munitions, or a firearm.

5. all incidents where a subject obstructs a police officer when the obstructing is a physical act between the subject and the officer.

B. Incidents which do not require documentation on a TRR include:

1. the use of a firm grip hold which does not result in an injury or allegation of injury;

2. that force necessary to overcome passive resistance due to physical disability or intoxication which does not result in injury or allegation of injury;

3. control holds utilized in conjunction with handcuffing and searching techniques which do not result in injury or allegation of injury and which by themselves are not described in Item II-A of this directive;

4. the use of force in an approved training exercise.

C. If the most serious use of force requires an investigation by an On-Call Incident Commander (OCIC), then the findings of all Tactical Response Reports resulting from the use of force by any member in that instance will be the responsibility of that OCIC.
III. PROCEDURES FOR USE OF THE TACTICAL RESPONSE REPORT

A. Each sworn member or detention aide in the performance of his or her duties who is involved in a reportable use of force incident, as described in Item I-A of this directive, will:

1. immediately notify the member's or detention aide's immediate supervisor that he or she has been involved in a use of force incident.
2. complete a Tactical Response Report, detailing information as requested on the report. Specific instructions for the completion of the form can be found in the Tactical Response Report Form Preparation Instructions.

NOTE: In reportable use of force incidents, each sworn member or detention aide who uses force will complete a TRR; therefore, there may be several such reports completed for a single arrest.

3. make notifications to the Office of Emergency Management and Communications and the desk sergeant in the district of occurrence and record the name of the person receiving the notification in the appropriate case report for all incidents involving the discharge of OC spray, a Taser, impact munitions, or a firearm.
4. ensure that his or her completed TRR is submitted, along with other required reports as indicated in the Department directive entitled "Processing Persons Under Department Control," to the watch commander in the district of occurrence.

B. A supervisor who has been notified of an incident as described in Item II-A of this directive will:

1. respond to the scene when the injury to a subject or member is of the severity to require immediate medical attention.
2. ensure that all witnesses are identified, interviewed, and that information is recorded in the appropriate report.
3. request the assignment of an evidence technician to take photographs of subjects who have been involved in a use of force incident and are injured, allege injury, or when otherwise deemed appropriate by the supervisor.
4. ensure that other evidence is handled and processed according to existing Department procedures.
5. review the member's TRR for legibility and completeness and indicate approval of such by signing the appropriate box.
6. complete the TRR for a member who cannot complete the report due to injury.

NOTE: The TRR will not substitute for an Officer's Battery Report. Whenever a member is the victim of a murder or any type of a battery or an assault, whether such charges are placed against an offender or not, the supervisor will complete an Officer's Battery Report.
7. Ensure that a report is completed for the incident, consistent with the guidelines established in the Incident Reporting Guide (IRG) (CPD-63.451).

NOTE: Tactical Response Reports resulting from incidents which would not normally require case reports (e.g., warrant arrests) will require the completion of a case report. Members will refer to the IRG section entitled "Special Case Reporting Index for Use of Force Incidents" for specific reporting instructions.

I. PURPOSE
This directive outlines Department investigative and reporting procedures in weapon discharge incidents.

II. SCOPE
Under normal circumstances, the provisions of this directive will not apply to:
A. the discharge of a firearm during:
   1. Department-sponsored firearms training or practice;
   2. firearms practice at a recognized range facility.
   3. Department authorized ballistic examination or testing.
   4. a licensed hunting activity.
B. the discharge of a Taser in a Department authorized training program.
C. chemical agent use in a Department authorized training program.

III. FIREARMS DISCHARGE INCIDENT NOTIFICATIONS
In addition to other notifications outlined in this directive, for ANY firearms discharge incidents, including unintentional discharges and those involving the destruction of an animal:
A. the watch commander in the district of occurrence will ensure Operations Command is notified.
B. Operations Command will notify the Internal Affairs Division (IAD) call-out supervisor of any firearms discharge incident notification.

IV. MANDATORY ALCOHOL AND DRUG TESTING
A. Any sworn Department member, involved in a firearms discharge incident, whether on or off duty, is required to submit to the mandatory alcohol and drug testing, in compliance with this directive and any applicable collective bargaining agreement.

   NOTE: This requirement does not apply to the circumstances delineated in Item II-A of this directive.

B. The IAD call-out supervisor will:
   1. contact the On-Call Incident Commander (OCIC) or watch commander, as appropriate, and respond to the designated location to conduct the alcohol and drug testing.
   2. complete and submit a "Notice of Alcohol and Drug Testing Following a Firearms Discharge Incident" (CPD-44.252).

C. The IAD call-out supervisor will ensure:
   1. the involved member submits to the alcohol breath test and will conduct the test according to Department policy.
2. the alcohol breath test result is provided to the OCIC or watch commander, as appropriate.

3. the involved member submits to the drug test and ensure the urine specimen is:
   a. collected in a manner that will preserve the dignity of the involved member and ensure the integrity of the sample.
   b. collected in the presence of a supervisor of the same sex as the involved member.
   c. retained by the IAD call-out supervisor who will assume the responsibility for ensuring that the urine specimen is properly secured in accordance with established division­ level standard operation procedures, pending processing by a medical laboratory.

4. the alcohol and drug testing occurs as soon as practicable after the firearms discharge incident given the overall demands of the investigation.

   NOTE: The member with overall command responsibility, (e.g., OCIC or watch commander), will ensure testing is initiated no later than six hours following the firearms discharge incident.

5. that copies of any associated reports, including the testing and results documentation, are forwarded to the Chief Administrator, Independent Police Review Authority (IPRA) once the testing is completed.

D. If the involved member refuses to provide a breath test or urine specimen pursuant to this process, it is a violation of the Department Rules and Regulations, (e.g., disobedience of an order or directive whether written or oral), and will result in administrative charges against the member, which may include discipline up to and including separation.

E. No discipline shall occur based solely on the results of the alcohol test when the member's actions are consistent with the Department's Use of Force guidelines and the member discharged their weapon off-duty.

Superintendent of Police
I. PURPOSE

The following addenda describe procedures to be followed for all incidents involving the discharge of OC spray or other chemical weapon, a Taser, impact munitions, or a firearm. Department members will refer to the General Order titled "Use of Force Guidelines" for the policy and guidelines governing Use of Force incidents.

ADDENDA:

1. S03-02-01 - Firearm Discharge in Incidents other than the Destruction of Animals
2. S03-02-02 - Other Weapon Discharge Incidents
3. S03-02-03 - Incidents Requiring the Completion of a Tactical Response Report
4. S03-02-04 - CLEAR Automated Tactical Response Report
I. PURPOSE

This directive:

A. outlines Department investigative and reporting procedures in firearm discharge incidents other than incidents involving the destruction of an animal.

B. introduces the concept of the Round Table Panel Session.

II. ROUND TABLE PANEL SESSION

A. The Round Table Panel Session is a preliminary fact-finding session used to provide a forum for the interview of witnesses and review of available facts relevant to a police-related firearm discharge incident.

B. The Round Table Panel Session will include the following personnel:

1. the On-Call Incident Commander;
2. the area commander of the affected Detective Division area;
3. the watch commander of the district of occurrence;
4. the Detective Division police shooting coordinator for the affected area;
5. other assigned Detective Division personnel;
6. an Assistant State's Attorney;
7. Independent Police Review Authority, and;
8. law enforcement representatives as deemed necessary by the On-Call Incident Commander for the completion of the investigation.

