It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife." MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.

FONTAINE, Dora -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permission to access the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Officer Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

[redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management...
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, .

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, of the 9-1-1 caller, was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was “growling” and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0436 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Joseph McElligott regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0436 hours. This statement is being taken at Area Central Police Headquarters. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Uh also present in the room is uh FOP attorney Dan Herbert. Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And then FOP Representative Kato, uh Kriston Kato.

KATO: First name is Kriston, K R I S T O N. Last name K A T O. FOP Field Representative.

KILLEN: And Officer McElligott if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Joseph McElligott, J O S E P H, McElligott, M C E L L I G O T T.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: 1 8 7 1 5. (noise)

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT:

KILLEN: And your date of appointment with the Department?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: 27 August '01.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT:

KILLEN: And your current unit of assignment?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: The 8\textsuperscript{th} District.

KILLEN: And how long you been in 8\textsuperscript{th} District?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Seven years.

KILLEN: All right. Now you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of a violation of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right what was your duty status and assignment on 21 October or 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: This statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.
KILLEN: All right so what was your duty status and assignment last night at (someone coughs) 2150 hours?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Full duty.

KILLEN: Okay. What time you start work last night?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Uh 2100.

KILLEN: Is that your normal start time?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and you remember what beat you were assigned?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay and were you assigned a partner?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And who's your partner?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Uh Thomas Gaffney.

KILLEN: All right and you and Officer Gaffney you guys were assigned a vehicle?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And what kinda vehicle?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: It's a Chevy Tahoe.

KILLEN: Marked?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.
KILLEN: Okay and you and Officer Gaffney are in full uniform?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and then at about 2150 hours at about 41st and Pulaski you and uh Officer Gaffney were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: All right and if you would just um from the beginning explain to me what happened?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Uh we responded to a call of holding the offender at uh 4100 on Karlov. And um I don't know I forget the exact address.

KILLEN: So you received this, you say responded to the call. You got a call uh via OEMC?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so over the radio you get a call.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Holding the offender um somebody's stealing radios out of semi trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you re, do you remember where you and uh, where were you and Officer Gaffney when you got that call?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um we're somewhere along Archer around Kostner.

KILLEN: Okay. So you're south of 41st and Kildare?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.
KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's the driver?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He is the driver, yes.

KILLEN: So you guys head over to that --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: So we head over, we take Kostner up and then uh take 47th to Kildare.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens when you get there?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic um we pull up to the address and they said um that a male black wearin' a black shirt was in the, tryin' to steal the radios outta the semi. Um he was holding a, a white cord to like a phone, like a charger. And he said he's got my phone. So then he said he's right around the corner. (clears throat) So then we, we drive north to 40th Street and we turn right and then we see a male black with a black shirt.

KILLEN: Okay and what's he doin'?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He's standing there and then he kinda turns around when he sees us pull up.

KILLEN: And what happens?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point I got outta the car and I'm giving 'em commands to stop, turn around. And I noticed he has his left hand in his pocket like in a ball. And in his right hand he's holding something else. And then I tell 'em take his hands out of his pockets; let me see your hands. He doesn't take his hands --
KILLEN: So at this point is he, his back is to you?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He’s facing me at this point.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: And then he starts turning and walking away. And he’s holding one arm out and one hand in his pocket. He continues to walk and uh then he turns again he takes both his hands out and, and at that point he has a knife in his right hand as if he just opened it up, like flipped it open and he’s holdin’ his hand. At that point I drew my weapon I tell ‘em to drop the knife. Um he kinda has this look in his eye like, like maybe he’s on some sorta drugs cause it was like his eyes like rolled back. And then he walked, he started walking east again with his hands out and then he’s kinda like kinda makin’ motions from side to side. He’s kinda all over. Goes from the street to the, to the sidewalk. And the whole time my partner is kinda paralleling me. And he’s driving and I’m had my flashlight on ‘em and I’m tellin’ ‘em to stop. Tellin’ ‘em to drop, drop the weapon. Drop the knife.

KILLEN: So you’re on foot correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I’m on foot, walking.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Walking with some distance between me.

KILLEN: You’re behind him correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I’m yeah I’m behind him.
KILLEN: Behind the offender?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney’s paralleling him in the car?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He’s, he’s kinda like as far as I am. Like he’s like to my right just a lil bit.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Or to my left just a lil bit. Um --

KILLEN: Do you close the distance on this guy?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: We just continue to follow ‘em. And um then he, at one point (inaudible) my partner decides to pull towards him. And uh at that point he, the offender turned and like in a downward stabbing motion popped the front tire. My partner um at that point said that he popped the tire. Prior to that though um he had asked for an assist.

HERBERT: (inaudible)
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He’d asked for somebody to come with a taser. So as we’re like tryin’ to buy time this happens with the, the tire at uh Keeler. And then um we go a lil bit further and he decide, my partner decides to pull closer to ‘em to kinda cause he knew Pulaski was comin’ up and there was Burger King and there’s a bunch a other stuff where people are. Decides to pull over a lil bit (noise) kinda to veer ‘em off so that he’ll go up one of the streets cause it’s, it’s a factory area. And we know it’s always like pretty bare.
There's nobody around. Um it's after hours. At that point he um he, he grabs the knife and he, he stabs at the, the windshield. So um then he starts walkin' away. Stabbed at the windshield then he walks away from the squad car. And he's walkin' on the sidewalk again. And then um we can hear the cars comin'. And then once we can kinda see (noise) in the windows we could see the, the blue lights in the reflection and you could hear the, you could hear the sirens now. (noise) That's when he decides to take off runnin'. He just full on sprint. Uh I started runnin' after 'em. My partner's driving the car that has a flat. He's goin' after 'em too. He goes through two semis were parked in the back of the Burger King lot at 40th and Pulaski. He goes through, I go through and then I see another squad car pull. They're right behind 'em. They pull behind 'em, he goes through a sidewalk and then they go, they go around through and they (clears throat) they cut through on the sidewalk as well. Around the north side of Burger King. And then I'm followin' up running and as I get to Pulaski I turn right cause they all turned right. (clears throat) And I got to about the light (noise) I could see a bunch of squad cars comin'. And um (clears throat) I keep runnin' (noise) and then one of 'em is, he's lookin' to do a U turn, one of the other squad cars. Um so instead of getting hit I just stopped and I waved them to go. (noise) (clears throat) And at that point he turned around he, he's goin' um southbound slowly.
so I know they’re, they’re stopping right there. I hear the shots at that point. And uh when I approach I think I was running down maybe the middle that’s when I saw the offender layin’ on the ground. And at that point Joe Walsh, Officer Walsh uh he kicked, he the gun outta, or not the gun the uh the knife out of his, his right hand. (noise) Which he was still clenching at the time. And then um (noise) asked for an ambulance and that was pretty much it.

KILLEN: (clears throat) So when you guys, you’re on 40th and you see, you’re kinda walkin’ with this guy right? You see ‘em with the knife?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Right?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

HERBERT: Say yes.

KILLEN: So and you see ‘em uh uh you described it as a down motion, he stabbed the tire of the car right?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: That’s the --
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: -- front passenger tire correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Front passenger tire.
KILLEN: Okay and then you also saw 'em stab the windshield?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Right.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. Uh and you may have said it and I may have missed it, but did you or uh Officer Gaffney get on the radio and say hey this guy's armed. He's got a knife?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes. Um it was before he said he popped the tire um my partner got on the radio and said (clears throat) said this guy has a knife. Can you send somebody with a taser over here. And then (inaudible) lil time passed by and then (clears throat) that's when the tire incident.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: And then another five, ten seconds (noise) went by and (noise) attacked the car, stabbed the windshield.

KILLEN: So you're, you were warning everybody ahead a time?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Before you got anything, he had the knife in his hand.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes. It started with uh we asked for a taser. We said he had a knife. And then we were giving uh kinda like a play by play (noise) stab,
he stabbed our tire, he just popped our tire.
And, you know and they're askin' if anybody's heading over there. And we're just waitin' for the assist cars to come.

KILLEN: And I take it you don't carry a taser?
P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: I do not.

KILLEN: And then neither does Officer Gaffney correct?
P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So then you basically follow 'em all the way to Pulaski I take it. Karlov then Keeler somethin' like that.
P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: Basically yeah. It was --

KILLEN: And then when the other car comes --
P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: At that point he was (noise) he darted towards Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: From Karlov to Pulaski he was full on sprinting and I was running after 'em.

KILLEN: And you're after 'em. When he went between the trucks you went between the trucks with 'em?
P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so then when he got to Pulaski he goes south?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: When he got to Pulaski yeah he head, he went south around, he wrapped around the buildin' and (noise) then Burger King.

KILLEN: And whaddid you mean cause you lost me when you said somebody wanted to make a U turn so you let them go ahead of you.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: There were cars coming northbound on Pulaski to assist. And they passed up, they passed him up and then came back around.

KILLEN: Oh I gotcha. Okay so he's goin' south --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: They made a U turn --

KILLEN: I gotcha.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah they passed him up and turned around. I don't know if they didn't see 'em or if, what their reasoning was, but they, they made a U turn and they turned kinda like right at me and I just said go and I waved 'em.

KILLEN: Now is he in the street at this time? He is runnin' in the street or is he on the sidewalk?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I didn't see him at that point I didn't see him because there were other squad cars in front a me. And I don't want, I finally saw him I was in the median and I ran up towards him and that's when at that point he was already down and the officer, other officer was kickin' the gun, uh knife away.
KILLEN: So were you on the median when you heard the gunshots?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I was, I heard the gunshots. There's a traffic light. I heard the gunshots while I was at the traffic light. And then I waved, waved the other car to go and then um by the time I got there there were no more shots.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shooting?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: No I did not.

KILLEN: You didn't see anybody shooting anything like that?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So by the time you got you said then he's already, the offender's already on the ground?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he on his, is he on his back, (noise) his stomach? How's he --
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: He was kinda on his side. On his right side.

KILLEN: And you said he still had the knife?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yeah he was holdin' it. (noise)

KILLEN: In his right hand?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: In his right hand.

KILLEN: And that was Officer Walsh kicked it from his hand?
KILLEN: Okay. And what happens he’s placed in custody?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Then he was, well he was obviously down, he wasn’t movin’ anywhere. We’re surrounding him and that’s (noise) (inaudible) come.

KILLEN: Okay. I mean after the knife gets kicked outta his hand, does anybody touch it to your knowledge?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Do you ever touch it?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I didn’t touch it.

KILLEN: Okay. So you didn’t see, you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge his weapon at the offender correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I saw ’em holding his weapon.

KILLEN: Right.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Just kinda (inaudible) (noise)

KILLEN: You heard gunshots but you didn’t see --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: Okay. Anything you’d like to add?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?
P.O. McELLIOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer uh Joseph McElligott regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014 and the time is approximately 0451 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

STATEMENT OF P.O. THOMAS GAFFNEY

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0406 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY LOG #1072125 U#14-36

KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0406 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters at 51st and Wentworth. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Also present is FOP attorney Dan Herbert. (noise) Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Representative Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) FOP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S. G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.GAFFNEY:

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: 8TH District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what's your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July '96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY:

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I'm sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only givin’ this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin’ Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you'd start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin' to get radios somethin' like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin' from the south goin' north correct?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh there was a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic uh standing by a gate um to the truck yard. Um the gate was partially opened and uh the female had a chain in 'er hand and then we stopped and spoke to them.

KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?
P.O.GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin' to get um tryin' to get into trucks. Uh
he had uh somethin' in his hand, he had uh a wire
from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin'
about a iPhone, I don't know if he was sayin'
that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then we, we asked 'em you know what he looked like,
what he was wearin'? He said he's a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that man and woman tell you which way the, the offender goes?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that'd, that's 41st Street?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?
P.O.GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street
and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you know somebody walkin'. So we approached 'em, drove up to 'em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dread locks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he's shining on 'em. You know tell 'em to come 'ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin' at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached 'em a lil bit more and that's when he, he had seen you know tell 'em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard 'em say you know he's got a knife. So that's when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn't really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that's when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we're all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin' I, I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he's on what street?

P.O.GAFFNEY: He's on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he's, he's headed which way?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he's headed toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --
P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You're kinda behind 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?
P.O.GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn’t.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he’s got a knife that’s when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin’ the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin’ out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep ‘em goin’ east toward Pulaski?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin’.
KILLEN: So he never stops?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin'. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin' eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches 'em and then you hear McElligott say he's got a knife?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that's when I you know that's when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that's when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin', that's what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy's got a knn, we're at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin' Keeler. Uh he's got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don’t carry a taser?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn’t carry --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn’t have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars and other cars said they were comin’. So we just, we just kept stayin’ you know keepin’ our distance at the time you know I kept drivin’ along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin’ with ‘em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin’, my partner still kept givin’ ‘em verbal commands and droppin’ the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin’ turning around lookin’ back at us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin’ east. When we’re, we’re approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I knew the next block there was the Burger King, there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get 'em to go down Karlov cause there's more, you know there's just factories so there's no people down that way. So and then uh - -

KILLEN: So the purpose of doin' that is keep 'em away from --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow 'em down until other cars got 'ere and make 'em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep 'em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people. (someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh, his arm down. When he did that that's when I heard like pssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where's McElligott at this time?

P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin' with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That's when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.
HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin' behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin' it down in a striking motion.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.

KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.

KILLEN: What happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin', I didn't see nothin' break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin' eastbound on 40th Street. And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet that's when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that’s when he started to run. Oh yeah I, I, I (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don’t remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you’re still basically sittin’ over at 40th and Karlov right? You see ‘nother car come up Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that’s, yeah he, ‘nother car came off Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --

P.O.GAFFNEY: That, that’s when he seen that and that’s when he started runnin’.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he’s still goin’ towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin’ and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that the other car that came off went into the Burger
King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin'
towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car
followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O. GAFFNEY: At the time I didn't but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout
Pulaski and --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car
where then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot.
Before, before going over the curb and into the street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the (noise) flat?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn’t wanna, I didn’t know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there’s like lil the, the, cement tongue if you will, that, that’s the parkin’ lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert continue.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin’ ‘em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that’s Pulaski you’re talkin’ about?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there’s a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don’t take the curb at all. You just --

P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin’ lot to, to get out where there’s a, there’s the light on 41st Street. (noise)

KILLEN: And that’s where your car’s stopped?

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that’s where my, that’s where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That's when, when I saw your car was south, facin' south --

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that's right, that's where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?

P.O.GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that's when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn't see what exactly was goin' on.

KILLEN: So you're basically goin' around Burger King.

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that's when the shots I believe that's when the shots started firin'.

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin'?

P.O.GAFFNEY: No I didn't know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin'?

P.O.GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That's because --

P.O.GAFFNEY: Well there's a, yeah well there's a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence

1. with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
2. so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
3. they were building some stuff there. So yeah
4. there was that was all blockin' me.

5. KILLEN: There's (noise) no line a sight.
6. P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no.

7. KILLEN: Okay.
8. P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

9. KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
10. there's no more shooting correct?
11. P.O. GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don't
12. (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got
13. onto Pulaski.

14. KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you're
15. goin' south could you see the offender still?
16. P.O. GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and
17. started to go you know 'round to, to where
18. everything was goin' on.

19. KILLEN: Where was he?
20. P.O. GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the
21. time when I, when I got over there.

22. KILLEN: Okay. And it's after that then you find out
23. who's shooting what happened?
KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn’t see the shooting, you,
you (noise) you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke
discharge the weapon?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin’ the offender.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch ‘em. We didn’t know how long ago it was. Or where he would’ve went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab ‘em and figured they woulda still been there when we got back.

KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had,
as best you can describe it to me?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob’ly
‘bout four to six inch blade.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you’d like to add?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O’LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

INVESTIGATION:

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE’s pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD’s right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE’s weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE’s partner.

WALSH, Joseph J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver’s door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P ——

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin’
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. Then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan McDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan McDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. McDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. McDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw McDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. McDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan McDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that McDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan McDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. McDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from McDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from McDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan McDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of McDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE’s handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a “revolver knife” which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. [redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

[redacted] insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." said that MCDONALD attended school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted] attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [REDACTED] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [REDACTED] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [REDACTED]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [REDACTED] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [REDACTED] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [REDACTED], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [REDACTED] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [REDACTED] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [REDACTED] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [REDACTED] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [REDACTED]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE’s use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department’s use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

STATEMENT OF P.O. JOSEPH McELLIGOTT

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0436 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY  LOG #1072125 U#14-36

KILLEN: This is the, this is the audio recorded interview of Officer Joseph McElligott regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0436 hours. This statement is being taken at Area Central Police Headquarters. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Uh also present in the room is uh FOP attorney Dan Herbert. Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And then FOP Representative Kato, uh Kriston Kato.

KATO: First name is Kriston, K R I S T O N. Last name K A T O. FOP Field Representative.

KILLEN: And Officer McElligott if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Joseph McElligott, J O S E P H, McElligott, M C E L L I G O T T.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 1 8 7 1 5. (noise)

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: [redacted]

KILLEN: And your date of appointment with the Department?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 27 August '01.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?
KILLEN: And your current unit of assignment?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: The 8th District.

KILLEN: And how long you been in 8th District?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Seven years.

KILLEN: All right. Now you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of a violation of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right what was your duty status and assignment on 21 October or 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: This statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.
KILLEN: All right so what was your duty status and assignment last night at (someone coughs) 2150 hours?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Full duty.

KILLEN: Okay. What time you start work last night?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Uh 2100.

KILLEN: Is that your normal start time?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and you remember what beat you were assigned?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay and were you assigned a partner?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And who's your partner?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Uh Thomas Gaffney.

KILLEN: All right and you and Officer Gaffney you guys were assigned a vehicle?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And what kinda vehicle?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: It's a Chevy Tahoe.

KILLEN: Marked?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.
KILLEN: Okay and you and Officer Gaffney are in full uniform?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and then at about 2150 hours at about 41st and Pulaski you and uh Officer Gaffney were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: All right and if you would just um from the beginning explain to me what happened?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Uh we responded to a call of holding the offender at uh 4100 on Karlov. And um I don’t know I forget the exact address.

KILLEN: So you received this, you say responded to the call. You got a call uh via OEMC?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so over the radio you get a call.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Holding the offender um somebody’s stealing radios out of semi trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you re, do you remember where you and uh, where were you and Officer Gaffney when you got that call?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um we’re somewhere along Archer around Kostner.

KILLEN: Okay. So you’re south of 41st and Kildare?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.
KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's the driver?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: He is the driver, yes.

KILLEN: So you guys head over to that --
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: So we head over, we take Kostner up and then uh take 47th to Kildare.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens when you get there?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Urn a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic um we pull up to the address and they said um that a male black wearin' a black shirt was in the, tryin' to steal the radios outta the semi. Urn he was holding a, a white cord to like a phone, like a charger. And he said he's got my phone. So then he said he's right around the corner. (clears throat) So then we, we drive north to 40th Street and we turn right and then we see a male black with a black shirt.

KILLEN: Okay and what's he doin'?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: He's standing there and then he kinda turns around when he sees us pull up.

KILLEN: And what happens?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: At that point I got outta the car and
I'm giving 'em commands to stop, turn around.
And I noticed he has his left hand in his pocket like in a ball. And in his right hand he's holding something else. And then I tell 'em take his hands out of his pockets; let me see your hands. He doesn't take his hands --
KILLEN: So at this point is he, his back is to you?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: He's facing me at this point.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: And then he starts turning and walking away. And he's holding one arm out and one hand in his pocket. He continues to walk and uh then he turns again he takes both his hands out and, and at that point he has a knife in his right hand as if he just opened it up, like flipped it open and he's holdin' his hand. At that point I drew my weapon I tell 'em to drop the knife. Um he kinda has this look in his eye like, like maybe he's on some sorta drugs cause it was like his eyes like rolled back. And then he walked, he started walking east again with his hands out and then he's kinda like kinda makin' motions from side to side. He's kinda all over. Goes from the street to the, to the sidewalk. And the whole time my partner is kinda paralleling me. And he's driving and I'm had my flashlight on 'em and I'm tellin' 'em to stop. Tellin' 'em to drop, drop the weapon. Drop the knife.

KILLEN: So you're on foot correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I'm on foot, walking.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney --
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Walking with some distance between me.

KILLEN: You're behind him correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I'm yeah I'm behind him.
KILLEN: Behind the offender?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's paralleling him in the car?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He's, he's kinda like as far as I am. Like he's like to my right just a lil bit.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Or to my left just a lil bit. Um --

KILLEN: Do you close the distance on this guy?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: We just continue to follow 'em. And um then he, at one point (inaudible) my partner decides to pull towards him. And uh at that point he, the offender turned and like in a downward stabbing motion popped the front tire. My partner um at that point said that he popped the tire. Prior to that though um he had asked for an assist.

HERBERT: (inaudible)
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He'd asked for somebody to come with a taser. So as we're like tryin' to buy time this happens with the, the tire at uh Keeler. And then um we go a lil bit further and he decide, my partner decides to pull closer to 'em to kinda cause he knew Pulaski was comin' up and there was Burger King and there's a bunch a other stuff where people are. Decides to pull over a lil bit (noise) kinda to veer 'em off so that he'll go up one of the streets cause it's, it's a factory area. And we know it's always like pretty bare.
There's nobody around. Um it's after hours. At that point he um he, he grabs the knife and he, he stabs at the, the windshield. So um then he starts walkin' away. Stabbed at the windshield then he walks away from the squad car. And he's walkin' on the sidewalk again. And then um we can hear the cars comin'. And then once we can kinda see (noise) in the windows we could see the, the blue lights in the reflection and you could hear the, you could hear the sirens now. (noise) That's when he decides to take off runnin'. He just full on sprint. Uh I started runnin' after 'em. My partner's driving the car that has a flat. He's goin' after 'em too. He goes through two semis were parked in the back of the Burger King lot at 40th and Pulaski. He goes through, I go through and then I see another squad car pull. They're right behind 'em. They pull behind 'em, he goes through a sidewalk and then they go, they go around through and they (clears throat) they cut through on the sidewalk as well. Around the north side of Burger King. And then I'm followin' up running and as I get to Pulaski I turn right cause they all turned right. (clears throat) And I got to about the light (noise) I could see a bunch of squad cars comin'. And um (clears throat) I keep runnin' (noise) and then one of 'em is, he's lookin' to do a U turn, one of the other squad cars. Um so instead of getting hit I just stopped and I waved them to go. (noise) (clears throat) And at that point he turned around he, he's goin' um southbound slowly.
so I know they're, they're stopping right there. I hear the shots at that point. And uh when I approach I think I was running down maybe the middle that's when I saw the offender layin' on the ground. And at that point Joe Walsh, Officer Walsh uh he kicked, he the gun outta, or not the gun the uh the knife out of his, his right hand. (noise) Which he was still clenching at the time. And then um (noise) asked for an ambulance and that was pretty much it.

KILLEN: (clears throat) So when you guys, you're on 40\textsuperscript{th} and you see, you're kinda walkin' with this guy right? You see 'em with the knife?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Right?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

HERBERT: Say yes.

KILLEN: So and you see 'em uh uh you described it as a down motion, he stabbed the tire of the car right?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: That's the --

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: -- front passenger tire correct?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Front passenger tire.
KILLEN: Okay and then you also saw 'em stab the windshield?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Right.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. Uh and you may have said it and I may have missed it, but did you or uh Officer Gaffney get on the radio and say hey this guy's armed. He's got a knife?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes. Um it was before he said he popped the tire um my partner got on the radio and said (clears throat) said this guy has a knife. Can you send somebody with a taser over here. And then (inaudible) lil time passed by and then (clears throat) that's when the tire incident.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: And then another five, ten seconds (noise) went by and (noise) attacked the car, stabbed the windshield.

KILLEN: So you're, you were warning everybody ahead a time?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Before you got anything, he had the knife in his hand.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes. It started with uh we asked for a taser. We said he had a knife. And then we were giving uh kinda like a play by play (noise) stab, he stabbed our tire, he just popped our tire. And, you know and they're askin' if anybody's heading over there. And we're just waitin' for the assist cars to come.

KILLEN: And I take it you don't carry a taser?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I do not.

KILLEN: And then neither does Officer Gaffney correct?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So then you basically follow 'em all the way to Pulaski I take it. Karlov then Keeler somethin' like that.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Basically yeah. It was --

KILLEN: And then when the other car comes --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point he was (noise) he darted towards Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: From Karlov to Pulaski he was full on sprinting and I was running after 'em.

KILLEN: And you're after 'em. When he went between the trucks you went between the trucks with 'em?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so then when he got to Pulaski he goes south?
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY  LOG #1072125 U#14-36

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: When he got to Pulaski yeah he head, he went south around, he wrapped around the buildin' and (noise) then Burger King.

KILLEN: And whaddid you mean cause you lost me when you said somebody wanted to make a U turn so you let them go ahead of you.

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: There were cars coming northbound on Pulaski to assist. And they passed up, they passed him up and then came back around.

KILLEN: Oh I gotcha. Okay so he's goin' south --

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: They made a U turn --

KILLEN: I gotcha.

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yeah they passed him up and turned around. I don't know if they didn't see 'em or if, what their reasoning was, but they, they made a U turn and they turned kinda like right at me and I just said go and I waved 'em.

KILLEN: Now is he in the street at this time? He is runnin' in the street or is he on the sidewalk?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I didn't see him at that point I didn't see him because there were other squad cars in front a me. And I don't want, I finally saw him I was in the median and I ran up towards him and that's when at that point he was already down and the officer, other officer was kickin' the gun, uh knife away.
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY

KILLEN: So were you on the median when you heard the gunshots?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I was, I heard the gunshots. There's a traffic light. I heard the gunshots while I was at the traffic light. And then I waved, waved the other car to go and then um by the time I got there there were no more shots.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shooting?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I did not.

KILLEN: You didn't see anybody shooting anything like that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So by the time you got you said then he's already, the offender's already on the ground?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he on his, is he on his back, (noise) his stomach? How's he --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He was kinda on his side. On his right side.

KILLEN: And you said he still had the knife?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah he was holdin' it. (noise)

KILLEN: In his right hand?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: In his right hand.

KILLEN: And that was Officer Walsh kicked it from his hand?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens he's placed in custody?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Then he was, well he was obviously down, he wasn't movin' anywhere. We're surrounding him and that's (noise) (inaudible) come.

KILLEN: Okay. I mean after the knife gets kicked outta his hand, does anybody touch it to your knowledge?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Do you ever touch it?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I didn't touch it.

KILLEN: Okay. So you didn't see, you didn't see Officer Van Dyke discharge his weapon at the offender correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I saw 'em holding his weapon.

KILLEN: Right.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Just kinda (inaudible) (noise)

KILLEN: You heard gunshots but you didn't see --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: Okay. Anything you'd like to add?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right, this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer uh Joseph McElligott regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014 and the time is approximately 0451 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

Carol A. O'Leary
STATEMENT OF P.O. THOMAS GAFFNEY

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0406 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0406 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters at 51st and Wentworth. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Also present is FOP attorney Dan Herbert. (noise) Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Representative Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) POP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S. G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: [redacted]

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: 8th District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what's your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July ’96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY: [Redacted]

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I’m sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you’re aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I’d like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you’re aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin' Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you'd start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin' to get radios somethin' like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin' from the south goin' north correct?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh there was a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic uh standing by a gate um to the truck
yard. Um the gate was partially opened and uh the female had a chain in ‘er hand and then we stopped and spoke to them.

KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?
P.O.GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin’ to get um tryin’ to get into trucks. Uh
he had uh somethin’ in his hand, he had uh a wire
from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin’
about a iPhone, I don’t know if he was sayin’
that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then
we, we asked ‘em you know what he looked like,
what he was wearin’? He said he’s a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that man and woman tell you which way the, the offender
went?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north
um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that’d, that’s 41st Street?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?
P.O.GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street
and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you
know somebody walkin'. So we approached 'em, drove up to 'em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dreadlocks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he's shining on 'em. You know tell 'em to come 'ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin' at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached 'em a lil bit more and that's when he, he had seen you know tell 'em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard 'em say you know he's got a knife. So that's when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn't really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that's when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we're all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin' I, I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he's on what street?

P.O.GAFFNEY: He's on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he's, he's headed which way?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he's headed toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --
P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You're kinda behind 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn’t.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he’s got a knife that’s when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin’ the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin’ out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep ‘em goin’ east toward Pulaski?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin’.
KILLEN: So he never stops?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin'. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin' eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches 'em and then you hear McElligott say he's got a knife?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that's when I you know that's when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that's when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin', that's what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy's got a knn, we're at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin' Keeler. Uh he's got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don’t carry a taser?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn’t carry --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn’t have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars and other cars said they were comin’. So we just, we just kept stayin’ you know keepin’ our distance at the time you know I kept drivin’ along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin’ with ‘em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin’, my partner still kept givin’ ‘em verbal commands and droppin’ the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin’ turning around lookin’ back at us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin’ east. When we’re, we’re approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I knew the next block there was the Burger King, there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get 'em to go down Karlov cause there's more, you know there's just factories so there's no people down that way. So and then uh -

KILLEN: So the purpose of doin' that is keep 'em away from --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow 'em down until other cars got 'ere and make 'em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep 'em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people. (someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh, his arm down. When he did that that's when I heard like pssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where's McElligott at this time?

P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin' with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That's when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.

HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin' behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin' it down in a striking motion.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.

KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.

KILLEN: What happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin', I didn't see nothin' break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin' eastbound on 40th Street. And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet that's when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that's when he started to run. Oh yeah I, I, I (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don't remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you're still basically sittin' over at 40th and Karlov right? You see 'nother car come up Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that's, yeah he, 'nother car came off Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --

P.O.GAFFNEY: That, that's when he seen that and that's when he started runnin'.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he's still goin' towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin' and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that
the other car that came off went into the Burger
King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin'
towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb
and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car
followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O. GAFFNEY: At the time I didn't but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout
Pulaski and --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car
where then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot.
Before, before going over the curb and into the
street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the (noise) flat?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn't wanna, I didn't know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there's like lil the, the, cement tongue if you will, that, that's the parkin' lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert continue.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin' 'em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that's Pulaski you're talkin' about?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there's a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don't take the curb at all. You just --

P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin' lot to, to get out where there's a, there's the light on 41st Street. (noise)

KILLEN: And that's where your car's stopped?

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that's where my, that's where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That's when, when I saw your car was south, facin' south --

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that's right, that's where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?

P.O.GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that's when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn't see what exactly was goin' on.

KILLEN: So you're basically goin' around Burger King.

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that's when the shots I believe that's when the shots started firin'.

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin'?

P.O.GAFFNEY: No I didn't know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin'?

P.O.GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That's because --

P.O.GAFFNEY: Well there's a, yeah well there's a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence
with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
they were building some stuff there. So yeah
there was that was all blockin’ me.

KILLEN: There’s (noise) no line a sight.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
there’s no more shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don’t (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you’re goin’ south could you see the offender still?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and started to go you know ‘round to, to where everything was goin’ on.

KILLEN: Where was he?
P.O. GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the time when I, when I got over there.

KILLEN: Okay. And it’s after that then you find out
who’s shooting what happened?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah.

LOG #1072125 U#14-36

1 KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn’t see the shooting, you, you (noise) you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge the weapon?

4 P.O.GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

6 KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin’ the offender.

9 P.O.GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

11 KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?

12 P.O.GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch ’em. We didn’t know how long ago it was. Or where he would’ve went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab ’em and figured they woulda still been there when we got back.

20 KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had, as best you can describe it to me?

23 P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob’ly ‘bout four to six inch blade.

26 KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you’d like to add?

28 P.O.GAFFNEY: No.

30 KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

32 P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

INVESTIGATION:

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J-----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeated multiple times to MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife." MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT's directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D----

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of, her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as [redacted] stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

[Redacted]

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

[Redacted]

stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." [Redacted] said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

[Redacted] last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [Redacted] said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

[Redacted] had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, [Redacted].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, [Redacted] of the 9-1-1 caller, [Redacted] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [REDACTED], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [REDACTED] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [REDACTED] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [REDACTED] attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[REDACTED] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [REDACTED] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [REDACTED] with a knife, when [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[REDACTED] related the same facts as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [REDACTED], attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

And the time is approximately 0436 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Uh also present in the room is uh FOP attorney Dan Herbert. Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And then FOP Representative Kato, uh Kriston Kato.

KATO: First name is Kriston, K R I S T O N. Last name K A T O. FOP Field Representative.

KILLEN: And Officer McElligott if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Joseph McElligott, J O S E F H, McElligott, M C E L L I G O T T.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 1 8 7 1 5. (noise)

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: [redacted]

KILLEN: And your date of appointment with the Department?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 27 August '01.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?
KILLEN: And your current unit of assignment?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: The 8th District.

KILLEN: And how long you been in 8th District?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Seven years.

KILLEN: All right. Now you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of a violation of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right what was your duty status and assignment on 21 October or 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: This statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.
KILLEN: All right so what was your duty status and assignment last night at (someone coughs) 2150 hours?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Full duty.

KILLEN: Okay. What time you start work last night?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Uh 2100.

KILLEN: Is that your normal start time?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and you remember what beat you were assigned?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay and were you assigned a partner?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And who's your partner?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Uh Thomas Gaffney.

KILLEN: All right and you and Officer Gaffney you guys were assigned a vehicle?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And what kinda vehicle?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: It's a Chevy Tahoe.

KILLEN: Marked?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.
KILLEN: Okay and you and Officer Gaffney are in full uniform?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and then at about 2150 hours at about 41st and Pulaski you and uh Officer Gaffney were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: All right and if you would just um from the beginning explain to me what happened?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Uh we responded to a call of holding the offender at uh 4100 on Karlov. And um I don't know I forget the exact address.

KILLEN: So you received this, you say responded to the call. You got a call uh via OEMC?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so over the radio you get a call.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Holding the offender um somebody's stealing radios out of semi trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you re, do you remember where you and uh, where were you and Officer Gaffney when you got that call?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um we're somewhere along Archer around Kostner.

KILLEN: Okay. So you're south of 41st and Kildare?
KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's the driver?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He is the driver, yes.

KILLEN: So you guys head over to that --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: So we head over, we take Kostner up and then uh take 47th to Kildare.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens when you get there?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic um we pull up to the address and they said um that a male black wearin' a black shirt was in the, tryin' to steal the radios outta the semi. Um he was holding a, a white cord to like a phone, like a charger. And he said he's got my phone. So then he said he's right around the corner. (clears throat) So then we, we drive north to 40th Street and we turn right and then we see a male black with a black shirt.

KILLEN: Okay and what's he doin'?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He's standing there and then he kinda turns around when he sees us pull up.

KILLEN: And what happens?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point I got outta the car and
I'm giving 'em commands to stop, turn around.
And I noticed he has his left hand in his pocket like in a ball. And in his right hand he's holding something else. And then I tell 'em take his hands out of his pockets; let me see your hands. He doesn't take his hands --
KILLEN: So at this point is he, his back is to you?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: He's facing me at this point.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: And then he starts turning and walking away. And he's holding one arm out and one hand in his pocket. He continues to walk and uh then he turns again he takes both his hands out and, and at that point he has a knife in his right hand as if he just opened it up, like flipped it open and he's holdin' his hand. At that point I drew my weapon I tell 'em to drop the knife. Um he kinda has this look in his eye like, like maybe he's on some sorta drugs cause it was like his eyes like rolled back. And then he walked, he started walking east again with his hands out and then he's kinda like kinda makin' motions from side to side. He's kinda all over. Goes from the street to the, to the sidewalk. And the whole time my partner is kinda paralleling me. And he's driving and I'm had my flashlight on 'em and I'm tellin' 'em to stop. Tellin' 'em to drop, drop the weapon. Drop the knife.

KILLEN: So you're on foot correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I'm on foot, walking.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney --
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Walking with some distance between me.

KILLEN: You're behind him correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I'm yeah I'm behind him.
KILLEN: Behind the offender?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's paralleling him in the car?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He's, he's kinda like as far as I am. Like he's like to my right just a lil bit.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Or to my left just a lil bit. Um --

KILLEN: Do you close the distance on this guy?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: We just continue to follow 'em. And um then he, at one point (inaudible) my partner decides to pull towards him. And uh at that point he, the offender turned and like in a downward stabbing motion popped the front tire. My partner um at that point said that he popped the tire. Prior to that though um he had asked for an assist.

HERBERT: (inaudible)
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He'd asked for somebody to come with a taser. So as we're like tryin' to buy time this happens with the, the tire at uh Keeler. And then um we go a lil bit further and he decide, my partner decides to pull closer to 'em to kinda cause he knew Pulaski was comin' up and there was Burger King and there's a bunch a other stuff where people are. Decides to pull over a lil bit (noise) kinda to veer 'em off so that he'll go up one of the streets cause it's, it's a factory area. And we know it's always like pretty bare.
There's nobody around. Um it's after hours. At that point he um he, he grabs the knife and he, he stabs at the, the windshield. So um then he starts walkin' away. Stabbed at the windshield then he walks away from the squad car. And he's walkin' on the sidewalk again. And then um we can hear the cars comin'. And then once we can kinda see (noise) in the windows we could see the, the blue lights in the reflection and you could hear the, you could hear the sirens now. (noise) That's when he decides to take off runnin'. He just full on sprint. Uh I started runnin' after 'em. My partner's driving the car that has a flat. He's goin' after 'em too. He goes through two semis were parked in the back of the Burger King lot at 40th and Pulaski. He goes through, I go through and then I see another squad car pull. They're right behind 'em. They pull behind 'em, he goes through a sidewalk and then they go, they go around through and they (clears throat) they cut through on the sidewalk as well. Around the north side of Burger King. And then I'm followin' up running and as I get to Pulaski I turn right cause they all turned right. (clears throat) And I got to about the light (noise) I could see a bunch of squad cars comin'. And um (clears throat) I keep runnin' (noise) and then one of 'em is, he's lookin' to do a U turn, one of the other squad cars. Um so instead of getting hit I just stopped and I waved them to go. (noise) (clears throat) And at that point he turned around he, he's goin' um southbound slowly.
so I know they’re, they’re stopping right there. I hear the shots at that point. And uh when I approach I think I was running down maybe the middle that’s when I saw the offender layin’ on the ground. And at that point Joe Walsh, Officer Walsh uh he kicked, he the gun outta, or not the gun the uh the knife out of his, his right hand. (noise) Which he was still clenching at the time. And then um (noise) asked for an ambulance and that was pretty much it.

KILLEN: (clears throat) So when you guys, you’re on 40th and you see, you’re kinda walkin’ with this guy right? You see ‘em with the knife?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Right?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

HERBERT: Say yes.

KILLEN: So and you see ‘em uh uh you described it as a down motion, he stabbed the tire of the car right?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: That’s the --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: -- front passenger tire correct?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Front passenger tire.
KILLEN: Okay and then you also saw 'em stab the windshield?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Right.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. Uh and you may have said it and I may have missed it, but did you or uh Officer Gaffney get on the radio and say hey this guy’s armed. He’s got a knife?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes. Um it was before he said he popped the tire um my partner got on the radio and said (clears throat) said this guy has a knife. Can you send somebody with a taser over here. And then (inaudible) lil time passed by and then (clears throat) that’s when the tire incident.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: And then another five, ten seconds (noise) went by and (noise) attacked the car, stabbed the windshield.

KILLEN: So you’re, you were warning everybody ahead a time?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Before you got anything, he had the knife in his hand.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes. It started with uh we asked for a taser. We said he had a knife. And then we were giving uh kinda like a play by play (noise) stab, he stabbed our tire, he just popped our tire. And, you know and they're askin' if anybody's heading over there. And we're just waitin' for the assist cars to come.

KILLEN: And I take it you don't carry a taser?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I do not.

KILLEN: And then neither does Officer Gaffney correct?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So then you basically follow 'em all the way to Pulaski I take it. Karlov then Keeler somethin' like that.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Basically yeah. It was --

KILLEN: And then when the other car comes --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point he was (noise) he darted towards Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: From Karlov to Pulaski he was full on sprinting and I was running after 'em.

KILLEN: And you're after 'em. When he went between the trucks you went between the trucks with 'em?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so then when he got to Pulaski he goes south?
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY LOG #1072125 U#14-36

P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: When he got to Pulaski yeah he head, he went south around, he wrapped around the buildin’ and (noise) then Burger King.

KILLEN: And whaddid you mean cause you lost me when you said somebody wanted to make a U turn so you let them go ahead of you.

P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: There were cars coming northbound on Pulaski to assist. And they passed up, they passed him up and then came back around.

KILLEN: Oh I gotcha. Okay so he’s goin’ south --

P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: They made a U turn --

KILLEN: I gotcha.

P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: Yeah they passed him up and turned around. I don’t know if they didn’t see ‘em or if, what their reasoning was, but they, they made a U turn and they turned kinda like right at me and I just said go and I waved ‘em.

KILLEN: Now is he in the street at this time? He is runnin’ in the street or is he on the sidewalk?

P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: I didn’t see him at that point I didn’t see him because there were other squad cars in front a me. And I don’t want, I finally saw him I was in the median and I ran up towards him and that’s when at that point he was already down and the officer, other officer was kickin’ the gun, uh knife away.
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY LOG #1072125 U#14-36

KILLEN: So were you on the median when you heard the gunshots?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I was, I heard the gunshots. There's a traffic light. I heard the gunshots while I was at the traffic light. And then I waved, waved the other car to go and then um by the time I got there there were no more shots.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shooting?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I did not.

KILLEN: You didn't see anybody shooting anything like that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So by the time you got you said then he's already, the offender's already on the ground?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he on his, is he on his back, (noise) his stomach? How's he --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He was kinda on his side. On his right side.

KILLEN: And you said he still had the knife?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah he was holdin' it. (noise)

KILLEN: In his right hand?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: In his right hand.

KILLEN: And that was Officer Walsh kicked it from his hand?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens he’s placed in custody?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Then he was, well he was obviously down, he wasn’t movin’ anywhere. We’re surrounding him and that’s (noise) (inaudible) come.

KILLEN: Okay. I mean after the knife gets kicked outta his hand, does anybody touch it to your knowledge?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Do you ever touch it?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I didn’t touch it.

KILLEN: Okay. So you didn’t see, you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge his weapon at the offender correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I saw ’em holding his weapon.

KILLEN: Right.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Just kinda (inaudible) (noise)

KILLEN: You heard gunshots but you didn’t see --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: Okay. Anything you’d like to add?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer uh Joseph McElligott regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014 and the time is approximately 0451 hours.
I, CAROL A. O’LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

STATEMENT OF P.O. THOMAS GAFFNEY

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0406 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0406 hours. This statement is bein’ taken at Area Central Police Headquarters at 51st and Wentworth. My name is Investigator Killen, that’s spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Also present is FOP attorney Dan Herbert. (noise) Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Representative Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) POP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S. G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what’s your star number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.GAFFNEY:

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: 8TH District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what’s your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July '96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY: __________________

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I'm sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only givin’ this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin’ Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY

LOG #1072125 U#14-36

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you'd start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin' to get radios somethin' like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin' from the south goin' north correct?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh there was a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic uh standing by a gate um to the truck
yard. Um the gate was partially opened and uh the female had a chain in 'er hand and then we stopped and spoke to them.

KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?

P.O. GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin' to get um tryin' to get into trucks. Uh
he had uh somethin' in his hand, he had uh a wire
from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin'
about a iPhone, I don't know if he was sayin'
that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then
we, we asked 'em you know what he looked like,
what he was wearin'? He said he's a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that man and woman tell you which way the, the offender
went?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north
um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that'd, that's 41st Street?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street
and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you
know somebody walkin’. So we approached ‘em, drove up to ‘em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dread locks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he’s shining on ‘em. You know tell ‘em to come ‘ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin’ at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached ‘em a lil bit more and that’s when he, he had seen you know tell ‘em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard ‘em say you know he’s got a knife. So that’s when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn’t really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that’s when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we’re all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin’ I, I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he’s on what street?

P.O. GAFFNEY: He’s on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he’s, he’s headed which way?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he’s headed toward Pulaski?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --

P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You're kinda behind 'em?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn't.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he's got a knife that's when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin' the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin' out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep 'em goin' east toward Pulaski?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin'.
KILLEN: So he never stops?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin'. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin' eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches 'em and then you hear McElligott say he's got a knife?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that's when I you know that's when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that's when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin', that's what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy's got a knn, we're at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin' Keeler. Uh he's got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don’t carry a taser?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn’t carry --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn’t have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars and other cars said they were comin’. So we just, we just kept stayin’ you know keepin’ our distance at the time you know I kept drivin’ along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin’ with ‘em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin’, my partner still kept givin’ ‘em verbal commands and droppin’ the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin’ turning around lookin’ back at us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin’ east. When we’re, we’re approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I knew the next block there was the Burger King, there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get 'em to go down Karlov cause there's more, you know there's just factories so there's no people down that way. So and then uh -

KILLEN: So the purpose of doin' that is keep 'em away from --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow 'em down until other cars got 'ere and make 'em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep 'em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people. (someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh, his arm down. When he did that that's when I heard like psssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where's McElligott at this time?

P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin' with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That's when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.
HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin' behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin' it down in a striking motion.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.
KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.
KILLEN: What happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin', I didn't see nothin' break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin' eastbound on 40th Street.
And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet
that's when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that’s when he started to run. Oh yeah I, I, I (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don’t remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you’re still basically sittin’ over at 40th and Karlov right? You see ‘nother car come up Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that’s, yeah he, ‘nother car came off Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --

P.O.GAFFNEY: That, that’s when he seen that and that’s when he started runnin’.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he’s still goin’ towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin’ and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that the other car that came off went into the Burger King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin' towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O. GAFFNEY: At the time I didn’t but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout Pulaski and --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car where then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot. Before, before going over the curb and into the street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the (noise) flat?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn’t wanna, I didn’t know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there’s like lil the, the, cement tongue if you will, that, that’s the parkin’ lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert continue.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin’ ‘em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that’s Pulaski you’re talkin’ about?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there’s a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don’t take the curb at all. You just --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin’ lot to, to get out where there’s a, there’s the light on 41st Street. (noise)

KILLEN: And that’s where your car’s stopped?
P.O. GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that’s where my, that’s where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That’s when, when I saw your car was south, facin’ south --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that’s right, that’s where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that’s when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn’t see what exactly was goin’ on.

KILLEN: So you’re basically goin’ around Burger King.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah that’s when the shots I believe that’s when the shots started firin’.

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin’?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin’?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That’s because --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well there’s a, yeah well there’s a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence
with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
they were building some stuff there. So yeah
there was that was all blockin' me.

KILLEN: There's (noise) no line a sight.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
there's no more shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don't (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you're goin' south could you see the offender still?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and started to go you know 'round to, to where everything was goin' on.

KILLEN: Where was he?
P.O. GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the time when I, when I got over there.

KILLEN: Okay. And it's after that then you find out who's shooting what happened?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah.
KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn't see the shooting, you, you (noise) you didn't see Officer Van Dyke discharge the weapon?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn't, no.

KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin' the offender.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch 'em. We didn't know how long ago it was. Or where he would've went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab 'em and figured they woulda still been there when we got back.

KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had, as best you can describe it to me?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob'ly 'bout four to six inch blade.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you'd like to add?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

INVESTIGATION:

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE’s pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to “Drop the knife!” Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, “I have this.” VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD’s right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE’s weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE’s partner.

WALSH, Joseph J ----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver’s door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P ----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right
MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.

FONTAINE, Dora —— stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to “Drop the knife!” MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo —— stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to “Drop the knife!” MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a “T” intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014-01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. then saw heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots.
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. [redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

[redacted] insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as [redacted] stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed. [Redacted]

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

[Redacted] stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." [Redacted] said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

[Redacted] last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [Redacted] said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

[Redacted] had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, [redacted].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, [redacted] of the 9-1-1 caller, [redacted] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted] attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recorded on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

STATEMENT OF P.O. THOMAS GAFFNEY

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0406 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0406 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters at 51st and Wentworth. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Also present is FOP attorney Dan Herbert. (noise) Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Representative Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) FOP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S. G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: [redacted].

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: 8TH District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what's your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July '96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY: [Redacted].

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I'm sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin' Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you’d start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin’ to get radios somethin’ like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin’ from the south goin’ north correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh there was a [redacted] and a [redacted] uh standing by a gate um to the truck yard. Um the gate was partially opened and uh the [redacted] had a chain in 'er hand and then we stopped and spoke to them.

KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?

P.O. GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin' to get um tryin' to get into trucks. Uh he had uh somethin' in his hand, he had uh a wire from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin' about a iPhone, I don't know if he was sayin' that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then we, we asked 'em you know what he looked like, what he was wearin'? He said he's a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that [redacted] and [redacted] tell you which way the, the offender went?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that'd, that's 41st Street?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you know somebody walkin'. So we approached 'em, drove up to 'em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dread locks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he's shining on 'em. You know tell 'em to come 'ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin' at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached 'em a lil bit more and that's when he, he had seen you know tell 'em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard 'em say you know he's got a knife. So that's when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn't really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that's when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we're all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin' I, I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he's on what street?

P.O.GAFFNEY: He’s on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he’s, he’s headed which way?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he's headed toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --
P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You're kinda behind 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn’t.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he’s got a knife that’s when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin’ the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin’ out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep ‘em goin’ east toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin’.
KILLEN: So he never stops?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin'. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin' eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches 'em and then you hear McElligott say he's got a knife?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that's when I you know that's when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that's when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin', that's what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy's got a knn, we're at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin' Keeler. Uh he's got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don't carry a taser?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn't, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn't carry --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn't have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars and other cars said they were comin'. So we just, we just kept stayin' you know keepin' our distance at the time you know I kept drivin' along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin' with 'em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin', my partner still kept givin' 'em verbal commands and droppin' the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin' turning around lookin' back at us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin' east. When we're, we're approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I knew the next block there was the Burger King, there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get 'em to go down Karlov cause there's more, you know there's just factories so there's no people down that way. So and then uh -
KILLEN: So the purpose of doin' that is keep 'em away
from --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow 'em down until other cars got 'ere and make 'em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep 'em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people.
(someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh, his arm down. When he did that that's when I heard like pssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where's McElligott at this time?
P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin' with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That's when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.
HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin' behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin' it down in a striking motion.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.

KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.

KILLEN: What happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin', I didn't see nothin' break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin' eastbound on 40th Street.
And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet
that's when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that’s when he started to run. Oh yeah I, I, I (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don’t remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you’re still basically sittin’ over at 40th and Karlov right? You see ‘nother car come up Pulaski?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that’s, yeah he, ‘nother car came off Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --
P.O.GAFFNEY: That, that’s when he seen that and that’s when he started runnin’.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?
P.O.GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he’s still goin’ towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)
P.O.GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin’ and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that
the other car that came off went into the Burger
King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin'
towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb
and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car
followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're
talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O.GAFFNEY: At the time I didn't but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout
Pulaski and --
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O.GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's
the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car
where then?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot.
Before, before going over the curb and into the
street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the (noise) flat?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn't wanna, I didn't know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there's like lil the, the, cement tongue if you will, that, that's the parkin' lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert continue.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin' 'em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that's Pulaski you're talkin' about?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there's a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don't take the curb at all. You just --

P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin' lot to, to get out where there's a, there's the light on 41st Street. (noise)

KILLEN: And that's where your car's stopped?

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that's where my, that's where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That’s when, when I saw your car was south, facin’ south --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that’s right, that’s where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that’s when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn’t see what exactly was goin’ on.

KILLEN: So you’re basically goin’ around Burger King.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah that’s when the shots I believe that’s when the shots started firin’.

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin’?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin’?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That’s because --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well there’s a, yeah well there’s a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence
with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
they were building some stuff there. So yeah
there was that was all blockin’ me.

KILLEN: There’s (noise) no line a sight.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
there’s no more shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don’t (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you’re goin’ south could you see the offender still?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and started to go you know ‘round to, to where everything was goin’ on.

KILLEN: Where was he?
P.O. GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the time when I, when I got over there.

KILLEN: Okay. And it’s after that then you find out
who’s shooting what happened?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah.
KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn’t see the shooting, you, you (noise) you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge the weapon?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin’ the offender.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch ’em. We didn’t know how long ago it was. Or where he would’ve went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab ’em and figured they woulda still been there when we got back.

KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had, as best you can describe it to me?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob’ly ’bout four to six inch blade.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you’d like to add?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ------

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin’
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.

FONTAINE, Dora ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Officer Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D —-

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

[redacted] stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

[redacted] stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. [redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD “worked out his problems.” said that MCDONALD attended school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him “freak out.”

last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. said they “buzzed” MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, .

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, of the 9-1-1 caller, was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted] attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE’s use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department’s use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

STATEMENT OF P.O. JOSEPH McELLIGOTT

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0436 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Joseph McElligott regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0436 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Uh also present in the room is uh FOP attorney Dan Herbert. Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And then FOP Representative Kato, uh Kriston Kato.

KATO: First name is Kriston, K R I S T O N. Last name K A T O. FOP Field Representative.

KILLEN: And Officer McElligott if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Joseph McElligott, J O S E F H, McElligott, M C E L L I G O T T.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 1 8 7 1 5. (noise)

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: [redacted]

KILLEN: And your date of appointment with the Department?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 27 August '01.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?
KILLEN: And your current unit of assignment?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: The 8th District.

KILLEN: And how long you been in 8th District?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Seven years.

KILLEN: All right. Now you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of a violation of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right what was your duty status and assignment on 21 October or 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: This statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.
KILLEN: All right so what was your duty status and assignment last night at (someone coughs) 2150 hours?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Full duty.

KILLEN: Okay. What time you start work last night?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Uh 2100.

KILLEN: Is that your normal start time?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and you remember what beat you were assigned?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay and were you assigned a partner?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And who's your partner?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Uh Thomas Gaffney.

KILLEN: All right and you and Officer Gaffney you guys were assigned a vehicle?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And what kinda vehicle?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: It's a Chevy Tahoe.

KILLEN: Marked?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.
KILLEN: Okay and you and Officer Gaffney are in full uniform?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and then at about 2150 hours at about 41st and Pulaski you and uh Officer Gaffney were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: All right and if you would just um from the beginning explain to me what happened?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Uh we responded to a call of holding the offender at uh 4100 on Karlov. And um I don’t know I forget the exact address.

KILLEN: So you received this, you say responded to the call. You got a call uh via OEMC?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so over the radio you get a call.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Holding the offender um somebody’s stealing radios out of semi trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you re, do you remember where you and uh, where were you and Officer Gaffney when you got that call?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um we’re somewhere along Archer around Kostner.

KILLEN: Okay. So you’re south of 41st and Kildare?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.
KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's the driver?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He is the driver, yes.

KILLEN: So you guys head over to that --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: So we head over, we take Kostner up and then uh take 47th to Kildare.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens when you get there?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic um we pull up to the address and they said um that a male black wearin' a black shirt was in the, tryin' to steal the radios outta the semi. Um he was holding a, a white cord to like a phone, like a charger. And he said he's got my phone. So then he said he's right around the corner. (clears throat) So then we, we drive north to 40th Street and we turn right and then we see a male black with a black shirt.

KILLEN: Okay and what's he doin'?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He's standing there and then he kinda turns around when he sees us pull up.

KILLEN: And what happens?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point I got outta the car and I'm giving 'em commands to stop, turn around. And I noticed he has his left hand in his pocket like in a ball. And in his right hand he's holding something else. And then I tell 'em take his hands out of his pockets; let me see your hands. He doesn't take his hands --
KILLEN: So at this point is he, his back is to you?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He’s facing me at this point.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: And then he starts turning and walking away. And he’s holding one arm out and one hand in his pocket. He continues to walk and uh then he turns again he takes both his hands out and, and at that point he has a knife in his right hand as if he just opened it up, like flipped it open and he’s holdin’ his hand. At that point I drew my weapon I tell ‘em to drop the knife. Um he kinda has this look in his eye like, like maybe he’s on some sorta drugs cause it was like his eyes like rolled back. And then he walked, he started walking east again with his hands out and then he’s kinda like kinda makin’ motions from side to side. He’s kinda all over. Goes from the street to the, to the sidewalk. And the whole time my partner is kinda paralleling me. And he’s driving and I’m had my flashlight on ‘em and I’m tellin’ ‘em to stop. Tellin’ ‘em to drop, drop the weapon. Drop the knife.

KILLEN: So you’re on foot correct?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I’m on foot, walking.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Walking with some distance between me.

KILLEN: You’re behind him correct?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I’m yeah I’m behind him.
KILLEN: Behind the offender?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's paralleling him in the car?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He's, he's kinda like as far as I am.
Like he's like to my right just a lil bit.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Or to my left just a lil bit. Um --

KILLEN: Do you close the distance on this guy?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: We just continue to follow 'em. And um then he, at one point (inaudible) my partner decides to pull towards him. And uh at that point he, the offender turned and like in a downward stabbing motion popped the front tire.
My partner um at that point said that he popped the tire. Prior to that though um he had asked for an assist.

HERBERT: (inaudible)
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He'd asked for somebody to come with a taser. So as we're like tryin' to buy time this happens with the, the tire at uh Keeler. And then um we go a lil bit further and he decide, my partner decides to pull closer to 'em to kinda cause he knew Pulaski was comin' up and there was Burger King and there's a bunch a other stuff where people are. Decides to pull over a lil bit (noise) kinda to veer 'em off so that he'll go up one of the streets cause it's, it's a factory area. And we know it's always like pretty bare.
There's nobody around. Um it's after hours. At that point he um he, he grabs the knife and he, he stabs at the, the windshield. So um then he starts walkin' away. Stabbed at the windshield then he walks away from the squad car. And he's walkin' on the sidewalk again. And then um we can hear the cars comin'. And then once we can kinda see (noise) in the windows we could see the, the blue lights in the reflection and you could hear the, you could hear the sirens now. (noise) That's when he decides to take off runnin'. He just full on sprint. Uh I started runnin' after 'em. My partner's driving the car that has a flat. He's goin' after 'em too. He goes through two semis were parked in the back of the Burger King lot at 40th and Pulaski. He goes through, I go through and then I see another squad car pull. They're right behind 'em. They pull behind 'em, he goes through a sidewalk and then they go, they go around through and they (clears throat) they cut through on the sidewalk as well. Around the north side of Burger King. And then I'm followin' up running and as I get to Pulaski I turn right cause they all turned right. (clears throat) And I got to about the light (noise) I could see a bunch of squad cars comin'. And um (clears throat) I keep runnin' (noise) and then one of 'em is, he's lookin' to do a U turn, one of the other squad cars. Um so instead of getting hit I just stopped and I waved them to go. (noise) (clears throat) And at that point he turned around he, he's goin' um southbound slowly.
so I know they're, they're stopping right there.
I hear the shots at that point. And uh when I approach I think I was running down maybe the middle that's when I saw the offender layin' on the ground. And at that point Joe Walsh, Officer Walsh uh he kicked, he the gun outta, or not the gun the uh the knife out of his, his right hand.
(noise) Which he was still clenching at the time.
And then um (noise) asked for an ambulance and that was pretty much it.