C. The Round Table Panel Session will convene in instances in which:

1. a Department member has discharged his or her firearm and an individual has been killed or injured or:
2. the On-Call Incident Commander deems that a Round Table Panel Session will aid and facilitate an investigation.

D. Conduct of the Round Table Panel Session

1. The area commander of the affected Detective Division area will be the member responsible for convening the Round Table Panel Session with the approval of the On-Call Incident Commander.

2. The Round Table Panel Session will be convened only after the assigned Detective Division personnel have established factual outlines of events in order to present available evidence and testimony in an understandable sequence.

3. The commander of the affected Detective Division area will designate one individual as interviewer. All questions directed to individuals appearing before the Round Table Panel Session will be asked by and through this designated individual.
E. Member's Right to Counsel and Representation.

1. Union members have the right to be represented by counsel or a representative of their union as authorized by their collective bargaining agreement.
2. Non-union members have the right to be represented by counsel or a person of their choosing who is not an on-duty member.
3. The counselor/representative may advise the member but may not interfere with the interview.

F. Allegations of Misconduct Against a Member

In any instance in which an allegation of misconduct has been made against a member or when an allegation has been made in which criminal prosecution is probable, the member will be:

1. informed in writing of the nature of the allegations before any interview begins.
2. given statutory administrative proceeding rights or, if the allegation indicates that criminal prosecution is probable against the member, constitutional rights concerning self-incrimination prior to the commencement of the interview.
3. interviewed in a manner following the "Conduct of Investigation" procedures outlined in the Department directive entitled "Complaint and Disciplinary Procedures."
4. provided with a copy of any written statement made by the member without any unnecessary delay.
5. allowed reasonable periods of time for personal necessities, meals, telephone calls, and rest.

III. MEMBER'S RESPONSIBILITIES IN FIREARM DISCHARGE INCIDENTS

A. Members who discharge a firearm in the destruction of an animal will follow the procedures described in the Department directive entitled "Other Weapon Discharge Incidents."

B. In any other instance where a member has discharged a firearm or has had gunfire directed at his or her person, the member, if physically capable, will:

1. notify the Office of Emergency Management and Communications (OEMC) immediately and provide all relevant information.
2. attend to all required emergency and security duties arising from the incident.
3. provide Department members conducting the investigation with information required to effect arrests and fulfill immediate law enforcement necessities.
4. inform the desk sergeant of the district of occurrence.
5. remain on the scene, if not injured, and report to the watch commander from the district of occurrence upon his or her arrival.
6. ensure that his or her firearm remains holstered and secured until it is submitted to Forensic Services Section personnel.

NOTE: If the involved member is injured and needs to be relieved of his or her firearm prior to receiving medical treatment, the securing member will take possession of the firearm and duty belt and will ensure that the firearm remains holstered and secured.

7. if disarmed during the firearm discharge incident, preserve the firearm as evidence, as it will be processed in compliance with the Department directive entitled "Crime Scene Processing."
8. complete a Tactical Response Report (TRR) (CPD-11.377) and other reports at the location designated by the district watch commander responsible for the investigation.

NOTE: When a member who has discharged a firearm is unable to complete the TRR for any reason, it will become the responsibility of a supervisor designated by the watch commander to prepare this report.

9. attend the Round Table Panel Session as directed by supervisory personnel.

10. contact the Professional Counseling Service via telephone within twenty-four hours of the incident to schedule a mandatory debriefing.

NOTE: Members who are hospitalized as a result of their involvement in a firearm discharge incident will be contacted by a counselor from the Traumatic Incident Stress Management Program.

C. In any instance where a member has discharged a firearm outside the City of Chicago, the member will:

1. notify the local police agency and this Department's Operations Command.

2. ensure the submission of all reports connected with the incident, including a TRR and a To-From-Subject report, without unnecessary delay.

D. Any member, whether on or off duty, having knowledge of circumstances surrounding a firearm discharge incident or who has been fired upon will:

1. remain on the scene until released by those Department members conducting the investigation.

2. provide those Department members conducting the investigation with required information, assistance, and when requested, oral and written statements.

3. report to the watch commander in the district of occurrence.

E. Member's Statements and Interviews.

1. A member who is involved in a firearm discharge incident will provide an oral report to the person responsible for conducting the investigation without delay and outside the presence of any other individuals.

2. When a member who has discharged a firearm is notified that he or she must give a written statement or an oral statement in the presence of an observer, the interview may be postponed by the officer for a period of time not to exceed two hours.

IV. OFFICE OF EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AND COMMUNICATIONS (OEMC) RESPONSIBILITIES

In all cases in which a member has discharged a firearm or has had gunfire directed at his or her person, the OEMC will:

A. dispatch sufficient patrol units to the scene.

B. determine if a medical emergency exists and if appropriate:

1. notify the Chicago Fire Department to dispatch emergency medical service units to the scene.

2. inform the emergency room of the receiving hospital.

C. assign a sergeant and a field lieutenant from the district of occurrence to the scene. In the event that a member has been injured, OEMC will assign a supervisor to respond to the medical facility treating the injured member.
D. immediately notify the following in the listed order of priority:

1. the watch commander in the district of occurrence;
2. Operations Command;
3. the appropriate area Detective Division Violent Crimes Unit;
4. the Independent Police Review Authority (IPRA);
5. the involved member's unit of assignment;
6. any other units or agencies as they are requested.

E. not broadcast the name of a Department member who has been involved in a firearm discharge incident over the police radio.

V. ASSIGNED SERGEANT'S RESPONSIBILITIES

In all cases in which a member has discharged a firearm or has had gunfire directed at his or her person, the assigned sergeant will:

A. proceed immediately to the scene.
B. ensure that medical attention is provided and that adequate manpower and equipment are available.
C. establish an inner and outer perimeter at the scene of the incident.

1. The inner perimeter(s) is the area or areas at the scene of the incident where physical evidence is likely to be recovered.
2. The outer perimeter(s) is the area surrounding and encompassing the inner perimeter(s) where assigned personnel can be briefed and deployed.

D. ensure that:

1. no sworn member of any rank handles, inspects, unloads, or otherwise tampers with the involved member's firearm prior to the arrival of Forensic Services Section personnel.
2. unless the member was disarmed, the firearm remains holstered and secured pending the arrival Forensic Services Section personnel.
3. in instances when the Department member was disarmed during the firearm discharge incident, the firearm is preserved as evidence and processed in compliance with the Department directive entitled "Crime Scene Protection and Processing."
4. all fired projectiles have been accounted for without contaminating or interfering with the collection and maintenance of evidence.
5. witnesses and other persons (Department member or non-Department member) who may have relevant information are available for on scene interviews.
6. an officer other than the involved member has been assigned to conduct the preliminary investigation, prepare the original case report, and relay additional information to investigating units.

E. confirm that the desk sergeant in the district of occurrence and the member's unit of assignment have been notified.

F. prepare an Officer's Battery Report (CPD-11.451), when necessary, in accordance with the Department directive entitled "Officer's Battery Reporting Procedures."

G. complete the supervisor's section of the Tactical Response Report.

NOTE: If the involved member is of the rank of sergeant or higher, the field lieutenant will complete the supervisor's section of the TRR. In the absence of a field lieutenant, the watch commander will complete this task.

H. remain on duty until dismissed by the watch commander.
VI. FIELD LIEUTENANT'S RESPONSIBILITIES

In all cases in which a member has discharged a firearm or has had gunfire directed at his or her person, the field lieutenant from the district of occurrence will:

A. proceed immediately to the location of the incident and assume command of the scene until the arrival of the watch commander.

B. ensure that:
   1. the tasks outlined in Items IV-B through IV-D have been or are being performed.
   2. a secondary notification regarding the incident is made to Operations Command.

C. confirm that the desk sergeant in the district of occurrence and the member's unit of assignment have been notified.

D. verify the submission of written reports from involved members in conformance with the provisions of this directive.

E. remain on duty until dismissed by the watch commander.

VII. WATCH COMMANDER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

In all cases in which a member has discharged a firearm or has had gunfire directed at his or her person, the watch commander in the district of occurrence will:

A. proceed to the location of the incident and assume command of the scene.

B. ensure that the tasks outlined in Items IV-B through IV-D have been or are being performed.

C. confirm that the following notifications have been made:
   2. the appropriate Area Detective Division Violent Crimes Unit.
   3. the Independent Police Review Authority (IPRA).
   4. the involved member's unit of assignment.
   5. any other notifications as appropriate.

D. inform the following persons when a Department member has been injured or killed by gunfire:
   1. the district commander of the district of occurrence;
   2. the area deputy chief.

E. inform the following persons when an individual has been injured or killed by a firearm discharged by a Department member:
   1. the district commander of the district of occurrence;
   2. the area deputy chief;
   3. the State's Attorney's Office, in accordance with the Department directive entitled "Felony Review by Cook County State's Attorney."

F. obtain a Universal (U) Number from the Independent Police Review Authority in all cases in which:
   1. a Department member has injured or killed a person by use of a firearm.
   2. a Department member has suffered a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

G. contact the On-Call Incident Commander, for authorization if circumstances necessitate the relocation of the investigation from the site of the occurrence.

H. ensure that Forensic Services Section personnel conduct the firearm inspection on-scene in his or her presence. If the watch commander determines that safety concerns or weather conditions preclude the on-scene inspection, the involved member will remain in the continual presence of a higher-ranking Department member until the inspection is conducted by Forensic Services Section personnel in the affected Area Detective Division.

I. notify the Professional Counseling Service via telephone, providing them with the name, star number, and unit of assignment of the involved member and the date the member was instructed to contact the Professional Counseling Service for a mandatory appointment.

J. assign transportation for the involved member.

K. verify the submission of written reports from involved members in conformance with the provisions of this directive.

L. review all written reports generated by Bureau of Patrol personnel submitted during the preliminary investigation.

M. prior to the end of his or her tour of duty, complete the review process for the submitted Tactical Response Reports by doing the following:

1. For accidental weapon discharge incidents, as defined in the Department directive entitled "Use of Force Guidelines," in which no person was killed or injured, the watch commander will:
   a. review all TRRs for legibility and completeness and complete the "Watch Commander/ADS Review" section of the TRR.
   b. obtain a CR number, ensure that CR initiation report is prepared, attach the original of the TRR(s) to the original CR initiation report and forward to IPRA.
   c. ensure that packets containing all related documents as indicated in the "Attachments" box of the TRR are distributed as listed in the "Distribution" box.

2. For all other weapon discharge incidents described in this addendum or when the involved member is the same rank or higher than the watch commander, the watch commander will:
   a. review all TRRs for legibility and completeness but will not complete the "Watch Commander/ADS Review" section of the TRR. All TRRs relating to the incident involving the weapon discharge, including any TRRs documenting a non-shooting member's use of lesser force options, will be submitted to the On-Call Incident Commander for his or her determination of conformity with Department directives.
   b. complete the shooting packet by compiling photocopies of all reports relevant to the incident. The Police Shooting Checklist will serve as a cover sheet for the photocopies and will be distributed as noted on the Checklist.
   c. receive the completed TRR(s) back from the On-Call Incident Commander and ensure that the TRR(s) are attached to the original of the case report documenting the firearm discharge and forwarded through normal channels to the Records Division.

VIII. ON-CALL INCIDENT COMMANDER RESPONSIBILITIES

In all cases in which a member has had gunfire directed at his or her person or has discharged a firearm, the on-duty the On-Call Incident Commander, will:

A. proceed to the scene, assume command of the scene, and ensure that a complete and thorough investigation is conducted of the incident.

B. ensure that all tasks delineated for lesser-ranking personnel have been or are being performed.

C. designate the watch commander responsible for directing the preliminary investigation whenever the incident has occurred in more than one district.
D. personally conduct an investigation into the circumstances surrounding the incident and make a preliminary determination as to whether the conduct of the member conformed to Department guidelines.

NOTE: The occurrence of less serious transgressions may be addressed by the procedures described in the Department directive entitled "Summary Punishment."

E. inform the involved member that he or she is required to:

1. call the Professional Counseling Service within twenty-four hours of the incident.
2. participate in the Traumatic Incident Stress Management Program.

F. prepare the "Watch Commander/ADS Review" section of the TRR as follows:

1. For accidental weapon discharge incidents, as defined in the Department directive entitled "Use of Force Guidelines," in which no person was killed or injured, the On-Call Incident Commander will not be responsible for the completion of the "Watch Commander/ADS Review" section of the TRR but may advise the watch commander on the conduct of the investigation.
2. For all other weapon discharge incidents described in this addendum or when the involved member is the same rank or higher than the watch commander, the On-Call Incident Commander will review all TRR(s) for legibility and completeness and complete the "Watch Commander/ADS Review" section of the TRR. The On-Call Incident Commander will receive the original of the TRR(s) from the watch commander conducting the preliminary investigation.

G. return the completed TRR(s) to the watch commander conducting the preliminary investigation.

H. prior to the termination of the tour of duty, submit a report to the Assistant Superintendent, Operations outlining the pertinent facts of the investigation and forward a copy of that report to the Independent Police review Authority.

IX. DETECTIVE DIVISION COMMAND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. In all cases in which a member has been injured or killed by gunfire or has injured or killed a person by use of a firearm, the Detective Division area commander will designate a Detective Division supervisor to serve as the police shooting coordinator for that incident.

B. The police shooting coordinator will:

1. personally respond to the scene of the investigation.
2. ensure the preservation of evidence and identification of witnesses.
3. assume responsibility for the follow-up investigation under the direction of the Detective Division area commander.

X. INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY RESPONSIBILITIES

A. In all cases where a Department member has injured or killed a person by use of a firearm, IPRA will conduct a fair and impartial investigation into the circumstances surrounding the incident and make a determination as to whether the conduct of the member conformed to Department guidelines.

B. IPRA will investigate instances in which a Department member has been involved in a firearm discharge incident outside the Chicago Police Department's jurisdiction and the incident involves allegations of misconduct against the member.

C. In conducting these investigations, IPRA personnel will follow the procedures outlined in this directive.
XI. POST-FIREARM DISCHARGE PROCEDURES

A. Firearm Processing

1. No member of any rank will handle, inspect, unload, or otherwise tamper with the involved member’s firearm prior to the arrival of Forensic Services Section personnel. Unless the member was disarmed, the firearm will remain holstered and secured pending the arrival of the watch commander and Forensic Services Section personnel.