KILLEN: (clears throat) So when you guys, you're on 40th and you see, you're kinda walkin' with this guy right? You see 'em with the knife?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Right?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.
HERBERT: Say yes.

KILLEN: So and you see 'em uh uh you described it as a down motion, he stabbed the tire of the car right?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: That's the --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: -- front passenger tire correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Front passenger tire.
KILLEN: Okay and then you also saw 'em stab the windshield?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Right.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. Uh and you may have said it and I may have missed it, but did you or uh Officer Gaffney get on the radio and say hey this guy's armed. He's got a knife?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes. Um it was before he said he popped the tire um my partner got on the radio and said (clears throat) said this guy has a knife. Can you send somebody with a taser over here. And then (inaudible) lil time passed by and then (clears throat) that's when the tire incident.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: And then another five, ten seconds (noise) went by and (noise) attacked the car, stabbed the windshield.

KILLEN: So you're, you were warning everybody ahead a time?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Before you got anything, he had the knife in his hand.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes. It started with uh we asked for a taser. We said he had a knife. And then we were giving uh kinda like a play by play (noise) stab,
he stabbed our tire, he just popped our tire.
And, you know and they're askin' if anybody's heading over there. And we're just waitin' for the assist cars to come.

KILLEN: And I take it you don't carry a taser?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I do not.

KILLEN: And then neither does Officer Gaffney correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So then you basically follow 'em all the way to Pulaski I take it. Karlov then Keeler somethin' like that.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Basically yeah. It was --

KILLEN: And then when the other car comes --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point he was (noise) he darted towards Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: From Karlov to Pulaski he was full on sprinting and I was running after 'em.

KILLEN: And you're after 'em. When he went between the trucks you went between the trucks with 'em?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so then when he got to Pulaski he goes
south?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: When he got to Pulaski yeah he head, he went south around, he wrapped around the buildin' and (noise) then Burger King.

KILLEN: And whaddid you mean cause you lost me when you said somebody wanted to make a U turn so you let them go ahead of you.

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: There were cars coming northbound on Pulaski to assist. And they passed up, they passed him up and then came back around.

KILLEN: Oh I gotcha. Okay so he's goin' south --

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: They made a U turn --

KILLEN: I gotcha.

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yeah they passed him up and turned around. I don't know if they didn't see 'em or if, what their reasoning was, but they, they made a U turn and they turned kinda like right at me and I just said go and I waved 'em.

KILLEN: Now is he in the street at this time? He is runnin' in the street or is he on the sidewalk?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I didn't see him at that point I didn't see him because there were other squad cars in front a me. And I don't want, I finally saw him I was in the median and I ran up towards him and that's when at that point he was already down and the officer, other officer was kickin' the gun, uh knife away.
KILLEN: So were you on the median when you heard the gunshots?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I was, I heard the gunshots. There’s a traffic light. I heard the gunshots while I was at the traffic light. And then I waved, waved the other car to go and then um by the time I got there there were no more shots.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shooting?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I did not.

KILLEN: You didn’t see anybody shooting anything like that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So by the time you got you said then he’s already, the offender’s already on the ground?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he on his, is he on his back, (noise) his stomach? How’s he --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He was kinda on his side. On his right side.

KILLEN: And you said he still had the knife?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah he was holdin’ it. (noise)

KILLEN: In his right hand?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: In his right hand.

KILLEN: And that was Officer Walsh kicked it from his hand?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens he’s placed in custody?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Then he was, well he was obviously down, he wasn’t movin’ anywhere. We’re surrounding him and that’s (noise) (inaudible) come.

KILLEN: Okay. I mean after the knife gets kicked outta his hand, does anybody touch it to your knowledge?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Do you ever touch it?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I didn’t touch it.

KILLEN: Okay. So you didn’t see, you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge his weapon at the offender correct?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I saw ’em holding his weapon.

KILLEN: Right.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Just kinda (inaudible) (noise)

KILLEN: You heard gunshots but you didn’t see --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: Okay. Anything you’d like to add?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer uh Joseph McElligott regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014 and the time is approximately 0451 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

STATEMENT OF P.O. THOMAS GAFFNEY

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0406 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0406 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters at 51st and Wentworth. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L LEN. My star number is 1 2 9. Also present is FOP attorney Dan Herbert. (noise) Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh POP Representative Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) POP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S. G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what’s your star number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: [redacted].

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: 8TH District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what’s your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July '96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY: [Redacted].

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I'm sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin' Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?
P.O.GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you'd start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin' to get radios somethin' like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin' from the south goin' north correct?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh there was a [redacted] [redacted] and a [redacted] uh standing by a gate um to the truck yard. Um the gate was partially opened and uh the had a chain in 'er hand and then we stopped and spoke to them.

KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?
P.O.GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin' to get um tryin' to get into trucks. Uh
he had uh somethin' in his hand, he had uh a wire
from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin'
about a iPhone, I don't know if he was sayin'
that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then
we, we asked 'em you know what he looked like,
what he was wearin'? He said he's a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that and tell you which way the, the offender
went?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north
um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that'd, that's 41st Street?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?
P.O.GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street
and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you know somebody walkin'. So we approached 'em, drove up to 'em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dread locks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he's shining on 'em. You know tell 'em to come 'ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin' at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached 'em a lil bit more and that's when he, he had seen you know tell 'em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard 'em say you know he's got a knife. So that's when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn't really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that's when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we're all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin' I,
I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he's on what street?

P.O. GAFFNEY: He's on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he's, he's headed which way?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he's headed toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --
P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You're kinda behind 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn’t.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he’s got a knife that’s when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin’ the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin’ out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep ‘em goin’ east toward Pulaski?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin’.
KILLEN: So he never stops?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin’. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin’ eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches ‘em and then you hear McElligott say he’s got a knife?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that’s when I you know that’s when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that’s when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin’, that’s what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy’s got a knn, we’re at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin’ Keeler. Uh he’s got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don’t carry a taser?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn’t carry --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn’t have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars
and other cars said they were comin’. So we just, we just kept stayin’ you know keepin’ our distance at the time you know I kept drivin’
along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin’ with ‘em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin’, my partner still kept givin’ ‘em
verbal commands and droppin’ the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin’ turning around lookin’ back at us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin’ east. When we’re,
we’re approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I knew the next block there was the Burger King, there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get 'em to go down Karlov cause there's more, you know there's just factories so there's no people down that way. So and then uh - -

KILLEN: So the purpose of doin' that is keep 'em away from --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow 'em down until other cars got 'ere and make 'em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep 'em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people. (someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh, his arm down. When he did that that's when I heard like pssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where's McElligott at this time?

P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin' with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That's when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.

HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin' behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin' it down in a striking motion.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.

KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.

KILLEN: What happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin', I didn't see nothin' break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin' eastbound on 40th Street.
And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet
that's when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that's when he started to run. Oh yeah I, I, I (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don't remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you're still basically sittin' over at 40th and Karlov right? You see 'nother car come up Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that's, yeah he, 'nother car came off Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --

P.O.GAFFNEY: That, that's when he seen that and that's when he started runnin'.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he's still goin' towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin' and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that the other car that came off went into the Burger King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin' towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O. GAFFNEY: At the time I didn't but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout Pulaski and --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car where then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot. Before, before going over the curb and into the street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the (noise) flat?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn’t wanna, I didn’t know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there’s like lil the, the, cement tongue if you will, that, that’s the parkin’ lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert continue.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin’ ‘em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that’s Pulaski you’re talkin’ about?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there’s a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don’t take the curb at all. You just --

P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin’ lot to, to get out where there’s a, there’s the light on 41st Street. (noise)

KILLEN: And that’s where your car’s stopped?

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that’s where my, that’s where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That's when, when I saw your car was south, facin' south --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that's right, that's where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that's when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn't see what exactly was goin' on.

KILLEN: So you're basically goin' around Burger King.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah that's when the shots I believe that's when the shots started firin'..

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin'?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn't know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin'?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That's because --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well there's a, yeah well there's a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence
with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
they were building some stuff there. So yeah
there was that was all blockin' me.

KILLEN: There's (noise) no line a sight.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
there's no more shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don't (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you're goin' south could you see the offender still?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and started to go you know 'round to, to where everything was goin' on.

KILLEN: Where was he?
P.O. GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the time when I, when I got over there.

KILLEN: Okay. And it's after that then you find out who's shooting what happened?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah.
KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn’t see the shooting, you, you (noise) you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge the weapon?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin’ the offender.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch ’em. We didn’t know how long ago it was. Or where he would’ve went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab ’em and figured they woulda still been there when we got back.

KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had, as best you can describe it to me?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob’ly ’bout four to six inch blade.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you’d like to add?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O’LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

INVESTIGATION:

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed /
Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
The full format for this investigation is contained in the previous Progress - Scene Report.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J ---- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer McElligott exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan McDonald. Gaffney stayed in the vehicle in case McDonald fled. McElligott called to McDonald and told him to stop but McDonald continued walking eastbound, ignoring McElligott. McDonald’s hands were in his pockets as he walked. McElligott told McDonald to take his hands out of his pockets. McDonald took his hands out of his pockets and McElligott told Gaffney that McDonald had a knife. Gaffney then saw a silver colored knife in McDonald’s right hand. Gaffney also saw that McElligott had his handgun drawn at this point. McElligott repeatedly ordered McDonald to "Drop the knife," but McDonald ignored these directions. As McDonald reached Keeler Avenue, Gaffney notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

McDonald continued walking eastbound, Officer McElligott following on foot and Officer Gaffney following in the police vehicle. As McDonald approached Karlov Avenue, Gaffney turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. Gaffney said he wanted to stop McDonald before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where McDonald was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When Gaffney stopped his vehicle in front of McDonald, blocking his path, McDonald stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. Gaffney immediately informed the radio dispatcher that McDonald had "popped" the tire. McElligott attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and Gaffney drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block McDonald’s path. McDonald then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. McDonald then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As McDonald approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. McDonald began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued McDonald in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer Gaffney lost sight of McDonald when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer Gaffney did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, Gaffney heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski McDonald was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer Gaffney wore the same uniform configuration as Officer Van Dyke with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

McElligott, Joseph P——

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. McElligott related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas Gaffney.

Officer McElligott added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan McDonald took his hands out of his pockets and McElligott saw McDonald holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife." MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.

FONTAINE, Dora -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD’s knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, [redacted], who was working at the drive-thru window. [redacted] observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. [redacted] last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. [redacted] then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at [redacted] of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. [redacted] heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was [redacted] of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was [redacted] of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse [redacted], recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Officer Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ———

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. [redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the , elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." said that MCDONALD attended school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, .

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, of the 9-1-1 caller, "was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted] attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

815R: inaudible..... we're at 40th and Keeler. This guy uh is walking away from us and he's got a knife in his hand Disp: Alright, anybody have a taser to help out four-o and Keeler for 815R looking for a taser. Armed offender.

812: 812, we'll go over. Coming from Archer and Mulligan

Disp: Alright I got 812 coming. Anyone else closer? 40 and Keeler with a taser

849: 849

Disp: 849?

849: inaudible .....2860.........

Disp: Stand by until I get help for 15R

Disp: I got four – 0, yes, four zero and Keeler. Four zero and Keeler.

815R: He's walking east bound towards Pulaski .......down 40th Disp: I heard going east bound. What else?

815R: Towards Pulaski. Coming off of Pulaski right by the Burger King.on 40th come off that way

815R: Alright, walking toward Pulaski from Keeler, eastbound on 40th street again, armed with knife

Disp: Anybody with 815R yet?
25:37 time stamp
830: 830
Disp: Anybody close yet? Four – O and Keeler Unk: inaudible.........
Disp: O.K. we gotta hold man so I can help for 815R asking for a taser for an armed offender with a knife

26:08 time stamp
815R: he popped our tire on our car squad
845R: 45R we are about two blocks away
Disp: 45R ten-four. Again first unit with them, let me know. 15R, Karlov good? Or are you more by Pulaski now?
815R: We're going into the Burger King
Disp: Headed to the Burger King. 45R I see you pulling up
??R: We're heading over there
841R: Throw it in our box
Disp: ........stopped yet?
Disp: Let me know when he's in custody guys

27:23 time stamp
Unk: Shots fired by the police
Disp: Shots fired by the police
Unk: Shots fired by the police
Unk: get fire over here
Disp: You guys OK?
Xxxx: (female voice) Everything's fine
Disp: We're using 41st and Pulaski? Where?

Disp: Any Sergeants headed that way?

810R: 810R I head that way

Disp: 10-4

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: 27 August '01.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?
KILLEN: And your current unit of assignment?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: The 8th District.

KILLEN: And how long you been in 8th District?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Seven years.

KILLEN: All right. Now you’re aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I’d like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of a violation of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right what was your duty status and assignment on 21 October or 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: This statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I am only givin’ this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.
KILLEN: All right so what was your duty status and assignment last night at (someone coughs) 2150 hours?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Full duty.

KILLEN: Okay. What time you start work last night?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Uh 2100.

KILLEN: Is that your normal start time?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and you remember what beat you were assigned?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay and were you assigned a partner?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And who's your partner?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Uh Thomas Gaffney.

KILLEN: All right and you and Officer Gaffney you guys were assigned a vehicle?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And what kinda vehicle?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: It's a Chevy Tahoe.

KILLEN: Marked?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.
KILLEN: Okay and you and Officer Gaffney are in full uniform?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and then at about 2150 hours at about 41st and Pulaski you and uh Officer Gaffney were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: All right and if you would just um from the beginning explain to me what happened?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Uh we responded to a call of holding the offender at uh 4100 on Karlov. And um I don't know I forget the exact address.

KILLEN: So you received this, you say responded to the call. You got a call uh via OEMC?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so over the radio you get a call.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Holding the offender um somebody's stealing radios out of semi trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you re, do you remember where you and uh, where were you and Officer Gaffney when you got that call?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um we're somewhere along Archer around Kostner.

KILLEN: Okay. So you're south of 41st and Kildare?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.
KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's the driver?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He is the driver, yes.

KILLEN: So you guys head over to that --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: So we head over, we take Kostner up and then uh take 47th to Kildare.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens when you get there?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic um we pull up to the address and they said um that a male black wearin' a black shirt was in the, tryin' to steal the radios outta the semi. Um he was holding a, a white cord to like a phone, like a charger. And he said he's got my phone. So then he said he's right around the corner. (clears throat) So then we, we drive north to 40th Street and we turn right and then we see a male black with a black shirt.

KILLEN: Okay and what's he doin'?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He's standing there and then he kinda turns around when he sees us pull up.

KILLEN: And what happens?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point I got outta the car and I'm giving 'em commands to stop, turn around. And I noticed he has his left hand in his pocket like in a ball. And in his right hand he's holding something else. And then I tell 'em take his hands out of his pockets; let me see your hands. He doesn't take his hands --
KILLEN: So at this point is he, his back is to you?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: He’s facing me at this point.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: And then he starts turning and walking away. And he’s holding one arm out and one hand in his pocket. He continues to walk and uh then he turns again he takes both his hands out and, and at that point he has a knife in his right hand as if he just opened it up, like flipped it open and he’s holdin’ his hand. At that point I drew my weapon I tell ‘em to drop the knife. Um he kinda has this look in his eye like, like maybe he’s on some sorta drugs cause it was like his eyes like rolled back. And then he walked, he started walking east again with his hands out and then he’s kinda like kinda makin’ motions from side to side. He’s kinda all over. Goes from the street to the, to the sidewalk. And the whole time my partner is kinda paralleling me. And he’s driving and I’m had my flashlight on ‘em and I’m tellin’ ‘em to stop. Tellin’ ‘em to drop, drop the weapon. Drop the knife.

KILLEN: So you’re on foot correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I’m on foot, walking.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney --
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Walking with some distance between me.

KILLEN: You’re behind him correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I’m yeah I’m behind him.
KILLEN: Behind the offender?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's paralleling him in the car?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He's, he's kinda like as far as I am. Like he's like to my right just a lil bit.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Or to my left just a lil bit. Um --

KILLEN: Do you close the distance on this guy?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: We just continue to follow 'em. And um then he, at one point (inaudible) my partner decides to pull towards him. And uh at that point he, the offender turned and like in a downward stabbing motion popped the front tire. My partner um at that point said that he popped the tire. Prior to that though um he had asked for an assist.

HERBERT: (inaudible)
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He'd asked for somebody to come with a taser. So as we're like tryin' to buy time this happens with the, the tire at uh Keeler. And then um we go a lil bit further and he decide, my partner decides to pull closer to 'em to kinda cause he knew Pulaski was comin' up and there was Burger King and there's a bunch a other stuff where people are. Decides to pull over a lil bit (noise) kinda to veer 'em off so that he'll go up one of the streets cause it's, it's a factory area. And we know it's always like pretty bare.
There's nobody around. Um it's after hours. At that point he um he, he grabs the knife and he, he stabs at the, the windshield. So um then he starts walkin' away. Stabbed at the windshield then he walks away from the squad car. And he's walkin' on the sidewalk again. And then um we can hear the cars comin'. And then once we can kinda see (noise) in the windows we could see the, the blue lights in the reflection and you could hear the, you could hear the sirens now.
(noise) That's when he decides to take off runnin'. He just full on sprint. Uh I started runnin' after 'em. My partner's driving the car that has a flat. He's goin' after 'em too. He goes through two semis were parked in the back of the Burger King lot at 40th and Pulaski. He goes through, I go through and then I see another squad car pull. They're right behind 'em. They pull behind 'em, he goes through a sidewalk and then they go, they go around through and they (clears throat) they cut through on the sidewalk as well. Around the north side of Burger King.
And then I'm followin' up running and as I get to Pulaski I turn right cause they all turned right.
(clears throat) And I got to about the light
(noise) I could see a bunch of squad cars comin'.
And um (clears throat) I keep runnin' (noise) and then one of 'em is, he's lookin' to do a U turn, one of the other squad cars. Um so instead of getting hit I just stopped and I waved them to go. (noise) (clears throat) And at that point he turned around he, he's goin' um southbound slowly.
so I know they're, they're stopping right there.
I hear the shots at that point. And uh when I approach I think I was running down maybe the middle that's when I saw the offender layin' on the ground. And at that point Joe Walsh, Officer Walsh uh he kicked, he the gun outta, or not the gun the uh the knife out of his, his right hand.
(noise) Which he was still clenching at the time.
And then um (noise) asked for an ambulance and
that was pretty much it.

KILLEN: (clears throat) So when you guys, you're on 40th and you see, you're kinda walkin' with this guy right? You see 'em with the knife?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Right?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

HERBERT: Say yes.

KILLEN: So and you see 'em uh uh you described it as a down motion, he stabbed the tire of the car right?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: That's the --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: -- front passenger tire correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Front passenger tire.
KILLEN: Okay and then you also saw 'em stab the windshield?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Right.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. Uh and you may have said it and I may have missed it, but did you or uh Officer Gaffney get on the radio and say hey this guy's armed. He's got a knife?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes. Um it was before he said he popped the tire um my partner got on the radio and said (clears throat) said this guy has a knife. Can you send somebody with a taser over here. And then (inaudible) lil time passed by and then (clears throat) that's when the tire incident.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: And then another five, ten seconds (noise) went by and (noise) attacked the car, stabbed the windshield.

KILLEN: So you’re, you were warning everybody ahead a time?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Before you got anything, he had the knife in his hand.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes. It started with uh we asked for a taser. We said he had a knife. And then we were giving uh kinda like a play by play (noise) stab, he stabbed our tire, he just popped our tire. And, you know and they're askin' if anybody's heading over there. And we're just waitin' for the assist cars to come.

KILLEN: And I take it you don't carry a taser?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I do not.

KILLEN: And then neither does Officer Gaffney correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So then you basically follow 'em all the way to Pulaski I take it. Karlov then Keeler somethin' like that.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Basically yeah. It was --

KILLEN: And then when the other car comes --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point he was (noise) he darted towards Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: From Karlov to Pulaski he was full on sprinting and I was running after 'em.

KILLEN: And you're after 'em. When he went between the trucks you went between the trucks with 'em?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so then when he got to Pulaski he goes south?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: When he got to Pulaski yeah he head, he went south around, he wrapped around the buildin’ and (noise) then Burger King.

KILLEN: And whaddid you mean cause you lost me when you said somebody wanted to make a U turn so you let them go ahead of you.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: There were cars coming northbound on Pulaski to assist. And they passed up, they passed him up and then came back around.

KILLEN: Oh I gotcha. Okay so he’s goin’ south --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: They made a U turn --

KILLEN: I gotcha.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah they passed him up and turned around. I don’t know if they didn’t see ‘em or if, what their reasoning was, but they, they made a U turn and they turned kinda like right at me and I just said go and I waved ‘em.

KILLEN: Now is he in the street at this time? He is runnin’ in the street or is he on the sidewalk?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I didn’t see him at that point I didn’t see him because there were other squad cars in front a me. And I don’t want, I finally saw him
I was in the median and I ran up towards him and that’s when at that point he was already down and the officer, other officer was kickin’ the gun, uh knife away.
KILLEN: So were you on the median when you heard the gunshots?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I was, I heard the gunshots. There's a traffic light. I heard the gunshots while I was at the traffic light. And then I waved, waved the other car to go and then um by the time I got there there were no more shots.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shooting?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I did not.

KILLEN: You didn't see anybody shooting anything like that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So by the time you got you said then he's already, the offender’s already on the ground?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he on his, is he on his back, (noise) his stomach? How's he --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He was kinda on his side. On his right side.

KILLEN: And you said he still had the knife?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah he was holdin' it. (noise)

KILLEN: In his right hand?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: In his right hand.

KILLEN: And that was Officer Walsh kicked it from his hand?
KILLEN: Okay. And what happens he’s placed in custody?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Then he was, well he was obviously down, he wasn’t movin’ anywhere. We’re surrounding him and that’s (noise) (inaudible) come.

KILLEN: Okay. I mean after the knife gets kicked outta his hand, does anybody touch it to your knowledge?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Do you ever touch it?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I didn’t touch it.

KILLEN: Okay. So you didn’t see, you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge his weapon at the offender correct?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I saw ’em holding his weapon.

KILLEN: Right.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Just kinda (inaudible) (noise)

KILLEN: You heard gunshots but you didn’t see --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: Okay. Anything you’d like to add?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer uh Joseph McElligott regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014 and the time is approximately 0451 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

Carol A. O'Leary
STATEMENT OF P.O. THOMAS GAFFNEY

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0406 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0406 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters at 51st and Wentworth. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Also present is FOP attorney Dan Herbert. (noise) Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names. HERBERT: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Representative Kato.
KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) FOP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.
P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S.

G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?
P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?
P.O.GAFFNEY: [redacted].

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)
P.O.GAFFNEY: 8th District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what's your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July '96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY: [redacted].

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I'm sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin' Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you’d start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin' to get radios somethin' like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin' from the south goin' north correct?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh there was a and a standing by a gate um to the truck

yard. Um the gate was partially opened and uh the had a chain in 'er hand and then we stopped and spoke to them.

KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?
P.O. GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin' to get um tryin' to get into trucks. Uh
he had uh somethin' in his hand, he had uh a wire
from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin'
about a iPhone, I don't know if he was sayin'
that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then
we, we asked 'em you know what he looked like,
what he was wearin'? He said he's a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that and and ⮕ tell you which way the, the offender got?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north
um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that’d, that’s 41st Street?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street
and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you know somebody walkin'. So we approached 'em, drove up to 'em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dread locks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he's shining on 'em. You know tell 'em to come 'ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin' at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached 'em a lil bit more and that's when he, he had seen you know tell 'em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard 'em say you know he's got a knife. So that's when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn't really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that's when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we're all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin' I, I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he's on what street?

P.O.GAFFNEY: He's on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he's, he's headed which way?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he’s headed toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --
P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You’re kinda behind 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn’t.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he’s got a knife that’s when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin’ the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin’ out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep ‘em goin’ east toward Pulaski?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin’.
KILLEN: So he never stops?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin'. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin' eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches 'em and then you hear McElligott say he's got a knife?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that's when I you know that's when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that's when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin', that's what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy's got a knn, we're at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin' Keeler. Uh he's got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don’t carry a taser?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn’t carry --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn’t have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars
and other cars said they were comin’. So we just, we just kept stayin’ you know keepin’ our distance at the time you know I kept drivin’
along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin’ with ‘em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin’, my partner still kept givin’ ‘em
verbal commands and droppin’ the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin’ turning around lookin’ back at us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin’ east. When we’re,
we’re approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I knew the next block there was the Burger King,
there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get 'em to go down Karlov cause there's more, you know there's just factories so there's no people down that way. So and then uh -
KILLEN: So the purpose of doin' that is keep 'em away
from --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow 'em down until other cars got 'ere and make 'em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep 'em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people.
(someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh,
his arm down. When he did that that's when I heard like pssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where's McElligott at this time?
P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin' with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That's when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.

HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin' behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin' it down in a striking motion.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.

KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.

KILLEN: What happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin', I didn't see nothin' break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin' eastbound on 40th Street. And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet that's when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that's when he started to run. Oh yeah I, I, I (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don't remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you're still basically sittin' over at 40th and Karlov right? You see 'nother car come up Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that's, yeah he, 'nother car came off Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --

P.O.GAFFNEY: That, that's when he seen that and that's when he started runnin'.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he's still goin' towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin' and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that
the other car that came off went into the Burger
King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin'
towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb
and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car
followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O. GAFFNEY: At the time I didn't but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout
Pulaski and --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car
where then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot.
Before, before going over the curb and into the
street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the (noise) flat?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn’t wanna, I didn’t know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there’s like lil the, the, cement tongue if you will, that, that’s the parkin’ lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert continue.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin’ ‘em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that’s Pulaski you’re talkin’ about?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there’s a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don’t take the curb at all. You just --

P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin’ lot to, to get out where there’s a, there’s the light on 41st Street. (noise)

KILLEN: And that’s where your car’s stopped?

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that’s where my, that’s where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That’s when, when I saw your car was south, facin’ south --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that’s right, that’s where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that’s when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn’t see what exactly was goin’ on.

KILLEN: So you’re basically goin’ around Burger King.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah that’s when the shots I believe that’s when the shots started firin’.

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin’?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin’?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That’s because --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well there’s a, yeah well there’s a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence
with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
they were building some stuff there. So yeah
there was that was all blockin’ me.

KILLEN: There’s (noise) no line a sight.
P.O.GAFFNEY: No, no.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
there’s no more shooting correct?
P.O.GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don’t (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you’re goin’ south could you see the offender still?
P.O.GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and started to go you know ‘round to, to where everything was goin’ on.

KILLEN: Where was he?
P.O.GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the time when I, when I got over there.

KILLEN: Okay. And it’s after that then you find out
who’s shooting what happened?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah.
KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn't see the shooting, you,
(you (noise) you didn't see Officer Van Dyke
discharge the weapon?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn't, no.

KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin' the offender.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch 'em. We didn't know how long ago it was. Or where he would've went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab 'em and figured they woulda still been there when we got back.

KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had,
as best you can describe it to me?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob'ly
'bout four to six inch blade.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you'd like to add?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD’s hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD’s right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife,” but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD’s path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.

FONTAINE, Dora -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD’s knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was [REDACTED] at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours [REDACTED] observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. Then [REDACTED] heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

[REDACTED] permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was
recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D —

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was, in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, ____ telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

__ stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with ____. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. ____ thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on ____ cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of _____, her telephone was examined with negative results.

__ stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. ___ observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. ____ heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. ____ exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

____ insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as [Redacted] stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [Redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [Redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

[Redacted] stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." [Redacted] said that MCDONALD attended [Redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

[Redacted] last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [Redacted] said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

[Redacted] had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, [Redacted].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, [Redacted] of the 9-1-1 caller, [Redacted] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [REDACTED], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [REDACTED] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [REDACTED] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [REDACTED], attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[REDACTED] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [REDACTED] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [REDACTED] with a knife, when [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[REDACTED] related the same facts as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [REDACTED], attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [Redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [Redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [Redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [Redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [Redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [Redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [Redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [Redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [Redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [Redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [Redacted], threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

STATEMENT OF P.O. THOMAS GAFFNEY

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0406 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0406 hours. This statement is bein’ taken at Area Central Police Headquarters at 51st and Wentworth. My name is Investigator Killen, that’s spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 129. Also present is FOP attorney Dan Herbert. (noise) Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Representative Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) POP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S. G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what’s your star number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: [redacted].

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: 8TH District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what’s your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July '96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY: [Redacted].

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I'm sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin' Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you'd start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin' to get radios somethin' like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin' from the south goin' north correct?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh there was a [REDACTED] and a [REDACTED] uh standing by a gate um to the truck
KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?
P.O. GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin' to get um tryin' to get into trucks. Uh he had uh somethin' in his hand, he had uh a wire from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin' about a iPhone, I don't know if he was sayin' that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then we, we asked 'em you know what he looked like, what he was wearin'? He said he's a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that and tell you which way the, the offender went?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that’d, that’s 41st Street?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you know somebody walkin'. So we approached 'em, drove up to 'em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dread locks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he's shining on 'em. You know tell 'em to come 'ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin' at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached 'em a lil bit more and that's when he, he had seen you know tell 'em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard 'em say you know he's got a knife. So that's when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn't really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that's when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we're all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin' I, I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he's on what street?

P.O.GAFFNEY: He's on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he's, he's headed which way?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he's headed toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --
P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You're kinda behind 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn’t.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he’s got a knife that’s when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin’ the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin’ out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep ‘em goin’ east toward Pulaski?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin’.
KILLEN: So he never stops?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin'. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin' eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches 'em and then you hear McElligott say he's got a knife?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that's when I you know that's when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that's when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin', that's what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy's got a knn, we're at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin' Keeler. Uh he's got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don’t carry a taser?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn’t carry --

P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn’t have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars and other cars said they were comin’. So we just, we just kept stayin’ you know keepin’ our distance at the time you know I kept drivin’ along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin’ with ‘em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin’, my partner still kept givin’ ‘em verbal commands and droppin’ the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin’ turning around lookin’ back at us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin’ east. When we’re, we’re approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I knew the next block there was the Burger King, there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get 'em to go down Karlov cause there's more, you know there's just factories so there's no people down that way. So and then uh -

KILLEN: So the purpose of doin' that is keep 'em away from --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow 'em down until other cars got 'ere and make 'em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep 'em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people. (someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh, his arm down. When he did that that's when I heard like pssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where's McElligott at this time?

P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin' with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That’s when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.

HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin’ behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin’ it down in a striking motion.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.

KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.

KILLEN: What happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin’, I didn’t see nothin’ break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin’ eastbound on 40th Street. And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet that’s when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that's when he started to run. Oh yeah I, I, (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don't remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you're still basically sittin' over at 40th and Karlov right? You see 'nother car come up Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that's, yeah he, 'nother car came off Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --

P.O.GAFFNEY: That, that's when he seen that and that's when he started runnin'.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he's still goin' towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin' and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that
the other car that came off went into the Burger
King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin'
towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb
and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car
followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O. GAFFNEY: At the time I didn't but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout
Pulaski and --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car
where then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot.
Before, before going over the curb and into the
street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the (noise) flat?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn't wanna, I didn't know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there's like lil the, the, cement tongue if you will, that, that's the parkin' lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert continue.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin' 'em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that's Pulaski you're talkin' about?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there's a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don't take the curb at all. You just --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin' lot to, to get out where there's a, there's the light on 41st Street. (noise)

KILLEN: And that's where your car's stopped?
P.O. GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that's where my, that's where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That’s when, when I saw your car was south, facin’ south --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that’s right, that’s where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that’s when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn’t see what exactly was goin’ on.

KILLEN: So you’re basically goin’ around Burger King.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah that’s when the shots I believe that’s when the shots started firin’.

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin’?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin’?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That’s because --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well there’s a, yeah well there’s a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence
with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
they were building some stuff there. So yeah
there was that was all blockin' me.

KILLEN: There's (noise) no line a sight.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
there's no more shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don't (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you're goin' south could you see the offender still?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and started to go you know 'round to, to where everything was goin' on.

KILLEN: Where was he?
P.O. GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the time when I, when I got over there.

KILLEN: Okay. And it's after that then you find out who's shooting what happened?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah.
KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn’t see the shooting, you, you (noise) you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge the weapon?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin’ the offender.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch ‘em. We didn’t know how long ago it was. Or where he would’ve went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab ‘em and figured they woulda still been there when we got back.

KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had, as best you can describe it to me?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob’ly ‘bout four to six inch blade.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you’d like to add?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Representative Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) FOP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S. G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: [redacted].

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: 8TH District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what's your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July '96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY: [Redacted].

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I'm sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin' Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you'd start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin' to get radios somethin' like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin' from the south goin' north correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh there was a [redacted] and a [redacted]
[redacted] uh standing by a gate um to the truck
KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?

P.O. GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin' to get um tryin' to get into trucks. Uh he had uh somethin' in his hand, he had uh a wire from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin' about a iPhone, I don't know if he was sayin' that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then we, we asked 'em you know what he looked like, what he was wearin'? He said he's a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that and [redacted] tell you which way the, the offender went?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that'd, that's 41st Street?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you know somebody walkin’. So we approached 'em, drove up to 'em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dread locks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he's shining on 'em. You know tell 'em to come 'ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin’ at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached 'em a lil bit more and that’s when he, he had seen you know tell 'em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard 'em say you know he’s got a knife. So that’s when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn’t really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that’s when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we’re all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin’ I, I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he’s on what street?

P.O.GAFFNEY: He’s on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he’s, he’s headed which way?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he's headed toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --
P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You're kinda behind 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn’t.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he’s got a knife that’s when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin’ the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin’ out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep ‘em goin’ east toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin’.
KILLEN: So he never stops?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin'. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin' eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches ‘em and then you hear McElligott say he’s got a knife?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that’s when I you know that’s when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that’s when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin’, that’s what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy’s got a knn, we’re at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin’ Keeler. Uh he’s got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don’t carry a taser?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn’t carry --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn’t have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars
and other cars said they were comin’. So we just, we just kept stayin’ you know keepin’ our distance at the time you know I kept drivin’
along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin’ with ‘em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin’, my partner still kept givin’ ‘em
verbal commands and droppin’ the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin’ turning around lookin’ back at us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin’ east. When we’re,
we’re approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I knew the next block there was the Burger King,
there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get 'em to go down Karlov cause there's more, you know there's just factories so there's no people down that way. So and then uh -

KILLEN: So the purpose of doin' that is keep 'em away
from --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow 'em down until other cars got 'ere and make 'em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep 'em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people.
(someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh,
his arm down. When he did that that's when I heard like pssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where's McElligott at this time?
P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin' with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That's when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.

HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin' behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin' it down in a striking motion.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.

KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.

KILLEN: What happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin', I didn't see nothin' break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin' eastbound on 40th Street. And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet that's when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that's when he started to run. Oh yeah, I, I, I (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don't remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you're still basically sittin' over at 40th and Karlov right? You see 'nother car come up Pulaski?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah that's, yeah he, 'nother car came off Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --

P.O. GAFFNEY: That, that's when he seen that and that's when he started runnin'.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?

P.O. GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he's still goin' towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)

P.O. GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin' and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that
the other car that came off went into the Burger
King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin'
towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb
and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car
followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O. GAFFNEY: At the time I didn't but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout
Pulaski and --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car
where then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot.
Before, before going over the curb and into the
street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the (noise) flat?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn’t wanna, I didn’t know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there’s like lil the, the, cement tongue if you will, that, that’s the parkin’ lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert continue.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin’ ‘em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that’s Pulaski you’re talkin’ about?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there’s a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don’t take the curb at all. You just --

P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin’ lot to, to get out where there’s a, there’s the light on 41st Street. (noise)

KILLEN: And that’s where your car’s stopped?

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that’s where my, that’s where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That's when, when I saw your car was south, facin' south --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that's right, that's where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that's when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn't see what exactly was goin' on.

KILLEN: So you're basically goin' around Burger King.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah that's when the shots I believe that's when the shots started firin'.

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin'?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn't know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin'?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That's because --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well there's a, yeah well there's a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence
KILLEN: with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
they were building some stuff there. So yeah
there was that was all blockin' me.

KILLEN: There's (noise) no line a sight.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
there's no more shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don't (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you're goin' south could you see the offender still?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and started to go you know 'round to, to where everything was goin' on.

KILLEN: Where was he?
P.O. GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the time when I, when I got over there.

KILLEN: Okay. And it's after that then you find out who's shooting what happened?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah.
KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn’t see the shooting, you, you (noise) you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge the weapon?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin’ the offender.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch ‘em. We didn’t know how long ago it was. Or where he would’ve went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab ‘em and figured they woulda still been there when we got back.

KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had, as best you can describe it to me?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob’ly ‘bout four to six inch blade.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you’d like to add?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

STATEMENT OF P.O. THOMAS GAFFNEY

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0406 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0406 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters at 51st and Wentworth. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Also present is FOP attorney Dan Herbert. (noise) Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Representative Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) FOP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S. G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: [redacted].

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: 8TH District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what's your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July '96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY: [Redacted].

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I'm sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only givin’ this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin’ Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you'd start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin' to get radios somethin' like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin' from the south goin' north correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh there was a [REDACTED] and a [REDACTED] uh standing by a gate um to the truck yard. Um the gate was partially opened and uh the had a chain in 'er hand and then we stopped and spoke to them.

KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?
P.O.GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin' to get um tryin' to get into trucks. Uh
he had uh somethin' in his hand, he had uh a wire
from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin'
about a iPhone, I don't know if he was sayin'
that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then
we, we asked 'em you know what he looked like,
what he was wearin'? He said he’s a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that and tell you which way the, the offender went?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north
um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that'd, that's 41st Street?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?
P.O.GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street
and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you know somebody walkin’’. So we approached ‘em, drove up to ‘em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dread locks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he’s shining on ‘em. You know tell ‘em to come ‘ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin’ at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached ‘em a lil bit more and that’s when he, he had seen you know tell ‘em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard ‘em say you know he’s got a knife. So that’s when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn’t really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that’s when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we’re all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin’ I, I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he’s on what street?

P.O.GAFFNEY: He’s on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he’s, he’s headed which way?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he's headed toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --
P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You're kinda behind 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn’t.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he’s got a knife that’s when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin’ the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin’ out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep ‘em goin’ east toward Pulaski?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin’.
KILLEN: So he never stops?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin'. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin' eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches 'em and then you hear McElligott say he's got a knife?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that's when I you know that's when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that's when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin', that's what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy's got a knn, we're at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin' Keeler. Uh he's got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don't carry a taser?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn't, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn't carry --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn't have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars and other cars said they were comin'. So we just, we just kept stayin' you know keepin' our distance at the time you know I kept drivin' along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin' with 'em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin', my partner still kept givin' 'em verbal commands and droppin' the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin' turning around lookin' back at us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin' east. When we're, we're approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I knew the next block there was the Burger King, there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get 'em to go down Karlov cause there's more, you know there's just factories so there's no people down that way. So and then uh -

KILLEN: So the purpose of doin' that is keep 'em away from --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow 'em down until other cars got 'ere and make 'em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep 'em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people. (someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh, his arm down. When he did that that's when I heard like pssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where's McElligott at this time?

P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin' with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That's when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.

HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin' behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin' it down in a striking motion.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.

KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.

KILLEN: What happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin', I didn't see nothin' break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin' eastbound on 40th Street. And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet that's when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that's when he started to run. Oh yeah I, I, I (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don't remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you're still basically sittin' over at 40th and Karlov right? You see 'nother car come up Pulaski?
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that's, yeah he, 'nother car came off
Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --
P.O.GAFFNEY: That, that's when he seen that and that's when he started runnin'.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --
P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?
P.O.GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he's still goin' towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)
P.O.GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin' and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that the other car that came off went into the Burger
King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin'
towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb
and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car
followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O. GAFFNEY: At the time I didn't but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout
Pulaski and --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car
where then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot.
Before, before going over the curb and into the
street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the (noise) flat?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn’t wanna, I didn’t know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there’s like lil the,
the, cement tongue if you will, that, that’s the parkin’ lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert continue.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin’ ‘em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that’s Pulaski you’re talkin’ about?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there’s a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don’t take the curb at all. You just --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin’ lot to, to get out where there’s a, there’s the light on 41st Street.
(noise)

KILLEN: And that’s where your car’s stopped?
P.O. GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that’s where my, that’s where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That's when, when I saw your car was south, facin' south --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that's right, that's where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that's when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn't see what exactly was goin' on.

KILLEN: So you're basically goin' around Burger King.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah that's when the shots I believe that's when the shots started firin'.

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin'?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn't know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin'?

P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That's because --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well there's a, yeah well there's a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence
with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
they were building some stuff there. So yeah
there was that was all blockin' me.

KILLEN: There's (noise) no line a sight.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
there's no more shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don't (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you're goin' south could you see the offender still?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and started to go you know 'round to, to where everything was goin' on.

KILLEN: Where was he?
P.O. GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the time when I, when I got over there.

KILLEN: Okay. And it's after that then you find out who's shooting what happened?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah.
KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn’t see the shooting, you, you (noise) you didn’t see Officer Van Dyke discharge the weapon?

P.O.GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin’ the offender.

P.O.GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?

P.O.GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch ’em. We didn’t know how long ago it was. Or where he would’ve went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab ’em and figured they woulda still been there when we got back.

KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had, as best you can describe it to me?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob’ly ‘bout four to six inch blade.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you’d like to add?

P.O.GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

LIEUTENANT OR ABOVE/OCIC REVIEW

The Commanding Officer (OCIC) will complete the review section for all incidents involving the discharge of a firearm by a Department member. All incidents involving the serious injury or death of a member of the public contingent upon an interaction with a Department member; any lesser use of force by a Department member when that use of force stems from the same incident described here in 1 or 2.

The assigned investigating supervisor the rank of lieutenant or above from the district of occurrence will complete the review section for all other incidents.

75. SUBJECT’S STATEMENT REGARDING THE USE OF FORCE

Subject is deceased.

76. LIEUTENANT OR ABOVE/OCIC RATIONALE FOR BOX 77 FINDING

Based upon information available at the time of this report it is the preliminary determination of the undersigned that Officer Van Dyke fired his weapon in compliance with Department policy. Officer Van Dyke fired his weapon in fear of his life when the offender while armed with a knife continued to approach and refused all verbal direction.

77. LIEUTENANT OR ABOVE/OCIC FINDING BASED UPON CURRENTLY AVAILABLE INFORMATION:

☐ I HAVE CONCLUDED THAT THE MEMBER’S ACTIONS WERE IN COMPLIANCE WITH DEPARTMENT PROCEDURES AND DIRECTIVES.

☐ I HAVE CONCLUDED THAT FURTHER INVESTIGATION IS REQUIRED.

LOG NO: 1072125

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
The full format for this investigation is contained in the previous Progress - Scene Report.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

_It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch._

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife." MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT's directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD’s hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to “Drop the knife!” MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to “Drop the knife!” MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a “T” intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Officer Jason VAN DYKE’s handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of , her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." said that MCDONALD attended school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother.

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, of the 9-1-1 caller, was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [Redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [Redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [Redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [Redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [Redacted] attempting to cut him. [Redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[Redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [Redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [Redacted] with a knife, when [Redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[Redacted] related the same facts as [Redacted]. [Redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [Redacted], attempting to cut him. [Redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

INVESTIGATION:

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P-----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife." MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT's directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'...
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.

FONTAINE, Dora ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ------

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. [redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road. [redacted] insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as [REDACTED] stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [REDACTED] elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [REDACTED] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

[REDACTED] stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." [REDACTED] said that MCDONALD attended [REDACTED] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

[REDACTED] last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [REDACTED] said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

[REDACTED] had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, [REDACTED].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, [REDACTED] of the 9-1-1 caller, [REDACTED] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, . He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by , a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked . threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

Attachment 158
KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Daphne regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today (NOISE) is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0507 hours. This statement is bein’ taken at Area Central Police Headquarters. Uh my name is Investigator Killen, that’s spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. (noise) Present is uh Attorney Dan Herbert. Dan if you would.

HERBERT: D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And also FOP Rep Kriston Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. FOP field representative.

KILLEN: And then Officer Sebastian if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O. SEBASTIAN: My first name is Daphne, D A P H N E. My last name is Sebastian, S E B A S T I A N.

KILLEN: And what’s your star number?

P.O. SEBASTIAN: 2 7 6 3.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O. SEBASTIAN: [Redacted]

KILLEN: And your date of appointment with the Department?

P.O. SEBASTIAN: 30 September ’02.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. SEBASTIAN: [Redacted]
KILLEN: And your current unit of assignment?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: 8th District.

KILLEN: How long you been assigned to 8?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: The entire time, 12 years. Well after the Academy, so 11.

KILLEN: All right and are you prepared to give a statement now?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only giving this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: And you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any question, any answer to any question would be in direct violation of Department rules and regulations?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with uh discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes.
KILLEN: All right so what was your duty status and assignment on 20 October 2000, 2014 at approximately 2150 hours?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: On duty. Full uniform um working Beat 813 Robert with a partner.

KILLEN: Okay who’s your partner?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Janet Mondragon.

KILLEN: Okay and where was uh what’s your regular start time?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: 2100.

KILLEN: Okay. And then uh I know you said you were in full uniform. So was Officer Mondragon?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes sir.

KILLEN: And you and Officer Mondragon were assigned a vehicle?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda vehicle?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Uh marked vehicle number 8 7 7 9.

KILLEN: That a car, Tahoe?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: That’s a, uh Explorer.

KILLEN: Okay. All right and then on 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours you and Officer Mondragon were witness to a police-involved shooting correct?
KILLEN: And if you would just from the beginning just explain to me what happened?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Uh we were responding to a call for uh to assist Beat 815 Robert. Um they had called to get a taser because they said that their offender had a knife.

KILLEN: And do you recall where you were at when you received that?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Uh right around 55th and Kostner.

KILLEN: Okay. And you received, you’re getting all that information over the radio correct?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Correct.

KILLEN: Dispatch?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Okay. Um and then were you the driver or passenger?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: I was the passenger.

KILLEN: So then Officer Mondragon and you drive over to where, 815 --
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Is calling for help, yes.

KILLEN: Okay and what happens when you get there?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Um as we’re in route I would get further information that the offender is going eastbound towards uh the Burger King, towards Pulaski on foot. That he has a knife in hand. And then um additionally that he punctured the tire of 815 Robert's car. We were northbound on Pulaski um behind 845 Robert. Uh we turned westbound on 40th Street which is just, the street just north of the Burger King parking lot. Um as we got to the Burger King parking lot 845 Robert went into the parking lot um and we uh had information that the offender was running through that parking lot. Um --

KILLEN: You got that information over the radio?
P.O.SEBASTIAN: Over the radio, hmm huh. Yes. Um I see the offender at quite a distance. My partner does not. Um I tell her, we decide to go out onto Pulaski to try and cut the offender off on Pulaski. (noise) So she turns goes back on 40th Street and then goes to Pulaski southbound. (noise) Once we get southbound on Pulaski we get to 41st Street where the offender is uh running in front of like southbound um in the middle of the street of Pulaski. Like in front of our car, away from us. (noise)

KILLEN: So the first time you see (noise) the offender where are you?
P.O.SEBASTIAN: First (noise) time I see the offender is when (noise) we're um turning around in the Burger King parking lot. The driveway of the Burger King.
KILLEN: So that's after you come up Pulaski onto 40th and into the parking lot?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Correct. Yes.

KILLEN: So you're basically just going back around?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes.

KILLEN: And when you see him he's runnin'?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: He's runnin' yes.

KILLEN: Which way does he go?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: He's running uh southeast basically through the parking (noise) lot.

KILLEN: So toward Pulaski from --
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Correct.

KILLEN: -- 40th Street.
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes.

KILLEN: And when you see 'em you see 'em with a knife?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: I did not see a knife at that time. No.

KILLEN: If you had to guess at how far away he was, when you first saw 'em?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Uh well we were at one end of the parking lot so all the way to the other, I mean several yards. Prob'ly (noise) 50 yards.

KILLEN: (noise) Okay. So then by the time Officer Mondragon's able to turn it around get back onto Pulaski and go south --
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: -- the offender is, is that when he’s running south in the street?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Correct. (noise) He’s already in the street running south.

KILLEN: And then --
P.O. SEBASTIAN: At that time I can see the knife in his hand as we’re getting closer to him (noise) I can see the knife. Um he has it in his right hand and he’s actually waving it back and forth. Like front to back. Moving his arm back and forth as he’s um maybe like a fast walk, slow run southbound on Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay so what happens? So he’s goin’ south, you guys are goin’ south.
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: What happens?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Um --
HERBERT: Got to say yes.
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes.
HERBERT: No hmm huh’s.
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Oh sorry. Yes.
HERBERT: That’s okay.
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Uh we get to 41st Street um 845 Robert is already Officers Walsh and Van Dyke are already out of the car. Um we see the offender um in the street still waving his, his arm with the knife.
Uh I heard several shots fired and the offender fell to the ground.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shooting?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: I did not.

KILLEN: Did you see like Officer Van Dyke out there gun pointed at 'em?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: I saw Officer Van Dyke and, and Officer Walsh both had their guns drawn. But my attention at the time of the shots fired were towards the offender. Cause we were still in motion. We were still moving --

KILLEN: Goin' south on --
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yeah we were still moving. Cause we were slow you know goin' slow at the time. (noise)

KILLEN: So when you, when you're goin' slow south on Pulaski where's the offender?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: He's in front of us.

KILLEN: He's still in, in the street?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Hmm huh. Yes, yes.

KILLEN: You see he's wavin' a knife back and forth is he wavin' it at somebody or whaddoes he do?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: He was (noise) waving it (noise) before he got towards 845 Robert he was just swinging his arm back and forth. I mean he's doing all kinds of like twisting body motions as he's walking. (noise) Um when he got closer to them and they got outta the vehicle, it (noise) he turned his body towards them like the knife like (noise) in a motion towards them. His, (noise) his right arm did. (noise)

KILLEN: And did you see where Officers Van, Van Dyke and Walsh came from? Or did they come north on Pulaski toward 'em or --
P.O. SEBASTIAN: No. They were, they had also come from, you they were in the, um they were in the northbound lanes. And they went down past him um in front of him at a great distance. So they were several feet --

KILLEN: So they went south on the other side of the street in the northbound lanes?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yeah. Yeah.

KILLEN: They went south.
P.O. SEBASTIAN: They went south like, like cause this, the offender was walking kinda down the middle of the street. So they went in the northbound lanes and then kind of cut across in, in, in front of him.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Okay as to stop 'em. There was a Dunkin'
Donuts on the (noise) uh east side of the street.
So kind of in between him and the Dunkin' Donuts basically (noise) what it was.

KILLEN: Does he stop walking when they cut in front of ' em?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: No he doesn’t. He’s still moving.

KILLEN: Is that when he turns, so he faces --
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Hmm huh yeah he’s still, he’s still moving yes.

KILLEN: And you see, you saw Officers Van Dyke and Walsh get outta the car?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: I saw them outta the car, yes.

KILLEN: Okay saw them with guns drawn?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: I did.

KILLEN: Pointed at the offender?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes.

KILLEN: But you didn’t see who was shootin’?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: I did not.

KILLEN: At the time you couldn’t tell?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: At the, at that time honestly at that time my attention was towards the offender. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: And then, but you heard gunshots?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: Hmm huh. Heard gunshots.

KILLEN: Okay. Could you guess at how many you heard?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: I, I really don’t know.

KILLEN: And what happens after you hear the gunshots?
P.O. SEBASTIAN: We get out of the vehicle. My partner stops the vehicle, we get out. Um actually (noise) we get out, we see that the offender is no longer a threat. As, as my partner comes out of the car, she notices that the southbound traffic is coming like uh citizens vehicles coming towards the, the crime scene. Cuz they're coming off of a hill, off of the expressway. (noise) So um you know (noise) there were plenty of officers over there attending to that. Our attention turned to the traffic and stopping the citizens from driving into the crime scene. (noise)

KILLEN: And when you say the offender's no longer a threat, whadda you mean by that?

P.O. SEBASTIAN: I didn't see that there was any more movement. Um Officer Walsh, I saw Officer Walsh (noise) um kick the knife, the, he still had the knife in his hand. (noise) You could see that. And he kicked it away from 'em and it was no more, I didn't see any movement from the offender.

KILLEN: So is the offender still standing at this time or is he --

P.O. SEBASTIAN: Oh no he's on the ground.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yeah he's on the ground.

KILLEN: So after the gunshots he's on the ground?

P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes.
KILLEN: And then Officer Walsh kicks the knife from his hand.

P.O. SEBASTIAN: Hmm huh. Yes.

KILLEN: And that's what you mean by he's no longer a threat now?

P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. All right is there anything you'd like to add?

P.O. SEBASTIAN: No.

KILLEN: And everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?

P.O. SEBASTIAN: Yes sir.

KILLEN: All right this will uh conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Daphne Sebastian regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0519 hours.
I, CAROL A. O’LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Janet Mondragon regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0529 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Also present in the room is uh attorney Dan Herbert. If you would Dan.

HERBERT: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Field Representative Kriston Kato.

KATO: First name is Kriston, K R I S T O N. Last name K A T O. FOP Field Representative.

KILLEN: All right Officer Mondragon if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.MONDRAGON: Um Officer Janet, J A N E T, Mondragon, M O N D R A G O N.

KILLEN: All right and what's your star number?

P.O.MONDRAGON: 4 3 6 4.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.MONDRAGON: [Blank]

KILLEN: All right and your date of appointment with the Department?

KILLEN: All right and your date of birth?

Page 2 of 13
KILLEN: All right and your current unit of assignment is?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Eight.

KILLEN: Okay and how long you been to 8th District?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Um since I started so seven and half years ago.

KILLEN: Since the beginning?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And are you prepared to give the statement?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes. This statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I'm only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: And you are aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations? Do you understand that?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of a violation of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: All right then on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?

P.O. MONDRAGON: We were on routine patrol.

KILLEN: Okay so we'll start with uh on 20 October 2014 what time did you start work?

P.O. MONDRAGON: 2100.

KILLEN: And you were assigned a partner?

P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: And who's your partner?

P.O. MONDRAGON: Uh Officer Sebastian.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer Sebastian the two of you were in full uniform?

P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: And you and Officer Sebastian you were assigned a vehicle?

P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: And what kinda vehicle?

P.O. MONDRAGON: Um marked squad car.

KILLEN: Okay was that a car or a Tahoe?

P.O. MONDRAGON: It's a Ford Explorer.
KILLEN: Ford Explorer. Okay. Uh do you remember the outside number on it?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes. 8 7 7 9.

KILLEN: Were you the driver or the passenger?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours you and Officer Sebastian were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And start from the beginning just tell me how you became involved in that?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Uh we were responding to a call the officers were askin' for more cars.

KILLEN: Okay do you remember why they were askin' for more cars?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Uh yes they stated that um they had a call about someone breakin' into cars. And uh the offender that was on scene um had a knife. So they were lookin' for a car with a taser.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you carry a taser?
P.O. MONDRAGON: No.

KILLEN: Does Officer Sebastian?
P.O. MONDRAGON: No.
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY

LOG #1072125 U#14-36

KILLEN: So you, you and you hear the call over the radio correct?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: So you’re going as one of the assists?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you remember where you were at when you heard the call?
P.O. MONDRAGON: We were around 55th and uh what’s that Kostner.

KILLEN: So then so you drive --
P.O. MONDRAGON: We were driving westbound on 55th Street.

KILLEN: Okay so the, the call for the assist would be where?
P.O. MONDRAGON: It was uh I believe 40th and uh Kildare.

KILLEN: So you, you, you had that (inaudible)
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay so do you come up Pulaski?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Actually I went down Kostner, northbound on Kostner.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MONDRAGON: From 55th.

KILLEN: Okay so start from the beginning so you go north on Kostner and what happens?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Uh I go northbound on Kostner then I take Archer Avenue and then I go down Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. MONDRAGON: Going northbound towards 40th.

KILLEN: And what happens when you get to 40th?

P.O. MONDRAGON: Uh when we get, well when we get to 40th uh there’s a car in front of us already. Which I believe it’s 845 Robert. So I’m right behind them and when we get to 40th Street they turn, I turn right behind ‘em. Um as I’m turning I see the officer running.

KILLEN: You know who that is?

P.O. MONDRAGON: Um Officer McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. MONDRAGON: I see ‘em running across the Burger King parking lot. There’s a Burger King there.

KILLEN: Hmm huh.

P.O. MONDRAGON: He’s running. So as he’s running I come and I see 845 Robert keeps going and I do a turn to go back onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay so when you saw Officer McElligott did you see the offender also?

P.O. MONDRAGON: I didn’t see him.

KILLEN: Okay so the only person you see if Officer McElligott?
P.O. MONDRAGON: I, yeah outta the corner of my eye I saw --

KILLEN: Okay so you go north on Pulaski when you get to 40th you turn left?
P.O. MONDRAGON: I turn left, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay and then you turn around --
P.O. MONDRAGON: I do a kind of like a U turn and come back onto --

KILLEN: -- on Pulaski.
P.O. MONDRAGON: -- Pulaski yes.