2. Forensic Services Section personnel will:
   a. conduct the firearm inspection on scene in the presence of the watch commander.
   b. identify the firearm discharged by the Department member by its make, model, serial number, and other identifiers.
   c. examine the firearm discharged by the Department member to determine the type of cartridges used.
   d. examine the surrounding area to identify the number and location of cartridge casings.
   e. inventory all firearms discharged by the Department member in accordance with established inventory procedures in cases in which:
      (1) an individual has been injured or killed.
      (2) identifiable property damage occurs.
      (3) potential property damage may have occurred. In potential property damage cases, the On-Call Incident Commander, or the Assistant Superintendent, Operations may authorize the responsible member to retain his or her firearm for subsequent personal transport to the Forensic Services Section within ninety-six hours of the incident. The authorization will be noted in the "Comments" field of the eTrack inventory application or in the "Description of Property" section of the Property Inventory formset, as appropriate.

3. If the Department member was disarmed during the firearm discharge incident, the firearm will be preserved as evidence and processed in compliance with the Department directive entitled "Crime Scene Protection and Processing."

B. Firearms Training Overview

1. All Department members who have discharged a firearm as described in this addendum will attend a firearms training overview scheduled by the Education and Training Division. Held monthly, the eight-hour training overview will be tailored to the situation and may include, but is not limited to, the topics of the use of deadly force, alternative force response options, tactics for aggressive patrol, and ethics.

2. Attendance at this training overview is mandatory and is not dependent upon the determination by any investigative body responsible for a review of the firearm discharge incident. No connotation as to the appropriateness of the member’s actions will attach to a member attending the training overview.

3. The training overview will be considered a tour of duty. Participants will wear the field uniform of the day.

4. Notification Procedure
   a. The Assistant Deputy Superintendent, Education and Training Division will notify command staff members of the existence of members under their commands who are required to attend a scheduled firearms training overview.
   b. Upon receipt of the list of members who are required to attend a scheduled firearms training overview, unit commanders will determine which of the listed members are scheduled for a regular work day on the designated training date. Members will attend the training overview only when it is on their regularly-scheduled work day.

1. Unit commanders will supply these members with the name and telephone number of the contact person at the Education and Training Division.

2. Unit commanders will inform these members that they are required to attend the scheduled training.

3. Members who have been scheduled to attend a firearms training overview but are unable to due to unknown circumstances at the time of the scheduling (i.e., medical roll, court date) will notify their unit commanders and the designated contact person at the Education and Training Division as soon as these circumstances are known.

4. Unit commanders will inform the Education and Training Division of members who are on the medical roll or scheduled for a regular day off on the date of the training. Those members will be rescheduled for the next session of the training overview.

I. PURPOSE

This directive:

A. implements the use of Department in-car video systems.
B. establishes the policies and procedures for the use, maintenance, and repair of in-car video systems.
C. establishes the roles and responsibilities of Department members affected by the introduction of in-car video systems for the video and audio recording of incidents.
D. establishes the requirements for viewing, retaining, and duplicating digitally recorded incidents.
E. continues the use of the Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request (CPD-65.224).
F. identifies the Records Division as the Department repository and viewing location of digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems.

II. POLICY

The Department is committed to protecting the safety and welfare of its members and the public. The in-car video systems can provide members with an invaluable instrument to enhance criminal prosecution by providing powerful evidence of criminal activity, limit civil liabilities, and objectively document officer conduct during individual interactions. Members assigned to a vehicle equipped with an in-car video system will use it pursuant to this directive.

III. GENERAL INFORMATION

A. There is no expectation of privacy for Department members related to incidents recorded by in-car video systems. Supervisors, members of Bureau of Internal Affairs, and the Independent Police Review Authority (IPRA) investigators may request to review the digitally recorded data from a vehicle equipped with an in-car video system. Any digitally recorded data created by the in-car video system may be used without a Department member’s permission for any official Departmental purpose.

B. The in-car video system will automatically engage audio and video recording when the vehicle’s emergency-roof lights are activated. However, Department members may manually activate the in-car video system without the activation of the emergency equipment. At the conclusion of the incident, Department members must manually disengage all recording processes, regardless of what method activated the in-car video system.

C. The Records Division will be the custodians of the digitally recorded data and will be responsible for the retention, duplication, and viewing of the in-car video systems. The Director, Records Division, will establish retention, viewing, and duplication procedures that provide for inventory control, the security of the digitally recorded data, and authorized duplications.

D. All digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems will be retained by the Records Division for a minimum of 90 days. Digitally recorded data that is marked and held as having evidentiary or training value will be retained as prescribed by law and established Department policy.

E. In general, minor infractions and minor deviations from Department policy observed through the review of digitally recorded data will not be subject to the disciplinary process and will be treated as a training opportunity.
IV. RECORDING GUIDELINES

A. Department members will use only Department-issued video and audio recording equipment.

B. Department members will conform to all laws and Department policies concerning the use of the in-car video system for the video and audio recording of incidents.

1. Department members are lawfully permitted to video record individuals without their consent if they are on the public way or in public view.

2. Department members who are in uniform and have identified their office are lawfully permitted to simultaneously audibly and visually record individuals without their consent whenever:
   a. the member is conducting an enforcement stop, or
   b. the patrol vehicle emergency lights are activated or would otherwise be activated if not for the need to conceal the presence of law enforcement.

NOTE: Any reports completed for an audibly recorded incident, including Traffic Stop Statistical Study - Driver Information Cards (CPD-21.103), Traffic Stop Statistical Study Stickers (CPD-15.516), and Personal Service Citations, must include the initial violation or investigatory need that led to the stop.

NOTE: Department members may audibly record an enforcement stop regardless of the subsequent enforcement action taken.

3. Department members may audibly and visually record an individual with the consent of the individual.

C. Uniformed Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will activate the system to simultaneously audibly and visually record the entire incident for all enforcement stops.

D. Uniformed Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will activate the system to visually record the entire incident for all:

1. arrests and transports.
2. nonpursuit emergency vehicle operations.
3. any situation that the member, through training and experience, believes to serve a proper police purpose.

E. During the recording of an incident, Department members will not disengage the in-car video system until the entire incident has been recorded.

NOTE: Department members will be required to justify any disengagement of the in-car video system prior to the entire incident being recorded.

F. If recorded, felony and misdemeanor arrests, motor vehicle pursuits, traffic crashes resulting in property damage, personal injury, or a fatality, DUI incidents, and failure to yield to an emergency vehicle will be automatically stored by the in-car video system indefinitely when the correct event is selected from the postevent pop-up menu. All other incidents will be automatically stored for ninety days.

G. If digitally recorded data will be needed in judicial proceedings beyond ninety days, members will place an extended hold on that digitally recorded data as described in Item VIII of this directive, including but not limited to the following circumstances:

1. Traffic stops other than DUI,
2. Enforcement stops,
3. Other traffic crash investigations, and
4. Stops for citizen assistance.

H. When a complaint against a Department member is received that involves a digitally recorded incident, the investigating member will request an extended hold on the data.

I. Assigned supervisors will request an extended hold on all digitally recorded motor vehicle pursuits and traffic crashes involving Department vehicles.

V. DEPLOYMENT OF THE IN-CAR VIDEO SYSTEMS
   A. Commanding officers of units with vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will:
      1. ensure that vehicles equipped with in-car video systems are evenly distributed for use by all watches.

         NOTE: Commanding officers will ensure the units assigned to traffic duties in district law enforcement use vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.

      2. whenever feasible, ensure vehicles equipped with the in-car video systems are deployed every tour of duty and service is requested for inoperable vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.

   B. The station supervisors will:
      1. deploy every vehicle equipped with a functional in-car video system during the tour of duty.
      2. ensure digitally recorded data is downloaded from the in-car video systems.
      3. whenever operationally feasible, review video of any arrest recorded by the in-car video system as part of the approval of probable cause.

VI. OPERATIONAL PROCEDURES
   A. Department members assigned to a Department vehicle equipped with an in-car video system will:
      1. at the beginning of a tour of duty:
         a. visually inspect the in-car video system equipment for damage.
         b. obtain the remote transmitter/audio recorder and ensure it is securely attached to the member's person.
         c. follow the start-up procedures for the in-car video system as trained and ensure the system is working properly.

         NOTE: Members will immediately notify a supervisor if, at any time, the in-car video system is inoperable, damaged, the equipped vehicle becomes inoperable, or the remote transmitter/audio recorder is missing.

      2. during the tour of duty:
         a. audibly and visually record events in accordance with this directive.
         b. annotate all reports, including Contact Information Cards (CPD-21.101), prepared for an event which has been recorded by listing "Video Recorded Incident" at the end of the narrative portion.
c. after an incident has been recorded, use the post-event pop-up menu to select the most serious recorded occurrence as the event type and enter other event information.

NOTE: If the member did not use the postevent pop-up menu to mark the incident as being held for evidence, the member will request an extended hold on digitally recorded data in accordance with Item VIII of this directive.

d. if the in-car video system indicates that the memory required to record incidents is becoming low or if the member observes that less than 30 minutes of recording time is available, download the digitally recorded data.

3. at the conclusion of a tour of duty:
   a. verify the in-car video system is working properly.
   b. initiate the downloading of the digitally recorded data.

   NOTE: Members will immediately notify a supervisor if unable to complete the downloading of digitally recorded data due to technical problems.

c. shut down the in-car video system and logoff the system.

d. return the remote transmitter/audio recorder to the designated area for charging.

B. The sergeant assigned to supervise Department members using Department vehicles equipped with an in-car video system will:
   1. monitor subordinates to ensure the in-car video system is used and that digitally recorded data is properly downloaded.
   2. ensure that the Help Desk is contacted and a ticket number is obtained whenever any member is unable to use the in-car video system or download digitally recorded data due to technical problems.
   3. initiate an investigation when notified of a missing or lost remote transmitter/audio recorder.
   4. document on the Supervisor’s Management Log (CPD-11.455):
      a. whether each vehicle has an in-car video system and if it is functioning.
      b. all responses related to malfunctions of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.
      c. digitally recorded data downloaded to land-based terminals, noting any units unable to complete the download and the Help Desk ticket number obtained.
      d. any request submitted for an extended hold of digitally recorded data.
      e. any instances of additional training, corrective measures, or disciplinary actions.
   5. document on the Traffic Pursuit Report (CPD-22.958) or traffic crash report that the incident has been digitally recorded.
   6. obtain a complaint register number and order an evidence technician to process the equipment if any damage or malfunction is suspected to have been caused by deliberate (tampering) means.

C. Station supervisors will:
   1. designate a sergeant responsible for monitoring the downloading of digitally recorded data for the watch.
2. record the total number of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems deployed during the watch and the total number of these vehicles that do not have a functioning in-car video system, if any, on the Watch Incident Log (CPD-21.916).

3. ensure the status of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems is recorded on the Personal Equipment Log (CPD-21.919) by recording the word “VIDEO” in the “Camera/Tripod No.” column.

4. if an in-car video system malfunctions or the system or vehicle becomes inoperable during the tour, record the vehicle and beat numbers and the words “VIDEO DOWN” on the Watch Incident Log.

D. When digitally recorded data is determined to have evidentiary or training value, or a complaint against a Department member is received that involves a digitally recorded incident, the supervisor reviewing the recorded data will request an extended hold on the data.

VII. DOWNLOADING DIGITALLY RECORDED DATA FROM THE IN-CAR VIDEO SYSTEM

A. When downloading digitally recorded data from the mobile unit of an in-car video system to a land-based terminal, Department members will:
   1. download the data in accordance with the manufacturer’s guidelines and training.
   2. ensure the download of data was complete and return the vehicle back into service.

B. With the approval of the station supervisor in the district of occurrence, special requests for the immediate viewing of digitally recorded data from the Bureau of Detectives, Bureau of Internal Affairs, or IPRA will be processed for major incidents where an in-car camera system may be reasonably expected to have captured a component of the incident.
   1. Major incidents include, but are not limited to:
      a. police-involved shootings,
      b. serious injury or death to a Department member,
      c. serious injury or death to a member of the public.
   2. Special requests for viewing digitally recorded data will be made to the station supervisor in the district of occurrence, who will:
      a. evaluate the request;
      b. determine if the need for retrieval outweighs the operational impact of the vehicle being taken out of service; and
      c. notify Crime Prevention and Information Center (CPIC) of the decision.
   3. Special requests will be in the form of one of the following types:
      a. Special wireless upload, or
      b. Emergency on-site retrieval.

C. Special Wireless Uploads
   1. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will take the vehicle out of service and secure it at the unit of assignment or other appropriate location.
   2. The supervisor will:
      a. verify that the vehicle operator or partner is signed on to the in-car camera system;
      b. instruct the member to manually flag the entire tour of duty’s available video for upload;
c. instruct the member to initiate a manual upload of this video with the vehicle in range of the facility's wireless hotspot; and

NOTE: If video cannot be uploaded via wireless hotspot, a cradle upload will be used.

d. ensure that the vehicle remains out of service until the upload is complete.

3. Once complete, the station supervisor will allow personnel from the Bureau of Detectives, Bureau of Internal Affairs, or IPRA, as appropriate, to review the uploaded files.

NOTE: For officer-involved shootings when an On-Call Incident Commander (OCIC) will respond, an emergency on-site retrieval will be immediately requested through CPIC.

4. The station supervisor may identify an alternate vehicle for the member to use while the identified vehicle completes its video upload, as appropriate.

5. If an attempt to wirelessly upload is unsuccessful, members may contact the City of Chicago Help Desk at 4-DATA for assistance.

6. If a wireless upload fails, an emergency on-site retrieval will be conducted.

D. Emergency On-Site Retrieval

1. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will notify CPIC of an approved emergency on-site retrieval.

NOTE: An emergency on-site retrieval will only be conducted when an OCIC is responding or a wireless upload fails and contacting the City of Chicago Help Desk at 4-DATA has not resolved the problem.

2. CPIC will notify the Public Sector Information Technology (PSIT) Group personnel of a manual video retrieval from the "fail-safe" internal drive request.

3. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will take the identified vehicle out of service during the retrieval process.

4. If the identified vehicle is still in use when the designated supervisor arrives at the unit facility or other appropriate location, the supervisor will report to the vehicle and instruct any member logged onto the system to log off the system.

5. The vehicle will remain out of service until PSIT responds and conducts the video retrieval.

NOTE: On-site review of video will be limited to the series of events and time frame giving rise to the alleged incident.

E. Viewing and Obtaining Copies of In-Car Video Recordings

1. Once retrieval has been completed for the requested time frame, the video may be viewed by personnel from the requesting party at the location of retrieval.