KILLEN: And then what happens, which way do you go?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Uh when I come back onto Pulaski I'm going south and as I'm approaching 41st Street I see the offender he's uh running. And uh there's another squad car coming towards us. So we're kinda goin' like this. And then 45 Robert's going around them.

KILLEN: Okay. So the offender is he on the sidewalk or is he in the street?
P.O. MONDRAGON: He's on the, on the middle of the street.

KILLEN: And he's going --
P.O. MONDRAGON: On the intersection.

KILLEN: So he's on Pulaski?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yeah he's running.

KILLEN: Which direction is he goin'?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Uh southbound.

KILLEN: Okay so you're behind him goin' south?
P.O. MONDRAGON: We're yeah. I'm right behind.

KILLEN: And who's comin' atcha?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Believe, well now I know it's 22.

KILLEN: Oh okay.
P.O. MONDRAGON: Afternoons they were facin' this way.

KILLEN: Okay so what happens as your, so you're goin' south. You're, you're basically followin' the offender.
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and when you see the offender that's the first time you see the offender then right when he's on Pulaski?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Oh I saw 'em as soon as I come out on Pulaski. I saw 'em he was running. So once I got closer yes.

KILLEN: Did you see 'em with a knife in his hand?
P.O. MONDRAGON: I, at first I just saw 'em goin' like this. Wavin' his hand up and down, up and down. Until I got closer that's when I saw the knife.

KILLEN: Okay. So as you get closer you see a knife, what happens then?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Um as I get closer you know um he's waving the knife. He's movin' around. He's like not completely running but he’s like I don’t know jogging, I could say. And as we come you know I’m right behind ‘em next thing you know I hear um, I see officers um Walsh get outta their vehicle and I hear them say drop the knife, drop the knife. And he’s just you know wavin’ it. And then that’s when I hear shots fired. (noise)

KILLEN: Was the offender facin’ Officer Walsh and his partner when, when he was wavin’ that (inaudible) and all that?

P.O.MONDRAGON: Honestly I, I (noise) how would I recall.

KILLEN: Okay. And then you, you hear drop the knife, the knife.

P.O.MONDRAGON: Yeah several times. They said drop the knife, drop the knife.

KILLEN: And in, are you still moving, you still driving?

P.O.MONDRAGON: I’m still move, slowly cause we, like I said we were right behind ‘em. So I’m drivin’ slowly right behind ‘em as he’s runnin’. (noise)

KILLEN: So then (noise) and then you hear the gunshots correct?

P.O.MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: At that time did you know who was shooting?

P.O.MONDRAGON: No.
KILLEN: You didn’t see like muzzle flashes or see nothin’ like that?
P.O. MONDRAGON: No.

KILLEN: Okay. Uh and you heard more than one gunshot?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: If you had to guess at how many you heard?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Several.

KILLEN: And what happens after you hear those gunshots?
P.O. MONDRAGON: After I hear the you know I’m like I said I’m still moving and I see the offender drop down. And um honestly after that it’s just I remember I got out of the car and actually I turned this way cause I saw traffic comin’ our way. So I went over there and put my flashlight so they could start going the other, you know like turning around. I didn’t want ‘em to come towards where the officers were.

KILLEN: That’s the traffic from behind you?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yeah.

KILLEN: So it woulda been comin’ from the expressway?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yeah the --

KILLEN: Okay so you go north on Pulaski and direct traffic?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes I get outta the, my vehicle and I turn around and I see the traffic coming that’s when I start.
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY          LOG #1072125 U#14-36

KILLEN: All right. And at the time you didn’t know who was shooting correct?
P.O. MONDRAGON: No.

KILLEN: Okay. All right is there anything you’d like to add?
P.O. MONDRAGON: No.

KILLEN: And everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?
P.O. MONDRAGON: Yes.

KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer uh Janet Mondragon regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014 and the time is approximately 0540 hours.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD’s hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora ——

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to “Drop the knife!” MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo ——

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to “Drop the knife!” MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a “T” intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, phone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with Laquan MCDONALD. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of , her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." said that MCDONALD attended school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother,.

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, of the 9-1-1 caller, was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [REDACTED], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [REDACTED] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [REDACTED] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [REDACTED] attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[REDACTED] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [REDACTED] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [REDACTED] with a knife, when [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[REDACTED] related the same facts as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [REDACTED], attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE’s use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department’s use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

STATEMENT OF P.O. JOSEPH McELLIOTT

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0436 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Joseph McElligott regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0436 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Uh also present in the room is uh FOP attorney Dan Herbert. Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names.

HERBERT: Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And then FOP Representative Kato, uh Kriston Kato.

KATO: First name is Kriston, K R I S T O N. Last name K A T O. FOP Field Representative.

KILLEN: And Officer McElligott if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Joseph McElligott, J O S E F H, McElligott, M C E L L I G O T T.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 1 8 7 1 5. (noise)

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: [redacted]

KILLEN: And your date of appointment with the Department?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 27 August '01.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?
KILLEN: And your current unit of assignment?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: The 8th District.

KILLEN: And how long you been in 8th District?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Seven years.

KILLEN: All right. Now you’re aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I’d like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of a violation of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right what was your duty status and assignment on 21 October or 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: This statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.
KILLEN: All right so what was your duty status and assignment last night at (someone coughs) 2150 hours?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Full duty.

KILLEN: Okay. What time you start work last night?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Uh 2100.

KILLEN: Is that your normal start time?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and you remember what beat you were assigned?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay and were you assigned a partner?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And who's your partner?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Uh Thomas Gaffney.

KILLEN: All right and you and Officer Gaffney you guys were assigned a vehicle?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And what kinda vehicle?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: It’s a Chevy Tahoe.

KILLEN: Marked?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.
KILLEN: Okay and you and Officer Gaffney are in full uniform?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and then at about 2150 hours at about 41st and Pulaski you and uh Officer Gaffney were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: All right and if you would just um from the beginning explain to me what happened?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Uh we responded to a call of holding the offender at uh 4100 on Karlov. And um I don't know I forget the exact address.

KILLEN: So you received this, you say responded to the call. You got a call uh via OEMC?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so over the radio you get a call.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Holding the offender um somebody's stealing radios out of semi trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you re, do you remember where you and uh, where were you and Officer Gaffney when you got that call?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um we're somewhere along Archer around Kostner.

KILLEN: Okay. So you're south of 41st and Kildare?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.
KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's the driver?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He is the driver, yes.

KILLEN: So you guys head over to that --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: So we head over, we take Kostner up and then uh take 47th to Kildare.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens when you get there?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Um a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic um we pull up to the address and they said um that a male black wearin' a black shirt was in the, tryin' to steal the radios outta the semi. Um he was holding a, a white cord to like a phone, like a charger. And he said he's got my phone. So then he said he's right around the corner. (clears throat) So then we, we drive north to 40th Street and we turn right and then we see a male black with a black shirt.

KILLEN: Okay and what's he doin'?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He's standing there and then he kinda turns around when he sees us pull up.

KILLEN: And what happens?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point I got outta the car and I'm giving 'em commands to stop, turn around. And I noticed he has his left hand in his pocket like in a ball. And in his right hand he's holding something else. And then I tell 'em take his hands out of his pockets; let me see your hands. He doesn't take his hands --
KILLEN: So at this point is he, his back is to you?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: He's facing me at this point.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: And then he starts turning and walking away. And he's holding one arm out and one hand in his pocket. He continues to walk and uh then he turns again he takes both his hands out and, and at that point he has a knife in his right hand as if he just opened it up, like flipped it open and he's holdin' his hand. At that point I drew my weapon I tell 'em to drop the knife. Um he kinda has this look in his eye like, like maybe he's on some sorta drugs cause it was like his eyes like rolled back. And then he walked, he started walking east again with his hands out and then he's kinda like kinda makin' motions from side to side. He's kinda all over. Goes from the street to the, to the sidewalk. And the whole time my partner is kinda paralleling me. And he's driving and I'm had my flashlight on 'em and I'm tellin' 'em to stop. Tellin' 'em to drop, drop the weapon. Drop the knife.

KILLEN: So you're on foot correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I'm on foot, walking.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney --
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Walking with some distance between me.

KILLEN: You're behind him correct?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: I'm yeah I'm behind him.
KILLEN: Behind the offender?
P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney's paralleling him in the car?
P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: He’s, he’s kinda like as far as I am. Like he’s like to my right just a lil bit.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: Or to my left just a lil bit. Um --

KILLEN: Do you close the distance on this guy?
P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: We just continue to follow 'em. And um then he, at one point (inaudible) my partner decides to pull towards him. And uh at that point he, the offender turned and like in a downward stabbing motion popped the front tire. My partner um at that point said that he popped the tire. Prior to that though um he had asked for an assist.

HERBERT: (inaudible)
P.O. MCCELLIGOTT: He’d asked for somebody to come with a taser. So as we’re like tryin’ to buy time this happens with the, the tire at uh Keeler. And then um we go a lil bit further and he decide, my partner decides to pull closer to 'em to kinda cause he knew Pulaski was comin' up and there was Burger King and there’s a bunch a other stuff where people are. Decides to pull over a lil bit (noise) kinda to veer 'em off so that he’ll go up one of the streets cause it’s, it’s a factory area. And we know it’s always like pretty bare.
There's nobody around. Um it's after hours. At that point he um he, he grabs the knife and he, he stabs at the, the windshield. So um then he starts walkin' away. Stabbed at the windshield then he walks away from the squad car. And he's walkin' on the sidewalk again. And then um we can hear the cars comin'. And then once we can kinda see (noise) in the windows we could see the, the blue lights in the reflection and you could hear the sirens now. (noise) That's when he decides to take off runnin'. He just full on sprint. Uh I started runnin' after 'em. My partner's driving the car that has a flat. He's goin' after 'em too. He goes through two semis were parked in the back of the Burger King lot at 40th and Pulaski. He goes through, I go through and then I see another squad car pull. They're right behind 'em. They pull behind 'em, he goes through a sidewalk and then they go, they go around through and they (clears throat) they cut through on the sidewalk as well. Around the north side of Burger King. And then I'm followin' up running and as I get to Pulaski I turn right cause they all turned right. (clears throat) And I got to about the light (noise) I could see a bunch of squad cars comin'. And um (clears throat) I keep runnin' (noise) and then one of 'em is, he's lookin' to do a U turn, one of the other squad cars. Um so instead of getting hit I just stopped and I waved them to go. (noise) (clears throat) And at that point he turned around he, he's goin' um southbound slowly.
so I know they’re, they’re stopping right there. I hear the shots at that point. And uh when I approach I think I was running down maybe the middle that’s when I saw the offender layin’ on the ground. And at that point Joe Walsh, Officer Walsh uh he kicked, he the gun outta, or not the gun the uh the knife out of his, his right hand. (noise) Which he was still clenching at the time. And then um (noise) asked for an ambulance and that was pretty much it.

KILLEN: (clears throat) So when you guys, you’re on 40th and you see, you’re kinda walkin’ with this guy right? You see ‘em with the knife?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Right?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

HERBERT: Say yes.

KILLEN: So and you see ‘em uh uh you described it as a down motion, he stabbed the tire of the car right?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: That’s the --

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: -- front passenger tire correct?

P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Front passenger tire.
KILLEN: Okay and then you also saw 'em stab the windshield?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Right.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. Uh and you may have said it and I may have missed it, but did you or uh Officer Gaffney get on the radio and say hey this guy's armed. He's got a knife?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes. Um it was before he said he popped the tire um my partner got on the radio and said (clears throat) said this guy has a knife. Can you send somebody with a taser over here. And then (inaudible) lil time passed by and then (clears throat) that's when the tire incident.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: And then another five, ten seconds (noise) went by and (noise) attacked the car, stabbed the windshield.

KILLEN: So you're, you were warning everybody ahead a time?
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Before you got anything, he had the knife in his hand.
P.O.MCELLIGOTT: Yes. It started with uh we asked for a taser. We said he had a knife. And then we were giving uh kinda like a play by play (noise) stab, he stabbed our tire, he just popped our tire. And, you know and they're askin' if anybody's heading over there. And we're just waitin' for the assist cars to come.

KILLEN: And I take it you don't carry a taser?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I do not.

KILLEN: And then neither does Officer Gaffney correct?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So then you basically follow 'em all the way to Pulaski I take it. Karlov then Keeler somethin' like that.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Basically yeah. It was --

KILLEN: And then when the other car comes --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: At that point he was (noise) he darted towards Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: From Karlov to Pulaski he was full on sprinting and I was running after 'em.

KILLEN: And you're after 'em. When he went between the trucks you went between the trucks with 'em?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so then when he got to Pulaski he goes south?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: When he got to Pulaski yeah he head, he went south around, he wrapped around the buildin' and (noise) then Burger King.

KILLEN: And whaddid you mean cause you lost me when you said somebody wanted to make a U turn so you let them go ahead of you.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: There were cars coming northbound on Pulaski to assist. And they passed up, they passed him up and then came back around.

KILLEN: Oh I gotcha. Okay so he's goin' south --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: They made a U turn --

KILLEN: I gotcha.

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah they passed him up and turned around. I don't know if they didn't see 'em or if, what their reasoning was, but they, they made a U turn and they turned kinda like right at me and I just said go and I waved 'em.

KILLEN: Now is he in the street at this time? He is runnin' in the street or is he on the sidewalk?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I didn't see him at that point I didn't see him because there were other squad cars in front a me. And I don't want, I finally saw him I was in the median and I ran up towards him and that's when at that point he was already down and the officer, other officer was kickin' the gun, uh knife away.
KILLEN: So were you on the median when you heard the gunshots?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I was, I heard the gunshots. There's a traffic light. I heard the gunshots while I was at the traffic light. And then I waved, waved the other car to go and then um by the time I got there there were no more shots.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shooting?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I did not.

KILLEN: You didn't see anybody shooting anything like that?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So by the time you got you said then he's already, the offender's already on the ground?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he on his, is he on his back, (noise) his stomach? How's he --

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: He was kinda on his side. On his right side.

KILLEN: And you said he still had the knife?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah he was holdin' it. (noise)

KILLEN: In his right hand?

P.O. MCELLIGOTT: In his right hand.

KILLEN: And that was Officer Walsh kicked it from his hand?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Yeah.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens he's placed in custody?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Then he was, well he was obviously down, he wasn't movin' anywhere. We're surrounding him and that's (noise) (inaudible) come.

KILLEN: Okay. I mean after the knife gets kicked outta his hand, does anybody touch it to your knowledge?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Do you ever touch it?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: I didn't touch it.

KILLEN: Okay. So you didn't see, you didn't see Officer Van Dyke discharge his weapon at the offender correct?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No I saw 'em holding his weapon.

KILLEN: Right.
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Just kinda (inaudible) (noise)

KILLEN: You heard gunshots but you didn't see --
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: Correct.

KILLEN: Okay. Anything you'd like to add?
P.O. MCELLIGOTT: No.

KILLEN: Everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY  LOG #1072125 U#14-36

STATEMENT OF P.O. THOMAS GAFFNEY

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 21, 2014 AT 0406 HOURS

AT AREA CENTRAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS
This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. And the time is approximately 0406 hours. This statement is bein' taken at Area Central Police Headquarters at 51st and Wentworth. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Also present is FOP attorney Dan Herbert. (noise) Dan if you would say and spell your first and last names. Herbert: Sure Dan, D A N, Herbert, H E R B E R T.

KILLEN: And uh also is uh FOP Representative Kato.

KATO: K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. (clears throat) FOP.

KILLEN: And Officer Gaffney if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.GAFFNEY: My first name Thomas Gaffney, T H O M A S G A F F N E Y.

KILLEN: Okay and what's your star number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: 1 9 9 5 8.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.GAFFNEY: [redacted]

KILLEN: And your uh current unit of assignment? (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: 8TH District.

KILLEN: Okay and (noise) what's your date of appointment with the (noise) Department?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh 8 July '96.

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O. GAFFNEY: [Redacted]

KILLEN: How long you been in 8?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh since 2000, 2001 I'm sorry. Summer 2001. (clears throat)

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification of any answer to any question would be in direct violations of rules and regulations?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I (sighs) I'd like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and then you're aware that there are no allegations against you uh regarding this incident correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status and assignment?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh this statement is not being given voluntary but under duress. I am only givin' this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So yesterday 20 October 2014 approximately 2150 hours what was your duty status?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Um I was on duty workin' Beat 815 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And were you uh were you assigned a partner?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes I was, Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay were you uniformed?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And so was McElligott right?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And you and Officer McElligott you guys were assigned a car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: What kinda car?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh squad, marked squad car uh Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay. Were you the driver or the passenger?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I was the driver.

KILLEN: Okay. And then last night about 2150 hours you and uh Officer McElligott were witnesses to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and um (someone clears throat) if you would, if you'd start from the beginning and just run me through what happened.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh we received a call holding offender at forty, 4100 South Kildare. Um there supposedly somebody had broken into a, a truck uh vehicles um tryin' to get radios somethin' like that. So we, we were on Archer approximately Kostner Kenneth. I came uh, came to the (noise) we got the job came uh down Kostner to 47th, 47th to Kildare and Kildare right to 4100 South Kildare.

KILLEN: So you were comin' from the south goin' north correct?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (someone clears throat) So you got the call are you, you were dispatched?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: OEMC?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Radio?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when you get to 41st and Kildare what, what happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh there was a male Hispanic and a female Hispanic uh standing by a gate um to the truck yard. Um the gate was partially opened and uh the female had a chain in 'er hand and then we stopped and spoke to them.

KILLEN: Whaddid they tell ya?

P.O. GAFFNEY: They said that the guy just went around the corner. Um he was uh in the, in the you know lot tryin' to get um tryin' to get into trucks. Uh
he had uh somethin' in his hand, he had uh a wire
from a phone in his hand. And he said somethin' about a iPhone, I don't know if he was sayin'"that he took an iPhone or he left an iPhone but he said that he went around the corner so then we, we asked 'em you know what he looked like,
what he was wearin'? He said he's a male black with the dark shirt. So at that time we, we went up the street and turned the corner. (someone clears throat)

KILLEN: So they, they, did those two, that, did that man and woman tell you which way the, the offender
went?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yeah he just pointed, he pointed north
um and he said he went around the corner.

KILLEN: Okay so then that'd, that's 41st Street?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah towards 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens then?

P.O. GAFFNEY: So we went, we went up the, up the block to 40th Street and we turned um east on 40th Street
and we, (inaudible) when we turned we seen um you know somebody walkin’. So we approached ‘em, drove up to ‘em and at that time we seen it was a male black with dread locks. You know and he had a dark shirt on. So at that time my, my partner had gotten outta the vehicle (clears throat) and he had his flashlight you know he’s shining on ‘em. You know tell ‘em to come ’ere. So at that time he just kinda had a look, you know a weird look in his face you know like glazed eyes and stuff lookin’ at us. So I stayed in my car in case he was gonna run. So at that time you know my partner kind of approached ‘em a lil bit more and that’s when he, he had seen you know tell ‘em to get his hands outta his pocket cause he had one hand in his pocket. And then he had seen something in his you know a shiny object in his hand. And I, I heard ‘em say you know he’s got a knife. So that’s when you know cuz then I, at first I was still in the car so I didn’t really see, see the knife at that time. But once my partner said that that’s when I kinda looked and I, at that time like I said we’re all still walking or still moving. So then the street lights were a lil bit more as we were walkin’ I, I seen a knife also in his hand.

KILLEN: Okay so this, so this point when you first see this guy he’s on what street?

P.O. GAFFNEY: He’s on 40th Street.

KILLEN: And he’s, he’s headed which way?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh east.
KILLEN: So he's headed toward Pulaski?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right is he by himself?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: Is he, like is he on the sidewalk --

P.O. GAFFNEY: On the, at that time he was on the sidewalk.

KILLEN: Which side of the street would he be on?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh south side.

KILLEN: So on the passenger side of your vehicle?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then you guys pull up, you pulled alongside of 'em?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And then the officer --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Not quite, well not quite right next to 'em but yeah he was still like I said he was still walking but he was in front of the car. You know like in front of the area as we were walkin' and movin' at the same time.

KILLEN: You're kinda behind 'em?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah but yeah.

KILLEN: And McElligott gets outta the car?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: Flashlight in hand.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: And he says come here?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Well yeah, yeah he starts you know come here. You know get your hand outta your pocket. And you know but he, he like I said he turned around, spun around a couple times and (inaudible) get to walking never said anything to us.

KILLEN: Which hand was in his pocket do you remember?

P.O. GAFFNEY: I think it was his left hand cause he had the other hand had whatever was in his, you know what he had in his hand at the time.

KILLEN: And do you know what was in his hand?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Not at that time I didn’t.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Like I said my partner, he, when my, my partner said he’s got a knife that’s when I kinda you know like I said as we were walkin’ the street lights got a lil brighter and I was able to kinda look you know look over at the, and then see that he did have, you could tell you know it was in his hand and the blade was stickin’ out.

KILLEN: Okay. And when you say he turned around a couple times does he keep ‘em goin’ east toward Pulaski?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he always kept goin’.
KILLEN: So he never stops?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he never stopped he just kept walkin'. A couple times he went into the street but not, just like a step or two in the street but he just kept walkin' eastbound.

KILLEN: And he was by himself?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so then so McElligott approaches 'em and then you hear McElligott say he's got a knife?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah when he said he has a knife that's when I you know that's when I kinda like sat up a lil bit to look, to look, get a better look and that's when I, I seen it too.

KILLEN: Okay that was in his right hand then? Is that --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah it was in his right hand.

KILLEN: So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh at that time like I said (noise) my partner still kept you know tellin', that's what he said drop the knife, drop the knife. You know put the knife down whatever. And I got on the radio and you know got on the radio and said you know the guy's got a knn, we're at 40th and Kee, uh Keeler approachin' Keeler. Uh he's got a knife. Could we get another car over here with a taser.
KILLEN: So you don’t carry a taser?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn’t, no.

KILLEN: McElligott he doesn’t carry --
P.O. GAFFNEY: No he didn’t have one either.

KILLEN: Okay. So what happens then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well like I said we I, I, I called it in then the dispatcher you know asked for other cars
and other cars said they were comin’. So we just, we just kept stayin’ you know keepin’ our distance at the time you know I kept drivin’
along. And um we just (noise) kept walkin’ with ‘em (noise) You know he never you know like came at us or anything at that time. He just kept like walkin’, my partner still kept givin’ ‘em
verbal commands and droppin’ the knife and you know stop and that type a thing. But you know he just kept walkin’ turning around lookin’ back at us you know just that weird glaze look.

KILLEN: Did he ever say anything?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No never said a word to us at all.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: (Clears throat)

KILLEN: So then what happens?
P.O. GAFFNEY: We kept (noise) goin’ east. When we’re,
we’re approaching uh Karlov, 40th and Karlov I knew the next block there was the Burger King, there was a truck lot so we were gonna get more people. So as we approached the, pretty much the corner of Karlov I like kinda turned my car towards him a lil bit on you know and you know to try and maybe get 'em to go down Karlov cause there's more, you know there's just factories so there's no people down that way. So and then uh - -

KILLEN: So the purpose of doin' that is keep 'em away from --

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah like try to slow 'em down until other cars got 'ere and make 'em see if he would maybe even go down the side street.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know keep 'em from getting to that more populated area where there were cars and people. (someone clears throat) So when I did that, he kinda like took a step towards and swung his uh, his arm down. When he did that that's when I heard like pssss a sound and I knew that he popped a tire. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then one, once he did that I got on the radio and said you know squad he just popped our tire. So (clears throat) --

KILLEN: Where's McElligott at this time?

P.O. GAFFNEY: He was still walk but he was, he was still walkin' with us but he was at like towards the back of the car.
KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. GAFFNEY: You know the back you know he still kept his distance. So (noise) (clears throat) once he did that, once he popped the tire again he just with that glazed stare, that glazed eye stare once he did that he like stepped back like took a step back, back away from the car. So I pulled up a lil bit further in front of 'em to you know try and maybe stop 'em or get 'em to go down that street. That's when he just took a step toward me and swung his arm really hard and hit the windshield with the knife.

HERBERT: And if I could just indicate for the record, with his right hand holdin' behind his, behind his head (someone clears throat) bringin' it down in a striking motion.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah he, he as hard as he could he was attempting to break that windshield.

KILLEN: And how many times did he hit the windshield?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Just once. It was just once. Went real hard swing right, right on the windshield.

KILLEN: What happens?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Obviously nothin', I didn't see nothin' break but then he walked around the front of the car and kept walkin' eastbound on 40th Street. And then at that time, maybe 10 to 15 more feet that's when you could hear um some you know some sirens. And then a squad car came off a Pulaski onto 40th Street with their lights on. At that time he seen that and that's when he started to run. Oh yeah I, I, I (noise) got on the radio and some, one, one of us, I don't remember but somebody did say that he was you know he started to run towards you know towards the, the truck lot, the trucks.

KILLEN: Okay so, so you're still basically sittin' over at 40th and Karlov right? You see 'nother car come up Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah that's, yeah he, 'nother car came off Pulaski onto 40th Street.

KILLEN: So --

P.O.GAFFNEY: That, that's when he seen that and that's when he started runnin'.

KILLEN: So when they turn west on 40th he runs --

P.O.GAFFNEY: Yeah he runs --

KILLEN: -- east towards Pulaski?

P.O.GAFFNEY: -- he, he, he's still goin' towards Pulaski but he went off a, off a the sidewalk and um into, it was like a, an empty space where the trucks, the truckers park so they can sleep or whatever. And he (noise) ran that way between two trucks.

KILLEN: Okay. (noise)

P.O.GAFFNEY: So at that time (noise) my partner started runnin' and I drove the car, I drove the car up to the entrance of the Burger King lot and went into the Burger King lot. And before I did that
the other car that came off went into the Burger
King lot also. So I just, I seen 'em come outta, between the trucks. I ran, I kept drivin'
towards, towards the, the end of the lot, towards Pulaski and that's, he ran and then I stopped cause I (noise) my tire was pretty much flat. So I couldn't get, I wasn't gonna go over the curb
and then the other car was behind 'em. He ran into like towards the street and the other car
followed 'em went over the curb and followed 'em.

KILLEN: Do you know who, who's that other car you're talkin' about? Do you know who that is?
P.O. GAFFNEY: At the time I didn't but now I know it was 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And that's the car he's talkin' 'bout
Pulaski and --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: -- where they U turn and go back at 'em?
P.O. GAFFNEY: That's the one, that's the one yeah that's the one that I, I (noise) know, I found out that was the one that went over the curb, yeah.

KILLEN: Okay so you stop your (someone clears throat) car
where then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Pretty much right behind the parkin' lot.
Before, before going over the curb and into the
street. (noise)
KILLEN: Okay. And then, and you stopped because of the (noise) flat?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah cause I, I, I didn’t wanna, I didn’t know if I was gonna make it over the, cuz it was like you know that lil part there’s like lil the, the, cement tongue if you will, that, that’s the parkin’ lot. (noise) You know if I was gonna get over it.

KILLEN: And you see 845 Robert continue.

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah they went they continued followin’ ‘em and went into the street. So I --

KILLEN: And that’s Pulaski you’re talkin’ about?

P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah. Into Pulaski. So I spun around went behind the park, behind the Burger King you know there’s a street, (inaudible) back towards Pulaski where it goes out to the street on Pulaski. (noise)

KILLEN: Okay so, so you don’t take the curb at all. You just --

P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no I, I, I turn around, I turned around and went around the parkin’ lot to, to get out where there’s a, there’s the light on 41st Street. (noise)

KILLEN: And that’s where your car’s stopped?

P.O. GAFFNEY: And then yeah I turned on Pulaski and that’s where my, that’s where I finally stopped.
KILLEN: That's when, when I saw your car was south, facin' south --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes. Yes that's right, that's where I stopped.

KILLEN: Okay so then do you see what happens then after, with, with the offender and 845 Robert then?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No that was all, yeah that was I believe done before I got onto Pulaski. Cause I, I spun around and that's when I, I heard, I started to hear shots before I got onto Pul, I think when I got onto Pulaski there was other cars and stuff in front of me too. So I didn't see what exactly was goin' on.

KILLEN: So you're basically goin' around Burger King.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah that's when the shots I believe that's when the shots started firin'.

KILLEN: You heard gunshots?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah.

KILLEN: At the time did you know who was shootin'?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn't know.

KILLEN: Could you see who was shootin'?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: That's because --
P.O. GAFFNEY: Well there's a, yeah well there's a fence also right, opposite side of Burger King where, where we blocked, pretty much blocked. The fence
with uh, like a covering you know covering fence
so nobody could see through the fence. Cause
they were building some stuff there. So yeah
there was that was all blockin' me.

KILLEN: There's (noise) no line a sight.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No, no.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: So then by the time you, you get south on Pulaski
there's no more shooting correct?
P.O. GAFFNEY: I believe yeah I believe so. I don't (noise) remember any shooting at, at, when I got onto Pulaski.

KILLEN: Where (noise) when you got on Pulaski and you're goin' south could you see the offender still?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No not, not until I got outta the car and started to go you know 'round to, to where everything was goin' on.

KILLEN: Where was he?
P.O. GAFFNEY: The offender he was on the ground at the time when I, when I got over there.

KILLEN: Okay. And it's after that then you find out who's shooting what happened?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yeah, yeah.
KILLEN: Okay. (noise) You didn't see the shooting, you,
you (noise) you didn't see Officer Van Dyke
discharge the weapon?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No I didn't, no.

KILLEN: Okay. (sighs) And then that, that, (noise) the two people that called 9 1 1 said they were holdin' the offender.
P.O. GAFFNEY: Hmm huh.

KILLEN: Do you have any idea who they are?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No not at the time, no. Cause right when they just said he went around the corner, they gave a quick description. We just wanted to go and you know see if we can catch 'em. We didn't know how long ago it was. Or where he would've went. So we just you know went and see if we could grab 'em and figured they woulda still been
there when we got back.

KILLEN: Okay. And then the knife that the offender had,
as best you can describe it to me?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Uh all silver, real bright. And prob'ly
'bout four to six inch blade.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Uh was there anything you'd like to add?
P.O. GAFFNEY: No.

KILLEN: All right everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?
P.O. GAFFNEY: Yes.
KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Thomas Gaffney regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014. The time is approximately 0424 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward...
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife." MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT's directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.
 Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

FONTAINE, Dora -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD’s knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan McDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan McDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. McDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. McDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw McDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. McDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan McDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that McDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan McDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. McDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from McDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from McDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan McDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of McDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Office Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, the telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with MCDONALD. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. A police officer thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on the cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of the officer, her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. He observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. He heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. He exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as [redacted] stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted] elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

[redacted] stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." [redacted] said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

[redacted] last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [redacted] said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

[redacted] had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD’s mother, [redacted].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, [redacted] of the 9-1-1 caller, [redacted] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted] attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
The full format for this investigation is contained in the previous Progress - Scene Report.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J ------

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife." MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT's directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L —

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin'
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.

FONTAINE, Dora ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZ. Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Officer Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, the telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of , her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as [redacted] stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

[Redacted] stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." [Redacted] said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

[Redacted] last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [Redacted] said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

[Redacted] had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, [Redacted].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, [Redacted] of the 9-1-1 caller, [Redacted] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [redacted], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [redacted] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [redacted] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [redacted] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[redacted] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [redacted] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [redacted] with a knife, when [redacted] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[redacted] related the same facts as [redacted]. [redacted] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [redacted], attempting to cut him. [redacted] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted], was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recorded on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

Hello Dep Lewin,

Per your request the findings related to the Aggravated Assault / Police involved Shooting on 20 Oct 2014 Listed under RD# HY 475653:

Findings from that night:

Veh 8779  Video Recovered Titled PC02400@20141020215250, No MICs because they were in the Glove Compartment with the batteries inserted upside down - Disabling them.

Veh 8489  System not engaged because a very long video (like hours long) was made previous to this event/incident and the system was processing that video and unable to start another video.

Veh 8765  System not engaged, officer related no power. There was no open HDT called in on vehicle. MICs not sync’d to system even though they were in the charging cradles.

Preliminary Statement on Police Involved Shooting – 4100 Block of S. Pulaski

On Monday, October 20, 2014, at approximately 9:45 pm, officers assigned to the 008th District (Chicago Lawn) were investigating a 911 call of a male subject who was breaking into vehicles in the vicinity of the 4100 block of S. Karlov. Responding uniformed officers approached a subject who produced a knife and proceeded to puncture the front passenger tire and damage the front windshield of their marked Chicago Police vehicle. The offender fled on foot with officers in pursuit. Near the intersection of 4100 S. Pulaski, uniformed officers confronted the armed offender who refused to comply with orders to drop the knife and continued to approach the officers. As a result of this action, the officer discharged his weapon striking the officer. The offender was transported to an area hospital where he succumbed to his injuries. No officers were injured during the incident.

This matter remains under investigation and all further media inquiries can be directed to the Independent Police Review Authority at 312-446-3298.

IPRA NOTIFICATIONS: IPRA Chief Administrator Scott Ando
Chief of Staff Steven Hirsch
Director of Public Affairs Larry Merritt
IPRA Supervisor Alexis Amezaga
IPRA Inv. Brian Killen

TIME OF IPRA NOTIFICATION: 2234 hours.

TIME IPRA ARRIVED ON SCENE: 2315 hrs.

OBSERVATIONS OF SCENE:
The weather was clear and night time. The location of incident (4112 S. Pulaski Avenue) was illuminated with artificial lighting. The location of incident is a commercial area.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT FROM WALK-THROUGH:

Chief of Staff Hirsch, Supervisor Amezaga, and Investigator Killen responded to the scene. Inv. Nufio responded to Mt. Sinai Hospital. The following information was provided by On-Scene Incident Commander Dave McNaughton during a walk-through of the scene, it is based upon multiple layers of hearsay and is not verbatim. At 0100 hours, OCIC Dave McNaughton conducted the walk-thru.

OCIC McNaughton stated that at approximately 2156 hours, Officers Thomas Gaffney and Joseph McElligott (Beat 815R) responded to a 911 call of citizens holding an offender at the truck yard at 4100 S. Kildare. Upon arrival two citizens, a male/Hispanic and a female/Hispanic, informed
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY
Log #1072125 / U #14-36

Officers Gaffney and McElligott that they saw a male/black subject (NKA Lequan McDonald) breaking into the trucks and that McDonald walked east on 40th Street. The two citizens also stated that McDonald was holding something in his hand. Officers Gaffney and McElligott drove east on 40th Street and observed McDonald walking east on the sidewalk on the south side of the street. The officers also observed that McDonald had his left hand in his pocket and in his right hand he held a knife. Officer McElligott exited the passenger side of the vehicle and attempted to detain McDonald while Officer Gaffney continued to drive their vehicle on the street parallel to McDonald. Officer Gaffney also radioed for assistance and specifically asked for a unit with a taser because McDonald was armed with a knife. McDonald continued to walk east with McElligott following him on foot and Officer Gaffney driving the police vehicle in the street. When they reached Karlov Street McDonald stabbed the front passenger tire of the officers’ vehicle and then repeatedly stabbed the vehicle’s windshield on the passenger side. Officer Gaffney continued to radio for assistance. McDonald then ran east toward Pulaski Road. Officer McElligott chased McDonald on foot southeast across Burger King’s parking lot and then south in the middle of Pulaski Road. Officers Joseph Walsh and Jason Van Dyke (Beat 845R) joined the chase at this time. Officer Walsh drove their vehicle south past McDonald and stopped in front of him in the northbound lanes of Pulaski Road. Officers Walsh and Van Dyke exited their vehicle with their weapons drawn and ordered McDonald to drop his knife. McDonald did not drop his knife, and instead walked toward Officer Van Dyke in an aggressive manner by waving the knife back and forth. Officer Van Dyke then discharged his firearm sixteen times, striking McDonald several times. McDonald fell to the ground still holding the knife. Officer Walsh kicked the knife from McDonald’s hand. McDonald was subsequently transported from the location of incident to the hospital by ambulance.

IDENTIFICATION OF WITNESSES (CPD and PUBLIC):

OCIC McNaughton also stated that police personnel were still attempting to locate the two citizens that telephoned 911, as well as a third citizen who may have witnessed the incident. OCIC McNaughton did not have any names or contact information for any of the possible civilian witnesses at the time of the walk-thru.

OTHER RELEVANT INFORMATION:

Multiple expended casings and a silver knife with a gold-colored handle were observed scattered about Pulaski Road. During the walk-thru OCIC McNaughton stated several of the police vehicles have in-car cameras and that they were attempting to retrieve all of the recordings. OCIC McNaughton noted that based on the position of the police vehicle driven by Officers Sebastian and Mondragon (Beat 813R) at the time of the incident, their in-car camera may have the best line-of-sight to the incident.

AREA CENTRAL FIELD INVESTIGATION:

Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.
The full format for this investigation is contained in the previous Progress - Scene Report.

INVESTIGATION:

The reporting detective was assigned to the immediate follow-up investigation of this police officer involved shooting incident, by Sergeant Daniel GALLAGHER of this command. The reporting detective proceeded to the scene of the incident at 4112 South Pulaski Road. The officer involved in the shooting was located and interviewed at the scene.

VAN DYKE, Jason D -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 845R. VAN DYKE was working with Police Officer Joseph WALSH. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. WALSH was driving the vehicle and VAN DYKE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to a request for assistance from Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife, on 40th Street, west of Pulaski Road. A unit equipped with a taser had also been requested. Officer VAN DYKE heard the radio transmission when Officer Thomas GAFFNEY said the man with a knife had "popped" the tire of GAFFNEY's police vehicle. VAN DYKE understood this to mean the subject had slashed the tire with his knife. As Officer WALSH drove westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski, VAN DYKE observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running eastbound in the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant on the southwest corner of 40 Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE saw Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT pursuing MCDONALD on foot. VAN DYKE also saw a civilian who was standing on 40th Street pointing to MCDONALD.

Officer WALSH drove eastbound in the parking lot, in pursuit of MCDONALD, on the north side of the Burger King restaurant building. WALSH used the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski Road and then turned southbound, running toward a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski, south of the Burger King. WALSH positioned the police vehicle between MCDONALD and the Dunkin' Donuts to block his path towards that restaurant. When WALSH slowed the police vehicle alongside MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of the vehicle to exit and confront MCDONALD. WALSH told VAN DYKE to stay in the vehicle as they were too close to MCDONALD to safely exit their vehicle. WALSH drove on southbound and stopped the police vehicle ahead of MCDONALD.

Officer VAN DYKE exited the vehicle on the right side and drew his handgun. As VAN DYKE stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, toward MCDONALD, MCDONALD approached southbound. MCDONALD was holding the knife in his right hand, in an underhand grip, with the blade pointed forward. He was swinging the knife in an aggressive, exaggerated manner. VAN DYKE ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times. MCDONALD ignored VAN DYKE's verbal direction to drop the knife and continued to advance toward VAN DYKE.

When MCDONALD got to within 10 to 15 feet of Officer VAN DYKE, MCDONALD looked toward
VAN DYKE. MCDONALD raised the knife across his chest and over his shoulder, pointing the knife at VAN DYKE. VAN DYKE believed MCDONALD was attacking VAN DYKE with the knife, and attempting to kill VAN DYKE. In defense of his life, VAN DYKE backpedaled and fired his handgun at MCDONALD, to stop the attack. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move and continued to grasp the knife, refusing to let go of it. VAN DYKE continued to fire his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD was on the ground, as MCDONALD appeared to be attempting to get up, all the while continuing to point the knife at VAN DYKE. The slide on VAN DYKE's pistol locked in the rearward position, indicating the weapon was empty. VAN DYKE performed a tactical reload of his pistol with a new magazine and then assessed the situation.

MCDONALD was no longer moving and the threat had been mitigated, so Officer VAN DYKE and Officer WALSH approached MCDONALD. MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. VAN DYKE continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" Officer WALSH told VAN DYKE, "I have this." VAN DYKE then used his handgun to cover WALSH as WALSH walked up and forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's right hand, thereby eliminating the threat to the officers.

Officer WALSH then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer VAN DYKE requested an ambulance for MCDONALD on the radio.

Officer VAN DYKE's weapon was a Smith and Wesson, nine millimeter, semi-automatic pistol, with a 15 round magazine. VAN DYKE said the pistol was fully loaded at the beginning of his tour of duty, with 15 cartridges in the magazine and one cartridge in the firing chamber.

It was noted that the uniform Officer VAN DYKE was wearing consisted of a light blue long sleeve uniform shirt, with shoulder patches; black body armor vest, with patches; navy blue cargo pants; and equipment belt with handgun and radio.

The reporting detective then interviewed Officer VAN DYKE's partner.

WALSH, Joseph J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. WALSH related the same facts as his partner, Officer Jason VAN DYKE.

WALSH added that as Laquan MCDONALD ran eastbound through the Burger King parking lot, WALSH used the police vehicle he was driving to block MCDONALD from entering the restaurant.

As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski Road, from the Burger King, WALSH pursued MCDONALD in the police vehicle. WALSH drove southbound in the northbound lanes to get ahead of MCDONALD, keeping the police vehicle between MCDONALD and a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, on the east side of Pulaski. As their vehicle passed MCDONALD, Officer VAN DYKE opened the right front door of their vehicle, to exit the truck and confront MCDONALD. WALSH, realizing that at this point they were too close to the armed MCDONALD to safely exit the vehicle, told VAN DYKE to wait until they got further ahead of MCDONALD. WALSH drove further south on Pulaski. He stopped his vehicle south of MCDONALD and exited the driver's door as VAN DYKE exited the right side of the vehicle. WALSH drew his handgun when he exited the vehicle.
Officer WALSH came around the rear of the police vehicle and joined Officer VAN DYKE on the right side of the vehicle. WALSH also stood in the street on Pulaski, facing northbound, as MCDONALD walked southbound toward the officers. WALSH ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times as MCDONALD approached the officers.

Officer WALSH also backed up, attempting to maintain a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD. MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction given by both WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE, and continued to advance toward the officers. When MCDONALD got to within 12 to 15 feet of the officers he swung the knife toward the officers in an aggressive manner. VAN DYKE opened fire with his handgun and MCDONALD fell to the ground. VAN DYKE continued firing his weapon at MCDONALD as MCDONALD continued moving on the ground, attempting to get up, while still armed with the knife.

When the gunfire stopped and MCDONALD was not moving anymore, WALSH approached MCDONALD with VAN DYKE. WALSH continued to order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" multiple times, as MCDONALD was still holding the knife in his right hand. WALSH forcibly kicked the knife out of MCDONALD's hand and then notified the dispatcher on the police radio that shots had been fired by the police. An ambulance was also requested for MCDONALD.

As they waited for the ambulance to respond to the scene, Officer WALSH told MCDONALD to "hang in there," and that an ambulance was on the way.

Officer WALSH said he believed MCDONALD was attacking WALSH and Officer VAN DYKE with the knife and attempting to kill them when the shots were fired. WALSH stated he did not fire his handgun because VAN DYKE was in the line of fire between WALSH and MCDONALD. WALSH thought VAN DYKE fired eight or nine shots total.

It was noted that Officer WALSH wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

The officers assigned to Beat 815R were interviewed.

GAFFNEY, Thomas J -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 815R. GAFFNEY was working with Police Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT. The two officers were assigned to Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. GAFFNEY was driving the vehicle and MCELLIGOTT was the passenger.

The officers responded to an assignment of holding an offender for breaking into trucks at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. Upon arrival at that location they met an Hispanic couple who told the officers a black male subject, wearing a dark shirt, had attempted to break into trucks parked in the parking lot at that location. The couple told the officers the subject had walked off and was last seen walking eastbound on 40th Street from Kildare.

Officer GAFFNEY drove northbound on Kildare to 40th Street. When he turned eastbound onto 40th Street he saw a black male subject wearing dark clothing, walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of the street. Officer MCELLIGOTT exited the police vehicle to approach the subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD. GAFFNEY stayed in the vehicle in case MCDONALD fled. MCELLIGOTT called to MCDONALD and told him to stop but MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, ignoring MCELLIGOTT. MCDONALD's hands were in his pockets as he walked. MCELLIGOTT told MCDONALD to take his hands out of his pockets. MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT told GAFFNEY that MCDONALD had a knife. GAFFNEY then saw a silver colored knife in MCDONALD's right hand. GAFFNEY also saw that MCELLIGOTT had his handgun drawn at this point. MCELLIGOTT repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to "Drop the knife," but MCDONALD ignored these directions. As MCDONALD reached Keeler Avenue, GAFFNEY notified the dispatcher on the police radio that they were following a subject with a knife and requested assistance from a unit equipped with a taser.

MCDONALD continued walking eastbound, Officer MCELLIGOTT following on foot and Officer GAFFNEY following in the police vehicle. As MCDONALD approached Karlov Avenue, GAFFNEY turned the Tahoe southbound onto Karlov and stopped, blocking the crosswalk. GAFFNEY said he wanted to stop MCDONALD before he reached Pulaski Road, a business street where more civilians were present. The area where MCDONALD was first observed was industrial in nature with no other civilians present. When GAFFNEY stopped his vehicle in front of MCDONALD, blocking his path, MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire of the Tahoe with his knife, causing the tire to go flat. GAFFNEY immediately informed the radio dispatcher that MCDONALD had "popped" the tire. MCDONALD attempted to walk around the front of the police vehicle and GAFFNEY drove the Tahoe forward a short distance to continue to block MCDONALD's path. MCDONALD then stabbed at the windshield of the Tahoe with the knife, striking the right side of the windshield. MCDONALD then continued walking eastbound from Karlov.

As MCDONALD approached the Burger King restaurant parking lot at 40th Street and Pulaski, assisting police units arrived, approaching westbound on 40th Street from Pulaski. MCDONALD began to run eastbound through the restaurant parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. He ran out onto Pulaski and then turned and ran southbound on Pulaski. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, eastbound through the parking lot, over the curb at Pulaski, then southbound on Pulaski. Officer GAFFNEY lost sight of MCDONALD when he turned southbound on Pulaski.

Because of the flat tire on his vehicle, Officer GAFFNEY did not drive over the curb. As he drove around out onto Pulaski, GAFFNEY heard multiple gunshots in rapid succession. He did not see who was shooting. When he reached Pulaski MCDONALD was lying on the ground.

It was noted that Officer GAFFNEY wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE with the addition of the uniform baseball style cap with embroidered patch.

MCELLIGOTT, Joseph P -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MCELLIGOTT related the same facts as his partner, Officer Thomas GAFFNEY.

Officer MCELLIGOTT added that after he exited the police vehicle, when Laquan MCDONALD took his hands out of his pockets and MCELLIGOTT saw MCDONALD holding a knife in his right hand, MCELLIGOTT drew his handgun. He repeatedly ordered MCDONALD to “Drop the knife.” MCDONALD ignored MCELLIGOTT’s directions and continued to walk eastbound on 40th Street. MCELLIGOTT followed MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and the armed MCDONALD.

Officer MCELLIGOTT heard Officer GAFFNEY request assistance and a unit with a taser over the police radio. GAFFNEY attempted to use the police vehicle to block MCDONALD from continuing on toward the Burger King restaurant at Pulaski Road. At this point MCDONALD stabbed the right front tire and the windshield of the police vehicle. MCELLIGOTT began to hear the sirens of approaching assisting police units and MCDONALD began to run toward the Burger King restaurant.

When MCDONALD ran eastbound through the parking lot of the Burger King, Officer MCELLIGOTT ran after MCDONALD in pursuit. MCELLIGOTT ran out into the middle of Pulaski Road in pursuit of MCDONALD. MCELLIGOTT heard multiple gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. The gunfire was continuous, one shot after another. MCELLIGOTT then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. MCELLIGOTT saw Officer Joseph WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

It was noted that Officer MCELLIGOTT wore the same uniform configuration as Officer VAN DYKE.

Other officers who responded to this incident were also interviewed.

SEBASTIAN, Daphne L — stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 813R. SEBASTIAN was working with Police Officer Janet MONDRAGON. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. MONDRAGON was driving the vehicle and SEBASTIAN was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject with a knife. Officer SEBASTIAN thought the original call for assistance was at 40th Street and Keeler Avenue. The subject had punctured a tire on the police vehicle of Beat 815R. Officer MONDRAGON drove northbound on Pulaski Road, following Beat 845R, as they also responded to the request for assistance. MONDRAGON turned westbound onto 40th Street, behind Beat 845R.

Officer SEBASTIAN observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southeast bound through the parking lot of the Burger King restaurant. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their police vehicle, through the parking lot, toward Pulaski. SEBASTIAN told Officer MONDRAGON to drive back out onto Pulaski to assist in the pursuit. MCDONALD ran out onto Pulaski and continued to run southbound down the middle of the street. Beat 845R pursued MCDONALD in their vehicle, southbound on Pulaski, followed by Beat 813R. As MCDONALD ran southbound on Pulaski, SEBASTIAN saw the knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was waving the knife.

Beat 845R stopped their vehicle ahead of MCDONALD, between MCDONALD and the Dunkin’
Donuts restaurant on the east side of Pulaski. Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE exited their vehicle and drew their handguns. MCDONALD turned toward the two officers and continued to wave the knife. Sebastian heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal directions and continued to advance on the officers, waving the knife. Officer SEBASTIAN heard multiple gunshots and MCDONALD fell to the ground, where he continued to move. SEBASTIAN did not know who fired the shots, which were fired in one continuous group. She then saw Officer WALSH kick the knife out of MCDONALD's hand.

MONDRAGON, Janet -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. MONDRAGON related the same facts as her partner, Officer Daphne SEBASTIAN.

Officer MONDRAGON added that as she drove westbound on 40th Street, she saw Officer MCELLIGOTT running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot. She made a U-turn and drove back out onto Pulaski Road. MONDRAGON turned southbound onto Pulaski. She saw Laquan MCDONALD running southbound on Pulaski, in the middle of the street. As she got closer she could see MCDONALD was holding a knife in his right hand. He was waving the knife.

Officer MONDRAGON saw Officers Joseph WALSH and Jason VAN DYKE outside of their police vehicle. She heard the officers repeatedly ordering MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" as MCDONALD got closer and closer to the officers, continuing to wave the knife. As she was placing her vehicle transmission into Park, MONDRAGON looked down and heard multiple, continuous gunshots, without pause. MONDRAGON then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. MONDRAGON did not know who fired the shots.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.

FONTAINE, Dora ----- stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. She was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 841R. FONTAINE was working with Police Officer Ricardo VIRAMONTES. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. VIRAMONTES was driving the vehicle and FONTAINE was the passenger.

The two officers responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a man with a knife at 41st Street and Pulaski Road. Officer VIRAMONTES drove northbound on Pulaski. When they arrived at the scene of this incident, in front of the Dunkin’ Donuts restaurant, Officer FONTAINE saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound in the street, with a knife in his right hand. MCDONALD was walking sideways, with his body facing east, toward Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. These two officers were standing in the middle of the street, on the right side of their police vehicle, which was facing southbound. FONTAINE heard the officers repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and instead, raised his right arm toward Officer VAN DYKE, as if attacking VAN DYKE. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun, until MCDONALD fell to the ground and stopped moving his right arm and hand, which still grasped the knife. The gunshots were rapid fire, without pause. Officer WALSH then kicked the knife out of MCDONALD’s hand.

VIRAMONTES, Ricardo ----- stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VIRAMONTES related the same facts as his partner, Officer Dora FONTAINE.

Officer VIRAMONTES added that when he exited his police vehicle, at the scene, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, walking southbound on Pulaski Road, in the middle of the street, holding a knife in his right hand. VIRAMONTES heard Officer Jason VAN DYKE repeatedly order MCDONALD to "Drop the knife!" MCDONALD ignored the verbal direction and turned toward VAN DYKE and his partner, Officer Joseph WALSH. At this time VAN DYKE fired multiple shots from his handgun. MCDONALD fell to the ground but continued to move, attempting to get back up, with the knife still in his hand. VAN DYKE fired his weapon at MCDONALD continuously, until MCDONALD was no longer moving.

The scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski Road, was observed to be a wide commercial street with traffic traveling north and south. There were two traffic lanes and a curb lane in each direction. A wide median separated the northbound and southbound traffic lanes. The scene was just south of the intersection of Pulaski and 41st Street. This was a "T" intersection with 41st Street extending east from Pulaski. In the center median was a left turn lane for northbound traffic.
turning west onto 40th Street, further to the north. The Pulaski median was level with the traffic lanes and was striped with yellow paint.

On the west side of Pulaski was a large vacant lot. North of the vacant lot, on the southwest corner of 40th Street and Pulaski, was a Burger King restaurant. On the east side of the street was a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant.

The weather was cloudy and cool with the temperature in the 50s. It was dark with good artificial light provided by overhead streetlights. All of the lights were on and functioning normally. There was also artificial light provided by the lighting of the nearby businesses.

In the northbound left turn lane, Chicago Police Department vehicle number 6412, assigned to Beat 845R, was sitting, facing southeast. The vehicle was a marked Chevrolet Tahoe, four door sport utility vehicle. The right front door of the vehicle was open.

In the southbound traffic lanes, in the right lane, a metal folding pocket knife was lying on the pavement. The blade was in the open position. The overall length of the knife was seven inches, with a three inch blade. The knife was in line with the front end of the vehicle of Beat 845R. Just north of the knife were two pools of blood on the pavement. Five metal bullet fragments were lying on the pavement near the blood. North of the blood, scattered in a diagonal pattern from southwest to northeast, across both southbound traffic lanes and the northbound left turn lane, were 16, nine millimeter caliber cartridge cases, lying on the pavement.

Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489, assigned to Beat 815R, was sitting at the west curb at 4102 South Pulaski. The right front tire of the vehicle was flat, with a large puncture to the sidewall of the tire. The right side of the windshield was scratched from being struck by Laquan MCDONALD's knife.

Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802 responded to the scene. Video and photographs were taken of the scene. The knife and firearms evidence was collected from the street, as were swabs of the blood. The right front wheel and tire of Chicago Police Department vehicle number 8489 was also recovered. The right front quarter panel of vehicle number 8489 was processed for fingerprints and four ridge impressions were recovered.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident in an attempt to identify and locate witnesses. A number of people were interviewed.

stated she was [redacted] at the Burger King restaurant. At approximately 21:55 hours [redacted] observed police officers chasing a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, through the parking lot, on the north side of the restaurant building. The officers chased MCDONALD southbound down Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. [redacted] then heard multiple gunshots and dove to the ground.

[redacted] permitted access to the Burger King video system. No video of this incident was recorded. The system was not recording at that time. The system was activated and video was recovered from the system from earlier in the day, showing the view of each of the cameras in the system. It was noted that none of these camera views showed the area of the scene where the confrontation between Laquan MCDONALD and Police Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH occurred, on Pulaski Road, south of the Burger King restaurant. If the system had been recording at the time of this incident, it would not have recorded any footage of that confrontation.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant, waiting for his girlfriend, , who was working at the drive-thru window. observed a "young black dude" with his hair in dreadlocks, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running through the parking lot of the restaurant. He was being pursued by police officers. MCDONALD was holding his pants like he might have had a gun or something. MCDONALD then ran southbound on the sidewalk and then out into the street on Pulaski Road. last saw MCDONALD running towards the middle of the intersection of 41st Street and Pulaski. MCDONALD appeared confused. then turned his attention back to his girlfriend at the drive-thru window. He did not witness the shooting.

stated she was working at of the Burger King restaurant. She observed a male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the restaurant parking lot, southbound on Pulaski Road, toward the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant. heard multiple gunshots and then saw that MCDONALD was lying in the street.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

stated she was of the Burger King restaurant. She did not see or hear anything.

Laquan MCDONALD had been transported to Mount Sinai Hospital by Chicago Fire Department Ambulance 21. He sustained multiple gunshot wounds as documented in the format of this investigation. MCDONALD was treated for his injuries in the emergency room. He succumbed to his wounds and was subsequently pronounced dead by Doctor PITZELE, at 22:42 hours.

Registered Nurse , recovered three metal bullet fragments from MCDONALD and turned these over to Detective William JOHNSON. These were subsequently turned over to Mobile Crime Lab Beat 5802, who also recovered metal fragments from MCDONALD's sweater.

The reporting detective had learned of the death of Laquan MCDONALD while still at the scene of this incident. The Office of the Medical Examiner of Cook County was notified of MCDONALD's death, and Investigator BRIGGS assigned Medical Examiner's case number 2014 - 01071 to this case.
In the Bureau of Detectives - Area Central office, Evidence Technician Beat 5824 recovered Officer Jason VAN DYKE's handgun, a Smith and Wesson, Model 5942, nine millimeter caliber, semi-automatic pistol. The weapon was loaded with one cartridge in the firing chamber and 14 cartridges in the magazine, when recovered.

Beat 5824 took photographs of Officers Jason VAN DYKE, Joseph WALSH, Thomas GAFFNEY and Joseph MCELLIGOTT. Elimination prints, including palm prints, were also taken from Officers GAFFNEY and MCELLIGOTT.

Officer Jason VAN DYKE was re-interviewed for additional detail, in the Area Central office.

VAN DYKE, Jason D ——

related the same sequence of events as documented in his original interview at the scene of this incident.

VAN DYKE additionally articulated the reasoning behind his decision to use deadly force against the offender in this incident, Laquan MCDONALD. VAN DYKE was aware of the radio transmissions from Officer Thomas GAFFNEY, on Beat 815R, that MCDONALD was armed with a knife. VAN DYKE was aware that MCDONALD had attacked the officers on Beat 815R by slashing the tire of their police vehicle.

As he confronted MCDONALD at 4112 South Pulaski Road, VAN DYKE saw that MCDONALD was in fact, armed with a knife, a deadly weapon. VAN DYKE was aware of the widely accepted teaching in law enforcement that an assailant armed with a knife was considered a deadly threat, if within 21 feet, because it was possible for such an assailant to close that distance and attack with the knife before a defensive shot could be fired from a handgun. VAN DYKE was also aware of the existence of throwing knives, which can be thrown from a distance, as well as spring loaded knives, which propel a blade through the air from the knife handle. VAN DYKE also said he recalled a previously issued Chicago Police Department bulletin warning of a weapon which appeared to be a knife but which actually was capable of firing a bullet, making it a firearm.

Subsequently, a search was conducted of the Chicago Police Department, Automated Message Center, to find the bulletin Officer Jason VAN DYKE remembered, regarding the weapon that appeared to be a knife, but was actually a firearm. This bulletin was issued on 04 December 2012. It was Officer Safety Alert number 2012-OSA-297. It was a warning regarding a "revolver knife" which was capable of firing .22 caliber cartridges.

Three witnesses had been transported into the Area Central office from the scene and were interviewed.

stated she was in the Burger King restaurant parking lot. She saw a subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. saw many police officers on the street. She was trying to get her cellular telephone to work, to record video. heard eight gunshots fired continuously. She did not see who fired the shots. then saw
a police officer pointing a handgun at MCDONALD as he was lying on the ground.

With her permission, [redacted] telephone was examined for any recorded video footage with negative results.

stated he was at the Burger King restaurant drive-thru with [redacted]. He saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running from the trucks parked at the rear of the restaurant parking lot. MCDONALD ran eastbound in the parking lot, on the north side of the Burger King building. A police officer was chasing MCDONALD on foot, eastbound through the parking lot, then southbound on Pulaski Road. A Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle pulled up on Pulaski. MCDONALD ran toward the police vehicle. A police officer exited the vehicle and fired multiple shots from a handgun at MCDONALD. [redacted] thought there was video footage of the incident recorded on [redacted] cellular telephone. As documented in the previous interview of [redacted], her telephone was examined with negative results.

stated he was sitting in a truck, parked in the Burger King restaurant parking lot, on the south side of the restaurant building. He was completing some logs. [redacted] observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, running southbound on Pulaski Road. The police were pursuing MCDONALD. [redacted] heard approximately three gunshots. He did not see who fired the shots. [redacted] exited the cab of his truck and climbed up on top of it. He saw a Chicago Police Department, Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle, and many police officers on Pulaski Road.

insisted on leaving the Area Central office after their initial interviews, and they were transported as they requested.

Sergeant Lance BECVAR responded to the scene and subsequently to the Area Central office. He was able to recover video of this incident from the vehicles assigned to Beats 845R and 813R. This video was uploaded into the system. The reporting detective submitted a request for copies of these two videos which were subsequently inventoried. The reporting detective also requested that the videos be permanently retained. No video of this incident was recovered from the vehicles assigned to Beats 815R, 822 and 841R.

The recovered in-car camera video from Beats 845R and 813R was viewed and found to be consistent with the accounts of all of the witnesses. The video from Beat 813R showed that at the time Officer Jason VAN DYKE fired his handgun at Laquan MCDONALD, VAN DYKE was standing near the east edge of the southbound traffic lanes of Pulaski Road, and MCDONALD was near the lane marking separating the two southbound traffic lanes. The two were separated by the width of one traffic lane. The width of this traffic lane was approximately ten feet.

Recordings of the original 9-1-1 call and the radio transmissions over the Chicago Police Department, Zone 6 radio frequency were obtained from the Office of Emergency Management.
and Communication. The recordings were reviewed and subsequently inventoried.

In the 9-1-1 call, a caller who identified himself as [redacted] stated that he was holding a guy for stealing radios from trucks in a trucking yard.

The recorded radio transmissions were consistent with the statements of the police officers involved in this incident. It was determined from the radio transmissions, that the entire interaction of the involved police officers, with Laquan MCDONALD, from the time Beat 815R notified the radio dispatcher that they had made contact with him, and that he was armed with a knife, until Beat 845R notified the dispatcher that shots had been fired by the police, lasted more than four minutes.

The criminal history of Laquan MCDONALD was reviewed.

Additionally, there were two documented incidents, under Records Division numbers HS640983 and HT106389, on 01 December 2010 and 05 January 2011. In these incidents officials at the [redacted], elementary school, called the police because of the violent behavior of Laquan MCDONALD. The reports indicated that MCDONALD was a special education student at the school and that this had become a pattern of behavior for MCDONALD. The school officials indicated that MCDONALD had behavioral problems and anger issues. In both incidents MCDONALD was transported to [redacted] for evaluation and treatment.

The family of Laquan MCDONALD was located and notified of his death.

[Redacted] stated he was an uncle of Laquan MCDONALD. MCDONALD was living with JOHNSON while MCDONALD "worked out his problems." [Redacted] said that MCDONALD attended [redacted] school but was currently suspended. MCDONALD suffered from "hypertension" but refused to take any medication. He stopped taking his prescribed medication approximately two years prior because he said it made him "freak out."

[Redacted] last saw MCDONALD on Saturday, 18 October 2014, at approximately 13:00 hours, when MCDONALD left the apartment. He had not been back since. MCDONALD had rung the doorbell earlier in the day on 20 October 2014. [Redacted] said they "buzzed" MCDONALD into the building but he never came up to the apartment.

[Redacted] had no idea why MCDONALD would be in the area of 41st Street and Pulaski Road. JOHNSON said he would attempt to notify MCDONALD's mother, [Redacted].

On Tuesday, 21 October 2014, [Redacted] of the 9-1-1 caller, [Redacted] was located and interviewed.
stated she was with [REDACTED], parking a truck in the lot at 41st Street and Kildare Avenue. She saw a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot. [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD and told him to leave the lot. [REDACTED] said that MCDONALD did not say anything, but instead, he was "growling" and making strange noises. [REDACTED] again told MCDONALD to leave the lot and MCDONALD pulled out a knife. MCDONALD swung the knife at [REDACTED] attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] had already called 9-1-1 so he backed up and threw his cellular telephone at MCDONALD. MCDONALD then ran from the lot. He ran northbound on Kildare, then eastbound on 40th Street.

[REDACTED] described MCDONALD as a black male, with his hair in braids. He was wearing a black hood and blue jeans. [REDACTED] viewed a photograph of Laquan MCDONALD and identified him as the subject in the lot, who had been attempting to steal property from vehicles parked in the lot, and who subsequently threatened [REDACTED] with a knife, when [REDACTED] confronted MCDONALD.

On Wednesday, 22 October 2014, the 9-1-1 caller was interviewed.

[REDACTED] related the same facts as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] re-iterated that Laquan MCDONALD swung his knife at [REDACTED], attempting to cut him. [REDACTED] stated he was the person who called 9-1-1 regarding this incident.

A canvass was conducted of the area near the scene of this incident for any recorded video.

There were no Police Observation Devices, or other City of Chicago video cameras in the area.

Recorded video was recovered from three cameras on the exterior of the building housing the Greater Chicago Food Depository, at 4100 West Ann Lurie Place. Two of these videos showed two different views of Laquan MCDONALD walking eastbound on the sidewalk, on the south side of 40th Street, between Keeler and Karlov Avenues. Officer Joseph MCELLIGOTT was following MCDONALD on foot, maintaining a safe distance between himself and MCDONALD, while Officer Thomas GAFFNEY was following MCDONALD in a police vehicle. The third video did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras at the Dunkin' Donuts restaurant, at 4113 South Pulaski Road. One of these videos showed the end of this incident, when Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH stopped their vehicle, exited the vehicle and confronted Laquan MCDONALD. The view in this video is from a distance. The video from the second camera did not capture any part of this incident.

Recorded video was recovered from two cameras from Focal Point, 4141 South Pulaski Road. These videos did not capture any part of this incident.

All of the recovered video was inventoried.
A Major Case Review of this case was conducted at the Illinois State Police Crime Laboratory, on Thursday, 30 October 2014. An Evidence Submission Form was completed per this review.

The assigned personnel became aware of a potential question regarding the integrity of the video recovered from the Burger King restaurant. In an attempt to follow-up on this issue the assigned personnel proceeded to the restaurant on Wednesday, 11 March 2015. Manager, [redacted] was contacted at the restaurant. She stated that the video system at the restaurant had recently been repaired and a new digital video recorder had been installed. [redacted] said that as of this date, 11 of the 16 video ports in the system actually recorded video. This was consistent with the video recovered on the date of this incident. Video was recorded and recovered on 11 of the 16 video ports in the system on that date.

Any additional inquiries regarding the video system at the restaurant were referred to the district manager responsible for that restaurant, [redacted]. He was contacted and related that the day after this incident occurred, personnel from the Independent Police Review Authority, of the City of Chicago, came to the restaurant. They viewed video from the system and took custody of the digital video recorder. The recorder was returned to the restaurant two weeks later. Personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation then came to the restaurant and made copies of video from the system. After that some lawyers came to the restaurant with subpoenas to make copies of video from the system. Finally, [redacted] stated that personnel from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had come to the restaurant again, approximately three weeks prior to this interview, and took the digital video recorder. [redacted] did not have any further information regarding the video system.

The assigned personnel also became aware of an article written by [redacted], a professor at the University of Chicago Law School, citing the existence of an unknown witness to this incident. [redacted] was contacted on Thursday, 12 March 2015, in an attempt to interview this witness. [redacted] stated that this witness had already been interviewed by the Independent Police Review Authority and [redacted] did not know if the witness would be willing to be interviewed by the Chicago Police Department. [redacted] said he would contact the witness and provide him with contact information for the assigned personnel.

Based upon all the facts known at this time, and the death of the only offender in this incident, this case is now Exceptionally Cleared Closed / Other Exceptional Clearance - Death of Offender.

The above to-date investigation determined that Laquan MCDONALD was an active assailant who, while armed with a dangerous weapon, used force likely to cause death or serious injury to a private citizen when he attacked [redacted]; threatened the imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he incised the tire and stabbed the windshield of a Chicago Police Department vehicle occupied by Officer Thomas GAFFNEY; and initiated imminent use of force likely to cause death or serious injury when he initiated an attack on Officers Jason VAN DYKE and Joseph WALSH. The above investigation concluded that Officer Jason VAN DYKE's use of deadly force, the discharging of his duty firearm, was within the bounds of the Chicago Police Department's use of force guidelines, and in conformity with local ordinances and state law.

Based on the above facts, the associated report, under Records Division number HX486155, is now Closed / Non-Criminal.

KATO: First name is Kriston, K R I S T O N. Last name K A T O. FOP Field Representative.

KILLEN: And then Officer Walsh if you would say and spell your first and last names for me.

P.O.WALSH: Joseph Walsh, W A L S H.

KILLEN: All right and your star number?

P.O.WALSH: 1 2 8 6 5.

KILLEN: And your employee number?

P.O.WALSH: [Redacted]

KILLEN: And your date of appointment with the Department?

KILLEN: And your date of birth?

P.O.WALSH: [Redacted]
KILLEN: And your current unit of assignment?

P.O.WALSH: 8th District.

KILLEN: And how long you been in 8?

P.O.WALSH: Approximately 14 years.

KILLEN: All right and you’re aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification to any answer to any question would be in direct violation of Department rules and regulations?

P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I’d like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of a violation of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand that?

P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: All right then what was your duty status and assignment on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours?

P.O.WALSH: This statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I’m only givin’ this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

KILLEN: Okay. So last night 20 October 2014 about 2150 hours what was your duty status?
P.O.WALSH: I was assigned to uh Beat 845 Robert.

KILLEN: What time did you start work last night?
P.O.WALSH: 2100 hours.

KILLEN: Okay you were assigned a partner?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: And who’s your partner?
P.O.WALSH: Jason Van Dyke.

KILLEN: Okay and you and Officer Van Dyke you guys were in full uniform?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: And you and Officer Van Dyke were assigned a vehicle?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: And what kinda vehicle were you assigned?
P.O.WALSH: Chevy Tahoe.

KILLEN: Marked?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Do you know the outside number on it?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: What is it?
P.O.WALSH: 6412.
KILLEN: And then last night were you the driver or passenger?
P.O.WALSH: Driver.

KILLEN: And then 20 October 2014 at approximately 2150 hours uh you were a witness to a police-involved shooting correct?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and if you would starting from the beginning explain to me how you became involved in this incident.
P.O.WALSH: I responded to an assist call that 815 Robert had requested uh assistance uh call of a man with a knife.

KILLEN: And you become aware of the request uh via OEMC correct?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Over the radio?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay do you recall where you were at when you first heard the uh radio assist?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Where were you?
P.O.WALSH: 5900 South Pulaski.

KILLEN: Were you on a job?
P.O.WALSH: No.
KILLEN: Just routine patrol?
P.O.WALSH: I was just leaving uh local 7 Eleven convenience store.

KILLEN: Okay so this is like right after roll call then?
P.O.WALSH: Correct.

KILLEN: Okay. So you hear the, you heard over the radio.
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Were you actually dispatched the job or you just goin’ cause you overheard it?
P.O.WALSH: Just because I heard uh the officers call for an assist.

KILLEN: Okay. And do you know, at the time did you know why they needed an assist?
P.O.WALSH: They called that there was a man with a, a knife.

KILLEN: Okay do you recall where that was at?
P.O.WALSH: Um 40th and Pulaski, approachin’ 40th and Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay. So you hear the 815 call for the assist, man with a knife correct?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: So you leave the 7 Eleven.
P.O.WALSH: Leave the parking lot of the 7 Eleven.
KILLEN: Okay so you and Officer Van Dyke and you drive, right?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: So you head to 40th and Pulaski just about?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: And what happens when you get there? What happens?
P.O.WALSH: Observe a uh, male black in the Burger King parking lot running with a knife in his hand. Uh being followed from behind by Officer Joseph McElligott.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.WALSH: On foot.

KILLEN: Prior to this you knew Officer Joseph McElligott correct?
P.O.WALSH: Excuse me?

KILLEN: Did you know Officer Joseph McElligott before this night?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So you recognized ‘em when you saw ‘em runnin’ through the parkin’ lot?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: What about the man he was chasin’? You ever see him before?
P.O.WALSH: No.
KILLEN: Okay so when you see this are you, are you on Pulaski when you first see this happen?

P.O.WALSH: No I’m on 40th Street pulling into the uh Burger King parking lot.

KILLEN: Okay so you, you left the 7 Eleven parking lot, you drive north on Pulaski correct?

P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: And then you get to 40th?

P.O.WALSH: Correct.

KILLEN: And you go west?

P.O.WALSH: West.

KILLEN: And then is that when you see McElligott chasin’ the offender?

P.O.WALSH: Uh no not until I turned into the uh Burger King parking lot. Off of 40th Street.

KILLEN: And what prompted you to turn into the parking lot?

P.O.WALSH: Because uh there was a citizen standing on 40th Street who pointed in the direction of the Burger King lot that drew my attention to that uh area.

KILLEN: Okay. And where, where exactly was the citizen?

P.O.WALSH: Citizen was on 40th Street on the north side of uh 40th Street uh standing next to a white vehicle that was parked on the street.
KILLEN: Would be like the west side of Pulaski, the east side of Pulaski?

P.O.WALSH: It was the uh, uh west side of Pulaski on 40th Street which uh the individual was standin’ on the north side of 40th Street.

KILLEN: Okay so the northwest corner, the intersection there then, 40th and Pulaski?

P.O.WALSH: Well not the intersection probably uh a hundred or hundred and fifty feet uh west of uh Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay. So he draws your attention to the parking lot?

P.O.WALSH: He just pointed yes.

KILLEN: Right.

P.O.WALSH: Yeah and forced me to look over and I seen an individual uh running.

KILLEN: Okay and then that’s the offender correct?

P.O.WALSH: Correct.

KILLEN: And you see ‘em runnin’ with a knife?

P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you remember what hand he had it in?

P.O.WALSH: Right hand.

KILLEN: Okay so you go into the parking lot?

P.O.WALSH: Yes.
KILLEN: And what happens from there?
P.O.WALSH: Uh the offender continues to run in an eastward direction. Uh I give chase in the vehicle, in the police car. And um my intentions were to not let that offender get into the Burger King entry door so I positioned my vehicle um in, in a way to force him not to make entry into that store which that's what I believed he was gonna attempt to do.

KILLEN: Okay. And what happens from there?
P.O.WALSH: He uh, he bypassed the restaurant uh ran across the sidewalk, ran into the roadway into the southbound lanes. And then uh ran southbound.

KILLEN: So at that point then he's southbound, he's in the street. he's in Pulaski, he's on Pulaski.
P.O.WALSH: Yeah.

KILLEN: Headin' southbound on Pulaski Avenue?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and where you at at this point?
P.O.WALSH: Uh I, I follow behind him. I jumped the curb over the sidewalk into the uh southbound lanes. Uh from the southbound lanes I drive left of center um into the um northbound lanes traveling southbound.

KILLEN: Okay. And why did you, why did you do that?
P.O.WALSH: Um there were uh vehicles in, in, in the way.

KILLEN: Okay. Uh are you still behind the offender at this point?
P.O.WALSH: No uh tryin’ to advance in front of him. So parallel at one point and then uh attempted to pass him.

KILLEN: So you get around ’em?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: And what happens then?
P.O.WALSH: Um exit the my vehicle along with Officer Van Dyke. Uh I run uh to the back of my vehicle and um I drew my weapon and I began to give verbal commands yelling drop the knife numerous times.

KILLEN: And whaddoes the offender do?
P.O.WALSH: Continues to run in my direction. Uh flailing a knife in his right hand. And um continue towards us.

KILLEN: Does he close the distance?
P.O.WALSH: Yes he does.

KILLEN: Okay. And how close does he get to you, to you I guess? If you had to guess.
P.O.WALSH: Uh I back up uh and retreat several feet while he was closin’ the distance approximately 12 to 15 feet.
KILLEN: And at that point is there anything between you and the offender?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: What is?
P.O.WALSH: Officer Van Dyke.

KILLEN: Other than Officer Van Dyke is there anything, could you, if you had to gain cover could you?
P.O.WALSH: No.

KILLEN: Okay. What, what’s between Officer Van Dyke and the offender?
P.O.WALSH: Nothing.

KILLEN: If you had to guess distance between Officer Van Dyke and the offender?
P.O.WALSH: Ten feet.

KILLEN: Does the offender continuously close the distance?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Continuously approaches?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Has the knife in his hand?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: You said he was flailing it?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.
KILLEN: And what happens then?

P.O. WALSH: Officer Van Dyke uh discharges his weapon.

KILLEN: Okay. More than once?

P.O. WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: If you had to guess at how many times he fired?

P.O. WALSH: Eight or nine.

KILLEN: Did you fire?

P.O. WALSH: No.

KILLEN: Why not?

P.O. WALSH: Because uh Officer Van Dyke was on my right hand side in my uh line of fire.

KILLEN: Okay. So you don’t fire outta, outta concern you might strike Officer Van Dyke?

P.O. WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So after Officer Van Dyke discharges his firearm what happens?

P.O. WALSH: I then uh approach the offender and uh tell him to uh drop the knife from his uh his grasp. And uh he refused and I stepped on his hand and I uh I pulled the knife and kicked it from his uh, his clenched fist.

KILLEN: So this point he’s on the ground correct?

P.O. WALSH: Yes.
KILLEN: Okay so Officer Van Dyke discharges his firearm, the offender falls to the ground?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and at that point you guys approach, you approach?
P.O.WALSH: I approach.

KILLEN: Okay and you stepped on his, still in his right hand when he fell down the knife?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: And you had to pull it from his right hand?
P.O.WALSH: I used my, my boot, stepped on his hand and had to pull it from his clenched uh hand.

KILLEN: Okay and after you pull it from his clenched hand what happens?
P.O.WALSH: Uh I called on the radio that there were shots fired by the police. And uh called for uh an ambulance.

KILLEN: Okay. And whaddid you do with the knife?
P.O.WALSH: I left it in the, on the street.

KILLEN: Okay. And as far as you’re aware is that where it stayed the entire time?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Any other officers touch it?
P.O.WALSH: No.
KILLEN: Okay and that’s where it was recovered?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Is there anything you’d like to add?
P.O.WALSH: Not at this time.

KILLEN: And everything you stated is a true and accurate account of what occurred?
P.O.WALSH: Yes.

KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Joseph Walsh regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 21st of October 2014 and the time is approximately 0600 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

Hello Dep Lewin,
Per your request the findings related to the Aggravated Assault / Police involved Shooting on 20 Oct 2014 Listed under RD# HY 475653:

Findings from that night:

Veh 8779 Video Recovered Titled PC02400@20141020215250, No MICs because they were in the Glove Compartment with the batteries inserted upside down - Disabling them.

Veh 8489 System not engaged because a very long video (like hours long) was made previous to this event/incident and the system was processing that video and unable to start another video.

Veh 8765 System not engaged, officer related no power. There was no open HDT called in on vehicle. MICs not sync'd to system even though they were in the charging cradles.

Veh 6412 Video Recovered Titled PC05571@20141020215250 view out of focus. Focusing problem found to be related to a loose cable connection for the camera. No MICs in vehicle and the charging cradles disconnected from power.

Veh 8949 System not engaged, officer reported that there was an application error - Mobile Recorder Start-Up corrupted. No Help Desk Ticket Open for this vehicle.

STATEMENT OF P.O. JASON VAN DYKE

CONDUCTED BY INVESTIGATOR KILLEN

ON OCTOBER 22, 2014 AT 1147 HOURS

AT THE INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY
LOG #1072125 U#14-36

1 KILLEN: This is the audio recorded interview of Officer Jason Van Dyke regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today is the 22\textsuperscript{nd} of October 2014. And the time is approximately 1147 hours. This statement is bein' taken at the offices of the Independent Police Review Authority at 1615 West Chicago Avenue. My name is Investigator Killen, that's spelled K I L L E N. My star number is 1 2 9. Present in the room is also uh FOP Field Rep uh Kriston Kato.

11 KATO: Kristen Kato, K R I S T O N. Last name is K A T O. FOP Field Representative.

14 KILLEN: Uh and also uh Attorney Thomas Rebholz.

15 REBHOLZ: Uh Attorney Thomas Rebholz, T H O M A S, R E B H O L Z.

18 KILLEN: Okay. And then Officer Van Dyke if you would say and spell your first name and last names for me.

20 P.O.VAN DYKE: Jason Van Dyke. J A S O N. V A N, D Y K E.

22 KILLEN: And uh what's your star number?

23 P.O.VAN DYKE: 9 4 6 5.

25 KILLEN: And your employee number?

26 P.O.VAN DYKE: [redacted]

28 KILLEN: All right. And your date of appointment with the Department?

32 KILLEN: And your date of birth?
P.O. VAN DYKE: [Redacted]

KILLEN: And your current unit of assignment?
P.O. VAN DYKE: 8th District.

KILLEN: How long you been assigned to 8?
P.O. VAN DYKE: Uh since January of this year.

KILLEN: Where were you before that?
P.O. VAN DYKE: 7th District.

KILLEN: Okay. (clears throat) And you’re now prepared to give a statement regarding this incident?
P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and you’re aware that this statement has the standing of an official Department report. And that any intentional falsification to any answer to any question would be in direct violation of Department rules and regulations?
P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Given that, I’d like to remind you that failure to provide a complete and accurate account of this incident could result in a finding of a violation of Rule 14 with discipline leading up to and including separation from the Chicago Police Department. Do you understand?
P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: All right and before we do start, any um, this device that we’re usin’ to record this is really sensitive. So any whispered conversation you might have it'll pick it up. So you need to, if you wanna talk to the attorney raise your hand we'll pause it. We'll let you have your conversation then we'll continue on okay?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so on 20 October 2014 at approximately 2156 hours what was your duty status and assignment?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Uh this statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I'm only giving this statement at this time because I know that I will lose my job if I refuse the direct order given to me.

KILLEN: Okay so same question October 20th approximately 2156 hours what was your duty status?

P.O. VAN DYKE: I was assigned to the Chicago Police Department.

KILLEN: Were you on duty?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes I was.

KILLEN: Okay. What time did you start work that night?

P.O. VAN DYKE: 2100 hours.

KILLEN: Okay and uh were you assigned a partner?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes I was.

KILLEN: Who's your partner?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Uh Joe Walsh.
KILLEN: All right and were you and Officer Walsh full uniform?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Uh we were in full uniform in a marked squad car.

KILLEN: Okay were you in a car, Tahoe, what were you in?
P.O.VAN DYKE: We were in a Tahoe.

KILLEN: Okay marked?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Do you remember the outside number on it?
P.O.VAN DYKE: No I do not.

KILLEN: Do you remember what beat you were assigned?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Um 845 Robert.

KILLEN: Okay. And then so on 20 October 2014 your, your shift started 2100 hours correct?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes sir.

KILLEN: What would you be 2100 to 0600?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay is that, that's your regular shift?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Um no I'm a relief officer.

KILLEN: Okay so you kinda bounce a lil bit?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. (clears throat) A midnight guy --
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY

LOG #1072125 U#14-36

P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: -- essentially. All right. Did you work the night before?
P.O.VAN DYKE: No I did not.

KILLEN: So the 20th of October is like your Monday?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. Prior to, prior to showin' up to work on the 20th of October where were ya?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Um I was at home. And I had a part-time job that day.

KILLEN: Oh whadda you do?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Um I worked at uh the Wal-Mart in Cicero.

KILLEN: Security?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay.
P.O.VAN DYKE: For Moneray.

KILLEN: Did you go, go from Moneray Security work, you work for Moneray Security?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: I gotcha. Did you go from your part-time job to, to the 8th District and work? Or did you go from home to 8?
P.O.VAN DYKE: I went from home to 8.
KILLEN: Okay. All right and then on 20 October 2014 approximately 2156 hours you were involved in a police shooting correct?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: All right. And if you would just start from the beginning explain what happened that night that brought you, brought you there?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Um I heard um 815 Robert requesting assistance and we responded.

KILLEN: Okay. So (inaudible) so 20, so on 20 October 2014 you start work at 2100 hours correct?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: So you get there you have roll call?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: What time do you have roll call at? About?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Around 2100, 2110.

KILLEN: Okay. And if you remember approximately what time did you get out of roll call?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Maybe 20 minutes later.

KILLEN: Okay so say somewhere between 2130, 2140?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so you and Officer Walsh you go get your car?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.
KILLEN: You guys get in the car. You leave the 8th District.

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: And whadda you do immediately from leaving the 8th District?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Um we drove and we got some coffee at the 7 Eleven on 59th and Pulaski.

KILLEN: Okay. Is that where you're at when you hear the call that the 815 Robert needs assistance?

P.O. VAN DYKE: We were leaving there.

KILLEN: Okay. So you get your coffee and the call you're talkin' about you hear over the radio correct?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Were you assigned the job? Or did you just hear it?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Um we didn't hear their initial job. We heard them requesting assistance.

KILLEN: Okay do you remember exactly what kinda assistance they were lookin' for or why?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Um they were requesting a taser for an individual.

KILLEN: Okay do you remember where they were at when they requested it?

P.O. VAN DYKE: They were around 40th and, 41st and one of the K streets. I don't remember.
INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY

LOG #1072125 U#14-36

KILLEN: Okay. (clears throat) So uh so you and Officer Walsh you leave the 7 Eleven parking lot basically?

P.O. VAN DYKE: We were already on Pulaski.

P.O. VAN DYKE: Right.

KILLEN: Who’s drivin’?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Joe Walsh.

KILLEN: Okay. So you immediately then go to say 40th and whatever K street there, the 815 Robert were at?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Um yeah we were proceedin’ southbound, yes.

KILLEN: Okay so you head toward --

P.O. VAN DYKE: I’m sorry northbound.

KILLEN: You see ’em north on Pulaski towards 40th Street?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. So you guys go lights and sirens?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: All right so you guys go straight from let’s just say from 7 Eleven to 40th and Pulaski that’s where you’re headed?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: And what happens there?
P.O. VAN DYKE: Um once we get closer heard also over the air that um subject, they're still askin' for a taser and that the uh, the subject is armed uh with a knife. And that he had just slashed one of their tires.

KILLEN: So that's over the radio you hear all this correct?
P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: All right. Do you carry a taser?
P.O. VAN DYKE: No I do not.

KILLEN: Does Officer Walsh?
P.O. VAN DYKE: I don't know that.

KILLEN: Okay. That night I don't think he had one.

KILLEN: Okay. And Officer Walsh he would be your regular partner correct?
P.O. VAN DYKE: No.

KILLEN: Okay oh you said he was.
P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: You really bounce around then.
P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes I do.

KILLEN: Okay. So you and Officer Walsh you get to 40th and this is about Karlov is where this happens at. Or starts off at Karlov and these guys and, and toward Pulaski.

P.O. VAN DYKE: I yeah I don't know what K street it was. I just -- KILLEN: No I'm, I'm tellin' ya.

P.O. VAN DYKE: Okay.

KILLEN: All right so, so you guys get to, so you get to 40th and Pulaski and what happens?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Um we, we head um westbound on 40th Street. We're right there at the Burger King um he's givin' out that the guy's runnin' eastbound towards Pulaski um I'm sorry. One of the officers of 815 Robert is givin' out a description over the air that the offender's runnin' eastbound towards Pulaski and he's at the Burger King lot. Um I see Officer McElligott on foot um approaching into the Burger King lot. I see the offender running eastbound through the Burger King parking lot.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you remember the description given out over the radio of the offender?

P.O. VAN DYKE: No.

KILLEN: But when you see the guy runnin' through the parkin' lot --

P.O. VAN DYKE: I see the guy runnin' through the parkin' lot with the knife.
KILLEN: Okay. And as best you can describe to me what that man looks like?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Uh he's a male black, braids. He had a black jacket on and blue jeans.

KILLEN: And you saw 'em with a knife?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes I did in his right hand.

KILLEN: He's runnin', he, he's runnin' east through the parking lot?

P.O. VAN DYKE: He's runnin' east and on a diagonal towards the uh Burger King.

KILLEN: And when you see this where you at?

P.O. VAN DYKE: We're about getting, we're basically at the mouth of the parking lot.

KILLEN: Burger King?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: What happens then? So you see this guy runnin' and you see Officer McElligott on foot after 'em correct?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay and what happens?

P.O. VAN DYKE: We enter the parking lot. We kinda cut 'em off from goin' into the Burger King. See another squad car approaching on our left. And it looks like we're going to be able to pin 'em in. He continues running eastbound towards Pulaski. We continue to follow him on to Pulaski and at that point he starts running southbound on, in the middle of Pulaski.

KILLEN: So at this point you have, you have neither of you, you or Officer Walsh have exited the squad car?
P.O.VAN DYKE: No.

KILLEN: Okay. So then when the offender runs south on Pulaski you continue south after 'em?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: And what happens from there?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Um we get a lil bit closer to 'em because it looks like he’s tryin’ to run towards the Dunkin’ Donuts cause he’s continually makin’ a beeline towards the nearest um, nearest building. We cut 'em off again. There’s another squad car approaching and he diverts um back into the um southbound lanes on Pulaski. And at that point we go around the other squad cars and we get ahead of 'em by about five or six car lengths.

KILLEN: Okay. And what you mean is you went, you went further south on Pulaski right?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes we did.

KILLEN: The chase continued south on Pulaski?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes it did.

KILLEN: And so you get ahead of 'em?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.
KILLEN: And what happens?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Um we parked the squad car kind of on an angle in the middle of Pulaski so he can’t keep on running down the road.

KILLEN: Okay.

P.O. VAN DYKE: Um I exit the vehicle. Uh I see ’em runnin’ wavin’ this knife with his right hand you know under, it in an under position. I give ’em verbal commands to drop the knife. I’m yellin’ at ’em drop the knife.

KILLEN: Okay. When you guys, you park your car on Pulaski correct?

P.O. VAN DYKE: I’m sorry?

KILLEN: The car, your car gets stopped on Pulaski?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes it does.

KILLEN: Is there traffic, is there regular traffic on Pulaski at that point do you remember?

P.O. VAN DYKE: I don’t remember really any being there.

KILLEN: Okay. And he’s --

P.O. VAN DYKE: I’m focused on him.

KILLEN: Right I know. And he’s still on Pulaski and he’s in the southbound lanes still runnin’ south though right?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.
KILLEN: You said he was kinda makin' that beeline between say Burger King and the Dunkin' Donuts on the east side of Pulaski?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Correct.

KILLEN: So you, you stop. You get out, pistol drawn.

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: And order 'em to put the knife down.

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes I do.

KILLEN: And you say he's wavin' it at, as best you can describe what you were doin' with your hand there?

P.O. VAN DYKE: He's wavin' it in an, he's clenchin' it. Um with the blade forward underneath and he's wavin' it um from you know his right side towards his left in an upward fashion.

KILLEN: Okay. Him doin' that make you think he was gonna put the knife down?

P.O. VAN DYKE: No.

KILLEN: You took that to be a threatening --

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yeah he was wavin' it upwards --

REBHOLOZ: Chest level.

P.O. VAN DYKE: -- yeah at my chest. Chest level.

KILLEN: As if he wanted to he could stab you?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.
KILLEN: Okay. And how far, so you get out and he's doin' this with the knife. How far are you from him at this point if you guess?

P.O. VAN DYKE: I would say I was approximately ten to fifteen feet away from him.

KILLEN: And he's facin' you?

P.O. VAN DYKE: He's, he's comin' towards me.

KILLEN: Okay. So he's closin' the distance between you and him?

P.O. VAN DYKE: He is and I'm back pedalin'.

KILLEN: Okay and at that point what's between you and him?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Nothing.

KILLEN: And what's behind you? Do you know?

P.O. VAN DYKE: I have no idea.

KILLEN: Do you know where Officer Walsh was at at this time?

P.O. VAN DYKE: I have no idea.

KILLEN: All right what about any other officers. Did you see them too?

P.O. VAN DYKE: I saw some squad cars approaching from the um the north. Um that's about it.

KILLEN: Okay. And I know you said it before, I'm gonna assume your attention is focused on the man with the knife.
P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And he’s closin’ the distance between you and him and you’re back pedalin’ did you say?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes I am.

KILLEN: Is he runnin’ toward you?

P.O. VAN DYKE: He’s walkin’ really fast almost like ah almost like a jog I think.

KILLEN: Okay. And that’s when he’s doin’ the wavin’ with the knife?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: And what, what happens? So he’s closin’ the distance. You’re back pedalin’ and what happens?

P.O. VAN DYKE: He’s gettin’, he’s gettin’ closer to me. I could see that there’s nobody to my right. There’s nothin’ in front a me. There’s nothin’ to my left. I keep on orderin’ ‘em drop the knife, drop the knife, drop the knife. He doesn’t drop the knife. He’s still wavin’ the knife at me. I’m thinkin’ he’s, he’s goin’ do somethin’ to me.

KILLEN: And whaddid you think was he was gonna do?

P.O. VAN DYKE: I think he’s going to try and take my life away from me.

KILLEN: And what happens?

P.O. VAN DYKE: I shoot ‘em.
KILLEN: Okay. Do you know how many times you fired?
P.O.VAN DYKE: I shot 16 rounds.

KILLEN: You know that now?
P.O.VAN DYKE: I know that because my weapon went into slide lock.

KILLEN: Oh so at the moment, at the time you knew that you were aware of that?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And so when your pistol goes into slide lock do you think, do you know that you emptied the clip or do you think like it’s a malfunction?
P.O.VAN DYKE: I know I emptied the magazine.

KILLEN: Okay. So you weren’t afraid of a malfunction?
P.O.VAN DYKE: No.

KILLEN: And whadda you do? So the slide locks and whadda you do with your pistol?
P.O.VAN DYKE: I did a tactical reload.

KILLEN: Okay. And do you fire again?
P.O.VAN DYKE: No I do not.

KILLEN: Why not?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Um I felt that the threat was eliminated.

Um my partner, Officer Walsh said Jason back up I have this. Um I covered him while he approached and kicked the knife outta the offender’s hand.
KILLEN: Okay and when you say the threat's been eliminated, why is the threat eliminated?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Um the subject was now layin' on the ground. Um he wasn't makin' any efforts to get up.

KILLEN: And Officer Walsh had to kick the knife from his hand?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes he had to forcefully kick the knife out of his hand.

KILLEN: So the offender falls to the ground and he's still got the knife?

P.O. VAN DYKE: He still has the knife. He's you know we're still yellin' at 'em drop the knife.

KILLEN: Okay. So then Officer Walsh tells you to back up, he's got this.

P.O. VAN DYKE: Right.

KILLEN: He approaches the offender.

P.O. VAN DYKE: He approaches the offender and he, he kicks it out of his hand.

KILLEN: And that whole time you're what the cover officer at that point?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay so and do you know what happens right after that then?

P.O. VAN DYKE: After that um Officer Walsh gets over the air and um says shots fired by the police. I remember shouting we need an ambulance. Um I, I think I keyed it up over the radio. I don’t remember if I did or did not, but I shouted we need an ambulance.

KILLEN: All right and then that’s when all the other officers start runnin’ up, gettin’ there correct?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. At any time did you, did you handle that knife?

P.O. VAN DYKE: No I did not.

KILLEN: So Officer Walsh kicks it as it remains on the ground?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Are you aware of any officer pickin’ it up or touching or handlin’ it in any way?

P.O. VAN DYKE: No I think it was just the um the crime lab recovered it.

KILLEN: Okay. So where they recovered it as far as you know is where it laid the entire time?

P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. And then just goin’ back to when you discharged your firearm, do you remember, were you, were you standing still when you fired or were you movin’?

P.O. VAN DYKE: I think I was moving.
KILLEN: Do you think, do you think you were still movin' backwards?

P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Okay. Do you remember how you held the pistol?

P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: How?

P.O.VAN DYKE: Held it in front of me. Um two hands.

KILLEN: Are you right handed or left handed?

P.O.VAN DYKE: I'm right handed.

KILLEN: All right so your right hand dominant.

P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: So your left hand was for support?

P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes.

KILLEN: Is that what you're doin'. And do you use sights?

P.O.VAN DYKE: No I do not.

KILLEN: Okay. Before I forget what kinda pistol did you have?

P.O.VAN DYKE: Um it's was a Smith & Wesson um 5943 9 millimeter.

KILLEN: It was fully loaded?

P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes it was.

KILLEN: So what's that 15?
KILLEN: Okay. All right at the time did you have any other firearm on you?
P.O.VAN DYKE: No I did not.

KILLEN: Do you own any other firearms?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes I do.

KILLEN: What do you own?
P.O.VAN DYKE: I own a um a Chief Special 38 Revolver.

KILLEN: That's it?
P.O.VAN DYKE: That's it.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. So you, you, you're fully loaded. 16 rounds fired. Slide lock, you do tactical reload but you don't fire again?
P.O.VAN DYKE: I do not.

KILLEN: All right so then when, when your weapon is recovered by the crime lab, that's what they got, they got the reloaded firearm?
P.O.VAN DYKE: Yes sir.

KILLEN: So the clip is 15?
P.O.VAN DYKE: I'm sorry?

KILLEN: Did you put one in the chamber and then 15 or is the 15 from the clip?
P.O.VAN DYKE: 15 from the magazine.
KILLEN: Okay. All right. And you weren't injured at all correct?
P.O. VAN DYKE: No sir.

KILLEN: To the best of your recollection can you estimate how close you were when, or how close you and the offender were to each other when you fired your weapon at 'em?
P.O. VAN DYKE: I would say it was approximately 10 to 15 feet.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. And as far as you were, you're the only police officer that fired correct?
P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes sir.

KILLEN: Okay. All right. Is there anything you'd like to add?
P.O. VAN DYKE: No sir.

KILLEN: Everything you told me is a true and accurate account of what occurred?
P.O. VAN DYKE: Yes sir.

KILLEN: All right this will conclude the audio recorded interview of Officer Jason Van Dyke regarding Log number 1072125 U number 14 dash 36. Today's the 22nd of October 2014. The time's approximately 1206 hours.
I, CAROL A. O'LEARY, do hereby certify or affirm that I have impartially transcribed the foregoing from an audio recording of the above-mentioned proceeding to the best of my ability.

(Original exhibits sent to Mr. Neumer.)
MR. NEUMER: As a preliminary matter, I am providing the following information: An independent certified court reporter is present today to provide a verbatim transcript of this interview. To aid in the accuracy of the transcript, it is the custom and practice of court reporters to audio-record the interview.

The recording is the confidential work product property of the court reporter and will not be provided to any party, including the OIG. If you request, the audio recording will be discontinued.

So, Officer Velez, are you okay with the court reporter audio-recording this interview?

MR. FAHY: We have no objection to that.

MR. NEUMER: Okay. Let the record reflect that today's date is September 21, 2016. The time is 3:55 p.m. We are located at Amicus Court Reporters, 300 West Adams, Suite 800.

My name is Peter Neumer, the court reporter is Andrew Pitts, and I would ask that the other individuals present identify themselves and spell their names for record.

MR. VALDEZ: Investigator Raul Valdez; V-A-L-D-E-Z.
 MR. FAHY: My name is Will Fahy. Last name is spelled F-A-H-Y.

THE INTERVIEWEE: Officer Leticia Velez, V-E-L-E-Z, 10385.

MR. NEUMER: There are no other individuals present.

We are here today pursuant to an investigation being conducted under Chapter 2-56 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago. We are here for an interview of Officer Velez.

Officer Velez, would you please raise your right hand, and the court reporter will swear you in.

MR. VALDEZ: I have instructed my client not to be sworn. This is an administrative statement. So I am refusing to have her sworn for this statement.

MR. NEUMER: Okay.

LEΤΙCIA VELEΖ, called as an Interviewee herein, having been first administered an oath, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Officer Velez, I am now going to hand you a form that is marked Advisement of Rights.

Actually, I will give you this one (indicating) just because it has your name. This form has already been filled in with your name, my name, and Investigator Valdez's name.

I am going to ask you to read along with me as I go through this Advisement form, and I will ask you after each paragraph to acknowledge you have read the paragraph.

So the Advisement states, "I, Officer Leticia Velez, understand that I am being interviewed by Peter Neumer and Raul Valdez from the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General. I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have the duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully."

Officer Velez, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand that if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I would be ordered by a superior officer to answer the questions.

I further understand and I have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the rules and regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge."

Officer Velez, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand and I have been advised that my statements and responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's rules and regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department."

Do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes.
Q. "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge."

Officer Velez, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding."

Officer Velez, do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that I have the right to have a union representative or legal counsel of my choosing present at the interview to consult with and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed."

Do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that a refusal to answer any question or any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56 and may serve as the basis for my discharge."

Do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes.

Q. "I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me and I have been allowed to review this document."

Do you see the paragraph I just read aloud to you?

A. Yes.

Q. Officer Velez, I would ask you to sign the Advisement, and then we can witness that Advisement.

MR. NEUMER: And we will mark that as Exhibit 1.

(Whereupon, Velez Exhibit 1 was marked for identification.)

MR. FAHY: While you are marking that as an exhibit, there is something my client would like to state for the record.
THE INTERVIEWEE: This statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I am only giving this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

MR. NEUMER: Okay.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I am now going to mark several exhibits to get them on the record and present them to Officer Velez to confirm her prior receipt of these exhibits.

So I am now handing you what is marked as Notification of Interview. And we are going to mark this as Exhibit 2. It is dated September 14, 2016.

Officer Velez, have you seen this Notification of Interview prior to today's interview?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this document on or about September 15, 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. And is that your signature at the bottom of the Notification?

A. Yes.
MR. NEUMER: We will mark that Notification as Exhibit 2.

(Whereupon, Velez Exhibit 2 was marked for identification.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay. And I am now handing you what we will mark as Exhibit 3, which is a Notification of Allegations. Officer Velez, have you seen this Notification of Allegations prior to today's interview?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this document on or about September 15, 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. And is that your signature on page 2 of the Notification of Allegations?

A. Yeah.

MR. NEUMER: Okay. I will now mark this as Exhibit 3.

(Whereupon, Velez Exhibit 3 was marked for identification.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay. I am now handing you what we will mark as Exhibit 4. It is a receipt form.
Officer Velez, have you seen this receipt form prior to today's interview?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this receipt form on or about September 15, 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. And is that your signature on page 2 of the receipt form?

A. Yes.

MR. NEUMER: Okay. We will now mark this as Exhibit 4.

(Whereupon, Velez Exhibit 4 was marked for identification.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Officer Velez, I am now handing you what we will mark as Exhibit 5. This is an excerpt of a CPD Case Supplementary Report dated March 16, 2015, with the RD number HX475653 containing your statement to Detective March. Have you seen this document prior to today's interview?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this document on or about September 15, 2016?
A. Yes.

MR. NEUMER: Okay. And I will mark that as Exhibit 5 now.

(Whereupon, Velez Exhibit 5 was marked for identification.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. And I have now put in front of you what we will mark as Exhibit 6, a General Progress Report dated October 20, 2014, with the RD number HX475653 containing Detective March's notes of his interview of you.

Have you seen this document prior to today's interview?

A. Yes.

Q. And did BIA provide you with this document on or about September 15, 2016?

A. Yes.

MR. NEUMER: Okay. I am going mark that as Exhibit 6.

(Whereupon, Velez Exhibit 6 was marked for identification.)

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. In order to prepare for today's interview, did you review the materials that BIA provided you?

A. The disk?

Q. Yes.

A. Yes.

Q. And so that includes the Exhibit 6 General Progress Report?

A. Yes.

Q. And the Exhibit 5 Case Supplementary Report?

A. Yes.

Q. And that disk that BIA provided you, that included video from the in-car video systems of vehicles 813 Robert and 845 Robert; is that correct?

A. I'm not positive, so --

Q. Do you recall that the disk that BIA provided you contained video?

A. There -- yes.

Q. Okay. Did you review the video that was contained on the disk that the BIA provided you?

A. Not all of the video. There's only one video of the shooting.

Q. Okay. And you reviewed that video prior to today's interview?
Q. Since receiving the Notice of Interview, did you review any materials other than the materials that BIA provided you?
A. Would you repeat that?
Q. Sure. So after receiving the Notice of Interview for today's interview, did you review any materials other than the materials that BIA provided you?
A. Any other materials? No.
Q. Okay. Aside from your attorney, did you speak to anyone else in preparation for this interview?
A. No.

MR. NEUMER: And before we get into our questions, Counsel, I just wanted to confirm that you were okay with the IG providing Officer Velez with a transcript of today's interview within 72 hours of the IG's receipt of that transcript.

MR. VALDEZ: Yes.
MR. NEUMER: Okay.

BY MR. NEUMER:
Q. So Officer Velez, I just want to start with a little background. Could you state your name, Star number, and current unit of assignment?

A. Yes. My name, Officer Leticia Velez.

My Star number is 10385. I work in District 8 on the third watch.

Q. Okay. And what was your unit of assignment on October 20, 2014?

A. I was working a beat car. It was beat 822.

Q. And were you on the third watch as of October 20, 2014?

A. Yes, I was.

Q. What was your chain of command as of October 20, 2014?

MR. VALDEZ: On October of 2014?

MR. NEUMER: Yes.

MR. VALDEZ: Okay.

BY THE INTERVIEWEE:

A. My chain of command in terms --

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Your sergeant, your lieutenant.

A. We would report to our sector sergeant.

Q. And who was that?

A. I believe it was Sergeant Tulley.

Q. Sergeant Tulley. Do you know how you spell that last name?
A. No, I do not.
Q. Okay. Do you recall who the lieutenant was who was --
A. I do not.
Q. Okay. Do you ever use your cell phone as part of your work responsibilities?
A. Yes.
Q. Could you state your personal cell phone number for the record?
A. Yes. It's [redacted].
Q. And was that the same number you had on October 20, 2014?
A. Yes.
Q. So I want to talk to you about October 20, 2014. You were present when Laquan McDonald was shot; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And at the time of the shooting, you were in the 822 vehicle; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And Officer Arturo Bacerra was driving that vehicle at the time of the shooting; is that correct?
A. Yes.

Q. Was Officer Bacerra your partner that evening?

A. Yes.

Q. And was he your regular partner at that time?

A. Yes.

Q. How long had the two of you been partners for?

A. I don't know. I do not know exactly.

Q. So I'm talking about as of October 20, 2014. Do you think you and Officer Bacerra had partners for more than a year?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

A. Yes.

Q. More than three years?

A. I don't know. I don't know.

Q. Okay. So it was more than a year though?

A. Yes.

Q. I want you to walk us through your actions immediately following the shooting. And maybe we could start with where did Officer Bacerra park the 822 vehicle?
A. I don't know exactly where he parked it.

He did make a U-turn because we had approached.

Q. Okay. And so immediately -- so do you have any sense of ultimately where that car came to a stop?

A. I don't know. Just when you make a U-turn, came -- I don't know if I'm answering your question correctly, but he just made a complete U-turn. So --

Q. Yeah. Right. I mean, I guess, do you know whether the vehicle was north of Officer Van Dyke's vehicle or whether it was near the intersection? You know, was it on the east or west side of Pulaski?

A. After we made the U-turn? We were facing south at that point.

Q. Do you recall about how far your vehicle was from Officer Van Dyke's vehicle?

A. I do not.

Q. Do you recall about how far your -- so you were facing south. Okay.

Would you have been able to see Laquan McDonald's body from the vantage point of the vehicle when you were stopped?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall about how far away you were from Laquan McDonald when the vehicle was stopped?

A. I do not, not -- no.

Q. Do you think it was more than 50 feet that that vehicle was away from Laquan McDonald?

A. I do not know. I'm not really good with the numbers, so I don't want to say, "Yeah, 25 feet, 50 feet." I don't know. I don't feel comfortable with that.

Q. Okay. So there was a U-turn?

A. Yes.

Q. And the 822 vehicle came to a stop, and it was facing south on Pulaski; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Sometimes the court reporter can't pick up nods or shakes of the head.

A. Correct.

Q. So I might just ask you to --

A. Sure. Yes.

Q. Just so the record is clear.

Okay. So you are facing south on Pulaski, and once the vehicle was stopped, you could see Laquan McDonald's body? Is that fair to
Q. Okay. And could you also see Officer Van Dyke and Walsh's vehicle?
A. I could not. I was focused on Laquan.
Q. Okay.
A. So it's not that I could not see it; I didn't veer to look in that direction.
Q. I got you. Were there any other vehicles between the 822 vehicle, your vehicle, and Laquan McDonald's body?
A. I don't believe so.
Q. Okay.
A. There were other cars in the area, but to tell you which beat, I do not know their beats because these are midnight vehicles.
Q. Sure. And those vehicles were not between the 822 vehicle and Laquan McDonald's body?
A. No, I don't believe so. No.
Q. They weren't obstructing your view of --
A. Correct.
Q. -- of his body? Okay.
So once Officer Bacerra had stopped the vehicle, what happened next?
A. When he stopped the vehicle, we exited the vehicle. I exited the vehicle.

Q. And what did you do once you exited the vehicle?

A. I walked to the front or the nose of our car. I didn't take many steps past that.

Q. And once you got to the nose of the vehicle, what did you do then?

A. I had my gun unholstered. I obviously put it -- holstered it. I just stood there until they were -- it was done. I wasn't sure who was doing shooting when I saw Laquan McDonald fall to the ground.

Q. So when you got out of your vehicle, were there still shots being fired?

A. Yes.

Q. And do you have any sense of how many shots were fired once you got out of your vehicle?

A. No, sir, I don't.

Q. And so you get out of the passenger side of the vehicle, and you go to the front of the 822 vehicle?

A. Yes.

Q. And you had unholstered your weapon; is that correct?

A. I had my gun, like, when I was coming out, it was unsnapped.

Q. And so there were shots being fired. Do you know who was firing those shots?

A. I did not. Both of -- I saw both of the officers in a ready stance position, but my main focus was on Laquan.

Q. And he was on the ground at that time?

A. Yes, he had already fallen to the ground.

Q. Were there any words being said by anyone?

A. I don't know exactly who, but I did hear prior to the shooting happening for him to drop the knife.

Q. Do you recall whether you heard that when you were making the U-turn, or do you recall when you heard "drop the knife"?

A. I do not.

Q. Was it before you got out of your vehicle that you heard "drop the knife"?

A. I don't know for certain.

Q. And do you recall where Officer Bacerra was while you were at the nose of the vehicle?
   A. No.
   Q. Do you recall if he got out of the vehicle as well?
   A. I do recall him getting out of the vehicle as well.
   Q. Was that -- sorry. Go ahead.
   A. Yeah, but for -- he wasn't standing, like, right next to me. So -- Q. Sure. Do you recall him getting out of the vehicle around the same time you got out around the vehicle?
   A. Yes.
   Q. So you're making a U-turn. The vehicle stops. You get out of the vehicle. You unhook your weapon?
   A. It was a snap. It's snapped.
   Q. You unsnapped your weapon?
   A. Yeah.
   Q. Okay. And then you go to the front of the vehicle, and you see shots being fired at McDonald?
   A. Yes.
   Q. And walk me through what you are doing before those shots were fired?
   A. I'm just standing there watching.

Q. Okay. Okay. And what happens after those shots stop being fired?
   A. I observed one of the officers that was in the ready stance position where the shots were coming from kick the knife.

Q. Okay. And what happened after the knife was kicked?
   A. What did I do, or what --

Q. Yeah.
   A. I ended up trying to get in touch with FOP to let them know there was a police-involved shooting.

Q. Is that protocol to call FOP?
   A. People were starting to make notifications. There were officers that were on the radio requesting an ambulance, requesting a supervisor.

Q. Did anyone instruct you to call FOP?
   A. No, sir.

Q. So who did you call from FOP?
   A. I didn't speak to anybody. The line was busy. So I wasn't able to make any type of
Q. So is it fair to say that the first thing you did after the knife was kicked from Laquan McDonald's hand was to call FOP on your cell phone?

A. I mean, I did other stuff, you know. I looked around to make sure everything is okay. Did they need me to block traffic? Did I need to send pedestrians a different way? You know, you have to start protecting the crime scene. I had made calls and --

Q. Yeah. So walk us through some of those --

A. I had to make the calls.

Q. Walk us through some of those activities, if you could. You mentioned protecting the crime scene, traffic; were those things that you were being directed to do?

A. No. I believe it's just my experience. We're still waiting for more officers to come. We need tape. We need to try to, you know, protect the area with the tape.

Q. Sure.

A. Stop cars from coming onto, you know, where we're at. Everything was pretty much being taken care of by other officers on scene.

Q. So how did you go about it? Did you direct traffic at all?

A. I did not, because there was already somebody on the northbound -- there was a car there blocking traffic.

Q. On Pulaski?

A. On -- yeah, southbound so no cars could come, and I believe there was already cars northbound. Who I don't know.

Q. I think you mentioned protecting the crime scene or the integrity of the crime scene.
Did you take any steps in furtherance of that goal?

A. After I was -- I called FOP. Somebody answered, and they were like, "We're already talking to somebody from the 8th District."
"Okay." I hang up. We're trying to look for shell casings, anything else that they may need.

Q. Okay. Do you have FOP's number on your cell phone?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. And so you spoke to someone, and they said, "We're already talking to someone"?
A. We're -- yeah. "We're already on the line with somebody else."

Q. And so was that the last communication via telephone with FOP that night?

A. Yes.

Q. So after you had that phone call with FOP, what did you do next?

A. We remained on scene, waited for a supervisor to get there. They told us, you know, "Stick around."

Q. Do you recall who the supervisor was that told you to wait around?

A. Not exactly, no, I don't.

Q. Did you have any conversations with Officer Bacerra while you were waiting at the scene?

A. When I was waiting at the scene, the only thing was we were -- I told him he needed to move the vehicle because the ambulance still needed to come through. And he told me that the camera person, the person that handles the in-car video camera system, was on scene and he needed to speak with me.

Q. So Officer Bacerra told you that the camera person was on scene and needed to talk to you?

A. Yes.

Q. And so did Officer Bacerra end up moving the 822 vehicle?

A. He did.

Q. Do you recall where he moved it to?

A. He moved it off to the side -- I believe it was in the northbound lane -- just got out of the street to face the correct direction of travel.
There was actually cars in the vicinity also that needed to get through.

Q. So he moved it so it was facing northbound in the northbound lane of Pulaski?

A. Yes.

Q. And so at some point, did you speak with the camera person?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall the nature of that conversation?

A. He was upset. He said, "What happened with the camera?"

I'm like, "I had tried numerous times to log on," and he seemed upset.
He said, "You know, you tried so many times, it's like slapping somebody on the back of the head, that you didn't even give the camera the opportunity to think, to log on," is what he said.
And I was just like, "Okay. I had attempted."

Q. Were you making those attempts to log in after the shooting or before the shooting?
A. No, sir. No. Mine was before the shooting.

Q. Okay.
A. During my tour of duty.

Q. You had made multiple attempts to log in to the in-car video system?
A. Yes.

Q. And those attempts were unsuccessful?
A. Correct.

Q. Was there any other additional conversation with -- do you recall the name of that in-car video person?
A. I do not.

Q. Okay. Did you have any other conversation with him?
A. No.
Q. Who did you speak to after you spoke to the in-car camera person?

A. I didn't speak to anybody. I was just kind of upset that he said that to me.

Q. Do you recall talking to a detective at some point while at the scene of the shooting?

A. No.

Q. Do you recall talking to a detective while you were at area central?

A. I don't recall who I spoke to, if it was -- I don't know who it was that I spoke to.

Q. Do you recall talking to or giving an account of the events you had witnessed to someone from CPD while you were at the scene of the shooting?

A. An account of the events that had occurred?

Q. Yeah, the McDonald shooting.

A. We were told, "You guys are on video. You have to remain on scene. You're going to have to go to the area." That's what we were told by midnight's supervisor. I don't know who he is.

Q. Okay. So the midnight supervisor told you remain on scene and that you would have to go to area central?

A. Yes.

Q. Did anyone from CPD ask you while you were at the scene of the shooting for details? Did they say, "Officer Velez, what did you see"? Did anyone ask you those questions --

A. No.

Q. -- while at the scene?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did anyone from CPD ask you what you had witnessed when you -- did you eventually go to area central?

A. Yes, we did.

Q. Was it you and Officer Bacerra who went to area central?

A. Yes.

Q. And how did you guys get to area central?

A. He drove in beat 822.

Q. So you and Officer Bacerra drove to area central in the 822 vehicle?

A. Yes.

Q. Once you got to area central, did anyone from CPD take a statement from you regarding what you had witnessed at the scene of the shooting?
MR. FAHY: When you say "take a statement," if you could clarify it.

MR. NEUMER: Sure.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Did anyone ask you questions regarding what you had witnessed?