2. Requests for copies of in-car video recordings will be made by completing the form entitled "Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request" (CPD-65.224) and forwarding it to the Records Division.

F. The Managing Deputy Director, PSIT, will:

1. establish procedures to ensure the security of the digitally recorded data from downloading to storage by the Records Division.
2. develop a system to monitor the memory capacity of the land-based terminals and provide for the security of the downloaded data.

G. If members are unable to download digitally recorded data from the mobile unit of the in-car video system to the land-based terminals due to system inoperability:

1. the station supervisor will notify the Help Desk and follow any further instructions given by the responding member of PSIT.
2. A designated member of PSIT will respond to the requesting unit and:
   a. ensure the security of the digitally recorded data.
   b. perform a manual download of the digitally recorded data.
   c. record the manual download on the Help Desk ticket.

VIII. REQUESTING A HOLD FOR DIGITALLY RECORDED DATA

A. Department members will place an extended hold on digitally recorded data they recorded using the postevent pop-up menu on the in-car video system.

B. Within the first 48 hours from downloading digitally recorded data from the vehicle, Department members who do not use the postevent pop-up menu and request an extended hold on digitally recorded data will request that a supervisor place the extended hold by using the land-based terminal at the district/unit station.

C. After the first 48 hours from downloading digitally recorded data from the vehicle, Department members who do not use the postevent pop-up menu and request an extended hold on digitally recorded data will:
   1. complete the Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form.
   2. indicate on the form the necessary actions by the Records Division.
   3. explain in the narrative portion of the form the reason for the request.
   4. submit the form to the station supervisor/designated unit supervisor for approval.
   5. submit the completed and approved form to the Records Division for processing and retention in accordance with existing records-retention requirements.

D. Department members who wish to remove an extended hold on digitally recorded data will follow the procedures outlined in Item VIII-C of this directive indicating the circumstances requiring the removal of the extended hold.

E. The Director, Records Division, will:
   1. develop a cataloging system for storage and retrieval of recordings and procedures for ensuring archives are maintained consistent with Department directives (including the Forms Retention Schedule), applicable state and federal laws, and compliance with all court orders.
   2. be responsible for retaining digitally recorded data for which an extended hold was requested as prescribed by law and established Department policy.

IX. VIEWING, RETAINING, AND DUPLICATING DIGITALLY RECORDED DATA

A. All digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems are the property of the Chicago Police Department. Dissemination of any digitally recorded data outside the Department is strictly prohibited without specific authorization by the Superintendent or an appointed designee.

1. Any non-Departmental requests for duplication of digitally recorded data must be approved by the Superintendent or an appointed designee.
2. All approved requests will be forwarded in an expeditious manner to the Director, Records Division, along with:
   a. a completed and approved Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form, and
   b. written instructions, including dissemination information, for compliance with the request.

B. Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems and their supervisors are encouraged to use the review/playback functions of the system for the purposes of:
   1. developing familiarity with the functions, capabilities, and limitations of the in-car video systems to create consistent recording techniques which capture relevant actions.
   2. searching for and identifying recorded events having evidentiary or training value.
   3. reviewing approach and officer safety issues.
   4. ensuring consistency with written reports.

C. Reviewing Digitally Recorded Data

Investigating members may view digitally recorded data in the performance of official police business. When it is necessary to view digitally recorded data stored by the Records Division, the following procedures will apply:

1. The requesting Department member will:
   a. prepare a Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form, including approval of the requestor's station supervisor/designated unit supervisor.
   b. schedule an appointment to view the recorded incident with a Records Division supervisor (or an appointed designee) to ensure the availability of a technician and playback equipment.
   c. present the properly completed and approved form to a Records Division supervisor at the scheduled time.

2. A Records Division supervisor will:
   a. process all approved recorded incident review requests.
   b. assign a technician to assist the requestor in viewing the recorded incident, as required.

D. Obtaining a Video Recording

1. A duplicate copy of selected information may be made to retain that information:
   a. when it is not required that the master video be retained for an indefinite period (e.g., investigation of a routine administrative incident when the punishment is of a summary or minor nature).
   b. when the requesting member determines that a duplicate video of a master video will be sufficient.

2. A duplicate video recording may be obtained by:
   a. completing a Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form and submitting the completed form to the station supervisor/designated unit supervisor for approval.
   b. notifying the Records Division that a duplicate video recording is required and submit the approved Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form to the Director, Records Division.
c. indicating to the Records Division which information from the digitally recorded data is to be included on the duplicate video recording.

3. When the duplicate video recording has served the purpose for which it was made, the requesting member will ensure that it is immediately returned to the Records Division.

NOTE: A member requesting a duplicate video recording will not make additional copies of it or permit unauthorized persons to duplicate or view it under any circumstances.

E. Special Situations

When the Records Division receives a request for an extended hold of digitally recorded data that indicates it pertains to:

1. a motor vehicle pursuit or traffic crash involving a Department vehicle, the Director, Records Division, will ensure a duplicate video is forwarded to the Traffic Review Board.

2. an incident having training value, the Director, Records Division, will ensure a duplicate video is forwarded to the Deputy Chief, Education and Training Division.

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——
related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with . He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of , her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as [redacted] stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additional, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

[Redacted] stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD “worked out his problems.” [Redacted] said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him “freak out.”

[Redacted] last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [Redacted] said they “buzzed” MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

[Redacted] had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD’s mother, [redacted].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, [redacted] of the 9-1-1 caller, [redacted] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [REDACTED], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [REDACTED] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [REDACTED] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [REDACTED] attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[REDACTED] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [REDACTED] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [REDACTED] with a knife, when [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[REDACTED] related the same facts as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [REDACTED], attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE’s use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department’s use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
The full format for this investigation is contained in the previous Progress - Scene Report.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

_It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch._

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P-----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife." MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet ------

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo ------

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia ------

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD’s knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Josep Walsh occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——-

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assaillant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission,  telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with . He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of , her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the, elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." said that MCDONALD attended school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother.

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, of the 9-1-1 caller, was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [REDACTED], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [REDACTED] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [REDACTED] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [REDACTED] attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[REDACTED] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [REDACTED] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [REDACTED] with a knife, when [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[REDACTED] related the same facts as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [REDACTED], attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

STATEMENT OF P.O. JOSEPH McELLETT

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0436 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY LOG #1072125 U#14-36

KILLEN: This is the, this is the audio recorded interview of Officer Joseph McElligott regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0436 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters. My name is Investigator Killen, that’s spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Uh also present in the room is uh FOP attorney Dan Herbert. Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And then FOP Representative Kato, uh Kriston Kato.

KATO: First name is Kriston, K R I S T O N. Last name K A T O. FOP Field Representative.

KILLEN: And Officer McElligott if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Joseph McElligott, J O S E P H, McElligott, M C E L L I G O T T.

KILLEN: Okay and what’s your star number?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 1 8 7 1 5. (noise)

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: [Redacted]

KILLEN: And your date of appointment with the Department?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 27 August ’01.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?
KILLEN: And your current unit of assignment?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: The 8th District.

KILLEN: And how long you been in 8th District?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Seven years.

KILLEN: All right. Now you’re aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I’d like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of a violation of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right what was your duty status and assignment on 21 October or 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: This statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.
KILLEN: All right so what was your duty status and assignment last night at (someone coughs) 2150 hours?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Full duty.

KILLEN: Okay. What time you start work last night?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Uh 2100.