A. No, not specifically.

Q. How about generally? Did anyone ask you questions about what you had witnessed, at area central?

A. I'm not sure how to answer that because I didn't -- was not aware if I was being interviewed. You know, "What happened, what did you see," you know, I didn't get that, "Officer Velez, you know, explain to us what happened and what you saw."

So I didn't have an opportunity to explain what I saw, what I had I had observed. It was very brief when they spoke to us. I don't know who I spoke to. It was very, very brief.

Q. Okay. So someone spoke to you briefly?

A. Yes.

Q. And did they ask you any questions?

A. They asked us if we saw what happened.
Q. And was this at the scene of the shooting or at area central?
A. This was at area central.
Q. Okay. And I believe what you were saying was he "asked us." Who is the "us"?
A. Oh, my partner and I.
Q. And this person was with CPD, presumably?
A. Presumably.
Q. Yeah? Do you recall what they were wearing, what attire they had on?
A. He appeared Asian. I don't know if it was an FOP rep. I don't know who this person was.
Q. Where were you located when this questioning occurred?
A. We were at area central.
Q. And were you in a side room, up on the second floor in the main area there?
A. There's like an office, because the main room is where all the detectives are, so on the side, like, in the office.
Q. Just like in a small office to the side?
A. Yes.
Q. Did this person ask you and Officer Bacerra to come with him so he could ask you questions?

A. No.

Q. How did you all end up in this side office together?

A. Everybody was in the room. Everybody was just milling around pretty much waiting to be spoken to and waiting for IPRA to speak to us.

Q. And were you waiting in the big main area?

A. With the detectives? No, sir. This is the area where the detectives hang out, and there is like another room or an office to the side.

Q. And so were all the officer witnesses in that small room off to the side?

A. Yeah. They were all spread out on that side.

Q. Was anyone else present when you and Officer Bacerra were being asked questions?

A. In terms, like --

Q. Other officers or --

A. No, because those are the midnight officers. We don't really know or talk to them. It's just me and my partner kind of like hanging around.
Q. And did this person just approach the two of you?

A. Yeah. He's like, "Where were you? What did you guys see?" You know, "Which one is your car?" Like, we are in one of the vehicles that's on camera, it's in the video, and he asked us what we saw.

Q. And do you recall what you personally told him?

A. I do not.

Q. Do you recall what Officer Bacerra said in response to his question?

A. No.

Q. Okay. I am going to hand you both Exhibit 5 and Exhibit 6. Exhibit 5 is a Case Supplementary Report or, rather, an excerpt of a case supplementary report for HX475653 reporting Officer David March, date approved March 16, 2015, and it has some statements attributed to Officer Velez.

I am also going to hand you a general progress report dated October 20, 2014, that is signed by Detective David March and contains his notes. And Officer Bell is his name; he is at the top of that.

MR. FAHY: Before you do that, could I take a brief break?

MR. NEUMER: Sure. The time is 4:31, and we'll go off the record.

MR. FAHY: Thanks.

(Whereupon, a break was taken.)

MR. NEUMER: Time is 4:32 p.m. We are back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Officer Velez, I was handing you Exhibit 5, the Case Supplementary Report that includes an account of what is purportedly your statement, and Exhibit 6, which is a general progress report that contains notes and that has your name on it.

So we will start with Exhibit 5, and if you could look at the statement that is attributed to you in Exhibit 5. Do you have any recollection of providing this statement to a detective either at the scene or at the scene of the shooting or at area central? I'm focused on the bottom of the page on the two paragraphs under your name.

A. I may have spoken to somebody, I don't know who, but this doesn't -- I would not have said -- I mean, "She saw him waving object in the air," that's not something I would have said.
That's not accurate.

Q. Okay. And we'll get into this. We'll go line by line on this in a little bit.
A. Okay.

Q. Right now, I just want to sort of determine, try and establish when, where, and to whom you made a statement. So we will get into the accuracy of each one of these lines in a little bit.
A. Okay.

Q. But do you have a sense as to where you were when you -- do you think this statement and the general progress report, the notes there, do you think these were -- this was a conversation that took place at the scene of the shooting?
A. I couldn't tell you. I don't know.

Q. So no real recollection of -- I guess, you do remember being asked a couple of questions at area central, right?
A. Yes.

Q. And other than those questions, do you recall answering any other questions from any other individuals, whether at area central or the scene of the shooting?

A. No, sir, I do not.

Q. Is it possible that a detective asked you questions at the scene of the shooting?

A. It could be possible, but I do not recall.

Q. So you mentioned talking to an in-car video person who was coming to take -- who had some involvement with the in-car videos at the scene of the shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall after talking to that person, did you talk to any other individuals at the scene?

A. No, sir, I do not recall.

Q. Did you have any conversations with Officer Van Dyke at the scene of the shooting?

A. No.

Q. Did you have any conversations with Officer Walsh at the scene of the shooting?

A. No.

Q. How about Officer Sebastian, Daphne
Sebastian? Did you have any conversations with her at the scene of the shooting?

A. No.

Q. How about Officer Janet Mondragon? Did you have any conversations with her?

A. I did. I asked her if her camera was on.

Q. Okay. And do you recall what she said?

A. She said yes.

Q. Okay. Did you have any other conversations with Officer Mondragon on the night of October 20, 2014?

A. No.

Q. How about Officer Dora Fontaine? Did you have any conversations with her at the scene?

A. No.

Q. How about Officer Ricardo Viramontes, any conversations?

A. No. No.

Q. Was there anything that prevented you from talking to the other officers at the scene of the shooting?

A. I didn't see Dora and Rick. I don't recall seeing them.
Q. Okay.
A. So no. And I don't know the other officers. I don't speak to Van Dyke or to Walsh. I don't know them to carry a conversation with them.

Q. Did you have any conversations with Officer Bacerra -- you mentioned moving of the car, right? Did you have any other conversations with Officer Bacerra while you were at the scene of the shooting?
A. No, sir.

Q. You never discussed the shooting at all and what your thoughts were about it with Officer Bacerra?
A. We may have spoken about what we were planning, you know. We didn't have a Taser. That was discussed.

Q. And that was you and Officer Bacerra?
A. Yes.

Q. And what was the nature of that conversation?
A. We were actually going to take our lunch, our scheduled lunch, and we didn't take our lunch. And I said, "You know, we're going to be here all night now."

Q. Okay. Was there some discussion about whether a Taser would have been helpful at the scene?

A. Yes. I did not have a Taser. He did not have a Taser. So that's why I didn't understand why we responded if we didn't have a Taser.

Q. And what did Officer Bacerra say?

A. He said he didn't understand why I didn't want to go.

Q. Generally, when is it appropriate or when do other officers respond to a scene such as the interaction McDonald was having with the officers that evening? So what factors go into whether you should respond to the scene?

A. When it's a 10-1.

Q. And what's a --

A. If I have a tool or if I have a report that somebody is requesting, then I, you know, will go.

Q. And you were just questioning the purpose of you going to the scene without a Taser?

A. Yes.
Q. Were there any other conversations with Officer Bacerra you can recall regarding the shooting that took place at the scene?
A. No.

Q. At any time while you were at the scene, did you hear Officer Van Dyke describing the shooting?
A. No. I didn't even go by him.

Q. So you never saw Van Dyke talking to anyone at the scene?
A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever hear any detectives describing the shooting to police officers?
A. No.

Q. Do you recall seeing Officer Bacerra talking to a detective at the scene of the shooting?
A. No, sir, I do not.

Q. Did you talk to any FOP representatives at the scene, not over the phone, but in person?
A. No, sir.

Q. At any time while you were at the scene of the shooting, did you see video of the shooting?
A. Yes, I did.
Q. Okay. Tell us about that. Where were you when you saw video of the shooting at the scene?

A. When I saw the video? It was in -- I believe it was 13 Roberts.

Q. 813 Robert?

A. Yeah.

Q. Okay.

A. And they were saving it. So usually what you do is to save it, it has to spool or go back and then -- and she played it. Janet played the video.

Q. Okay.

A. So I saw part of the video, and then I left. I'm like, "They're going need this." And that was all that took place.

Q. So Officer Mondragon was playing the --

A. She was saving it.

Q. Oh, she was saving it?

A. She was saving the video.

Q. Okay.

A. Which would have to be uploaded.

Q. Okay. But it --

A. They had captured what had transpired.
Q. Right. And so as she was saving it, there was some playback as well?
A. Yes.
Q. That you could see?
A. Yes.
Q. And so where were you? Were you outside the vehicle, inside the vehicle?
A. I was standing outside peering in while she was --
Q. While she was --
A. Doing different things saving it.
Q. Was anyone else present while Officer Mondragon was saving the video?
A. No. I don't remember anybody else by us. I don't recall. No.
Q. So your recollection is that she was inside the vehicle and you were outside the vehicle?
A. Yes.
Q. And what did you see on that video?
A. I don't remember what I saw exactly, so I'm not going to tell you this is what happened or what I saw.
Q. Did you see your vehicle on the video?
A. Yes.

Q. And is that why you were saying, "We're going need to stick around"?

A. No. A supervisor saw the video, said we had to stick around. "You guys are on it." So we stuck around. We didn't take off. We're like they're going to tell us to remain on scene. We will remain on scene. We have -- you know, we were there.

Q. Did you see the shooting when you watched the video?

A. I watched -- I did see it on the video, but yes.

Q. What was your reaction when you saw the shooting on the video?

A. That the whole thing wasn't really captured.

Q. So what do you mean by that? Flesh that out for us.

A. The fact that when they were recording, when they recorded, the angle of the vehicle didn't catch the whole panoramic view of everybody that was there.

Q. Okay.
A. That's --

Q. Okay. So you couldn't see everything from the 813 Robert dash cam? Is that --

A. It looked like you could see part of it.

Q. Okay. But it wasn't the whole scene?

A. It's what you're seeing on -- the media is showing.

Q. Was that your reaction when you first saw it on the night of October 20th?

A. No. No, I don't know what I was thinking right then and there, but they had the actual -- the shooting was on video. You know, I didn't see from, like, the beginning to the end, you know. I didn't see all of that at that point.

Q. Okay. Did you see any other video of the shooting that night?

A. No.

Q. Did you see any footage from Dunkin' Donuts?

A. No, sir.

Q. When you were at area central, did you see the video again?

A. No. They actually didn't allow us to sit there and watch the video.
Q. Who didn't allow you?
A. I don't know who, but we were told to go have a seat. Nobody was allowed to sit there and crowd around, you know. They were trying to conduct their investigation. I don't know who it was. I don't know who they are, but I did not sit there, you know, by the computer and watch the video in the office, if that's what you're asking me. No, I did not.

Q. Were there people watching the video at a computer in area central?
A. Detectives were.
Q. Okay. So detectives at area central were watching --
A. Or plainclothes people, I should say, because I don't know who or what, so excuse me.

Q. Fair. So plainclothes people were watching the video on a computer at area central?
A. Yes.
Q. And did somebody verbally say, "You guys sit here. Don't watch the video"?
A. They just told us to move out of the way. "Go have a seat."

Q. Did you make any attempt to see the video? Did you try and see the video when you were at area central?
    A. No, telling me to sit down and have a seat and they're going speak to me, then I'll sit down and I'll wait. That's all. I'm not going to, you know, jump the gun. Just tell me what you need me to do.
    Q. You mentioned that you and Officer Bacerra drove the 822 vehicle to area central after you left the scene of the shooting; is that correct?
    A. Yes. Yeah.
    Q. Do you have any recollection around what time you left the scene of the shooting?
    A. No, I do not.
    Q. So the shooting occurs just before 10:00 p.m. on October 20, 2014.
    A. Okay.
    Q. Do you think that you left the scene of the shooting before midnight, so that would be about two hours?
    A. To go to the area? Perhaps. I don't know. I really don't know.
    Q. Do you have any estimate of how long you were at the scene of the shooting?

   A. No, I don't.

Q. Had the ambulance already come to the scene by the time -- or were you present at the scene of the shooting when you ambulance arrived?

   A. I'm sure I was, yeah.

Q. Did you have any conversation with any supervisors when you were at the scene?

   A. As soon as I was told we were going to have to go to the area.

Q. How about after that?

   A. No. I don't recall. No.

Q. Were you given any directives regarding any investigative tasks while you were at the scene?

   A. Investigative tasks?

Q. Sure. You know, like you mentioned, like preserving the crime scene, looking for shells, anything like that?

   A. That's about it. Just looking, you know, pulled out our flashlight, we're trying to see if there were any other casings. Was I given a direct order to do that? I do not recall that.

   I don't know.
Q. Other than being directed to go to area central, do you recall receiving any other directives while you were at the scene?

Q. When you and Officer Bacerra arrived at area central, who else was present?

A. Who was at the scene? We ended up seeing, but I didn't know who it was, but it was Van Dyke, his partner Walsh. I know who these people are now. Of course, I think, Janet and her partner Daphne. Dora and them showed up later. My partner.

Q. Dora and Rick?

A. Rick.

Q. Did you speak to any of those officers you just named while you were at area central?

A. No.

Q. At any time while you were at area central, did you hear Van Dyke describe the shooting to other officers?

A. No.

Q. At any time while you were at area central, did Van Dyke describe the shooting to you?
Q. You never were interviewed by IPRA at area central, right?
A. No, sir.
Q. Is it fair to say you were mostly sitting around while at area central?
A. That's what it felt like. That's correct.
Q. You mentioned, I believe you said, it might have been someone from CPD, perhaps of Asian descent, asked a couple of questions of you and Officer Bacerra?
A. It was somebody who spoke to us for a few minutes.
Q. Other than those questions, did anyone else while you were at area central ask questions of you?
A. No. Not that I remember, but no.
Q. So what happened eventually? How did you know it was okay to leave?
A. We were told that IPRA wasn't going to speak to anybody else. So we were like, "What are we going to do? Can we leave?"
They said, "Yeah, you guys can leave."
Q. Do you recall who told you that?
A. No.

Q. And so at that point, you left area central?
A. We left. I don't know what time, but we were there long.

Q. Hours?
A. Felt like hours, yes. You have to look at my overtime slip that we had submitted. I don't know.

Q. And where did you and Officer Bacerra go after you left area central?
A. We drove back to the station, and we submitted our overtime slip to the watch commander, and we left.

Q. Okay. And we touched on this. I just want to be specific, but did you have any relationship, work or otherwise, with Officer Van Dyke prior to October 20 of 2014?
A. No. I didn't know him.

Q. Did you know Officer Walsh prior to October 20, 2014?
A. No.

MR. NEUMER: Will, I was going to change topics.
here and give Raul a chance to ask some cleanup questions I won't be asking. Is that okay?

MR. FAHY: That's fine.

EXAMINATION

BY MR. VALDEZ:

Q. Just some additional background. I know we went over some stuff.

A. Sure.

Q. But your date of appointment?

Q. Were you always on patrol since January 2000?

A. I did CAPS, so yeah.

Q. Okay. But that's still kind of a patrol division?

A. Yes. Yes.

Q. And prior to this shooting that we are discussing today, were you a witness to any other police shootings prior to this day?

A. No.

Q. And how about after that to today? Have you been in any other police-involved shootings?

A. No.

Q. You mentioned a 10-1. Can you just describe a 10-1 for the record?

A. A 10-1 is an emergency. There are officers that are calling for help. They could be outnumbered, somebody could be shooting at them. It's like a distress call.

Q. Essentially, a request for assistance, right?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall if this was a 10-1, if there was a call for a 10-1 that evening?

A. I do not recall that, but they did sound like they needed some more officers. They needed somebody with a Taser.

Q. Hence the response, right?

A. Hence the response.

Q. Do you recall the presence of anyone else at the scene that you didn't mention to my partner, any supervisors? For example, I know you said that Sergeant Tulley was your supervisor that evening?

A. Yeah, I don't remember seeing him there, I don't.

Q. Okay. That's not a problem.

A. Yeah, so --

Q. Any other supervisors that you could recall by name?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know at least rank of the person who asked you to go to area central?

A. Do I know the rank of the supervisor?

Q. Correct.

A. Probably sergeant. I believe it was a sergeant.

Q. But you just don't recall which sergeant it would have been?

A. Correct.

Q. You mentioned that you saw the video in 813 Robert as it was being saved, or portions of the video, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know if anybody else -- at least did you witness anybody else viewing the video who was at the scene?

A. No, sir.

Q. Immediately after the shooting or at least during shooting and toward the end of the shooting, you mentioned you got out of your vehicle, unholstered your weapon, correct?

A. Yes. It was --
Q. Unsnapped. Excuse me.
A. Yeah.
Q. You didn't unholster --
A. It was unsnapped.
Q. After that point, the shooting is done, you said you were standing in front of your vehicle. And at that point, you just kind of go around to assess whether or not you need to see shell casings, assess whether or not there needs to be crowd control done.

Were there any other actions that you could recall that you took on?
A. No. I don't -- I don't recall.
Q. And I know you said you don't recall how long you were there for. Your shift started at 3:30 that day, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you know if your official shift was over by the time you left the scene?
A. It was getting close to.
Q. Getting close to that time?
A. Yeah. So yes.
Q. It would have been closer to midnight-ish?
A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And I know the exact times --

A. Maybe, yeah.

Q. -- it's going to be real difficult, but around the time of the close of your shift, at that point, a supervisor, probably a sergeant, comes up to you and tells you, "Hey, your vehicle was on the video. We need you to go to area central"?

A. Yeah.

Q. Any other specifics that you can recall from those interactions from the scene of the shooting to going to area central?

A. No.

Q. And you mentioned the -- we went over a little bit of the statement. To your recollection, you don't recall giving an official statement to anyone, correct?

A. Correct. If I spoke to somebody, I don't know who it was. I don't know -- because I'm looking at this, who this detective is (indicating). I don't know who David March is.

Q. Okay.

A. And I see his name here, that I had given him a statement. I don't know who that is.
Q. The only person you do remember giving your recollection of events to was an Asian person at area central, correct?

A. It appeared that way, yes.

Q. Could you describe him for me?

A. Just Asian.

Q. Was he tall, short? I mean, can you give me like a height?

A. We were sitting down.

Q. Sitting down? Okay.

A. I was sitting down. He sat next to us, but I don't recall --

Q. Do you recall if he introduced himself?

A. He probably did, but I don't know who it was, because then the FOP rep --

Q. Was he an older gentleman? I'm sorry.

A. I don't know. You know, I don't know.

Q. Perhaps --

Q. Was he an older gentleman or a younger gentleman?

A. He was older than us, than me.

Q. Would you say like was he possibly, like, retired age?
A. I don't know. Yeah.

Q. Okay. And how about his build? Was he a heavyset guy, a thinner guy?

A. Medium. I do not recall. I don't recall. I really don't.

Q. Okay. No, not a problem.

A. I'm sorry.

FURTHER EXAMINATION

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Okay. Officer Velez, I want to take you back to the Exhibit 5 and Exhibit 6 and back up a little bit.

And so Exhibit 5 at the top is labelled "Case Supplementary Report." What is a Case Supplementary Report?

A. This is not something that we use. This is the detective division.

Q. Do you have any familiarity with case supplementary reports?

A. Not with the detectives' forms that they use, no, sir.

Q. So you are really not too familiar with --

A. No.
Q. Detectives fill this out, is that -- or complete these?

A. Yes. Yeah, this is all from the detectives. This is not patrol. It says detective division there.

Q. So you really have minimal interaction with case supplementary reports or general progress reports?

A. Yeah, I don't come in contact with these other ones.

Q. Do you have any understanding of what the purpose of a case supplementary report is?

A. Well, a supplemental report? Is -- no, I don't. I'm not trying to explain it. Like, you know what, I don't.

Q. Okay. That's fair. How about a general progress report? Do you have a general understanding of what a general progress report is?

A. No, sir, I don't.

Q. Okay. I want to direct your attention to the bottom of page 2 of Exhibit 5, the case supplementary report, and I want to walk through the statement that is attributed to you, Officer Velez.
A. Okay.

Q. And go through one line at a time, and I want to ask you whether the statement is accurate and when you recall making it to a CPD representative. Okay?

A. Okay.

Q. So I'll just start in the second paragraph. "Officer Velez added as they approached the scene, she observed Laquan McDonald standing in the middle of the street holding a shiny object in his right hand."

So my first question is do you recall making that statement to a CPD representative on the night of October 20, 2014?

A. It's possible, because I did -- I do recall that I did see somebody, but to whom? I do not recall too whom.

Q. Okay. So you made some statements regarding what you had witnessed, but you don't recall to whom?

A. To -- correct.

Q. The second question: Is that statement accurate? Is that what you saw on the night of October 20, 2014?
A. I saw him holding -- Laquan McDonald standing in the middle of the street as we had approached in our vehicle. He held a shiny object in his right hand and holding his left side is what I had observed. So this is not completely accurate.

Q. So you mentioned holding his left side?
A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Is that what you told CPD the night of October 20, 2014?
A. I didn't speak to anybody to give them a statement.

Q. Okay. Sorry.
A. You know, for me to give my interview.

Q. Okay. So when you mentioned holding his left side, that was just what you observed that night?
A. This is what I had observed --

Q. Okay.
A. -- personally. So --

Q. Okay. Do you recall relating that information, that you had seen Laquan McDonald holding his left side, to any CPD representatives the night of October 20, 2014?
A. No.

Q. Okay. Understanding that you saw him, you saw Laquan McDonald holding his left side, is everything else in that statement accurate?

A. In the entire paragraph?

Q. No. No. Sorry.

A. Oh, just this sentence?

Q. Again, it's "Officer Velez added that as they approached the scene, she observed Laquan McDonald standing in the middle of the street holding a shiny object in his right hand."

A. Yeah, with the exception that he was holding the left side, it would be correct. They didn't include that --

Q. Okay.

A. -- about the left side.

Q. But everything they did include is accurate. Is that fair to say?

A. Not quite, because we are approaching, he is kind of approaching us too. So just "standing" to me is just remaining in the middle of the street.

Q. So how would you word it?

A. Huh. "As 822 approached, they observed Laquan McDonald also approaching while standing in the middle," or something --

Q. He was moving, is your point, right?
A. He was moving, and we were coming, yeah.

So "holding" --

Q. So he was moving. He wasn't standing in the middle of the street. Is that fair to say?
A. He was in the middle of the street, but just standing there not moving is not correct.

Q. Okay. Is it accurate to say that he was holding a shiny object in his right hand?
A. Yes.

Q. So next sentence: "She saw him waving the object in the air."

Do you recall making that statement to a CPD representative on the night of October 20, 2014?
A. No, I don't.

Q. Okay. Is that statement accurate?
A. That's not accurate in terms of waving, to me, an object in the air. This is waving an object in the air is above your head (indicating).

Q. So for the record --
A. That's not correct.
Q. -- you are moving your hand above your head?
A. Above my head.
Q. Okay. Well, how would you characterize Laquan McDonald's activities?
A. Holding the object in his right hand with his hand to the side, like extended to the side.
Q. Okay. Next statement or next sentence: "Officer Bacerra drove past McDonald and began to make a U-turn when Velez heard multiple gunshots without pause or delay."
First question: Do you recall making this statement to a CPD representative on the night of October 20, 2014?
A. I do not recall speaking to anybody --
Q. Right.
A. -- in terms of the two-minute, very brief conversation.
Q. Is it possible that you made that statement to a CPD representative on the night of October 20, 2014?
A. It could be possible. I don't recall.
Q. My second question is, is that sentence accurate? Is that what happened?

A. "Officer Bacerra drove past McDonald and began to make a U-turn." That is correct. When I heard the gunshots being made at McDonald, I didn't see who did them. Yeah. He fell to the ground --

Q. Well, let's just stick to that one sentence for now, so we just can be --

A. Okay.

Q. So is it accurate to say -- so the sentence says, "Officer Bacerra drove past McDonald, began to make a U-turn, when Velez heard multiple gunshots without pause or delay." Is that what happened? Is that statement accurate?

A. They were continuous gunshots, yes.

Q. Okay. So that statement is accurate, that sentence?

A. With the continuous -- they're using their terminology of "without pause or delay."

Q. And you would say continuously?

A. So continuous --

Q. Okay.

A. -- gunshots.

Q. Okay. So if we substitute "continuous" for "without pause or delay," is that statement accurate?

A. Heard -- well, multiple gunshots should be suffice. I mean --

Q. I guess, do you see any other -- do you see any inaccuracies in that sentence I just read to you?

A. I did hear the multiple gunshots, and they were continuous. So --

Q. And Officer Bacerra did drive past McDonald to begin to make a U-turn?

A. Yes. Yes.

Q. Okay. Next sentence: "She then saw McDonald fall to the ground."

Understanding that you don't recall making a statement to CPD other than the questions you answered at area central, is it possible you made that statement, "She then saw McDonald fall to the ground," to a CPD representative on the night of October 20, 2014?

A. I don't recall making this statement. Okay?

Q. I guess my question is a little different. Is it possible --
A. That I spoke to somebody? Yes.

Q. No. Is it possible that you made that statement, "She then saw McDonald fall to the ground," to a CPD representative on October 20, 2014?

A. I would have said that I saw McDonald fall to the ground while he was still -- you know, while the shots were still being, you know, shot.

Q. Okay. Let's just focus on this sentence for right now.

So my question is whether it is possible that you made that statement, "She then saw McDonald fall to the ground," to a CPD representative on the night of October 20, 2014.

A. It's possible.

Q. The next question is, is that statement accurate?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

A. I just want to interject also.

Q. Sure.

A. It is correct. You know, this is all based on the video as well. So --

Q. Yeah. No, I mean, we're just -- I'm just trying to --

A. So I don't want to say something which my memory -- I've already watched the video. So am I going off of what I saw at that time or the video? I mean, what are we --

Q. Yeah. No, so when I'm asking you whether these statements are accurate, it is whether that's what actually happened. Right?

A. So then, yeah, it actually did happen that he did fall to the ground, and it is on the video as well showing him fall to the ground. It's being shot.

Q. Okay. Next sentence: "Velez did not see who fired the shots."

Is it possible that you made that statement to a CPD representative or employee on the night of October 20, 2014?

A. It's possible. I don't recall. I did not see who it was. Then I did not know who it was firing the shots. And, well, we know now today who it was.

Q. And so you would say that is an accurate statement?

A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Next sentence: "She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from McDonald's hand after he was down on the ground."

Is it possible you made that statement to a CPD --

A. Yes.

Q. -- representative on the night of October 20, 2014?

A. Yes.

Q. And is that statement accurate?

A. Yes.

Q. So I want you to -- going into this statement a little bit, you heard the gunshots while Officer Bacerra was completing his U-turn? Is that fair to say?

A. Yes.

Q. And then it was then you got out of the vehicle while shots were still being fired after Officer Bacerra had completed the U-turn?

A. Can you repeat that?

Q. Sure. So after Officer Bacerra completed the U-turn and the car came to a stop, you got out of the vehicle and saw additional shots being fired?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall telling anyone from CPD that you had seen McDonald get shot while he was on the ground?

A. I did not. I didn't give a statement, didn't know when I was giving a statement to give this information.

Q. Okay.

A. If somebody spoke to me.

Q. When you were at area central and there was someone who asked you couple of questions about what you had seen, do you recall telling that person that McDonald was on the ground and additional shots were fired?

A. Do I remember saying that to that person? I don't remember. But they wrote that I heard multiple gunshots without pause or delay and saw him fall to the ground. He's obviously still being shot. He's falling to the ground.

Q. Did you see Walsh and Van Dyke with their guns drawn and pointed at McDonald?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Did you see them firing their weapons at all?
A. I knew that a gun was being fired because I could hear it. I didn't know who it was shooting.

Q. Do you know how far away Van Dyke and Walsh were from McDonald at the time of the shooting?

A. No. I'd have to see the video. No. Don't know what their distance is.

Q. Upon witnessing this shooting and seeing the shots fired at McDonald when he was on the ground, did you have any reaction to that?

A. It was horrific to see that. I kind of froze. I've never witnessed that, and I will have 17 years in January, and I've never seen anything, never witnessed a police shooting out of my years of experience. So, yeah, it was horrific to see.

Q. Could you see a reason for those shots to be fired when McDonald was on the ground?

MR. FAHY: You know, at this point I am going to object. You are asking her to speculate why another officer discharged his weapon in a certain circumstance, and it is completely unfair for her to try to speculate what that officer was thinking as to why he continued to fire the shots.
MR. NEUMER: Your objection is noted for the record. I will ask the court reporter to read back the question.

(Whereupon, the record was read by the reporter as requested.)

THE INTERVIEWEE: I can answer that or --

BY THE INTERVIEWEE:

A. I don't know what his reason was because I was at a different position or angle. So I could not explain what his reasoning is. He would be the only one to explain that.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I am going to direct your attention to the Notice of Allegations, just so you can -- direct your attention to number 2 there.

"It is alleged that on or about October 20, 2014, you made a false statement during an interview with Detective March when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you stated that you did not see who fired shots."

What is your response to that allegation?

A. I did not make a false statement during an interview at any time that I recall to Detective David March in respect to the McDonald shooting, that I stated I did not see who fired the shots. So I never -- I do not recall speaking to Detective March.

Q. Do you have anything else to add regarding that allegation?
A. I did not see who fired the shots. I was not familiar with the two officers that were standing in the ready stance position. I've never worked with them. I don't know them.

Q. "It is alleged that on or about October 20, 2014, you made a material omission during an interview with Detective David March when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you failed to state that you saw McDonald being shot while he was on the ground."

What is your response to that allegation?
A. I did not make a material omission on or about October 20, 2014, during an interview with Detective David March in respect to this McDonald shooting. I did not make the admission that McDonald was being shot while he was on the ground.

Q. With respect to Exhibit 6, so Exhibit 6 is --
MR. FAHY: Before we go there, excuse me, could we just take a break?

MR. NEUMER: Sure. The time is 5:18, and we will go off the record.

(Whereupon, a break was taken.)

MR. NEUMER: Time is 5:21 p.m. We will go back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Officer Velez, I want to -- so I --

A. Excuse me. Could I just clarify that number 2 of the false statement during an interview with CPD Detective March that I stated I didn't see who fired the shots, I didn't know if it was Walsh or if it was Van Dyke. I didn't know who was firing the shots. I want that to show that I didn't know who they were, who was shooting.

Q. You knew shots were being --

A. They were both in a ready stance position.

Q. Okay. So you saw -- I mean, you didn't know that it was Van Dyke or Walsh, but you saw two people who you later --

A. I didn't know that it was Van Dyke that was the one that was shooting. I found out later that it was him, because I don't know them or him.
Q. Do you recall how you found out that it was Van Dyke who had done the shooting?
A. When we went up to the area.
Q. And --
A. It was confirmed Van Dyke was the one that shot. It was not Walsh.
Q. Did someone say that to you, or --
A. I don't -- I don't recall how I received that information. They're all -- everybody was talking about it. Everybody who was there said it was Van Dyke. I remember asking my partner, I'm like, "Was it Walsh?" I believed -- I had believed that it was Walsh the whole time. My partner said no, that it was -- it was Van Dyke; it wasn't Walsh. He had clarified that.
Q. And do you recall when you and Officer Bacerra had that conversation?
A. On our way to the -- on our way to the area.
Q. While you were in the 822 car?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you have any other discussions regarding -- did you talk about whether the shooting was justified at all?
A. We talked about how crazy it was to witness that shooting.

Q. Did you have any conversations about, "I don't know if all those -- if he needed to fire all those shots," anything like that?

A. Yes.

Q. And what was that? Tell us about that conversation.

A. Just that it was a lot. Moving on to number 3 where I saw him being shot, he was on the ground, he was standing up when he was getting shot; he was down on the ground, he was getting shot. So --

Q. Did Officer Bacerra agree that it was a lot of shots to be fired?

A. Yes.

Q. Was there any further conversation regarding the number of shots fired?

A. Not that I recall.

Q. Okay. I want to point your attention to the General Progress Report. I think it's -- is that Exhibit 5 or 6?

A. It's 6.

Q. Okay. So this General Progress Report is dated October 20, 2014. That is the night of the shooting. It has the name "L. Velez" at the top, and it is signed by Detective David March, and it has notes, and I will just read that into the record.

"As they approached the scene, saw O," presumably offender, "in middle of street, shiny object in R hand," presumably the right hand,
"O waving object in air. AB," presumably Arturo Bacerra, "drove past O, began to make U-turn. LV heard multiple gunshots without pause or delay, saw O fall to the ground. Did not see who fired. Saw unknown PO kick knife from O's hand."

So these are Detective March's notes, and they are, in this case, notes of an interview that purportedly took place.

Understanding that you don't recall speaking to really anyone at the scene of the shooting, is it your position that Detective March fabricated these notes?

A. I don't know. Like I said, I do not remember speaking to the detective, and these are things I wouldn't have necessarily said in that context. I wouldn't have said "waving the object in the air." And then the -- "saw the offender fall to the ground." I didn't see who fired.
I didn't know which officer, who the officer was that fired, but obviously, one of the two officers was firing, but I didn't say that.

Q. I mean, is it possible that this detective, Detective March, spoke with you at the scene of the shooting and took notes regarding that corveration?

A. It could be possible, but I don't remember.

Q. Okay.

A. I don't know.

Q. Well, now, directing your attention back to the supplementary --

A. Okay.

Q. Your statement in the supplementary report. Do you feel that this statement attributed to you fully captures what you saw on the night of October 20, 2014?

A. No.

Q. Okay.

MR. FAHY: Well, I mean, it's a summary. So, I mean, how could I ever fully capture what a witness MR. NEUMER: That's fair.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. I think you mentioned that you saw Laquan McDonald holding his left side?

A. Yes.

Q. And that is not contained in this statement.

Are there any other observations or things you witnessed that night that are not contained in this statement?

A. Well, the fact that I had saw him holding his side, I had believed he had a gun, you know, that is not in there. He was holding a shiny object. He was not waving it up over his head or in the air; it was to the side. His hand was extended.

When the Officers Walsh and Van Dyke go around us, we make our U-turn, you know, that's all captured on the video. But in terms of my statement seeing, you know, seeing this, this is not what I said or what I would have stated in terms of my statement.

Q. Are there any other important facts or observations you made on the night of October 20, 2014, that are not captured in the statement that is attributed to you?

A. Well, the gunshots were continuous when he was standing, and he fell to the ground and he was still being shot, and --

Q. I mean, if anything --

A. Yeah, I'm like -- I mean, those things are not in there.

Q. I mean, I guess, put differently, if someone had taken your statement that night, if someone had asked you to walk them through everything you saw that night, what facts would you have related to them that are not apparent -- and I know we've walked through a couple of them, and I am just trying to see if there is anything additional other than what we have already talked about.

A. Yes.

Q. If there is not, that's fine. If there is anything else that you think you would have relayed to someone taking your statement, then --

A. I've already stated what I would have said and what I would not have stated.
Q. Directing your attention to the Notice of Allegations, number 1, "It is alleged that on or about October 20, 2014, you provided a false narrative to Detective David March of the Chicago police department concerning the McDonald shooting," what is your response to that allegation?

A. That I did not provide a false narrative.

Q. Do you have anything else to add on that allegation?

A. I would add that I don't recall speaking to him. I don't know who I spoke to, who took my statement, if there was somebody I spoke to concerning this shooting. So I obviously spoke to somebody, but who was it? I don't know who took my statement. And that's for them to say that it was a false narrative, not intentional at all for me to give any false narratives or statements or admissions of anything.

Q. Did anyone at any time at the scene of the shooting pressure you to make a statement regarding the shooting?

A. No, sir.
Q. Did anyone pressure you in any way to hold back from stating what you saw?
A. No.

Q. Did anyone tell you, "Don't tell anyone that you saw McDonald get shot while he was on the ground"?
A. No.

Q. No?
A. No. It wasn't even asked. He was being shot when he was standing. He was being shot when he fell to the ground. It was -- it was being shot. I mean --

Q. So no one while at the scene or area central ever in any way suggested you should do anything other than tell the whole truth regarding what you had witnessed?
A. Say that again. What?

MR. NEUMER: Could you read my question back.
(Whereupon, the record was read by the reporter as requested.)

BY THE INTERVIEWEE:

A. Yeah, we told the truth. "Tell us what happened." Who was it? I don't know. Yeah, nobody ever said to not tell the truth; tell the truth, tell you what we observed, what we witnessed.

MR. NEUMER: Okay. Follow-up?
MR. VALDEZ: Sure.

FURTHER EXAMINATION

BY MR. VALDEZ:

Q. I think you mentioned that you did see the video, correct?
A. Yes.

Q. Subsequent to the shooting, whatever timing that was. But in the video, we see 822, which you're a passenger in, driving southbound on Pulaski, correct?
A. Yes.

Q. Officer Van Dyke and Officer Walsh's vehicle?
A. Oh, you said we were going southbound?
We weren't going southbound; we were going northbound and --

Q. Northbound. I'm sorry. Correct.

Northbound in the southbound lanes?
A. No.

Q. No, northbound in the northbound lanes.
A. We were in the northbound lane.
Q. As you passed Officer Walsh and Officer Van Dyke's vehicle, we see your vehicle proceed northbound, and then you are out of the picture, correct?
A. Yes.

Q. Can you explain to us what happens as you are out of the frame, what we don't see on the video? Can you kind of walk me through that, please?
A. Bacerra makes the U-turn. While he is making the U-turn, the shots are already being fired.

Q. Okay.
A. I'm the passenger. I'm trying to see what's happening. Since he's driving, he's looking forward to make the U-turn and put the car in park. I'm trying to see as much as I can. My main focus was more on McDonald, just watching him. That was my focus.

Makes that U-turn, we're there, you know, jump out of the car, stop at the nose of the squad car.

Q. As you're making the U-turn, do you recall the placement of your vehicle? Are you at the intersection already? I know there's a light there right by the Burger King?
   A. No, that's too far.
Q. That's too far?
   A. Yeah.
Q. So you were a little further south than that?
   A. There's the Dunkin' Donuts. The Burger
   King is over here (indicating). Yeah, we're between Dunkin' Donuts and Burger King.
Q. Okay. And do you know what prompted Bacerra to make a U-turn on the vehicle?
   A. He was moving out of the way because Laquan McDonald had already passed us.
Q. So he comes --
   A. That's the reason why, so he was making the U-turn.
Q. Because you are pointed in the opposite direction --
   A. Yes.
Q. -- of his direction of travel?
   A. Correct.
Q. As Officer Bacerra was making the U-turn, was there anything in front of you that you recall, or did you not see anything in front of the vehicle? Were there any other officers?

A. There were other officers. I don't know who they were. And -- I don't know. I really don't know. I just remember we were making the U-turn. So there were other officers that were going, some on foot -- who are they, I don't know -- and then the other vehicle that caught the video.

Q. Okay.

A. So --

Q. And you said as he began to make the U-turn, you already heard shots, correct?

A. Yeah. We were -- it was a -- it was seconds.

Q. Seconds? Okay.

A. It's fast. It doesn't take you long to make the a U-turn.

Q. Right.

A. So it's happening while we're making that turn and I'm still trying to turn around to see, but I'm watching McDonald.

Q. Right. Now, I could understand that you're looking across Bacerra's shoulder at that point?

A. Yes.

Q. Because he is the driver of the vehicle.

Can you estimate how many seconds the shooting took place over?

A. I cannot. I really cannot. We would have to watch the video. I really don't know.

A. Yeah, it's fast.

Q. Fast?

A. Yes.

Q. And your eyes are fixed on Laquan the entire time?

A. Yes.

Q. You mentioned that you thought he had a gun?

A. I did.

Q. Was that the reason your eyes were fixed on him?

A. Yes.

Q. And I know we talked about the U-turn. You said you recalled some officers on foot?

A. Yes.
Q. Is there one specifically that you recall, anybody waving you to complete the U-turn?

Did you have to stop and make the U-turn?

A. I don't know who they are because they're midnight officers.

Q. Does that at least ring a bell?

A. Yes.

Q. That you recall Bacerra stopping the vehicle and an officer waving him to complete the U-turn?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So as you are making the U-turn, somebody is in front of you?

A. Yeah.

Q. Bacerra stops, and that officer then waves you to complete the U-turn?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And now I am going to fast-forward a bit to the statement.

A. Okay.

Q. Do you know who Detective March is at all?

A. I do not.

Q. Okay. Now, at the scene, I could understand there's probably a lot of things going on, a lot of people, moving around, things of that nature. What is the reason, at least if you could let me know, why don't you recall giving a statement? Was it that nobody took a statement, or you just don't recall giving one?

A. I didn't -- I don't remember or recall giving that statement or a statement. I feel if you are going to give a statement, we're going to speak one on one. "Okay," you know, "write down" -- you know, "What's your name?" You know, "What happened? How old are you?"

You know, when we go door to door and we try to get witnesses, these are questions that we ask. This is why.

Q. So was it the lack of formality that you're saying you didn't give a statement? So if we take out the formality part of it, do you recall speaking to anybody at the scene about what you witnessed?

A. I don't remember speaking to anybody at the crime scene. I really don't.

Q. Okay.

A. I just don't. But we did speak to somebody when we were at the detective -- at this area. Okay? I really don't remember. The person that I did speak to was the camera guy.

Q. Got it.

A. The sergeant, you know. But I don't. And if I did, I don't remember.

FURTHER EXAMINATION

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Just one quick follow-up.

With respect to McDonald, what made you think he had a gun when you came approaching the scene?

A. Because the way the call came through and he's running down the street, he's holding his side, and he's adjusting his pants. Maybe he didn't have a gun, but here I am thinking worst-case scenario of a person breaking into cars or trucks.

You have police visibility. Officers are telling you to stop. There's got to be more to it. Okay. Maybe you don't have a gun. Maybe you're just on drugs. I don't know. So worst-case scenario, always assume, you know, or be prepared for the worst is the reason being.
MR. NEUMER: I think Investigator Valdez is going to ask you some questions about in-car video systems.

THE INTERVIEWEE: Okay.

FURTHER EXAMINATION

BY MR. VALDEZ:

Q. So we'll get into in-car videos. Is it fair to call them dash cams? Is that fair enough for you?

A. Sure. Fair.

Q. Okay. So what is a dash cam?

A. Dash camera, a camera on the dash of the squad car. Some of them had them or have them now, I believe, on the top where the window -- no, the camera is on the -- in the window, windshield, and sometimes they have this screen that you can see where the video is up on the top. Sometimes they're just on your dash. They have moved those because it's an obstruction.

On all of them, I don't know, but I know -- I actually think ours is on the top of 822's vehicle, and it records. Anytime you activate your lights, it'll begin to record.

Q. Okay.
MR. NEUMER: Could I just pause? Could we just go off the record for a very quick minute? Time is 5:42.

(Whereupon, a break was taken.)

MR. VALDEZ: Time is still 5:42, and we will go back on the record.

BY MR. VALDEZ:

Q. So the dash cam, we are discussing dash cams. You mentioned there was some different placement in terms of where the screens are. The vehicle that you were in on October 20, 2014, do you recall what type of vehicle that was?

A. Oh, gosh. Not the Tahoe.

Q. The Explorer, Ford?

A. It's a Ford Explorer, it's -- our car number was 8765 is the vehicle that we were utilizing that day.

Q. Got it. Do you recall where the monitor placement was on that vehicle?

A. I don't.

Q. Okay.

A. We've since received a new -- well, they've received a new squad car. I don't work the car anymore, so –

Q. Okay. The dash cam, they also capture audio; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Can you walk me through the start of your tour, you get to your vehicle, kind of what the process is in terms of using the dash cam?

A. You have to try to log in. There's a screen that -- a virtual screen that pops up, and you put your PC number, your password, your partner, and then the beat that you are working, and that's how you try to log on.

Q. Are there any other steps in terms of utilizing the system that you have to take upon entering the vehicle?

A. Recently, from -- I had just gotten back from vacation, and they said that they wanted to speak into the mics, state your name and state your beat and, I believe, the date.

Q. Do you recall when that directive was given?

A. I do not, but it was not 2014, around that time.

Q. It was sometime thereafter?
A. It was after that.

Q. Do you know what rules kind of governed the use of the dash cam at that time, October 20, 2014?

A. The rules that govern it?

Q. Correct, like --

A. I do not, no.

Q. -- special orders or general orders maybe?

A. I know for the domestics, you are supposed to keep the camera running. Is that what you are asking me, that kind of stuff?

Q. Yeah, is there a general order or special order?

A. There is a general order.

Q. Okay.

A. You are supposed to keep your camera running. DUI's. Of course this, you know, shooting.

Q. Okay. What I will do is I will put -- just so we have it there, I'll introduce Exhibit 7.

(Whereupon, Velez Exhibit 7 was marked for identification.)
BY MR. VALDEZ:

Q. What this is, is Special Order 03-05. It is titled In-Car Video Systems.

A. Okay.

Q. The effective date is 23 February of 2012. Okay?

A. Of 23 February?

Q. Top right-hand side there.

A. Okay. Okay.

Q. So that would have been before --

A. This was when it was issued?

Q. Correct. Correct.

A. Okay.

Q. What I want to do is just draw your attention to section 6, and that will be on page 3 of 9.

A. Okay.

Q. Specifically where it says, "At the beginning of the tour of duty, a department member is to visually inspect the in-car video system equipment for damage, obtain the remote transmitter audio recorder, and make sure that it is securely attached to the member's person, and follow the startup procedures for the in-car video system as trained and ensure the system is working properly."
Were you aware of those procedures at the time?
A. Yes.
Q. So in terms of the log-in, I know you mentioned putting in the PC number. Is it also part of the startup procedure to attach the microphone at the time?
A. You're supposed to have microphone on your person.
Q. On your person?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. Okay. Did you receive any type of training prior to getting a vehicle with a dash cam?
A. We did receive training for the camera.
Q. Do you recall when that was?
A. I do not.
Q. Was it years before this, before
October 20, 2014?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you know where it was at? Did you do the academy training, or did they do it something --
A.  We went to the academy for the training.

Q.  Was it, like, an all-day training?  Does that ring a bell?

A.  I think it was all day, the tour of duty.

Q.  Okay.  And you were the passenger in the vehicle, 822, correct?

A.  Yes.

Q.  Is that the same vehicle that you had used in other tours?

A.  Other tours?  You mean --

Q.  So other watches?  Was that your regular vehicle, 8765?

A.  8765 was -- at that time?

Q.  At that time.

A.  It was the assigned vehicle for 822.

Q.  That was something that you had used in previous watches, previous days that you have worked?

A.  Yes -- or not watches, because I have only been on third watch.

Q.  Third watch.  Okay.

A.  Yeah.

Q.  So other days that you worked, we'll call
You have said that the video turns on when you use the emergency lights, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Are there any other times that the video turns on?

A. You can turn it on yourself if you -- there's a button that you can press and it can be activated.

Q. And what is your PC number, Officer?

A. PC

Q. And was that the same PC number that you had on October 20th?

A. Yes.

Q. 2014?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, that evening, yes, for October 20, 2014, did you follow the startup procedures when you entered the vehicle?

A. I don't remember if I did it right away. It's something --

Q. Is it something you routinely do?

A. Yeah, you're supposed to. You know, if you get a call and you go to the call, sometimes throughout the tour, you do it, but yeah, so no, I don't remember if I logged on immediately, right away. I wasn't able to. We had tried throughout the day, and I was not successful. So --

Q. Is it --
A. If that's successful, just wait for the -- you just have to give it some time and then you try back again to log back on.

Q. Okay. So you started your tour -- well, you started your shift at 3:30. You did roll,
correct?
A. We had the roll call, and we are usually out maybe almost by 4:00.

Q. Okay. So by 4:00. So you get to the vehicle. You are the passenger. Is it normal for the passenger to log in, or do you and Officer
Bacerra switch off? How does that work?
A. We switch off.

Q. So this day, you were the one who was attempting to log in?
A. Yeah, I did. I attempted.

Q. And you said when you tried to log in, it would not allow you to do so?
A. It was not successful, correct.
Q. Do you recall why it wasn't successful, or was it just the system was acting up?
A. It was acting up. You couldn't -- we couldn't get the startup screen to log in, so sometimes --
Q. So it wasn't coming up to --
A. Sometimes you have to shut it down and then restart it, like a reboot, so that you could do it.
Q. Okay. So you never got to the screen where you were able to put in your PC number?
A. Correct. There were a few times that I did, but there was like a delay, so it wasn't registering.
Q. Initially, though -- and go ahead. Finish your thought. I'm sorry.
A. I was going to say no, and then so what we do is you just shut it down and then we restart. Sometimes it's too much memory. You have to go back and try to upload.
Q. So that day -- and I know we're going back some time here.
A. Sure.
Q. But you get in, you attempt to log in; it doesn't allow you to log in. Do you guys drive away from the District at that point?

A. Yes.

Q. You go about your day.

Do you know when the next time you tried to log in was, approximately how much time had passed?

A. No, sir, I do not.

Q. Do you know how many times you attempted to log in that day?

A. No.

Q. Were there any issues with the dash cam on days prior to that?

A. I don't remember.

Q. And if there are issues with the vehicle or with the dash cam, what's the process that you have for --

A. If there's an issue, you would notify the supervisor. Supervisor gets a ticket number from the hot desk or --

Q. Okay. And your supervisor was Sergeant Tulley; is that correct?

A. That particular day, he was, but any other days, you have other supervisors. So yeah.
Q. Okay. So the process is you report, "Hey, I have an issue," how do you go about making that report, making that notification?
A. You get on the radio, and you let them know.

Q. So it's via the radio?
A. You could do the radio.

Q. Do you ever use PDT?
A. You could do it either/or.

Q. Have you done both?
A. I'm sure I have. I don't know.

Q. Do you have, like, a regular way?
A. Did I do it that day? No, I didn't do it that day. I didn't notify him that day.

Q. So you had an issue with the system, you weren't able to log on, and you said you didn't notice -- didn't let the supervisor know?
A. I did not.

Q. Was there any reason that you didn't let him know that day?
A. No. I failed to do that.

Q. So throughout the shift, the camera was not working. You said you attempted to log in. You didn't notify the supervisor. Did he ask at all? Is it normal for the supervisor to ask if your dash cam was working?

A. Yes, he asks for a meet. I am usually -- I didn't speak to him because I'm the passenger, my partner is the driver. So if he had a conversation, I don't know.

Q. Got it. Okay.

Are you ever the driver of the vehicle?

A. Yes.

Q. When you are the driver and you are the person communicating with the supervisor, is it normal for the supervisor to ask? At that time, was it normal?

A. You let him know. You tell him.

Q. So it is not something that they prompt you to say, "Hey, do you have any issues with your camera"?

A. Well, now it's different. Now they ask, "Is it working or not?" If it's not, then give me your ticket number.

Q. Okay. So back then though, it was --

A. This is in 2014.

Q. Got it. So was it just something that it wasn't made a priority back then where it is now?
I mean, is that a fair statement?

A. That sounds fair enough.

Q. Okay. So you attempted to log in. It wasn't working for you. Do you recall if that vehicle had a ticket, an open ticket on it?

A. I do not.

Q. When there is an open ticket when there is something reported, what is the process? I guess, well, how do you know that a vehicle has a ticket number on it?

A. There's usually -- the ticket number is actually written, and it's on the screen. They will put it on the screen.

Q. Like a Post-It or something like that?

A. Yes.

Q. So when you had that number, do you report that to the supervisor?

A. Yes.

Q. And do you know at all how the supervisor goes about documenting those issues?

A. I do not.

Q. So all you do is oral report to the supervisor, and from there the supervisor does --

A. If we have a ticket number, we let him know the car has -- "We have a ticket number for the camera. It's not functioning."

Q. Okay.

A. Or if it's not functioning because it will not go on, then he will get the ticket number.

Q. Got it. And he lets you know the ticket number?

A. Yes.

Q. And you post it onto the --

A. Yes.

Q. -- the dash cam?

A. Either that, or one time I know they had us just call it in, call the problem in, and you get a ticket number, have the officer get it.

Q. So you would call IT and do that yourself?

A. Yeah, either/or, so just it has to be report.

Q. Got it. In the normal course of duty at that time, where did you keep the microphones for
the vehicle?

A. They're usually on the -- where the mic holder is. And since we were not able to log on, we didn't take the microphones. So we didn't have them on our person because we weren't able to log on or, you know, get this working.

Q. So the dash cam wasn't working; there is no need to attach the microphone?

A. There is no need for that. You're not logged on.

Q. If the dash cam was working, would you attach the microphones?

A. Yes. Yes, because the --

Q. Okay. So it wasn't something that you intentionally left it there?

A. Correct.

Q. It's not something you normally did? Did you normal leave the microphones in the charging cradle?

A. We would, and then we were told that inspectors are writing people up, so you are responsible for carrying that mic at all times.

Q. Okay. Do you recall a process for syncing the microphones at that time?

A. I know what the process is. Did we sync that day or -- no, we did not.

Q. And what is the process to sync them?

A. There is one where it's got, like, two prongs, and you put it up on the --

Q.  In the unit?

A.  Yeah, in the unit, so that's how you sync it. And then you make sure that both of the mics are synced, mic 1, mic 2.

Q.  And is that are something you have to do at every tour or --

A.  Yes.

Q.  Okay.

A.  You do it in the beginning of your tour.

Q.  Okay. Now, you said you have reason -- there was no audio, obviously, so there was no video, so there was no way for you --

A.  We weren't able to log in, so we didn't get the mics.

Q.  Sorry. Got it. And you didn't report it to the supervisor?

A.  And I failed to report it to my supervisor, yes.

Q.  And when you met with the -- we'll call him the video tech.

A.  Yes.

Q.  After the shooting, the video tech shows up, and he tries to pull video from the system.
Are you present when he is doing that?
A. I'm not.

Q. Okay. Who was present?
A. I believe my partner was. He is the one that called me to him.

Q. Got it. So the first time you see him, Officer Bacerra says, "Hey, this guy wants to talk to you"?
A. Yeah.

Q. You don't recall his name?
A. No, I don't know.

Q. Do you recall anything about the way he looked or anything like that?
A. No, I'm not going to -- I don't.

Q. Okay. No, no problem. So I know we went over it a little bit, but just for the sake of this conversation, how did that happen? What did you guys speak about?
A. When he called me over?

Q. Yes.
A. He said, "What's up with the camera?"
And it's like, "Well, I tried numerous times, you know, to try to log on, and I didn't have any luck."
And he said, "Well, you know what? It's like when somebody slaps you on the back of the head numerous times and you can't think or get your thoughts together," is what he said to me.

Q. Okay.

A. So I was like a little offended. It's like, "Well, you know, you can't point the finger." It was like, "Well, he's driving. Why didn't he log on," you know, and now it's like I'm -- it's my fault now?

Q. Okay. Did he have you log in at all at that point or attempt to log in?

A. No. No.

Q. Do you know if he was able to log in?

A. I do not, because after -- so when the camera person came and they were doing whatever they were doing and then Arturo came, he's like, "He wants you," I don't know what transpired during that time. I don't know. So I wasn't there until I was summoned to go and speak to him. So no, I don't know.

Q. Was anybody else present when you were speaking with him?

A. Just Bacerra.
Q. Okay. Did he have Bacerra log in at some point or at least attempt to log in?
A. Not that I know of.
Q. Not when you were there?
A. Yeah, not that I know of.
Q. Okay. Did you relate to the video guy that there was no power? Do you recall using those -- that statement at all?
A. I don't know. I don't know. I don't think so.
Q. What I will do is I will just put another exhibit in front of you, just so we can --
A. Okay.
Q. -- maybe figure out what was said, if it refreshes your memory. So what we will do is we will introduce this, and this is going to be Exhibit 8, and we will call this the In-Car Video Retrieval Worksheet.
(Whereupon, Velez Exhibit 8 was marked for identification.)
BY MR. VALDEZ:
Q. So you will see it has a date and time notification, some other pertinent information, but what we can do is scroll down to the middle of the page. Your vehicle is 822, correct?
A. Yeah.
Q. Vehicle number is 8765, which we have established, and those PC numbers that are there, I believe the bottom one there is yours; is that correct?
A. Where? I'm not familiar with -- are you up on top?
Q. I'm sorry. I'm at the middle of the page, left-hand side.
A. Left-hand side. Yeah, 822, 8765.
Q. Got it.
A. Yeah. It's Arturo and me.
Q. Okay. So --
A. PC0A is him, and I'm PC0U.
Q. Okay. Now, if we scroll down all the way to the bottom of the page --
A. Okay.
Q. -- we see "8765, mics in charging cradle not synced to the system."
A. Okay.
Q. Was that something that you told him, or is this --
A. I did not.
Q. Did not tell him that. Okay.
A. Yeah. No, I did not.

Q. And then what I will do is I will put another exhibit in front of you. We will call this Exhibit 9.

(Whereupon, Velez Exhibit 9 was marked for identification.)

BY MR. VALDEZ:

Q. And that is also part of a case supplementary. I believe some of the information is cut off, but what it represents is event number 15878?
A. Uh-huh.

Q. That number doesn't mean anything to you, correct?
A. If that's an event number pertaining to the McDonald case, it may be, so I don't know.

Q. Got it. Okay. Well, we will go down to the information that is attributed to you, and this is for beat 822 down at the bottom there.
A. Okay.

Q. Vehicle 8765.
A. Okay.

Q. "Not engaged."
Do you have any idea what "not engaged" means?

A. No, I don't.

Q. Okay. And, "Officer reported power issue"? Do you recall reporting a power issue or telling them something about a power issue?

A. I do not.

Q. Okay.

A. I really don't.

Q. It's possible that your partner did say something like that?

A. It's possible.

Q. But you didn't witness anything of that nature? You didn't hear Officer Bacerra tell him, "We have a power issue"?

A. No, I don't.

Q. Okay. Can you explain why -- and this is not just for your vehicle, but why none of the vehicles that were on the scene had any type of audio?

A. I do not. I cannot. I don't know why.

Q. At the time, like you said, it wasn't something that was maybe a priority? Is that a possible reason?
A. It could be one of the reasons, but also because there's a lot of ticket numbers.

Q. So is it something a lot of the dash cams aren't working?

A. Yes.

Q. In your time working in vehicles with dash cams, if you had to give me a ballpark percentage of how often they don't work, would you be able to do that?

A. I couldn't do that now. I work inside now.

Q. Okay.

A. But when it is reported, it's over eight cameras. There's always ticket numbers. They're not working.

Q. I see. Can you think of any reason for that? Are they older cameras?

A. No, I don't know. I really don't know why.

Q. Okay.

A. I just don't know why the ticket numbers.

Q. Okay. So what we will do is I think we can just go straight to the allegations and give you an opportunity to respond to those.

A. Okay.

Q. And that is part of my exhibit 3. And what we can do is go down to allegation number 4.

A. Okay.

Q. Which reads, "On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to ensure the in-car video system for CPD vehicle 8765 was working properly at the beginning of your tour of duty."

What is your response to that allegation?

A. Yes, I did. It did fail. I mean, I didn't notify a supervisor, so I wasn't able to log on.

Q. Okay.

A. I didn't log on. I wasn't able to.

Q. And I think, just in all fairness, you did say that you attempted to log in, but it was the system that didn't allow you to log in, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. But you did get into the vehicle, and you did attempt to log in?

A. I had attempted several times, numerous times to do it, and I didn't have any luck.
Q. Got it. And what we can do now is just move to allegation number 5.

A. Sure.

Q. "On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to immediately notify a supervisor that the in-car video system for CPD vehicle 8765 was inoperable or damaged?"

A. That's correct. I failed to tell the supervisor.

Q. Anything else about that one that you would like to respond to?

A. No.

Q. And we can just move to number 6: "On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to audibly record events with CPD vehicle 8765's in-car video system during your tour of duty"?

A. Yes. I believe that goes back to number 5. If it was inoperable, it wasn't able to audibly record the events because I wasn't able to log on. So that's correct.

Q. Right. And you stated that the reason the microphones were in the charging cradle is because the system wasn't working, correct?

A. Correct.
MR. VALDEZ: Okay.

FURTHER EXAMINATION

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Let's see. Just a couple of follow-up questions here.

Officer Velez, on October 20, 2014, at the beginning of your tour, did you visually inspect the in-car video system equipment for damage?

A. It would be visible. The dash cam is right on -- right in front of you. It was -- but an actual, like, let me sit here and inspect thorough, no, sir.

Q. As of October 20, 2014, was it your general practice to sync the microphones upon entering your vehicle?

A. It was not my general practice, not until it was brought to our attention that we needed to sync our mics, which it was -- we had to. So --

Q. And when was it brought to your attention?

A. I believe it was more like this year.

Q. In 2016?
A. 2016, yes.

Q. Okay. With respect to the 822 vehicle’s in-car video system, did you or Officer Bacerra intentionally render the system inoperable?

A. No, sir.

Q. I want to talk to you a little bit about Grand Jury.

A. Okay.

Q. Have you given testimony before a Grand Jury regarding the McDonald shooting?

A. I don't get it. I don't understand.

Q. Have you received a Grand Jury subpoena to appear before a Grand Jury?

A. I did speak to the Grand Jury. Yes, I did.

Q. Okay. Do you recall when you spoke before the Grand Jury?

A. I do not.

Q. Do you recall whether that was a state Grand Jury or federal Grand Jury? Did it take place at 26th and Cal or --

A. No, I believe it was federal.

Q. Do you think it took place at 219 South Dearborn?
A. I don't remember. Possibly. I don't know.

Q. Okay. About how long did you testify before the Grand Jury?

A. How long was I there speaking to them? I don't know how long I stayed there. I don't know.

Q. Were you asked questions regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you describe the shooting incident to the Grand Jury?

MR. VALDEZ: You know, at this point, I am going to object. You are now asking her about Grand Jury testimony that is supposed to be secret in the substance of it. Unless you are going to tender her a copy of her Grand Jury testimony, I am going to object to her and I am going to instruct her not to answer any questions about what she was asked or what answers she gave at the Grand Jury.

She testified in front of the Grand Jury. That's really all you need to know. It was about this incident. I mean, if you are going to start getting into specific questions about what she was asked other than the general of it being involving this incident, she can't be answering those questions.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Well, we'll stay general for the moment and say were you asked about the shooting of Laquan McDonald?

A. Yes.

Q. And were you asked to describe that shooting?

A. I don't recall. I don't know. I would have to see transcripts.

Q. Prior to your Grand Jury testimony, outside of any conversations with counsel, who did you speak to in preparation for that testimony?

A. Nobody.

Q. Were you ever interviewed by the FBI regarding this matter?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall about when you were interviewed with them?

A. I don't. I do not.

Q. Do you recall where that interview took place?
A. 26th and California.

Q. Do you recall who was present for that interview other than yourself?

A. My counsel, well, the FBI agent and two other individuals. I don't know.

Q. And what were you asked during that interview?

MR. VALDEZ: Again, I am going to object to the question in terms of if you want to ask her if she was asked about this incident, that's fine.

MR. NEUMER: Yeah, and I think that's the question.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. Did they ask you questions about the McDonald shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. And did they ask you to describe that shooting?

A. I don't recall what they asked specifically or exactly. I really don't remember, but it was --

MR. VALDEZ: And it should also be noted for the record that we have not been provided any 302s from the FBI. We have not been provided any reports. from the State's Attorney's Office with regards to this particular interview. So if you want to ask substance other than the general topic, we would ask that you provide those documents for her to use before she gives her specific answers.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So you appeared before the Grand Jury, and you were interviewed by the FBI. Have you testified or been interviewed by anyone else regarding this matter, regarding the shooting?

A. No.

MR. VALDEZ: You know, could we just take a quick break? It is 6:11, and we will go off the record.

(Whereupon, a break was taken.)

MR. VALDEZ: Okay. The time is now 6:12, and we are back on the record.

MR. NEUMER: Back on the record.

BY MR. NEUMER:

Q. So, more generally speaking, obviously, this whole matter has been in the news a lot lately. Have you had any conversations with your fellow officers regarding developments over the past month or two regarding this incident?

A. Developments as to what's transpiring, or what is your question?

Q. Yeah. Have you been following news articles regarding this matter over the last, let's say, month or two?

A. I was trying not to know anything that was happening with it.

Q. I guess, more broadly speaking, we try and ask all relevant questions --

A. Sure.

Q. -- and try and make sure we get all relevant information, and we do that to the best of our ability. Sometimes, though, we don't ask all of the most relevant questions.

So understanding what we are looking at here today, is there any information you think we should know that we did not ask about?

A. No, sir.

MR. NEUMER: Okay. Our interview is concluded. The time is 6:13 p.m., and we are off the record.

(Which were all proceedings in the above-entitled interview on this date.)

City ordinance, and if applicable, collective bargaining agreements, provide that you are entitled to notice of the nature of the allegations against you and the identity of all complainants prior to any interview. Accordingly, you are advised as follows:

COMPLAINANT(S)

4. John J. Escalante, Interim Superintendent of Chicago Police Department (CPD), sent a letter to the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General (OIG) dated January 13, 2016, requesting that OIG conduct an administrative investigation of the following allegations arising out of the October 20, 2014 shooting death of Laquan McDonald (the McDonald Shooting): "whether any officer(s) made false statement on official reports submitted in connection with the shooting of Laquan McDonald on October 20, 2014; whether any officer(s) obstructed or interfered with the investigation of this incident, either individually or in collusion with others; and whether any officer(s) committed any violation of Chicago Police Department rules, policies, or orders in connection with their response and/or handling of this matter."

Escalante attached to the letter a copy of Sergeant S. Soria’s (Star # 2275) Initiation Report, which raises similar allegations of misconduct with respect to Department members in connection with the McDonald Shooting, and identified that Report as a basis for OIG’s administrative investigation.

ALLEGATION(S)

1. On or about October 20, 2014, you provided a false narrative to Detective David March of the Chicago Police Department (CPD) concerning the McDonald Shooting.

2. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a false statement during an interview with CPD Detective David March when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you stated that you did not see who fired shots.

3. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a material omission during an interview with CPD David March when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you failed to state that you saw McDonald being shot while he was on the ground.

4. On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to ensure the in-car video system for CPD vehicle 8765 was working properly at the beginning of your tour of duty.

5. On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to immediately notify a supervisor that the in-car video system for CPD vehicle 8765 was inoperable or damaged.

6. On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to auditly record events with CPD vehicle 8765’s in-car video system during your tour of duty.
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I hereby acknowledge receipt in writing of the identity of the complainant(s) and notice of the nature of the allegation(s) against me.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound. As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.

VELEZ, Leticia -----

stated she was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. VELEZ related the same facts as her partner, Officer Arturo BACERRA.

Officer VELEZ added that as they approached the scene she observed Laquan MCDONALD standing in the middle of the street, holding a shiny object in his right hand. She saw him waving the object in the air. Officer BACERRA drove past MCDONALD and began to make a U-turn, when VELEZ heard multiple gunshots, without pause or delay. She then saw MCDONALD fall to the ground. VELEZ did not see who fired the shots. She did see an unknown officer kick the knife from MCDONALD's hand after he was down on the ground.

IN-CAR VIDEO SYSTEMS

ISSUE DATE: 23 February 2012  EFFECTIVE DATE: 23 February 2012
RESCINDS: Version dated 20 April 2011; S10-10
INDEX CATEGORY: Field Operations

I. PURPOSE

This directive:

A. implements the use of Department in-car video systems.
B. establishes the policies and procedures for the use, maintenance, and repair of in-car video systems.
C. establishes the roles and responsibilities of Department members affected by the introduction of in-car video systems for the video and audio recording of incidents.
D. establishes the requirements for viewing, retaining, and duplicating digitally recorded incidents.
E. continues the use of the Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/ Duplication Request (CPD-65,224).
F. identifies the Records Division as the Department repository and viewing location of digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems.

II. POLICY

The Department is committed to protecting the safety and welfare of its members and the public. The in-car video systems can provide members with an invaluable instrument to enhance criminal prosecution by providing powerful evidence of criminal activity, limit civil liabilities, and objectively document officer conduct during individual interactions. Members assigned to a vehicle equipped with an in-car video system will use it pursuant to this directive.

III. GENERAL INFORMATION

A. There is no expectation of privacy for Department members related to incidents recorded by in-car video systems. Supervisors, members of Bureau of Internal Affairs, and the Independent Police Review Authority (IPRA) investigators may request to review the digitally recorded data from a vehicle equipped with an in-car video system. Any digitally recorded data created by the in-car video system may be used without a Department member’s permission for any official Departmental purpose.
B. The in-car video system will automatically engage audio and video recording when the vehicle’s emergency-roof lights are activated. However, Department members may manually activate the in-car video system without the activation of the emergency equipment. At the conclusion of the incident, Department members must manually disengage all recording processes, regardless of what method activated the in-car video system.
C. The Records Division will be the custodians of the digitally recorded data and will be responsible for the retention, duplication, and viewing of the in-car video systems. The Director, Records Division, will establish retention, viewing, and duplication procedures that provide for inventory control, the security of the digitally recorded data, and authorized duplications.
D. All digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems will be retained by the Records Division for a minimum of 90 days. Digitally recorded data that is marked and held as having evidentiary or training value will be retained as prescribed by law and established Department policy.
E. In general, minor infractions and minor deviations from Department policy observed through the review of digitally recorded data will not be subject to the disciplinary process and will be treated as a training opportunity.
IV. RECORDING GUIDELINES

A. Department members will use only Department-issued video and audio recording equipment.

B. Department members will conform to all laws and Department policies concerning the use of the in-car video system for the video and audio recording of incidents.

1. Department members are lawfully permitted to video record individuals without their consent if they are on the public way or in public view.

2. Department members who are in uniform and have identified their office are lawfully permitted to simultaneously audibly and visually record individuals without their consent whenever:
   a. the member is conducting an enforcement stop, or
   b. the patrol vehicle emergency lights are activated or would otherwise be activated if not for the need to conceal the presence of law enforcement.

NOTE: Any reports completed for an audibly recorded incident, including Traffic Stop Statistical Study - Driver Information Cards (CPD-21.103), Traffic Stop Statistical Study Stickers (CPD-15.516), and Personal Service Citations, must include the initial violation or investigatory need that led to the stop.

NOTE: Department members may audibly record an enforcement stop regardless of the subsequent enforcement action taken.

3. Department members may audibly and visually record an individual with the consent of the individual.

C. Uniformed Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will activate the system to simultaneously audibly and visually record the entire incident for all enforcement stops.

D. Uniformed Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will activate the system to visually record the entire incident for all:

1. arrests and transports.
2. nonpursuit emergency vehicle operations.
3. any situation that the member, through training and experience, believes to serve a proper police purpose.

E. During the recording of an incident, Department members will not disengage the in-car video system until the entire incident has been recorded.

NOTE: Department members will be required to justify any disengagement of the in-car video system prior to the entire incident being recorded.

F. If recorded, felony and misdemeanor arrests, motor vehicle pursuits, traffic crashes resulting in property damage, personal injury, or a fatality, DUI incidents, and failure to yield to an emergency vehicle will be automatically stored by the in-car video system indefinitely when the correct event is selected from the postevent pop-up menu. All other incidents will be automatically stored for ninety days.

G. If digitally recorded data will be needed in judicial proceedings beyond ninety days, members will place an extended hold on that digitally recorded data as described in Item VIII of this directive, including but not limited to the following circumstances:

1. Traffic stops other than DUI,
2. Enforcement stops,
3. Other traffic crash investigations, and
4. Stops for citizen assistance.

H. When a complaint against a Department member is received that involves a digitally recorded incident, the investigating member will request an extended hold on the data.

I. Assigned supervisors will request an extended hold on all digitally recorded motor vehicle pursuits and traffic crashes involving Department vehicles.

V. DEPLOYMENT OF THE IN-CAR VIDEO SYSTEMS

A. Commanding officers of units with vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will:

1. ensure that vehicles equipped with in-car video systems are evenly distributed for use by all watches.

   NOTE: Commanding officers will ensure the units assigned to traffic duties in district law enforcement use vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.

2. whenever feasible, ensure vehicles equipped with the in-car video systems are deployed every tour of duty and service is requested for inoperable vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.

B. The station supervisors will:

1. deploy every vehicle equipped with a functional in-car video system during the tour of duty.
2. ensure digitally recorded data is downloaded from the in-car video systems.
3. whenever operationally feasible, review video of any arrest recorded by the in-car video system as part of the approval of probable cause.

VI. OPERATIONAL PROCEDURES

A. Department members assigned to a Department vehicle equipped with an in-car video system will:

1. at the beginning of a tour of duty:
   a. visually inspect the in-car video system equipment for damage.
   b. obtain the remote transmitter/audio recorder and ensure it is securely attached to the member’s person.
   c. follow the start-up procedures for the in-car video system as trained and ensure the system is working properly.

   NOTE: Members will immediately notify a supervisor if, at any time, the in-car video system is inoperable, damaged, the equipped vehicle becomes inoperable, or the remote transmitter/audio recorder is missing.

2. during the tour of duty:
   a. audibly and visually record events in accordance with this directive.
   b. annotate all reports, including Contact Information Cards (CPD-21.101), prepared for an event which has been recorded by listing “Video Recorded Incident” at the end of the narrative portion.
c. after an incident has been recorded, use the post-event pop-up menu to select the most serious recorded occurrence as the event type and enter other event information.

NOTE: If the member did not use the post-event pop-up menu to mark the incident as being held for evidence, the member will request an extended hold on digitally recorded data in accordance with item VIII of this directive.

d. if the in-car video system indicates that the memory required to record incidents is becoming low or if the member observes that less than 30 minutes of recording time is available, download the digitally recorded data.

3. at the conclusion of a tour of duty:
   a. verify the in-car video system is working properly.
   b. initiate the downloading of the digitally recorded data.

NOTE: Members will immediately notify a supervisor if unable to complete the downloading of digitally recorded data due to technical problems.

c. shut down the in-car video system and logoff the system.
   d. return the remote transmitter/audio recorder to the designated area for charging.

B. The sergeant assigned to supervise Department members using Department vehicles equipped with an in-car video system will:

   1. monitor subordinates to ensure the in-car video system is used and that digitally recorded data is properly downloaded.
   2. ensure that the Help Desk is contacted and a ticket number is obtained whenever any member is unable to use the in-car video system or download digitally recorded data due to technical problems.
   3. initiate an investigation when notified of a missing or lost remote transmitter/audio recorder.
      a. whether each vehicle has an in-car video system and if it is functioning.
      b. all responses related to malfunctions of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.
      c. digitally recorded data downloaded to land-based terminals, noting any units unable to complete the download and the Help Desk ticket number obtained.
      d. any request submitted for an extended hold of digitally recorded data.
      e. any instances of additional training, corrective measures, or disciplinary actions.
   5. document on the Traffic Pursuit Report (CPD-22.958) or traffic crash report that the incident has been digitally recorded.
   6. obtain a complaint register number and order an evidence technician to process the equipment if any damage or malfunction is suspected to have been caused by deliberate (tampering) means.

C. Station supervisors will:

   1. designate a sergeant responsible for monitoring the downloading of digitally recorded data for the watch.
2. record the total number of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems deployed during the watch and the total number of these vehicle that do not have a functioning in-car video system, if any, on the Watch Incident Log (CPD-21.916).

3. ensure the status of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems is recorded on the Personal Equipment Log (CPD-21.919) by recording the word “VIDEO” in the “Camera/Tripod No.” column.

4. if an in-car video system malfunctions or the system or vehicle becomes inoperable during the tour, record the vehicle and beat numbers and the words “VIDEO DOWN” on the Watch Incident Log.

D. When digitally recorded data is determined to have evidentiary or training value, or a complaint against a Department member is received that involves a digitally recorded incident, the supervisor reviewing the recorded data will request an extended hold on the data.

VII. DOWNLOADING DIGITALLY RECORDED DATA FROM THE IN-CAR VIDEO SYSTEM

A. When downloading digitally recorded data from the mobile unit of an in-car video system to a land-based terminal, Department members will:
   1. download the data in accordance with the manufacturer’s guidelines and training.
   2. ensure the download of data was complete and return the vehicle back into service.

B. With the approval of the station supervisor in the district of occurrence, special requests for the immediate viewing of digitally recorded data from the Bureau of Detectives, Bureau of Internal Affairs, or IPRA will be processed for major incidents where an in-car camera system may be reasonably expected to have captured a component of the incident.
   1. Major incidents include, but are not limited to:
      a. police-involved shootings,
      b. serious injury or death to a Department member,
      c. serious injury or death to a member of the public.
   2. Special requests for viewing digitally recorded data will be made to the station supervisor in the district of occurrence, who will:
      a. evaluate the request;
      b. determine if the need for retrieval outweighs the operational impact of the vehicle being taken out of service; and
      c. notify Crime Prevention and Information Center (CPIC) of the decision.
   3. Special requests will be in the form of one of the following types:
      a. Special wireless upload, or
      b. Emergency on-site retrieval.

C. Special Wireless Uploads
   1. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will take the vehicle out of service and secure it at the unit of assignment or other appropriate location.
   2. The supervisor will:
      a. verify that the vehicle operator or partner is signed on to the in-car camera system;
      b. instruct the member to manually flag the entire tour of duty’s available video for upload;
c. instruct the member to initiate a manual upload of this video with the vehicle in range of the facility’s wireless hotspot; and

NOTE: If video cannot be uploaded via wireless hotspot, a cradle upload will be used.

d. ensure that the vehicle remains out of service until the upload is complete.

3. Once complete, the station supervisor will allow personnel from the Bureau of Detectives, Bureau of Internal Affairs, or IPRA, as appropriate, to review the uploaded files.

NOTE: For officer-involved shootings when an On-Call Incident Commander (OCIC) will respond, an emergency on-site retrieval will be immediately requested through CPIC.

4. The station supervisor may identify an alternate vehicle for the member to use while the identified vehicle completes its video upload, as appropriate.

5. If an attempt to wirelessly upload is unsuccessful, members may contact the City of Chicago Help Desk at 4-DATA for assistance.

6. If a wireless upload fails, an emergency on-site retrieval will be conducted.

D. Emergency On-Site Retrieval

1. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will notify CPIC of an approved emergency on-site retrieval.

NOTE: An emergency on-site retrieval will only be conducted when an OCIC is responding or a wireless upload fails and contacting the City of Chicago Help Desk at 4-DATA has not resolved the problem.

2. CPIC will notify the Public Sector Information Technology (PSIT) Group personnel of a manual video retrieval from the “fail-safe” internal drive request.

3. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will take the identified vehicle out of service during the retrieval process.

4. If the identified vehicle is still in use when the designated supervisor arrives at the unit facility or other appropriate location, the supervisor will report to the vehicle and instruct any member logged onto the system to log off the system.

5. The vehicle will remain out of service until PSIT responds and conducts the video retrieval.

NOTE: On-site review of video will be limited to the series of events and time frame giving rise to the alleged incident.

E. Viewing and Obtaining Copies of In-Car Video Recordings

1. Once retrieval has been completed for the requested time frame, the video may be viewed by personnel from the requesting party at the location of retrieval.

2. Requests for copies of in-car video recordings will be made by completing the form entitled "Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request" (CPD-65.224) and forwarding it to the Records Division.

F. The Managing Deputy Director, PSIT, will:

1. establish procedures to ensure the security of the digitally recorded data from downloading to storage by the Records Division.
2. develop a system to monitor the memory capacity of the land-based terminals and provide for the security of the downloaded data.

G. If members are unable to download digitally recorded data from the mobile unit of the in-car video system to the land-based terminals due to system inoperability:

1. the station supervisor will notify the Help Desk and follow any further instructions given by the responding member of PSIT.

2. A designated member of PSIT will respond to the requesting unit and:

a. ensure the security of the digitally recorded data.

b. perform a manual download of the digitally recorded data.

c. record the manual download on the Help Desk ticket.

VIII. REQUESTING A HOLD FOR DIGITALLY RECORDED DATA

A. Department members will place an extended hold on digitally recorded data they recorded using the postevent pop-up menu on the in-car video system.

B. Within the first 48 hours from downloading digitally recorded data from the vehicle, Department members who do not use the postevent pop-up menu and request an extended hold on digitally recorded data will request that a supervisor place the extended hold by using the land-based terminal at the district/unit station.

C. After the first 48 hours from downloading digitally recorded data from the vehicle, Department members who do not use the postevent pop-up menu and request an extended hold on digitally recorded data will:

1. complete the Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form.

2. indicate on the form the necessary actions by the Records Division.

3. explain in the narrative portion of the form the reason for the request.

4. submit the form to the station supervisor/designated unit supervisor for approval.

5. submit the completed and approved form to the Records Division for processing and retention in accordance with existing records-retention requirements.

D. Department members who wish to remove an extended hold on digitally recorded data will follow the procedures outlined in Item VIII-C of this directive indicating the circumstances requiring the removal of the extended hold.

E. The Director, Records Division, will:

1. develop a cataloging system for storage and retrieval of recordings and procedures for ensuring archives are maintained consistent with Department directives (including the Forms Retention Schedule), applicable state and federal laws, and compliance with all court orders.

2. be responsible for retaining digitally recorded data for which an extended hold was requested as prescribed by law and established Department policy.

IX. VIEWING, RETAINING, AND DUPLICATING DIGITALLY RECORDED DATA

A. All digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems are the property of the Chicago Police Department. Dissemination of any digitally recorded data outside the Department is strictly prohibited without specific authorization by the Superintendent or an appointed designee.

1. Any non-Departmental requests for duplication of digitally recorded data must be approved by the Superintendent or an appointed designee.
2. All approved requests will be forwarded in an expeditious manner to the Director, Records Division, along with:
   a. a completed and approved Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form, and
   b. written instructions, including dissemination information, for compliance with the request.

B. Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems and their supervisors are encouraged to use the review/playback functions of the system for the purposes of:
   1. developing familiarity with the functions, capabilities, and limitations of the in-car video systems to create consistent recording techniques which capture relevant actions.
   2. searching for and identifying recorded events having evidentiary or training value.
   3. reviewing approach and officer safety issues.
   4. ensuring consistency with written reports.

C. Reviewing Digitally Recorded Data

Investigating members may view digitally recorded data in the performance of official police business. When it is necessary to view digitally recorded data stored by the Records Division, the following procedures will apply:

1. The requesting Department member will:
   a. prepare a Digitally Recorded Data Viewing / Hold / Duplication Request form, including approval of the requestor's station supervisor/designated unit supervisor.
   b. schedule an appointment to view the recorded incident with a Records Division supervisor (or an appointed designee) to ensure the availability of a technician and playback equipment.
   c. present the properly completed and approved form to a Records Division supervisor at the scheduled time.

2. A Records Division supervisor will:
   a. process all approved recorded incident review requests.
   b. assign a technician to assist the requestor in viewing the recorded incident, as required.

D. Obtaining a Video Recording

1. A duplicate copy of selected information may be made to retain that information:
   a. when it is not required that the master video be retained for an indefinite period (e.g., investigation of a routine administrative incident when the punishment is of a summary or minor nature).
   b. when the requesting member determines that a duplicate video of a master video will be sufficient.

2. A duplicate video recording may be obtained by:
   a. completing a Digitally Recorded Data Viewing / Hold / Duplication Request form and submitting the completed form to the station supervisor/designated unit supervisor for approval.
   b. notifying the Records Division that a duplicate video recording is required and submitting the approved Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form to the Director, Records Division.
c. indicating to the Records Division which information from the digitally recorded data is to be included on the duplicate video recording.

3. When the duplicate video recording has served the purpose for which it was made, the requesting member will ensure that it is immediately returned to the Records Division.

NOTE: A member requesting a duplicate video recording will not make additional copies of it or permit unauthorized persons to duplicate or view it under any circumstances.

E. Special Situations

When the Records Division receives a request for an extended hold of digitally recorded data that indicates it pertains to:

1. a motor vehicle pursuit or traffic crash involving a Department vehicle, the Director, Records Division, will ensure a duplicate video is forwarded to the Traffic Review Board.

2. an incident having training value, the Director, Records Division, will ensure a duplicate video is forwarded to the Deputy Chief, Education and Training Division.

Hello Dep Lewin,

Per your request the findings related to the Aggravated Assault / Police involved Shooting on 20 Oct 2014 Listed under RD# HY 475653:

Findings from that night:

Veh 8779 Video Recovered Titled PC02400@20141020215250, No MICs because they were in the Glove Compartment with the batteries inserted upside down - Disabling them.

Veh 8489 System not engaged because a very long video (like hours long) was made previous to this event/incident and the system was processing that video and unable to start another video.

Veh 8765 System not engaged, officer related no power. There was no open HDT called in on vehicle. MICs not sync’d to system even though they were in the charging cradles.

Veh 6412 Video Recovered Titled PC05571@20141020215250 view out of focus. Foucsing problem found to be related to a loose cable connection for the camera. No MICs in vehicle and the charging cradles disconnected from power.

Veh 8949 System not engaged, officer reported that there was an application error - Mobile Recorder Start-Up corrupted. No Help Desk Ticket Open for this vehicle.

Introduction

The COBAN mobile recorder is the front line of the Digital Video Management System (DVMS). The mobile recorder supports up to three audio/video channels and can record two channels of audio and two channels of video streams simultaneously to the in-car CPU.

*Only two video channels can be recorded simultaneously.

This information is stored in the Mobile Hard Disk Drive until it can be transferred to the BOClient.

This manual addresses the steps needed to properly use the Mobile recording system.

Login

Based on the system settings configured by the department, users may need to login to the mobile recorder system using a valid user ID and password at the beginning of each shift. Other login types are described on page 7. This information allows the mobile recorder system to transfer videos taken during the shift to BOClient to be properly stored and classified in the DVMS. Complete the steps described in this section to login to the mobile recorder system.

Turn On the Mobile Recorder

1. Start the vehicle.
2. Turn on the mobile recorder using the On/Off switch on the monitor.
3. Allow the system to boot up.
Login to the Mobile Recorder

1. After the mobile recording system has been powered up, the Mobile Start Recorder software will initiate and display the Officer Login screen.

2. The officer ID should be automatically entered into the appropriate field from information input during MHDD checkout. If not, enter the appropriate Officer ID in the field provided.

   Note: Tap Officer ID or Password to access the virtual keypad.

3. Type your password using the virtual keypad then tap OK.

4. Tap Login.

5. The System Time and Date screen will appear.

6. Change the system time and date if it is incorrect using the appropriate arrow keys.

7. Take note of the estimated remaining recording time. Storage remaining for video recording is displayed above the OK button.

   Note: A warning prompt will be displayed if available recording time is less than 4 hours. The system will not allow the MHDD to be used if it has less than 4 hours remaining.

8. Tap OK.
Note: A successful Login will show the Officer ID number on the bottom right of the Camera View screen.

Sync the Wireless Microphone

1. Locate the contacts at the bottom of the wireless mic.
2. Press the wireless microphone contacts directly on top of the receiver’s register contacts.
3. A confirmation tone will sound to indicate the receiver and the microphone have synchronized their frequencies.
4. The wireless microphone is now on standby mode and ready for use.

Note: Syncing a second microphone to the same receiver will replace and nullify the first microphone.
Other Login Options

The system administrator for the DVMS can enable one of four different login capabilities. These four different options are described below:

Quick login – Automatically logs in an officer after they login once, as long as the same hard drive is used in the same unit (typically used in take home vehicles).

Emergency login – If this option is enabled, when the user starts the mobile recording system and the light bar is activated, the system will boot into record mode automatically. If the light bar is not activated, the system will remain at the login screen.

Delayed login – If this option is enabled the officer can startup the mobile unit and will get a login prompt for 30 seconds. If the officer does not login within 30 seconds the mobile recorder program will start automatically with the ability to record a video. At the end of the recording period, once the stop button is pressed, the officer is prompted to login.

Windows login – The administrator may set BOClient to use MSWindows login credentials and automatically login to BO Client. Note that users will need to logoff from the current Windows session so that others will not gain access to DVMS system with other users’ access rights (this feature requires MDT integration or a connection to the department network).

Manually Start the Application

1. The system is designed to start automatically. If the system does not automatically start contact the system administrator or locate the application icon on the display screen.

2. Tap the Mobile Start icon to start the application.
Minimize/Maximize the Application Window

1. Tap the application icon to minimize the window.

2. Tap Hide Camera View to minimize the application window and access the desktop.

3. Tap the application icon to return to the Camera View screen.
Camera View Screen

The Camera View screen displays the camera input and provides options for the user to start recording, create bookmarks, take snapshots of the video and other functions. It also provides icons that indicate the light bar status, radar gun reading, GPS indicator (if installed), and the in-car microphone ON / OFF status.

At the bottom of this screen, it shows the Pre-Event Buffering time, which indicates the length of video that is being pre-recorded prior to User pressing the Record button.
Camera Preview – The camera preview displays the image as seen through the camera lens. The default image is set as the front facing camera. The system supports a spot exposure feature. Tap the brightest portion of the camera preview screen to automatically dim the preview screen for five seconds. This feature is useful for when lights are making portions of the preview too bright to see.

Video Log - The Video Log documents readings and status from various devices connect to the mobile recording system such as, light bar status, microphone status, bookmark, etc.

Snapshot Function – Tapping the snapshot icon will save a JPG freeze frame image of the video displayed on the camera preview screen. A preview of the snapshot will be displayed immediately beneath the snapshot icon for 15 seconds. Take a snapshot of the rear camera view by clicking on the C2 camera indicator to change the camera preview to secondary camera, then tap the snapshot icon.

Minimize/Enlarge Button – The minimize/enlarge button will minimize or enlarge the mobile recorder application and allow users the ability to access other programs on the computer.

Recording Indicators – The recording indicators blink red to signify which camera is recording. If no cameras are recording, the indicators will not blink. Users can tap on the recording indicators to make that camera's view active in the Camera Preview screen. When there is only one camera installed on the vehicle, the user will not see a C1 and C2 camera indicator. When three cameras are installed in the system, tapping the C2 camera indicator will toggle between camera’s two and three.

Date and Time – The Date and Time display is set during the login sequence and continuously displays the current date and time.

Buffer Setting – The Pre-Event Buffer is set by the System Administrator through COBAN’s BOClient application. The Pre-Event Buffer display is a reminder to the user that all recordings are provided with a pre-event recording. This buffer can be adjusted through BOClient or in some cases through mobile recorder.

Mic Icon – The wireless microphone icon will blink when the covert microphone is recording audio.

Light Bar Indicator – the light bar indicator will blink when the vehicles light bar is activated.

Function Buttons – The function buttons provide users the access to greater functionality, including:

- The Menu button provides access to Camera View, Playback, Switch User, or Exit functions.
- Bookmark Icon – Tap the bookmark icon to mark a spot in a video for later review or to pinpoint an action on the recording.
- Auto Zoom - When tapped, the system will automatically zoom the camera, pause for 3 seconds and zoom back to user's original zoom setting. There is no need to manually disengage the button when this feature is used.
- Camera Control - Press Camera Control to access manual camera zoom, brightness and focus capabilities.
- More - Allows users the ability to access additional system features and functions.
- Secondary Camera View - If installed, will be configured as C2 and the second camera’s view will appear below the primary camera image next to C2 indicator.
- Playback Functions – The playback feature allows user to play previously recorded video, enter / edit video event data, send selected video wirelessly (if wireless option is purchased) and manually retain video. (Please refer to Page 17 for more details)
- Record Buttons – The user may initiate a recording by pressing the wireless microphone, turning on the light bar or siren (if equipped as a system trigger), or pressing the Record icons on the screen.
Recording

The core feature of the mobile recording system is its ability to quickly and accurately capture videos when the user initiates a recording. The COBAN mobile recording system incorporates a multitude of options to start a recording, and to view videos as they are being recorded. These options are detailed in the following section.

Start a Recording Manually

1. Tap the camera 1 icon \( \text{C1} \) to begin a recording using the primary camera via the video recorder.

2. Tap the camera 2 icon \( \text{C2} \) to begin a recording using the secondary camera via the video recorder.

\( \text{Note:} \) If the vehicle has three cameras, the user can switch the display between camera 2 and camera 3 by double tapping the camera 2 indicator beneath the video image display.

\( \text{Note:} \) The camera 1 icon will be shown as a white square when the mobile recorder is actively recording a video.

3. The recording indicators will blink red to signify which cameras are actively recording.

\( \text{Note:} \) While in record mode, the preview screen provides the ability to set bookmarks by pressing the bookmark icon (see page 16 for more information on this feature).
Stop Recording

1. Tap the camera 1 icon \textcolor{red}{\textbf{C1}} to stop recording using the primary camera.

2. Tap the camera 2 icon \textcolor{red}{\textbf{C2}} to stop the recording on the secondary camera.

Use Wireless Mic to Start Recording

1. Press the Record button (larger button) on the wireless mic once.

2. This action will initiate the mobile recorder to record both audio and video data via the mobile recorder.

3. The wireless mic will vibrate twice and the record button will flash green to indicate that the mobile recording system has started a recording, depending on which mode it is in (see table below).

Wireless Mic Alerts

1. The wireless mic will flash color coded LEDs and/or vibrate to alert users of status changes and wireless mic maintenance alerts.

2. See the table to the right to decipher the alerts.

Other Recording Options

The system administrator can set other recording start and stop options via the system settings in BOClient, including:

- Light bar activation
- Vehicle speed activation
- Siren activation
- Weapons rack activation

The middle button of the wireless mic is configurable so that it can be used for the following purposes:

- Bookmark
- Mute
- Stop recording
Event Type

If enabled, the Event Type screen will pop up immediately after the user stops a video recording. Classifying a recording with an event type helps the DVMS save the video, and allows meta-data and other details about the video to be stored with the recording as well as sets the retention criteria for each video. The mobile recorder system will return to the Camera View Screen and Wireless Microphone will also return to standby once the video has been linked to an event type. In instances where both cameras are recording the system will give the user the option to carry over the event data to the secondary camera.

Select an Event Type

1. Tap the camera icon to stop recording.

2. The Event Type screen will appear.

3. Tap the appropriate event type to classify the video that was recorded. The Event Type will be highlighted in light blue when it is selected.

4. Tap Select to enter the event type.

Note: Events can be added or removed from the event type list by the system administrator through BOClient.
5. Tap any of the text fields to display the virtual keypad.

6. Type information regarding the recording using the virtual keypad then tap OK.
Snapshot

Using the snapshot feature will take a JPG freeze frame image of the video displayed on the preview screen. A preview of the snapshot will be displayed immediately beneath the snapshot icon for 15 seconds. This feature works for any camera installed on the system, but only the camera view shown on the preview screen is available for snapshot.

Take Snapshot

1. Tap snapshot icon to take a JPG freeze frame of the image on the camera view screen.

2. Tap the preview that appears beneath the snapshot icon to enlarge the snapshot.

Note: The snapshot preview will be displayed for approximately 15 seconds.
Review Snapshots

1. Use the arrow keys to scroll through the snapshots saved in the mobile recorder system.
2. Click X to delete snapshots.
3. Click OK to return to the Camera View screen.

Bookmark

Bookmarks are used to mark points in a video that the reviewer or user feels are significant. Bookmarks also allow users to quickly locate these significant points of videos during a review.

Set a Bookmark in Mobile Recorder

1. Start a video recording (see page 11 for more information on recording).
2. Tap the bookmark icon on the right side of the screen.
3. An entry will be displayed in the Video Log.

Note: The bookmark icon will not be displayed unless the mobile recorder is actively recording.
More Functions

Tap MORE to access additional system features/functions such as:

Access the More Menu

1. Tap MORE on the Camera Preview screen.

2. Tap the appropriate button to access the additional functions.

Version Q4 2009
www.cobantech.com
Page 17 of 48

OIG 15-0564 008979
System Summary

1. Tap System Summary.

2. A popup window will appear that shows:
   - Total number of videos recorded
   - Total offender records entered
   - Recording time left

...
Close Shot

COBAN's mobile recorder camera is designed to focus beyond the vehicle's windshield. This point of focus ensures that rain drops or other debris on the windshield do not negatively affect the picture.

Users may use close shot mode to bring the focus point down to within one inch from the camera for 5 seconds. During this time, a snapshot will be taken for later review:

1. Position the ID or other object approximately 1 inch from the camera's lens.

2. Tap Close Shot.

3. The camera will re-focus and take a snapshot JPG image that will be saved in the snapshots file (see page 16 for more information on reviewing snapshots).
View Snapshots

Snapshots, those taken via the snapshot function on the camera view screen or those taken utilizing the close shot function, are stored in the same place. Access these files by:

1. Tap View Snapshots.

2. Use the arrow keys to scroll through the snapshots in the mobile recorder system.

3. Click X to delete snapshots.

4. Click OK to return to Camera View screen.
Pre-Event Playback

Pre-event buffer, or the length of video that will precede a recording when the record icon is activated can be adjusted, but only prior to a recording.

Another useful feature of the pre-event playback is a feature that allows the users to go back to any point in time that occurred since that user logged onto the mobile recorder system. The pre-event buffer starts at the time a user logs on or switches users (see page Switch Officer37 for information on switching officers).

1. Tap Pre-Event Playback.

2. Tap the left and right arrow buttons to adjust the length of the pre-event section in minutes.
3. Tap to view the past minutes that the officer has input.

4. Tap to record the past minutes.

5. Tap the record button.

Note: Another useful feature of this capability is to view past minutes of a currently recording video to review what was said or happened and verify facts.

6. Tap the extract button to retrieve the selected length of pre-event. This allows the user to playback and attach a longer pre-event segment than is defined in the back-office system.

7. The extra length of pre-event is included in the saved video.

Note: It is possible to adjust pre-event to append video to a previously recorded video by adjusting the pre-event buffer to a point prior to the recording’s start time, i.e., to append ten minutes of pre-event to a video recorded from 8:00 to 8:15, adjust the pre-event buffer to a value greater than fifteen minutes.
Equipment Test

The Equipment Test feature allows the user to test the wireless mic and the covert mic without triggering a recording.

1. Ensure that the wireless mic is synchronized to the mobile recorder (see page 6 for information on syncing the wireless mic).
2. Tap Equipment Test.
3. The wireless mic will beep twice and flash green if the system is properly synchronized.
4. Press the record button on the wireless mic.
5. The microphone icon will be shown with flashing electrifying icons indicating that the microphone is active, if the covert mic is working properly.

Note: A feedback whine may be produced by the microphone during this test.

6. Also, the text M1 will appear at the top right of the camera preview screen to indicate that wireless 1 is active.
7. Note: When two mics are used, M1 and M2 will appear in the camera preview.
8. Tap Click here to exit Test Mode to exit the test.

Sync GPS Time
This feature syncs the video clock to GPS time clock if the time is off by more than 10 minutes. This feature will only work if GPS is installed on the mobile recorder system.

1. Tap Sync GPS Time.

2. A popup window will appear providing the user with the difference between the system time and the GPS time.

3. Tap Yes to synchronize the system time to the GPS time.
Edit Event Data

Each recorded video is linked with an event type. Events can be defined as traffic stop, accident, assistance, or any other definable event type. Each event may have multiple data points including offender information, user activities, location description, and remarks.

1. To access the Event Data screen, tap Edit Event Data.

   Note: This option will be grayed out if the system is not recording.

2. Tap Select Event.

3. Select the event type from the pre-defined event list.

4. Once event type is selected, the user may then start adding personal information of offenders, or select the applicable activities.

5. Enter case numbers and ticket numbers in the fields provided at the top left of the screen.

6. Tap Remarks to enter comments regarding the video event.

7. Check the activities boxes to describe the activities taken during the video event.
Offender Data Screen

1. Tap + from the Edit Event Data screen to enter the offender data screen.

2. Enter offender data in the fields provided in the Offender Data screen.

3. Tap Save when the entries are completed.

4. Tap the Violations field to access the Violations Selection screen (see page 27 for more information on entering violations data).

5. Tap C to access the offender data and edit data regarding the event.

6. Tap X to delete offender data.

7. Tap M to move offender data from one event to another.

8. Tap the field next to Location/Remark to enter text regarding the location of the video event.
Violation Selection Screen

1. Tap the Violations field in the Offender Data screen (as described on page 26) to access the Violation Selection screen.

2. For events where a warning or an arrest took place, check the appropriate box across from the appropriate violation.

3. For events involving drug interdiction, the user can check the box in the Drug-1 or Drug-2 column across from the appropriate violation.

   Note: Drug-1 is commonly used to indicate personal use of the drug; Drug-2 is for other drug interdictions (such as Drug Trafficking or Dealing).

4. Tap OK to return to the Offender’s Data screen.
IP Address

1. Tap IP Address to display the IP address of the vehicle.

2. A popup window will appear providing the IP address information.

3. Click OK to return to the Main Menu screen.
Record Indicator

A red LED light is situated on the front of the COBAN camera in order to signify to users whether or not the system is recording. It is situated to be seen through the front windshield when the user is outside the vehicle.

1. Tap Record Indicator to deactivate the red LED on the camera.

2. Tap Record Indicator a second time to activate the red LED on the camera.
Traffic Watch

The traffic watch allows users the ability to zoom out as soon as the record button is tapped.

1. Tap Traffic Watch to turn on the traffic watch function.

2. The screen shot on the right shows a preview where the user is focusing on the license plate of the vehicle in the frame.

3. When a recording is started the camera will automatically zoom out to obtain the entire scene.

   Note: When traffic watch is disabled the manual zoom button stays active.
Night Mode
Night Mode dims the in-car monitor for clarity and provides less glare during covert conditions.

1. Tap Night Mode to activate night mode and reduce the brightness of the monitor.

2. The preview screen will dim slightly.

3. Tap Night Mode again to deactivate night mode and return the monitor to the default brightness settings.
Color Mode

By default, color mode is enabled in the mobile recording system. There are times when it may be useful to disable color mode in order to enhance lighting and reduce glare. This feature is useful for capturing tire skid marks on roads or during dusk and dawn light conditions.

1. Tap Color Mode on the Menu screen to activate a black and white preview.

2. The preview screen will change from color to black and white.

3. Tap Color Mode again on the Menu screen to re-activate color mode and deactivate black and white preview.

Note: When in Black and White mode, the video recording will record in black and white only.
Camera Control

COBAN mobile recorder systems allow users the ability to manually adjust the zoom, brightness and focus using the touch screen monitor. The specifics of accessing and utilizing these functions are described below:

Brightness Control
1. Tap Camera Control to access the brightness control functionality.
2. Use the arrow keys to increase or decrease the brightness of the preview screen.
3. Tap Reset to return to the default settings.
4. Tap Exit to return to the Camera Preview screen.

Zoom Control
1. Tap Camera Control to access the brightness control functionality.
2. Tap \( \rightarrow Z \) to access the zoom control functionality.
3. Use the arrow keys to increase or decrease the brightness of the Camera Preview screen.
4. Tap Exit to return to the Camera Preview screen.

Focus Control
1. Tap Camera Control to access the brightness control functionality.
2. Tap \( \rightarrow F \) to access the focus control functionality.
3. Use the arrow keys to change the focus of the Camera Preview screen.
4. Tap Exit to return to the Camera Preview screen.
Auto Zoom

The auto zoom feature allows users the ability to zoom in on a subject automatically. Complete the following steps to utilize the auto zoom feature. This feature is especially useful when zooming in on a license plate or zooming in on a subject during a recording.

1. Adjust the camera to center the preview screen on the subject to zoom in on.

2. Tap AUTO ZOOM on the right of the Camera Preview screen to automatically zoom in on a subject in the preview screen automatically.

Note: If the in-car set up has been configured to take a snapshot during auto zoom the system will automatically take a snapshot once the camera has zoomed in on the subject. The snapshot will be shown below SNAPSHOT for approximately 15 seconds. The snapshot will be saved with the other snapshots taken during that shift (see page 15 for more information on snapshots).

3. The camera will zoom out automatically.
COBAN BOClient is a software application used to review videos at the department once the videos are uploaded from the mobile recorder system. In some cases users have found it necessary and useful to review videos in the field or immediately after recording them. The Playback Video feature allows users the capability to review videos from the mobile recorder system display in the vehicle.

1. Tap PLAYBACK on the right side of the screen to access the playback function.

2. The Video List screen will appear and list video's stored on the MHDD by date and time taken. Location and Event will also be displayed.

3. Tap the video to play. The video will be highlighted in light green when selected.

4. Tap Play at the bottom of the screen.

Note: Tap Data to access the Offender Data screen (see page 26 for more information on the Offender Data screen).

Note: Check the box in the Retain column to have the video classified as "retained" in BOClient. See the BOClient User's Manual for more information on retaining videos. This feature is usually used for videos that may have been misclassified as a different event type immediately following the recording.
5. Tap ✎ to set a bookmark in the video.
6. Tap ✪ to pause the video.
7. Tap 2X to play the video at double speed.
8. Tap ⏯ to rewind the video to the starting point.
9. Use the track bar at the bottom of the screen to move through the video.
10. Use the audio channel buttons at the bottom right of the screen to toggle on and off the audio channels.
11. Tap ✓ to stop the video playback and return to the Video List screen.
Switch Officer

1. Tap MENU on the right side of the screen.

2. The Officer Login screen will appear. Note: Tap the field titles, i.e., Officer ID, Password to access the Virtual Keypad.

3. Enter the officer ID and password in the appropriate fields and tap OK.
Upload Videos

The COBAN mobile recorder system allows for the transfer of videos to the server or sub server at the department in any one of several different methods, including:

- Mobile Hard Disk Drive upload
- Wireless Upload (automatically or on command)
- Wired Ethernet

Wireless Upload

Users in departments that utilize the wireless upload capability will have TTCS (time to connect to server) countdown at the bottom right of the Camera Preview screen.

1. Tap MENU from the Camera Preview screen.

2. Tap EXIT SYSTEM at the bottom of the screen.
3. Tap Upload & Stay On or Upload & Shutdown to upload videos.

4. The mobile recorder system will process all videos for upload.

   Note: In some cases the mobile recorder system must finish processing videos before it can properly shutdown or upload videos. The User can turn off the vehicle and leave as the mobile recorder system will automatically proceed with the upload and shutdown operation once the video processing is complete.

5. The mobile recorder system will begin to upload the videos and show progress of the upload.

   CAUTION: Do NOT remove the MHDD during this upload process.

   Note: If the Upload and Shutdown option was selected, the mobile recorder system will automatically shut down when the upload is complete.
Automatic Wireless Upload

Departments that utilize the wireless upload capability will have TTCS (time to connect to server) countdown at the bottom right of the Camera Preview screen.

All videos that have been processed by the system and are in the Video List are automatically uploaded to the server or sub server based on the BOClient settings and department protocols.

Specifying Videos to Upload/Retain

1. Users can designate that the system send specific videos immediately to the server from the Video List screen (see page 35 for information on accessing the Video List screen).

   Note: Check the box in the Retain column to have the video classified as "retained" in BOClient. See the BOClient User’s Manual for more information on retaining videos.

2. Check the box next to the video and tap Send at the bottom of the screen.

3. A popup screen will appear informing the user whether or not the videos were successfully uploaded.

4. Tap OK in the popup window to proceed.

5. The video will be marked as <SENT> in the video list following a successful upload.
MHDD Upload

Users must check in and check out Mobile Hard Disk Drives (MHDD) to upload videos in departments that do not utilize the wireless upload capability.

1. Tap MENU on the Camera Preview screen.

2. Tap EXIT SYSTEM.

3. Tap Shutdown to shutdown the mobile recorder system.

4. Use a key to unlock and remove the MHDD from the mobile recorder system.

Note: In most departments a key can be requested from the System Administrator.

CAUTION: Do NOT remove the MHDD while this system is running.
5. Insert the MHDD in the upload cradle in the department or sub-station.

6. An upload popup window will appear. Enter the serial number of the MHDD if it is not automatically entered into the field provided.

7. Check the appropriate box to check out the hard disk after upload and the system will run the checkout application automatically after uploading.

CAUTION: Do not remove MHDD from the cradle during the upload process. Removing the MHDD from the cradle could result in loss of data.

8. A message box will show the progress of the upload and check out process.
9. Follow the directions to safely remove the MHDD from the cradle.

Wired Upload

The mobile recording system provides the capability to download videos via Ethernet cable directly from the CPU. System administrators must specify that the Ethernet plug will be used for the function to enable this feature.

1. Plug an Ethernet cable into the Ethernet plug of the CPU.
2. Tap MENU from the Camera Preview screen.
3. Tap EXIT SYSTEM at the bottom of the screen.
Mobile Recorder User Manual

4. Tap Upload & Stay On or Upload & Shutdown to upload videos.

5. The mobile recorder system will process all videos for upload.

   Note: In some cases the mobile recorder system must finish processing videos before it can properly shutdown or upload videos. The User can turn off the vehicle and leave as the mobile recorder system will automatically proceed with the upload and shutdown operation once the video processing is complete.

6. The mobile recorder system will begin to upload the videos and show progress of the upload.

   CAUTION: Do NOT remove the MHDD or unplug the Ethernet cable during this upload process.

   Note: If the Upload and Shutdown option was selected, the mobile recorder system will automatically shut down when the upload is complete.

7. Disconnect the Ethernet cable once the upload is complete.
Exit the System

The mobile recorder system is capable of automatically shutting down following the upload and processing of videos stored in the MHDD. This enables users to select the shutdown option, turn off the vehicle, and leave with the confidence of knowing the data stored on the system will not be lost.

1. Tap MENU from the Camera View screen.

2. Tap EXIT SYSTEM at the bottom of the screen.
3. For wireless upload, tap Shutdown or Upload & Shutdown to shutdown the mobile recorder system.

Note: Upload & Shutdown will upload videos prior to shutdown (see page 38 for more information on this function.)

4. The mobile recorder system will process all videos for upload.

Note: In some cases the mobile recorder system must finish processing videos before it can properly shutdown or upload videos. The User can turn off the vehicle and leave as the mobile recorder system will automatically proceed with the upload and shutdown operation once the video processing is complete.

MORE FUNCTIONS

- SYSTEM SUMMARY: Provides the number of recorded videos, number of offender records entered and available recording time with existing mobile hard drive.
- CLOSE SHOT: Close shot reduces focus point down to within one inch from the camera for 5 seconds. During this time, a snapshot will be taken for later review.
- VIEW SNAPSHOT: Allows the user to view all saved snapshots. Double tap the snapshot to enlarge the photo, double tap again to return to original size.
- PRE-EVENT PLAYBACK: Allows the user to playback the pre-event video to manually determine when they would like to start a recording.
- EQUIPMENT TEST: Allows the user to test equipment settings for the in-car unit.
- EDIT EVENT DATA: Allows the user to edit event data while it is being recorded.
- RECORD INDICATOR: Allows the user to activate or disable the red LED indicator in front of the camera. The LED is used to alert the user of the camera's recording status.
- TRAFFIC WATCH: Will adjust back from manual zoom to user selected zoom setting in the back office, when recording is triggered.
- NIGHT MODE: Displays the in-car monitor for clarity and reduce glare.
- COLOR MODE: By default, color mode is ON, turning it OFF will revert camera to black and white mode which may be useful at night to enhance lighting and reduce glare.

Introduction

The COBAN mobile recorder is the front line of the Digital Video Management System (DVMS). The mobile recorder support up to three audio/video channels and can record two channels of audio and two channels of video streams simultaneously to the in-car CPU.

*Only two video channels can be recorded simultaneously.

This information is stored in the Mobile Hard Disk Drive until it can be transferred to the BOClient.

This manual addresses the steps needed to properly use the Mobile recording system.

Login

Based on the system settings configured by the department users may need to login to the mobile recorder system using a valid user ID and password at the beginning of each shift. Other login types are described on page 7. This information allows the mobile recorder system to transfer videos taken during the shift to BOClient to be properly stored and classified in the DVMS. Complete the steps described in this section to login to the mobile recorder system.

Turn On the Mobile Recorder

1. Start the vehicle.
2. Turn on the mobile recorder using the On/Off switch on the monitor.
3. Allow the system to boot up.
Login to the Mobile Recorder

1. After the mobile recording system has been powered up, the Mobile Start Recorder software will initiate and display the Officer Login screen.
2. The officer ID should be automatically entered into the appropriate field from information input during MHDD checkout. If not, enter the appropriate Officer ID in the field provided.

   Note: Tap Officer ID or Password to access the virtual keypad.

3. Type your password using the virtual keypad then tap OK.
4. Tap Login.
5. The System Time and Date screen will appear.
6. Change the system time and date if it is incorrect using the appropriate arrow keys.
7. Take note of the estimated remaining recording time. Storage remaining for video recording is displayed above the OK button.

   Note: A warning prompt will be displayed if available recording time is less than 4 hours. The system will not allow the MHDD to be used if it has less than 4 hours remaining.
8. Tap OK.
Sync the Wireless Microphone

1. Locate the contacts at the bottom of the wireless mic.
2. Press the wireless microphone contacts directly on top of the receiver's register contacts.
3. A confirmation tone will sound to indicate the receiver and the microphone have synchronized their frequencies.
4. The wireless microphone is now on standby mode and ready for use.

Note: Syncing a second microphone to the same receiver will replace and nullify the first microphone.
Other Login Options

The system administrator for the DVMS can enable one of four different login capabilities. These four different options are described below:

Quick login – Automatically logs in an officer after they login once, as long as the same hard drive is used in the same unit (typically used in take home vehicles).

Emergency login – If this option is enabled, when the user starts the mobile recording system and the light bar is activated, the system will boot into record mode automatically. If the light bar is not activated, the system will remain at the login screen.

Delayed login – If this option is enabled the officer can startup the mobile unit and will get a login prompt for 30 seconds. If the officer does not login within 30 seconds the mobile recorder program will start automatically with the ability to record a video. At the end of the recording period, once the stop button is pressed, the officer is prompted to login.

Windows login – The administrator may set BOClient to use MS Windows login credentials and automatically login to BO Client. Note that users will need to logoff from the current Windows session so that others will not gain access to DVMS system with other users’ access rights (this feature requires MDT integration or a connection to the department network).

Manually Start the Application

1. The system is designed to start automatically. If the system does not automatically start contact the system administrator or locate the application icon on the display screen.

2. Tap the Mobile Start icon to start the application.
Minimize/Maximize the Application Window

1. Tap the application icon to minimize the window.

2. Tap Hide Camera View to minimize the application window and access the desktop.

3. Tap the application icon to return to the Camera View screen.
Camera View Screen

The Camera View screen displays the camera input and provides options for the user to start recording, create bookmarks, take snapshots of the video and other functions. It also provides icons that indicate the light bar status, radar gun reading, GPS indicator (if installed), and the in-car microphone ON / OFF status.

At the bottom of this screen, it shows the Pre-Event Buffering time, which indicates the length of video that is being pre-recorded prior to User pressing the Record button.
Camera Preview – The camera preview displays the image as seen through the camera lens. The default image is set as the front facing camera. The system supports a spot exposure feature. Tap the brightest portion of the camera preview screen to automatically dim the preview screen for five seconds. This feature is useful for when lights are making portions of the preview too bright to see.

Video Log - The Video Log documents readings and status from various devices connect to the mobile recording system such as, light bar status, microphone status, bookmark, etc.

Snapshot Function – Tapping the snapshot icon will save a JPG freeze frame image of the video displayed on the camera preview screen. A preview of the snapshot will be displayed immediately beneath the snapshot icon for 15 seconds. Take a snapshot of the rear camera view by clicking on the C2 camera indicator to change the camera preview to secondary camera, then tap the snapshot icon.

Minimize/Enlarge Button – The minimize/enlarge button will minimize or enlarge the mobile recorder application and allow users the ability to access other programs on the computer.

Recording Indicators – The recording indicators blink red to signify which camera is recording. If no cameras are recording, the indicators will not blink. Users can tap on the recording indicators to make that camera’s view active in the Camera Preview screen. When there is only one camera installed on the vehicle, the user will not see a C1 and C2 camera indicator. When three cameras are installed in the system, tapping the C2 camera indicator will toggle between camera’s two and three.

Date and Time – The Date and Time display is set during the login sequence and continuously displays the current date and time.

Buffer Setting – The Pre-Event Buffer is set by the System Administrator through COBAN’s BOClient application. The Pre-Event Buffer display is a reminder to the user that all recordings are provided with a pre-event recording. This buffer can be adjusted through BOClient or in some cases through mobile recorder.

Mic Icon – The wireless microphone icon will blink when the covert microphone is recording audio.

Light Bar Indicator – the light bar indicator will blink when the vehicle’s light bar is activated.

Function Buttons – The function buttons provide users the access to greater functionality, including:

The Menu button provides access to Camera View, Playback, Switch User, or Exit functions.