KILLEN: Okay. Is that your normal start time?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and you remember what beat you were assigned?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay and were you assigned a partner?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And who's your partner?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Uh Thomas Gaffney.

KILLEN: All right and you and Officer Gaffney you guys were assigned a vehicle?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And what kinda vehicle?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: It's a Chevy Tahoe.

KILLEN: Marked?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.
KILLEN: Okay and you and Officer Gaffney are in full uniform?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and then at about 2150 hours at about 41st and Pulaski you and uh Officer Gaffney were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: All right and if you would just um from the beginning explain to me what happened?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Uh we responded to a call of holding the offender at uh 4100 on Karlov. And um I don't know I forget the exact address.

KILLEN: So you received this, you say responded to the call. You got a call uh via OEMC?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so over the radio you get a call.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Holding the offender um somebody's stealing radios out of semi trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you re, do you remember where you and uh, where were you and Officer Gaffney when you got that call?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um we're somewhere along Archer around Kostner.

KILLEN: Okay. So you're south of 41st and Kildare?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.
KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's the driver?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He is the driver, yes.

KILLEN: So you guys head over to that --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: So we head over, we take Kostner up and then uh take 47th to Kildare.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens when you get there?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic um we pull up to the address and they said um that a male black wearin' a black shirt was in the, tryin' to steal the radios outta the semi. Um he was holding a, a white cord to like a phone, like a charger. And he said he's got my phone. So then he said he's right around the corner. (clears throat) So then we, we drive north to 40th Street and we turn right and then we see a male black with a black shirt.

KILLEN: Okay and what's he doin'?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He's standing there and then he kinda turns around when he sees us pull up.

KILLEN: And what happens?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point I got outta the car and I'm giving 'em commands to stop, turn around. And I noticed he has his left hand in his pocket like in a ball. And in his right hand he's holding something else. And then I tell 'em take his hands out of his pockets; let me see your hands. He doesn't take his hands --
KILLEN: So at this point is he, his back is to you?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: He's facing me at this point.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: And then he starts turning and walking away. And he's holding one arm out and one hand in his pocket. He continues to walk and uh then he turns again he takes both his hands out and, and at that point he has a knife in his right hand as if he just opened it up, like flipped it open and he's holdin' his hand. At that point I drew my weapon I tell 'em to drop the knife. Um he kinda has this look in his eye like, like maybe he's on some sorta drugs cause it was like his eyes like rolled back. And then he walked, he started walking east again with his hands out and then he's kinda like kinda makin' motions from side to side. He's kinda all over. Goes from the street to the, to the sidewalk. And the whole time my partner is kinda paralleling me. And he's driving and I'm had my flashlight on 'em and I'm tellin' 'em to stop. Tellin' 'em to drop, drop the weapon. Drop the knife.

KILLEN: So you're on foot correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I'm on foot, walking.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney --
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Walking with some distance between me.

KILLEN: You're behind him correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I'm yeah I'm behind him.
KILLEN: Behind the offender?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney’s paralleling him in the car?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He’s, he’s kinda like as far as I am. Like he’s like to my right just a lil bit.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Or to my left just a lil bit. Um --

KILLEN: Do you close the distance on this guy?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: We just continue to follow ‘em. And um then he, at one point (inaudible) my partner decides to pull towards him. And uh at that point he, the offender turned and like in a downward stabbing motion popped the front tire. My partner um at that point said that he popped the tire. Prior to that though um he had asked for an assist.

HERBERT: (inaudible)
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He’d asked for somebody to come with a taser. So as we’re like tryin’ to buy time this happens with the, the tire at uh Keeler. And then um we go a lil bit further and he decide, my partner decides to pull closer to ‘em to kinda cause he knew Pulaski was comin’ up and there was Burger King and there’s a bunch a other stuff where people are. Decides to pull over a lil bit (noise) kinda to veer ‘em off so that he’ll go up one of the streets cause it’s, it’s a factory area. And we know it’s always like pretty bare.
There’s nobody around. Um it’s after hours. At that point he um he, he grabs the knife and he, he stabs at the, the windshield. So um then he starts walkin’ away. Stabbed at the windshield then he walks away from the squad car. And he’s walkin’ on the sidewalk again. And then um we can hear the cars comin’. And then once we can kinda see (noise) in the windows we could see the, the blue lights in the reflection and you could hear the, you could hear the sirens now. (noise) That’s when he decides to take off runnin’. He just full on sprint. Uh I started runnin’ after ‘em. My partner’s driving the car that has a flat. He’s goin’ after ‘em too. He goes through two semis were parked in the back of the Burger King lot at 40th and Pulaski. He goes through, I go through and then I see another squad car pull. They’re right behind ‘em. They pull behind ‘em, he goes through a sidewalk and then they go, they go around through and they (clears throat) they cut through on the sidewalk as well. Around the north side of Burger King. And then I’m followin’ up running and as I get to Pulaski I turn right cause they all turned right. (clears throat) And I got to about the light (noise) I could see a bunch of squad cars comin’. And um (clears throat) I keep runnin’ (noise) and then one of ‘em is, he’s lookin’ to do a U turn, one of the other squad cars. Um so instead of getting hit I just stopped and I waved them to go. (noise) (clears throat) And at that point he turned around he, he’s goin’ um southbound slowly.
so I know they're, they're stopping right there. I hear the shots at that point. And uh when I approach I think I was running down maybe the middle that's when I saw the offender layin' on the ground. And at that point Joe Walsh, Officer Walsh uh he kicked, he the gun outta, or not the gun the uh the knife out of his, his right hand. (noise) Which he was still clenching at the time. And then um (noise) asked for an ambulance and that was pretty much it.

KILLEN: (clears throat) So when you guys, you're on 40th and you see, you're kinda walkin' with this guy right? You see 'em with the knife?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Right?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

HERBERT: Say yes.

KILLEN: So and you see 'em uh uh you described it as a down motion, he stabbed the tire of the car right?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: That's the --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: -- front passenger tire correct?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Front passenger tire.
KILLEN: Okay and then you also saw 'em stab the windshield?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Right.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. Uh and you may have said it and I may have missed it, but did you or uh Officer Gaffney get on the radio and say hey this guy's armed. He's got a knife?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes. Um it was before he said he popped the tire um my partner got on the radio and said (clears throat) said this guy has a knife. Can you send somebody with a taser over here. And then (inaudible) lil time passed by and then (clears throat) that's when the tire incident.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: And then another five, ten seconds (noise) went by and (noise) attacked the car, stabbed the windshield.

KILLEN: So you're, you were warning everybody ahead a time?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Before you got anything, he had the knife in his hand.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes. It started with uh we asked for a taser. We said he had a knife. And then we were giving uh kinda like a play by play (noise) stab, he stabbed our tire, he just popped our tire.
And, you know and they're askin' if anybody's heading over there. And we're just waitin' for the assist cars to come.

KILLEN: And I take it you don't carry a taser?
P. O. MCELLIGOTT: I do not.

KILLEN: And then neither does Officer Gaffney correct?
P. O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So then you basically follow 'em all the way to Pulaski I take it. Karlov then Keeler somethin' like that.
P. O. MCELLIGOTT: Basically yeah. It was --

KILLEN: And then when the other car comes -- P. O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point he was (noise) he darted towards Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay.
P. O. MCELLIGOTT: From Karlov to Pulaski he was full on sprinting and I was running after 'em.

KILLEN: And you're after 'em. When he went between the trucks you went between the trucks with 'em?
P. O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so then when he got to Pulaski he goes south?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: When he got to Pulaski yeah he head, he went south around, he wrapped around the buildin' and (noise) then Burger King.

KILLEN: And whaddid you mean cause you lost me when you said somebody wanted to make a U turn so you let them go ahead of you.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: There were cars coming northbound on Pulaski to assist. And they passed up, they passed him up and then came back around.

KILLEN: Oh I gotcha. Okay so he's goin' south --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: They made a U turn --

KILLEN: I gotcha.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah they passed him up and turned around. I don't know if they didn't see 'em or if, what their reasoning was, but they, they made a U turn and they turned kinda like right at me and I just said go and I waved 'em.

KILLEN: Now is he in the street at this time? He is runnin' in the street or is he on the sidewalk?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I didn't see him at that point I didn't see him because there were other squad cars in front a me. And I don't want, I finally saw him I was in the median and I ran up towards him and that's when at that point he was already down and the officer, other officer was kickin' the gun, uh knife away.
KILLEN: So were you on the median when you heard the gunshots?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I was, I heard the gunshots. There's a traffic light. I heard the gunshots while I was at the traffic light. And then I waved, waved the other car to go and then um by the time I got there there were no more shots.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shooting?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I did not.

KILLEN: You didn't see anybody shooting anything like that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So by the time you got you said then he's already, the offender's already on the ground?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he on his, is he on his back, (noise) his stomach? How's he --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He was kinda on his side. On his right side.

KILLEN: And you said he still had the knife?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah he was holdin' it. (noise)

KILLEN: In his right hand?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: In his right hand.

KILLEN: And that was Officer Walsh kicked it from his hand?
KILLEN: Okay. And what happens he’s placed in custody?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Then he was, well he was obviously down, he wasn’t movin’ anywhere. We’re surrounding him and that’s (noise) (inaudible) come.

KILLEN: Okay. I mean after the knife gets kicked outta his hand, does anybody touch it to your knowledge?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Do you ever touch it?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I didn’t touch it.

KILLEN: Okay. So you didn’t see, you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge his weapon at the offender correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: No I saw ’em holding his weapon.

KILLEN: Right.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Just kinda (inaudible) (noise)

KILLEN: You heard gunshots but you didn’t see --
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: Okay. Anything you’d like to add?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer uh Joseph McElligott regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014 and the time is approximately 0451 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

STATEMENT OF P.O. THOMAS GAFFNEY

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0406 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY LOG #1072125 U#14-36

KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0406 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters at 51st and Wentworth. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Also present is FOP attorney Dan Herbert. (noise) Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Representative Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) FOP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S. G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: [redacted]

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: 8th District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what's your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July ‘96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY: ***

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I’m sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you’re aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I’d like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you’re aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin' Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you'd start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin' to get radios somethin' like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin' from the south goin' north correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh there was a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic uh standing by a gate um to the truck yard. Um the gate was partially opened and uh the female had a chain in 'er hand and then we stopped and spoke to them.

KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?
P.O.GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin' to get um tryin' to get into trucks. Uh
he had uh somethin' in his hand, he had uh a wire
from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin'
about a iPhone, I don't know if he was sayin'
that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then
we, we asked 'em you know what he looked like,
what he was wearin'? He said he's a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that man and woman tell you which way the, the offender went?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north
um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that'd, that's 41st Street?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?
P.O.GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street
and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you know somebody walkin'. So we approached 'em, drove up to 'em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dread locks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he's shining on 'em. You know tell 'em to come 'ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin' at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached 'em a lil bit more and that's when he, he had seen you know tell 'em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard 'em say you know he's got a knife. So that's when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn't really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that's when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we're all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin' I, I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he's on what street?

P.O.GAFFNEY: He's on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he's, he's headed which way?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he's headed toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --
P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You're kinda behind 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn’t.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he’s got a knife that’s when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin’ the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin’ out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep ‘em goin’ east toward Pulaski?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin’.
KILLEN: So he never stops?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin’. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin’ eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches ‘em and then you hear McElligott say he’s got a knife?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that’s when I you know that’s when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that’s when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin’, that’s what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy’s got a knn, we’re at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin’ Keeler. Uh he’s got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don’t carry a taser?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn’t carry --

P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn’t have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in
then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars
and other cars said they were comin’. So we just, we just kept stayin’ you know keepin’ our distance at the time you know I kept drivin’
along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin’ with ‘em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin’, my partner still kept givin’ ‘em
verbal commands and droppin’ the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin’ turning around lookin’ back at
us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin’ east. When we’re,
we’re approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I
knew the next block there was the Burger King,
there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get 'em to go down Karlov cause there's more, you know there's just factories so there's no people down that way. So and then uh -

KILLEN: So the purpose of doin' that is keep 'em away from --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow 'em down until other cars got 'ere and make 'em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep 'em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people. (someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh, his arm down. When he did that that's when I heard like pssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where's McElligott at this time?

P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin' with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That's when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.

HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin' behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin' it down in a striking motion.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.

KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.

KILLEN: What happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin', I didn't see nothin' break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin' eastbound on 40th Street. And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet that's when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that's when he started to run. Oh yeah I, I, I (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don't remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you're still basically sittin' over at 40th and Karlov right? You see 'nother car come up Pulaski?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that's, yeah he, 'nother car came off Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --
P.O.GAFFNEY: That, that's when he seen that and that's when he started runnin'.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?
P.O.GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he's still goin' towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)
P.O.GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin' and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that the other car that came off went into the Burger
King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin'
towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb
and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car
followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O.GAFFNEY: At the time I didn't but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout Pulaski and --
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O.GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car
where then?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot.
Before, before going over the curb and into the
street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the flat?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn’t wanna, I didn’t know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there’s like lil the, the, cement tongue if you will, that, that’s the parkin’ lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin’ ‘em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that’s Pulaski you’re talkin’ about?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there’s a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don’t take the curb at all. You just --

P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin’ lot to, to get out where there’s a, there’s the light on 41st Street. (noise)

KILLEN: And that’s where your car’s stopped?

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that’s where my, that’s where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That's when, when I saw your car was south, facin' south --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that's right, that's where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that's when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn't see what exactly was goin' on.

KILLEN: So you're basically goin' around Burger King.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah that's when the shots I believe that's when the shots started firin'.

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin'?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn't know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin'?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That's because --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well there's a, yeah well there's a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence
with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
they were building some stuff there. So yeah
there was that was all blockin’ me.

KILLEN: There’s (noise) no line a sight.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
there’s no more shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don’t (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you’re goin’ south could you see the offender still?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and started to go you know ‘round to, to where everything was goin’ on.

KILLEN: Where was he?
P.O. GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the time when I, when I got over there.

KILLEN: Okay. And it’s after that then you find out who’s shooting what happened?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah.
KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn’t see the shooting, you, you (noise) you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge the weapon?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin' the offender.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch 'em. We didn’t know how long ago it was. Or where he would’ve went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab 'em and figured they woulda still been there when we got back.

KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had, as best you can describe it to me?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob’ly ‘bout four to six inch blade.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you’d like to add?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

INVESTIGATION:

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
The full format for this investigation is contained in the previous Progress - Scene Report.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.