Bookmark Icon – Tap the bookmark icon to mark a spot in a video for later review or to pinpoint an action on the recording.

Auto Zoom - When tapped, the system will automatically zoom the camera, pause for 3 seconds and zoom back to user’s original zoom setting. There is no need to manually disengage the button when this feature is used.

Camera Control - Press Camera Control to access manual camera zoom, brightness and focus capabilities.

More - Allows users the ability to access additional system features and functions.

Secondary Camera View - If installed, will be configured as C2 and the second camera’s view will appear below the primary camera image next to C2 indicator.

Playback Functions – The playback feature allows user to play previously recorded video, enter / edit video event data, send selected video wirelessly (if wireless option is purchased) and manually retain video. (Please refer to Page 17 for more details)

Record Buttons – The user may initiate a recording by pressing the wireless microphone, turning on the light bar or siren (if equipped as a system trigger), or pressing the Record icons on the screen.
Recording

The core feature of the mobile recording system is its ability to quickly and accurately capture videos when the user initiates a recording. The COBAN mobile recording system incorporates a multitude of options to start a recording, and to view videos as they are being recorded. These options are detailed in the following section.

Start a Recording Manually

1. Tap the camera 1 icon (C1) to begin a recording using the primary camera via the video recorder.

2. Tap the camera 2 icon (C2) to begin a recording using the secondary camera via the video recorder.

Note: If the vehicle has three cameras, the user can switch the display between camera 2 and camera 3 by double tapping the camera 2 indicator beneath the video image display.

Note: The camera 1 icon will be shown as a white square when the mobile recorder is actively recording a video.

Not Recording

Recording

3. The recording indicators will blink red to signify which cameras are actively recording.

Note: While in record mode, the preview screen provides the ability to set bookmarks by pressing the bookmark icon (see page 16 for more information on this feature).
Mobile Recorder User Manual

Stop Recording

1. Tap the camera 1 icon \( \text{C1} \) to stop recording using the primary camera.

2. Tap the camera 2 icon \( \text{C2} \) to stop the recording on the secondary camera.

Use Wireless Mic to Start Recording

1. Press the Record button (larger button) on the wireless mic once.

2. This action will initiate the mobile recorder to record both audio and video data via the mobile recorder.

3. The wireless mic will vibrate twice and the record button will flash green to indicate that the mobile recording system has started a recording, depending on which mode it is in (see table below).

Wireless Mic Alerts

1. The wireless mic will flash color coded LEDs and/or vibrate to alert users of status changes and wireless mic maintenance alerts.

2. See the table to the right to decipher the alerts.

Other Recording Options

The system administrator can set other recording start and stop options via the system settings in BOClient, including:

- Light bar activation
- Vehicle speed activation
- Siren activation
- Weapons rack activation

The middle button of the wireless mic is configurable so that it can be used for the following purposes:

- Bookmark
- Stop recording
- Mute
Mobile Recorder User Manual

Event Type

If enabled, the Event Type screen will pop up immediately after the user stops a video recording. Classifying a recording with an event type helps the DVMS save the video, and allows meta-data and other details about the video to be stored with the recording as well as sets the retention criteria for each video. The mobile recorder system will return to the Camera View Screen and Wireless Microphone will also return to standby once the video has been linked to an event type. In instances where both cameras are recording the system will give the user the option to carry over the event data to the secondary camera.

Select an Event Type

1. Tap the camera icon to stop recording.

2. The Event Type screen will appear.

3. Tap the appropriate event type to classify the video that was recorded. The Event Type will be highlighted in light blue when it is selected.

4. Tap Select to enter the event type.

Note: Events can be added or removed from the event type list by the system administrator through BOClient.
Mobile Recorder User Manual

5. Tap any of the text fields to display the virtual keypad.
6. Type information regarding the recording using the virtual keypad then tap OK.
Snapshot

Using the snapshot feature will take a JPG freeze frame image of the video displayed on the preview screen. A preview of the snapshot will be displayed immediately beneath the snapshot icon for 15 seconds. This feature works for any camera installed on the system, but only the camera view shown on the preview screen is available for snapshot.

Take Snapshot

1. Tap snapshot icon to take a JPG freeze frame of the image on the camera view screen.

2. Tap the preview that appears beneath the snapshot icon to enlarge the snapshot.

Note: The snapshot preview will be displayed for approximately 15 seconds.
Review Snapshots

1. Use the arrow keys to scroll through the snapshots saved in the mobile recorder system.
2. Click X to delete snapshots.
3. Click OK to return to the Camera View screen.

Bookmark

Bookmarks are used to mark points in a video that the reviewer or user feels are significant. Bookmarks also allow users to quickly locate these significant points of videos during a review.

Set a Bookmark in Mobile Recorder

1. Start a video recording (see page 11 for more information on recording).
2. Tap the bookmark icon on the right side of the screen.
3. An entry will be displayed in the Video Log.

Note: The bookmark icon will not be displayed unless the mobile recorder is actively recording.
More Functions

Tap MORE to access additional system features/functions such as:

- System Summary
- Close Shot
- View Snapshot
- Pre-Event Playback
- Volume
- Equipment Test
- Sync GPS Time
- Edit Event Data
- Enable Live Audio
- IP Address
- Record Indicator
- Traffic Watch

Close Shot

COBAN's mobile recorder camera is designed to focus beyond the vehicle's windshield. This point of focus ensures that rain drops or other debris on the windshield do not negatively affect the picture.

Users may use close shot mode to bring the focus point down to within one inch from the camera for 5 seconds. During this time, a snapshot will be taken for later review.

1. Position the ID or other object approximately 1 inch from the camera's lens.

2. Tap Close Shot.

3. The camera will re-focus and take a snapshot JPG image that will be saved in the snapshots file (see page 16 for more information on reviewing snapshots).
View Snapshots

Snapshots, those taken via the snapshot function on the camera view screen or those taken utilizing the close shot function, are stored in the same place. Access these files by:

1. Tap View Snapshots.

2. Use the arrow keys to scroll through the snapshots in the mobile recorder system.

3. Click X to delete snapshots.

4. Click OK to return to Camera View screen.
Pre-Event Playback

Pre-event buffer, or the length of video that will precede a recording when the record icon is activated can be adjusted, but only prior to a recording.

Another useful feature of the pre-event playback is a feature that allows the users to go back to any point in time that occurred since that user logged onto the mobile recorder system. The pre-event buffer starts at the time a user logs on or switches users (see page Switch Officer for information on switching officers).

1. Tap Pre-Event Playback.

2. Tap the left and right arrow buttons to adjust the length of the pre-event section in minutes.
Mobile Recorder User Manual

3. Tap 🎥 to view the past minutes that the officer has input.

4. Tap 🎥 to record the past minutes.

5. Tap the record button.

Note: Another useful feature of this capability is to view past minutes of a currently recording video to review what was said or happened and verify facts.

6. Tap the extract button 🎬 to retrieve the selected length of pre-event. This allows the user to playback and attach a longer pre-event segment than is defined in the back-office system.

7. The extra length of pre-event is included in the saved video.

Note: It is possible to adjust pre-event to append video to a previously recorded video by adjusting the pre-event buffer to a point prior to the recording's start time, i.e., to append ten minutes of pre-event to a video recorded from 8:00 to 8:15, adjust the pre-event buffer to a value greater than fifteen minutes.
Equipment Test

The Equipment Test feature allows the user to test the wireless mic and the covert mic without triggering a recording.

1. Ensure that the wireless mic is synchronized to the mobile recorder (see page 6 for information on syncing the wireless mic).
2. Tap Equipment Test.

3. The wireless mic will beep twice and flash green if the system is properly synchronized.
4. Press the record button on the wireless mic.

5. The microphone icon will be shown with flashing electrifying icons indicating that the microphone is active, if the covert mic is working properly.

Note: A feedback whine may be produced by the microphone during this test.

6. Also, the text M1 will appear at the top right of the camera preview screen to indicate that wireless 1 is active.
7. Note: When two mics are used, M1 and M2 will appear in the camera preview.
Mobile Recorder User Manual

8. Tap Click here to exit Test Mode to exit the test.

Sync GPS Time
This feature syncs the video clock to GPS time clock if the time is off by more than 10 minutes. This feature will only work if GPS is installed on the mobile recorder system.

1. Tap Sync GPS Time.

2. A popup window will appear providing the user with the difference between the system time and the GPS time.

3. Tap Yes to synchronize the system time to the GPS time.
Edit Event Data

Each recorded video is linked with an event type. Events can be defined as traffic stop, accident, assistance, or any other definable event type. Each event may have multiple data points including offender information, user activities, location description, and remarks.

1. To access the Event Data screen, tap Edit Event Data.

   Note: This option will be grayed out if the system is not recording.

2. Tap Select Event.

3. Select the event type from the pre-defined event list.

4. Once event type is selected, the user may then start adding personal information of offenders, or select the applicable activities.

5. Enter case numbers and ticket numbers in the fields provided at the top left of the screen.

6. Tap Remarks to enter comments regarding the video event.

7. Check the activities boxes to describe the activities taken during the video event.
Offender Data Screen

1. Tap + from the Edit Event Data screen to enter the offender data screen.

2. Enter offender data in the fields provided in the Offender Data screen.

3. Tap Save when the entries are completed.

4. Tap the Violations field to access the Violations Selection screen (see page 27 for more information on entering violations data).

5. Tap to access the offender data and edit data regarding the event.

6. Tap to delete offender data.

7. Tap to move offender data from one event to another.

8. Tap the field next to Location/Remark to enter text regarding the location of the video event.
Violation Selection Screen

1. Tap the Violations field in the Offender Data screen (as described on page 26) to access the Violation Selection screen.

2. For events where a warning or an arrest took place, check the appropriate box across from the appropriate violation.

3. For events involving drug interdiction, the user can check the box in the Drug-1 or Drug-2 column across from the appropriate violation.

   Note: Drug-1 is commonly used to indicate personal use of the drug; Drug-2 is for other drug interdictions (such as Drug Trafficking or Dealing).

4. Tap OK to return to the Offender’s Data screen.
IP Address

1. Tap IP Address to display the IP address of the vehicle.

2. A popup window will appear providing the IP address information.

3. Click OK to return to the Main Menu screen.
Record Indicator
A red LED light is situated on the front of the COBAN camera in order to signify to users whether or not the system is recording. It is situated to be seen through the front windshield when the user is outside the vehicle.

1. Tap Record Indicator to deactivate the red LED on the camera.

2. Tap Record Indicator a second time to activate the red LED on the camera.
Traffic Watch

The traffic watch allows users the ability to zoom out as soon as the record button is tapped.

1. Tap Traffic Watch to turn on the traffic watch function.

2. The screen shot on the right shows a preview where the user is focusing on the license plate of the vehicle in the frame.

3. When a recording is started the camera will automatically zoom out to obtain the entire scene.

   Note: When traffic watch is disabled the manual zoom button stays active.
Night Mode

Night Mode dims the in-car monitor for clarity and provides less glare during covert conditions.

1. Tap Night Mode to activate night mode and reduce the brightness of the monitor.

2. The preview screen will dim slightly.

3. Tap Night Mode again to deactivate night mode and return the monitor to the default brightness settings.
Color Mode

By default, color mode is enabled in the mobile recording system. There are times when it may be useful to disable color mode in order to enhance lighting and reduce glare. This feature is useful for capturing tire skid marks on roads or during dusk and dawn light conditions.

1. Tap Color Mode on the Menu screen to activate a black and white preview.

2. The preview screen will change from color to black and white.

3. Tap Color Mode again on the Menu screen to re-activate color mode and deactivate black and white preview.

Note: When in Black and White mode, the video recording will record in black and white only.
COBAN mobile recorder systems allow users the ability to manually adjust the zoom, brightness and focus using the touch screen monitor. The specifics of accessing and utilizing these functions are described below:

Brightness Control
1. Tap Camera Control to access the brightness control functionality.
2. Use the arrow keys to increase or decrease the brightness of the preview screen.
3. Tap Reset to return to the default settings.
4. Tap Exit to return to the Camera Preview screen.

Zoom Control
1. Tap Camera Control to access the brightness control functionality.
2. Tap Zoom to access the zoom control functionality.
3. Use the arrow keys to increase or decrease the brightness of the Camera Preview screen.
4. Tap Exit to return to the Camera Preview screen.

Focus Control
1. Tap Camera Control to access the brightness control functionality.
2. Tap Focus to access the focus control functionality.
3. Use the arrow keys to change the focus of the Camera Preview screen.
4. Tap Exit to return to the Camera Preview screen.
Auto Zoom

The auto zoom feature allows users the ability to zoom in on a subject automatically. Complete the following steps to utilize the auto zoom feature. This feature is especially useful when zooming in on a license plate or zooming in on a subject during a recording.

1. Adjust the camera to center the preview screen on the subject to zoom in on.

2. Tap AUTO ZOOM on the right of the Camera Preview screen to automatically zoom in on a subject in the preview screen automatically.

Note: If the in-car set up has been configured to take a snapshot during auto zoom the system will automatically take a snapshot once the camera has zoomed in on the subject. The snapshot will be shown below SNAPSHOT for approximately 15 seconds. The snapshot will be saved with the other snapshots taken during that shift (see page 15 for more information on snapshots).

3. The camera will zoom out automatically.
COBAN BOClient is a software application used to review videos at the department once the videos are uploaded from the mobile recorder system. In some cases users have found it necessary and useful to review videos in the field or immediately after recording them. The Playback Video feature allows users the capability to review videos from the mobile recorder system display in the vehicle.

1. Tap PLAYBACK on the right side of the screen to access the playback function.

2. The Video List screen will appear and list video's stored on the MHDD by date and time taken. Location and Event will also be displayed.

3. Tap the video to play. The video will be highlighted in light green when selected.

4. Tap Play at the bottom of the screen.

Note: Tap Data to access the Offender Data screen (see page 26 for more information on the Offender Data screen).

Note: Check the box in the Retain column to have the video classified as "retained" in BOClient. See the BOClient User's Manual for more information on retaining videos. This feature is usually used for videos that may have been misclassified as a different event type immediately following the recording.
5. Tap 🟢 to set a bookmark in the video.

6. Tap ⏸️ to pause the video.

7. Tap 2X to play the video at double speed.

8. Tap ⏲️ to rewind the video to the starting point.

9. Use the track bar at the bottom of the screen to move through the video.

10. Use the audio channel buttons at the bottom right of the screen to toggle on and off the audio channels.

11. Tap 🟥 to stop the video playback and return to the Video List screen.
Switch Officer

1. Tap MENU on the right side of the screen.

2. The Officer Login screen will appear.

   Note: Tap the field titles, i.e. Officer ID, Password to access the Virtual Keypad.

3. Enter the officer ID and password in the appropriate fields and tap OK.
Upload Videos

The COBAN mobile recorder system allows for the transfer of videos to the server or sub server at the department in any one of several different methods, including:

- Mobile Hard Disk Drive upload
- Wireless Upload (automatically or on command)
- Wired Ethernet

Wireless Upload

Users in departments that utilize the wireless upload capability will have TTCS (time to connect to server) countdown at the bottom right of the Camera Preview screen.

1. Tap MENU from the Camera Preview screen.

2. Tap EXIT SYSTEM at the bottom of the screen.
3. Tap Upload & Stay On or Upload & Shutdown to upload videos.

4. The mobile recorder system will process all videos for upload.

   Note: In some cases the mobile recorder system must finish processing videos before it can properly shutdown or upload videos. The User can turn off the vehicle and leave as the mobile recorder system will automatically proceed with the upload and shutdown operation once the video processing is complete.

5. The mobile recorder system will begin to upload the videos and show progress of the upload.

   CAUTION: Do NOT remove the MHDD during this upload process.

   Note: If the Upload and Shutdown option was selected, the mobile recorder system will automatically shut down when the upload is complete.
Automatic Wireless Upload

Departments that utilize the wireless upload capability will have TTCS (time to connect to server) countdown at the bottom right of the Camera Preview screen.

All videos that have been processed by the system and are in the Video List are automatically uploaded to the server or sub server based on the BOClient settings and department protocols.

Specifying Videos to Upload/Retain

1. Users can designate that the system send specific videos immediately to the server from the Video List screen (see page 35 for information on accessing the Video List screen).

   Note: Check the box in the Retain column to have the video classified as "retained" in BOClient. See the BOClient User’s Manual for more information on retaining videos.

2. Check the box next to the video and tap Send at the bottom of the screen.

3. A popup screen will appear informing the user whether or not the videos were successfully uploaded.

4. Tap OK in the popup window to proceed.

5. The video will be marked as <SENT> in the video list following a successful upload.
MHDD Upload

Users must check in and check out Mobile Hard Disk Drives (MHDD) to upload videos in departments that do not utilize the wireless upload capability.

1. Tap MENU on the Camera Preview screen.

2. Tap EXIT SYSTEM.

3. Tap Shutdown to shutdown the mobile recorder system.

4. Use a key to unlock and remove the MHDD from the mobile recorder system.

Note: In most departments a key can be requested from the System Administrator.

CAUTION: Do NOT remove the MHDD while this system is running.
5. Insert the MHDD in the upload cradle in the department or sub-station.

6. An upload popup window will appear. Enter the serial number of the MHDD if it is not automatically entered into the field provided.

7. Check the appropriate box to check out the hard disk after upload and the system will run the checkout application automatically after uploading.

   CAUTION: Do not remove MHDD from the cradle during the upload process. Removing the MHDD from the cradle could result in loss of data.

8. A message box will show the progress of the upload and check out process.
9. Follow the directions to safely remove the MHDD from the cradle.

Wired Upload

The mobile recording system provides the capability to download videos via Ethernet cable directly from the CPU. System administrators must specify that the Ethernet plug will be used for the function to enable this feature.

1. Plug an Ethernet cable into the Ethernet plug of the CPU.
2. Tap MENU from the Camera Preview screen.
3. Tap EXIT SYSTEM at the bottom of the screen.
4. Tap Upload & Stay On or Upload & Shutdown to upload videos.

5. The mobile recorder system will process all videos for upload.

   Note: In some cases the mobile recorder system must finish processing videos before it can properly shutdown or upload videos. The User can turn off the vehicle and leave as the mobile recorder system will automatically proceed with the upload and shutdown operation once the video processing is complete.

6. The mobile recorder system will begin to upload the videos and show progress of the upload.

   CAUTION: Do NOT remove the MHDD or unplug the Ethernet cable during this upload process.

   Note: If the Upload and Shutdown option was selected, the mobile recorder system will automatically shut down when the upload is complete.

7. Disconnect the Ethernet cable once the upload is complete.
Exit the System

The mobile recorder system is capable of automatically shutting down following the upload and processing of videos stored in the MHDD. This enables users to select the shutdown option, turn off the vehicle, and leave with the confidence of knowing the data stored on the system will not be lost.

1. Tap MENU from the Camera View screen.

2. Tap EXIT SYSTEM at the bottom of the screen.
Mobile Recorder User Manual

3. For wireless upload, tap Shutdown or Upload & Shutdown to shutdown the mobile recorder system.

Note: Upload & Shutdown will upload videos prior to shutdown (see page 38 for more information on this function.)

4. The mobile recorder system will process all videos for upload.

Note: In some cases the mobile recorder system must finish processing videos before it can properly shutdown or upload videos. The User can turn off the vehicle and leave as the mobile recorder system will automatically proceed with the upload and shutdown operation once the video processing is complete.

OIG 15-0564 017104
MS. ANSARI: As a preliminary matter, I am providing the following information. An independent certified court reporter is present today to provide a verbatim transcript of this interview. To aid in the accuracy of the transcript, it is the custom and practice of court reporters to audio record the interview. The recording is the confidential work product property of the court reporter and will not be provided to any party, including the OIG. If you request, the audio recording will be discontinued.

So, Officer Becerra, are you okay with the court reporter audio recording the interview?

OFFICER BECERRA: Yes.

MR. FAHY: No objection.

MS. ANSARI: Let the record reflect that today's date is September 23rd, 2016. The time is 11:50 a.m.

We are located at Amicus Court Reporters, 300 West Adams, Suite 300.

My name is Sarah Ansari. The court reporter is Cheryl Sandecki. And I would ask that the other individuals present identify themselves and spell their name for the record.

MR. JACOB: Matthew Jacob, J-A-C-O-B, investigator with the office of the Inspector General of the City of Chicago.

MR. FAHY: My name is Will Fahy. My first name is W-I-L-L; last name, F-A-H-Y.

OFFICER BECERRA: My name is Arturo Becerra.
Last name is spelled B, as in boy, E-C-E-R-R-A.

MS. ANSARI: There are no other individuals present.

We are here today pursuant to an investigation being conducted under Chapter 2-56
We are here for an interview of Officer Arturo Becerra.

Officer, would you please raise your right hand and the court reporter will swear you in.

MR. FAHY: I have instructed my client not to be sworn in. This is an administrative statement, so there is no need for him to be sworn in.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.
EXAMINATION

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Officer, I'm now going to hand you a form that is marked Advisement of Rights. This has already been filled in with your name, my name and Investigator Jacob's name.

I'm going to ask you to read along with me, as I go through it, and I will ask you after each paragraph to acknowledge you have read and understood the paragraph.

"I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully."

Do you understand?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand that if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the questions. I further understand and I have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the rules and regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge."

Do you understand?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that I have been advised that my statements or responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's Rules and Regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral. And I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department."

Do you understand?

A. Yes.

Q. "I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge."

Do you understand?
1 A. Yes.
2 Q. "I understand that any statement made
3 by me during this interview and the fruits
4 thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal
5 proceeding."
6 Do you understand?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. "I understand that I have the right to 9 have a union representative or legal counsel of 10 my choosing present at the interview to consult 11 with and that I will be given a reasonable time 12 to obtain a union representative or legal 13 counsel as long as the interview is not unduly 14 delayed."
15 Do you understand?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. "I understand the refusal to answer any 18 question or any false, inaccurate, or 19 deliberately incomplete statement by me would 20 constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal 21 Ordinance 2-56 and may serve as the basis for my 22 discharge."
23 Do you understand?
24 A. Yes.
Q. "I acknowledge that the statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me and I have been allowed to review this document."

A. Yes.

Q. So we will ask that you please sign this document, Officer Becerra.

And do you go by "Arthur" or "Art"?

A. "Art."

Q. Art. Do you prefer Art or should I call you --

A. Art is fine.

MR. FAHY: Before we proceed anything further, there is something my client would like to say for the record.

OFFICER BECERRA: This statement is not being given voluntarily but under duress. I'm only giving this statement because I know I will be fired if I refuse.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. And for the record, I am going to witness the Advisement of Rights and so will Investigator Jacob. And we will mark that as Exhibit 1.
BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Before we kind of get into the questioning, I'm going to mark a bunch of service documents as an exhibit. So these are the things that were provided to you when you were served with the allegations.

So we will mark as Exhibit 2 a Notification of Interview dated September 14th, 2016.

Officer Becerra, did you receive this on September 14th, 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. I'm marking as Exhibit 3 a Notification of Allegations dated September 14, 2016.

Officer Becerra, did you receive this document --
Q. -- on September 14th?
A. Yes.

(Whereupon, Becerra Deposition Exhibit 3 was marked for identification.)

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. I'm marking as Exhibit 4 a document entitled Receipt Form dated September 14, 2016. Did you receive this form on September 14th?
A. Yes.

(Whereupon, Becerra Deposition Exhibit 4 was marked for identification.)

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. I'm marking as Exhibit 5 an excerpt of a CPD Case Supplementary Report dated March 16, 2015, with RD Number HX475653 containing Officer Becerra's statement to Detective March. Did you receive this on September 14th?
A. Yes.
BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. I'm marking as Exhibit 6 a general progress report dated October 20th, 2014, with an RD Number HX475653 containing Detective March's notes of his interview of Officer Becerra.

Did you receive this on September 14th?

A. Yes.

Q. In order to prepare for today's interview, did you review the materials we provided?

A. Yes.

Q. Those materials also included video from the in-car video systems of vehicles 813R and 845R; is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Were you able to view those videos?
1. A. Yes.
2. Q. And did you view video from the Dunkin' Donuts' security camera that was provided to you?
3. A. Yes.
4. Q. Since receiving your Notice of Interview, did you review any materials other than the materials we've provided you?
5. A. No.
6. Q. Aside from your attorney, who did you speak to in preparation for this interview?
7. A. Nobody.
8. MS. ANSARI: And, Counsel, before we begin, is it permissible to provide the transcript within 72 hours of our receipt of it or will you request --
9. MR. FAHY: That's fine.
10. MS. ANSARI: Okay. Thank you.
11. BY MS. ANSARI:
12. Q. Officer Becerra, what is your Star Number and your -- what is your Star Number?
13. A. 15790.
14. Q. Okay. And your current unit of assignment?
A. Chicago Police District 8.

Q. Okay. What watch are you on?
A. Third watch.

Q. Third watch. Was that your assignment on the night of October 20th, 2014?
A. Yes.

Q. What are the hours for third watch?
A. 1530 to 0030.

Q. Okay. What was your chain of command as of October 20th, 2014? So your sergeant, lieutenant? Who did you report to?
A. Sergeant.

Q. And what was his name or her name?
A. I don't recall.

Q. Okay. What about who was your lieutenant?
A. I don't -- I don't remember.

Q. Okay. Who are your sergeant and lieutenant currently?
A. Sergeant Huffman currently and Lieutenant Moravec.

Q. What was your personal cell phone number as of October 20th, 2014?
A. 312-
Q. Did you ever use your personal cell phone for CPD business?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you have a Department issued cell phone?
A. No.
Q. Okay. So you were -- so we will go to the night of October 20th and we will kind of talk about it in two parts, like what happened at the scene and then anything that happened at Area Central.
So we will start -- really my questions are going to be focused on what was actually going on at the scene.
A. Okay.
Q. So you were present when Laquan McDonald was shot on October 20th, 2014, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. At the time of the issuing, you were in -- you were -- it was beat 822R, correct? You were part of beat 822R?
A. 822.
Q. Okay. So R is for the first watch?
A. For midnights.

Q. So it was just 822.
   And you were driving your vehicle at the time of the shooting, correct?
   A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Leticia Velez was -- Officer
   Leticia Velez was in the passenger seat?
   A. Yes.

Q. And she was your partner that evening,
   correct?
   A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Was she a regular partner?
   A. Yes.

Q. Okay. How long -- how long have you -- had you guys been partners?
   A. I don't really -- probably, if I would have to guess, two years, one to two years.

Q. Is she currently your partner?
   A. No.

Q. When did she stop being your partner?
   A. Maybe six to eight months ago.

Q. Okay. Outside of work, did you ever socialize with Officer Velez?
   A. Yes.
Q. So are you guys friends?
A. Yes.

Q. Do your families hang out?
A. Not -- I mean, we are friends.

Q. Okay.
A. Yeah.

Q. Okay. So I guess I kind of want to start from the beginning that night when you start with -- kind of tell us when you first heard something was going on and what happened all the way up to the shooting, if you can give us a narrative.

A. Okay. We were sitting in the vehicle, in our vehicle for lunch at approximately 53rd and Pulaski -- I'm sorry 53rd and St. Louis, 53rd and St. Louis.

We heard over the radio an officer screaming for a taser.

Q. What time was that?
A. I don't remember.

Q. Approximately what time would your lunch normally be?
A. Oh, I would probably have to say probably late at like 10 o'clock, 10:00 p.m. round.

Q. Okay.

A. Maybe early by 11:00, somewhere around there.

Q. Okay.

A. I decided to go and assist the officer. I just started driving to that direction. I heard 41st and Pulaski as the location. Just going lights and sirens down Pulaski northbound. And I could see the other officers in the distance. What I mean by that, I could see the blue lights, that there were other officers on scene.

So I was driving northbound. As I got closer, I started to see an individual in the middle of the street. I didn't know who it was. As we were driving closer, then I sort of realized that this might be our offender that was -- that was being called upon. He was approaching my vehicle.

I saw a knife in his hand. I was shocked. It was -- that he was actually walking towards us. I didn't feel -- I didn't feel -- I didn't feel safe and comfortable with the distance and I noticed he started walking away from us. And then I proceeded to drive past him to make a U-turn. As I was making the U-turn, I heard shots being fired.

And then I exited the vehicle. I saw the officer shooting the -- the subject. The shooting stopped. I felt like the situation was under control. Felt better.

And then I went back to find my partner and make sure she was okay. And that's pretty much it.

Q. Okay. So let's kind of go through that.

So you first heard of something going on. You said you heard an officer over the radio, you said, screaming for a taser, correct?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you guys have a taser on you?
A. No.

Q. Did you hear other officers responding over the radio?
A. Yes.

Q. You said you started driving northbound on Pulaski. As you got closer, you saw the individual, which you now know as Laquan McDonald, in the middle of the street.

Q. Was he walking or running? How did he look? Kind of describe him.

A. I would say walking with a -- with sort of like a skip.

Q. Okay. And he was approaching your vehicle you said?

A. It felt that way, yes.

Q. Okay. You said you were shocked he was walking towards you and what do you mean by that? Or why were you shocked?

A. I was coming for an assist, and I just didn't realize that this subject could be walking in front of me.

Q. Okay. So you weren't expecting someone to be kind of like that close to you, essentially, is what you are saying?

A. Correct, correct.

Q. You said at one point McDonald started to walk away from your vehicle?

A. Yeah, I initially thought that he was going to come to my vehicle maybe reach towards my door. But he wasn't looking in my direction, so I know I wanted -- I didn't feel comfortable and safe with the distance. So I wanted to move the car out of the way and kind of make a U-turn and kind of get -- get a better distance.

Q. Okay. And so for the U-turn, when you drove past him to make the U-turn, kind of what did you see once -- you said that you saw -- you heard shots being fired.

Did you actually see the first shot being fired or were you still kind of making the U-turn? I guess I'm trying to get the timing.

A. Right. No, I never saw those shots. I was in the middle of the turn making the U-turn when I heard the shots.

Q. Okay. The first shot?

A. The first initial sound of the -- of the weapon, yes.

Q. Okay. And then you stopped your car and you said you exited the vehicle?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. And then you saw more shots being fired?

A. That's correct.
Q. So when you exited your vehicle, McDonald was already on the ground, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. I know we know now the number of shots. But at the time, what was your perception of how many shots were being fired or how many shots had been fired?

A. I heard multiple shots.

Q. Okay. And what was your reaction to the multiple shots?

A. I was shocked, you know. It's not every day you hear gun shots that close.

Q. Did Officer Velez also get out of the car?

A. I believe so. I never -- I didn't -- I didn't see -- I was walking towards the scene, so I didn't necessarily know what my partner was doing.

Q. Okay. And you -- why did you decide to immediately get out of the car once you immediately made the U-turn?

A. I wanted to assist the officer.

Q. Okay.

MS. ANSARI: Matt, do you have any questions about the actual shooting or can we go to what happened after?

MR. JACOB: Do you recall who it was that called over the radio for the taser?

OFFICER BECERRA: No, I don't know.

MR. JACOB: That's really all I had.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So you said -- so right after the shooting, can you walk us through what happened on the scene?

A. From what point?

Q. From McDonald -- the shots being done all the way up until you left for Area Central.

A. Okay. I went back to check up on my partner, make sure she was okay. It was a traumatic event.

And then I believe we got back into the vehicle and we had to move the vehicle to make way for other officers, the sergeant and then -- just to -- to remove ourselves from the immediate area.

Q. Right.

A. We parked, sort of, at the perimeter, probably about -- facing northbound on the east side of the street. And we, basically, stood there and were waiting for the direction from our supervisors.

Q. Okay. So I will interrupt you there and we can kind of go through.

A. Okay.

Q. So you went back to check on your partner, she -- did you guys talk about what you had just seen kind of initially?

A. I think initially we were both shocked. We didn't really discuss anything as -- we were just like "Are you okay?" And she asked me -- "Yes." She asked me if I was okay. I said, "Yes."

Q. And had you ever -- have you ever witnessed a shooting before this incident?

A. No.

Q. Okay. And had your partner that you know of?

A. Not that I know of.

Q. Not just a police-involved shooting, but you had never witnessed any shooting on the job?
Q. Okay. So can you walk us through the people -- besides your partner, you told us her -- but the people you kind of talked to at the scene of the shooting that you can recall.

So we can start with did you speak with Officer VanDyke?

A. No.

Q. No. Why not?

A. Just wasn't the -- I didn't think about talking to him.

Q. Okay. Did you speak with his partner, Officer Walsh?

A. No.

Q. Did you know them before this?

A. VanDyke, no. I think his name is Walsh, Joe Walsh.

Q. Joseph Walsh.

A. I might have seen him in passing in the hallways, in the police district.

Q. But these aren't people that you really even socialized with at work?

A. No.

Q. What about the other officers at the scene, did you speak with -- who witnessed the shooting. Did you speak with Officer Daphne Sebastian?
A. No.
Q. Do you know her?
A. I know of her.
Q. Okay. But same thing, not --
A. No. Right.
Q. Okay. And what about Officer Janet Mondragon?
A. I know of her.
Q. And you didn't talk to her at the scene?
A. No.
Q. Officer Joseph McElligott, did you talk to him at the scene?
A. No.
Q. And do you know him that well?
A. No, not that well. I know of him too.
Q. Okay. And last --
A. I got to remind you, it's midnight officers and afternoon officers, it's kind of hard. It's two different shifts, two different times.
Q. Right. Understood. It's just for the record, I have to go through and ask them.

A. Okay.

Q. And did you -- you said you didn't speak with Officer McElligott or Officer Daphne, correct, that night?

A. Correct.

Q. What about Officers Dora Fontaine and Ricardo Viramontes?

A. Same.

Q. You didn't speak with them that night?

A. No, don't know them.

Q. Who was the sergeant on the scene that night or your sergeant that you would have reported to?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Does Sergeant Franko sound familiar?

A. He sounds familiar, but I believe that's the midnight sergeant, if I'm not...

Q. Okay. Did you see Commander Eugene Roy out there?

A. I don't know. I don't remember.

Q. Okay. What about David McNaughton?

A. I don't remember.
Q. So who did you talk to at the scene of the shooting besides your partner?
A. Possibly the sergeant on scene.
Q. Anyone else?
A. I'm sure -- I'm sure there was -- there was -- I don't remember. But I'm sure there was other officers that maybe were asking me a question. I couldn't tell you exactly who.
Q. Okay. Did you talk to -- did you talk to any detectives at the scene?
A. Possibly.
Q. So just jumping for the whole night, did you talk to a detective at all at any point that night?
A. I'm sure, yes.
Q. You are not sure whether it was at Area
Central or whether it was at the scene?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. But you do recall talking to the detective and giving a statement, correct, about what you had seen?
A. Right. He asked me what I saw.
Q. And at the time did you know who the detective was who you gave your statement to?
A. No.

Q. Okay. And now you -- you know that person to be Detective March, correct?

A. Well, I mean --

Q. Could it have been someone different taking your statement?

A. Yes, yes, I'm not a hundred percent sure. I don't know the name.

Q. Okay. So we will go back to your conversation with the detective, obviously. But was there anyone else that you recall speaking with at the scene?

A. No, I don't. I don't really remember.

Q. Okay. So you said you and your partner were kind of standing around waiting to be told what to your knowledge. Did anyone give you any direction? Were you guys directing traffic?

A. Yeah, I believe -- I believe it might have been the sergeant that instructed us to drive to the area, that the detectives wanted to talk to us.

Q. So at the scene, how long were you at the scene, do you think? It was after the shooting -- from after the shooting until when you went to the area?

A. If I had to guess, maybe, I don't know, 30, 45 minutes maybe, an hour, somewhere around there.

Q. Do you recall -- did it seem like there was still a lot of people on the scene --

A. Yes.

Q. -- when you left?

A. Yes.

Q. So it seems like you were on the earlier end of going to the area compared to a lot of the other officers?

A. I wouldn't know. I don't.

Q. Okay. When you were at the scene, did you guys do anything or you just waited and then you were told to go to the area?

A. That's correct.

Q. At any time while you are at the scene, did you hear Officer VanDyke say anything or describe the shooting?

A. No.

Q. Did you hear any other officers describing the shooting?

A. No.
Q. Did you see individuals watching a dash cam video of the shooting at the scene?

A. Who are individuals? What do you mean?

Q. Anyone. Anyone watching the 813R dash cam?

A. I'm sure of it. Yeah, I'm sure there was officers watching.

Q. Okay. So at the scene, did anyone come to check your dash cam?

A. I believe it was -- yeah, there was an officer in plainclothes that was checking our cameras.

Q. Can you describe that conversation, when it happened?

A. He looked like he was a technician, a police technician. He had his keyboard there and was trying to log onto the cameras, our cameras.

Q. Okay. And you did see him going around to other vehicles to see -- check their cameras?

A. I didn't see. I know he came to ours.

Q. Did you see people at the scene -- sorry, you said I'm sure of -- I'm going to reask this question.
But did you see people at the scene watching other dash cam videos?

A. I believe the sergeant was, as far as I can remember.

Q. Okay. So watching the dash cam video from what you believed to be 813R, the main video?

A. Yeah, one of them. I don't know exactly what car, what -- what number that car was.

Q. Okay. So at the scene of the shooting, did you talk to any FOP representatives?

A. At the scene?

Q. At the scene?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Do you recall any FOP reps being at the scene?

A. No, I don't recall.

Q. Okay. And just to be clear, at the scene you didn't see any video of the shooting?

A. No.

Q. Did your partner, Officer Velez?

A. Let me go back on that. I think -- from what I can remember, I believe the sergeant called us over to the car and pointed at the camera and says, "Is this your vehicle?" So at that point, then I saw the camera where he was pointing at my vehicle and I said, "Yes." And then that's when he said, "Okay, they want to talk to you at Area."

Q. Sorry. Your -- he pointed -- he came to your vehicle, correct?

A. No. He called us over to another vehicle.

Q. Okay. Okay. He called you over to a different officer's vehicle?

A. Yes. One of the vehicles came and said, "822, the sergeant needs to see you." And then I went over to the sergeant and he was inside a vehicle and he pointed to the camera and said, "Is this your vehicle?"

Q. Your vehicle on the video?

A. Correct.

Q. Got it. And you said yes?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And then what did he say?

A. "They need to see you in the Area" or "go to the Area," something of that sort.
Q. So why -- he -- why did he say go to the Area, was it because they could see that you guys saw the shooting on the video?

A. That we were in the area, correct.

Q. Got it. Is that the video that we now know to be 813R's dash cam video?

A. I'm not a hundred percent sure. But most likely that's the camera.

Q. And what -- did you see the whole shooting on the video when the sergeant pointed it out to you?

A. No.

Q. What parts do you recall seeing?

A. When my vehicle was in the shot, he specifically said, "Is that your vehicle?"

Q. Okay.

A. And then that's when I said yes. So they said, "Okay. Go to the Area."

So that's when I walked back to the car and I got to my partner and we walked to the area.

Q. Okay. And did he pause it and you walked out?

A. I didn't stay. As soon as he said...
leave, I left.

Q. Can you describe the sergeant for me?

You don't recall his name, you said, right?

A. No, no.

Q. Can you describe what he looked like?

A. I'm not even sure. He was Caucasian.

Sorry.

Q. Okay. Big guy? Was he bald? Did he have a lot of hair?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Okay. So you said you weren't sure if you talked to detectives at the scene. But it sounds like you do recall talking to detectives at Area Central?

A. Yeah. That I'm more sure about, that it was Area Central.

Q. So let's just -- do you have any questions about anything else at the scene?

MR. JACOB: Do you know where VanDyke is at the scene at all when you are there?

OFFICER BECERRA: Yeah, I didn't know his name. I know the officer.

MR. JACOB: The officer who shot -- who fired the shots.
OFFICER BECERRA: Now I know, yes.

MR. JACOB: Okay. Do you know where he was at the scene relative to where all the activity was happening?

OFFICER BECERRA: Yeah, I saw him right in front of me.

MR. JACOB: Did you see him speaking to anybody or was he by himself?

OFFICER BECERRA: I don't know after that. I saw the scene and I just quickly went back.

MR. JACOB: That's all.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So about what time did you leave for Area Central?

A. Oh, I don't -- I don't recall. I would probably say, like I said, 45 minutes, maybe 45 minutes to an hour after the scene.

Q. After the shooting?

A. After the shooting.

Q. Okay. How did you get to Area Central?

A. We drove in the squad car.

Q. Okay. And did you drive?

A. Yes.

Q. It was just you and Officer Velez?
A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Did you have any conversations with your partner about the shooting on the way to Area Central?

A. I don't remember really. I mean, there was probably something to the effect of, you know, we were just -- it was a traumatic event. We were more like silent at first and then kind of like wow, you know, the fact that it happened.

Q. And did you -- how many conversations about the number of shots being fired being excessive or what your opinions were on that?

A. I do remember saying something like it was multiple shots. I remember conversating about that, like.

Q. And what -- what about those shots?

A. Well, just we heard -- it was many shots, you know.

Q. And did you guys kind of talk about how that seemed like it was too many or --

A. No. We were just more like it was multiple shots kind of thing.

Q. Okay. So about what time -- how long did it take you to get to Area Central? It's a 15-minute drive.

A. Yeah, 15-, 20-minute drive.

Q. Okay. Once you got to Area Central, can you just walk us through what happened there, just from start to when you left?

A. We sat at one of the tables there. There is computers there and all the officers are around. And, basically, just stood there. And at this point we were just waiting for instructions. Maybe somebody comes up to us and asks us some questions.

But basically sit there, it's our time to relax and calm down, you know.

And then I remember some time maybe one of the plainclothes officers asked me what did you see or what happened or where were you, some of those questions. I gave him my memory of what happened, what I saw. And then he probably wrote it down. And that's as far as I -- I know.

Q. Okay. So when you guys were at Area Central -- when you got to Area Central, what other officers were in blue shirts, people who were -- actually witnessed the shooting? Were any of those officers already there?

A. Yes, I believe so.

Q. Okay. Do you know who?

A. Yeah. I know Walsh. I remember seeing Walsh and VanDyke now, Mondragon, Daphne I think her name is, those are the kind of ones I remember.

Q. Okay. Did you guys, while you were waiting in the main area, were you talking or did you guys talk about the shooting?

A. No. Everyone was just -- no, we were -- me and my partner were separate. We had like -- what I mean by separate, we had some distance and we were just sitting there and kind of like taking our time to relax.

Q. Okay. So there wasn't any conversation among the officers about what had happened and what you had seen?

A. I mean the others, I don't know. As far as me and my partner, no.

Q. That involved you?

A. Yeah. No.

Q. Okay. Did you see people at Area
Central watching any video?

A. I remember that there was -- there was video on one of -- one of the detective's desks.

Q. Did you watch it?

A. I'm sure they were -- they were -- they were playing it. I don't know if I was actually in the -- I can't remember if I was that close to the video. But I think I remember seeing that the video was playing somewhere like in the background on the computers.

Q. Okay. Were people kind of like huddled around it trying to see what happened on the video?

A. Yeah, it was scattered. Some were, some weren't.

Q. Okay. Did you see detectives -- did you see other officers watching the video with detectives?

A. I don't know.

Q. Okay. Did you see any FOP representatives at Area Central?

A. It's kind of -- it's kind of hard. I don't know exactly who is a FOP representative. There's -- there is a lot of people. I don't know exactly who is who.

Q. Did you talk to any POP reps at the scene --

A. I don't know.

Q. -- at the Area Central?

A. Yeah, I don't even know.

Q. So you talked to a detective at the scene, correct -- I'm sorry, at Area Central, correct?

A. Yeah, it was a plainclothes officer. I would assume he was a detective of some sort.

Q. Okay. What did he look like?

A. I don't even know.

Q. Was it just one detective or did you talk to multiple detectives?

A. I think there was -- there was maybe multiple detectives asking me different types of questions, so I don't know. It wasn't -- it wasn't like we were sitting down one on one. I don't know. It was more like a group of plainclothes officers.

Q. Okay. And did anyone -- was anyone writing anything down while you were saying what you saw?
Q. Okay. Where was Officer Velez at the time? Was she with you while you were giving a statement?
   A. Yes.
   Q. Were you giving the statement together or was it -- did they take you separately to tell --
   A. No. We were in close proximity, but maybe not -- I mean, not right next to each other. But in the general area --
   Q. Okay.
   A. -- she was around.
   Q. So it wasn't a conversation to get -- they weren't asking you questions together? You were in separate --
   A. Kind of, yeah, like in a scattered setting.
   Q. Okay. Could you hear what she was saying to the detectives about what she saw?
   A. No. There was a lot of people talking.
   Q. Okay. Do you remember where exactly you were in the -- were you in the main room in the area -- at Area Central when you were talking to the detectives?

A. Yeah, I think it was the main room at one of the tables there.

Q. Okay. So you said a lot of people were around?

A. Oh, yes.

Q. Was anyone who wasn't a detective involved in your statement to them? Was any -- you said multiple detectives were talking to you about what you had seen. Were there any other officers that were part of that conversation, officers or sergeant or other personnel?

A. What do you mean, talking to who?

Q. While you were talking to the detectives, you said you were having a conversation with plainclothes officers so we assume they were detectives. Was there any one else part of the -- that conversation when you were describing the shooting?

A. Not with me.

Q. Okay. About how long had you been at Area Central before you talked to the detectives?

A. How long before I talked to a
Q. Uh-huh. How long had you been waiting?
A. Man, I don't know. 30 minutes maybe.
I don't -- I don't know.

Q. Okay. So I'm going to hand back Exhibit 5 and 6 to you. I will ask you a couple background questions and we will just go over these.

So do you know what a case supplementary report is?
A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Who creates these?
A. Sometimes we do and sometimes the detectives do.

Q. Okay. What is the purpose of a case supplementary report?
A. To, you know, add facts to the original report.

Q. Okay. And then the next one, the handwritten notes, Exhibit 6?
A. Okay.

Q. So that's a general progress report.

Have you seen these before?
A. No.
Q. Okay. Do you -- do you know what they are and who creates them?
A. I know what they are now, yes, and who creates them, yes.
Q. What are they now -- or what are they?
A. I believe this is the detective's kind of like notes.
Q. Okay. So if you can turn to page 2 of Exhibit 5, please. So I'm going to go through the statements in your -- so this Exhibit 6, like we said -- or Exhibit 5 is Detective March's case supplementary report and it contains a summary of what you said to him that evening.
A. Okay.
Q. So I'm just going to go over it line by line.
A. Okay.
Q. And I'm going to ask you first if you made that statement and second whether it's actually accurate. Okay?
A. Okay.
Q. So just for the record your name is spelled wrong in this, correct?
A. Correct.

Q. Okay. So it's B-E --

A. -- C-E-R-R-A, right.

Q. Okay. [As read]: Officer Becerra and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R regarding a subject who was armed with a knife.

Did you say that to detectives on the night of October 20th?

A. I didn't say the 815R. I didn't know exactly who it was.

Q. Okay. Is that statement accurate besides what you just pointed out?

A. Yes, correct.

Q. Okay. [As read]: Becerra was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street.

Did you say that to the detective?

A. Yeah. I mean, when -- when he says from 47th Street, I was coming from St. Louis. So it was all the way from 51st Street. So I don't remember -- I don't know, maybe he asked me. But I don't know about 47th Street.

Q. Okay. [As read]: As he approached the scene of this incident at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject now known as Laquan McDonald in the middle of the street flailing his arms.

Do you recall making that statement to Detective March or what you thought was the detective?

A. Yeah, part of the statement. The flailing of his arms, I -- I described it as he was waving his -- his arms kind of by his side, kind of thing, kind of like jiggling it with his hand, the knife.

Q. Okay.

MR. FAHY: For the record he is indicating with his right hand.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So you don't recall saying that McDonald was flailing his arms, using the word "flailing"?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Otherwise, is that statement accurate?

A. Yes.

Q. [As read]: As he got closer, Becerra observed McDonald to be holding a knife in his right hand. Did you say that to --

A. Yes.

Q. -- Detective March? And is that accurate?

A. Yes.

Q. [As read]: Becerra drove past McDonald with McDonald on the left side of the police vehicle as beat 845R drove past Becerra on the right side of his vehicle traveling southbound.

Did you say that to the detective?

A. Part of it. The -- just to have every -- the left side is the driver's side, which would be my side. He was right by my side.

I didn't know -- I don't know the numbers 845 Robert, so I wouldn't have specifically said 845 Robert. I don't know who it was.

And, you know, at the time I was driving. I don't know who exactly was around me. I had to keep my eyes on him and move away. I just didn't feel comfortable at that distance.

Q. So I guess, please correct me if I'm putting the wrong words in your mouth, but you did observe McDonald on the left side of the police vehicle on your side, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. But you weren't sure if the other car drove on the right side of your vehicle?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. Because you were focused on McDonald?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. [As read]: As Becerra began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gun shots. Did you tell that to the detective?

A. Yes.

Q. Is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. [As read]: He then saw McDonald lying on the ground. Did you --

A. It should be when I exited vehicle, then I -- I saw him on the ground.

Q. So do you recall telling the detective that you had exited the vehicle --

A. Yes.

Q. -- and then saw him?
A. Yes.

Q. And then it says [as read]: Becerra did not see who fired the shots.

Did you tell that to the detectives?

A. Yeah, that's -- that's -- what I described as, as I was in my vehicle making the U-turn, I heard the shots. It was behind me, you know, I was making the turn. So I didn't see those initial -- or I would say the beginning of the shots.

As I exited my vehicle, then I saw the officer shooting McDonald.

Q. Okay. And you -- and you said that to the detectives that night?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So that part of the statement is not accurate -- not accurately recorded?

A. No. And you know, I don't -- I don't know, maybe I was rushed or maybe he didn't kind of finish the paragraph, I don't know.

Q. Okay. What direction was your vehicle facing when you stopped it and got out?

A. I'm not -- I'm not certain.

Q. Okay. Do you know how far away you -- your vehicle -- you -- how far away did you stop the vehicle away from McDonald?

A. I don't know exactly.

Q. Okay. And when you got out of the vehicle, did you walk kind of towards -- I mean, there is, obviously, shots going. But can you kind of describe where you were in relation to --

A. Yeah. I was -- I exited the vehicle and the officer was right in front of me. So I was kind of like on his right side.

Q. Got it. Okay. And you mean Officers
Walsh and VanDyke, correct?

A. Right, correct.

Q. Okay. Did you say anything to the detectives or anyone that night about the -- about whether the number of shots fired were excessive?

A. No. They would ask me, you know, how many shots. I said I just heard multiple. I couldn't tell -- I couldn't tell you exact number.

Q. Okay.

MS. ANSARI: I was going to the allegations.
Do you want to follow up?

MR. JACOB: Yeah. Did you -- do you recall telling the detective after you had gotten out of the vehicle seeing the officer shooting McDonald while he was on the ground?

OFFICER BECERRA: Yes, I do remember saying that.

MR. JACOB: Is there anything else from this statement that you feel the detective either edited or omitted?

MR. FAHY: Other than what he has already described?

MR. JACOB: Other than what you have already described, yes.

OFFICER BECERRA: No, no.

MR. JACOB: That being the only example or omission?

OFFICER BECERRA: Correct.

MR. JACOB: That's all.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Okay. So let's go back to Exhibit 2 -- I'm sorry, 3. So this is a little bit repetitive. But as a matter of procedure, I'm going to read the allegations.
A. Okay.

Q. The ones that are relating to the CSR.

A. Okay.

Q. And just to give you a chance to respond. You have kind of already told us what your response is, but just for the record.

A. Okay.

Q. So it’s alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you provided a false narrative to Detective David March of the Chicago Police Department concerning the McDonald shooting.

What is your response to that allegation?

A. That's incorrect.

Q. It is alleged that on or about October 20, 2014, you made a false statement during an interview with the CPD Detective David March when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you stated that you did not see who fired the shots?

A. That's incorrect.

Q. Okay. It is alleged that on or about October 20, 2014, you made a material omission during an interview with CPD Detective David March when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you failed to state that you saw McDonald being shot while he was on the ground?

A. That's incorrect.

Q. Okay. So now we are going to go to questions relating to the dash cam system. So can you walk us through the way -- the ways that you as an officer use your vehicle's in-car video system through your shift. Can you --

As a general practice, around the time of October 20th, 2014, what was your practice with related -- with regards to the dash cam at the start of your shift, through your shift?

A. Yeah, we enter the -- we get into the squad car. We turn on the camera and those cameras have a mind of its own. You know, it's they will work one minute, a few minutes later they won't work. Sometimes it will work the whole tour. It's just very temperamental.
These cameras in our squad car. And it's connected with the microphones.

So what we do is we -- we sign on to the cameras. Everything works, it's a great day. Sometimes there is problems and the supervisor will ask us is the camera working, is it not working, and then we will say, you know, it's got some problems or so and so, just give him a report of what's going on with the camera.

Q. Okay. And do they only turn on when you go lights and sirens or how does - how are they recording throughout the night?
A. From my understanding it's they activate when you turn on your emergency lights.

Q. Okay. So as of October 2014, what rules or regulations governed your use of the in-car audio and video system?
A. Can you repeat that again?

Q. Sorry. Are you aware of any special orders or general orders that describe what you are supposed to do with the in-car video systems?
A. I'm sure there is a general order. I will have to read it again.

Q. Well I will give it to you. So I will enter as Exhibit 7, the special order SO-3-05 relating to in-car video systems.
BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So I want to direct your attention to Section 6 of the special order titled "operational procedures."

A. Okay.

Q. It's on page 3. Specifically where it says that [as read]: At the beginning of a tour of duty, a department member is to visually inspect the in-car video system equipment for damage, obtain the remote transmitter audio recorder and ensure it is securely attached to the member's person and follow the startup procedures for in-car video system as trained and ensure the system is working properly.

Were you aware of that procedure?

A. I mean yeah. Like I said, I would have to look at this to really make sure one, two or three points. But there is a general understanding of it.

Q. And as a general practice, are those things you would do at the beginning of your --
A. Yes.

Q. -- tour of duty?

A. Yes.

Q. So you would normally -- you would attach the microphone to your person before a tour of duty, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Did you receive training on these procedures, on -- or just training on how to use the dash cam systems?

A. That's hard to say because -- yeah, I don't exactly remember if I was trained or not.

Q. Okay. Okay. And you can see on that page it says [as read]: Note, members will immediately notify a supervisor if at any time in-car video system becomes inoperable, damaged, the vehicle becomes inoperable or the remote transmitter audio recording was missing.

Was that your regular practice to notify a supervisor if your system wasn't working?

A. Yes. But -- what usually happens is that the supervisor, he would ask us -- there would be sometime during the tour he would check -- he checks -- check up on us, how are you doing, how are you doing, how is the camera working. And then usually if there was a problem, we would tell him at that particular time.

Q. Okay. So it wasn't kind of a proactive going to tell the supervisor; you would wait until they checked in with you to tell?

A. Right. Because there has been some instances where we will turn on the camera and it will work fine. We will exit the vehicle, grab a cup of coffee, come back and the camera is down, which normally it shouldn't be. So then we will have to turn it back on and it will work perfectly.

So there is always some chance where it's working now, a few minutes later, it just sends a little signal and it doesn't work. It's very temperamental.

Q. Okay. So you stated that you were the driver of the vehicle on October 20th, 2014, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Do you know that the vehicle number -- we have it being referred to as 8765.

Do you know that that's the name of the vehicle -- the vehicle number?

A. Yeah, I think it is.

Q. So your vehicle that night had an in-car video system, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Was that the car that you were generally assigned to?

A. Generally, yes.

Q. Okay. At the time -- as of that date, how long had you worked in the squad car with an in-car video system?

A. I don't know exactly. I can't recall as -- I have six years on the job. I can't recall the first day, day one, when I got out of the academy training. I can't recall if there was a camera installed in the -- in the cars. So I don't know exactly when it got implemented.

Q. What's your PC Number?

A. Zero -- PC

Q. Okay. So on previous tours, did you have any issues with that vehicle's in-car video system?
Q. What were they?
A. From what I can remember, it would -- it would turn off at -- it would, like, short, you know, there would be some kind of short where it would not make the camera active.

Q. Okay. So it would turn off, essentially?
A. Not completely turn off. It would like freeze. The system would freeze for some time.

Q. So about how often did you have issues?
A. I really want to say every day.

Q. Okay.

A. But it's -- it's high volume.

Q. Okay. So who did you report those issues to?
A. You know, when the sergeant would come and check up on us, I would tell him, "Hey the camera is, you know, freezing again." Or -- "Today it's fine." Or "It's freezing, it's not working."

And then he would generally get a report, I guess, a work number.

Q. A ticket number?
A. Ticket number.

Q. Okay. So you would report that to your supervisor and he would get the ticket?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. So the night of October 20th, 2014, or I guess the day when you started your shift, can you walk us through what you did with respect to the in-car video system that day?

A. Sure. We got into the vehicle. I remember my partner signing onto the camera. And then she said something like, "Oh, it's not working." And then we tried -- we were troubleshooting. I said, "Okay, let's turn off the car and press the power button and restart the camera."

We did that. The camera was -- it was making some -- you know, making -- there was some lines like it was going to reboot and it just didn't -- I don't know if it fully rebooted.

Q. Okay. So you had issues with it at the beginning of that tour?

A. Oh, yes. Yes.

Q. And did you report those issues?
A. Yeah, we didn't really get a chance to report those issues. You know, we usually wait until the supervisor comes and says, "How are you doing? How -- how is -- how is the camera? Does it work?" Or "How is your vehicle?" in general.

Q. Okay. So that night you didn't report any issues with your -- or on that tour, you didn't report any issues with your dash camera?

A. Well, we didn't -- yes, we didn't really get a chance to. We didn't get -- the opportunity didn't arise to like, oh, let's meet up with the sergeant and tell him.

Q. Okay. Where did you keep your microphone -- well, so because the video wasn't working, is that why -- where did you keep your microphones for that day?

A. Yeah, it was -- it was in the dock, in the charging dock.

Q. And you kept them on the dock?

A. Because the camera wasn't -- yeah, it was just -- it was acting up.

Q. Okay. So I'm going to enter into evidence three exhibits. So these are going to be -- so the first exhibit and we will mark that as Exhibit 8 is an original case incident report regarding -- filled out by Sergeant Lance Becvar regarding the dash cameras of the vehicles which we -- that were on the scene that night.

The second I'm marking as Exhibit 9 is an in-car camera video retrieval worksheet.

And the third, we will mark it
Exhibit 10, is an e-mail from Sergeant Lance Becvar to Jonathan Lewin.

(Whereupon, Becerra Deposition Exhibit 8 was marked for identification.)

(Whereupon, Becerra Deposition
Exhibit 9 was marked for identification.)

(Whereupon, Becerra Deposition Exhibit 10 was marked for identification.)

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So if you can see on Exhibit 8 the firsthand written document. It notes -- it says [as read]: Beat 822R vehicle 8765 not engaged.

Officer reported power issues. And then you can see on the second, vehicle 8765 [as read]: Mics charging in cradle, not synced to system.

A. Okay.

Q. In the third exhibit [as read]:
Vehicle 8765 system not engaged. Officer related no power. There is no open HDT called in on vehicle. Mics not synced to system even though they were in the charger cradle.

Can you explain -- you already kind of did this, but to go over it again. Can you explain why the system was not engaged?

A. Yeah. There was issues with the camera, technical issues.

Q. Okay. Do you recall having a conversation with Sergeant Lance Becvar on October 20th regarding your in-car video system?

A. No, I don't recall a conversation. I know, he was maybe talking to my partner.

Q. Okay. But you did say there was a technician trying to get video from your car?

A. That's correct.

Q. And kind of what did that conversation -- what was he --

A. Well, I was -- we were outside of the car while he was in and him and my partner were talking because she was the one -- I'm the driver. So she's -- the passenger usually makes sure -- you know, we both make sure. But she is the one that's actually putting her numbers into the camera.

Q. Okay. Got it.

And your -- and you and -- you and your partner, Officer Velez, didn't file any open -- didn't file a help desk ticket with regard to the vehicle's in-car video system that night; is that correct?

A. Yeah, we -- we never got an opportunity to do so, yeah.

Q. Okay. So Becvar's e-mail, that's the Exhibit 10, says that the mics for the vehicle were not synced. Why were they not synced?

A. The system wasn't turning on.

Q. Okay. So can the mics be synced if the video is not working?

A. I don't know.

Q. Okay.

MR. JACOB: Just a couple follow-ups.

MR. FAHY: Before we go to your follow-ups, could we have two minutes?

MS. ANSARI: Sure. We are going off the record. It is 12:14 p.m.

(Whereupon, a recess was had at 12:14 p.m., after which the deposition was resumed at 12:16 p.m. as follows:)

MS. ANSARI: We will go back on the record.

It's 12:18 p.m.

Matt, you have a couple follow-ups on the dash cam.

MR. JACOB: Just really quick. I don't remember if you addressed this already. But at what point during your tour is the sergeant checking in that allows you to say, yeah, our video camera is not working correctly?

OFFICER BECERRA: Yeah, usually within the first couple hours of the tour.

MR. JACOB: So just over the radio or on the phone or -- OFFICER BECERRA: Usually once to -- yeah, over the PDT, over the computer. Or sometimes he will meet up face to face with us.

MR. JACOB: Okay. And it's at that point
That you let them know, yeah, this wasn't working today.

And it's not necessarily incumbent upon you to fill out the help desk ticket, but it's the sergeant's responsibilities?

OFFICER BECERRA: Well, I mean, yeah, that was -- I was under the impression of it that way. It's hard to say now because now there is -- it seems to be the rules are more intact as far as the procedures. You know, it's more talked about more. So it's at the beginning of the tour, we have to notify the supervisor and do that.

But at that particular time, it was more we used that, it was more that we met him or talked to him through the computer that we would tell him the information.

MR. JACOB: That was -- you said that's the impression that you had at that time. You said you don't recall necessarily being trained on how to operate the dash cam video system?

OFFICER BECERRA: Yeah, it's hard -- it's hard to really say. There is a lot of training.

I can't -- I can't exactly remember if -- I don't know. I don't remember if it was a training through our computer system where we just do the training or somebody physically told us what to do. It's -- it's kind of hard.

MR. JACOB: Or a video you may have watched?

OFFICER BECERRA: Right. Exactly. I don't know exactly what happened.

MR. JACOB: But had it happened, would it have been something that both you and Velez would participate in together? Do you two normally participate in trainings together?

OFFICER BECERRA: No, I think -- well, it depends.

MR. JACOB: Or at least at that point in time she would be your partner at that time?

OFFICER BECERRA: Yeah, it depends because if it's on the computer, then it's individually. But if it's like a group setting where someone comes in and shows us, it would be a group.

So I don't know exactly what kind of training she got.

MR. JACOB: That's all.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. So let's turn back to Exhibit 3, and those are the allegations. I will read through those.

It is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you failed to ensure the in-car video system for CPD vehicle 8765 was working properly at the beginning of your tour of duty.

What is your response to that allegation?

A. Yeah, that's accurate.

Q. Okay. It is alleged that on or about October 20th, 2014, you failed to immediately notify a supervisor that the in-car video system for CPD vehicle 8765 was inoperable or damaged.

What is your response to that allegation?

A. Yeah, again, probably accurate.

Q. It is alleged that on or about October 20, 2014, you failed to audibly record events with CPD vehicle 8765's in-car video system during your tour of duty.

What is your response to that allegation?

A. Yeah, accurate.
Q. Okay. So I'm going to move on to just a couple more questions. Did you give testimony in a grand jury regarding the Laquan McDonald shooting?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. About when did that happen?

A. I don't know exactly when.

Q. Was it like summer, fall, winter?

A. Maybe six to eight months ago. I don't remember.

Q. Okay. Was it the federal grand jury, was it at the -- do you know where it was or was it a state grand jury?

A. I think it was the federal building.

Q. Federal building.

A. Yeah.

Q. Did you talk to FBI agents before your interview?

A. Yes, yes.

Q. Okay. Is anything that you did -- did they show you documents during your testimony or the FBI?

MR. FAHY: You know what, I'm going to object to any questions about the federal grand jury, unless you are going to provide him with a copy of his transcripts. And also, I mean, it's an active and ongoing grand jury investigation. So unless you are going to give him the benefit of his grand jury testimony to review, I'm going to object and ask him not to answer any questions about what was asked, other than it was regarding this incident.

MS. ANSARI: Okay.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Okay. So, obviously, this has been in the news a lot. Have you been kind of keeping up on the news regarding the McDonald shooting?

A. No.

Q. You haven't been?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Did you see the dash cam video on the news when it was disseminated to the public?

A. Yeah, I think I saw it on the website, yeah.

Q. Okay. Have you had any conversations with your fellow officers, including your partner -- or including your former partner or your current partner, regarding recent developments related to the McDonald shooting? So kind of what the discipline has been coming down?

A. No. It's just -- it's been a very traumatic incident. I just I don't -- I kind of stayed away, you know. I don't want to talk to anybody. I don't want to discuss it.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. So is there -- I don't -- do you have any follow-up questions?

MR. JACOB: Really quick, you said you were at the scene about 30 to 45 minutes or so --

OFFICER BECERRA: After?

MR. JACOB: -- after the shooting.

OFFICER BECERRA: Okay.

MR. JACOB: Did an ambulance arrive while you were there?

OFFICER BECERRA: Oh, yes.

MR. JACOB: Okay. And then McDonald was attended to?

OFFICER BECERRA: Oh, yes.

MR. JACOB: Do you recall how much time passed between the shooting and when the ambulance arrived?
OFFICER BECERRA: Oh, it was very quick the ambulance arrived.

MR. JACOB: Do you know was he pronounced dead at the scene?

OFFICER BECERRA: I don't know.

MR. JACOB: Okay. That's all.

BY MS. ANSARI:

Q. Officer, was he still moving after all the shots had been fired?

A. I didn't -- I didn't get that close.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. So we don't have any other questions. Do you have anything or do you want to -- that you want to add for the record or say before we conclude?

OFFICER BECERRA: No. No.

MS. ANSARI: Okay. Then it is 12:25 p.m. and we will go off the record.

ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS

I, Arturo Belterra, understand that I am being interviewed by Sarah Anzani and Matthew Jacob from the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General.

DATE 9/33 TIME LOCATION Amicus Courthouse, 300 W. Adams

I understand that this interview is part of an official investigation and that I have a duty to cooperate with the Office of Inspector General, which includes answering all questions completely and truthfully.

I understand that I have no right to remain silent. I understand that I have an obligation to answer questions put to me truthfully. I understand that if I refuse to answer questions put to me, I will be ordered by a superior officer to answer the questions. I further understand and I have been advised that if I persist in my refusal to answer after an order to do so, such further refusal constitutes a violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Chicago Police Department and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I understand and have been advised that my statements or responses may constitute an official police report. I understand that Rule 14 of the Chicago Police Department's Rules and Regulations prohibits making a false report, written or oral, and I further understand that making such a false report, whether written or oral, may result in my separation from the Chicago Police Department.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview may be used as evidence of misconduct or as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including removal or discharge.

I understand that any statement made by me during this interview and the fruits thereof cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding.

I understand that I have the right to have a union representative, or legal counsel of my choosing, present at the interview to consult with, and that I will be given a reasonable time to obtain a union representative or legal counsel as long as the interview is not unduly delayed.

I understand that a refusal to answer any question, or any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statement by me would constitute a violation of Chicago Municipal Ordinance 2-56, and may serve as the basis for my discharge.

I acknowledge that this statement of my administrative rights has been read aloud to me, and I have been allowed to review this document.

City ordinance, and if applicable, collective bargaining agreements, provide that you are entitled to notice of the nature of the allegations against you and the identity of all complainants prior to any interview. Accordingly, you are advised as follows:

COMPLAINANT(S)

4. John J. Escalante, Interim Superintendent of Chicago Police Department (CPD), sent a letter to the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General (OIG) dated January 13, 2016, requesting that OIG conduct an administrative investigation of the following allegations arising out of the October 20, 2014 shooting death of Laquan McDonald (the McDonald Shooting): whether any officer(s) made false statement on official reports submitted in connection with the shooting of Laquan McDonald on October 20, 2014; whether any officer(s) obstructed or interfered with the investigation of this incident, either individually or in collusion with others; and whether any officer(s) committed any violation of Chicago Police Department rules, policies, or orders in connection with their response and/or handling of this matter. Escalante attached to the letter a copy of Sergeant S. Soria’s (Star # 2275) Initiation Report, which raises similar allegations of misconduct with respect to Department members in connection with the McDonald Shooting, and identified that Report as a basis for OIG’s administrative investigation.

ALLEGATION(S)

1. On or about October 20, 2014, you provided a false narrative to Detective David March of the Chicago Police Department (CPD) concerning the McDonald Shooting.

2. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a false statement during an interview with CPD Detective David March when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you stated that you did not see who fired shots.

3. On or about October 20, 2014, you made a material omission during an interview with CPD David March when, with respect to the McDonald shooting, you failed to state that you saw McDonald being shot while he was on the ground.

4. On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to ensure the in-car video system for CPD vehicle 8765 was working properly at the beginning of your tour of duty.

5. On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to immediately notify a supervisor that the in-car video system for CPD vehicle 8765 was inoperable or damaged.

6. On or about October 20, 2014, you failed to audibly record events with CPD vehicle 8765’s in-car video system during your tour of duty.
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I hereby acknowledge receipt in writing of the identity of the complainant(s) and notice of the nature of the allegation(s) against me.

BACERRA, Arturo -----

stated he was a Chicago Police Officer assigned to the 008th District. He was on duty, in uniform, working on Beat 822. BACERRA was working with Police Officer Leticia VELEZ. The two officers were assigned to a marked vehicle. BACERRA was driving the vehicle and VELEZ was the passenger.

Officer BACERRA and his partner responded to the request for assistance made by Beat 815R, regarding a subject who was armed with a knife. BACERRA was driving northbound on Pulaski Road from 47th Street. As he approached the scene of this incident, at 4112 South Pulaski, he observed a black male subject, now known as Laquan MCDONALD, in the middle of the street, flailing his arms. As he got closer, BACERRA observed MCDONALD to be holding a knife in his right hand. BACERRA drove past MCDONALD, with MCDONALD on the left side of the police vehicle, as Beat 845R drove past BACERRA, on the right side of his vehicle, travelling southbound.

As BACERRA began to make a U-turn, he heard multiple gunshots. He then saw MCDONALD lying on the ground. BACERRA did not see who fired the shots.
This form is designed for recording handwritten notes and memoranda which are made during the conduct of investigations, including: inter-watch memoranda (handwritten or typewritten), witness and suspect interview notes, on-scene canvas notes, and any handwritten personal notes made by detectives during the field investigation of violent crimes which are used to prepare official Department case reports.

IN-CAR VIDEO SYSTEMS

I. PURPOSE

This directive:

A. implements the use of Department in-car video systems.
B. establishes the policies and procedures for the use, maintenance, and repair of in-car video systems.
C. establishes the roles and responsibilities of Department members affected by the introduction of in-car video systems for the video and audio recording of incidents.
D. establishes the requirements for viewing, retaining, and duplicating digitally recorded incidents.
E. continues the use of the Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/ Duplication Request (CPD-65.224).
F. identifies the Records Division as the Department repository and viewing location of digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems.

II. POLICY

The Department is committed to protecting the safety and welfare of its members and the public. The in-car video systems can provide members with an invaluable instrument to enhance criminal prosecution by providing powerful evidence of criminal activity, limit civil liabilities, and objectively document officer conduct during individual interactions. Members assigned to a vehicle equipped with an in-car video system will use it pursuant to this directive.

III. GENERAL INFORMATION

A. There is no expectation of privacy for Department members related to incidents recorded by in-car video systems. Supervisors, members of Bureau of Internal Affairs, and the Independent Police Review Authority (IPRA) investigators may request to review the digitally recorded data from a vehicle equipped with an in-car video system. Any digitally recorded data created by the in-car video system may be used without a Department member’s permission for any official Departmental purpose.

B. The in-car video system will automatically engage audio and video recording when the vehicle’s emergency-roof lights are activated. However, Department members may manually activate the in-car video system without the activation of the emergency equipment. At the conclusion of the incident, Department members must manually disengage all recording processes, regardless of what method activated the in-car video system.

C. The Records Division will be the custodians of the digitally recorded data and will be responsible for the retention, duplication, and viewing of the in-car video systems. The Director, Records Division, will establish retention, viewing, and duplication procedures that provide for inventory control, the security of the digitally recorded data, and authorized duplications.

D. All digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems will be retained by the Records Division for a minimum of 90 days. Digitally recorded data that is marked and held as having evidentiary or training value will be retained as prescribed by law and established Department policy.

E. In general, minor infractions and minor deviations from Department policy observed through the review of digitally recorded data will not be subject to the disciplinary process and will be treated as a training opportunity.
IV. RECORDING GUIDELINES

A. Department members will use only Department-issued video and audio recording equipment.

B. Department members will conform to all laws and Department policies concerning the use of the in-car video system for the video and audio recording of incidents.

1. Department members are lawfully permitted to video record individuals without their consent if they are on the public way or in public view.

2. Department members who are in uniform and have identified their office are lawfully permitted to simultaneously audibly and visually record individuals without their consent whenever:
   a. the member is conducting an enforcement stop, or
   b. the patrol vehicle emergency lights are activated or would otherwise be activated if not for the need to conceal the presence of law enforcement.

NOTE: Any reports completed for an audibly recorded incident, including Traffic Stop Statistical Study - Driver Information Cards (CPD-21.103), Traffic Stop Statistical Study Stickers (CPD-15.516), and Personal Service Citations, must include the initial violation or investigatory need that led to the stop.

NOTE: Department members may audibly record an enforcement stop regardless of the subsequent enforcement action taken.

3. Department members may audibly and visually record an individual with the consent of the individual.

C. Uniformed Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will activate the system to simultaneously audibly and visually record the entire incident for all enforcement stops.

D. Uniformed Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will activate the system to visually record the entire incident for all:
   1. arrests and transports.
   2. nonpursuit emergency vehicle operations.
   3. any situation that the member, through training and experience, believes to serve a proper police purpose.

E. During the recording of an incident, Department members will not disengage the in-car video system until the entire incident has been recorded.

NOTE: Department members will be required to justify any disengagement of the in-car video system prior to the entire incident being recorded.

F. If recorded, felony and misdemeanor arrests; motor vehicle pursuits; traffic crashes resulting in property damage, personal injury, or a fatality; DUI incidents, and failure to yield to an emergency vehicle will be automatically stored by the in-car video system indefinitely when the correct event is selected from the postevent pop-up menu. All other incidents will be automatically stored for ninety days.

G. If digitally recorded data will be needed in judicial proceedings beyond ninety days, members will place an extended hold on that digitally recorded data as described in Item VIII of this directive, including but not limited to the following circumstances:
   1. Traffic stops other than DUI,
2. Enforcement stops,
3. Other traffic crash investigations, and
4. Stops for citizen assistance.

H. When a complaint against a Department member is received that involves a digitally recorded incident, the investigating member will request an extended hold on the data.

I. Assigned supervisors will request an extended hold on all digitally recorded motor vehicle pursuits and traffic crashes involving Department vehicles.

V. DEPLOYMENT OF THE IN-CAR VIDEO SYSTEMS

A. Commanding officers of units with vehicles equipped with in-car video systems will:

1. ensure that vehicles equipped with in-car video systems are evenly distributed for use by all watches.

   NOTE: Commanding officers will ensure the units assigned to traffic duties in district law enforcement use vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.

2. whenever feasible, ensure vehicles equipped with the in-car video systems are deployed every tour of duty and service is requested for inoperable vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.

B. The station supervisors will:

1. deploy every vehicle equipped with a functional in-car video system during the tour of duty.
2. ensure digitally recorded data is downloaded from the in-car video systems.
3. whenever operationally feasible, review video of any arrest recorded by the in-car video system as part of the approval of probable cause.

VI. OPERATIONAL PROCEDURES

A. Department members assigned to a Department vehicle equipped with an in-car video system will:

1. at the beginning of a tour of duty:
   a. visually inspect the in-car video system equipment for damage.
   b. obtain the remote transmitter/audio recorder and ensure it is securely attached to the member's person.
   c. follow the start-up procedures for the in-car video system as trained and ensure the system is working properly.

   NOTE: Members will immediately notify a supervisor if, at any time, the in-car video system is inoperable, damaged, the equipped vehicle becomes inoperable, or the remote transmitter/audio recorder is missing.

2. during the tour of duty:
   a. audibly and visually record events in accordance with this directive.
   b. annotate all reports, including Contact Information Cards (CPD-21.101), prepared for an event which has been recorded by listing “Video Recorded Incident” at the end of the narrative portion.
c. after an incident has been recorded, use the post-event pop-up menu to select the most serious recorded occurrence as the event type and enter other event information.

NOTE: If the member did not use the postevent pop-up menu to mark the incident as being held for evidence, the member will request an extended hold on digitally recorded data in accordance with Item VIII of this directive.

d. if the in-car video system indicates that the memory required to record incidents is becoming low or if the member observes that less than 30 minutes of recording time is available, download the digitally recorded data.

3. at the conclusion of a tour of duty:

a. verify the in-car video system is working properly.
b. initiate the downloading of the digitally recorded data.

NOTE: Members will immediately notify a supervisor if unable to complete the downloading of digitally recorded data due to technical problems.

c. shut down the in-car video system and logoff the system.
d. return the remote transmitter/audio recorder to the designated area for charging.

B. The sergeant assigned to supervise Department members using Department vehicles equipped with an in-car video system will:

1. monitor subordinates to ensure the in-car video system is used and that digitally recorded data is properly downloaded.

2. ensure that the Help Desk is contacted and a ticket number is obtained whenever any member is unable to use the in-car video system or download digitally recorded data due to technical problems.

3. initiate an investigation when notified of a missing or lost remote transmitter/audio recorder.

4. document on the Supervisor’s Management Log (CPD-11.455):

   a. whether each vehicle has an in-car video system and if it is functioning.

   b. all responses related to malfunctions of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems.

   c. digitally recorded data downloaded to land-based terminals, noting any units unable to complete the download and the Help Desk ticket number obtained.

   d. any request submitted for an extended hold of digitally recorded data.

   e. any instances of additional training, corrective measures, or disciplinary actions.

5. document on the Traffic Pursuit Report (CPD-22.958) or traffic crash report that the incident has been digitally recorded.

6. obtain a complaint register number and order an evidence technician to process the equipment if any damage or malfunction is suspected to have been caused by deliberate (tampering) means.

C. Station supervisors will:

1. designate a sergeant responsible for monitoring the downloading of digitally recorded data for the watch.
2. record the total number of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems deployed during the watch and the total number of these vehicles that do not have a functioning in-car video system, if any, on the Watch Incident Log (CPD-21.916).

3. ensure the status of vehicles equipped with in-car video systems is recorded on the Personal Equipment Log (CPD-21.919) by recording the word “VIDEO” in the “Camera/Tripod No.” column.

4. if an in-car video system malfunctions or the system or vehicle becomes inoperable during the tour, record the vehicle and beat numbers and the words “VIDEO DOWN” on the Watch Incident Log.

D. When digitally recorded data is determined to have evidentiary or training value, or a complaint against a Department member is received that involves a digitally recorded incident, the supervisor reviewing the recorded data will request an extended hold on the data.

VII. DOWNLOADING DIGITALLY RECORDED DATA FROM THE IN-CAR VIDEO SYSTEM

A. When downloading digitally recorded data from the mobile unit of an in-car video system to a land-based terminal, Department members will:

1. download the data in accordance with the manufacturer’s guidelines and training.
2. ensure the download of data was complete and return the vehicle back into service.

B. With the approval of the station supervisor in the district of occurrence, special requests for the immediate viewing of digitally recorded data from the Bureau of Detectives, Bureau of Internal Affairs, or IPRA will be processed for major incidents where an in-car camera system may be reasonably expected to have captured a component of the incident.

1. Major incidents include, but are not limited to:
   a. police-involved shootings,
   b. serious injury or death to a Department member,
   c. serious injury or death to a member of the public.

2. Special requests for viewing digitally recorded data will be made to the station supervisor in the district of occurrence, who will:
   a. evaluate the request;
   b. determine if the need for retrieval outweighs the operational impact of the vehicle being taken out of service; and
   c. notify Crime Prevention and Information Center (CPIC) of the decision.

3. Special requests will be in the form of one of the following types:
   a. Special wireless upload, or
   b. Emergency on-site retrieval.

C. Special Wireless Uploads

1. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will take the vehicle out of service and secure it at the unit of assignment or other appropriate location.

2. The supervisor will:
   a. verify that the vehicle operator or partner is signed on to the in-car camera system;
   b. instruct the member to manually flag the entire tour of duty’s available video for upload.
c. instruct the member to initiate a manual upload of this video with the vehicle in range of the facility's wireless hotspot; and

NOTE: If video cannot be uploaded via wireless hotspot, a cradle upload will be used.

d. ensure that the vehicle remains out of service until the upload is complete.

3. Once complete, the station supervisor will allow personnel from the Bureau of Detectives, Bureau of Internal Affairs, or IPRA, as appropriate, to review the uploaded files.

NOTE: For officer-involved shootings when an On-Call Incident Commander (OCIC) will respond, an emergency on-site retrieval will be immediately requested through CPIC.

4. The station supervisor may identify an alternate vehicle for the member to use while the identified vehicle completes its video upload, as appropriate.

5. If an attempt to wirelessly upload is unsuccessful, members may contact the City of Chicago Help Desk at 4-DATA for assistance.

6. If a wireless upload fails, an emergency on-site retrieval will be conducted.

D. Emergency On-Site Retrieval

1. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will notify CPIC of an approved emergency on-site retrieval.

NOTE: An emergency on-site retrieval will only be conducted when an OCIC is responding or a wireless upload fails and contacting the City of Chicago Help Desk at 4-DATA has not resolved the problem.

2. CPIC will notify the Public Sector Information Technology (PSIT) Group personnel of a manual video retrieval from the "fail-safe" internal drive request.

3. The station supervisor in the district of occurrence will take the identified vehicle out of service during the retrieval process.

4. If the identified vehicle is still in use when the designated supervisor arrives at the unit facility or other appropriate location, the supervisor will report to the vehicle and instruct any member logged onto the system to log off the system.

5. The vehicle will remain out of service until PSIT responds and conducts the video retrieval.

NOTE: On-site review of video will be limited to the series of events and time frame giving rise to the alleged incident.

E. Viewing and Obtaining Copies of In-Car Video Recordings

1. Once retrieval has been completed for the requested time frame, the video may be viewed by personnel from the requesting party at the location of retrieval.

2. Requests for copies of in-car video recordings will be made by completing the form entitled "Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request" (CPD-65.224) and forwarding it to the Records Division.

F. The Managing Deputy Director, PSIT, will:

1. establish procedures to ensure the security of the digitally recorded data from downloading to storage by the Records Division.
2. develop a system to monitor the memory capacity of the land-based terminals and provide for the security of the downloaded data.

G. If members are unable to download digitally recorded data from the mobile unit of the in-car video system to the land-based terminals due to system inoperability:

1. the station supervisor will notify the Help Desk and follow any further instructions given by the responding member of PSIT.

2. A designated member of PSIT will respond to the requesting unit and:
   a. ensure the security of the digitally recorded data.
   b. perform a manual download of the digitally recorded data.
   c. record the manual download on the Help Desk ticket.

VIII. REQUESTING A HOLD FOR DIGITALLY RECORDED DATA

A. Department members will place an extended hold on digitally recorded data they recorded using the postevent pop-up menu on the in-car video system.

B. Within the first 48 hours from downloading digitally recorded data from the vehicle, Department members who do not use the postevent pop-up menu and request an extended hold on digitally recorded data will request that a supervisor place the extended hold by using the land-based terminal at the district/unit station.

C. After the first 48 hours from downloading digitally recorded data from the vehicle, Department members who do not use the postevent pop-up menu and request an extended hold on digitally recorded data will:
   1. complete the Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form.
   2. indicate on the form the necessary actions by the Records Division.
   3. explain in the narrative portion of the form the reason for the request.
   4. submit the form to the station supervisor/designated unit supervisor for approval.
   5. submit the completed and approved form to the Records Division for processing and retention in accordance with existing records-retention requirements.

D. Department members who wish to remove an extended hold on digitally recorded data will follow the procedures outlined in Item VIII-C of this directive indicating the circumstances requiring the removal of the extended hold.

E. The Director, Records Division, will:
   1. develop a cataloging system for storage and retrieval of recordings and procedures for ensuring archives are maintained consistent with Department directives (including the Forms Retention Schedule), applicable state and federal laws, and compliance with all court orders.
   2. be responsible for retaining digitally recorded data for which an extended hold was requested as prescribed by law and established Department policy.

IX. VIEWING, RETAINING, AND DUPLICATING DIGITALLY RECORDED DATA

A. All digitally recorded data created by the in-car video systems are the property of the Chicago Police Department. Dissemination of any digitally recorded data outside the Department is strictly prohibited without specific authorization by the Superintendent or an appointed designee.

   1. Any non-Departmental requests for duplication of digitally recorded data must be approved by the Superintendent or an appointed designee.
2. All approved requests will be forwarded in an expeditious manner to the Director, Records Division, along with:
   a. a completed and approved Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form, and
   b. written instructions, including dissemination information, for compliance with the request.

B. Department members assigned to vehicles equipped with in-car video systems and their supervisors are encouraged to use the review/playback functions of the system for the purposes of:

1. developing familiarity with the functions, capabilities, and limitations of the in-car video systems to create consistent recording techniques which capture relevant actions.
2. searching for and identifying recorded events having evidentiary or training value.
3. reviewing approach and officer safety issues.
4. ensuring consistency with written reports.

C. Reviewing Digitally Recorded Data

Investigating members may view digitally recorded data in the performance of official police business. When it is necessary to view digitally recorded data stored by the Records Division, the following procedures will apply:

1. The requesting Department member will:
   a. prepare a Digitally Recorded Data Viewing / Hold / Duplication Request form, including approval of the requestor's station supervisor/designated unit supervisor.
   b. schedule an appointment to view the recorded incident with a Records Division supervisor (or an appointed designee) to ensure the availability of a technician and playback equipment.
   c. present the properly completed and approved form to a Records Division supervisor at the scheduled time.

2. A Records Division supervisor will:
   a. process all approved recorded incident review requests.
   b. assign a technician to assist the requestor in viewing the recorded incident, as required.

D. Obtaining a Video Recording

1. A duplicate copy of selected information may be made to retain that information;
   a. when it is not required that the master video be retained for an indefinite period (e.g., investigation of a routine administrative incident when the punishment is of a summary or minor nature).
   b. when the requesting member determines that a duplicate video of a master video will be sufficient.

2. A duplicate video recording may be obtained by:
   a. completing a Digitally Recorded Data Viewing / Hold / Duplication Request form and submitting the completed form to the station supervisor/designated unit supervisor for approval.
   b. notifying the Records Division that a duplicate video recording is required and submit the approved Digitally Recorded Data Viewing/Hold/Duplication Request form to the Director, Records Division.
c. indicating to the Records Division which information from the digitally recorded data is to be included on the duplicate video recording.

3. When the duplicate video recording has served the purpose for which it was made, the requesting member will ensure that it is immediately returned to the Records Division.

NOTE: A member requesting a duplicate video recording will not make additional copies of it or permit unauthorized persons to duplicate or view it under any circumstances.

E. Special Situations

When the Records Division receives a request for an extended hold of digitally recorded data that indicates it pertains to:

1. a motor vehicle pursuit or traffic crash involving a Department vehicle, the Director, Records Division, will ensure a duplicate video is forwarded to the Traffic Review Board.

2. an incident having training value, the Director, Records Division, will ensure a duplicate video is forwarded to the Deputy Chief, Education and Training Division.

Hello Dep Lewin,
Per your request the findings related to the Aggravated Assault / Police involved Shooting on 20 Oct 2014. Listed under RDB # HY475653:

Findings from that night:

Veh 8779 Video Recovered Titled @20141020215250 No MICS because they were in the Glove Compartment with the batteries inserted upside down - Disabling them.

Veh 8489 System not engaged because a very long video (like hours long) was made previous to this event/incident and the system was processing that video and unable to start another video.

Veh 8765 System not engaged, officer related no power. There was no open HDT called in on vehicle. MICS not sync'd to system even though they were in the charging cradles.

Veh 6412 Video Recovered Titled @20141020215250 view out of focus. Foucsing problem found to be related to a loose cable connection for the camera. No MICS in vehicle and the charging cradles disconnected from power.

Veh 8949 System not engaged, officer reported that there was an application error - Mobile Recorder Start-Up corrupted. No Help Desk Ticket Open for this vehicle.

Hello Dep Lewin,

Per your request the findings related to the Aggravated Assault / Police involved Shooting on 20 Oct 2014 Listed under RD# HY 475653:

Findings from that night:

Veh 8779 Video Recovered Titled PC02400@20141020215250, No MICs because they were in the Glove Compartment with the batteries inserted unside down - Disabling them.

Veh 8489 System not engaged because a very long video (like hours long) was made previous to this event/incident and the system was processing that video and unable to start another video.

Veh 8765 System not engaged, officer related no power. There was no open HDT called in on vehicle. MICs not sync’d to system even though they were in the charging cradles.

Veh 6412 Video Recovered Titled PC05571@20141020215250 view out of focus. Foucsing problem found to be related to a loose cable connection for the camera. No MICs in vehicle and the charging cradles disconnected from power.

Veh 8949 System not engaged, officer reported that there was an application error - Mobile Recorder Start-Up corrupted. No Help Desk Ticket Open for this vehicle.

Introduction

The COBAN mobile recorder is the front line of the Digital Video Management System (DVMS). The mobile recorder supports up to three audio/video channels and can record two channels of audio and two channels of video streams simultaneously to the in-car CPU.

*Only two video channels can be recorded simultaneously.

This information is stored in the Mobile Hard Disk Drive until it can be transferred to the BOClient.

This manual addresses the steps needed to properly use the Mobile recording system.

Login

Based on the system settings configured by the department users may need to login to the mobile recorder system using a valid user ID and password at the beginning of each shift. Other login types are described on page 7. This information allows the mobile recorder system to transfer videos taken during the shift to BOClient to be properly stored and classified in the DVMS. Complete the steps described in this section to login to the mobile recorder system.

Turn On the Mobile Recorder

1. Start the vehicle.
2. Turn on the mobile recorder using the On/Off switch on the monitor.
3. Allow the system to boot up.
Login to the Mobile Recorder

1. After the mobile recording system has been powered up, the Mobile Start Recorder software will initiate and display the Officer Login screen.

2. The officer ID should be automatically entered into the appropriate field from information input during MHDD checkout. If not, enter the appropriate Officer ID in the field provided.

   Note: Tap Officer ID or Password to access the virtual keypad.

3. Type your password using the virtual keypad then tap OK.

4. Tap Login.

5. The System Time and Date screen will appear.

6. Change the system time and date if it is incorrect using the appropriate arrow keys.

7. Take note of the estimated remaining recording time. Storage remaining for video recording is displayed above the OK button.

   Note: A warning prompt will be displayed if available recording time is less than 4 hours. The system will not allow the MHDD to be used if it has less than ??? time remaining.

8. Tap OK.
Sync the Wireless Microphone

1. Locate the contacts at the bottom of the wireless mic.
2. Press the wireless microphone contacts directly on top of the receiver's register contacts.
3. A confirmation tone will sound to indicate the receiver and the microphone have synchronized their frequencies.
4. The wireless microphone is now on standby mode and ready for use.

Note: Syncing a second microphone to the same receiver will replace and nullify the first microphone.
Other Login Options

The system administrator for the DVMS can enable one of four different login capabilities. These four different options are described below:

Quick login – Automatically logs in an officer after they login once, as long as the same hard drive is used in the same unit (typically used in take home vehicles).

Emergency login – If this option is enabled, when the user starts the mobile recording system and the light bar is activated, the system will boot into record mode automatically. If the light bar is not activated, the system will remain at the login screen.

Delayed login – If this option is enabled the officer can startup the mobile unit and will get a login prompt for 30 seconds. If the officer does not login within 30 seconds the mobile recorder program will start automatically with the ability to record a video. At the end of the recording period, once the stop button is pressed, the officer is prompted to login.

Windows login – The administrator may set BOClient to use MSWindows login credentials and automatically login to BO Client. Note that users will need to logoff from the current Windows session so that others will not gain access to DVMS system with other users’ access rights (this feature requires MDT integration or a connection to the department network).

Manually Start the Application

1. The system is designed to start automatically. If the system does not automatically start contact the system administrator or locate the application icon on the display screen.

2. Tap the Mobile Start icon to start the application.
Minimize/Maximize the Application Window

1. Tap the application icon to minimize the window.

2. Tap Hide Camera View to minimize the application window and access the desktop.

3. Tap the application icon to return to the Camera View screen.
Camera View Screen

The Camera View screen displays the camera input and provides options for the user to start recording, create bookmarks, take snapshots of the video and other functions. It also provides icons that indicate the light bar status, radar gun reading, GPS indicator (if installed), and the in-car microphone ON / OFF status.

At the bottom of this screen, it shows the Pre-Event Buffering time, which indicates the length of video that is being pre-recorded prior to User pressing the Record button.
Camera Preview – The camera preview displays the image as seen through the camera lens. The default image is set as the front facing camera. The system supports a spot exposure feature. Tap the brightest portion of the camera preview screen to automatically dim the preview screen for five seconds. This feature is useful for when lights are making portions of the preview too bright to see.

Video Log - The Video Log documents readings and status from various devices connect to the mobile recording system such as, light bar status, microphone status, bookmark, etc.

Snapshot Function – Tapping the snapshot icon will save a JPG freeze frame image of the video displayed on the camera preview screen. A preview of the snapshot will be displayed immediately beneath the snapshot icon for 15 seconds. Take a snapshot of the rear camera view by clicking on the C2 camera indicator to change the camera preview to secondary camera, then tap the snapshot icon.

Minimize/Enlarge Button – The minimize/enlarge button will minimize or enlarge the mobile recorder application and allow users the ability to access other programs on the computer.

Recording Indicators – The recording indicators blink red to signify which camera is recording. If no cameras are recording, the indicators will not blink. Users can tap on the recording indicators to make that camera’s view active in the Camera Preview screen. When there is only one camera installed on the vehicle, the user will not see a C1 and C2 camera indicator. When three cameras are installed in the system, tapping the C2 camera indicator will toggle between camera’s two and three.

Date and Time – The Date and Time display is set during the login sequence and continuously displays the current date and time.

Buffer Setting – The Pre-Event Buffer is set by the System Administrator through COBAN's BOClient application. The Pre-Event Buffer display is a reminder to the user that all recordings are provided with a pre-event recording. This buffer can be adjusted through BOClient or in some cases through mobile recorder.

Mic Icon – The wireless microphone icon will blink when the covert microphone is recording audio.

Light Bar Indicator – the light bar indicator will blink when the vehicles light bar is activated.

Function Buttons – The function buttons provide users the access to greater functionality, including:

The Menu button provides access to Camera View, Playback, Switch User, or Exit functions.

Bookmark Icon – Tap the bookmark icon to mark a spot in a video for later review or to pinpoint an action on the recording.

Auto Zoom - When tapped, the system will automatically zoom the camera, pause for 3 seconds and zoom back to user’s original zoom setting. There is no need to manually disengage the button when this feature is used.

Camera Control - Press Camera Control to access manual camera zoom, brightness and focus capabilities.

More - Allows users the ability to access additional system features and functions.

Secondary Camera View - If installed, will be configured as C2 and the second camera’s view will appear below the primary camera image next to C2 indicator.

Playback Functions – The playback feature allows user to play previously recorded video, enter / edit video event data, send selected video wirelessly (if wireless option is purchased) and manually retain video. (Please refer to Page 17 for more details)

Record Buttons – The user may initiate a recording by pressing the wireless microphone, turning on the light bar or siren (if equipped as a system trigger), or pressing the Record icons on the screen.
Recording

The core feature of the mobile recording system is its ability to quickly and accurately capture videos when the user initiates a recording. The COBAN mobile recording system incorporates a multitude of options to start a recording, and to view videos as they are being recorded. These options are detailed in the following section.

Start a Recording Manually

1. Tap the camera 1 icon \( \text{C1} \) to begin a recording using the primary camera via the video recorder.

2. Tap the camera 2 icon \( \text{C2} \) to begin a recording using the secondary camera via the video recorder.

Note: If the vehicle has three cameras, the user can switch the display between camera 2 and camera 3 by double tapping the camera 2 indicator beneath the video image display.

Note: The camera 1 icon will be shown as a white square when the mobile recorder is actively recording a video.

3. The recording indicators will blink red to signify which cameras are actively recording.

Note: While in record mode, the preview screen provides the ability to set bookmarks by pressing the bookmark icon (see page 16 for more information on this feature).
Stop Recording

1. Tap the camera 1 icon \( C_1 \) to stop recording using the primary camera.

2. Tap the camera 2 icon \( C_2 \) to stop the recording on the secondary camera.

Use Wireless Mic to Start Recording

1. Press the Record button (larger button) on the wireless mic once.
2. This action will initiate the mobile recorder to record both audio and video data via the mobile recorder.
3. The wireless mic will vibrate twice and the record button will flash green to indicate that the mobile recording system has started a recording, depending on which mode it is in (see table below).

Wireless Mic Alerts

1. The wireless mic will flash color-coded LEDs and/or vibrate to alert users of status changes and wireless mic maintenance alerts.
2. See the table to the right to decipher the alerts.

Other Recording Options

The system administrator can set other recording start and stop options via the system settings in BOClient, including:
- Light bar activation
- Vehicle speed activation
- Siren activation
- Weapons rack activation

The middle button of the wireless mic is configurable so that it can be used for the following purposes:
- Bookmark
- Stop recording
- Mute
Event Type

If enabled, the Event Type screen will pop up immediately after the user stops a video recording. Classifying a recording with an event type helps the DVMS save the video, and allows meta-data and other details about the video to be stored with the recording as well as sets the retention criteria for each video. The mobile recorder system will return to the Camera View Screen and Wireless Microphone will also return to standby once the video has been linked to an event type. In instances where both cameras are recording the system will give the user the option to carry over the event data to the secondary camera.

Select an Event Type

1. Tap the camera icon to stop recording.

2. The Event Type screen will appear.

3. Tap the appropriate event type to classify the video that was recorded. The Event Type will be highlighted in light blue when it is selected.

4. Tap Select to enter the event type.

Note: Events can be added or removed from the event type list by the system administrator through BOCClient.
5. Tap any of the text fields to display the virtual keypad.
6. Type information regarding the recording using the virtual keypad then tap OK.
Snapshot

Using the snapshot feature will take a JPG freeze frame image of the video displayed on the preview screen. A preview of the snapshot will be displayed immediately beneath the snapshot icon for 15 seconds. This feature works for any camera installed on the system, but only the camera view shown on the preview screen is available for snapshot.

Take Snapshot

1. Tap snapshot icon to take a JPG freeze frame of the image on the camera view screen.

2. Tap the preview that appears beneath the snapshot icon to enlarge the snapshot.

Note: The snapshot preview will be displayed for approximately 15 seconds.
Review Snapshots

1. Use the arrow keys to scroll through the snapshots saved in the mobile recorder system.
2. Click X to delete snapshots.
3. Click OK to return to the Camera View screen.

Bookmark

Bookmarks are used to mark points in a video that the reviewer or user feels are significant. Bookmarks also allow users to quickly locate these significant points of videos during a review.

Set a Bookmark in Mobile Recorder

1. Start a video recording (see page 11 for more information on recording).
2. Tap the bookmark icon on the right side of the screen.
3. An entry will be displayed in the Video Log.

Note: The bookmark icon will not be displayed unless the mobile recorder is actively recording.
More Functions

Tap MORE to access additional system features/functions such as:

2. A popup window will appear that shows:
   - Total number of videos recorded
   - Total offender records entered
   - Recording time left
Close Shot

COBAN's mobile recorder camera is designed to focus beyond the vehicle's windshield. This point of focus ensures that rain drops or other debris on the windshield do not negatively affect the picture.

Users may use close shot mode to bring the focus point down to within one inch from the camera for 5 seconds. During this time, a snapshot will be taken for later review:

1. Position the ID or other object approximately 1 inch from the camera's lens.

2. Tap Close Shot.

3. The camera will re-focus and take a snapshot JPG image that will be saved in the snapshots file (see page 16 for more information on reviewing snapshots).
View Snapshots

Snapshots, those taken via the snapshot function on the camera view screen or those taken utilizing the close shot function, are stored in the same place. Access these files by:

1. Tap View Snapshots.

2. Use the arrow keys to scroll through the snapshots in the mobile recorder system.

3. Click X to delete snapshots.

4. Click OK to return to Camera View screen.
Pre-Event Playback

Pre-event buffer, or the length of video that will precede a recording when the record icon is activated can be adjusted, but only prior to a recording.

Another useful feature of the pre-event playback is a feature that allows the users to go back to any point in time that occurred since that user logged onto the mobile recorder system. The pre-event buffer starts at the time a user logs on or switches users (see page Switch Officer37 for information on switching officers).

1. Tap Pre-Event Playback.

2. Tap the left and right arrow buttons to adjust the length of the pre-event section in minutes.

Please select the length of video you want to retrieve from pre-event using > and < buttons. When finished, press the Film button to retrieve selected video.
3. Tap to view the past minutes that the officer has input.

4. Tap to record the past minutes.

5. Tap the record button.

Note: Another useful feature of this capability is to view past minutes of a currently recording video to review what was said or happened and verify facts.

6. Tap the extract button to retrieve the selected length of pre-event. This allows the user to playback and attach a longer pre-event segment than is defined in the back-office system.

7. The extra length of pre-event is included in the saved video.

Note: It is possible to adjust pre-event to append video to a previously recorded video by adjusting the pre-event buffer to a point prior to the recording’s start time, i.e., to append ten minutes of pre-event to a video recorded from 8:00 to 8:15, adjust the pre-event buffer to a value greater than fifteen minutes.
Equipment Test

The Equipment Test feature allows the user to test the wireless mic and the covert mic without triggering a recording.

1. Ensure that the wireless mic is synchronized to the mobile recorder (see page 6 for information on syncing the wireless mic).
2. Tap Equipment Test.

3. The wireless mic will beep twice and flash green if the system is properly synchronized.
4. Press the record button on the wireless mic.

5. The microphone icon will be shown with flashing electrifying icons indicating that the microphone is active, if the covert mic is working properly.

Note: A feedback whine may be produced by the microphone during this test.

6. Also, the text M1 will appear at the top right of the camera preview screen to indicate that wireless 1 is active.

7. Note: When two mics are used, M1 and M2 will appear in the camera preview.
8. Tap Click here to exit Test Mode to exit the test.

Sync GPS Time
This feature syncs the video clock to GPS time clock if the time is off by more than 10 minutes. This feature will only work if GPS is installed on the mobile recorder system.

1. Tap Sync GPS Time.

2. A popup window will appear providing the user with the difference between the system time and the GPS time.

3. Tap Yes to synchronize the system time to the GPS time.
Edit Event Data

Each recorded video is linked with an event type. Events can be defined as traffic stop, accident, assistance, or any other definable event type. Each event may have multiple data points including offender information, user activities, location description, and remarks.

1. To access the Event Data screen, tap Edit Event Data.

Note: This option will be grayed out if the system is not recording.

2. Tap Select Event.
3. Select the event type from the pre-defined event list.
4. Once event type is selected, the user may then start adding personal information of offenders, or select the applicable activities.
5. Enter case numbers and ticket numbers in the fields provided at the top left of the screen.
6. Tap Remarks to enter comments regarding the video event.
7. Check the activities boxes to describe the activities taken during the video event.
1. Tap + from the Edit Event Data screen to enter the offender data screen.

2. Enter offender data in the fields provided in the Offender Data screen.

3. Tap Save when the entries are completed.

4. Tap the Violations field to access the Violations Selection screen (see page 27 for more information on entering violations data).

5. Tap C to access the offender data and edit data regarding the event.

6. Tap X to delete offender data.

7. Tap M to move offender data from one event to another.

8. Tap the field next to Location/Remark to enter text regarding the location of the video event.
Violation Selection Screen

1. Tap the Violations field in the Offender Data screen (as described on page 26) to access the Violation Selection screen.

2. For events where a warning or an arrest took place, check the appropriate box across from the appropriate violation.

3. For events involving drug interdiction, the user can check the box in the Drug-1 or Drug-2 column across from the appropriate violation.

   Note: Drug-1 is commonly used to indicate personal use of the drug; Drug-2 is for other drug interdictions (such as Drug Trafficking or Dealing).

4. Tap OK to return to the Offender’s Data screen.
IP Address

1. Tap IP Address to display the IP address of the vehicle.

2. A popup window will appear providing the IP address information.

3. Click OK to return to the Main Menu screen.
Record Indicator

A red LED light is situated on the front of the COBAN camera in order to signify to users whether or not the system is recording. It is situated to be seen through the front windshield when the user is outside the vehicle.

1. Tap Record Indicator to deactivate the red LED on the camera.

2. Tap Record Indicator a second time to activate the red LED on the camera.
Traffic Watch

The traffic watch allows users the ability to zoom out as soon as the record button is tapped.

1. Tap Traffic Watch to turn on the traffic watch function.

2. The screen shot on the right shows a preview where the user is focusing on the license plate of the vehicle in the frame.

3. When a recording is started the camera will automatically zoom out to obtain the entire scene.

Note: When traffic watch is disabled the manual zoom button stays active.
Night Mode

Night Mode dims the in-car monitor for clarity and provides less glare during covert conditions.

1. Tap Night Mode to activate night mode and reduce the brightness of the monitor.

2. The preview screen will dim slightly.

3. Tap Night Mode again to deactivate night mode and return the monitor to the default brightness settings.
Color Mode

By default, color mode is enabled in the mobile recording system. There are times when it may be useful to disable color mode in order to enhance lighting and reduce glare. This feature is useful for capturing tire skid marks on roads or during dusk and dawn light conditions.

1. Tap Color Mode on the Menu screen to activate a black and white preview.

2. The preview screen will change from color to black and white.

3. Tap Color Mode again on the Menu screen to re-activate color mode and deactivate black and white preview.

Note: When in Black and White mode, the video recording will record in black and white only.
Camera Control

COBAN mobile recorder systems allow users the ability to manually adjust the zoom, brightness and focus using the touch screen monitor. The specifics of accessing and utilizing these functions are described below:

Brightness Control
1. Tap Camera Control to access the brightness control functionality.
2. Use the arrow keys to increase or decrease the brightness of the preview screen.
3. Tap Reset to return to the default settings.
4. Tap Exit to return to the Camera Preview screen.

Zoom Control
1. Tap Camera Control to access the zoom control functionality.
2. Tap to access the zoom control functionality.
3. Use the arrow keys to increase or decrease the brightness of the Camera Preview screen.
4. Tap Exit to return to the Camera Preview screen.

Focus Control
1. Tap Camera Control to access the focus control functionality.
2. Tap to access the focus control functionality.
3. Use the arrow keys to change the focus of the Camera Preview screen.
4. Tap Exit to return to the Camera Preview screen.
Auto Zoom

The auto zoom feature allows users the ability to zoom in on a subject automatically. Complete the following steps to utilize the auto zoom feature. This feature is especially useful when zooming in on a license plate or zooming in on a subject during a recording.

1. Adjust the camera to center the preview screen on the subject to zoom in on.

2. Tap AUTO ZOOM on the right of the Camera Preview screen to automatically zoom in on a subject in the preview screen automatically.

3. The camera will zoom out automatically.

Note: If the in-car set up has been configured to take a snapshot during auto zoom the system will automatically take a snapshot once the camera has zoomed in on the subject. The snapshot will be shown below SNAPSHOT for approximately 15 seconds. The snapshot will be saved with the other snapshots taken during that shift (see page 15 for more information on snapshots).
Mobile Recorder User Manual

Playback Video

COBAN BOClient is a software application used to review videos at the department once the videos are uploaded from the mobile recorder system. In some cases users have found it necessary and useful to review videos in the field or immediately after recording them. The Playback Video feature allows users the capability to review videos from the mobile recorder system display in the vehicle.

1. Tap PLAYBACK on the right side of the screen to access the playback function.

2. The Video List screen will appear and list video’s stored on the MHDD by date and time taken. Location and Event will also be displayed.

3. Tap the video to play. The video will be highlighted in light green when selected.

4. Tap Play at the bottom of the screen.

Note: Tap Data to access the Offender Data screen (see page 26 for more information on the Offender Data screen).

Note: Check the box in the Retain column to have the video classified as "retained" in BOClient. See the BOClient User’s Manual for more information on retaining videos. This feature is usually used for videos that may have been misclassified as a different event type immediately following the recording.
5. Tap to set a bookmark in the video.
6. Tap to pause the video.
7. Tap to play the video at double speed.
8. Tap to rewind the video to the starting point.
9. Use the track bar at the bottom of the screen to move through the video.
10. Use the audio channel buttons at the bottom right of the screen to toggle on and off the audio channels.
11. Tap to stop the video playback and return to the Video List screen.
Mobile Recorder User Manual

Switch Officer

1. Tap MENU on the right side of the screen.

2. The Officer Login screen will appear.

   Note: Tap the field titles, ie. Officer ID, Password to access the Virtual Keypad.

3. Enter the officer ID and password in the appropriate fields and tap OK.
Upload Videos

The COBAN mobile recorder system allows for the transfer of videos to the server or sub server at the department in any one of several different methods, including:

- Mobile Hard Disk Drive upload
- Wireless Upload (automatically or on command)
- Wired Ethernet

Wireless Upload

Users in departments that utilize the wireless upload capability will have TTCS (time to connect to server) countdown at the bottom right of the Camera Preview screen.

1. Tap MENU from the Camera Preview screen.

2. Tap EXIT SYSTEM at the bottom of the screen.
3. Tap Upload & Stay On or Upload & Shutdown to upload videos.

4. The mobile recorder system will process all videos for upload.

   Note: In some cases the mobile recorder system must finish processing videos before it can properly shutdown or upload videos. The User can turn off the vehicle and leave as the mobile recorder system will automatically proceed with the upload and shutdown operation once the video processing is complete.

5. The mobile recorder system will begin to upload the videos and show progress of the upload.

   CAUTION: Do NOT remove the MHDD during this upload process.

   Note: If the Upload and Shutdown option was selected, the mobile recorder system will automatically shut down when the upload is complete.
Automatic Wireless Upload

Departments that utilize the wireless upload capability will have TTCS (time to connect to server) countdown at the bottom right of the Camera Preview screen.

All videos that have been processed by the system and are in the Video List are automatically uploaded to the server or sub server based on the BOClient settings and department protocols.

Specifying Videos to Upload/Retain

1. Users can designate that the system send specific videos immediately to the server from the Video List screen (see page 35 for information on accessing the Video List screen).

   Note: Check the box in the Retain column to have the video classified as "retained" in BOClient. See the BOClient User’s Manual for more information on retaining videos.

2. Check the box next to the video and tap Send at the bottom of the screen.

3. A popup screen will appear informing the user whether or not the videos were successfully uploaded.

4. Tap OK in the popup window to proceed.

5. The video will be marked as <SENT> in the video list following a successful upload.
MHDD Upload

Users must check in and check out Mobile Hard Disk Drives (MHDD) to upload videos in departments that do not utilize the wireless upload capability.

1. Tap MENU on the Camera Preview screen.

2. Tap EXIT SYSTEM.

3. Tap Shutdown to shutdown the mobile recorder system.

4. Use a key to unlock and remove the MHDD from the mobile recorder system.

Note: In most departments a key can be requested from the System Administrator.

CAUTION: Do NOT remove the MHDD while this system is running.
Mobile Recorder User Manual

5. Insert the MHDD in the upload cradle in the department or sub-station.

6. An upload popup window will appear. Enter the serial number of the MHDD if it is not automatically entered into the field provided.

7. Check the appropriate box to check out the hard disk after upload and the system will run the checkout application automatically after uploading.

CAUTION: Do not remove MHDD from the cradle during the upload process. Removing the MHDD from the cradle could result in loss of data.

8. A message box will show the progress of the upload and check out process.
9. Follow the directions to safely remove the MHDD from the cradle.

Wired Upload

The mobile recording system provides the capability to download videos via Ethernet cable directly from the CPU. System administrators must specify that the Ethernet plug will be used for the function to enable this feature.

1. Plug an Ethernet cable into the Ethernet plug of the CPU.
2. Tap MENU from the Camera Preview screen.
3. Tap EXIT SYSTEM at the bottom of the screen.
4. Tap Upload & Stay On or Upload & Shutdown to upload videos.

5. The mobile recorder system will process all videos for upload.

   Note: In some cases the mobile recorder system must finish processing videos before it can properly shutdown or upload videos. The User can turn off the vehicle and leave as the mobile recorder system will automatically proceed with the upload and shutdown operation once the video processing is complete.

6. The mobile recorder system will begin to upload the videos and show progress of the upload.

   CAUTION: Do NOT remove the MHDD or unplug the Ethernet cable during this upload process.

   Note: If the Upload and Shutdown option was selected, the mobile recorder system will automatically shut down when the upload is complete.

7. Disconnect the Ethernet cable once the upload is complete.
Exit the System

The mobile recorder system is capable of automatically shutting down following the upload and processing of videos stored in the MHDD. This enables users to select the shutdown option, turn off the vehicle, and leave with the confidence of knowing the data stored on the system will not be lost.

1. Tap MENU from the Camera View screen.

2. Tap EXIT SYSTEM at the bottom of the screen.
3. For wireless upload, tap Shutdown or Upload & Shutdown to shutdown the mobile recorder system.

Note: Upload & Shutdown will upload videos prior to shutdown (see page 38 for more information on this function.)

4. The mobile recorder system will process all videos for upload.

Note: In some cases the mobile recorder system must finish processing videos before it can properly shutdown or upload videos. The User can turn off the vehicle and leave as the mobile recorder system will automatically proceed with the upload and shutdown operation once the video processing is complete.

MOR E FUNCTIONS

SYSTEM SUMMARY: Provides the number of recorded videos, number of offender records entered and available recording time with existing mobile hard drive.

CLOSE SHOT: Close shot reduces focus point down to within one inch from the camera for 5 seconds. During this time, a snapshot will be taken for later review.

VIEW SNAPSHOT: Allows the user to view all saved snapshots. Double tap the snapshot to enlarge the photo, double tap again to return to original size.

PRE-EVENT PLAYBACK: Allows the user to playback the pre-event video to manually determine when they would like to start a recording.

EQUIPMENT TEST: Allows the user to test equipment settings for the in-car unit.

EDIT EVENT DATA: Allows the user to add event data to a video while it is being recorded.

IP ADDRESS: Displays the IP address of the recording unit.

RECORD INDICATOR: Allows the user to activate or disable the red LED indicator in front of the camera. The LED is used to alert the user of the camera's recording status.

TRAFFIC WATCH: Will adjust back from manual zoom to user selected zoom setting in the back office, when recording is triggered.

NIGHT MODE: Blinks the in-car monitor for clarity and reduce glare.

COLOR MODE: By default, color mode is ON, turning it OFF will revert camera to black and white mode which may be useful at night to enhance lighting and reduce glare.

*Only two video channels can be recorded simultaneously.

This information is stored in the Mobile Hard Disk Drive until it can be transferred to the BOClient.

This manual addresses the steps needed to properly use the Mobile recording system.

Login

Based on the system settings configured by the department users may need to login to the mobile recorder system using a valid user ID and password at the beginning of each shift. Other login types are described on page 7. This information allows the mobile recorder system to transfer videos taken during the shift to BOClient to be properly stored and classified in the DVMS. Complete the steps described in this section to login to the mobile recorder system.

Turn On the Mobile Recorder

1. Start the vehicle.
2. Turn on the mobile recorder using the On/Off switch on the monitor.
3. Allow the system to boot up.
Login to the Mobile Recorder

1. After the mobile recording system has been powered up, the Mobile Start Recorder software will initiate and display the Officer Login screen.

2. The officer ID should be automatically entered into the appropriate field from information input during MHDD checkout. If not, enter the appropriate Officer ID in the field provided.

   Note: Tap Officer ID or Password to access the virtual keypad.

3. Type your password using the virtual keypad then tap OK.

4. Tap Login.

5. The System Time and Date screen will appear.

6. Change the system time and date if it is incorrect using the appropriate arrow keys.
